Wanted—A setting of turkey eggs and guinea eggs. Call at this office.

George Henderson, formerly night operator at the Pecos Valley depot, has been transferred to Canadian, Texas.

The reported damage by the recent hail were very much exaggerated, in fact, the damage was so slight that it created little or no comment.

Tom White manager of the L F D ranch, this week dipped about 1000 head of steers. Mr. White's cattle are all in fine condition, as are all the cattle in the immediate vicinity of Portales.

Ernest Spencer has accepted a position as message boy at the Santa Fe depot. Ernest is a thoroughly reliable and energetic young man and will rise to a position of prominence in the next few years.

Mrs. W. T. Roberts sent a sack of grapes to this office this week that certainly were fine. Mr. Roberts has as fine a vineyard as can be found anywhere and is very enthusiastic over the prospects of Inland Valley as the coming grape country of the southwest.

J. E. Wilsford who for the past year has been employed by the Ft. Worth Stock Yards company arrived home Monday for a visit with his parents. Mr. Wilsford has now accepted a position with the Evans-Montague Corn company of Ft. Worth, and will return to engage upon his new duties soon.

The normal opened Monday with School Superintendent I. P. Skinner as conductor and Prof. J. A. Fairly, Professor C. E. Hall, Mrs. Culbertson and Dr. J. S. Pearce as assistants. The attendance is good and the students appear to be deeply interested in educational pursuits.

Do your scissors or shears give entire satisfaction? I am taking orders for both and guarantee every pair. They are put together with a new device so that they may be loosened or tightened with little or no trouble. If I missed your house, send me word and I will be glad to call and show you my samples. ERNEST SPENCER.

Homer Spriggins has been giving some clever exhibitions at rough riding and promises to give the boys a few lessons in fancy shooting at an early date. Homer has evidently been a clever student in the school of the wild and woolly west.—West Point, (Miss.) Daily Times-Herald.

Homer also says that he will be back to Portales in less than two months, that Mississippi is entirely too slow for him.

The Commercial Hotel served its opening dinner Tuesday and about one hundred guests were served. Mr. J. D. McDaniel has refitted and refurbished the building and has spared no expense to make it thoroughly first-class. He has employed a cook of known ability and promises that the cuisine will be unexcelled anywhere in Eastern New Mexico. Those desiring first-class accommodations should give the commercial a call.

Charles O. Woodcock has the finest lawn in eastern New Mexico. He has it in blue grass well kept and trimmed with sufficient trees growing to furnish plenty of shade. His walks are laid out with an eye single to the fitness of things and these in connection with his handsome residence, makes an ideal home one thoroughly to be enjoyed, and Mr. Woodcock is justly proud of it. If the other property owners would follow the example set by Mr. Woodcock, our little city would soon look like a veritable garden of Eden.

A seventy-eight pound watermelon is something of a melon, but S. H. Stinnett brought such a melon to town this week and it is now on exhibition at the real estate office of Dozer White & Barr. Mr. Stinnett besides his regular acreage of strictly farm produce, engages largely in truck farming and his produce always brings top prices. He has a large number of melons which will weigh more than fifty pounds. The melon brought in this week is of the Duke Jones variety.

The Tallmadge Immigration company stopped their big excursion train at Portales Thursday night and Friday morning about twenty-five carriage loads of prospectors started out to view the country. Messrs. W. K. Breeding and W. H. Garrett acted as guides to show the visitors some of our best improved farms. At the time of going to press the visitors are still out and just how many of them will invest in Roosevelt county farms is not yet known, but in all probability some twenty-five or thirty farms will be sold. The Tallmadge people will, no doubt bring many people to this country and help to develop our many resources and build up and settle up our county. Now anything our people can do to help out in this work should be done, and above all, the "knockers" should take a tumble and lay down.

Notice.

To friends and patrons. From this on I will not charge anything to anyone. My business will not permit me in doing a credit business. From this day on no more credit here.

Plant Tress,

NEGRO KILLING.

George Stout will Have Preliminary Hearing Here This Week.

Sheriff Lang returned Tuesday night from camp 51 on the Belen cut off, with George Stout in custody. Mr. Stout is charged with killing on Sunday, August 3, a negro. The defense will be that he killed the negro in self defense, that the negro waylaid him at the door of the cook shack and out him with a knife and that in defending his own life he killed the nigger. The negro's name is Press Hawkins and he bore a very bad reputation, having been a bad nigger and known as a scrapper. Mr. Stout received a deep and dangerous stab in the stomach, the wound being dressed by Dr. Willis. Mr. Stout bears the reputation of being a quiet, orderly gentleman and one with whom it is not necessary to quarrel, and one who would avoid rather than hunt trouble. There were several wild rumors in circulation last week, but, as in most cases the facts disclosed an entirely different condition. Sheriff Lang has taken his time in this matter and knows, probably, better than anyone not on the scene, the true conditions at Camp 51, and he says that, in all probability, there will be no more trouble with the negro's as only three are left, the remainder having left, and their places have been filled with white men. The opinion of whites and blacks alike was that Mr. Stout acted in defense of his life.

Later—the examining trial was held Thursday and the defendant was bound over to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $1000.00.

Floyd Jennings.

A nice shower of rain would be very acceptable right now.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Gregory last Sunday morning a fine girl.

S. K. McCall came back from Texas the other day and will do some work while here on his claim. His daughter Miss Letha came with him.

Raymond Johnston got home from Kansas last Tuesday where he has been at work for some time.

Several of the Floydites have been to the breaks this week after wood.

L. T. Looper has put up a new house and a wind mill on that fine chain of his.

H. S. Sutherland has built a new house which adds a great deal to the looks of his nice home.

Mr. Rister brother of Mrs. Henry Price got here last Saturday for a visit with his sisters Mrs. Price and Mrs. Martin.

Uncle Isaac Price left last Saturday for a visit with relatives and old friends in Texas and elsewhere.

Little Maudie Price who has been visiting her grandparents in Dawson county, Texas, for some time came in home the other day.

W. P. Harper left last Monday for Greer county, Oklahoma.

Steve Carman who has been at work on the cut off came home Monday.

The Fees for Collection of Liquor and Gaming Licenses.

Judge Pope of the 5th Judicial District and Judge Abbott of the 2nd Judicial District, have decided that the only fee for the collection of liquor and gaming licenses to be paid was due to the sheriff who collected the fees for these licenses and who was entitled to 4 per cent thereon. Neither the assessor nor the treasurer and collector are entitled to the 4 per cent fee which these officials have heretofore retained and collected from the liquor and gaming licenses gathered in by the sheriff of each county. Several boards of county commissioners have instructed the proper district attorney to bring suit for the collection of all fees on gaming and liquor licenses illegally taken or retained by assessors and collectors. This action is timely and correct and should be followed in every county unless the officials named who have retained these fees without the authority of law, make prompt settlement. Four per cent on the collection of liquor and gaming licenses by the sheriff in itself is a heavy fee to pay for collecting them. It is enough, indeed more than enough.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

DANGER IN CALOMEL

The American Cyclopaedia says: "Calomel is being rapidly discarded by physicians to the great good of the community."

WHY? Simply because it is composed largely of mercury, its continued use will wreck the strongest constitution.

HERBINE

A purely vegetable specific, with all the virtues of calomel and without its deadly effect, is now prescribed for the absolute cure of malaria, constipation, biliousness, liver, kidney and stomach troubles. It is guaranteed.

Fearful Railway Collision

Fast Train on the Nickel Plate Collides Head on with a Freight Train.

CREW MISUNDERSTOOD, OR DISOBEYED ORDERS.

Twelve People are Killed and Twenty-Five Wounded.

Cleveland, Aug. 14.—A fast east coast bound train on the Nickel Plate road collided with a westbound freight train early Sunday at Kishman, Ohio, near Vermilion, resulting in the death of twelve persons, while at least twenty-five others were injured, eight of whom will probably die.

The engineer and fireman of the freight train saved themselves by jumping as soon as they saw the passenger train coming. Roy Winch of Findlay, who, although severely injured, was the first man to run into the wrecked smoking car to take part in the work of rescue, gave the following account of the terrible sight within:

"The living, the wounded and the dead were piled in one indiscriminate mass all over the floor of the car, the living entangled with the arms and legs of the dead and many of them pinned down by the dead bodies of the Italians.

"Some of the dead were so badly mangled that through their mouth protruded hideous masses of intestines. Two men, Italians, I saw pinned down, the one on top being caught in some way about the chest so that he could not get away. The man underneath him was also held down, mainly by the weight of the man on top, who, in his frantic efforts to get away, kicked the man under him literally to death.

"Terrorized by the death of their companions, the hiss of escaping steam and the fear of death in the darkness, the Italians fought with one another and stamped over the living and the dead in their efforts to get out of the car. Several were almost as badly injured in fighting each other as by the wreck.

"The engineer of the passenger train was nipped between the engine and tender, and when we found him, he was hanging, head down, by the shreds of one leg over the side of the engine. Two men held him in an upright position for over half an hour before we were able to release him. He died shortly after. He was conscious only a part of the time."

The wreck, according to the officials of the company, was caused by a misunderstanding of orders or neglect to obey them on the part of the crew of the freight train.

Mosquitoes Have Rabbits.

Muskogee, I. T.: George H. Bloom, an undertaker, who has lived in the South and passed through one or more epidemics of yellow fever, advances a new theory as to the origin of this disease. He attributes yellow fever to mosquitoes and has studied the disease along this line for many years, he says, even before Dr. Reed advanced and subsequently established the fact that the stegomyia was the instrument of transmission of the germ. "Yellow fever does not make its appearance till about the dog days, and not then unless we have a season of extremely wet weather, followed by an unusually high temperature. The weather gives the mosquitoes the rabble the same as it does the dogs. Dogs, you will note, only go mad after a season of rain, followed by hot weather, and the same applies to yellow fever. I believed it is conveyed to people by mosquitoes that have gone mad," the same as a dog conveys rabies.

EXPORTS ARE BOOMING.

EXPORTS ARE BOOMING. MANUFACTURED STUFF GAINS THE REPORT OF THE LAST YEAR MAKES A NEW RECORD.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Statistics compiled by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor show that the exports of manufactures in the fiscal year ended amounted to $348,620,297, as against $452,415,921 in the preceding year, $423,851,765 in 1909 and $182,595,743 in 1905.

Of manufactures, the exports of the fiscal year were not only the largest on record, but are in excess of combined exports of all articles in the calendar year, 1876, and near $140,000,000 more than the local exports and imports of the country at the close of the Civil War.

The growth in the exportation of manufactures is shown to have largely exceeded the growth in population. Only seven out of thirty leading articles show a falling off for the year as compared with 1904.

Iron and steel manufactures supply one-fourth of the total exports, having been $124,727,921, as against $111,948,686 in the preceding year.

A conspicuous feature is the large increase in exports of locomotives for Japan, 151 engines having been sent there in 1905, as against 74 in the previous year. Mexico and Argentina increased their purchases of American sewing machines. Copper manufactures take second, with a local valuation of $86,225,291 in 1905, as compared with $71,142,081 in 1904.

There was an increase in the exportation of mineral oils, the third article in importance of over 100,000,000 gallons, but owing to a fall in price, the value remaining stationary. The gallons, as against 847,000,000. The value for 1905 was $71,888,317 and for 1904 was $71,163,552.

Cotton manufactures present one of the striking features of the year's export, having advanced from $22,403,713 in 1904 to $45,666,080 in the year just ended. The growth occurred chiefly in cotton cloth exports, $14,320,542, for 1905.

To China there was an increase of about 400,000,000 yards over last year's exportation of 769,000,000 and the value of our cotton cloth exports to that country increased from $4,000,000 in 1904 to $27,750,000 in 1905. Japan was the only other country to show a considerable increase, the total being 16,000,000 yards, as against 449,000 in 1904.

Leather and the manufactures, fourth in importance in the list, showing an increase of $1,000,900, the total in 1905 having been 38,000,000.

Capt. A. M. Bush, living at Lloyd, lost six head of cattle last week from what is supposed to be the Texas fever. The six deaths occurred in thirty-six hours. Other losses are reported from that section of the country.

Terry's Rangers' Monument.

Austin: The foundation for the monument to be erected to the memory of Terry's Texas Rangers has been completed, but it will be some time before the monument is completed, as the sculptor is still working on the equestrian figure to surmount it. When finished, the monument will be quite handsome. It is located on the west side of the walk, directly in front of the Capitol Building, opposite the Alamo monument.

Land Ceded to U. S. Government.

Austin: W. T. Atwell of Dallas, United States District Attorney was here Saturday and had the Governor approve a document, drawn by the attorney general, ceding jurisdiction to the United States government over about thirty acres of land on the Trinity river below Dallas, which is to constitute the site of the first lock and dam on the Trinity and the first big step in the way of securing navigation.

Permission to Organize the Trinity National Bank of Dallas with a Capital Stock of $200,000 has been granted to J. N. Porter, W. H. Edleman, W. H. Moser, W. C. Temple, A. H. Graham, T. B. Williamson, Charles Hodges and others.

J. E. Rose, a large cotton planter of Wood county, exhibited a number of genuine Mexican bird weevils. He says in the past ten days they have literally covered the cotton plantation.

Feed Stuff Must be Tagged.

Austin: The pure food law is not understood by some of the merchants. They are required to have their stocks of feed branched and tagged, showing that the tax has been paid and analysis made as required by law. The mills and dealers are likewise included in the same provision. Feeds unbranded and not tagged shipped to merchants from without the State cannot be sold until it is examined, tagged and branded by State inspectors.

Good Price for a Well.

Mineral Wells: Judge R. E. Hendry, owner of the Crazy Well here, says that a deal whereby the well sells for $35,000, will probably be closed this week. The Crazy Well No. 1 is the oldest well of mineral water in the city, having been sunk by W. H. Higgins in 1831. Judge Hendry has owned the well since 1834. The four wells now constituting the Crazy system are now putting out an average of about 600 gallons per day.

SITUATION IS IMPROVED. FEVER ON SUBSIDENCE.

Thorough Quarantine is Now Established.

New Orleans, Aug. 15.—Following is the official report up to 6 p. m. yesterday:

New cases 55
Total to date 1,028
Deaths 12
Total to date 266
New subject 8
Total to date 210
Cases under treatment 256

The figures for the day are considered surprisingly small, considering that nineteen of the cases reported yesterday really belonged to Sunday's list, having come in after the closing of Sunday's report. Monday has usually been a heavy day for new cases on account of holdovers from Sunday, and if the number of new cases for the next few days continues small, then it can be said that the situation is really improving. Of the new foot, four are up town and four below Canal street.

The Parish Health Officer of St. Charles reports that Diamond and Goodhope plantations have each one suspicious case and three positive cases. He says that on the Goodhope place the Italians are very much opposed to inspectors, but he will call on the sheriff to enforce his authority. Two more cases were discovered yesterday on the Wood's plantation in Jefferson Parish. Another case has developed at Lafourche Crossing, which is isolated on a flatboat in the bayou. Patterson reports three new cases and no death. Plaquemine Parish reports two new cases at Point Celeste, four miles above Pointe a La Hache, one of which is dead. All other cases in that parish have recovered and the Pointe Celeste cases are the only secondary infection which has developed.

The situation in regard to the fruit business shows no signs of solution. It is believed that the surgeon general will withdraw his prohibition against shipment of the fruit North, if an arrangement can be made to have the fruit vessels unloaded at Chalmette, a point below the city.

Death of Judge Gould.

Palestine: Judge Geo. Henry Gould, a member of the law firm of Gould & Morris, one of the leading attorneys of the State, died Monday morning at the residence of Dr. W. C. Jameson. Judge Gould and wife and daughter were on their way to the depot to take the train for Colorado and when near Dr. Jameson's home he was stricken with intense pain. He was carried in the house and doctors were summoned.

After relieving him some, he slowly passed away. His death was due to neuralgia of the heart, and from over exertion. He leaves a wife and three daughters. He has been a legal representative of the International and Great Northern for eighteen years and was a Confederate veteran.

Henry Felge Dies.

Cleburne: Henry Felge, who came here some years ago from Germany, died at his home here Monday night. Some days ago he was struck on the jaw. His jaw was broken in two places and he was under the care of a physician. Blood poison set in and death soon followed. After the death of Henry Felge Constable Guy Pegues was placed under bond in the sum of $1000.

Fred Anderson of Terrell had his collar bone broken while engaged in a game of baseball Sunday.

Wholesale Hotel Thief Caught.

New York: In William Grogan, the police believe they have the person who for the last two years has been robbing hotels in this city. Grogan, when arraigned in the Police Court, admitted his guilt. When the police searched his home they recovered property valued at more than $3,000 that had been stolen from several hotels. The stolen property includes silverware, lace curtains, linen and a number of suits of clothes.

Texas' Emporium at Front.

Dallas: Of the fifty largest post-offices in the country Dallas made the largest gain of postal receipts in July, except Portland, Ore., which was because of the exposition being held there. The increase of the Dallas office over the month of July, 1904, was 25 per cent, while that of Portland, Ore., was about 42 per cent. The average increase of the fifty largest offices in the country was slightly less than 8 per cent.

Famine is Sore in Seville.

Seville, Spain: The authorities have dispatched reinforcements to the Osmuna district to cope with the anarchistic conditions arising from depredations committed by the famine stricken peasants. Bands of laborers are pillaging the farms and slaughtering and carrying off cattle and sheep and the proprietors are terrorized. The marauders are so numerous that the gendarmerie are quite powerless to prevent the sacking of villages and homesteads.

A Volcano Found in Nevada.

A volcano throwing off molten lava and in active operation has been discovered in Nevada by Messrs. McClure, Wheeler and Somers, cattlemen of Lovelock, Humboldt County. Although that section has been traversed for years, the crater has just been found. The men were in search of cattle when they came upon a stream of lava, and traced it to its source.

The Norwegian people in referendum taken Monday, pronounced in favor of the dissolution of the union with Sweden with remarkable, though not unexpected, unanimity. Of 450,000 voters, 320,000 cast ballots.

In an effort to break a wild horse Robert Patton, aged 19 years, was instantly killed Sunday evening about 8 o'clock near his home at Oak Hill, a village eight miles west of Austin on the Fredericksburg road.

AMONG THE LEAGUERS.

This Great Methodist Meeting is a Success.

Corpus Christi, Tex., Aug. 15.—The State Epworth League encampment has been in session eight days and the throng of people in attendance has taxed to the utmost the resources of Corpus Christi and the camp ground to take care of them. The encampment has been a complete success and reflects credit upon the management for the way matters have been handled.

The meetings at the auditorium have been well directed and the programs have been interesting and instructive. Some of the best speakers in Texas have been on the program and many of the talks well worth reporting in full. Many of the speakers were full of humor and told some very witty stories illustrating their lectures, and the audience was always alive to the fun part of the sermon. The crowd is out for a good time. There is no gloom and no big faces in this encampment, and it is evident that they do not believe the Methodist route to heaven should be made along a pathway of woe.

When the serious part of the day's business had been disposed of they scatter to enjoy themselves like children just let out of school. Some go for a sail or a trip on the line of launches running every thirty minutes to various points on the bay. Some go to the city or other points of interest. Some go fishing and plenty of small fish hand a number of tarpon have met their finish.

Over 250 tents have been put up and all are filled. Some of them have six people, though only intended for four.

Some do their own cooking, reinforced by occasional raids on the cafe or barbecue meat men. Plenty of good free water on the ground has been provided and ice water in the auditorium and other points. Ice, vegetables, meat groceries, etc., are in easy reach and everyone has plenty.

Omnious Stillness at Front.

Portsmouth, N. H.: It seems to be taken for granted among the attaches of both the Japanese and Russian missions that there will be no general battle in Manchuria while the peace negotiations are on.

Oyama is known to be prepared to strike the moment the negotiations fail, and there may be more or less skirmishing and outpost engagements while the troops are getting in position, but it is admitted on each side that if either Lineovitch or Oyama should deliberately bring on a general engagement, which might cost 50,000 to 100,000 lives, his country would inevitably lose prestige in the eyes of the world. In the large sense, therefore, it can be said that an armistice already exists in Manchuria. Should the negotiations be vainly prolonged and it became evident that they were to be fruitless, the advance of Oyama or Lineovitch might be the signal for the final rupture. The unexpected attack on Port Arthur might be repeated below Harbin.

Babu Horse English.

Here is a Bombay native student's essay on the horse:

The horse is a very noble quadruped, but when he is angry he will not do so. He is ridden on the spinal cord by the bridle, and sadly the driver place his feet on the stirrup, and drives his lower limbs across the saddle, and drives his animal to the meadow. He has a long mouth, and his head is attached to the trunk by a long protuberance called the neck. He has four legs, two are in the front side and two are afterward. These are the weapons on which he runs, he also defends himself by extending those in the rear in a parallel direction toward his foe, but this he does only when in a vexatious mood. His footing is generally grasses and grains. He is also useful to take on his back a man or woman as well as some cargo. He has power to run as fast as he could. He has got no sleep at night time, and always standing awake. Also there are horses of short sizes. They do the same as the others are generally doing. There is no animal like the horse; no sooner they see their guardian or master they always crying for feeding, but it is always at the morning time. They have got tall, but not so long as the cow and other such like similar animals.—Liverpool Post.

Earth's Imperfect Map.

I try to be proud of my fellow men. And the victories they have won. I have stood amazed at times and gazed. At the great things they have done. This strange old earth of which they knew. So little at the start, With subtle skill they have conquered. All. They have learned it all by heart.

But hold! Not all, for I grieve to say That, while they have mastered lands. Our latest maps still show two spots. Two dark, untraveled spots. Two cherty points men have not reached. For though they have tried and tried, The frigid zones the Frost King owns, Their progress have denied.

We found the Equator long ago, And tracked it to its lair; Earth has no spot so piping hot But men have ventured there. And some time in the years to come, On Fame's bright page we'll meet The valiant souls who found the poles. And made our map complete. —Nixon Waterman, in Four Track News.

A Bluejacket Turned Mule.

Admiral Dickens during the sham bombardment of Fort Monroe, smiled one morning as a sailor staggered past him with a bale of hay on his back. "He makes me think," said the admiral, "of another sailor, a British one, whom I saw one day at Gibraltar. "He, too, had a load of hay and was toiling with it up from the little fishing village that lies at the foot of the great rock. I talked with him a little while, and, as we parted, I said: "Who are you, my man? What job do you hold here?" "Well," the sailor answered, as he took up the hay again, "I used to consider myself a British bluejacket, but I'm danged if I don't begin to think I'm a commissary mule." —New York Times.

Speaking Not His Forte.

A venerable clergyman said that he once attended a meeting at which a man arose and said he intended to speak, that hitherto he had been prevented from speaking in public by his wife, but that she being dead he should speak with freedom. "He did so," added the clergyman, "and it was not long before everyone in the audience mourned over the death of that wife as that of a personal friend."

KINGS ARE BAD DRESSERS.

Few of Them Shine Except in Their Gorgeous Uniforms.

The king of Spain is the only foreign royalty I have ever beheld who appears to employ a first-rate tailor for his civil costume. The frock coat he wore during his visit to Westminster cathedral was faultless in cut, and fitted his tall, slim, upright figure to perfection. His hat was also of the most approved English style.

Foreign royalties almost live in uniform, and, in consequence, every one of them, from the German emperor downward, looks to great disadvantage in civil attire, a costume to which they are unaccustomed, and which has generally been hastily made for them.

I recollect many years ago being in Calcutta on the occasion when the present czar, then czarvitch, accompanied by his cousin, Prince George of Greece, and a suite of distinguished Russian officials, mostly military, made a tour of India. On their arrival, in their brilliant uniforms, they filled the eye with admiration, and at every public function produced the same effect.

Unhappily for them, Lady Lansdowne, wife of the viceroy, gave a garden party the day before their departure, when morning dress was de rigueur. Alas! the butleries seemed to have returned to the grub condition.

The poor little czarvitch had a mean and shabby appearance, wearing an ill-fitting coat and an indescribable top hat. Even the magnificent Prince George looked burly and common, while the generals and councilors resembled a party of ill-dressed tourists in their Sunday clothes.—Vanity Fair.

WHAT'S 'PHONE FOR, ANYWAY!

Unexpected Result of Finding Out Who Was Listening.

A Philadelphia lawyer, who has a telephone on a four-party wire in his house, had a recent experience of human curiosity. On such a telephone arrangement anyone or all of the four subscribers may hear any conversation if they wish to eavesdrop. The lawyer's wife suspected one of the neighbors of eavesdropping.

"Saturday," said the lawyer, "she held a prearranged conversation over the telephone with me, and suddenly she came off. She explained that one of her neighbors was eavesdropping and that she intended to have the thing stopped. I know the woman well," she said, "and the next time she speaks to me I'll insult her."

"Later my wife explained that she could tell the culprit when she avoided her. Next day we went to church to make the test and met an awful shock.

"Not one of our three neighbors on the party line noticed us, although they have always been very friendly. My wife found the culprits all right, but she had neglected to figure on the natural curiosity of all women." —New York Tribune.

The Appendicitis Fad's Weakness.

While foreign bodies in the vermiform appendix are not rare, they do not seem to have the effects formerly attributed to them. In 1600 post mortem examinations, Dr. L. J. Mitchell, a coroner's physician, has found one or more grape seeds in the appendix in eight cases, one or more shot in three cases, fragments of bone in two cases, and in single cases such objects as a piece of a shingle nail, a globe of solder, a piece of nutshell, and bits of ash or stone. In no case was any evidence of inflammation of the appendix, past or present, to be found.

Sailors' Strange Pets.

Uncle Sam is a tolerant old gentleman. He permits the sailors of his battleships and cruisers to keep pets. No ship in the navy is without its mascot. The other day a big cruiser came into the Brooklyn navy yard and the sailors proudly displayed a big moose which was presented to them away up in a Maine port. Imagine a moose for a mascot on board ship! Within the last three months ships have come into the navy yard with all sorts of curious animals for mascots. Ope had a jackass from Brazil, another a monkey from Algiers, still another a game cock from Liverpool, while a fourth had a stray dog rescued in port from the waters of the harbor at Southampton.

HEART RIGHT

When He Quit Coffee.

Life Insurance Companies will not insure a man suffering from heart trouble. The reason is obvious. This is a serious matter to the husband or father who is solicitous for the future of his dear ones. Often the heart trouble is caused by an unexpected thing and can be corrected if taken in time and properly treated. A man in Colorado writes:

"I was a great coffee drinker for many years, and was not aware of the injurious effects of the habit till I became a practical invalid, suffering from heart trouble, indigestion and nervousness to an extent that made me wretchedly miserable myself and a nuisance to those who witnessed my sufferings.

"I continued to drink coffee, however, not suspecting that it was the cause of my ill-health, till, on applying for life insurance I was rejected on account of the trouble with my heart. Then I became alarmed. I found that leaving off coffee helped me quickly, so I quit it altogether and having been attracted by the advertisements of Postum Food Coffee I began its use.

"The change in my condition was remarkable, and it was not long till I was completely cured. All my ailments vanished. My digestion was completely restored, my nervousness disappeared, and, most important of all, my heart steadied down and became normal, and on a second examination I was accepted by the life insurance Co. Quitting coffee and using Postum worked the cure." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a Reason, and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in each pkg.

Franklin Celebration.

The bicentenary of Benjamin Franklin will fall on January 17, 1806, and already there is a movement on foot to observe the anniversary in a fitting manner. It is urged that, while Washington's birthday is a legal holiday in nearly every State and Lincoln's in several, no similar honor has been paid to Franklin. Congress will probably be asked to adopt measures for national recognition of this Revolutionary patriot.

A Real D. A. R.

A real daughter of the Revolution has just died in Westmoreland County, Pa. Mrs. Sarah Atchison Ross was 88 years old and was the daughter of Thomas Atchison, who fought under Washington at the battle of Trenton, and the widow of Thomas Ross, a veteran of the Mexican war. She was one of three women to whom were presented gold spoons by the national society because of their being daughters of men who fought in the struggle of '76.

Shot a Butterfly.

The British Museum has in its collection a rare butterfly which was obtained in a remarkable manner. On a steamship bound for Sidney, N. S. W., several men were shooting at mark with a revolver. As one of them was about to fire he noticed a butterfly hovering about the ship. He shot at it, and brought it to the deck, considerably mangled. The insect was so beautiful that the pieces were collected and sent to an English entomologist. The butterfly proved to be of a species entirely unknown to the scientific world.

Gratitude Well Expressed.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 14th.—Mr. C. L. Smith, painter and decorator, whose home is at 309 Anne street, this city, makes the following statement:

"I was laid up with some kind of pains. Some said it was Lumbago, other Sciatica and others again Rheumatism. A few of my friends suggested that it was lead poison, but whatever it was it gave me a great deal of pain; in fact, almost completely crippled me. I had to use two canes to walk about, and even then it was a very painful task.

"A friend advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills and I began the treatment. After I had used the first box I was able to throw away one of the canes and was considerably improved. The second box straightened me up so that I could go about free from pain without any assistance, and very soon after I was completely cured, well and happy, without a pain or an ache. Dodd's Kidney Pills seemed to go right to the spot in my case, and they will always have my greatest praise."

COMMODORE NICHOLSON RECOMMENDS PE-RU-NA.

COMMODORE Somerville Nicholson of the United States Navy, in a letter from 1837 E. Street, North-west, Washington, D. C., says: "Your Peruna has been and is now used by so many of my friends and acquaintances as a sure cure for catarrh that I am convinced of its curative qualities and I unhesitatingly recommend it to all persons suffering from that complaint."

Our army and our navy are the natural protection of our country. Peruna is the natural protection of the army and navy in the vicissitudes of climate and exposure. We have on file thousands of testimonials from prominent people in the army and navy. We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of uncollected endorsements Dr. Hartman is constantly receiving for his widely known and efficient remedy, Peruna. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

CANNIBALS UP TO DATE.

Map-Eating Tribe Has Some Ideas of Civilization. The man-eating Batatas of North Sumatra have a postal system. They make use of hollow tree trunks at cross roads, and these primitive letter boxes are largely patronized by young men and women, who read, and write, and correspond in a degraded native script, which is traced on palm leaves in vertical lines that run upwards and from left to right. These Batatas, though undoubted cannibals, are skilled in agriculture and in raising stock. They form large communities, have an organized government hereditary chiefs, popular assemblies, and a written civil and penal code. Their picturesque dwellings have been compared to Swiss chalets, and the ground floor is reserved for their live stock. For their skill in iron work, potters, and weavers they are probably indebted to Hindu teaching, and their repulsive habit is combined with a belief in a trine deity, Creator, Preserver and Destroyer.

BONFIRE FOR THE FOURTH. Town of Salem, Mass., Keeps Up Good Old Custom. In past years it has been a monster bonfire on Gallows Hill for the creation of which the city appropriated the sum of $100. The illustration shows one of these great Fourth of July piles of barrels and boxes, standing ninety-six feet high. In firing the torch is applied at the top and sides, also at the bottom, and in time the flames leap about the entire mass. The spectacle created is one of inspiration and excitement, the heavens being illumined all around. Many places throughout the United States have bonfires on Fourth of July, but it is likely that few places delight the heart of the small boy to the extent that this great bonfire on Gallows Hill does.

FEEDING PETS OF THE ZOO.

Plentiful and Varied Supply of Eat-ables Required. Catering to animals requires both a plentiful and varied supply of foods, as can be seen from this report of material used at the London Zoological Gardens last year. For the flesh-eating animals there were supplied 144 tons of horse flesh, and nearly nine tons of goat flesh, and 9,530 chicken heads. Fourteen and a half tons of fish, in addition to 1,260 pints of shrimps, furnished the waterfowl with their daily fare, while 297 loads of hay and 6,030 bunches of greens supplied the ruminants. Other items on the list were 972 pounds of grapes, 498 pounds of sugar, 6,262 loaves of bread, 5,088 quarts of milk, 303 pounds of crackers, and more than 33,000 eggs. The chicken heads were for the members of the rat family, the eggs for the birds and the shrimps formed the easiest way to the affections of the flamingoes.

Child Lay Safely Under Train. A little girl of one and a half years has just had a wonderful escape from death near Cardross, England. While she was at play she wandered upon the railway track and sat down between the rails. A freight train traveling at high speed came along, and although the driver applied the brakes, the whole train passed over the child before it could be brought to a stop. It was then found that with the exception of a cut in the face the little one was uninjured. Such an escape would be impossible in this country, but in Great Britain the engines have no cowcatchers, and the fireboxes are much farther from the ground than here.

AMERICA'S BRIGHTEST WOMAN.

Mary E. Lease Feels It Her Duty to Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Mary E. Lease, formerly political leader and orator of Kansas, now author and lecturer—the only woman ever voted on for United States Senator, writes: Dear Sir: As many of my friends have used Doan's Kidney Pills and have been cured of bladder and kidney troubles, I feel it my duty to recommend the medicine to those who suffer from such diseases. From personal experience I thoroughly endorse your remedy, and am glad of the opportunity for saying so. Yours truly, (Signed) MARY ELIZABETH LEASE, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers. Price, 50 cents per box.

Regard it as a sacred task given you to make you a better citizen and to help the world along. Insist on Getting It. Some grocers say they don't keep Deafness Starch because they have a stock in hand of 12 oz. brands, which they know cannot be sold to a customer who has once used the 16 oz. Deafness Starch for same money.

The man of industry is not always the man of success. Hunt's Cure has saved more people from the "Old Scratch" than any other known agent, simply because it makes scratching entirely unnecessary. One application relieves any form of itching skin disease that ever afflicted mankind. One box guaranteed to cure any one case.

A man's memory sometimes plays him curious tricks. Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Deafness Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 4-ounce packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Deafness Starch is free from all injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Deafness. He knows that Deafness Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 oz." Demand Deafness and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Deafness never sticks.

A friendly Suggestion. An old man in a Scotch village had a big eight day clock which needed repair, so he took it on his back to carry it to the watchmaker's. As he went along the village street an acquaintance met him, glanced at him and passed on. After he had got about fifty yards his friend called out to him, "Hi!" Back went the old man laboriously to where the other stood. "Man," said his friend, "would it not be far handier if ye carried a watch?"

TORTURED BY ECZEMA. Body Mass of Sores—Could not Sleep—Spent Hundreds of Dollars on Doctors, but Grew Worse—Cured by Cuticura for $8. "Cuticura saved the life of my mother, Mrs. Wm. F. Finally, after spending hundreds of dollars on doctors, growing worse all the time, I hid in misery for years, with hair whitened from suffering and body terribly disfigured, she was completely cured by two cakes of Cuticura Soap, five boxes of Cuticura, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent—Geo. "The Breadwinners." Since the death of Secretary Hay the renewal of the old controversy as to the authorship of "The Breadwinners," now generally conceded to have been his work, has caused a great demand for the famous novel in the public libraries of the country. The demand is probably equal to that which greeted the first appearance of the book little short of thirty years ago.

Komura a Harvard Graduate. Baron Komura, while a student in Harvard law school, from which he was graduated in 1877, avoided going into society, although urged to do so by his classmate, Baron Kaneko, and there was no lack of opportunity. With some far-sightedness Komura said he wanted to see American life outside of conventional society. He was a close student of English and American literature.

Oldest Mail Carrier. Richard B. Reed, of Salem, Mass., the oldest letter carrier in the country, has just completed a half century of service. He has been unable to do active duty for over a year, owing to a fall received while in discharge of his duties, and will tender his resignation and retire, having completed this long term. When he first went on duty it was as a "penny post" and he delivered the entire mail of the city and was paid by the recipients of the mail.

Doctor Brigham Says

MANY PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womanhood is not because it is a stimulant, not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructive ever discovered to act directly upon the generative organs, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due. If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female illness, as they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it.

Dr. S. C. Brigham, of 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass., writes: "It gives me great pleasure to say that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and often prescribe it in my practice for female difficulties. My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some time ago, and my youngest daughter is now taking it for a female weakness, and is surely gaining in health and strength."

I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all diseases to which women are subjected, and give it heartily to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female ills. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.

Significance of Thunder.

In this season of thunderstorms it is interesting, if not exactly profitable, to read an ancient interpretation of them. The "Prognostication Everlasting of one Leonard Digges," published in 1556, tells us that thunder in the morning denotes wind; at noon, rain, and in the evening, a great tempest. He goes further still, and declares that 'Sunday's thunder should bring the death of learned men, judges and others; Monday's the death of women; Tuesday's plenty of grain; Wednesday, bloodshed; Thursday, plenty of sheep and corn; Friday's, the slaughter of a great man and other horrible murders; Saturday's, a general pestilence plague and great dearth.'

Bad Ears Cause Drowning. In drowning accidents where expert swimmers suddenly lose control of their powers, the usual explanation of cramps is beginning to be looked upon as insignificant. It has been noticed that persons having disease of the middle ear, who have already shown symptoms of vertigo, are especially liable to such accidents, and as the semicircular canals are the organs of direction, it is suggested that even a slight hemorrhage in this delicate structure from a blow by the waves would result from a helplessness. Persons with ears not perfectly sound are therefore warned against swimming in rough water.

Czarina is Aging. Recent pictures of the czar and the czarina indicate that both have aged within the last year. This, however, is more than true of the czarina than of the czar. They have indeed had cause to age rapidly. The royal mother's heart may well be heavy with forebodings when she tries to divine the future before her infant who is heir to all the Russias.

Conviction Follows Trial

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out. Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

LION COFFEE is sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages, and reaches you as pure and clean as when it left our factory. Jobbers on every package. Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.

THE DEVIL SENDS A VIBROCT.

One night at the devil sat musing in the middle of his cozy warm fire, trying to figure the difference in guilt between a thief and an all around liar, his memory turned to the scenes of his youth, and his eyes filled with hot burning tears, so he took down his ledger and turning to a page dating back about six thousand years, "I suppose," he exclaimed as he glanced through the book, "I'm doing the best I can, for my business denotes a continual increase ever since the creation of man, I've cribbed a good harvest for many a year, and should be contented with the yield, and gave my opponent permission to have the gleanings I leave in the field. I've gathered a very diversified crop of merchants, and lawyers galore; I've bound politicians in bundles until the ends of my fingers are sore; I've fiddlers, gamblers and insurance men; I've murderers, forgers and liars; and have filled my furnace with green poplains until they have actually put out the fire. I've railroad conductors and doctors to spare, horse-traders and preachers to spend; republicans, democrats by the millions, Tories and Whigs and only three newspaper men. But there is one class I am happy to say can never gain entrance here, their souls are so dirty I'm sure that they would demoralize hell in a year; I refer to a thing not human nor beast: The grafter, or public vulture, they are found in every nook and corner, their principle feeding ground is in part of what is now called Oklahoma. A million years in my warmest room, his evil would never atone; I give him a match and advise him to start a hell of his own." Then Satan lit up an asbestos cigar and placing his book on the shelf, he muttered: "I may be a very bad man but I've some respect for myself." Mountain View Republican.

HE SHOULDN'T SQUEAL.
A merchant who sends away from home for printing or refuses to advertise in his local paper should keep "mum" about the farmers buying goods from catalogue houses or the newspaper from accepting outside advertising. The merchant says he can get it cheaper. So does the farmer. What's the difference? Where will it all end?—Bartlett Tribune.

A Warning to Mothers.
Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instance use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by Pearce & Dobbs.

Excursion Tickets to Kansas City.

A Touching Story.
In the early part of the life of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyles, Cumberland, Md., she writes: "At the age of 11 months, my little girl was in declining health with serious throat trouble and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At Pearce & Dobbs drug store; 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

They Appeal to Our Sympathies.
The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. There is not one of them, however, who may not be brought back to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. These tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and strengthen the digestion. They also regulate the bowels. For sale by Pearce & Dobbs.

Public is Aroused.
The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 565 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague my nerves were wrecked I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at Pearce & Dobbs drug store; price 50c.

COURAGEOUS ANIMALS.
The American Fishes and the Indian Mongoose Are Notable Examples.
In North America one of the largest of the weasel family is the "fisher," a very large, long-furred polecat, living mainly by the water-side, and, like many others of the tribe, very partial to fish. It weighs about 16 pounds, and its long, richly colored fur is exported in great quantities to different parts of Europe, though not often used in this country. A trapped "fisher" will attack anyone who comes within reach of the trap chain, and when free will beat off any dog of twice its size. But perhaps the most striking example of the courage of the smaller species yet recorded is that shown by a small variety of jungle cat known as the fishing cat, which, though no relation to the Canadian "fisher," is quite as courageous. One of these, which was kept in a menagerie, broke through into the next cage, and there attacked and killed a leopard which was three times its own size.

The Indian mongoose possesses all the courage of the polecat, together with amiability and a "regulated" mind. It turns its pluck and prowess to good ends, and we imagine it to stand at the head of the list of the smaller animals if quality as well as quantity is demanded as a mark of intrepidity. There is no doubt that the mongoose realizes the deadly nature of the cobra's bite. Its intense excitement is strong evidence of this. But a mongoose has been known to fight just as bravely against other foes. One was seen to attack and drive off a large greyhound which it fancied was hostile to it.—London Spectator.

Proper Qualification.
"He has undertaken to edit a society paper, I hear."
"Yes, and he should make a success of it."
"Why, he can't write at all."
"No; but you know how snobbish he is."—Philadelphia Press.

Handbills at Herculaneum.
It is probably the general impression that posters and handbills are modern inventions, but it has just been discovered that the ancient Romans practiced this method of advertising. In digging at Herculaneum there was brought to light a pillar covered with bills, one on top of another. The paste used to stick them was made of gum arabic. The bills, when separated and examined, were found to be programmes and announcements of public meetings, and even election proclamations.

THE HEMP INDUSTRY.
It Has Lost Its Former Position Among American Rural Industries.
The hemp industry is already established, though it should be extended in order to recover its lost position among American rural industries. Where in the past we produced 40,000 tons of hemp in the United States we now produce less than a fifth of this quantity. The cultivation of flax in the United States before the days of the present factory system was so widespread that it was of national importance. Its manufacture was largely a home industry, however, conducted by the residue, and, as in ancient Greece and Rome, the work was performed by the women of the household. With the advent of the factory system came competition; the housewife laid aside her spinning wheel, the clumsy homemade loom fell into disuse, and the farmer grew no more flax fiber. Then the flaxseed industry was extended, and after the close of the war a large demand sprang up for coarse fiber for the roughest of uses—for bagging and upholstery, in connection with hemp—and hundreds of little tow mills came into existence in the middle and western states.—C. R. DeWitt, in Appleton's Popular Science Monthly.

Contest Notice.
Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Roswell, New Mexico, June 29, 1905.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by John W. Maxwell contestant, against homestead entry No. 4694, made April 27, 1905, for the northeast quarter of section 21, Township 2 S., Range 35 East, by Joseph A. McCoy Contestee, in which it is alleged that the said Joseph A. McCoy has wholly abandoned said tract; that he has changed his residence therefor more than six months since making said entry and next prior to filing of said affidavit, that said tract is not settled upon and cultivated by said party as is required by law, and that said alleged absence from said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine corps of the United States in time of war, said parties are hereby notified to appear and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on August 29, 1905 before W. E. Lindsey, U. S. Commissioner at his office in Portales, Roosevelt county, New Mexico, (and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on September 12, 1905 before) the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Roswell, New Mexico.
