DEMOCRATIC RALLY AT COURT HOUSE

Much Enthusiasm Displayed by Portales Audience for Candidacy of Judge Hanna.

The Democratic rally at the court-house last Saturday night was well attended, and much enthusiasm was displayed when the picture of Judge Hanna was placed on the speaker's stand.

The first speaker of the evening was Attorney Carl Hatch of Clovis. Mr. Hatch is a young man of no mean ability as an orator and he had the audience with him from the start. Mr. Hatch paid tribute to the record of Senator Bursum for the past five months, and stated that he was doubtless the greatest man in New Mexico if he had accomplished half of what he claims since he has been in the United States Senate. He took his record and threw some very interesting light on the same. And in comparison, Judge Hanna shown as the star in the east.

Judge Sam G. Bratton followed. Judge Bratton is a favorite with Portales audiences and received quite an ovation when he mounted the speaker's platform. The Judge analyzed the amendments to be voted on in the coming election, making them clear to all.

He then dwelt on the candidacy of Judge Hanna and Senator Bursum. He stated that he did not know till the other day that there was a statute of limitation on reputation in New Mexico. He stated that the Republicans of New Mexico were demanding that Mr. Bursum's candidacy be considered on his record of the past five months and not on his past record in New Mexico. He stated that according to his claims of his Washington record he was doubtless responsible for the free air breathed by the citizenship of New Mexico. This record was analyzed and made clear that his real accomplishments were very few.

After the speaking a motion was made that a Hanna Club be organized. This was done and Judge A. J. Goodwin was chosen as chairman and Mrs. Coe Howard as secretary.

The Greatest Agricultural and Educational Exhibit of the State to Be Held First Monday and Tuesday in October.

At the mass meeting held at the court house Friday night of last week it was unanimously decided to hold a Roosevelt County Fair in Portales on Monday and Tuesday, October 3rd and 4th, of this year.

While the time is short the body represented at the meeting took the dilemma by the horns and dehorned it, threw and hog tied it till it can no longer buck the fair movement.

Prof. J. S. Long was chosen as chairman of the meeting and he presided in a business like way, bringing the workings of the meeting down to business.

Committees were appointed as follows:
Finance Committee:—J. S. Long, chairman; H. H. Buchanan, Arthur F. Jones, Ben Smith.

Arrangement Committee:—Coe Howard, chairman; W. F. Shaw, Carl Turner, Carl Mueller.

Premium Committee:—R. A. Palm, chairman; R. A. Young, Ralph Will, Prof. Arrant, Miss Garrett.

Publicity Committee:—J. G. Greaves, chairman; John V. Miller, Mrs. Coe Howard, Mrs. J. P. Stone, W. H. Munroe.

Ladies Department:—Mrs. H. H. Buchanan, chairman; Mrs. J. T. Wilcox, Mrs. W. H. Ball.

Committee on Music:—A. D. Ribble, chairman.

Executive Committee:—The chairman from each committee will automatically constitute the executive committee.

Roosevelt county has the best material for an exhibit of any county in the state. Of her vast area, 85 per cent of which is subject to cultivation, only 4 1/2 per cent is under cultivation, and notwithstanding this, she is a vast storehouse of grain and dairy products. Her grain crops tax the railroad facilities to market same. Her dairying interests brings hundreds of thousands of dollars into the county annually.

Her irrigation district is undergoing a development which is startling the older sections of the country. The sweet potato industry alone is bringing us national reputation. The possibilities are beyond the dreams of the most imaginative. Her probabilities are a peanut butter and by-product factory, a sweet potato and vegetable canning factory.

And as a health factory, the entire county rivals the famous fountain of youth and goes it one better—it is real.

Her schools are the superior of any in the state, and adjoining states. Here you can enjoy the freedom and advantages of the rural life, yet have the educational advantages of the city. Numerous trucks are used to convey the pupils to and from school, bringing some even twenty miles from the farms and ranches to the door of the high schools over the county.

Her population is white throughout.

Her churches are in the hands of able divines.

Yes, you can tell the world that Roosevelt county is the banner county of the state, and if you will pay us a visit on the 3rd and 4th of October, we will show you—if you happen to be from Missouri.

WHEAT PLANTING NOW UNDER WAY

5.5 Inch Rainfall in September Guarantees Good Wheat Crop In Roosevelt County.

Farmers of Roosevelt county are busy making arrangements for wheat planting. Latest reports are that there will be in excess of 7,000 acres of wheat planted this fall.

In the past fourteen days Roosevelt county has had a rainfall of 5.5 inches, according to the weather report by E. P. Kuhl, observer for the department of agriculture.

Monday evening the rainfall in Portales was 2.15 inches. This rain extended practically all over the county. Reports from the Rogers district show a good rainfall in that settlement. From Kenna the report shows a good rainfall all the way.

About five o'clock the streets of Portales were running rivers, the water reaching to the sidewalk curbing all over town.

A number of tourists were caught in the storm and had to lay over in Portales for the night.

Farmers from the rural sections of the county were water bound and could not return home Monday night.

September rain gives the necessary moisture for the culture of wheat and this rain insures the planting of a large area in this county this fall.

Roosevelt county is the banner agricultural county of the state and the skeptics are invited to watch her development for the next twelve months.

PORTALES BANKS MAKE GOOD SHOWING

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the statements of the Portales banks. These statements make a splendid showing, when in spite of the so-called money tightness their individual deposits subject to check, total $306,517.41.

Such showings by two progressive banks, which are working for the upbuilding of Portales and Roosevelt county, will do much to establish confidence in Eastern New Mexico by the easterner who receives a copy of this paper.

Portales and Roosevelt county are proud of their banks.

STILL FOUND IN CAVE IN LINCOLN COUNTY AND OWNER IS NOW IN JAIL

ROSWELL, Sept. 12.—Through the efforts of Sheriff John C. Peck and several deputies, a large still was found in the hills of Lincoln county near Picacho, and the owner, R. C. Shank is now in the county jail. In the cave which was located about twenty miles south of Picacho, was found a complete outfit and several gallons of mash were taken by the officers. The owner was taking no chances and the opening of the cave was so small that it was necessary for the officers to take the barrels apart in order to get them out of the cave. A complaint has been filed against Shank before U. S. Commissioner Savage.

Also Mrs. Kirby, of Santa Fe, representative of the Democratic State Central Committee, will be here and also give a short address. Be on hand at 7:30 and you will not be disappointed.

Mrs. W. E. McLendon and Miss Addie Chenworth of Clovis were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Catt Saturday.

85 Are Drowned In Floods Which Hit River Farms

TAYLOR, Texas, Sept. 13.—As the flood waters of the San Gabriel river and Brushy Creek recede in Williamson and Milam counties the list of dead now amounts to 85. However, all reports are unofficial and made by messenger or people passing thru the inundated districts. The limited telephone and telegraph facilities of the smaller surrounding communities were almost completely wiped out by the flood and tornado.

The flood victims were found mostly along the San Gabriel river, a usual typical stream that rises in Burnet county and crosses Williamson and Milam counties to empty into the Little river. Brushy creek took the toll of life south of Taylor.

The newspapers here compiled the list of dead. While the newspaper men said that all of the dead reported had been reliably accounted for, they could not vouch for the exactness of the list. However, attempts at verification proved almost futile but the few that were verified stood as reported. Names were available in only a few instances.

ROGERS PEOPLE WILL PLANT WHEAT

GOVERNOR CAMPBELL ASKS THAT TROOPS BE SENT TO SLAUGHTER RANCH

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 12.—Governor Thomas E. Campbell has wired Secretary of War Weeks requesting that a detachment of federal troops be dispatched to the John H. Slaughter ranch in Conchise county. It was announced from the executive chambers at the state capitol here late this afternoon. The action was taken, it was explained, at the request of Judges A. C. Lockwood and Albert S. Sames, of the Superior courts of Conchise county, who wired the governor that the situation along the border has become critical following the conviction of two Mexicans, Garcia and Perez, for the murder of Jess. Fisher foreman on the Slaughter ranch.

8,000 OIL WORKERS IN CALIFORNIA ON STRIKE

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The High school has enrolled 156 to date, 68 of these are boys and 88 girls. Since in many good High schools the per cent of boys in attendance does not exceed 25, we feel that we have a splendid record for holding the boys in school. This, perhaps, is due to the excellent courses we are offering in Vocational Agriculture and Manual Training.

The Vocational Agriculture class has about 25 members, in two sections, each section working in a half day. Many interesting and profitable experiments and trips are being planned for these two classes.

The Home Economics work is also starting off in good shape under the direction of Miss Marie Garrett, who enters into the work in such a way as to compel interest and enthusiasm among the students of that group.

Work in other departments is also progressing nicely, in fact every department deserves special mention because of the splendid work being done. All teachers seem to be well prepared for the work being taught, and results are already apparent.

About 25 boys are reporting for football work out and in spite of the loss of several of last year's team, it is believed a good showing is being made, and a good team will be developed.

The High school is working now on an exhibit for the County Fair which we hope will exceed all previous exhibits along the line of school work.

The Senior class organized recently with a class roll of 33 members. Others enrolling will perhaps increase the number to 35 or more. At this meeting the following officers were elected:

President, Reed Murrell; Vice President, Howard Kenady; Secretary-Treasurer, LaVon Brown; Sergeant at Arms, Everett Dupuy; Faculty Adviser, Prof. R. A. Young.

The school is now organized and at work, therefore patrons and friends of the school are cordially invited to visit in any of the departments or classes.

SENATOR BURSUM ADDRESSES AUDIENCE

Monday afternoon Portales had the honor of entertaining a United States Senator, in the person of Hon. H. O. Bursum.

The Portales Concert Band gave a concert on the court house lawn in his honor just before the speaking.

Senator Bursum was introduced by Capt. T. J. Molinari, who in a few well chosen words paid tribute to his old friend, now Senator H. O. Bursum.

Senator Bursum, a man unfamiliar to a number of our readers, except by public reputation hasn't the appearance of the polished politician of fiction, but rather the western frontier character, who has been accustomed to deal with problems in western style.

While not a polished orator, the Senator made an excellent talk dealing with the problems of the day as he saw them.

He stated that industry was scared and the producer without aid, destruction threatened. He stated that the world war called upon producers to produce to the utmost capacity to carry on that great struggle, and that they responded nobly.

He stated that the livestock of the nation was seriously threatened by the slaughter of the young stock and heifers. That now there was a shortage of 15,000,000 head over 20 years ago, and unless the slaughter is checked it will mean a national disaster. That there are now no cattle on the ranges of Montana and the Dakotas and that the Texas range is 50 per cent short.

He eulogized President Harding for his untiring efforts to obtain relief from this state of affairs through the National administration.

He also dwelt on the debt of the nation to the soldier boys and stated that they would receive just recognition for their services.

From an oratorical standpoint the audience was disappointed. After the conclusion of the speaking here the Senator and party left for Clovis where he was billed to speak at six o'clock.

PRAIRIE DOGS ARE BEING EXTERMINATED

Under the direction of V. Van Gieson of the Biological Survey, Townships 3 south 36 east and 37 east of this county are being worked out in an eradication campaign against prairie dogs. Preparations for this work have been in progress for several weeks; contracts between the land owners and the Survey have been signed; and the work started a week ago Monday at the farm of Doc Hensley north of Inez. During last week excellent results were had, owing to the dry weather. It is estimated that in some sections of the worked out land the kill will run as high as 90 per cent.

PORTALES SCHOOL "KIDS" SHOOT THE SHOOT

Much merriment was experienced at the Portales Public school building Wednesday afternoon when the pupils tried the new fire escape.

It was an exciting time for the children as they stepped into the cylinder they began the descent around and around till they shot out at the exit where Supt. Krattli and Prof. Young were stationed to catch them. The hesitating was all done before entering the escape, as after that there was no tarrying.

Members of the school board and others took the descent to see "if it was safe" for the same reason that parents go to the circus "on the children's account."

The fire escape has proven such a success that a ruling will probably be passed by the school board and faculty, prohibiting any fires in cloudy weather, to save the children's clothes.

PORTALES CITIZENS PROTEST RAISE IN TELEPHONE RATES

As the raise in telephone rates took effect the first of this month a number of Portales citizens protested and had their phones removed, rather than pay the increased rate.

J. L. May made a trip to Slaton, Texas last week after Mrs. May and the children who had been visiting there for several days. They all returned home Sunday. Mr. May says that Roosevelt county crops are much better than those of the Panhandle between Portales and Slaton.

A Fine Old Home Paper

Tune—A Fine Old English Gentleman

Their magazines with gravures and all these works of art, Are very well for city folks who live by dint of mart; But give me first and foremost, I hold it is the prime— That fine old home town paper—one of the good old time.

The printin' isn't perfect, the ink's not uniform, The type is set by hand perhaps, —considerably overworn, The dear old press—I know it well it's covered o'er with grime— But it prints that old home paper—one of the good old time.

I look for it each week as regularly it comes, And when the postman brings it in, I drop all other chums, I drink it in, from start to fin, ridiculous and sublime, That fine old home town paper, one of the good old time.

Smith's cat may have some kittens; Jones is putting in new pumps, My girl chum has got married and the kids have got the mumps, Jack Wiltsy's built a lean to, Johnson's roses upward climb Oh! I love the old home paper, boys, one of the good old time.

WITHOUT

"The carriage waits without, my Lord,"
"Without what, gentle sir?"
"Without the left-hand running board,
Without the French chauffeur,
Without a drop of gasoline,
Ten nuts, the can of oil,
The outer coat of Brewster green,
Two spark plugs and the coil,
Without the breaks, the horn, the clutch,
Without the running gear,
One cylinder—it beats the Dutch
How much there isn't here.
The car has been repaired, in fact,
And you should be right glad
To find that this much is intact
Of what your Lordship had.
The garage man sent it back, my Lord,
In perfect shape throughout,
So you will understand, my Lord,
Your carriage waits, WITHOUT."

CONGRESSMAN COCHRAN OF NEW YORK REBUKES PRESIDENT HARDING

Congressman Cochran, of New York, presented an interesting constitutional question to the House on August 20. It will be remembered that President Harding personally appeared in the Senate July 12 and participated in debate, advocating a postponement of action upon the soldiers' bonus bill. Mr. Cochran's resolution with reference to this incident explains itself.

WHEREAS, On the 12th day of July, in the present year of our Lord, 1921, the Hon. Warren G. Harding, President of the United States, appeared before the Senate, having then before it for consideration as unfinished business Senate Bill 506, "to provide adequate compensation for veterans of the World War," and "standing at the Vice-President's desk," then and there addressed to it verbally, without notice to this House and in its absence, a communication, which appears in the Congressional Record of that day as part of the regular proceedings of the Senate; and

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States, which empowers the President to address recommendations respecting legislation to Congress, does not authorize him to address such communications to either House of Congress to the exclusion of the other; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That such exclusion of this House from the right conferred upon it by the Constitution to share in all communications which the President may address to Congress respecting legislation is an unconstitutional violation of its rights, an illegal invasion of its privileges, and an unwarrantable injury to its dignity.

The Republican majority quickly disposed of this troublesome matter by voting to "lay it on the table."—Washington Searchlight.

When this bill came up for recommitment, although 5th on roll call, Senator Bursum passed, and after it was irrevocably lost, he reconsidered and voted for it.

of food. No engine develops its maximum power with the wrong kind of fuel and the human engine is no exception to the rule.

Proper food is not a matter of quantity or even price as many of the most valuable foods are not high priced nor in the "luxury" class.

"Pep" giving foods are those that contain what is known as "vitamines," and should be included in every diet. They produce health and growth. They are milk, butter, yolk of eggs, and the leafy vegetables, such as spinach, cabbage, and lettuce, fresh fruits and whole grains.

There are five main groups of foods and one of each should be included in the diet of each normal persons every day. They are:

Group 1. The mineral and acid class, the body regulators, including spinach, lettuce, peas, string beans, tomatoes, turnips, carrots, cabbage, onions, fruit.

Group 2. The portien class, the tissue builders, including lean meats, poultry, fish, oysters, milk, cheese, dried vegetables, cocoa, nuts, custard ice cream.

Group 3. The starchy class, that give heat and energy, including flour, meal mixtures, bread and crackers, macaroni, rice, tapioca, cereal breakfast foods, potatoes.

Group 4. The sugar class, that give heat and energy, including syrup, honey, preserves, jellies, dried fruits, candy, sugar, frozen ices. Group 5. The fat class, that give heat and energy, more heating per quantity than sugar or starch, including, butter, cream, lard, salt pork, bacon, chocolate, vegetable oils.

If you have a tendency to be too fat, go lightly on groups 3, 4, and 5 and substitute largely from 1 and 2, the repair and regulator foods.

Similarly if you are thin and without energy, specialize on the starch sugar and fat forming foods, and portien foods—never forgetting group 1—the regulator.

Take the same care in selecting your food that you do in selecting your clothes and you'll be surprised at the difference. Your natural inclinations may not always be an indication of what is best for your system.

REPUBLICANS PLAYED LAST CARD IN BURSUM DEFENSE

(Special Correspondent).

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—When President Harding sent a letter to Senator McCormick, reviewing and praising his own administration for the announced purpose of its being used in the New Mexico Senatorial campaign, the Republicans played their last card in behalf and defense of Senator Bursum.

The main point of the President's letter is the claim that his administration is reducing expenses and next year he believes the aggregate of taxation may be reduced to $3,500,000,000 a year.

The best way to answer this is to quote Senator Reed Smoot, (Rep. Utah), recognized as one of the financial authorities of the Republican Senate, who in a speech made five days before the President's letter was written at a meeting of the Rotary Club in this city said, as reported in his public press:

"Senator Reed Smoot told how he predicted in 1918 that the expenses of the government would never be less than $500,000,000, and stressed how the Treasury Department denied this statement at the time.

"I tell you now," said the Senator, "that within seven years from now the taxes of this country will be $5,000,000,000."

The facts concerning the achievements of the Harding administration up to the time of the recess of Congress, together with what it had failed to accomplish, were accurately set forth by Chairman George White of the Democratic National Committee in a public statement issued at the time of the recess as follows:

"After four months and two weeks, the extra session of Congress called to 'save the country' has quit its job for a month without having passed a single remedial measure unless the Agricultural Bill should justify its supporters in projecting government into private business.

"Neither of the major measures, tariff and tax revision, for which primarily the extra session was called, has been complete. As passed by the House, both of these bills were so badly constructed that they have been widely denounced by the Republican press, by Republican spokesmen in and out of Congress, especially by Republican business men and admittedly will have to be rewritten by the Senate. As evidence of Republican dissatisfaction in Congress fifty members of the House voted to recommit the tax bill for revision.

"Business and industrial conditions today are admittedly worse than they were when Congress was called together. The demand for remedial measures is even more urgent, but Congress displays a light-hearted unconcern about the distressful situation of the country.

"The people who voted for a change last November must certainly realize by this time that they got too much of it."

Despite Mr. Harding's expressed satisfaction with the Republican administration in both branches, the fact remains that when he took office there were a million of men out of work due largely to the failure of a Republican Congress, which had been in power two years, to enact needed reconstruction legislation advocated by a Democratic President. There are now six million men out of work, or, to give exact figures from the Department of Labor, 5,735,000.

Nothing that President Harding or any Republican spokesman can say can wipe out or change the reactionary record of Holm O. Bursum, either as a politician in New Mexico or a Senator in Washington.

He has voted for every bill increasing appropriations, but voted against letting farmers and ranchmen have fertilizers and agricultural implements free of duty. He did not vote for the Soldier's Bonus Bill until his vote was not needed to recommit the bill and thus kill it and work of all, he voted in committee to white-wash Senator Newberry of Michigan, who had been convicted in the Federal Court and sentenced to the penitentiary, but escaped through a decision of the Supreme Court that the Corrupt Practices Act did not apply in the primary election.

The attempt made to substitute the record of the Republican Party, as set forth in the President's letter, for the Record of Senator Bursum does not better the matter because that record is worse than Bursum's for the reason that it includes the record made by the House as well as by the Senate.

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION EMPLOYS AUTO MECHANIC

The County Board of Education has employed Neil Rockey to care for the trucks used for the transportation of the school children of the county.

Mr. Rockey is a first class mechanic and will be stationed at Floyd. His duties will include the visiting of each district using trucks once a month for inspection of same.

He will carry an extra engine and if he finds one which needs overhauling, he will take it out and put the extra in, thus giving the greatest efficiency to the trucks without loss of time. He will then take the removed engine to the shop and give it a general overhauling.

This should save the Board of Education considerable in the upkeep of the school trucks.

WOMANS CLUB HOLDS OPEN MEETING TO DISCUSS AMENDMENTS

The Woman's Club held an open meeting at the court house Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Arthur Jones. Minutes read by Mrs. Jack Wilcox.

The meeting was then turned over to the leader for the afternoon, Mrs. Lindsey.

J. A. Fairly was on the program to discuss 1st amendment but as he was not present a standing vote was taken and every one in the house voted for amendment No. 1.

Mr. Priddy discussed the 2nd amendment and said if you wanted Japanese to own land next to you, and be your neighbor, vote for it; otherwise kill this amendment.

Arthur Jones spoke on the 3rd amendment and said, really he didn't know very much about it, but he was "agin it." This amendment calls for the state superintendent of education to hold office indefinitely.

Captain Molinari explained the 4th amendment, saying he believed it to be class legislation and unfair. This amendment gives opportunity for fraud in that all soldiers are exempt from $2,000 taxes. A father who owned $4,000 of taxable property in the state, and who had two sons in war could deed $2,000 of property to each of his sons, provided of course they had no property, and thereby escape his own taxes. This system could lower the taxable property in the state and raise taxes on the remainder while, to the soldier who had nothing it gives nothing.

On the 5th amendment, Jack Wilcox took the floor to explain. He said it wasn't the first job this Woman's Club had given him he said that he had been setting out trees and turning ice cream freezers all summer, but that he was glad to be of service to the ladies. Mr. Wilcox explained under the present laws when corporations wanted to raise the rates it was up to the state to prove they should not be raised. At the same time the state has no power to get possession of the Company's books.

If we pass this amendment the corporations will have to show that the raise is justifiable before there can be a raise in rates.

In the 6th amendment, Judge Lindsey explained that this is a very necessary change. That it simply puts the business of the state in a business way. He explained the budget system fully and said this was one of the most important amendments. Other bills have been passed similar to this but the legislature could and did repeal them but if this is put as an amendment to the Constitution it cannot be changed without a vote of the people.

Coe Howard was called upon to explain the 7th amendment. Mr. Howard said the land commissioner handled something like 12,000,000 acres of land and that in it there was too much chance for graft for one man. This amendment calls for a non-partisan board of three members which will insure a more fair handling of this land.

Supt. Palm took the floor on No. 8. Mr. Palm said in the last 10 years New Mexico had jumped from 47th to the 23rd state in the Union in point of education. If this 8th amendment carries, we'll likely go backward as fast as we have gone forward. Roosevelt county is now using 11 1/2 mills, but under this amendment she cannot use over 10 mills, without the written consent of the County Commissioners and State Tax Commission.

Judge Lindsey spoke in behalf of No. 9. Under the present law cities cannot vote bonds only at regular election times, this might work a hardship on fast growing cities. With this amendment, these cities could call special elections.

No one spoke on No. 10. Mrs. Coe Howard merely read the synopsis of the amendment, saying it called for county superintendents to hold office indefinitely.

R. G. Bryant spoke on the 11th amendment. Mr. Bryant said "Vote against it!" "It would soon bankrupt the state. It is with difficulty that we now meet expenses, and it is time to curtail expenses. Again it is not necessary at this time." This amendment is for the $2,000,000 road bond issue, and is receiving very little encouragement in this side of the state. It is not that the people are opposed to good roads, but this amendment does not give the people a chance. It is automatic in its operation and there would be no end to it.

WHERE WILL IT BE LOCATED?

There is considerable interest being expressed as to the location of the new High school building. While several locations have been proposed, it seems to be the general opinion that the building should be placed where tourists can see it and be impressed with the educational advantages of Portales.

It has come to the ear of the News reporter that a number favor placing this building at the foot of the street running from the square to the highway leading to Elida.

While the News is not trying to say where this building should be located, it would be glad to have the building located where tourists, both auto and by train,

NEW YORK WORLD ON SENATOR BURSUM

On September 20 the voters of New Mexico will elect a United States Senator to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Albert B. Fall to accept a seat in the Harding Cabinet, and normally is in a state of panic. That is the explanation of the extraordinary letter sent to Senator McCormick over the signature of President Harding.

Mr. Harding, of course, did not write this letter, which professes to be a reply to one from Senator McCormick congratulating the President on the success of his administration. It is a campaign document which was prepared for the President's signature and might have been written by Senator McCormick himself. Only a Senator could have inspired that tribute to the "monumental accomplishments which has marked the work of the extraordinary session down to the time of its recess."

The country has some very definite notions of its own about that "monumental accomplishment." The Senators and Representatives have been hearing about it during their visit to the home folks since Congress took a vacation, and what they have heard is not especially reassuring. As one of them who returned to Washington to avoid further embarrassing questions from his constituents told the sad story to a World correspondent, "the folks back home are hot" and "everything is in a hell of a fix."

The administration does not urgently need a Republican Senator from New Mexico. In fact it has more Republican Senators than it knows what to do with. But it recognizes in the New Mexico election the first referendum since March 4 on the policies of the administration and the record of the Sixty-seventh Congress. Hence Mr. Harding's pathetic desire to explain to the voters how incompetent the Democrats were, how badly the war was managed and how valiantly the Republicans have struggled against overwhelming odds to make everything right.

Mr. Wilson is still damned by his Republican critics for having ventured to ask the country in 1918 to give him a Congress that would support his policies, but it is a different matter when a Republican President writes a partisan letter to help bring about the election of a Republican Senator in New Mexico when an adverse vote would be construed as a rebuke to the administration. We need not quarrel with those little idiosyncracies of politics which are common to both parties. What is important about the Harding letter is its implication could see the building, and this location would have several advantages being on the highway all auto tourists would pass by it. It would also furnish a splendid view from the railroad.

Under the supervision of the department of agriculture and the vocational department ground could be made a monument to the agricultural advantages of the Portales Valley, this being the case, the more tourists that can see the building and grounds, would be impressed and probably influenced to locate here. This being the case it would be worth considerable to the Valley.

Again, the building should be placed in most accessible place for both students and public. The street leading to the school building should be paved and cement sidewalks laid all the way from the square.

Here is food for thought and the public should consider every advantage as to location before the same is decided upon.

that the Administration regards the election in New Mexico as a referendum and that the President himself has been brought into the campaign to stem the tide of adverse sentiment.

That would not happen unless the Republican leaders were frightened, and the Republican leaders would not be frightened if they felt that the country shared any part of Mr. Harding's complete satisfaction with the achievements of Congress and of the Administration. With Congress slacking on its job, with no definite programme for tax reduction or for the general relief of business, with 6,000,000 men out of work and public opinion becoming more and more critical, normalcy is afraid of the ballot box even in New Mexico.—New York World.

UNCLE SAM GOING AFTER THE BERGDOLL POT OF GOLD, SAYS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The government is going after the famous Bergdoll "pot of gold," Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, announced today that a complaint had been prepared demanding of Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, mother of Grover C. Bergdoll, as attorney in fact for her son, all the property in which he held interest, including gold coin taken from the treasury before the draft evader escaped from federal authorities and fled to Germany. It is expected the complaint will be filed today in the federal district court at Philadelphia.

DEMOCRATIC IN POLITICS

The election proclamation will also be found in this paper. Read it and find where you will be expected to vote. It also gives the names of the judges of the election.

Every reader of this paper is urged to read every advertisement. In the advertising columns you will find much of vital interest to you, and again it is through the advertisements that we are enabled to give you a paper.

It is the duty of every citizen of New Mexico to go to the polls on next Tuesday and vote for the man who he or she thinks will serve New Mexico the best in the United States Senate. It is also your duty to study the constitutional amendments as printed elsewhere in this paper, and be prepared to give an intelligent vote on the same. Remember, Tuesday, September 20, is election day.

If the voters of Eastern New Mexico could see and hear, the same day, Senator Bursum and Judge Hanna, there would be no doubt as to who would be elected. Senator Bursum has the characteristics of the wielder of the big stick, while Judge Hanna is a man of pleasing appearance who looks his audience in the face. As an orator they cannot be mentioned in the same class, as Judge Hanna can bring the birds out of the trees and the fish out of the water.

Monday's rain brought out the need of pavement in Portales. The square was a lake of mud and water. This square paved with some good material would be worth much to the entire town. Should a pavement program be carried out, the greater portion of the expense would go for labor which would be spent with the business men of Portales, which would stimulate business to a wonderful degree. Now is a good time to think pavement, talk pavement and get busy to pave.

Standing squarely behind the schools of this city is the task of every man and woman who loves Amarillo. There is no second position, no halfway ground. We are either back of and for the schools, or we are on the other side, if as a matter of fact there are really two sides, which is doubtful. The schools of Amarillo have a wide and most enviable reputation and the people of the city are proud of the fact. This promises to be by far the greatest year in the history of the schools. —Amarillo Daily News.

The above applies equally to Portales schools.

MR. SOLDIER BOY!

Who is your friend? Read elsewhere in this paper the action Senator Bursum took on the Soldier Bonus Bill. If he was your friend why did he wait till he saw that the bill was lost beyond hope before he cast his vote for it? If he was for you why did he not come out and make the fight for the passage of this bill?

MR. CATTLEMAN!

If Senator Bursum is your friend why did he not come out and support the packer's control bill? Did you know that while you are giving your cattle away packing house beef is selling at 40¢ a pound in Albuquerque?

MR. FARMER!

If Senator Bursum is your friend why did he vote against cheaper farm machinery? Now is the time for you to register your kick. If the entire farm population of Eastern New Mexico comes out on the 20th and votes, a wedge will be driven into the Republican machinery of this state that will open the way for political reforms which will profit the farmer, the ranchman, and the returned soldier in the future.

If you stay at home on next Tuesday you will have to go along in the same old rut.

If you are satisfied with conditions as you find them today, come out and vote for Mr. Bursum.

BURSUM IN WASHINGTON

The Emergency Tariff

Under the guise of a farm relief measure, the Old Guard machine rushed through an emergency tariff bill, to raise certain rates until the permanent tariff bill could be passed. Two highly important amendments will serve to show Bursum's attitude.

The Reed Amendment—This was intended to give the farmers cheaper machinery, the full text being as follows:

Whenever it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury that merchandise upon which an import duty is levied by the United States is being commonly exported from the United States and is being commonly and generally sold in the countries to which exported at less than the same class or kind of merchandise is being generally sold or offered for sale in the United States, then the Secretary of the Treasury shall issue an order suspending and setting aside any import duty or tariff upon the importation of the same or similar articles of merchandise into the United States, said order to remain effective so long as the condition aforesaid exists.

Upon this amendment Bursum voted nay. Lodge and Smoot voted yea; Borah and Kenyon voted yea.

The Dye Embargo—The Senate Committee reported an amendment which favored the new dye monopoly by placing an embargo upon everything in this field not obtainable in the United States. Upon this Bursum voted yea. Lodge did not vote; Smoot, Borah and Kenyon voted nay.

It will be noted that this is the second time that even Smoot was unable to go the limit Bursum did. —Washington Searchlight.

This means that 30,000,000 People will be forced to consume less food and clothing.

This means that about One-Third of the population of U. S. have been cut off from any means of support.

This condition is so critical that Newspapers throughout our country are carrying great headlines of strong men in more densely populated districts—ARE ACTUALLY OFFERING THEMSELVES FOR SALE TO HIGHEST BIDDER for their services.

This condition of affairs all came about since March 4th, 1921 under Republican Administration.

Northern Baptists Send Missionaries To Practically Every Side of the World

larger proceeds of the Campaign of the Southern Board of Christian Education has been enabled more than 160 new missionaries, but to do much other work, including building or making substantial additions to 15 boys' schools, 17 girls' schools, 27 mission residences, five hospitals and dispensaries, four light and power plants for mission compounds, 26 church buildings, four colleges, seven theological seminaries. In addition, assistance has been given seven church building loan associations, six new stations have been opened and equipped, land has been bought for the enlargement of several mission compounds, a home for orphans in Italy has been established, and a block of ground has been purchased in the heart of Rome for headquarters for the work in Italy, a theological seminary, publishing house, church and mission residence being provided on this property.

Enlarge European Field.
As a result of the Campaign, Southern Baptists have been enabled to greatly enlarge their work in Europe. They have carried on mission work in Italy since 1870, but now they have opened up new work in Jugo-Slavia, Hungary and Roumania, and have made a beginning, through the distribution of Bibles, in the Ukraine and Southern Russia and Siberia. To act as the European representatives of the Board in this enlarged program, Dr. and Mrs. Everett Gill of Kansas City were recently named. They will probably make their headquarters in Switzerland.

First Work Southern Baptists have ever done looking to the evangelization of Mohammedan lands has just been undertaken in Palestine and Syria, and Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hamlett of Austin, Texas, have gone to Jerusalem, where they will superintend the work of the native evangelists. It is planned to establish a church, theological seminary and college, hospital and orphanage at Jerusalem as soon as practicable and thus seek to reach other points in Palestine and Syria from this center.

Minister to 800,000,000 People.
With the enlarged foreign mission program of Southern Baptists that denomination is now operating in 18 countries on every side of the globe, and has in its employ practically 800 foreign missionaries and twice that number of native workers trained in the mission schools. Through its present missionary operations the Board is seeking to minister to 475,000,000 yellow people, 4,000,000 brown people, 300,000,000 black people and 225,000,000 white people, a total of 900,000,000 people, or more than half the population of the globe. Numbered among its workers already on the field are 21 foreign physicians and 8 foreign mission nurses who last year gave 154,970 treatments. There are now 611 mission churches on the foreign fields and of this number 164 are self-supporting. The average contributions of these mission churches last year to denominational causes was $5 per member, the Christians of the foreign fields responding more liberally as a result of the 75 Million Campaign.

C. S. for S. J. R. No. 4, Appr. Feb. 11, 1921.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of New Mexico:

Section 1. That Section 3, of Article XX, of the Constitution of the State of New Mexico be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 3. The term of office of every state, county or district officer, except the governor of the state, and those elected to fill vacancies, shall commence on the first day of January next after his election. The term of office of the governor of the state shall commence on the first day of December next after his election.

Section 2. That Section 5, of Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of New Mexico be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 5. "Sub-section (A). The regular biennial session of the legislature shall begin at twelve o'clock, noon, on the first Tuesday of February next after each general election. No regular session shall exceed sixty days, and no special session shall exceed thirty days.

"Sub-Section (B). All moneys received on account of the state from any source whatsoever, shall be paid into the treasury thereof.

"Sub-Section (C). The legislature shall not appropriate any money out of the treasury except in accordance with the provisions of this section.

"Sub-Section (D). On or before the 15th day of January in each year next preceding the regular biennial session of the legislature, every department, institution and agency of the State, except the legislative department, shall submit to the governor of the state a detailed statement showing actual revenues and expenditures for the two fiscal years intervening since the last regular session of the legislature, together with estimates of appropriations required to meet the financial needs of such department, institution or agency, itemized as the governor may require.

"Sub-Section (E). On or before the twentieth day of every regular session of the legislature, the governor shall prepare, and shall submit to the legislature, a budget containing a detailed statement and estimate of all anticipated revenues of the state, and a complete plan of proposed expenditures for the state government, during the ensuing biennium.

"Sub-Section (F). For the purpose of preparing his budget the governor shall have power to require any board, commission, officer or department, to furnish him with any information which he may deem necessary.

"Sub-Section (G). At the time the governor submits his budget to the legislature, he shall also submit a bill, to be known as the "General Appropriation Bill," which shall contain all of the proposed appropriations of the budget clearly itemized and classified; and the presiding officer of each house shall, immediately, cause said bill to be referred, together with the accompanying budget, to the appropriate committee, for its consideration. The governor may, before final action thereon by the legislature, amend or supplement said budget and general appropriation bill, to correct any oversight, or in case of an emergency, by delivering such amendment or supplement to the presiding officers of both houses; and such amendment or supplement shall thereby become a part of said general appropriation bill as an addition to the items of said bill or as a modification of, or a substitution for any item of said bill such amendment or supplement may effect.

"Sub-Section (H). The legislature may amend such general appropriation bill by increasing the items therein relating to the Judicial Department, but may not otherwise alter or amend such bill, except to strike out or reduce items therein.

"Sub-Section (I). Prior to the final action on the general appropriation bill, the legislature may provide for its salaries, mileage and necessary legislative expenses by special appropriation bills, specifically limited to such purposes, but before final action on the general appropriation bill, it shall not enact any other appropriation bill, except upon recommendation of the governor.

"Sub-Section (J). The governor may, at any time, recommend to the legislature supplementary budgets and supplementary appropriation bills based thereon, all of which shall be subject to the same procedure as the original budget and the general appropriation bill.

"Sub-Section (K). After final action on the general appropriation bill, or on recommendation of the governor, special appropriation may be enacted but every such appropriation shall be embodied in a separate bill, limited to some single work, subject or purpose therein stated.

"Sub-Section (L). In the event of any inconsistency between any of the provisions of this section and any of the other provisions of the Constitution, the provisions of this section shall prevail. But nothing herein shall in any manner affect the provisions of Section 23 of Article IV of the Constitution, or be construed as preventing the governor from calling special sessions of the legislature as provided by Section 6, of Article IV, of the Constitution, or as preventing the legislature at such special sessions, from considering any emergency appropriation or appropriations."

There Is No Issue Between the Great Political Parties In the Special Election Next Tuesday

Put Partisanship Aside Vote for the Public Welfare

Vote for the man you know can and will do most for the farmers and stockmen of our State.

Voters of Roosevelt County:

The undersigned come to you inviting your support for the election of Holm O. Bursum to the United States Senate by an overwhelming majority. We come not as partisans but as workers in a campaign in which men and women of all parties and political faiths have joined, because they have believed that, there being no issue of political policy to be determined, it is the duty of citizens to sustain the election of the man who can accomplish most for the general welfare of our state.

Holm O. Bursum, now senator by appointment, will be re-elected next Tuesday. This we know by the overwhelming trend of public sentiment in his favor throughout the state. This sentiment has been created by the actual work that Bursum has done during his brief service in the senate. Partisan opposition leadership, seeking Bursum's defeat on purely partisan grounds, have sought to attack this record of service. They have failed because the record is true and stands for all who will to read it.

Bursum has been an active and influential member of the so-called "Agricultural Group" in the United States Senate; that group of alert western senators who have secured from this Congress more benefits for the farmers and stock growers of the west than have ever been enacted by any previous congress. These include the Packer control law, the Capper-Tincher Law to regulate grain exchanges; the emergency tariff act; and the great agricultural credits law, NOW ACTUALLY FUNCTIONING IN OUR STATE, and which is destined to restore prosperity and security to our farmers and livestock growers.

An effort has been made to deprive Bursum of his fair share of the credit for this all-important legislation for you grain growers and cattle growers of Roosevelt county. Senator Arthur Capper, head of the great Capper Farm papers which you know so well, is the acknowledged leader of the progressive Agricultural Group in the senate. He has said over his signature, in not one but three letters and telegrams urging the election of Bursum, that the latter has been one of the most active and most useful senators in securing this legislation and his two and one-half billion dollars of credits, which we all know has saved the west from threatened ruin during the coming winter.

An effort has been made to deprive Bursum of the credit for the work he has done and the stand he has taken for the veterans of the great war. It has been charged that Bursum passed his vote on the adjusted compensation act, when up on the motion to recommit. That is not a true statement. The truth is, and the record shows, that Bursum voted against recommitting the compensation act; that he did not pass his vote at any time; that he stood straight up and for the welfare of the ex-soldiers as he has whenever their interests have been at stake. No more convincing evidence of this could be asked than the formal resolutions endorsing him and urging his election, passed by the various posts of veterans in Washington, D. C.;—resolutions passed by men who were on the ground and watched his work and his votes for the soldiers.

An effort has been made to charge that Bursum is a "reactionary" and a member of the "old guard" in the senate, because he enjoys the confidence and respect of Senator Lodge the majority leader, and of Senator Penrose, chairman of the great senate finance committee. Enjoying the confidence of those men will not hurt Bursum's capacity for service to our state—we all know that.

But look! Hiram Johnson, senator from California, the great progressive; Senator Capper; Senator McNary; Senator Sterling; every one of the western group of progressive senators, has endorsed Bursum and urged his election. Would those men endorse a "reactionary?" Would they urge you the people to send an "old guard," a senator they would have to fight, back to the senate? You know what they would not.

Bursum, by his ability, his courage, his fairness and tireless energy has won the respect of all groups in the senate. He has won results for his state. He has paved the way for far greater results for New Mexico and its principal industries, farming and livestock growing. He is both farmer and stockgrower and knows the needs of both industries.

The fact that Bursum is a member of the majority party, enjoying the cooperation of the majority in congress and the confidence of the national administration will add to his usefulness during the next three and one-half years of the life of that administration.

A great popular majority will strengthen Bursum's hands and further extend his usefulness. Such a majority will confer no partisan advantages on the Republican party in the state or nation; it will inflict no disadvantages on the Democratic party. This is a special election, in an off-year; and not a single issue of party policy is at stake. Just plain common sense and the public welfare are at stake.

Holm O. Bursum Will Be Elected Tuesday.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMMENDMENTS

This issue contains the constitutional amendments in full, read them carefully, so that you may be able to cast an intelligent vote on September 20th.

Following is a synopsis of the amendments:

No. 1. This amendment provides equal rights to women in that they may hold office in New Mexico.

No. 2. Provides that no one ineligible to citizenship in the United States may hold title to land in New Mexico.

No. 3. This provides that the Superintendent of Public Instruction may serve more than two terms in rotation, if the people so desire. This amendment conflicts with No. 6.

No. 4. This provides for an exemption from taxes of $2000.00 for all honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, marines, and army nurses, or the widow of such, who served in the armed forces of the United States while regularly engaged in war.

No. 5. This amendment puts teeth in the Corporation Commission. At present they have no power to enforce their rulings.

No. 6. This conflicts with amendment No. 3, in that it provides that the governor take the oath of office on the 1st day of December, instead of the first day of January. If you want either one of these amendments you will have to vote against the other.

No. 7. This provides for the creation of a land commission composed of three members instead of one and two members to be of one political faith and the other of the opposite political faith. The present land commission is one man who has control of millions of public land money. This will cause extra expense in the operation of this department but it may also provide for the elimination of graft and a more just and economical administration of this vast department.

No. 8. This amendment provides that not to exceed ten mills may be levied for school purposes. In a greater portion of the state this would cut the school term to five months or less. This is the amendment the school interests of the state are fighting.

No. 9. This relates to municipalities, and the voter should obtain the opinion of experts on that line before casting a vote for or against same.

No. 10. This provides that the county superintendent may serve more than two terms.

No. 11. This is the amendment providing for the $2,000,000 road bond. Until a means of building permanent roads is devised, this bill should be killed.

Elsewhere in this issue you will find them in full, and you should make a study of them between now and September 20.

HUMAN BEINGS SOLD ON THE BLOCK IN BOSTON

Does slavery exist in the United States? Lincoln gave his life for a principal.

Can the present Republican administration stand for such traffic as reported by the Associated Press in the Albuquerque Journal of September 10th? Decide by your vote on September 20th.

Boston, Mass., September 9.—The auction block for men who are without work, but seeking it, was resumed on Boston common today. A woman auctioneer, Miss Viola Roche, held the hammer on the men, who were again stripped to the waist, related their several abilities to labor and called for bids.

The crowds which thronged around the band stand contained many women who took an active part in the bidding. Unlike the auction of yesterday, work for a week or more at wages that carried as high as $25 a week was obtained by several men.

The party of unemployed went from their west end headquarters to the common through the noon-day crowds in the business district, gathering a considerable audience as they went. The first three men to be put up found jobs among the bidders, two getting two weeks work with board, clothing and pay at the rate of $25 a week from theatrical producers, and another $25 a month with food, clothing and lodging for undescribed labor.

Rah! Rah! Rah!
School opened September 5th with an enrollment of 82. Monday the 12th the enrollment reached 94 and we are expecting more pupils next week.

The pupils of the 7th and 8th grades have already demonstrated the fact that they are not "drones," and the superintendent says that she is expecting some good work from them all through the year.

The primary room has an enrollment of 27 and if we have any more pupils in that department we will have to build on another addition.

The glee club has been organized and have taken up their work and it is hoped that we will soon be able to put on a number that the public will enjoy hearing.

The girls basket ball team has been organized and they will soon be ready to accept a challenge for a match game. The boys team also is getting ready to play.

Raymond Boone was seen carrying an armful of books home last Monday evening. We know what he will do with them, so let the rest of us do likewise.

We hope the girls of Fairfield school will not stand for boys doing all the good work in class. Girls, it has long been proven that the brain power of woman is equal to if not greater than that of man, so be up and doing and show the boys that they are not the only "wonders" in those geometry classes.

The Spanish class is quite large and much interest is being taken in that subject.

Community Notes

The meeting closed last Saturday night. Some good sermons were preached, and we know much good has been done.

Miss Elsie Cross, a member of the school faculty, spent the week-end with her father and sister at Texico.

Miss Lola Moss left Sunday for Pleasant Hill where she will teach again the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Hagler and family of Locust Grove community called on Mrs. Greer Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Engram and daughter were shopping in Texico one day this week.

Miss Beryl Watson who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Stratton, left Monday for Portales.

Mr. Durand was out in this community Friday talking over the Fair and club encampment to be held 6th, 7th, and 8th of October.

KODAK FINISHING

I finish Kodak work twice a week. Send your trial order to the Portales Studio.

I do Portrait work, also make enlargements 5x7 up to 11x14 inches. Will appreciate your patronage.

E. H. MORELAND,
Portales Photographer

The patrons are working faithfully on the new outbuildings on the school campus. Let the good work go on. The school is our biggest business. Let us not forget that like the pedagogical saying "Is as the teacher, so is the school," also, "Is as the community, so is the school."
