Others Promise to Follow. Chicago, July 26 .- With all peace negotiations broken off, and with the allied trades unions employed at the different plants, with the exception of the teamsters and stationary engineers, out on strike in sympathy with the butcher workmen who quit work two weeks ago, the stock yards strike last night had settled down to what promises to he one of the bitterest fights between

Candidate for Vice President Will Marry at Eighty-Drie Years of Age.

Philadelphia, July 26.-A special to the North American from Washington, D. C., says: News comes from Shepardstown, West Virginia, that ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, will in the fall marry Mrs. Catherine Reynolds, widow of Dr. John Reynolds of Shepardstown. Mrs. Reynolds is seventy years old while Senator Davis is eighty-one.

There is a youthful romance back of the story. When Mr. Davis was a railroad brakeman he became a suitor for her hand. He proposed to the young lady, whose maiden name was Catherine Cashwa. She was willing, but the family, which was one of the most prominent in Washington county, Maryland, objected because he was only a poor railroad man. Davis disappeared and she later married Dr. Reynolds. Mrs. Reynolds has two grown-up children and half a dozen grandchildren.

Sugar Plant for Denver.

Denver, July 26.-The Republican this morning says: It is the intention of the Denver Sugar, Land and Irrigation Company to go into sugar beet culture on an extensive scale in the Clark colony grounds, in the Cherry creek valley not far from Denver, and have a beet sugar factory built in the next year.

The first step in this direction is to have good roads built so that the beets can be carted to the railroads and the factory. At a conference held with the county commissioners of Adams and Arapahoe countles, John W. Springer, secretary and treasurer of the land company, secured the adoption of a resolution pledging the countles to do

F. F. Rixon, connected with the fore estry department, passed through Albuquerque July 18th en route to the Pecos reserve. The object of his trip is to examine eight townships added to the present limits of the reserve, thus bringing the boundary of the reserve south to Pecos, two miles farther, west to near Santa Fe, and north twenty-four miles. From the Pecos Mr. Rixon goes to Taos, for the purpose of ex-amining twenty townships set aside for a forest reserve.

New Mexico Grop Conditions.

According to the crop bulletin issued by the New Mexico weather bureau July 19th the drouth was still anbroken. It says that wheat is nearing harvest but the yield will be poor. Some of the northern ranchmen are cutting native hay, but, as a rule, the meacows are very short. The ranges have been grazed so close that the outlook for fall and winter feed is not promising. Losses of sheep and cattle.

Early peaches are coloring and apricots are ripening in northern counties; currants and cherries are on the markets. The temperature has averaged three degrees above the normal. Light, scattered showers occurred, but no relief has been experienced from the dryness of the past two weeks.

Western counties generally are suf-fering, and even the more favored eastern counties report a marked decrease in the water supply. Grass is beginning to brown and vegetation shows the effects of dryness. Wind storms have prevailed in many localities, drying the soil and adding to the unfavorable conditions. At Santa Fe, however, showers on the night of the 19th temporarily relieved the drouth. A forty-mile-an-hour wind on the rht of the 18th did much damage fruit, broke down many trees and the United States Indian school and the botter building was unroofed. The showers extended over the greater

Will Direct Machinists! Strike-

An Albuquerque dispatch of July 18th says: T. L. Wilson, fourth vicepresident of the International Association of Machinists, who arrived here Friday night to take charge and direct the strike of the machinists against the Safta Fe to-night addressed an enthusiastic meeting of men and women who filled Colombo half to the doors. Re claimed that the machinists had no strike against the Santa Fe, but had been locked out. There was no cause for a strike, he said, and the machinists would return to work if the "scabs" were dismissed and the shops opened to union men-

Wilson scored Judge B. S. Baker frequently, referring to him as the "Injunction judge," and poked (un at Attorney Ralph E. Twitchell, at whose request the ironclad injunction was issued. He said that a petition signed by 20,000 machinists would be forwarded to Washington, D. C., asking for the removal of Benjamin 8. Baker, judge of the Second Judicial district of New Mexico.

Wilson will make Albungerque his headquarters while Santa Fe strike continues, issuing strike bulletins from this place. He declares that the Santa Fe will not show the vital effects of the strike until after five months and prophenies that a peaceful agreement will be made with the company before the close of the year.

Pecos Forest Reserve.

The property owners along the up per Pecos have petitioned the De partment of the Interior to include in the Pecos forest reserve the township in which Pecos is situated and the township north of it. The land well timbered. Though the timber is not of a merchantable quality it is of great value in preserving the water supply. The inclusion of these townships in the reserve would not interfere with any vested rights.

One of the objects of the settlern is to exclude goats from ranging in these two townships and making it well-nigh impossible to maintain good roads or a good range. It is being recog-nized now that the establishment of the reserve was of great benefit not only to the cities of Santa Fe and Las Vegas, but also to the dwellers on the reserve, for it assures them a good range, government supervision, game and fish protection and many improvements.

It also has resulted in bringing more visitors to that section. Despite the drouth all stock on the reserve looks well. A party of the United States Geological Survey arrived in Santa Fe a few days since to investigate the

NOTED TROUBADOUR DEAD.

Famous Valencia County Blind Musician Dies of Old Age. A Santa Fe dispatch of July 15th says: Jose Maria Griego, the Valencia county troubadour at San Rafael, Vallencia county, died at his home to-day of old age. For the last few years Mr. Griego has been blind. He was a fine musician on the violin and for over sixty years has been playing at all festivals, marriages and baptisms.

He was a native of Cebolleta and was a man of wonderful memory. At the time that the suit to quiet title to the Cebolleta grant was tried in Albuquerque, he astonished the lawyers when he testified that he knew the names of over 300 of the heirs of the original grantees of the grant.

For a great many years he traveled from place to place, visiting all the villages of the Spanish settlers, and he was a welcome guest at the homes of an. His arrival in a village was announced by a procession of boys headed by Griego, with his famous violin. In the early days, when the Spanish settlers and the Indians were at war, frequent campaigns would start from Cebolleta for the Indian country. If it was successful a courier would come shead to bring the news to the settlements and a procession of the people would go to meet the returning victorious soldiers and Griego with his violin would head the procession.

It frequently happened that in these campaigns many of the militia were killed by the Indians and their remains would be brought in strapped to their horses. On these occasions processions of the people would also go meet the returning troops, also headed by El Griego, but not with his violin. Then he would lead the people prayer and accompany the remains the dead to the parish church first and then to the house of the families of the deceased. The following morning all the settlers would attend mass and would follow the remains to the cemetery,

There are hundreds of homes in that part of the territory at which Griego played at the baptisms of the grand-parents and at the marriages and baptisms of succeeding generations to the present time. His arrival in any of the villages was an occasion of great rejoicing, for during his stay the people had a good time. There would be bailes and serenades every night and his name will remain as a household word for a long time to come.

An Albuquerque dispatch of July 20th says: It looks very much as if the Albuquerque, Eastern railway, which has been in contemplation for several years, will soon be built by Pennsylvania capitalists, aided by the Gould interests. W. S. Hopewell was here to-night on his way to El Paso on business connected with the survey of a new line from Willard to El Pasc thus giving Denver, via the Denver, & Rio Grande and Santa Fe Central, a direct route to El Paso. While here Mr. Hopewell was met by George L. Brooks, a member of the citizens' committee on terminal facilities for the Albuquerque Enstern. Mr. Hopewell stated that the Pennsylvanta capitalists are ready to definitely close all negotiations relative to the terminals and that they have raised the funds necessary to complete the Albuquerque Eastern, from Morlarity on the Santa Fe Central, to Albuquerque, and for the branch line into the Hagan coal fields. He says that the contract has been signed for sixty miles, of steel rails, to be delivered as fast as possible, some of which are already manufactured and will be shipped west soon. The road will be built through Tijeras canon, west of population. this city, and two large contracting firms are now submitting bids for construction work.

Mr. Hopewell stated that there arrangements are being made with full faith that the citizens of Albuquerque will provide the terminals as heretofore outlined and generally understood.

Mr. Brooks guaranteed Mr. Hopewell that the citizens of Albuquerque will fulfill their part of the contract and, it is hoped that active work will soon

Climate Proves Beneficial.

A Las Vegas dispatch of June 20th says: Governor Jelks of Alabama still occupies his cottage in the city, his wife and daughter remaining here with him. It is gratifying to report that he is improving surely and steadily.

Governor Jelks has a court of seventy Alabamans, nearly all of whom are in a sanitarium here. There are half a dozen prominent doctors, lawyers, judges, bankers and the wives and daughters of prominent citizens of the state. It is quite the thing, since the governor came, for invalids from Alabama to be sent here,

Just as soon as the executive is strong enough to rough it he will be, the guest of J. D. Hand on his magnificent ranch at Los Alamos. Mr. Hand, a son of the state, has also brought from Chicago a splendid trap in which he will convey the gubernatorial party to and from the city.

Mr. Hand is now on his way home from Alabama, where he recently wedded Miss Anna Rivet, a fascinating daughter of the South. He entertains with princely hospitality and the Alabama governor will be assured of one of the times of his life when he is able to enjoy it.

The Spanish nobleman, Don Jose Julia, consul for Spain at Truxilio, Spanish Honduras, and Governor Guillen and their families, have been, by permission of the Santa Fe authorities, lodged in the hospital of the company at the Monteguma hot springs, where they are taking the baths. Consul They advise his remaining here for several months. He is improving rapidly.

The Santa Fe Central will install a telephone system for train order and stock of $20,000, and the Western Tie message work. There are but few such company, with headquarters at Alba-lines, but those in operation are said of the interior and the attorney gento be successful.

Rain at Albuquerque.

An Albuquerque dispatch of July 20th says: The first good rain which soaked the ground since June 17, 1903, fell here this afternoon, and clouds indicate more to follow. Although it is nearly two months later than the usual spring rainy season, the rains now will do an immense amount of Stock has suffered greatly on the plains and even out in the mountains where water holes were never dry before, cattle and sheep have died for want of grass and water. A Santa Fe dispatch of July 21st says: There have been downpours of rain on the Pecos forest reserve every day since Sunday. To-day a cloudburst caused a washout on the main road for three miles from Macho to the Indian Creek canon. The upper Pecos river has risen seven feet.

The General Land Office has decided in favor of the plaintiff in the case of V. H. Fitchman, manager of the Santa Fe Water and Light Company versus John L. Zimmerman, involving the large reservoir of the Santa Fe Water and Light Company, upon which Zimmerman had filed a homestead.

The Quincy Ranch Company has filed incorporation papers at Santa Fe, the capitalization papers being $50,000. The incorporators and directors are: Clarence E. C. Jewell, George A. Hunt and George A. Titsworth, all of Quincy, Adams county, Illinois. The company will conduct its business in Lincoln county.

B. M. Hall, in charge of the reclamation service in the Rio Grande valley with headquarters at El Paso, has made estimates and recommended the construction of a concrete dam or log crib dam on the Rio Puerco river near Casa Salazar. He also is making specifications for a diversion dam on the Rio Grande at Penasco rock, eighteen miles above Las Cruces.

Ex-Gov. L. B. Prince, Indian Super-Henry Mason Baum, returned a few days ago from the Pajarito cliff dwellers' park and reported that here will he no boundary differences with the Santa Clara Indians over establishing the proposed national park. It is believed that with this hindrance out of the way Congress will pass the bill before it this winter. Articles of incorporation have been field at Santa Fe by the Hubbs Union Garment Company, principal place of business, Albuquerque, Bernalillo county. The incorporators and directors are: J. A. Hubbs, Chloe S. Hubbs and William E. Grimmer, all of Albuquerque. The object of the company is to manufacture and sell all kinds of cloth, rubber oil cloth and similar goods. The capital stock is $10,000.

The officials of the Indian Bureau of New Mexico are just completing a census of the Pueblo Indian population of the territory. The census, while not complete, shows that in the seven pueblos north and west of Albuquerque the total will be less than 3,700, show ing that the tribes are slowly but surely passing away. Of all the pueblos, that at Laguns, west of Albuquerque, is the only one which shows an increase in

M. F. Hawkins, known throughout the territory as "Mitch" Hawkins, died July 18th at San Pedro, southern Santa Fe county. Mr. Hawkins was sixtyfour years old, a native of Canada, and in his early days was a government teamster in New Mexico and Colorado. He is survived by a sister and son, but their whereabouts are unknown. He had lived in the vicinity of San Pedro the past eighteen years, and lately had been employed by the Santa Fe Central Railway Company.

Agents are purchasing cattle and sheep in various sections of New Mexico for the purpose of shipping the stock to South Africa, where the British government will purchase the animals and distribute them among the farmers and sheep growers of the Transvaal and other South African sections. New Mexico stock will do extremely well in South Africa, as the climate there in many respects is akin to that of New Mexico. What they call the Veldt there corresponds very much to the Staked Plains and mesa prairies in this territory.

The final arrangements for the tent city, which is soon to be erected three miles north of Albuquerque, are soon to be completed and the work of building the city begun. Last night Dr. J. E. Miller, who is promoting the propo-sition, left for Fort Wayne, Indiana where he expects to close the deal for the construction of the resort with parties interested. He took with him the plans of the proposed city, drawn by Architect Joseph H. Stahl of Albuquer-que, for the inspection of the stock-holders of the scheme in Indiana. The day before Dr. Miller's departure, the contract was let for 200 tents, to be erected on foundations to be constructed in the near future.-Santa Fe New Mexican.

Denver Packing Houses. Denver, July 25.—The News this morning says: The packing houses of Denver stand to-day exactly where they did one week ago this morning. The settlement and renewal of the strike followed so closely that but lit-tle change could be made in the stockand meat situation in Denver and Colorado, and to-day the western packers are prepared to supply the whole west-ern country. The situation involves these elements:

No raise in prices. A rise at this time would be robbery, say the packers. Complete preparations to the western demand and make inroad on the Missouri river market. Union stockyards will receive 2,000. cattle this week. Plenty of stock in call for the whole western country. Every Denver packer is again ready for the critical situation which the wrike in the trust plants has precipitated. The Western and Colorado packing house managers last night stated that out few men had been discharged and toat a full force would be work ing to-day, preparing to meet all local demands. Managers of both plants insisted that there was not the slighest reason for a rise in prices and that they would sell meat at the same old

REPUBLICAN TROUBLES MULTIPLY.

The Republican managers are not so cocksure as they were. On the contrary they are just beginning to earn how thoroughly cemented together the Democratic party is and how thoroughly disorganized the Republican party is. Following the ominous breach in the Republican ranks in Wisconsin, Senator Scott rushes to Washington with a tale of woe that is calculated to draw tears from a stone. He says that his colleague, Steve El kins, is working hand in hand with Senator Davis to turn West Virginia over to the Democrats next fall, and thus prevent Scott's re-election. He says that Eikins is not greatly concerned for the election of Roosevelt.

Chairman Babcock also has troubles to confide to Cortelyou about the Wisconsin situation, and Secretary Metcalf, formerly a representative of California, is disturbed at the claims of the California Democrats, who are loudly asserting that they will carry the State. Every day it is dawning upon the Republican leaders that they are due to encounter a great Democratic tidal wave this fall. The area of debatable ground is constantly expanding. At first they were inclined to to put West Virginia, Delaware and Portales, New Mexico. Maryland in the doubtful column, but even old Crosvenor is beginning to admit that Republican chances are slender in those States.

Now California, Idaho, Montana and Utah are not only regarded no longer as certain Republican territory, but strong indications point to Democratic success in those States. New York is almost hopeless from a Republican standpoint, and even days. Republican papers and leaders in G. L. Caldwell, Agt. M. K. and T. R. Indiana admit that the Democrats R., Checotah, Ind. Ter., writes, April have as good a chance to carry the 18, 1963: "I was sick for over two perhaps elsewhere, are shocked at has not strengthened the ticket a

ZEBRA BROKEN TO SADDLE.

Recent Successful Experiment at the London Zoo.

Zebras as carriage horses and for riding purposes may soon be a common sight, for a recent experiment at the London Zoo has demonstrated that these beautifully striped animals can be easily tamed and that they are even more docile and easily managed, when broken in, than the gentlest of ordinary

After spending four hours in breakable to ride it handily.

His first pupi! was Jennie, a nineyear-old zebra, presented to King Edward by the Emperor Menelik of Abyssinia. When first led into the paddock she was fidgety and nervous. In order to soothe her Captain Hayes stroked her gently with a long rod. She stood quite still during this proceeding, seeming not to resent it in the

But when a man approached her with a halter she plunged and reared, racing madly around and around the paddock. Presently she quieted down, and the trainer got near enough to slip a rope around her right leg. She tried to kick it loose, but in doing so got her left leg entangled in it. She was thrown forward on her front legs in a kneeling position, and then, with a gentle push, sent rolling on her side. Her four legs were then bound with ropes until she was utterly helpless. For an hour she was left in this plight, then the ropes were removed from her feet and she got up a meek and submissive creature.

She stood still while a bit was placed in her mouth and a saddle strapped to her back. Captain Hayes climbed into the saddle, and Jennie consented to be ridden. She makes an excellent saddle horse, intelligent, fast and thoroughly to be relied upon -Black and White.

"I was out here then with a Harvard expedition," said Professor Brewer to a group of guests at the Cliff house in Manitou recently, "and an accident was all that prevented us from exploring the Pike's Peak region. We were headed in this direction from Fairplay when our wagons broke down and had to be taken back to Denver for Railroads had not even been dreamed of by the people out here then," continued the professor, and Indians were more common than white men. Why, I recall that the most amusing sight of the trip was the spec-tacle of an Indian trying to ride an old-fashioned wooden velocipede on what is now Larimer street in Denver. Traffic on that thoroughfare was stopped by the crowd that gathered to laugh at the savage, who in vain tried to mount the 'bone shaker,' as they called it.

"That was a tame affair compared with the scalp dance that a band of Utes and Arapahoes engaged in," addof a new cultivator which he will use ed the speaker. In the former the sight of a couple of dogs drag-ging along a pushcart loaded with vegetables, flowers or shining milk cans is a familiar one. They trot along un-derneath the cart, within easy reach of the blunt toe of the sabot of the woman who walks behind it to guide it by the handles attached at that point. In Belgium the dogs are hitched in front, as the Russians attach their horses to their droskies, three abreast, and are guided by a pair of rope reins fastened to a muzzle about the nose of the dog in the middle. Recently the National Cart Dogs' Association, organized to regenerate the original race of Belgian mastiffs, held its first exhibition of cart dogs. The Flemies breeders have found that in crossing the Belgian mastiffs with the Great Danes, with the idea of increasing the size of the cart dogs, and so securing additional strength, they made a mistake. The result proved to be animals with weak hind-quarters and disproportionate limbs. Now they are endeavoring to revive the original

THE SCIENCE

Not to satiate one's self with food is the science of health. Choose such food as agrees with stomach, taking only such quantity as it could easily digest. Never fear that your life will be shortest by the reason of not taking much food. The result depends not upon how much we eat, but how much of it is digested and assimilated.
