A Cubeb Joke

No, we are not going to tell any names, and anyone who does is a perjurer, for all have been sworn to secrecy. But, a certain bon vivante, a-la Puritan, albeit, unexpectedly dropped in at a meeting of the Society for the Relief of Bad Colds one day since our last issue, and was dreadfully shocked to see the darling of his dreams drawing long and apparently delightful whiffs from what he in his simplicity, thought to be a cigarette. The entire company were taking the prescription of a well known local medico, and were using cubebes. The editor is neither a "sport" nor a fatalist, but he makes this standing offer: He will take any or all of the quartet off the hands of any dissatisfied he-angel who has a claim or thinks he has one. This is backed by a cash guarantee, and she or they may use Henry Clays and cut plug if they so desire. Our ancestors were equally divided between the Mayflower bunch and the court of Elizabeth all originating in the bogs of dear old Killarnay. Will the band please play "The Irishman's Heart to the Ladies," while we recite:
Farewell, but whenever you welcome the hour, that shall come to awaken the night bird in your bower, please think of the friend who once welcomed it, too, and forgot his own woes to be happy with you. ? ? ?

Free Bibles for Children.

All the children of Portales and vicinity between the ages of four and fifteen years who attend the Revival conducted by Evangelists House and Baird in the Armory Friday, Saturday or Sunday and hand in their names and ages to Evangelist Ernest House will receive a free copy of the Gospel of Matthew and later other books of the New Testament until they have all of the New Testament, each in a volume by itself.
The requirement made of the children is that they attend some Sunday school every Sunday that they can and prepare their lessons before the Sunday school hour. It makes no difference to the Evangelist which Sunday school the child attends nor with what denomination the child or child's are affiliated. The children's work done by Rev. House is entirely non-sectarian and inter-denominational and all Sunday schools and Churches get the benefit of it.

Announcement

The Woman's Club will meet in regular session Wed. Dec. 11. A business session will be held from 3 to 3:30, after which a program will be rendered Home Economics department. Subjects: General Statement of the Food Problem, Mrs. Nixon; food principles, Dietary standards, Mrs. McDonald; cereals and their products, fruits, nuts, Mrs. Sledge; Lecture, "Relation of good teeth to good health," by Dr. Hough. The meeting will be opened promptly at three o'clock.

Woman's Club Civics Class

The Civics Department of the Woman's Club will meet at the millinery parlors of Mrs. A. B. Seay at 8 to 4 p. m., Monday, December 9th. All members are requested to be present.

President Wheeler Visits

Mrs. Cora Wheeler, of Tucumcari, President of the New Mexico Rebecca Assembly, was in Portales Thursday and Friday on an official visit to Miriam Rebecca Lodge No. 20. While here she helped the Portales lodge initiate several candidates, and was one of the guests of honor at the Rebecca and Odd Fellow reception and banquet, Thanksgiving Eve. Mrs. Wheeler made a very interesting talk on "Rebeccas" which was highly appreciated. The local membership hopes that she may soon visit here again.

Some Tree Planting

Dr. Bailey is putting trees and plants on his farm that will, when finished, amount to 2700.
W. M. Cox has an order coming that will plant five acres.
W. B. Buchanan has planted three sides of his farm to shade trees, for protection, and will now set twenty acres to apples.
Sam Herdman, who is looking after the local trade, has ordered 2,000 five-year old cherry trees which will be set in a solid block, this section being considered by experts as one of peculiar adaptability for the cherry.
Plant trees. Any good nursery can supply them, but if you want the best, patronize some nursery that is not ashamed to advertise its wares in your home papers. Savvy?

Baptist Services Sunday

There will be the regular services at the Baptist church the coming Sunday, including Sunday school, at ten o'clock in the morning, and at 6:30 in the evening. The pastor, E. F. Aldredge, will have for his morning theme: "All Things Work Together For Good." At the evening service the theme will be, "Some Things Which Cheapen the Religion of Our Lord."
We are to have these services, not in opposition to the special services at the Armory, or any where else, as for that, but for the reason that nothing like all the people in Portales who attend church regularly can get into any one church or auditorium we have, and the Christian people often go and crowd in and crowd out the unsaved people who should have the right-of-way in all special services. We believe, therefore, that it will best serve the cause of Christ to have our regular Services on Sunday, and we hereby invite all who will to come.

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks 1913 Almanac

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks almanac for 1913 is now ready. It is the most splendid number of this popular year book ever printed. Its value has been more than ever proven by remarkable fulfillments of its storms, earthquakes and weather forecast this year. Professor Hicks justly merits the confidence and support of all the people. Don't fail to send 35c for his 1913 almanac, or only one dollar for his splendid magazine and almanac one year. The best one dollar investment possible in any home or business. Send to Word and Works Publishing company, 8401 Franklin Ave., St. Louis, Mo. (Adv. 11.)

Congress in Session

The curtain rose Monday on the last round of the present congress. Speaker Clark broke two gavels stopping the hilarity.

Topics for Coming Sermons

The revival meeting conducted by the Central Christian Church by Evangelists House and Baird in the Armory will continue over next Sunday and the following topics have been announced for coming sermons:
Thursday night: "The great Cloud of Witnesses."
Friday night: "The Short Bed and Narrow Cover."
Saturday night: "Weighed and Found Wanting."
Sunday morning at 11 o'clock "What is a Christian."
Sunday at 8 p. m.: "Popular Conceptions." Consisting mainly of the reading of letters written to Evangelist House by young men of Portales setting forth their conception of a "Model Young Lady" and letters written by the young ladies setting forth their conception of a "Model Young Man."
Sunday 7 p. m.: "Change of Heart" (Illustrated by a Chart)
J. V. Beard has distinguished himself as the greatest religious music director that has ever been heard in the Pecos Valley and he leads a great song program at every service and sings a solo. The congregations attending the revival every service are large and the Evangelists hold most perfect attention of the people throughout all services.

World's Fair Note

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. The Daughters of the American Revolution throughout the State of California, through their various chapters, are not only endorsing the campaign inaugurated by the school children of California to secure the Liberty Bell for the 1915 Exposition, but are planning to use their great organization to bring the priceless relic to this city during the world's fair.

Mrs. I. N. Chapman of Alameda, who is State Regent of the California Daughters of the American Revolution, and Miss Suzanne Patch, chairman of the committee on patriotic education of the organization are sending out letters to the Chapter Regents in this city and other sections of California, as follows:
"The school children in the State of California have inaugurated a campaign to bring the Liberty Bell to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, which is to be held in San Francisco in 1915.
"This petition has been signed by nearly 250,000 children in the state, and when completed is to be sent to the Mayor of the City Council of Philadelphia for consideration.
"The enclosed resolutions submitted to your chapter, with the request that they be adopted and the members be called upon to use their utmost endeavors to aid the children in their worthy campaign.
"It is also suggested that the newspapers of your city be notified of the passage of the resolutions, or similar in character, so that the widest publicity may be given to the efforts of the Daughters of the Revolution in carrying out this plan.
"Will you kindly notify me when action is taken by your chapter in this matter."

Paris, Ark. June 27, 1912

To the Disciples of Christ
wherever these presents
may come:--

Evangelist Ernest House has just closed, for us, the most satisfactory and generally profitable revival our Church has ever had. Brother House's sermons have never been excelled in this community and his personal conduct has been such as to place him in the highest esteem of all classes of people here.

Brother House not only preaches the true Gospel sermons, but he is also endowed with a personality, fine diction, and effective manner of speaking that attracts large audiences at every service and moves men and women to put on Christ Jesus. The methods employed by Brother House are unique -- different than those of other evangelists -- and thoroughly satisfactory and commendable in every respect. The standing of our Church in the community has been elevated greatly by his methods, conduct and sermons. His work with the children who become his "Juniors" deserves special commendation.

We unqualifiedly recommend Brother Ernest House as a Christian gentleman and an evangelist of ability and consecration.

Odd Fellows and Friends Banquet

On Thanksgiving evening the Portales Rebecca and subordinate lodges of Odd Fellows, assisted by their friends, had a regular old fashioned eat fest at the Commercial club. The affair was one of welcome to Mrs. Wheeler, of Tucumcari, president of the New Mexico Rebecca association; one of farewell to past Grand Master Twigg, who goes to Albuquerque to reside; and an appropriate observance of this great American feed day by the members of the order and the friends who were their guest and assistants. There was an informal reception at the lodge room at which short addresses were made by Mrs. Wheeler, Mr. Twigg and others and the interludes filled with sweet music by the Portales band. Tables were spread at the Commercial club and all callers made welcome. One of the finest suppers of the season dispensed, enough eatables to feed the entire town vanished before the Thanksgiving appetites. Everybody had a good time, a good supper and genuine cause for returning thanks to the Giver of all good things. The welcome and the speeding of the principal guest was all that could be desired and the hearty co-operation of all who took part made it look like a get-together boosters banquet. The Herald force extends thanks for the best feed we have had in the city. We wish them all many happy returns of the occasion—with the consequent invitation to us.

M. E. Church Bazaar

The ladies of the M. E. church will have a bazaar on December 18th, at the Orsborn building. All kinds of hand made Christmas gifts will be offered for sale and a liberal patronage will be appreciated.

Portales vs Clovis

The P. H. S. football team and the local youngster, defeated Clovis, last Thursday. This is all we could learn about the game.

The Editor's Conscience

When a girl with a face like a cream puff marries a youth who never earned a dime outside of a shooting gallery, the editor has to paint the bride as a radiant version of blushing beauty and the groom as "one of our rising young business men," or else disappoint an expectant circle of delinquent subscribers. If the editor fails to spread a two column obituary over a prominent citizen who never paid a grocery bill outside of the justice court he is liable to be walled upon by some two fisted relative of the deceased with an injured air and a punch in either hand.—Ex.

Odd Fellows Election

Portales Lodge I. O. O. F. at its last meeting elected the following officers for the ensuing term: T. M. Littlejohn, Noble Grand; R. M. Sanders, Vice Grand; W. J. Martin, Res. Secty; J. N. McCall, Treasurer.

A Good Asset

One of the best this valley has is, like most things of genuine worth, modest and unassuming. We refer to James Ryther, a lad of some 78 years young, who is raising onions of such heavy yield that they can hardly find stacking room on the plat where raised, sweet peppers so large that we hesitate at description, and celery so crisp and succulent that Avery Turner calls it "delicious". A demonstration plant with James Ryther to show'em how to plant, irrigate, cultivate and harvest the crops he so successfully raises would be worth more to this town and valley than a sugar beet factory; we are not depreciating the advantages a sugar factory offers, either. Greater acreage in the vegetables named, with success in raising, would soon bring us the sugar factory, too.

John Beall Sneed Acquitted

John B. Sneed who killed Col. Boyce and his son Al. was acquitted of the former last Monday, the jury taking but two ballots.

Fire in Portales

Last Friday night the barn at the wagon yard of U. N. Hall, on Main street, caught on fire and was nearly consumed before it was discovered, most of the people being either in bed or at the revival service. The fire department turned out as soon as an alarm was given and saved the adjoining buildings, as well as fences and other buildings in the yard. Origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is about $1,000. Fortunately the night was calm, for a very light wind would have meant the burning of several of the adjoining business blocks.

Twiggs to Albuquerque

W. M. Twiggs and family moved to Albuquerque last week and will reside there for the present. The best wishes of the whole town accompany them to their new home.

Southern Pacific Bond Employees

Beginning with January 1 of next year, the Harriman Lines will assume all bond premiums of employes in their service, according to an announcement made at the offices of the Southern Pacific company here to-day. In the past, it has been the custom to require all men handling money to put up a security bond, and the premium on it has been paid by the employe, himself. After the first of the year this expense will be borne by the railroad company.

On the Pacific System of the Southern Pacific, alone, there are about 45,000 employes, and the new arrangement, it is said, will involve a heavy expenditure annually.

New Auto Mail Line

Boosters of Roswell and Clovis are camping on the trail of the postal department for an auto mail line connecting the live wire metropolis with Governor McDonald's burgh, and Roswell usually gets what it wants.

Roswell Morning News

The Roswell Morning News now has a new-old working force. Col. John Tipton retires from the editorial chair to try to recurate in some lower altitude, his health having been poor for many months past. N. O. Shanks, the first city editor of the sheet, now takes his old position, Walter Brandon returns to his place on the advertising department, the utilitarian Will Robinson takes the comedio tragic part of night editor, and if they would now hang the name of Lucius Dills at the head of the editorial page, it would look like the good old days before the hard times. Here is wishing you all success, boys.

As to Free Salvation Etc

We do not often notice what is said by a knocker, but a remark about the revival meeting now in progress here is worthy of notice because of the reversed truth which it covers. The speaker shall be forever nameless, but here are his words: "This religion that has to be advertised so much is a rather punk affair if salvation is free. It ought to be able to stand on its own merits." Now that is just exactly where any creed of Christian religion DOES stand—on its merits, and our friend's remarks about free salvation only emphasize his ignorance. Salvation and mercy are "without price" so far as being able to buy them at so much, cash, per sal, and per mercy, but we cannot, from the very nature of things, get ANYTHING with any value to it without paying for it in some way. We get salvation in return for right living: mercy is repayment of our loan to others; religion is the exemplification of those things connected with right living. Religion does not have to be advertised to be good, but the Master issued orders to his disciples to publish the good news to the whole world, i. e.; that salvation cannot be bought for so much per, but depends upon the individual's actions, thoughts and words. The editor believes in the Rev. Ernest House, because HE believes in his religion and is not ashamed of it. If it needed any apology he would get out of the business and stop advertising it. All men who are ashamed of their business shy at publicity. Sinners do not publish their programme, because they are ashamed for the world to know it. The moral is plain: Get into some business that you are not ashamed to advertise to the world. Selah! (Unsolicited.)

Interesting Features in Revival

The letters written to the young men of Portales asking them to write a letter to Evangelist Ernest House telling him their conceptions of a "Model Young Woman" and written to the young ladies of Portales asking for a letter telling their conceptions of a "Model Young Man" will constitute the special feature at the three o'clock meeting conducted in the Armory next Sunday afternoon by Evangelists House and Baird. All the letters written to Rev. House will be read publicly at that time and will form the principal part of his address on "Popular Conceptions." This sermon is rather a departure from the ordinary sermon but we predict that it will be of great interest and benefit to those who are fortunate enough to get seats for that service.

Partnership with Biddy

Frank Snipes, the retired Roswell merchant and this is not one of his ads, has embarked in the indulgence of his fancy-raising chickens. Having given so much publicity to his former business, and with such favorable results, he doubtless had an eye to business when he took for a partner the greatest advertiser on earth—Biddy the hen.

As to Catalogues and Such

No, Lucile, we cannot furnish you with dry goods catalogues nor in fact, any other except printers' supply houses. We do our trading at home when there is a merchant in town who handles our goods. You will save money by doing the same—provided, ALWAYS, that the merchant advertises. We advise you to pass up as suspicious the stuff that any dealer is ashamed to advertise. Your home town paper is a catalogue of what the live trades-people in your town have to sell. Try trading with them.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

A pure, healthful, Cream of Tartar Baking Powder

When buying an article of food you are entitled to know exactly what you are buying—its quality and ingredients.

If this information is refused don't buy it.

Some of the low grade baking powders are advertised, but the ingredients of the powders are scrupulously concealed.

A housekeeper would not use a baking powder containing alum if she knew it.

It is well when buying to examine the label on the can. Unless it shows the ingredient cream of tartar, don't buy it.

Dr. Price's baking powder is absolutely free from alum.

Judge Drake Bell, democratic wheelhorse of Roswell, was in the city between trains Wednesday, returning from Clovis, where he had been on business. Judge Bell is a prominent candidate for the U. S. EVANGELIST HOUSE ANNOUNCES MOST INTERESTING SUBJECT FOR SUNDAY NIGHT

The revival meeting conducted for the Christian Church by Evangelist Ernest House in the tent is proving to be one of the most effective series of meetings ever held in Stigler. The membership of the Christian church has been considerably more than doubled since the meeting began and an intense interest has developed throughout the community as well as among the members of the church. The sermons preached by Evangelist House have all been of a sane, practical, common-sense teaching nature, presenting the facts of the Bible concerning the human family, sin, righteousness, hell, heaven, God and Christ so plainly and effectively that the thinking people have been stirred and helped to higher realm of living. Rev. House has a very unique way of preaching. His style is so much different than the ordinary preacher that it is unexpected and refreshing. His sermons are free from exciting recitals and sensational stories. He does not hypnotize his audience into accepting Christ by putting them through a series of tests and propositions—but he affirms that one thing only is necessary and that is Jesus Christ and He can be had by all who will believe in Christ, confess their faith in Jesus Christ, repent of their sins and be baptized, and his simple straightforward way of presenting these facts has brought the force of the Gospel, unimpeded, into the hearts of many and moved them into obedience to Jesus Christ. Rev. House and his assistants, Mr. J. V. Baird and wife, make the best co-workers. Stigler has ever enjoyed the work of a song-leader or soloist equal to Mr. Baird. He is a prince of a man and a master of his art. In spite of the fact that the tent is not conducive to the best results in the musical programs, Mr. Baird is succeeding in making every song service a great treat for our people. Mrs. Baird is the pianist of the team and is one of the most accomplished musicians of the country, and a charming young woman. The evangelist, the song-leader and the pianist all work in perfect harmony as though all three were but one person. There is no friction, no mistakes, no misunderstandings, but each knows what to do and when to do it and the services are all conducted in a manner exceedingly refreshing.
