GREAT BOOSTER MEETING

Large Amount of Money Contributed For Roosevelt County Fair

AN EVENING OF GREAT ENJOYMENT

Clovis Band And Several Boosters From That City Were Visitors

A booster meeting full of enthusiasm attended by a large crowd was held at the Cozy theater Monday night in the interest of the Roosevelt county fair. Through the efforts of the Fair Commission the Clovis Band from Clovis came down gratuitously Monday afternoon and also a number of the most prominent business men of that town.

The band entertained a large number of Portales people when a short concert was given on the lawn about five o'clock. Shortly before eight o'clock, the meeting in the Cozy was opened and the band rendered several selections in a most pleasing manner. A. A. Rogers of the Fair Commission was master of ceremonies. The address of welcome was made by Judge Jas. A. Hall who complimented the members of the band very highly and welcomed the citizens of Clovis. A short address was made by Judge G. L. Reese along the lines of our possibilities for a fair.

Among the Clovis citizens who spoke were Mayor Cash Ramey, Fred James and Chas. Dennis. These gentlemen are live wires and they told the audience about the great fair they expect to hold in Curry county. They also spoke of the great possibilities of Roosevelt county. Through their talks the citizens learned what must be done if Roosevelt county expects to take her place among the other counties of the state. About 8:45 the visitors departed for home.

After the visitors left Mr. Rogers gave an outline of what the fair commission was going to try to do. Talks were made by Judges Lindsey and Mears, Capt. Molinari, Dr. Bailey, E. P. Kuhl and others. All were unanimous for a great county fair. While the talks were along the booster line, the humorous side was not forgotten and the meeting was the scene of much merriment. It was a great meeting and such should be held more frequently.

The last but perhaps the most important part of the meeting was the subscriptions made by the business men and citizens toward the county fair fund. In a short time nearly $900 was raised.

Here From Texas.

J. D. Hurley, former county surveyor, and one of the early settlers here came in from Kinble county Texas last week and expects to make arrangements to return to Portales. He was accompanied by Walter Tinsley, wife and father and J. B. Stevenson who were his neighbors. These people like the Portales Valley and have returned to Texas to make plans to return and settle here. Mr. Hurley says that there are many other families in that part whom he expects to come to Portales.

County Commission Prepares For Big Fair

Conditions could not be more promising for a great Roosevelt county fair. The meeting at the Cozy theater Monday night demonstrated beyond a doubt that the citizens want a record breaker and are going to co-operate. In a few minutes almost $900 was subscribed and each day the list is growing.

The fair commission and their secretary, Dr. Reid, are hard at work making preparations for the greatest fair or exhibition of any kind that has ever been held in Roosevelt county. They have started early that every detail may be worked out and nothing omitted to make the fair a genuine success.

The amount subscribed by the citizens will probably reach more than $1000 and there is in the treasury something like $760. The commissioners have some other plans they are working out which will probably be equivalent to nearly $1000.

There will be plenty of wholesome amusements and their will be nothing along that line but which will meet with the approval of the most fastidious. The plans for these have not been entirely complete as yet but we expect to have some special announcements next week.

Cattle Active at Taiban

Reports from Taiban indicate that the cattle business is booming in that locality and that our former fellow townsman John Tyson is still very much in the game. It is reported that he paid Charles Epps $105 per head for 110 head of white faced cows and that it is the largest price ever paid in those parts. There is no better cow man in eastern New Mexico than Mr. Tyson and we have every reason to think that he made a buy that is well worth the money. They are all full bloods. Tyson offered $60 per head for the yearling heifers in the Epps herd but was refused.

Lum Arnold sold about 100 head of calves to J. F. Harris, of Tolar who pays the cash and takes the entire crop in the pasture at a price said to be $30 a round.

Reid For Secretary.

Dr. Jno. L. Reid, owner of the Red Feather farm, was a few days ago engaged by the Roosevelt County Fair commission as the secretary of that body. Dr. Reid is a live one along this line and a better man for the place could not have been secured in the county. He is now hard at work looking after the details and getting up a premium list.

ROOSEVELT COUNTY IS GREAT SHEEP COUNTRY

Farmers Have Found That The Raising of Live Stock Is Essential To Successful Farming And Are Striving To Get Them

BUFFALO JONES' PERSIAN HERD IS MOST FAMOUS IN COUNTY

Sheep Business Has Been Underestimated Here But Those Who Have Tried Have Made Large Returns On Capital Invested

Sheep raising is an important but limited industry in Roosevelt county. It is probable that if the business were better understood and the accruing profits better known, the present number of sheep in the county would multiply several times over.

In England an average of one breeding ewe is raised for every acre and a fraction of land the country over. Scarcely more than one sheep to every hundred acres is raised in New England. From the University of Illinois comes the opinion that up to 100 head of sheep could be maintained on every farm in the commonwealth without materially reducing other products of the farm, and that if this were done the number of sheep in the state would aggregate 10,000,000, making Illinois the leading sheep producing state in the Union.

It is conceded today that the farmers of this county, in years past, made a natural but nevertheless, a grievous mistake in disregarding to the extent they did, live stock as a source of profit. Maximum prosperity for any community will not obtain if the inexorable conditions of nature are not complied with if the game is not played according to the rules. The lesson of history oft repeated is that few communities will prosper for long that fail to engage in the production of live stock.

The cow is the aristocrat of the plains, but there is ground for more than a lurking suspicion that no animal yields a larger return on the capital invested than the sheep.

According to government experts, mutton can be produced with less labor and expense than beef, and much less than milk, dollar for dollar, competent authorities maintain that ordinary fifty percent net, and more is realizable on the capital invested in sheep. Results in Roosevelt county bear witness that this claim is verifiable.

No animal equals the sheep as an agency for unmarketable food stuff into saleable products. The Federal department of Agriculture is urging farmers to invest in a few sheep on the ground that they yield handsome profits reduce the weed nuisance, and supply good meat for family use at a minimum cost. Statistics show that the consumption of mutton is on the increase. Fifty years ago wool was the chief product of the sheep industry. Today owing to the high price of meat, a mutton sheep is in demand. Breeding for meat and wool today is regarded a safer venture than breeding mainly for wool. Owing to the rapid increase in the population and the homesteading of the free lands of the west some believe that never again will there be a long or radical decline in the price of meat.

The most widely known herd of sheep in Roosevelt county is the Buffalo Jones Persian and Persian sheep. The first importation of the Persian into this country was made in 1892 by Traxton Beale, United States minister to Persia who brought over six individuals and presented them to Secretary of Agriculture. In 1910 Buffalo Jones imported a ram and two ewes. From this herd many individuals have been shipped, for breeding purposes to Canada and the different states of the Union.

New Manager At Kemp's.

C. A. Skelton of Hereford, Texas arrived Sunday to succeed J. V. Brown as manager of the local yard of Kemp Lumber Co. Mr. Skelton has been manager of Kemp's yard at Hereford and is an old employe of the company.

Mr. Brown goes to Elida where he will work for the same company as manager of the hardware department. Mr. Brown has many friends in Portales who will regret to see him leave.

Rogers To Albuquerque.

A. A. Rogers, chairman of the Roosevelt County Fair commission, left Tuesday for Albuquerque to make arrangements for suitable space for the Roosevelt county exhibit at the state fair. It is quite an advantage to have a desirable location, and then it will be necessary to have extra space for the large exhibit which Roosevelt county expects to send.

The Persians are noted for their hardiness, their fine sense and herding instinct, and the superior quality of their meat. Persian mutton is lauded in song and story. Sing's Kipling: "He who hath never ate of the food By Allah! He knoweth not bad from good"

Returns From Trip.

Judge and Mrs. G. L. Reese returned Sunday from a trip to California where they visited the expositions and also stopped off at several places enroute. The judge was highly pleased with the New Mexico building and says that it is one of the best there and the moving pictures were great. Like others who have traveled to California, the Reeses returned thinking more than ever of our great eastern New Mexico.

Rifle Shoot

The rifle shoot by Co. M. started today on their range north of town, which will continue until Sept. 15. Two men will qualify, to go to Las Vegas where there will be a state wide competition under a United States army officer for two members of the guard to go to Jacksonville, Florida to the National meet.

Premium Book For State Fair Issued

It takes but a perusal of the Premium Book of the New Mexico State Fair to convince one that this is to be the greatest state exposition ever held in New Mexico and that the fair management is ready to redeem all of the promises that have been made to the people of the State. The book carries nearly $10,000 in premium money and is made up of seventeen distinct departments.

The night programs for this fair are very elaborate, as will be seen by glancing at the official program contained in the back of the premium list. They include displays of fireworks costing thousand of dollars and with such big features as aerial warfare, the shelling of the Dardanelle forts, train collisions etc. In addition, there will be horse shows, sensational free acts, illuminated balloon ascensions and vaudeville at the night shows, not to mention the famous Kitties band another musical organization.

There will be a big mid way on the fair grounds proper given over to shows, concessions and the like. The fair has been fortunate in securing one of the best and cleanest carnival companies in the United States with plenty of fine shows. Some of these are attractions that one would pay fifty cents to see if viewed in a theater, but there will be no charge above ten cents and every attraction is of a character that any woman or child can see and be amused and interested. None of undesirable features found with other carnival companies that have played the state fair will be found with the Brundage shows.

The display advertisement of the fair which appears elsewhere in this edition is of interest, as it shows the size of the exhibits to be taken care of. There will be sixteen large halls covering 200,000 feet of space.

The people of the state are requested to remember that one fare rates for the round trip will prevail on all roads and that an information bureau at the Albuquerque depot will direct all visitors to accommodations.

Enthusiastic About Country

One of the most enthusiastic new comers we have seen in some time is A. J. Weaver of Maynard, Ark., who recently acquired the Roach building at Elida from T. D. Cain. Mr. Weaver and Mr. Cain were visitors here last week. Since coming to Elida he has made some more deals and traded for more than $5000 worth of property and some horses and cattle from Mr. Cain. The more he sees of Roosevelt county the better he likes it. He expects several new settlers to come from near his old home and settle near Elida.

Changes Hands.

One of the largest real estate deals made recently was made by Joe Howard a few days ago when he traded properties valued at approximately $5000. The principals in the deal were Dr. A. M. Lampton and a Mr. Kidd of near Redland. Mr. Kidd gets Roosevelt county land for land in the vicinity of Pascook, Texas.

MORE HIGH GRADE CATTLE

Williamson - Oldham Company Buy Part of Herd Near Santa Rosa

BUYERS WANT FIRST CLASS CATTLE

Add Four Hundred More To The Many Thousand They Have Imported

The importing of high grade cattle into Roosevelt county still continues. The latest along this line happened a few days ago when the Williamson-Oldham Cattle company bought 400 head from Chas. Epps. They consist of Hereford cows, calves and heifers. They are from the famous Sumner herd, near Santa Rosa and are expected here about September 6th.

They are not registered stuff but are exceptionally high grade, being the result of several years of careful breeding. It is said that they will compare favorably with many of the registered herds that are in this county.

The herd taken all in all is said to contain the largest cows which have ever been brought into the county. Many of the three year old heifers weigh 1000 pounds each and many of the cows will weigh 1200 or more. They are well proportioned and long bodied.

The stock farmers of Roosevelt county are no longer satisfied with just an ordinary cow. They want something good. They have learned that a good cow costs a little more, but costs no more to keep, and the returns are so much greater. The Williamson-Oldham company know what is required by farmers who expect to buy and they endeavor to import such stock as will be readily sold. This herd adds 400 more to the several thousand head they have brought into the county.

Santa Fe Man Here.

J. Weidon Walter, of Clovis, division engineer for the Santa Fe was here last week looking after some improvements his company is expecting to make. Among these are the sidings that are to be built to the A. L. Gurley Co.'s warehouse and the Roosevelt County Creamery. It is not anticipated that there will be any delay caused as the Santa Fe will have the sidings in readiness by the time the buildings are completed.

To Redland

J. H. Sandefer, wife and daughter accompanied by Bari Johnson and family went to visit the latter's parents near Redland, in Mr. Sandefer's Ford last Sunday. Bari says that he has seen some fine crops raised at Redland but the crops this year surpass anything he has ever seen in that section. There is also some excellent fruit including peaches. He brought in some fine samples which were raised on his father's farm.

J. R. Walker and family of Clovis sat out for Portales Sunday to visit the Buchanan-Brothers and look over the Valley. They were accompanied as far as town by Cash Austin.

SEPT. 6 IS LABOR DAY

GOVERNOR McDONALD ISSUES
PROCLAMATION.

"Real Laborer is the Prime Factor of Civilization—Producing All That Sustains the Life of Nations."

Santa Fe.—Governor William C. McDonald, following the custom of former years, has issued a Labor Day proclamation, naming Monday, Sept. 6th as the day, a legal holiday. His proclamation is as follows:

"Labor in one form or another is the force that moves all the affairs of man. The real laborer is the prime factor of our civilization. By labor is produced all that sustains the life of the nations. It tills the soil, maintains our industries and makes transportation convenient and effective.

"It is but fair and just that we set aside one day on which we may exalt and magnify the importance of the foundation in production of all things that fructify and expand the earth's usefulness to man.

"Now, therefore, in accordance with the law of our land and the custom of our people, I, William C. McDonald, Governor of the state of New Mexico, do hereby proclaim Monday, the 6th day of September, 1915, as Labor Day, and heartily recommend that it be observed by all the people of New Mexico as a legal holiday; that the state offices be closed and the ordinary business of the day be suspended, in order that all may do honor to the great body of our people who labor in the fields, the factories, the forests, the mines, in the shops and on the railroads, and in all the varied industries of the state."

Indian Village Unearthed.

Santa Fe.—Discoveries of great archeological value have been made by the Wilson-Bradfield-Troutman expedition, which concluded a month of excavation work at the ruins of the extinct communal city of Otowi, twenty-eight miles northwest of this city, the work being done under the auspices of the Philadelphia Commercial museum in connection with the University of Pennsylvania. The most important discovery was that of the skeletal remains of a cacique, or chief, of heroic size, accompanied by ceremonial trappings, including copper, turquoise and shell ornaments of great value. There were also unearthed some other forty skeletons, with fifteen ceremonial clay pipes in excellent preservation, specimens of prehistoric basketry and pottery and shards of unusual beauty and unique design. The relics will be packed and sent to the museum at Philadelphia. This is the first excavation work done at this ruin, which is found to have contained at least 1,200 rooms.

Pythian Knights Honor Dead Veteran.

Santa Fe.—In accordance with his dying wish, the funeral procession for the late Capt. Fred Biegner made the entire rounds of the Plaza with the National Guard band at its head, and then wended its way to the National cemetery, where the old veteran was buried. The funeral was under the auspices of Santa Fe Lodge Knights of Pythias. At the house Col. Geo. W. Pritchard, chancellor commander, delivered a eulogy, and at the cemetery the band sounded taps. At the request of the veteran the remains of his wife who preceded him to the grave several years ago were disinterred and then reinterred in the same grave with him.

Nowhere else in the whole field of sport do you find the like of the strong public opinion in favor of Remington-UMC.

This Remington-UMC public opinion has been growing for ninety-nine years. Partly it is due to the achievements of Remington-UMC in the design or construction of Arms and Ammunition. But back of these achievements stands the fact that your American is the most practical-minded sportsman in the world

The Overland is to be preferred above any other car at or near its price, because of certain advantages.

1. No other car at its cost has so much power.
2. It has real riding comfort on account of its real divan upholstery and long underslung springs.
3. It has beauty; the long, low stream line body is pleasing to the eye from any angle.
4. The main feature that should come under consideration when purchasing an automobile are those of pleasure and service, as well as the cost of running per mile.

There is no other car on the market that complies with these demands so well as the Model 83 now on the market.

This is because no other such automobile is produced on any such scale. Seventy-five thousand Overlands of this model alone will be built this year. This means economy in production through vast buying power and specialized manufacturing methods.

It will be a pleasure for us to explain all points to anyone interested in our line of cars.

DAIRY FACTS

VACATIONS FOR DAIRY COWS

Six Weeks Rest is None Too Long for Animal to Rest Between Lactation Periods.

It is fairly well understood that the dairy cow should be given a vacation or a rest between lactation periods. The longer the rest up to a certain point the better it is for the cow. Ten and one-half months continuous milking out of every twelve is all that can be reasonably expected. It is claimed that it is as hard on a cow to produce a liberal yield of milk daily as it is for a horse to work at hard labor all day. When this is fully understood the necessity for a few weeks' rest on the part of the cow becomes evident.

Furthermore, the cow during seven or eight months of the milking period is carrying and developing a calf, which is a further drain on her system. If she is given a few weeks to repair her worn-out body tissues and to store up a little excess fat she will give more in the entire year, than she would milking continuously. If not given a rest before calving, she begins a new lactation period at a lower level of production, and will maintain a lower level through the entire time. Six weeks is none too long for any cow and if she is badly run down ten or twelve weeks will be better.

CREAM OF HIGHEST QUALITY

Can Be Produced With but Little Labor or Expense—Principles Involved Are Simple.

One of the most common causes of poor quality butter is the lack of immediate, thorough cooling of the cream after separation. The dairy division of the United States department of agriculture has made a careful investigation of conditions on a large number of dairy farms, and the data obtained show that, if properly cooled, cream of the best grade can be produced with but little extra labor or expense. The principles involved are very simple and are easily understood.

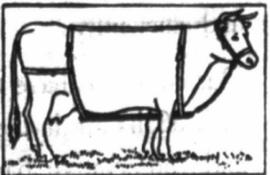

A liberal use of ice which has been stored in winter to be used the following summer is one of the requirements for the solution of the poor butter problem. Farmers who already are delivering good products to the creamery usually have provided for themselves a convenient source of supply for the ice, suitable houses for storing the ice and ice water tanks for the immediate cooling of the milk and cream.

In parts of New England, although the dairymen often hold cream on the farm four days in the summer and seven days in the winter, they deliver practically all their product while sweet. After it reaches the creamery it is pasteurized and shipped a distance of from 50 to 300 miles, and may still be sold in these remote localities in the form of sweet cream.

HARNESS FOR SUCKING COWS

Smooth Pole Extending Between Fore Legs to Near the Udder Prevents Animal From Cheating.

The harness illustrated in the accompanying cut has been found satisfactory in preventing cows from milking themselves. A smooth pole extends between the fore legs to near the udder, and is suspended by two straps over the back, one around the flank and by a light chain to the halter. The cow wearing such a device will find it impossible to reach far enough to cheat her master.

Bull Pen is Essential.

The bull pen is a necessity on every farm. It is unwise and injudicious to allow the bull to run at liberty with the cattle.

Influence of Dairy Bull.

The dairy bull has an influence on the heifers of the entire herd, while the cow influences one calf each year.

PROCESS FOR PUBLICATION

The state of New Mexico, To the unknown heirs at law of James M. Adamson, deceased, and all other persons having or claiming any interest in the premises:

You will take notice that a suit has been filed against you in the District Court of the fifth Judicial District of the state of New Mexico, in and for Roosevelt county, wherein W. C. Adamson, deceased, to-wit: Lots three and four and the east half of the southwest quarter of section eighteen in township four south of range thirty-one east of the New Mexico M. N. M.; that the sale of said real estate is sought because valid claims and debts against said estate have been filed and allowed, approximating the sum of three hundred twelve and 67-100 dollars; and because the decedent left no personal estate whatever out of which said debts can be paid, and it having become necessary to sell said real estate to pay said debts.

After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. DEMOCRATIC IN POLITICS

Published Thursday at Portales, New Mexico

BY THE HERALD PRINTING COMPANY

Entered at Postoffice at Portales, New Mexico as Second Class Mail Matter

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 THE YEAR

John H. McCutchen, one of the best editorial writers in the state, is about to start a new Democratic weekly at Santa Fe which will be called the "New State." Mr. McCutchen is a very able writer and his publication should be a material help to the party in the coming campaign.

We are very grateful for the many compliments which have been given us recently for the high standard which the Herald-Times has reached. Coming from such critics as it has, we believe they voice the sentiment of a large number of readers. We are ever striving to make this a larger and better paper and one which will be more useful to Portales and the rest of Roosevelt county.

There is no longer any argument to the fact that it is far more profitable to the farmer to feed his crop to hogs or some other sort of live stock. Mr. Farmer, in a short time you will start to gather the enormous yield. What steps have you taken toward getting some hogs? The hog proposition appeals particularly to those who live at a great distance, many of whom are required to take three days for a trip to town with a heavy load.

The spirit shown by our neighbors, the boosters from the city of Clovis who journeyed here Monday to help in the great get together meeting at the Cosy Theater, is certainly worthy of our most sincere appreciation and a favor that will not soon be forgotten. We feel that we are voicing the sentiments of the citizens of Portales when we say that when Clovis needs our help on any worthy proposition all they have to do is to say the word and it will be forthcoming. Come again.

The get to gether meeting held at the Cosy Theater Monday night in the interest of the Roosevelt County Fair was the most remarkable of its kind ever held in this town. The booster spirit was everywhere prevalent. The business men and others of the town demonstrated beyond a doubt that they want a county fair, one of which they may be justly proud, and one which will do justice to our great resources which will be available for exhibits. They also showed their faith in the county fair commission as a body of men who will get results. The fact that the citizens of Portales contributed such a large amount of money should show the farmers and stockmen of the county that Portales is interested in their welfare and anxious to see their products gotten together in the proper shape for a great fair here and at Albuquerque. Such meetings as this should be held more frequently that the citizens may get together and discuss matters which are for the benefit of our community.

Press reports and reports from people who have traveled through different eastern sections indicate that storms and floods have wrought havoc over a big territory. Also in many places there has been so much rain that crops have spoiled in the field. These should remind us and cause us to realize that we are living in a country where such are unknown.

It should not be overlooked that the visit of the Clovis boosters was made possible by the building of the State Highway. There is little likelihood that an affair of this kind would have been attempted had the road not been built. The run to Clovis is now made easily in forty minutes by auto and the road is not entirely completed. Quite different from going by Meirose, which required some two or three hours. This is just the beginning of the mutual benefit that the road is going to be to the two towns.

Several of the farmers who have occasion to come to Portales to do their trading have recently called our attention to the fact that there are but few places provided near the trading points where they may tie their teams. Many of them are forced to leave their teams at distant points, which causes a great deal of inconvenience. Some steps should be taken to remedy this matter, as every courtesy and convenience possible should be accorded those who come to our town to spend their money or transact other business.

We should not overlook the fact that our little city is to entertain the greatest body of women in New Mexico, namely, the State Federation of Woman's Clubs, on October 5, 6 and 7. This is quite an honor for the town and it's Woman's club, as Portales is the first town of its size in the state to be honored. This being so, we should show our appreciation and endeavor to aid the local club in every possible manner, that the visitors may be properly entertained. We want the state federation to feel that that they have made no mistake in choosing Portales, and that she is equal to the occasion.

Elsewhere in the columns appears a synopsis of the county school superintendent's yearly report. To those who have been familiar with educational conditions in this county it is need less to say that this report shows up remarkably well. The schools and educational conditions in our county are advancing with the substantial growth and settlement and if any thing are taking the lead of what one might expect in a comparatively new country. It is seen that practically every person of school age is in attendance. The fact that Roosevelt county has less illiterates according to recently compiled statistics, than any other county in the state is significant not only of the high class of citizenship but of educational conditions as well. The "two by four" rural school house of the early day has disappeared and has been replaced by modern, sanitary, well lighted and well ventilated buildings with pleasing environments. This rebuilding has been greatly promoted through aid given by the state and the consolidation of districts where ever practical by the county superintendent. Prospective settlers in the rural districts may expect to find good schools in charge of competent teachers where their children may get an education comparing favorably with and excelling some of the rural schools in the older states. A few years ago it was quite common for families to move to the towns during the school term but this is practically a thing of the past except in the case of advanced pupils.

Many New Buildings For Portales

Not in several years has there been such activity in the building line as there is in Portales at the present time. It is also a pleasure to note that there are practically no empty houses. The store buildings are all occupied and any further requirements in that line will require new buildings.

Perhaps the most important building to be constructed is the Roosevelt County Creamery. At a meeting of the officials of that company held yesterday the machinery was ordered and a contract let to Chas. Ison to erect the building. A well is now being drilled on the site north of the depot and the construction work will be started in a few days and rushed to completion as fast as possible. The ice plant will also be installed in connection. The incorporation papers have been drawn up and sent to Santa Fe.

The A. L. Gurley company's warehouse near the jail is being rushed as fast as possible. The foundation piers have been completed and several carpenters are hard at work on the frame of the building.

Blanton & Jordan's garage will soon be completed. The building is now under roof and it is only a matter of a short time until it will be ready for occupancy.

J. B. Sledge is building an addition to the rear of his store room which will be used in connection with his business as a ware room.

The Joyce-Pruit company is building a ware room the full length of their building in the rear. This company has also rented the store room next to the Herald-Times office and will use it in connection with their hardware business.

Highway Famous.

The state highway between Portales and Clovis is becoming famous. A party of officials from Lamb county, Texas were here Tuesday inspecting it with a view of building a similar road across the same sand between Otton and Littlefield. The party included Judge C. H. Carl, county judge of Lamb county, W. D. Arnett, and Arthur Duggan all of Littlefield.

They were highly pleased with the highway and with other improved roads they saw in Roosevelt county. We understand they reported the highway is already well known over western Texas. The Texas officials wanted to employ D. W. Jones, the foreman on the local road but his services could not be obtained.

New Agents.

Edward Patterson and Louis Kohl this week purchased the agency for the famous Overland cars. The great reduction that has been made in the price of the high grade car the Overland people are putting out has made it a very popular car. These gentlemen are hustlers and we predict a most prosperous business for them.

School Opening.

Monday September 6th at 9:30 all pupils who failed in one or more subjects and those who have no promotion cards from other schools will meet at the school building for examinations. At 2:30 Monday afternoon all students will assemble in their respective rooms for assignment of work, so that the regular work, may begin Tuesday morning.

The books for the first eight grades have been changed by state adoption. Parents should see that the children take their old books since the state has arranged for a very liberal exchange price.

Parents are requested to see that their children are supplied with the necessary books and supplies that the work may continue without interruption. The earnest co-operation and interest on the part of the patrons and friends of the school is necessary. So let us work together that our school may be the best and our boys and girls may have the best opportunities for development. Very respectfully
J. S. Long.

The Hunting Law.

Representative R. G. Bryant recently wrote Frank W. Clancy attorney general of New Mexico calling attention to the law regarding hunting license. Among other things Mr. Bryant wrote that it would seem that "A farmer could not go into his pasture with gun to kill rabbits, wolves or hawks that are after his chickens, without having in his possession a hunting license."

The attorney general replied that it is the opinion of that office in substance that the law cannot be enforced in that respect and the rabbits, wolves and hawks are not protected by our game law, and a person cannot be required to obtain a hunting license before killing such pests.

See The Fairs of New Mexico

(By A. M. Hove)

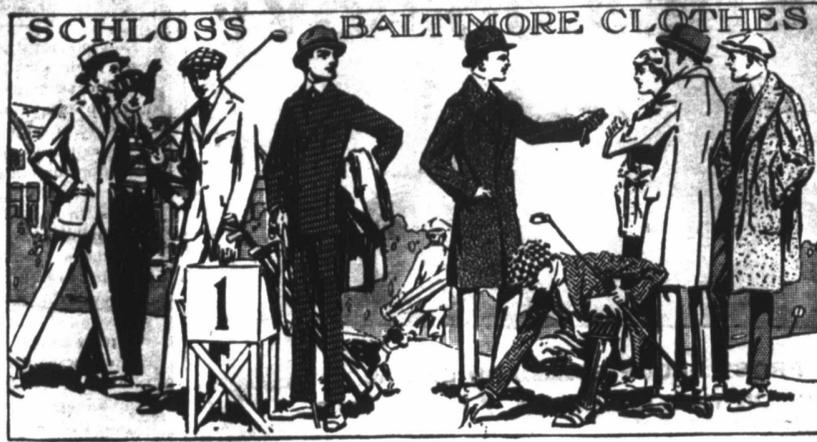

The people of every state are making commendable efforts to make the fairs this fall representative. Nearly every county is at work collecting material for creditable exhibits of the products of the soil. The growers of live stock are arranging to show the best of its kind in dairy, dual purpose and beef cattle; horses, sheep, swine and poultry. The women and schools will add attractive departments. Merchants, manufacturers and jobbers will be there with their wares, showing the best and the latest. There will be amusement for everybody besides.

It is the place to touch elbows and tone up the enthusiasm. It is the place to gather new ideas on agriculture, stock and other things that go to make profit in town and country and things that add to the comforts of life. The east side of New Mexico starts out with county fairs that may be attended with great benefit by the people of the county and their neighbors. The county fairs over, the best exhibits will go to the state fair at Albuquerque. All is worth seeing by young and old.

There will be low fares on the railroads and the best of accommodations for the visitors while seeing the fairs. It is a good time to get away from the daily routine and also see how the neighbors are. The dates and locations of the various fairs may be read in the advertising columns of the home newspapers.
