SWEET N' SOUR

t was a great night for gob-s and a wild night for witches Tuesday. A stalled cold front resulted in mild weather - just right for "spookin." We kept a ghostly guest book for our visi-tors and although some slipped away without leaving a name away without leaving a name we did count nearly a hundred The very first guest to come calling was a very attractive wandering gypsy, Lee Ann Brown, and then they came hick and fast. Lefty Simons rame by and so did Dian, Dean and Levon. Ann and Debbie Glasson were felcome guests and were Kerry, Cindy and Jackie White, and Pam Neel. Ther came an errie apparation - Randall C. Jackson, Jr., as "Gus the red hair and infections little boy grin, was more the kind of ghost you'd want to squeeze ra-ther than screech about. Linda and Cheryl Alexander were exciting caller and so was Lans Coley. Tanya Smithson as Red Riding Hood was as cute as she could be, and our entire house hold fell desperately in love with a cuddley, jumpy bunny rabbit whose name is Nonda Smithson Kenny and Vickie Bradley were cute as could be, and so were those precious little Varners -Tommy and Vickie. Three more "visiting ghosts" (cute ones too) came by - Marianne, Paula and Raleign Max Varner. Our own neighbors, Doris Ann and Na-dine Shelnutt were among the errant spooks. Hazel Byrd was errant spooks. Hazel Byrd was a visitor too. Jimmy Williams brought two Halloween sprites by - Larry Newton in a wild 'n wicked devils suit, and Candy Newton as a lovely little fairy-tale princess, Cinderella. Doris Fay and Gina Correll came over and brought with them the "littlest spook" - Steven DeFosses their nephery Billy Paul Harris their nephew. Billy Paul Harris was a handsome Halloweener and you should have seen the skeleton who came rattling our door - his name - Bill Trow-bridge. Eddie, Guy and Debbie Curtis made a fine group and so did Phyllis and Bryan Hughes. Two of our favorite flavor of witches were prowling last night

- Wilda and Debbie Williams Paul and Debbie Stanley were here and also Tommy and Bobb Betcher (we were so glad they came). Bob, Stevie and Teresa Parks came calling and so did Franklin Alexander, Butch and Jim Smith were here and also Roger Freeland. Mike and Eliza beth Smalley were guests and we think Pam Bransord was one o those wild spooks who disap-peared into the night before w could be sure just who it was We even had a puppy dog caller cute one too). Betsy LaCour Mark Baum, David, James and Ricky Jaggars (wildest space men) were here. Ruby Aber-i y came spookin'. Kerry Skinner, just about the tiniest and sweetest goblin ever, was a caller. You should have seen the little Kellys - Cora Sue was the finest of Halloween Cats and brother Jackle simply wins the prize - the most enchanting cow you'd ever hope to meet. Johnny and Barbara Voights were spookstoo. Some very welcome visitors were Ada, Charlene and Tiny Eva Black, and also Jerry Black - you couldn't asked to be "haunted" by nicer spooks. Barbara Bruce and Charlotte name. Dugan were wild 'n wolly Hallo eners and were awfully glad here - and oh my! you should leseen Allan Towler's "plastic man" get up and Ronnie Hughes as a pirate. The Gibson children were Halloween callers and so were the Vines girls, Bess and Debbie. Mike Tollett came spook-ing and a very nice troop of spooks, Jim, Laura, Mark, Ruby and Shara Coker. Carlie Carrico and Janis Bryant were two wild Halloween was more fun than a barrel of Jack-o-lanters at our

Grazing Deadlines

Set for Wheat Farms

With few exceptions, acreage servation use under the 196 wheat stabilization program may be grazed until May 1, 1962, ac cording to Tommie Harris Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Con-servation Committee. An exception to this deadline date for grazing is where a producer wishes to benefit under the pro gram's double-cropping provi sions, in which case grazing will not be permitted on the farm

The 1962 wheat stabilization program provides for the diver-sion of land from wheat produc tion to conservation uses. By using the acreage diverted for approved conservation practices producers earn payments. The program also provides that the

They made inquiry of the owner and agreed on a price. They enquired about title and the owner assured them that he would give them an "Abstract. They took the abstract, which was a fat book of papers, and the deed, filed the deed at the courthouse and thought no more about it, assuming, as many do, that an "abstract" is an as-surance of good title.

Some years later, they went to sell to a buyer who was better informed. He insisted that either the abstract be examined and an opinion given by an attorney that the title was good or that the sellers must provide title instract showed good title, they were dismayed to find that the title was not in good order, and that there would have to be a quiet-title lawsuit to dispose of surance for them without legal to Ft. Polk, La., for military action to clear up the title.

John and Mary were astounded to learn that they were wrong is assuming that an "abwas an assurance of stract" good title. An abstract is merely record of every document which has lever been filed on record at the courthouse affectof property. It may show good title or bad title, or no title at all. It is only a bunch of papers, as John and Mary discovered, which summarizes the state the title. Its possession does not in any way assure good title.

Thus while one may be able to get possession and peacefully occupy a piece of property with an unsalable title, difficulties will arise when the property is to be sold or mortgaged. To do ing or lot with me. I may so is only to postpone and perhaps increase the trouble and expense of clearing the title. makes good sense to correct any title defects when you buy a property.

meal serving-hot without over-cooking!

Exclusive with gas ranges, Oven-with-a-Brain can hold heat at a precise 140°- not enough to cook food, but just right for keeping it moist and warm for hours! This new low-temperature control is great for heating plates, and won't damage the finest china. It's ideal for thawing frozen foods quickly and safely. And it's just one of the many automatic features that make modern gas ranges the best-cooking (as well as the best-looking) you can get. See for yourself - and look for the Gold Star Award that marks the very finest buys!
