SCD Objectives Discussed

The long range objectives of Soil Conservation Districts are to promote coordinated efforts of landowners, operators, businesses, organizations and others to:

1. Protect and promote the general welfare of the people in the District by conserving soil and water resources—a basic agricultural asset.
2. Provide for the people of the District a means by which they can work together in determining their conservation problems and in establishing their cause of action in the solution of these problems.
3. Make assistance available in the field of soil and water conservation to landowners and operators in the District from all local, State and Federal agencies qualified and authorized to provide such assistance.
4. Encourage every farmer and

Texas SCD Organized On Voluntary Basis

Texas Soil Conservation Districts have been organized voluntarily by the local landowners and are local units of State government created for conservation action.

Soil Conservation Districts, as a local form of government, has the job of coordinating the resources of individual landowners and operators, businesses and organizations, and State and Federal agencies to develop a program that effectively attacks local soil water problems. The elected board of super who acts as Soil Conservation District governing bodies believe man has God-given respons for conserving and improv precious soil, water, and pla sources with which our C has so generously endowed us without which man cannot Districts further believe that conservation of our great natu resources, soil and water, is and should be everybody's business, and that our local economic well-being depends so largely upon productive lands and pure water.

Nature Builds Topsoil Slowly

Nature takes from 300 to 1,000 years to build one inch of topsoil.

Land misuse and abuse already have ruined more than 100 million acres of formerly good cropland for further food production. Another 100 million acres have been seriously damaged. Topsoil is still being destroyed faster than it is being repaired or created.

We're living only six inches from a desert today. Our original topsoil averaged nine inches. Erosion has taken a third of this already. We have only six inches left. At the present rate of soil erosion, this will be gone within another 50 year.

Remember, everything we eat and most of the things we wear and use come from the topsoil. You can help save our remaining productive soil by using soil and water conservation practices. Contact the supervisors of your local Soil Conservation District or technicians of the Soil Conservation Service today. They will be glad to help you, and you will be glad to help

Competition is a demanding taskmaster—but it can also be the greatest rewarding factor in merchandising or servicing. It is a taskmaster when competition defeats, when it sets the rut that engulfs the businessman. Competition is rewarding when the merchant forces it to become his tool, when he knows he has a thriving, growing business that will never want for customers. Business goes where it is invited—and competitive prices, outstanding courteous service with a good selection, and promotional advertising will do the most inviting.

Do yourself, your customer, and your community a favor by using the pages of the Castro County News to sell your goods and services. It is not only good business but it will help you gear your operation to today's quickly changing trends and increasing competition.

Success stories of large businesses almost always hinge around concentrated advertising and other sound business practices. Start a campaign now—you'll be amazed at how quickly you will feel the difference. Just telephone 647-3488 and a salesman will call on you at your convenience.

Swifts Lose Regional Tilt

Darrouzett took the regional crown in the tilt between the Swifts and the Longhorns Saturday afternoon at Buck stadium in White Deer.

Nazareth Swifts won bi-district after defeating Wellman at Littlefield last week. Darrouzett drew a bye in the bi-district playoffs. The strength, speed and power of the Darrouzett line and backfield stopped the Swifts in the 28-6 scoring battle.

Score at the end of the half was 8-6 in favor of the powerful Longhorns. Coming back after the half, the Longhorns went into a spread formation which Nazareth defense could not stop. Quarterback Duke was outstanding player for Darrouzett.

The lone Nazareth score came on a blocked punt covered in the end zone by Lester Schulte.

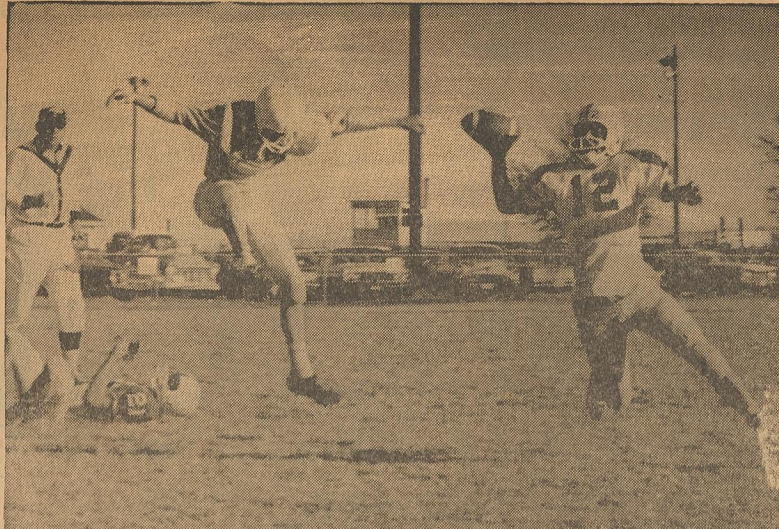

Darrouzett ran 13 first downs and Nazareth made four. The Longhorns had five penetrations and Nazareth made three.

THANKSGIVING GUESTS

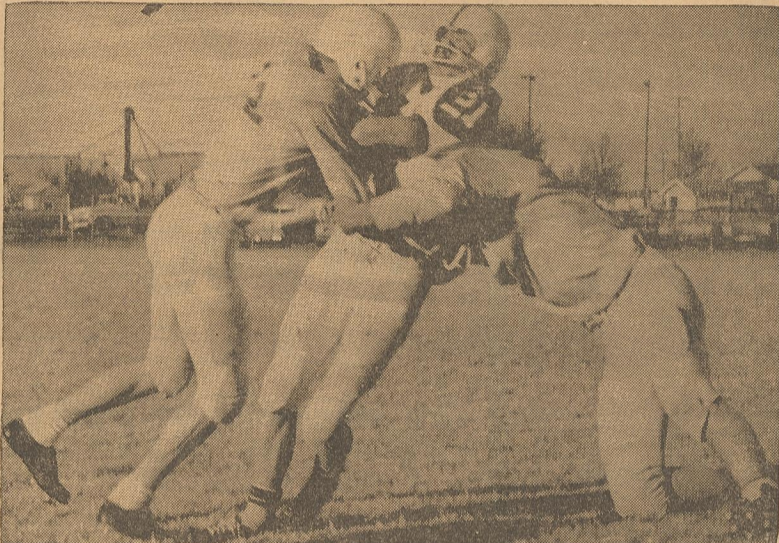

Mrs. Jacky Clark, Pam and K'Dawn of Clovis, N.M., Mrs. Miller of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Lowe, Kurt of Amarillo were Thanksgiving guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cartwright.

AMARILLO VISITOR

Miss Betty Law of Amarillo was a guest in the home of Mozelle Calhoun and Fern Kirk recently.

QUARTERBACK DUKE (12) for the Darrouzett Longhorns looks for receiver. Leaping high to make an attempt to tackle Duke is a Nazareth defender. Duke played outstanding ball. Final score was 28-6 in favor of the Longhorns. See story. —Staff Photo

W. M. U. of Frio Baptist Church is observing the Lottie Moon Foreign Mission program this week. Services were held at the church, Monday. Attending were Mmes Glenn Andrews, who presided in the absence of the president; B. H. Baldwin, program director; Edgar Vinson, Andy Axe, G. W. Fine, Frank Robbins, Weldon Stephan, Floyd Cole, H. M. Mobley, Charles Self, Glenn Williams, Owen Andrews, Homer West, Clark Andrews, J. D. Stringer and Mark Shadden.

Services will be held on Wednesday night and again Friday morning at 8:45.

More than 125 persons attended the Community Thanksgiving Supper, at Hereford Community Center, on Monday evening, of last week. Weldon Stephen led the group in a song, after which the Frio G. A. gave a short skit on the secret of real happiness. Rev. G. W. Fine read a scripture and gave a devotional message and Mrs.

David Yandell led the Thanksgiving prayer preceding the supper. Mr. John Simpson underwent surgery at Deaf Smith County Hospital on Nov. 25. He is improving rapidly and has been dismissed from the hospital.

Here to be with the Simpsons the first of last week were a daughter, Mrs. Leon Roberts and her daughter and grand-daughter, Mrs. Ronnie Ford and Kandy, all of Wellington.

Mrs. W. S. Littrell of Orange, California, came November 23, to visit her brother, W. H. Andrews and other relatives and friends in this area. On Sunday, the 24, she and Miss Alma Andrews went to Texico to visit with Mrs. Littrell's sister, Mrs. Allie Burris and family for several days. Mrs. Burris and two daughters were visiting the W. H. Andrews home, on that Sunday, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Harder and family went to Meade, Kansas to visit Harders parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Harder and other relatives, during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Dana and Judy Glenn were visiting Nancy, Vicki and Andrea Axe, on Sunday. Their parents Mr. and Mrs. Steve Glen were visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Green. The Glenns are former residents of this area, and now live north of Clovis.

Visiting the Glenn Williams home during the last week end was her mother, Mrs. Floyd Chafin of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Baldwin of Austin, visited his mother, Mrs. B. H. Baldwin and her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Andrews and other relatives, during the Thanksgiving holidays. Also visiting Mrs. Baldwin and the Homer Wests were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Earp and daughters of Denton and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baldwin and daughter of Amarillo. The Robert Baldwins also visited her parents, the George Deloziers of Summerfield community.

Taking Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. H. M. Mobley and Austin Mobley were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cole and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Don Mobley and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Guinn of Levelland spent the week and visiting their daughter, Mrs. Mark Shadden and family.

Carl Miller, Junior at NTS visited the D. C. Millers Sunday night and Monday. Carl played with the North Texas basketball team in a game with W. T. S. at Canyon on Monday night. Several from here attended the game.

You may catch cold or have the flu but chances are practically nil that you'll contract Chagas' disease.

Colds and flu are common diseases of man, but what about Chagas' disease? Understandably, this disease is little known in the United States since only two human cases are known to have occurred here.

This is in direct contrast to the situation in Brazil and certain other areas of central and south America where millions of people each year suffer death or debilitation as a direct result of infection.

Hereford, Mrs. L. B. Wright of Oklahoma City, Arthur and Jimmy Betts, W. P. Betts, Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Phillips and Gene of Amarillo.

The Intermediate G. A.'s had a salad supper and slumber party at the Charles Self home, on Friday night. Carol Robbins presided over the business meeting, Nancy and Jana Cole reviewed the last chapter of the mission study book, "The Mustard Seed". Present were Nancy and Vicki Axe, Carol Robbins, Jana Cole, Kite Struve, Ed-lana Vinson and Darlene Sparkman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Warrick and Mrs. J. E. Warrick spent Thanksgiving with their relatives at Wellington.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Vogler, Harry James, Mary Ann to Manhattan, Kansas to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Caudle and family. Mrs. Caudle is a sister of Vogler and daughter of Mrs. S. C. Vogler.

The third year 4-H girls, Mary Ann Vogler and Diana Adams, have been working on their food unit, under the direction of their leader, Mrs. E. F. Vogler.

Frio Young People attended the Baptist Associational Youth Rally at Oklahoma Lane, November 23. There were 18 young people accompanied by Rev. G. W. Fine, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Manley and Mrs. Earl Harkins. The group won the attendance banner of the association.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Springer, Cory and Kristi, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tinnin of Hereford, spent Thanksgiving Day at Elida, N.M., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Embrey Wall.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Manley, Troy and Linda spent Sunday night November 2, with his father, H. G. Manley at Anton. On Monday they visited the Manleys daughter, Mrs. Jim Mills, Mr. Mills and Kelly at Petersburg.

tion. Chagas' disease is caused by a tiny protozoan parasite called a trypanosome. These organisms are found in the gut contents of certain species of blood-sucking bugs.

Human infection results from rubbing infective fecal material into the skin at or near the site of the bite. Disease does not result from the bite alone. Some hypersensitive individuals may have an allergic reaction from the bite alone.

Insects that transmit the disease to man are known by such common names as kissing bugs, cone-nose bugs and Mexican bedbugs. Scientifically speaking, they belong to the insect order Hemiptera, family Reduviidae.

The "kissing bug" nickname stems from the fact that these insects feed almost exclusively at night, biting sleeping persons about the face.

All species occurring in the United States are members of the insect genus Triatoma. Six species of Triatoma are known to be present in Texas. These species of kissing bugs are not the same as those transmitting Chagas' disease in central and south America. Apparently they are much less capable of transmitting disease to man.

Triatoma bugs feed almost exclusively on the blood of warm blooded mammals and birds. During the day they remain hidden in cracks and crevices in such places as bedrooms, chicken houses and horse barns.

Good premise sanitation about the home and outbuildings, helps control these insects by eliminating their breeding places.

What's Happening In The English Department

English has been said to be the backbone of almost any field one chooses to go into as a life vocation. Unless one knows how to express his thoughts on paper, and unless his vocabulary is extensive enough to make what he writes interesting, he cannot go very far in life. In Mr. Newman's English IV Classes the goals for this semester are:

1. Reading - extending our reading horizons into new and deeper fields becoming acquainted with some of the great books.
2. Writing - learning some of the principles that make for correct and effective writing.
3. Vocabulary - extending our vocabulary so that we can understand and appreciate higher-level reading.
4. Spelling - learning to spell correctly the words at our level and above.
5. Grammar - learning functional grammar and correct usage.

In Mrs. Downing's English III classes the Juniors are writing descriptive and other types of themes to improve their grammar.

Mrs. Hilburn's English II classes are working on the goals for this semester to try to improve writing ability and to express themselves more fully by learning correct grammar. Mrs. DiCuffa's English I classes are also working on the principles of grammar and putting it into practice by writing. They are also working on logical organization.

Personality of the Week

The glowing personality selected this week is Kathy (Kathryn) Huckabay. Kathy was born June 28, 1947, to her proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Huckabay.

Every day brings some new experience to Kathy, for her mind is never still, and to an inquiring mind, answers will always come. A search for adventure is an intriguing characteristic of Kathy in very early years. Yet Kathy possesses that trait, Horseback riding and fighting with Donnie are only two of the many adventures she enjoys.

When not employing her ingenuity upon such things as this, she enjoys working in her Science Club, F.F.A. and Library Activities. With a mind such as this, it seems only natural that the movie she enjoyed seeing most of all was "The Alamo". The rugged John Wayne heads her list of favorites among actors and Doris Day is her favorite among the actresses. In Kathy's more serene moments, she likes listening to the song, "Dominique."

To others, she has always seemed to be a sincere person who thinks clearly on every subject, and is not afraid to assert her opinions. Kathy has certainly thought clearly about her future plans and known exactly what she wants to do. She plans to attend Texas Tech and then go to Europe for further schooling.

I am sure the students of Dimmitt High School will join with me

Government Machinery Moves On After Death Of JFK

Even as the news of President Kennedy's death spread across the nation and around the world, the government of the United States kept on moving, and it prepared for the succession of President Kennedy by Lyndon Baines Johnson. Johnson was sworn in as the new President an hour and a half after the death of Kennedy. As the President's special plane, Air Force One, sped towards Washington, high government officials prepared to brief the new President on important world affairs. That night he conferred with Defense Secretary Robert McNamara and Under Secretary of State George Ball. At his office in the Executive Office Building, across the street from the White House, he talked with former Presidents Eisenhower and Truman.

When there has been a change of administration before in the history of the United States government, it was customary for all the former presidential aides, the ambassadors, and the Cabinet to resign, but President Johnson has broken tradition by asking all of them to remain in service, at least temporarily. Both political parties in the Congress assured support of the President.

The death of former President Kennedy is not likely to alter the domestic or foreign policies of the U. S. Government, because Johnson has the same views on these policies as Kennedy had. In the past days, Johnson has conferred with other important officials, as he picks up the strings of office where Kennedy left them. In these modern times, no matter what tragedy has happened, the vital workings of the country must go on.

Dimmitt, McAdoe Split In Doubleheader

The Dimmitt Bobcats met the McAdoe Eagles in a lopsided upset as the Eagles romped by the Cats in a high scoring ballgame 73-48. The Bobbies played a wonderful game as they slipped by the McAdoe fems 42-39.

Dimmitt-I

The Bobcat Band made their way slowly but surely to Tech stadium in Lubbock for the annual marching contest Tuesday, November 26. Before leaving, the band had not as yet made up their minds about making a first, but as they began practicing before leaving Dimmitt the good 'ole Bobcat Band spirit began to return to the players. As the buses reached the Tech parking lot, everyone jumped off searching for a place to eat before assembling back to dress and prepare themselves for marching. As 3:00 the crucial hour, approached, the announcer presented the Dimmitt Bobcat Band under the direction of Mr. Ralph Smith to the many groups of bands, parents, and the judges, A. H. Long, Frank Pierson and J.R. McIntyre. After giving their performance, the band seated themselves upon the bleachers and waited anxiously for their rating. When the announcer said Dimmitt I, you could hear them scream all the way to Amarillo. We would like to say congratulations to a fine band, director, and a fine performance.

Campus Chat

Wednesday afternoon school turned out for the Thanksgiving holidays. Many of our local students went to visit friends and relatives over the holidays but some remained around Dimmitt to keep the local drag lively. Wednesday night Jane Cleavinger and Jim Axe, Shari Willis and Clint Summers, Suzie Davis and Ronald Young, Penny Pennington and Steve Seigler, and Kay Williams and Bill Stevens celebrated the eve of Thanksgiving with each other to form the local dating set.

Thursday night marked the end of a long Thanksgiving Day. Out on the town to celebrate this special occasion were Pam Dollar and Davy Thompson, Nancy Hays and Kent Hance, Kathy Gollehon and Carl Moore, and Penny Pennington and Steve Seigler. Friday night a large number of the D. H. S. students headed to McAdoe for the big basketball games. Some of the boys remaining in Dimmitt were up to their usual mischief. Betcha can't who are what! Some of the dates in Dimmitt Friday night were Kay Bradley and Larry Burks, Suzie Davis and Ronald Young, and Suzanne Dickey and Kelton Cates.

Saturday night another full moon was a great help for dates like Pam Dollar and Davy Thompson, Suzie Davis and Ronald Young, Glenda Minchew and George Wall, Kay Bradley and Jay Nelson, Carlanne Calvert and Roy Battles, and Sharon Lilley and Gary Morrison. It was quite apparent Sunday night that the holidays were nearly over as a great number of last minute dates were making the scene. Some of these dates were Arlene Reed and Richard Connell, Suzanne Dickey and Gary Calhoun, Evelyn Waggoner and Tommy Gross, Freida Webb and Craig Fuller, Arnold Acker and Janice Baldrige, Suzie Davis and Ronald Young, Judy Mooney and Gary Moore, Vickie Beyers and Robbie Lindsey, Linda Hrabel and Dennis Cleaver, Pam Dollar and Davy Thompson, and Carlanne Calvert and Clint Summers. This concludes some of the dates and activities of the Thanksgiving weekend.

Our Campus

Our sympathy is expressed to Johnnie Adams in the loss of his father.

Along with many other events that happened over the Thanksgiving holidays a very special one occurred in Donna Dehtan's family. She has a new baby brother named Scott Allen.

All reports were expressed that a very happy Thanksgiving was enjoyed by the teacher's and student's of D.H.S.

CONGRATULATIONS!! The band won another 1st place at marching contest this year, Way to keep up the old tradition, band!!

The Honor Roll will be out soon and those that worked for this honor will get their reward!! Were you among these???

Another Congratulations goes to a lucky girl named Suzie Davis that received the honor of being F.F.A. Sweetheart this year.

The seniors are asked to pay their money for their pictures as soon as possible so you can pick them up when they arrive. Also, seniors, be thinking of what kind of party you would like to have if a date is found available.

Congratulations is expressed to all those that were selected as favorites of their class!!

The Homecoming Showcase has been looking exceptionally good lately! Keep up the work girls!

The Snooper

Last week has been an exciting one. Many things have happened but I will only tell you the best ones. It appears that Larry Scoggin has been keeping the law enforcement officers fairly busy. His new car just won't slow down. Let's see, Larry, how many tickets did you rate this week?

In past issues, I'm sure you have read about the experiences of a few Senior boys and one trouble maker making Junior girl named Janis Davis. The boys, with the help of some Sophomore boys finally got even with Janis. When she returned to school Wednesday after being gone with the band on Tuesday, she found her locker stuffed with toilet tissue. Someday you will learn to leave the boys alone, Janis.

Poor, poor Eugene!! It appeared that he just couldn't find out what that terrible smell was that permeated the air inside his car. He noticed the smell Friday night while going home and not until Sunday did he find a dead rotten fish under the front seat of his car. Suzie Davis and Ronald Young gave themselves up when Eugene said he would "beat up" whoever did that to his car. Although they did admit the act, they blame the idea entirely upon Mrs. J. G. Davis, who thought it would be quite a joke!

Basketball is getting "ruff" lately. Two mean Senior girls, LaDawn and Sharon, tried to throw Jane Cleavinger into the shower this week. While protecting herself and protesting, she cut her hand but she did succeed in getting Sharon part way into the shower because Sharon's hair was wet and rolled up during lunch and activity period.

Dale Leinen and Mike Reed of Hart decided to test the speed of their cars on Thunder Road Sunday night. Ronald Young was with Mike. After three runs the boy decided that Mike won the first run. Dale won the third run, and much to the disgrace of both of the boys, they both burned out on the second run.

Thanksgiving a turkey kept me at the eating table most of the holidays but aren't you glad that I got out just a little bit to catch some of our conniving teenager?

Thanksgiving Run-Abouts

Carolyn Holcomb visited in, as she termed it, "the promised land" of Arkansas during Thanksgiving. She visited the University of Arkansas and "Sid" while there.

Lou Ann Hays was one of the more ambitious. She worked at the tax office during the holidays.

Suzie Davis and many others spent their holidays entertaining company.

Michele Bertonneau and Pat Moran spent Thanksgiving in Rudoso with the intention of skiing, but due to lack of snow they filled their time sightseeing.

Penny Pennington filled her time during the holidays with Steve Seigler from Hereford.

Donnie Jackson, Bennie Hill, and Gary Moss went to Six Flags. They left Friday and returned Sunday.

Carlanne Calvert spent her Thanksgiving holidays at Abilene Christian College visiting her brother and "others".

Dennis Cleaver visited relatives in Oklahoma. We hear that you had fun, Dennis!

Ricki Goodwin, when asked if she did anything exciting during the holiday, replied in a very mysterious voice, "just the dance". What did you mean by this, Ricki? A boy from Iraq spent a week with Linda Howell and her family.

Dimmitt, Sudan Swap Victories

The Dimmitt Bobcats took another victory Tuesday night, November 26, over Sudan 53-33. The Cats broke into the lead in the first period by scoring 11 points to Sudan's 6. In the second period the Cat's added 18 more points to Sudan's 4. Dimmitt's "B" team saw much action during the second half and brought the Cats to victory with a 53-33 score. Steve Hutton led the Cats with 10 points.

The Dimmitt Bobbies fell a bit short of the margin to Sudan 38-36. The Bobbies jumped to a first period lead 13-7. At the end of the second period the Bobbies still held a 6 point lead with a 23-17 lead. After the half Sudan came stamping back to tie up the score at the end of the third period 29-29 and then sneaked in 2 extra points in the final period to jump ahead 38-36. La Dawn Kemp and Sharon Lilley both netted 14 points for the Bobbies to lead in scoring.

High School Menu

The Christmas Spirit

Now that Christmas is only about twenty days away we may begin to ask ourselves: What is the Christmas spirit?
 It is the spirit which brings a smile to the lips and tenderness to the heart; it is the spirit which warms one into friendship with all the world, which serves one to hold out the hand of fellowship to every man and woman, to every boy and girl.

For the Christmas motto is "Peace on earth, good-will to men," and the spirit of Christmas demands that it ring in our hearts and find expression in kindly acts and loving words.

What a joyful thing for the world it would be if the Christmas spirit could do this, not only on that holiday, but on every day of the year. What a beautiful place the world would be to live in! Peace and good-will everywhere and always! Let each of us resolve that, so far as we are concerned, peace and good-will shall be our motto every day, and that we will do our best to make the Christmas spirit last all the year round.

Good luck unto old Christmas, and long life let us sing,
 For he doth more good unto the poor Than many a crowned king!

F.F.A. Sweetheart

Saturday the 23rd of November the F.F.A. boys met to choose their sweetheart. Suzie Davis was elected. They went to Floydada the Monday following the election. Those who attended are Kerry Struve, Tommy Gross, Richard Cornell, Jay Nelson, Ronald Young, Suzie, and her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Davis Jr.

Suzie was first alternate chosen at Floydada. There were 17 other girls besides Suzie. A girl from Tullia won first. If something happens then Suzie will take her place and go to the District Sweetheart contest at Dalhart. If she wins there then she will go to state. Besides winning the honor of F. F. A. Sweetheart, Suzie will get to attend the annual F.F.A. banquet.

Student Senate News

November 27, 1963 the Student Senate met with Jim Axe presiding. A financial report was given by Jacky Nichols. He reported 10.90 on fund. A hat and coat rack, parking permits, and school spirit stickers were among the suggestions made for raising money. Mr. Newman expressed his appreciation to those who worked so hard in making the SPASC Convention a success. Clint Summers and Robby Lindsey were appointed to raise the flag each morning during this six-weeks. Reports were given by Jim Axe, Steve Hutton, and Linda McColum about the workshops which they attended at the convention. They were mainly concerned with making money and relations between students and faculty.

Student Council Assn. Hears Dr. Roy C. McClung

"Today, we have a part in a sad world, you and I," spoke Dr. Roy C. McClung in an address Saturday morning in Dimmitt High School to South Plains Association of Student Councils Convention.

"We are ashamed. To resolve our differences with bullets is a most inhuman and immoral thing," declared the president of Wayland Baptist College, Plainview.

Dr. McClung went on to point out the intelligent and excellent system of the government. He said, "If it had not been for the fact that we had an intelligent system of government, chaos would have reigned today." He continued, "Our government has been hammered out on the anvil of human experience."

He told the students, "I call on you to rethink the heritage that belongs to you. Our government is based on the dignity of the individual."

day when men without wisdom and without hearts have no place in human leadership. These are the days that call for the best human minds we can produce."

He continued, "This is a day for the uniting of heart and mind of dedicated youth to intelligent leadership. You young leaders are called upon to give the best to your school, community and country."

The president appealed to the youth declaring, "greatest natural resource of this country is in young people like you. We need an intelligent, trained, dedicated citizenship willing to serve. Stretch your mind to its highest capabilities, study and learn."

Representatives from 14 schools and student councils gathered in Dimmitt Saturday for the Convention.

The meeting was called to order by President Vance Liston of Lorenzo, after a short opening program by the Dimmitt State band, directed by Ralph Smith. The representative Parliamentarian from Monterey High School proposed to the group the following resolution: WHEREAS, On the 22nd day of November in the year of our Lord 1963, the President of the United States met his death at the hands of an assassin in Dallas, Texas, Be It Resolved, That this meeting of the South Plains Association of Student Councils rise for a period of silent meditation in honor of our martyred President and in respect to his memory, and, be it further,

RESOLVED, That the secretary of this association be instructed to send letters of condolence and sympathy to the family of the late President, and, Be It Highly Resolved, that we shall all return to our homes with the purpose in our hearts to establish brotherly love where there is hate, to bring hope where there is despair, and to "ask not what our country can do for us but what we can do for our country", in order that we may build a country in which such a terrible event as we have witnessed can never again take place.

The resolution was accepted unanimously by group standing and after a moment of meditation and thoughtful silence, the invocation was given. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Nancy Hays,

Soil Conservation Districts Blanket United States

Soil Conservation Districts blanket the nation. They include about 95 per cent of the farms and ranches, and more than 90 per cent of the agricultural land in the United States today.

Each Soil Conservation District has a conservation program to fit its local problems. It uses a combination of Federal, State and local services to put its own program into effect on individual farm and ranches.

More than two decades of experience, since the first Districts were organized in 1937, demonstrate that Soil Conservation Districts are an effective means for both individual and community action to deal with local soil and water problems.

Soil Conservation Districts are legally constituted units of State Government created to administer soil and water conservation work within their boundaries. They are not branches or agencies of any Federal Department.

Each district is self-governed. It has authority to enter into working agreements with other government agencies and with private concerns to carry out its purposes.

Through such working agreements with the individual districts, the Soil Conservation Service and agencies of the U. S. Department of Agriculture provide assistance to farmers, ranchers, watershed associations, and others.

Each Soil Conservation District is created by legal procedures under authority of state law.

The law is based on the principle that local land-owners and programs aimed at solving local operators should take the initiative and responsibility in directing conservation programs aimed at solving local soil and water problems.

Districts are created after petition, public hearings, and a referendum showing that land owners and operators desire a District to deal with their conservation problems.

Once established, a Soil Conservation District is legally responsible for soil and water conservation within its territory, much as a county is responsible for roads or a school district for education.

representative Secretary from Dimmitt. Entertainment for the group included a hootenanny by local folk singers, Peter, Paul, and Mounds, (better known to you as Jack Nichols, Clint Summers, and Kathy Gollehon) and a skit by Seminole High School.

After the noon meal, the students met in various workshop groups to study individual problems. At 2:15 p.m., after a short cokes break, the business session was called to order. The minutes were read and approved by the Secretary.

The new officers elected were: President - Levelland, Vice-President; Secretary, Littlefield, and Parliamentarian- Hutchinson, Junior High of Lubbock. The meeting was adjourned.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

Most professional bird-dog trainers, particularly those in the South, who train for the major field-trial circuit, are enthusiastic fox hunters. Look around their training establishments and you will probably find a separate kennel of fox-hounds, pedigreed animals of fine breeding that can hold their own in the hottest company. You'd think a man who devotes some eight to twelve hours a day to working bird-dog pupils afield would have his fill of canine company when night falls. "But, says Henry P. Davis, Sporting Dogs Editor of Sports Afield Magazine, "I have spent many long days with a number of bird-dog trainers, riding behind candidates for quail-quitting proficiency, only to wind up, in the small hours of the next morning, sitting around a woodland fire, listening to a pack of hounds drive a stubborn old gray fox around the loop of his range."

hounds drive a stubborn old gray fox around the loop of his range."

Wherever professional bird-dog trainers gather, whether at field trials or at social functions, it is only natural for bird-dog talk to be the matter of the moment. Yet many times you break up almost any bird-dog conversation by the mere mention of foxhounds.

Yes, it's a strange thing, this love of foxhounds which seems universal in the hearts of professional bird-dog trainers. I know that their paramount interest is in the work through which they gain a livelihood. But, when it comes to personal recreation, the foxhound gets the call with many. I suppose it is because the hounds are running free. There are no whistles to turn from a cast, no check cords, no steadying to shot and wing. In other words, no work. It's simply a matter of lolling back and listening to the thrilling, primordial, spine-tingling squall of hounds, engaged in a chase in which the quarry is seldom sighted.

Strange again is the fact that this does not work in reverse. The dyed-in-the-wool foxhound fan seldom has any time for any other breed. Fox hunting is his sport, first, last and all the time. Certainly there are exceptions, and many of them. But try to break up any hound-talk session by injecting the subject of bird dogs, and your efforts will go for naught. True, many hound men own bird dogs and are enthusiastic bird hunters, but their real interest lies in that foxhound pack.

Dry Ranges Pose Problems

Beef cattle which have been on dry ranges for the past six months or more many face serious nutritional deficiencies, says U. D. Thompson, extension animal husbandman. Of major importance is the lack of sufficient range grass or forage. The low quality or absence of total digestible nutrients is a further complicating factor, he adds. This kind of roughage contains little or no protein, phosphorus and vitamin A.

Decisions are difficult to make during stress periods. An attempt should be made to balance livestock numbers and forage supplies. Calves may be weaned earlier to help relieve grazing pressure and improve cow conditions. Placement of culling is always in order. Non-breeders, slow breeders, irregular breeders and cows which consistently produce lower grade, light weight calves should be marketed. Thompson recommends that cows be palpated to determine pregnancy and to sell those not pregnant.

Under conditions of extreme drought, it may be advisable to confine the foundation herd to a small acreage. High energy feeds such as grains and protein supplements may be fed in limited amounts for maintenance. Forage is the critical feed, however, and is usually high in cost for total digestible nutrients, he says. A protein supplement fed with the forage will improve digestion.

Phosphorus is the most likely mineral to be deficient under drought conditions. A mineral supplement high in phosphorus should be fed free choice or in controlled drinking water and salt should also be fed free choice, the specialist advises.

Vitamin A may or may not be forage available. Protein supplements fortified with vitamin A should be considered. Synthetic vitamin A is available for use in drinking water, injections or for mixing with feed. Thompson points out that most Texas livestock producers have had experience handling stock during periods of stress and that decisions on management practices becomes almost an individual proposition.

Grain Sorghum Chat

by Wes Anthony

In last week's comments in the last sentence we said, "Is it too much to ask for two pounds of grain for every five thousand pounds of grain sorghum we produce?"

We should have said, "Is it too much to ask to give two scoopfuls of grain each fifteen thousand lb. load?"

Usher: To elder lady, "how far down would you like to sit?"

Lady: All the way down, I am very tired.

Land Erosion Considered Costly

Soil erosion in the United States is resulting in losses costing more than $3,800,000,000 a year. Directly or indirectly, YOU, the American taxpayer, must pay this bill. Soil erosion losses are measured in terms of lowered soil productivity on farms and ranches; damage from siltation of reservoirs and depletion of fish in streams; damage within cities from floods and stream bank erosion; and damage to watersheds supplying water for municipal and irrigation users.

These losses are purely monetary and do not include the serious effects of soil depletion upon the physical and moral health of the people. Your Soil Conservation District has been organized to check erosion losses. See the district supervisors or representatives of the Soil Conservation Service about a complete soil and water conservation program for your land.

Your Business Will Be Royally Appreciated

Our guests of honor did not arrive. A "Texas Welcome Dinner" in Austin, honoring President and Mrs. Kennedy and Vice President and Mrs. Johnson, was cancelled.

President Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas during the noon hour Friday, just a few hours before he was to be the guest of 3,000 Democrats of Texas at one of the largest honor banquets ever held in the Lone Star State.

He died of bullet wounds received while in a motorcade enroute to a speaking engagement at the Dallas Mart.

Also shot by the sniper and seriously injured was Texas' Governor John Connally, who was riding with the President. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, in keeping with customary security measures, was in another car. He was unharmed.

It was a bright, sunny day, suddenly turned into darkness and gloom...not just in Dallas and Austin, but throughout the world. Undoubtedly it was the blackest day in Texas history.

Thousands of persons, including Texas legislators, heard the news enroute to Austin. Many continued their journeys to the capital...a city paralyzed by the shocking events. Hundreds joined the legislators in memorial services in the House of Representatives.

It was a sad ending to an even sadder day. CONNALLY RECOVERING— First encouraging news to reach the capital following the murderous attack on the president and governor was word that the operation on Connally was successful. However, he is expected to be hospitalized for at least 10 days.

JOHNSON ASSUMES PRESIDENCY— Within a few hours after President Kennedy's assassination, Lyndon B. Johnson was sworn in as President.

Swearing-in ceremonies were performed by Federal District Judge Sarah T. Hughes aboard the presidential plane just before the jet airliner bearing the deceased president's body left Love Field for Washington.

WATER PROPOSAL— Governor Connally, addressing the Texas Water Conservation Association's annual meeting here, recommended a six-point program for meeting future water needs.

To harness the state's water resources the Governor recommended full development of water supplies in the central and western basins; development in eastern river basins and diversion from areas of excess to those of deficiency; proper use of under ground water resources; safeguards to maintain quality of surface and ground water; planning for re-use of water; and a coordinated, systematic program "with an immediate accelerated effort."

Floyd E. Dominy, Federal Reclamation Commission, called for grass roots leadership to push the Texas Basins Project. Proposed is $3,000,000,000 in expenditures for 83 dams and an elaborate conduit system to include a 419-mile canal along the coast. "Industry is not attracted by water plans," stated Dominy. "Industry wants water supplies. Lacking them here, it will go where water is available."

EXPENDITURES APPROVED— Legislative Budget Board approved plans for a $1,000,000 conference center at The University of Texas. Governor Connally had vetoed the appropriations item because they placed "bricks over brains."

Board also authorized expenditures of $253,000 by the Parks and Wildlife Commission. Of this, $49,500 will go for conversion of Port Lavaca causeway into a fishing pier.

House Speaker Byron Tunnell, a member of the board, criticized Sul Ross College President Bryant Wildenthal for buying a $85,000 electronic computer after the legislature turned down the purchase. Tunnell asked the comptroller not to pay the bill and said he thought a legislative investigation is in order.

SEEKS IMPORT CURB— A law to back up the State Highway Commission Order (voided by the courts) to curb use of steel imports on state projects has been proposed by a legislative committee.

Supreme Court has held that the 1960 "Buy America" order infringes on state law requiring competitive bidding.

OGALLALA HEARINGS— Major oil and gas industry spokesmen told the Texas Water Pollution Control Board they are going all out to protect fresh water supplies of the Ogallala formation. The formation covers 48 West Texas and Panhandle counties and extends 31,500 square miles.

James L. Sewell, president of Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association said: "It is our desire to form an alliance with groups in the industry or outside...who wish to protect the waters of this state." He predicted a flexible program can solve the problems without jeopardizing extensive oil and gas operations.

Last September the board's geologist recommended elimination of unlined surface pits used for disposal of oil field brines in the Ogallala area. Seepage of brine was

Brother and Sister Spark Dystrophy Drive

Karsh, Ottawa

Two story-book youngsters from Cincinnati, Ohio, Robbie and Kerrie Whitaker, have been chosen as national poster children by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc. The first "duo" to be selected for this honor, they have a further distinction. Their beauty and charm made such an impression on famous photographer Yusuf Karsh that he invited them to his New York studio for a picture-taking session. His camera portrait of the children is being used to help publicize MDA's annual drive for funds, the March for Muscular Dystrophy.

The most extraordinary thing about Robbie and Kerrie Whitaker, national poster children for Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, is that they behave as though they were unaware of their handicap. This in spite of the fact that seven-year-old Robbie is confined to a wheel chair and that his sister, a year younger, must wear heavy braces on her frail legs just to be able to stand.

The youngsters, children of Mr. and Mrs. C. Leigh Whitaker of Cincinnati, Ohio, have the delicate blond beauty of the cherubs one sees in early Renaissance paintings. Their personalities, however, are not nearly as ethereal as their appearance. Robbie is a down-to-earth American boy with an outsize sense of humor and a keen interest in military matters. As for Kerrie, she is the kind of little girl who seems destined to be "the belle of the ball." Her devastating femininity reveals itself in a smile which, in the words of a Cincinnati reporter, "goes at least as far back as Cleopatra."

The children have a delightfully warm relationship with each other and with their parents. The whole family loves pets and the house swarms with them—two dogs, a cat, a couple of rabbits and a parakeet.

Robbie and Kerrie both enjoy going to school and they make excellent grades. Getting them back and forth, however, is a problem in logistics requiring the combined efforts of both parents and a driver trained in the difficult art of lifting children whose muscles are so weak that their small bodies tend to slip through all but the most skillful supporting hands.

Joyce and Leigh Whitaker take such problems in their stride. What shadows their lives is the knowledge that muscular dystrophy is a progressive disease, more rapidly progressive in children than in adults. For its young victims—and there are thousands upon thousands of them in this country alone—the future holds only increasing disability and a tragically premature death.

That is the present situation. But the Whitakers refuse to despair. Their hopes, like those of so many other parents, are centered on the research program sponsored by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America. They know that the concentrated scientific activity initiated by MDA is beginning to pay off. Insight into dystrophy and related crippling disorders has advanced tremendously in the past decade. Within the next decade, perhaps, if the pace of new findings continues to accelerate, these diseases may be numbered among the conquests of medical science.

Robbie and Kerrie are too young to know that their very lives depend on the success of the vast scientific offensive which has been mounted by MDA. But they realize that, as poster children, they are the Association's ambassadors to the people of America. "We'll have to travel a lot," Robbie observes seriously. "We've got to tell everybody about the March for Muscular Dystrophy." Kerrie nods and smiles that devastating smile. "But we love it," she says, "we love airplanes and people and everything we do."

It is easy to see why this engaging brother and sister team is such an inspiration to MDA's hundreds of thousands of volunteers. There is no question that the public, whose generous contributions make the Association's work possible, will respond in equal measure to their appeal.

Waggoner Carr, Regulatory Loan Commissioner Frank Miskell granted a 30-day extension of time in which some 250 finance company operators may be licensed to operate under the 1963 Texas Regulatory Loan Act. The 1963 act affords liberal interest rates for the lenders.

Licensing deadline was November 21. So many license applications were held up, due to bonafide technical omissions, that Miskell asked Carr if he could give those "of good faith" a little leeway. Copies of his extension order will serve in lieu of licenses until their applications are granted or rejected.

On the deadline date, the Office of Regulatory Loan Commissioner had granted 1,300 licenses to loan companies. Any who now operate in violation of the law are subject to a fine of $500 to $1,000 and or up to six months in jail.

SECURITIES PERMITS UP— Granting of permits by the State Securities Board took a sharp upward turn in dollar value during October, after a September lag.

Last month permits totaled a dollar worth of $21,814, a high jump over September's value of $12,701,583. Forty companies—including 11 Texas firms—were given permission to sell stocks in the state.

GROUPS FORM— Two new non-profit corporations were granted charters by Secretary of State Crawford Martin last week.

"Save Our Shell, Inc.," is dedicated to conservation of shell reefs and oyster beds in the Gulf Coast area and other conservation matters. The Coastal group is a client in a suit to set aside a Parks and Wildlife...

ting dredging of shell close to live oyster reefs.

Second group, the Texas League of Political Research, Inc. of San Antonio, outlines a program of studying the voting system on officials and issues. Albert Fuentes Jr., state executive secretary for the Political Association of Spanish Speaking Organizations (PASO), forwarded the TLPRI articles of incorporation to Martin.

SHORT SNORTS—

Texas Employment Commission named a former assistant attorney general Ernest E. Fortenberry as its General Counsel. Governor Connally appointed Clyde E. White, side of Seymour District Attorney of the 50th District; named Dr. Clarence Smith Kemp of Bryan to State Board of Medical Examiners; and reappointed Mrs. Mary Hudson of Austin as Firemen's Pension Commissioner, only woman to head a State agency.

MORE MORE MORE TEXAS TAXES HIGH—

People who think they are paying high state property and sales taxes will be interested to know they are! A study of state financing by the Legislative Budget Board reveals that the state tax burden in Texas is heavier than the national average.

A 10-year view of tax burdens—the term statisticians use to describe state taxes as a percentage of total personal income—shows Texans "tax burden" has risen above the average for the first time.

Texans contributed only 3.7 per cent of their total income to help run the state in 1952, when the average U. S. citizen chipped in 3.9 per cent to his state.

Last year, the average Texan paid 4.9 per cent of his income for state taxes, while the average in other states doled out only 4.7 per cent.

State taxes are climbing upward all over the country, but in Texas the climb has been quicker than in other states. This is due partly, because the average Texan's income has not risen as fast as his taxes, or as fast as the average income.

In 1949, average per-person income of Texans was 92.8 per cent of the national average. It was only 85.2 per cent of the national average in 1962.

FREE FOOD GRANTS DECLINE. Distribution of free federal surplus foods by the State Department of Public Welfare decreased by more than 2,000 recipients between September, 1962 and September,

In September of last year 149,694 recipients in 87 counties and five cities were receiving free farm surplus. This year, the September number had dwindled to 147,583 persons in 88 counties and three cities. Navarro County was dropped from the list during the 12-month period, but Bee and Cameron counties were added.

BORDEE DISPUTE— Texas and Louisiana officials have agreed to work out the dispute over the boundary line in Sabine Lake soon, according to Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler. They hope to do it without a lawsuit.

It is easy to see why the center line of the lake is the boundary, but Louisiana claims its land extends to the west bank. Oil companies are eyeing settlement measures closely.

CAR-TAX SOLUTION SUGGESTED.— Although county tax collectors have authority to levy and collect ad valorem taxes on automobiles, a study by the Texas Commission on State and Local Tax Policy reveals that only about a fourth of the state's taxing units make any effort to collect them.

Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas County—one that does collect—suggests that county tax collectors have their pay cut when they fail to collect the taxes which they levy. As a member of the tax-study group, Parkhouse will have an opportunity to present his suggestion to the Legislature in 1965.

Land Owners Are Important To SCD Program

Of all the people who do conservation work, the most important are the owners and users of farm and ranch land.

Soil Conservation Districts are assuming the leadership in soil and water conservation throughout Texas and the nation. These Soil Conservation Districts represent all of the people in the District and is the farmer's and rancher's own conservation program. In Texas, Soil Conservation Districts are authorized under state law.

Each Soil Conservation District is administered by a governing body of five local landowners elected by their friends and neighbors who are landowners in the District and serve without pay. It is their responsibility to administer the program and plan their Soil Conservation District, administer funds that they may have available for the benefit of the program, operate district-owned equipment, hire district employees as needed, and ask for and secure help from local, State and Federal Agencies. It is the responsibility of the Soil Conservation District to see that all farmers and ranchers in the District receive technical information and other assistance they need to do the conservation job on their land; and to keep all the people in the District informed about the conservation problem and progress made toward its solution.

In addition to assistance from the Soil Conservation Service, the District can ask for and receive assistance through a number of other programs and people. Help goes to districts from the Agricultural Conservation Program, Farmer's Home Administration, U. S. Forest Service, The Texas Forest Service, U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Texas Parks and Game Commission, Agricultural Extension Stations, Agricultural Research Service, Texas Educational Agency, colleges, universities and others.

A FAIR FEEDING TRIAL OF BEEFMASTER'S LIQUID FEED WILL DEMONSTRATE TO YOU HOW THIS PRODUCT CAN MAKE MORE MONEY FOR YOU IN YOUR FEEDING OPERATIONS

REPORTS FROM CATTLE FEEDERS EVERYWHERE indicate that cattle getting Beefmaster's Feed consistently do better, gain more and do so on less feed. They have less trouble adjusting to changes in rations, have a good steady appetite and eat better. Digestive troubles and bloat are practically eliminated, and severe weather changes do not bother cattle that are getting Beefmaster's Feed regularly.

GOOD HIGH ENERGY, HIGHLY FORTIFIED PROTEIN SUPPLEMENT MEANS MORE GAIN QUICKER ON LESS FEED

- STIMULATES RUMEN FUNCTION THESE WAYS:
- 1 Starts a natural sweet fermentation
 - 2 Provides effective enzymes to assist those of the rumen bacteria
 - 3 Provides factors which are essential to the growth and multiplication of rumen micro-organisms
