AN ACT.

Fixing the Maximum Rate of Interest, Defining Usury and Prescribing the Penalty for Exacting the Same.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of New Mexico: Section 1. Any rate of interest not exceeding Ten per centum per annum agreed to by the parties to the contract, shall be legal, and no person shall directly or indirectly take or receive any money, goods or things in action or in any other way, any greater interest, sum or value for the loan or forbearance of any money goods or things in action than Ten per centum per annum, provided that a minimum charge of One Dollar ($1.00) may be made for interest where the said rate fails to aggregate said sum.

Section 2. If a greater rate of interest than is hereinbefore, in section one, allowed, shall be contracted for or received or reserved, the contract shall not therefore be void; but in any action on such contract, proof may be made that a greater rate of interest has been directly or indirectly contracted for or taken or reserved, and the plaintiff shall recover only the principal less the amount of interest accruing thereon at the rate contracted for, and the defendant shall recover costs; and if interest shall have been paid, judgment shall be for the principal less twice the amount of interest paid and less the amount of all accrued

Thus the German African colonies would be given by the league to Great Britain as the agent of the league, but at the end of ten years, or any other interval, another agent would be designated, particularly if the people desired a change.

This method puts the Pacific Is-lands, the Adriatic territory, and other conflicting claims up to the League of Nations for settlement.

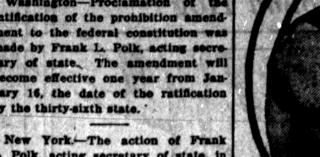

Mr. Wilson made it clear as far as the United States was concerned that she is not desirous of being mandatory agent for any area unless absolutely convinced that it is in the in-terests of civilization.

The British have been urging that America should supervise Armenia as well as a portion of southeast Africa, but America is very likely to urge that some other nation be selected. By mandatory principle, the agent nation will be obliged to apply the principle of an open door commercially to every nation, and will have no exclusive rights except as necessary for an effective police administration in semi-civilized areas.

Mr. Wilson has declined to agree to any of the respective claims of the various powers that have been urging that an absolute formula of internationalization is necessary to cover all.

When Mr. Wilson favored the British idea of the mandatory principle as the one best way of exercising international control, he won the support

L. Polk, acting secretary of state, in formally proclaiming ratification of the prohibition amendment to the federal constitution is not yet binding, according to a contention contained in a statement issued by an executive committee representing the Distiller's Association of America at the close of a two days' conference here.

Of the forty-two states whose legislatures have acted on the amendment, the constitutions of twenty-two, the distillers claimed, contain a referendum provision which expressly provides that no such action of the legislature becomes effective until ninety days after adjournment. If during these 90 days, five or six percent of the voters petition for a referendum the action of the legislature must be submitted to the people.

Of these twenty-two states, the committee added, the legislatures of fourteen are still in session, "and the ninety days in which to petition for a referendum have not begun to run." The committee announced that immediate steps would be taken to have referendum invoked in these fourteen states and "probably in others."

Thus has suddenly come within range of practical accomplishment one of the most sweeping changes in colonial management that has ever occurred.

The basic idea is that the colonies will be administered by mandate for the benefit of their own people and not exploited as profit making enterprises for the nations claiming them.

The most formidable opposition has come from Premier Hughes of Australis, who has maintained that anything short of outright annexation of New Guines to Australia might endanger friendly feelings toward the mother country.

LEAVENWORTH PEN BURNS

Hundred Thousand Lose In Govern ment Disciplinary Barracks.

Leavenworth, Kan .- A night fire of undetermined origin virtually destroyed the federal disciplinary barracks here, with a resultant loss estimated at $100,000. In addition, clothing in the quartermaster's department, said to have been valued at $60,000, was destroyed. Soldiers were thrown about the building and prisoners assisted in fighting the fiames.

Colonel Sedgewick Rice, commandant, declined to discuss the loss or the origin of the fire, but it became known that the authorities had ordered a rigid investigation. It was understood they were working on the theory that the fire was of incendiary origin.

The flames spread rapidly and within a short time it was seen that they were beyond control. Fifty-five hundred troops of the Twentleth and Forty-ninth regiments, lately returned from France, armed with machine guns and rifles were thrown about the building, in two lines.

The work of transferring the prison ers to buildings beyond the fire area was then begun.

According to the officials the men were most orderly and many of them asked to be allowed to assist in fight-

There are still about 785,000 men in camp in the United States and all will be demobilized within a month except those retained for "overhead" duty, General March added. Up to noon last Saturday, he said, 104,000 men had arrived from overseas.

How many Americans will be held abroad in the army of occupation is to be determined by President Wilson, General March added, but more Americans already have been designated for return home than originally proposed by Marshal Foch. He indicated that ten divisions had been huggested as America's contribution to the army of occupation.

Information has just come from Washington of a bill, "To provide that the United States shall co-operate with the states in promoting the health of the rural population of the United States.'

The bill is based upon the federal aid extension principle of legislation and recognizes certain common and fundamental interests of the three constitutional units of the government-federal. state and county or local.

scoutmaster. The Hun understands this. Before the war some Germans sought commissions as scout leaders. Why?

Since the war began facts have come to light showing that Germans and pro-Germans have endeavored to escape detection and continue their connection with the organization, although it is committed to patriotic service for the United States of America, the defeat of Germany and the stamping out of German militarism. It is time for every scout official to teep awake. Is any troop sluggish in selling Liberty bonds and War Savings stamps? Find the reason-there's no time to be lost. Who is teaching the boys? What s he teaching? Who endorsed his upplication for a commission? Did the upplicant tell the truth on his applitation?

A scout is kind-but he does not befriend those who are killing his prothers in battle and murdering women and children for no reason except the love of slaughter, and greed. The Boy Scouts of America are Americans. They obey the orders of the government.

GOVERNOR PRAISES SCOUTS.

Gov. W. L. Harding of Iowa thus expresses his approval of the scout movement: "Now that we have come to recogsupplies at Dobbs, remember. tf nize the vital importance of making every citizen of the United States a true American, we must arrive also at a fuller realization of the benefits of each great movement which aims to accomplish this. Among these truly splendid movements is that of the Boy Scouts of America, and it is highly to the credit of the organization that it has the vision and began the work before the nation as a whole had come to the crisis.

"I see ahead of us, not only for the period of the war but during the generations to come, no single work finer or more hopeful than that which inspires to direct the boys of America into loyal, idealistic, intelligent manhood. I wish the tenets of scout law. as taught to the boys of this body, might be written also into the hearts of every man."

THE WAR IS NOT OVER

THE COUNTRY NEEDS ITS PATRIOTS NOW MORE THAN EVER BEFORE

Because several essential matters have yet to be attended to. For one thing we have not yet made peace with Germany, and there is no telling what amount of police work may have to be done Germany has no proper government, and revolution and opposition may be met with at any time. An armyof over two million men and about a million men belonging to our sea forces have 'to be paid, fed, transported and then returned home. Enormous government contracts for supplies cannot be repudiated, but the goods must be paid for in full. Our great ship-building activities designed to make us at least the second greatest carrying power in the world must be carried out at a cost of many mi lions of dollars, to the ultimate advantage of every business man in this country. Our allies, if they need money, must have

To draw back now and to refuse to spend money would be to place ourselves in the position of a business man who having sunk an enormous amount of capital and effort in a business, quits just at that moment when the business is on its feet and is about to pay dividends.

HOW THE GOVERNMENT WORKS.

It is really not a question of whether or not we desire to spend more money-we MUST do it. A word of explanation as to the manner in which the United States Government collects and spends money will make this matter perfectly clear. When the war started, the Government contracted for goods to the value of many hundreds of millions of dollars without having the money to pay for the goods. The Government then borrowed from the banks on Short Term Certificates of Indebtedness the necessary money to keep matters going and then repaid the banks out of the First Liberty Loan. This method of finance has been maintained ever since; the Government always being in debt. It is a fact that nearly all of the Fourth Liberty Loan money has already been spent and very soon the Government will be spending the money which you must supply in the shape of subscriptions to the Fifth Liberty Loan.

GOOD TIMES COMING.

We hope, and with good reason, that after the close of the war, we shall find ourselves with an enormous international bank account, with the people of Europe owing us possibly five hundred million dollars yearly in interest alone on our Loans to them, that we shall find ourselves with a magnificent merchant fleet which will carry our goods promptly and cheaply to every part of the world, and that the demand for our manufactured products will be so great that we shall have an era of prosperity unknown in the history of the nation. It takes capital to conduct business and now is the time for every sensible business man to put by money for use during that period of activity and prosperity that we look forward to in the near future.

PATRIOTISM AND GOOD SENSE.

There is no better way of taking care of this money that by investing in Liberty Bonds. Every dollar so placed is a splendid investment and the placing of it constitutes an act of the truest patriotism.

THE MOST IMPORTANT POINT OF ALL

Is the fact that all of our sacrifices, including those of our noble dead in France will have been in vain unless we finish the task which we have undertaken. We have poured out our blood and treasure in order that we may ensure to ourselves and the world freedom, democracy and happiness. Having won the right to institute these principles on a world wide basis, shall we now draw back at the very moment when our object is within our grame? is unthinkable.

appropriate funds in proportion to that received from the combined fund.

This bill is known as the "Ru ral Health Act" and was intro duced into the House of Representatives on January 11, 1919, by the Honorable A. S. Lever, chairman of the committee on agriculture of the United States Congress. The bill has been referred to Mr. Lever's committee. Its prospects of passage are bright. They will be still brighter if you will write your representatives in Congress and in the Senate at Washington and ask them to work for its enactment into law.

A telegram received by Dr. W. E. Kaser of Las Vegas, secretary of the State Board of Health. from Surgeon General Rupert Blue, points out that no share of the federal appropriation for venereal disease work can come to this state unless New Mexico makes some appropriation for general public health work.

Under the "Rural Health Act it will be possible for states mak ing appropriation for public health to secure federal aid for rural health work to the extent of $10,000 the first year with a possible increase thereafter. A less but by no means inconsider. able sum can similarly be secured for venereal disease work.

Let's qualify. New Mexico can use the money to advantage.

PERSHING WRITES TO SCOUTS.

A letter from General Pershing praising the fine war work of the boy scouts has been received by Mr. Colin H. Livingstone, president of the Boy Scouts of America. General Pershing writes: "To the splendid army of four hupdred and forty-two thousand American boy scouts, the American expeditionary forces send greetings and appreciation for all you are doing for our great cause. Upon you will soon fall the burden of our civilization. Every act and thought of yours, in keeping with the scout law, will help to make good citizens and good soldiers. Obey it in letter and spirit, and all the older scouts who are fighting for you and all we hold dear will shake hands with you as comrades who helped them win the war. Three cheers for the Boy Scouts of America !"

SCOUTS, HOW ABOUT WALNUT?

Many carloads of black walnut have been reported to the forest service as the result of the scout canvass. This is fine. But what about the troops that haven't sent in any reports? Where are the trees? Where are the scouts?

The government must have the proper material for its gun stocks and propellers. It needs black walnut. It needs scouts to locate and report the timber. Scouts must not fall down on the job at this critical period when every bit of effort counts

If they haven't completed their canvass, they should have a black walnut hike on Saturday after school. Get busy, scouts! Help beat the Huns in the woods of America.

SCOUTS HELP THE DRAFTEES.

A letter from a scout official in Memphis says "A major of the United States army who has had a great deal of experience in receiving and transporting draftees in their camps states to the head of our draft board here that it would be impossible to get along without the scouts; that everywhere they were more helpful in handling crowds than even the police."

The treasury department awards war service emblems to scouts who secured ten or more subscriptions in the Liberty Loan campaign.

It is the hope of the officers of the national council that this recognition by our government of their achievement will stimulate them as scouts to greater service to the government and to others.

Awards will be made to about 36,000 scouts for third Liberty loan service. This establishes what is believed to be

Hon, W. P. Hobby,

Governor State of Texas.

"I am apprehensive that the citizens of this State might overlook their present and future obligations to the Government incident to victory. It is hoped that holders of Liberty Bonds will not place them immediately on the market, but that they wil continue the conduct of their business affairs on a war basis holding themselves in readiness to further finance the Government and to refrain from doing any act which m ght impair the value of outstanding Government securities."

Jas Callan.

President of the Cattle Raisers Association of Texas. Menard, Texas.

"The country is not restored to normal conditions by the signing of the Armistice, nor is the drouth-str.cken area, restored to normal by reason of recent rains. The people should be implored to preserve their patriotism, economy and industrial endeavors to the end of supporting our Government and themselves.'

Hon, W. P. Hunt.

Governor of Arizona.

"The people of this State and elsewhere will speedily come to a realization that the sacrifices the allies have made will be unavailing unless the reconstruction is in accordance with true democratic principles. Those principles necessitate a direct responsibility by every individual in the Government, a responsipility which can only be met by continued retrenchment including the holding of all war securities, foregoing luxuries until every soldier has returned to his home and above all it is necessary to maintain production wherever possible and to convert war industries into normal peace activities. The sacrifices that have been made must not be followed by domestic chaos."

Hon, R. L. Williams.

Governor State of Oklahoma.

"Citizens must not make the mistake of thinking the war is over. Remaining tasks of the war-demobilizing of armies and returning to normal industries of millions of soldiers and laborers in war factories-demand patriotic co-operation from every citizen. Additional Loans are to be floated. It is unpatriotic now to throw bonds on the market needlessly. The next few months of effort will be the real test of patriotism. Real patriots will obey the requests of their Government leaders just as cheerfully as they obeyed them a year ago."

Senator Morris Sheppard,

Washington.

"Absolutely essential that it be everywhere understood that sacrifices and restrictions are needed to keep the Government properly financed and our soldiers clothed and fed. Any attempt at this time to throw off all restrictions and resume normal conditions might have serious effect on our entire economic and business foundations and fatally impar our ability to make certain the glorious fruits of our great struggle for human Liberty."

Hon. R. G. Pleasant,

Governor of Louisiana.

"It is incumbent upon us as alert citizens and lovers of liberts and national stability to uphold the Government financially and in every other way just as we did during the active period of the war. There should be no heavy dumping of Liberty Bonds upon the market nor plunging in any manner along business lines. Let our people be conservative, careful and frugal, that we may be prepared to meet any eventualities."

Stolen Machinery Being Used by the man Factories, Together With Destroyed Property, Must Be Replaced. By WRIGHT A. PATTERSON.

More than two million American solfiers crossed the Atlantic that they might help fight the battle of civilization and defeat the selfish ambitions of the people of the German nation. I crossed the ocean in a convoy which carried some thirty thousand of these men, and for nearly fourteen days it was my privilege to share with them the dangers of the sea and the dangers of the German submarines. I saw these men crowded into the hold of small ships that they might the more quickly go to the rescue of that civilization for which we were fighting; I saw them as they were tossed about by the terrific seas driven by gales that reached a maximum of 100 miles an hour; I saw them die of exposure as the seas beat in upon theia; I saw their bodies consigned to the waters of the broad Atlantic; in the convoy with which I crossed one of the ships went down in the storm, carrying with it nearly five hundred of these American soldiers.

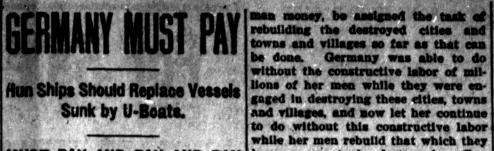

And these things happened because the German people had run amuck, driven to it by a selfish ambition for world domination and loot.

Are these people to escape a just retribution? Are they to escape payment?

I saw in Europe the mourning relatives of women and children who saved.

Germany's men have been satisfied to work at the destructive trade of the soldier for the meager pay of a German soldier, and now let them be employed at constructive work in the sec-tions they have destroyed, for the same meager pay, and this to be paid by Germany.

The German people have stolen from Belgium and France much of the machinery and other valuable and portable property they found in the invaded districts. Much of the stolen machinery is running today in German factories, and with it the German people are earning a livelihood while the people of Belgium and northern France are idle because of a lack of opportunity. German employers are prepared to reap a trade harvest as soon as they are again allowed to enter the field of world trade because they have this machinery. With it they can capture the markets that have been held by the French and Belgian employers. who have been put out of business by the depredations of Germany.

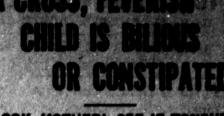

The immediate return of this stolen machinery and other property should be forced, and where its return is not possible it should be replaced with equivalent machinery from German factories, and the machinery and property destroyed should be replaced in the same way just so far as that is

"CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS" CAN'T HARM TENDER STOM-ACH, LIVER, BOWELS.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit" laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child some degree in undoing what the Huns | again. When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diways be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child to-morrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for bables, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits to the hotel men of the United States S. Allen and Mr. John McE. Bowman. to redeem pledges made by some of them last year, and all hotel men were invited to contribute to the project. Mrs. Ben S. Allen, who has been named as godmother of the inn, and who was in Furnes while it was under shellfire and was one of the last Americans to see the building before it was demolished, presided at the booth and was assisted in receiving by various notabilities. Baron E. de Cartier, the Belgian minister, who has taken a keen interest in the movement from the start, was one of the visitors. A little more than a year ago, hotel men who had gathered in New York from various parts of the country to attend the national hotel exposition heard for the first time of the Hotel Noble Rose.

Hetel Men See Opportunity.

Ben S. Allen, chief of the educational division of the United States food administration had been taiking to them about the necessity for saving food and was painting a picture of the war conditions in Belgium which he had several times visited. He told. about a visit to the Hotel Noble Rose when Furnes was the headquarters of the Belgian army, just after the Belgians had stopped the onrush of Gerans along the Yser. Those present were so much impressed with Mr. Alion's description and with what seemed an opportunity for gracefully exsing the sympathy of American tel men with Belgium and their will to help, that a dosen men in various parts of the room simultaneously leaped to their feet and proposed the restoration of the Noble Rose as a gift from the hotel men of America. This offer was transmitted to Baron de Cartier in Washington and shortly afterward word was received that the Belgian government at Havre had designated the Noble Rose as a historical monument. It thus becomes a ward of the Belgian nation, under the control of the ministry of fine arts, and the possibility of use for private profit is removed.

Weekly Health Talks A Word About the Kidneys

BY DOCTOR WATSON.

People are easily frightened when they think something is the matter with their ungs or heart, and well they may be; but few people understand the dangers of diseased kidneys. These organs have a duty of vital importance to perform, and if they are diseased, there is no telling how or where the symptoms may appear. The kidneys are filters, and when they are healthy they remove the poisons from the blood and purify it. When the kidneys are diseased, the poisons are spread everywhere, and one of these poisons is urie acid. The uric acid is carried all through the system and deposited in various places, in the form of urate mits-in the feet. ankles, wrists and back-often forming bags under the eyes. Sometimes the resulting trouble is called rheumatism, lumbago, sciatics and backache. Finally, come stone in the bladder, diabetes and Bright's discase.

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., in recent years, discovered that a certain combination of remedies would dissolve uric acid (urate salts) in the system. He found this combination to be harmless, so that he made it up in tablets, of double strength. and called them Anuric Tablets. They dissolve uric acid in the human system as hot coffee dissolves sugar. If you have uric acid troubles, don't delay in taking Anuric Tablets, which can be secured in the drug stores. You can write Dr. Pierce, too, and he will tell you what to eat and how to live so that more uric acid will not form in your system. Dr. Pierce will not charge for this advice

The government ownership of railroads has done one thing at least. It has convinced us that the rates-both express and freight-have been raised, the service rotten and the employes impudent and careless. Our Future Is Up To Us!

With the coming of peace you are bound to hear more or less discussion, both idle and serious, on what the future holds in store for us.

On one hand you will hear that we are due for a touch of hard times. You will hear much idle talk about swollen prices, inflated currency, top-heavy taxes, jobless soldiers, strikes, turmoil, etc. On the other hand you will hear that we are due for the greatest run of prosperity we have ever experienced.

Of the things you hear many are true and many are false. Just what the future will be depends upon how we, as individuals, think and act-on the state of our minds.

If we think hard times and plan for them 'we may have them. If we think good times, keep up our courage, use common sense and pull together we shall have good times.

eaking with one of the commisated to make a survey of he food situation in the battle-torn countries of Europe the writer was told that the depletion and shortage of food was far greater than anybody had expected. With the investigation, which at that time had merely started, much had been brought to light that had only been surmised. Herds of live stock were completely wiped out, fields that had been prolific yielders of grain, roots and vegetables were terraced and hummorted by bombs and shells, many . ! them still lying unexploded and dangerous. Until this land can be gone over and cleaned nothing in the way of cultivation can be carried on, and even where that is done the work of leveling and getting under cultivation will take a long time.

Much more devolves upon the farmer on this side of the Atlantic than was at first supposed. Herds of live stock will have to be replenished, and this will take years; the provisioning of the people in the meantime is the task the farmers here will be asked to undertake. Producing countries will be taxed to their utmost to meet this demand; all that can be provided will be needed. This need will continue for some time, and during this period prices will be high. The opinion of those who have given the question most careful thought and study is that food scarcity will be greater than ever before. The Allies will have to feed Germany, Austria, Turkey and Russia and this in addition to the requirements of European neutrals for increased supplies now that there is no ubmarine menace.

To the Canadian and American farmer this means a demand for his grain fully as great as at any time in the past. Wheat will be needed, meat will be required. The slogan "don't stop saving food" is as necessary today as ever. The purpose of this article is to direct attention to the fact that hundreds of thousands of acres of land in Western Canada are still unoccupled, and this land is capable of profucing enough to supply all needs. On its rich grasses are easily raised-and cheaply too-the cattle that will be sought; in its soil lies the nutriment that makes easy the production of the grain that will be needed, and in both the farmer will be assured of a good profit on his investment. The land can be purchased at low prices, on easy terms, and with the abundance of returns that it will give, it does not mean a matter of speculation. The facts as set out are known, and certainly are guaranteed These facts, the low cost of the land, and its great productivity, combined with the admirable marketing and tiansport facilities at the disposal of the farmer make farming in Western Canada an attractive proposition .--- Advertisement.

A Lady Was Flat On Her Back With Terrible Spells, But Her Husband Got Cardui,-And Now She Is Grateful.

McKinney, Texas .-- Mrs. Mary Stephenson, of this place, states: "About a year and a half ago I was down in bed for six weeks, not able to sit up. I was flat on my back and had terrible spells . . . Why, it looked like I would die. At times I didn't know anything. I would get nervous, I couldn't bear anyone to talk to me, -I would just jerk and shook with nervousness . . . across my back was so sore and ached me all the time. I would have a dizzy feeling. My limbs ached me and I would get numb and feel so weak . . . I said to my husband I knew Cardul was good and I believed I had best try It.

He got me a bottle of Cardul, and when I had only taken one-half bottle of Cardui I felt stronger. I took a half a dozen bottles altogether, then in two weeks after I began taking I was up, in three I was doing my work. I praise Cardul for I believe it saved my life and I am grateful."

Gripping at her heart was the old pain she had suffered years before and the conflict that had seared her mind so long ago was roused again.

"Oh, Joe! Oh, Joe! How could you?" she moaned, rocking herself to and fro. "How could you?" That very night the first snow flurry of the season drove against the west window panes of the big kitchen at the Stagg homestead. It was at supper time.

"I declare for't," said Mr. Stagg, "I guess winter's onto us, Aunty Rose." This snow did not amount to much; It was little more than a hoar frost, as Mr. Stagg said. This might be, however, the last chance for a Sunday walk in the woods for some time and Carolyn May did not propose to miss

On this day she earnestly desired to get him off by himself, for her heart was filled with a great purpose. She felt that they must come to an understanding.

On this particular occasion Uncle Joe sat down upon the log by the brook where Miss Amanda had once sat. Carolyn May stood before him. "Am I just a charity orphan? Didn't my papa leave any money a-tall for park. Of course, if he saw a cat, I had me? Did you take me just out of charity?"

"Bless me!" gasped the hardware dealer.

"I-I wish you'd answer me, Uncle Joe," went on Carolyn May with a son to see his way to dodging the question.

CHAPTER IX.

A Find in the Drifts.

Before the week was over, winter had come to Sunrise Cove and The Corners in earnest. / Snow fell and drifted, until there was scarcely anything to be seen one morning when Carolyn May awoke and looked out of her bedroom windows but a white, fleecy mantle.

This was more snow than the little girl had ever seen in New York. She came down to breakfast very much excited.

Uncle Joe had shoveled off the porch and steps, and Prince had beaten his own dooryard in the snow in front of his house. For he had a house of his own, now-a roomy, warm one-built by Mr. Parlow.

It must be confessed that, although Uncle Joe paid for the building of his doghouse, it never would have been built by Jedidiah Parlow had it not been for Carolyn May. At noon Uncle Joe came home, dragging a sled-a big roomy one, glistening with red paint. Just the nicest sled Carolyn May had ever seen, and one of the best the hardware dealer carried in stock.

"Oh, my, that's lovely!" breathed the little girl in awed delight. "That's see this." ever so much better than any sled I ever had before. And Prince could draw me on it, if I only had a harness for him. He used to drag me in the to get off and hold him."

Mr. Stagg, once started upon the path of good deeds, seemed to like it. At night he brought home certain straps and rivets, and in the kitchen, much to Aunty Rose's amazement, he brave effort to keep from crying. fitted Prince to a harness which the

"For the great land of Jehoshaphat !" he croaked. "Carlyn May! what you got there?

"Oh, Mr. Parlow, do come and help us-quick !" gasped the little girl. "My friend has had a dreadful bad fall." "Your friend?" repeated the carpenter. "I declare, it's that tramp that went by here just now !" Mr. Parlow made a clucking noise in his throat when he saw the blood. "Guess you're right, Car'lyn May." he admitted. "Call Mandy. She must Miss Amanda's attention had already been attracted to the strange arrival. She ran out and helped her father raise the injured man from the sled. Together they led him into the cottage.

He was not at all a bad-looking man. although his clothing was rough and coarse Miss Amanda brought warm water and bathed the wound, removing the congealed blood from his face and neck. When the last bandage was adjusted and the injured man's eyes were closed. Mr. Parlow offered him a wine-glass of a home-made cordial. The sailor gulped it down, and the color began to return to his cheeks. "Where was you goin', anyway?" demanded the carpenter. "Lookin' for a job, mate," said the sailor. "There's them in town that tells me I'd find work at Adams' camp." "Hal didn't tell you 'twas ten mile way from here, did they?"

Miss Amanda gets some surprising information from the old sailor and she, in turn, gives Joseph Stagg a shock. Read about how it happened in the next installment.

ministration of affairs would make a division of labor. Moses explained to him that his task was not merely a matter of judging, but of teaching the statutes and laws of God to the people. Jethro recognized Moses' motive. but insisted that the method was not a good one, as it would result in the wasting away of his strength. Many times one wastes his strength in doing that which others could do so that he is unable to do the more important things. 2. Jethro's plan (vv. 19-23). (1)

Moses to be unto the people Godward -to bring their causes unto God and teach them the ordinances and laws, to show them the way wherein they must walk, and the work which they must do. (2) Suitable men should be provided as rulers over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens (v, 21). All great matters should be disposed of by Moses and all subsidiary matters should be adjusted by these judges. 3. Qualifications of these subordinate judges (v. 21). (1) "Able men," that is, men of strength. They must be men of such intellectual power as would enable them to understand the problems presented, and of such will power as to execute the judgments rendered. A strong man is one who knows his own mind and is faithful to it. (2) "Such as fear God." This is the basis of true strength. Only those are fit to judge and rule men who recognize the rule of God over their lives. The true statesman is the man who gives God the rightful place in his life. The one who really trusts and fears God can be trusted to administrate the affairs of men. (3) "Men of truth." The one who really trusts and fears God must himself be a lover of the truth. He must be willing to follow after the truth at any cost. His nature must be open to the truth. (4) "Hating covetousness." He must be a hater of unjust gain. The man who is to be_a ruler of the people must be free from the suspicion of following his profession because of personal gain. The one set to do such work should be able to show clean hands.

IV. Moses Accedes to Jethro's Coun sel (18:24-26).

This common sense advice met a response in Moses' heart. He recognized that God was speaking through Jethro. After all, the knowledge and fear of God was wider than the chosen people. According to Deuteronomy 1:9-18 the people selected the judges and Moses appointed them.

The week of February 3-10 has been set for the time when the Southwest will raise its share of the $30,000 which has been asked of the American people for relisf of the terrible war sufferings in the Near East.

Resolved

That peace will find us back ing Uncle Sam as strongly a we backed him in war.

That between now and April we will lay every possible stone of the groundwork for the Fifth Liberty Loan and leave no act undone which will tend to keep alive and, if possible quicken the consciousness of the nation that Saving and Thrift are Peace essentials as well as War essentials.

That we will exert our every effort to stop trafficking in bonds of the first four loans and will keep our War Savings Stamps.

That we will carry out our War Savings Pledge if that is unfulfilled, and make and keep new Savings Pledges this year. That we will work tooth and nail from now till the last day of the April drive to oversubscribe that Fifth Liberty Loan. That we will finish our job.

PAY YOUR PLEDGE; GET THE THRIFT HABIT

All pledges made to invest in United States Government War Savings Stamps during 1918 have been automatically extended to 1919 by the Government, which has made official, announcement that persons who; for any reason, did not complete their pledges by December 31, 1918, may; and are expected to liquidate these, pledges by investing in War Savings Stamps of the new 1919 issue.

The 1919 United States Government War Savings Stamps are blue in color and a trifle smaller than the War Savings Stamps issued by the Government last year. They bear a likeness of Benjamin Franklin, thei American apostle of thrift and economy. The 1919 War Savings Stamps, which yield their owners four per cent interest, compounded quarterly, may be obtained from any postoffice. tank, or other authorized agent. The price of each 1919 War Savings Stamp is $4.12 during January. The cost price increases regularly one cent each month, so that in February the cost is $4.13, in March $4.14 and so on.

We Thank You!

To the Red Cross Chapters of Portales and Dora and others who so generously come to our aid in the way of clothing, food and fuel, we wish to express our most sincere and lasting gratitude and assure them that we have wanted for nothing since they learned of our need. With sincere thanks for their kindness. Mrs. F. A. Newton and Children.

FROM OVER THE STATE

The state and the taxpayers will fare much better if the legislature occupies its first thirty days without passing any bills at all: merely proposing legislation, giving to the newspapers time to discuss it and to the people time to be heard.

Honzeseekers will pour into New Mexico this good year 1919. Plenty of room with possibilities galore.

New Mexico should devote all its energies to securing from congress the grant of the remaining public domain in this state. exclusive of the national forests, because the state can use that land to best advantage and can most quickly bring it into beneficial use, for state, nation and the individual.

Every citizen in the west is directly interested in bills which have been pending in congress "for years" which would permit oil and water power development in the west. The blame for wasted energy and fuel shortage can be laid on a few men.

The National Forest road fund for New Mexico is $37,750.

Sunlight is about the only necessity of life left to the starving peopler of Armenia, Syria, and other Eastern countries which have been ravaged by the Hun and the Turk.

Starving, But Sunning Themselves

Here are some Syrian children, emaclated on the point of death from starvation, sitting out in the sun, trying to keep body and soul together with the pit Thlly small rations a lowed them by insufficient relief funds. Addi tional funds for relieving these victims of war and famine will be raised in America by the American Committee for Relief in the Near East, a minimum of $29,000,000 having been pledged to this work.

The week of February 3-10 has been set by Southwestern campaign directors for raising their quota of the $30,000,000.

A mother before her sous' dead bodies in the woods of Etchmiadzian, Russian Caucasus, one of the regions of the Near East, where the Germans and Turks have converted a rich country into a land of famine and misery America will be asked to give $30,600,000 for the relief of these war stricken peoples, a campaign for that purpose having been planned oy the American Committee for Rellef in the Near East. The drivre in the South west will take place February 3-10.

Thrift Cards used last year remain in use during 1919 and filled Thrift Cards, that is, Thrift Cards on which sixteen Thrift Stamps have been affixed. may be exchanged for 1919 War Savings Stamps upon the payment of the few additional cents which represent the difference between the price of a War Savings Stamp and $4, the value of the sixteen Thrift Stamps. This difference is 12 cents in January, 13 cents in February, 14 cents in March, and so on Purchasers of 1919 War Savings, Stamps should bear in mind that 1915, War Savings Stamps are to be affixed only to 1919 War Savings Cortificates. Although one may have a 1918 War-Savings Certificate (a War Savings Certificate is the parchment on which War Savings Stamps are affixed) which has some blank or unfilled space on it, such 1918 Certificate should not have 1919 War Savings Stamps pasted on it; nor should 1918 War Savings Stamps be placed on the new 1919 War Savings Certificate. Keep the two years separate.

Frank M. Smith, Federal District Director of War Loans and Savings, has issued earnest requests to the public to note carefully the few simple directions outlined. He also pointed out recently that should a person be in doubt about any of the details of War Savings methods a word to the local secretary of the War Savings Society or any postmaster will insure the matter being made clear.

All War Savings pledges made in 1918 are personal, binding obligations made to the Treasury Department, and the Government expects the completion of all 1918 pledges by the purchase of 1919 War Savings Stamps.

The American people have learned to make their savings count for them. The War has taught them the lesson of Thrift; the real joy of saving is theirs forever if they keep in mind the knowledge of economy gained through the investment in United States Government securities. Buy War Savings Stamps and the joy of saving is yours.

The high necked blouse is exceptional but there are always a few examples of this style, trim and elegant looking. Sleeves have come in for unusual consideration, a threequarter length occasionally attracting attention because it is so pretty but so greatly outnumbered by long sleeves. Some of the collar styles are exceptionally becoming and these may be found on the plainest blouses. A modof white dimity has a wide group

. The orphanage is not to be a Portales institution. It is to be an institution owned and operated by the Baptists of New Mexico, located temporarily in Portales. At the meeting of the state board of New Mexico Baptists in Albuquerque, on the eighteenth of last December, it was decided to start an orphans' home in the state if some church would lead in the endeavor. I spoke, in the discussion, and said that we of Portales had been thinking of starting such an institution and that we would go ahead with it if the state board would endorse our action and heartily co-operate with us in the undertaking. A motion carried that the state board appoint a locating committee, with me as chairman, to agitate and, if possible, to get plans under way for an orphanage. The Baptist church of Portales voted, in regular conference meeting, to co-operate in the movement to the fullest possible extent and also to release the pastor of the church of whatever time would be required for him on the field in the interest of the institution during the first year of its life. Last Sunday fnorning the church voted to lease property and begin the the work. They also elected a committee from the church to act necessary preparations for the womens as a board of directors to make work. The pastor of the church throughout the state will be easily
