PLANS FOR PORTALES HIGH SCHOOL IN HANDS OF THE CONTRACTORS

It is a strange record that every evil which should have destroyed mankind has itself been destroyed by man kind. There seems to be something fatal in humanity for an evil which succeeds in invading it with menacing power. Humanity seems to be like those plants which draw insects into their cups, and then destroy and consume them. A bad system of thought or action takes hold on the world, draws multitudes of good people into it, and it certainly looks as if the whole world is going to the devil. But wait—after all those good people are misled and deceived, they destroy the system. It seems to be predestined that evil shall be destroyed by what appears to be its chief success. The long story of humanity's contest with colossal evils seems to prove this. And certainly it is a strong basis for that basic optimism which is faith—Henry Ford in Deborn Independent.

W. B. Oldham, secretary of the Portales School Board, informs the News that the plans for the Portales High School building have been accepted and that copies have been sent to about twenty contractors in different parts of the country. The board will open bids on the 30th of this month, and either award the contract or reject bids for the same.

The plans call for a very complete building and no bid will be considered in excess of $70,000.00. Several builders say that it is a $115,000.00 building, which if the board succeeds in getting for $70,000.00 will be quite a business stroke.

The News is anxious to see work started on this building, as it will greatly encourage the people of this district as to the school interests.

SPENDING MONEY FOR OFFICE HAS COME TO PASS, FORD COMMENTS

Washington, Jan. 13.—Referring to the Senate action yesterday in declaring Truman H. Newberry entitled to the Michigan senatorial seat, Henry Ford declared today that "spending money for political office has come to pass."

"I don't think the people will stand for it," Mr. Ford added, "they will make known their decision later. It will be through those Senators who run for office this fall."

BLIZZARD HITS PORTALES

Wednesday evening about four o'clock a blizzard hit Portales. The day had been warm and pleasant, when all at once the temperature dropped, and by night it was below freezing point. Reports from Amarillo are to the effect that the temperature dropped to six above last night at 12 o'clock.

In several places it registered 6 below early this morning, but we have failed to get a report from the government station, and as that instrument registers about six above the cheaper instruments it is safe to say that in the night the temperature flirted with zero in the Portales Valley.

FALL FROM TRUCK ON HIGHWAY

Wednesday afternoon while coming from Clovis in the truck with Eddie Murray, Buck Miller, of Cleveland, Ohio, leaned against the door and was thrown from the truck, striking on his head. He was rushed into town for medical aid. While he was bruised up considerably, his injuries were not serious.

MRS. N. E. TOOMS VISITS IN MISSOURI

Mrs. N. E. Tooms and her son John, left last Saturday morning for Missouri. Mrs. Tooms will be 71 years old in March. She is going back to see her mother. She leaves one son in New Mexico, and has one son in Springfield, Missouri, and two sons in California. All her sons have land in Roosevelt county.

FREIGHT REDUCTION LONG TIME CREDIT TO BE ASKED FOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The program the American Farm Bureau will submit to the National Agricultural conference here next week will call for early enactment of laws "clearly defining the rights of the farmers to market their products co-operatively." In making this announcement today the Bureau said their economic and legislative proposals would be based upon the plan adopted at the recent annual convention in Atlanta, Ga. At the same time, it was said, information which the department of Agriculture is collecting on farm entry tenantry and other problems will be made available to the delegates.

The farm bureau federation said they would urge the conference to endorse a recommendation that all appointments on Federal boards and committees "be made so that the interests of agriculture shall be protected and conserved."

Financial relief of farmers will be urged through a plan which it will be suggested that Congress enact for long time credits, commodity financing base upon warehouse receipts, personal rural credits secured by proper insurance features and the creation of machinery that will allow co-operative systems to obtain money directly.

The transportation policy will suggest immediate reductions in freight rates, all savings in operating costs to be further reflected in further rate reductions until the entire increase of August, 1920, is wiped out and a repealer amendment of the Adamson law "so as to nullify the national agreements." The conference will also be asked to declare for the repealer amendment of the Esch-Cummings law "so as to abrogate the guarantee clause restore to the states jurisdiction in intrastate rates, vitalize the railroad tables and coordinate wage making powers with the rate making power of the interstate commerce."

The program, it was said, probably would urge development of the Muscle Shoals nitrate water power project "as an essential to the full developments of the industrial and transportation facilities of the nation."

The conference will further be asked by the federation delegates to endorse a resolution adopted at the Atlanta convention which

WHAT EVERY CITIZEN SHOULD KNOW

This week this paper begins the publication of a series of charts showing how the state and county taxes are handled and where they go. We will also publish a series of articles entitled: "Where Your Taxes Go," which gives a clear insight to the way the National taxes are handled. These articles are secured at considerable expense, and are by an authority on national affairs. They contain valuable information for every citizen, and should not only be read, but should be filed for reference. These articles could be used in the schools of the county and would prove valuable training for the children who will in a few years hold the reins of government. If you have a neighbor who is not taking the Portales Valley News, you will be doing him a favor by urging that he subscribe and read these articles.

FUNDS CONTINUE TO COME IN ON ORPHANS HOME AUTOMOBILE

Funds continue to come in on the Orphans' Home car. The appeal of the Portales Valley News for this fund has resulted in the friends of the home providing a brand new, fully equipped Ford, which has been purchased and is now ready for the use of the Home. Contributions are still being received for the payment of this car. Since last issue T. T. Thompson has contributed a dollar to this fund. The way is still open. Money can be left at this office, if you desire.

urged Congress to enact the export grain feature of the "so-called farmers relief bill" providing that the war finance corporation be empowered to make advances to foreign purchasers of America's surplus agricultural products.

Six women were included in an additional list of 23 names of delegates made public late today. Mrs. W. C. Martin, Dallas, Texas, who is state chairman of the Federation of Rural Life Clubs, was one of them.

PAYING IN LAS CRUCES TO START FEBRUARY 15 WILL COST OVER $20,000

Las Cruces, Jan. 16.—Announcement has been made that the paving contract which was let some time ago, will be started about the middle of the coming month, or as soon as the present work is completed. This will make a total of over $60,000 worth of paving that has been done in the city in the past six months and will give the city some of the finest streets to be found in the southwest. When all the work is completed practically all of the principal streets of the city will be paved and the main street will be one of the widest paved streets in the state.

RUMORS OF AN ICE PLANT

Rumors are afloat that Portales is to have an ice plant. That probably has nothing to do with the supply of ice which has been plentiful all over town the past few days.

Livingston Receives Pure Bred Duroc Jersey Pigs

K. E. Livingston has purchased three pure bred Duroc Jersey pigs from L. E. Greenwalds herd of Lexington, Wisconsin.

This herd is considered one of the best, if not the best in the states. Last year he had the biggest sale average, both summer and winter, of the state.

These pigs are two gilts and a boar. The gilts are by Uneeda Sensation by Great Orin Sensation, world champion boar in 1919 and 1921. Great Orin Sensation has sired more good Durocs than and boar living. The boar is by King Sensation, one of the best boars in the north.

These pigs arrived last Friday by express and should be seen by all lovers of good stock.

CHILD NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Wednesday evening the little child of Mrs. Henry Denison narrowly escaped death from being run over by a loaded truck.

The child attempted to cross the street in front of the truck and the driver was unable to stop before hitting her. Owing to the slow speed of the truck she was knocked down, falling in the clear between the wheels, and the truck passing over her.

The driver stopped immediately and the child was rushed to Dr. Wollards' office for surgical attention. It was found that she received only some minor bruises. Had she fallen in front of the wheels, life would have been crushed out of her.

The truck was owned by Add Hobbs, the Richland merchant, and was loaded on its way out of town.

Don't forget the meeting of the Roosevelt County Tax Payers' Association on Saturday, January 28th.

THERE IS STILL TALK OF A CANNERY

There is still talk of a cannery for Portales. If a cannery is to be built, now is the time to take the matter up with the farmers so that they may plant a sufficient acreage of cannable products to run on before the sweet potatoes come in.

HORSE RUNS AWAY AND BREAKS LEG

Monday, a horse belonging to Mr. Mask, who lives northeast of town, while hitched near the potato house, became frightened and broke loose from the wagon, running up in the business part of town. The horse whirled and started across the sidewalk, slipping and breaking the right fore leg, necessitating the killing of the horse.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church will meet next Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. The subject is, "Do Christians Principles of Living Apply to Business Life?" Business men and women especially are invited to come.

Mrs. Frank Campbell visited her parents at Clovis this week.

TRAIN FREEZES UP IN 20 BELOW WEATHER; PASSENGERS SUFFER

OGDEN, Utah, Jan. 13.—While Southern Pacific trainmen struggled in 20 below zero weather to thaw out frozen water pipes, passengers on the eastbound Overland Limited near Carlin, Nevada, this morning huddled under extra layers of blankets and drank hot drinks from the diner to keep warm, according to information given out at Southern Pacific offices here.

Baggage and mail cars were transferred to the rear of the train and the Pullman cars placed nearer to the locomotive. The train was to reach Ogden this afternoon about three hours late owing to the freeze-up.

ALLEGED BOOZE SELLING DRUG STORE CLOSED

Walters Lambasis Hypocritical Bootlegging Druggists.

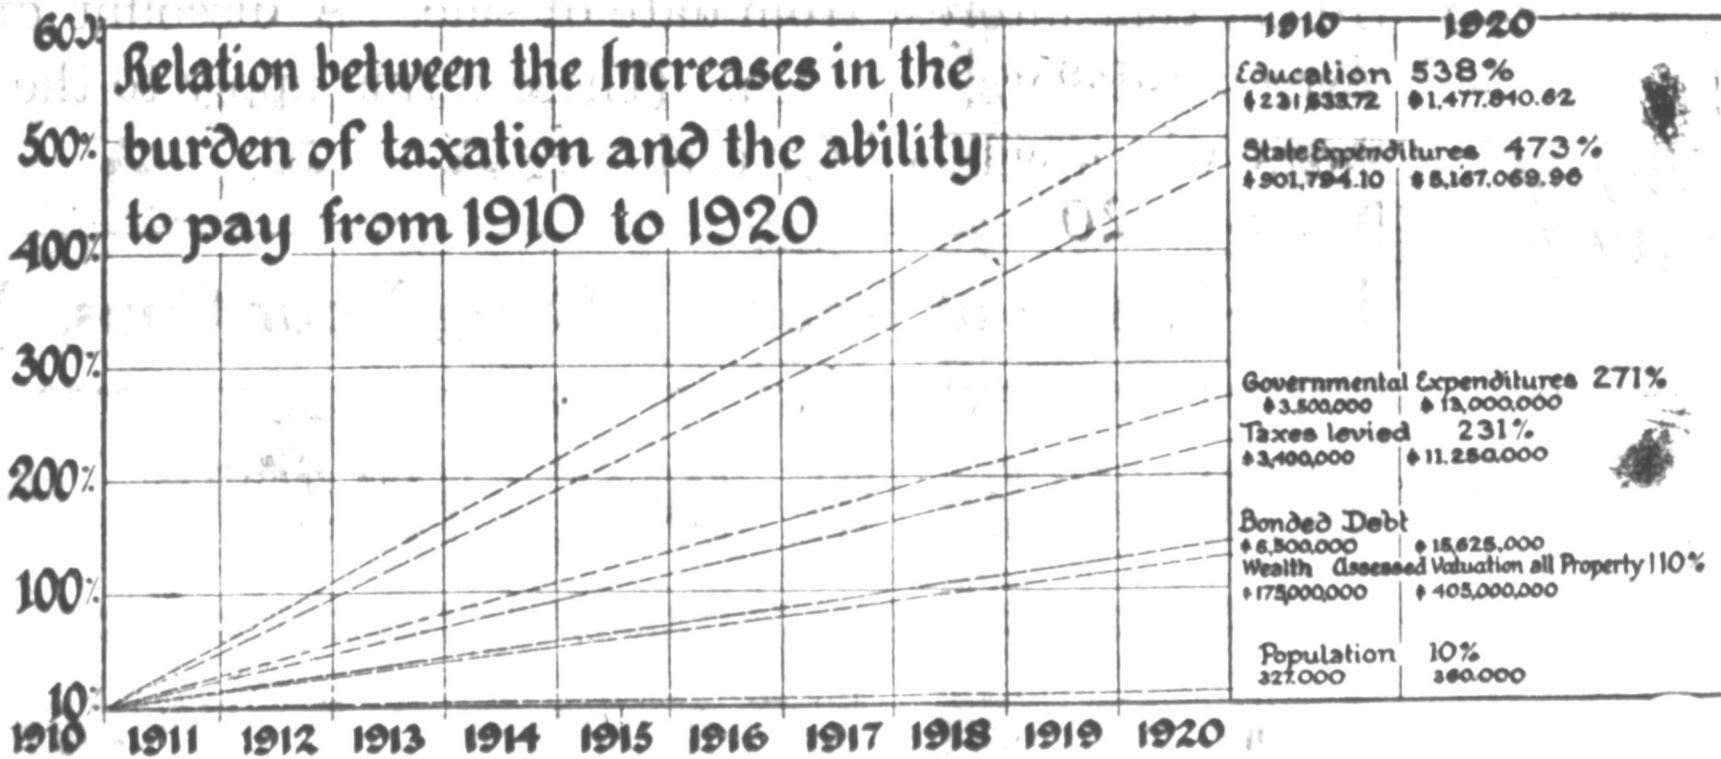

MEXIA, Texas, Jan. 13.—By a special order pasted on the front door of a local drug store here tonight, the establishment was closed "until further orders" of the military authorities by order of Brig. General Walters, in charge of the Mexia military district. Two employees were arrested. It was alleged that an intoxicated man was taken into custody tonight by the Rangers and that Jamaica ginger and other liquids of alcoholic content was traced to the drug store. A quantity was confiscated.

"I have a little sympathy for the man who sells corn whiskey," General Walters told the Associated Press tonight, "but absolutely none for the man who is licensed to sell medicines to minister to mankind and who sells practically the same thing. And while I am here such men's businesses are going to be closed up and stay closed."

The establishment closed was one of the leading drug stores of the city. The proprietor was ill at his home here tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McKissick of Mineola, Kansas, arrived Saturday and will spend the winter with his brother, Lee McKissick and family.

Chart 1

In this chart is shown graphically the relation between New Mexico's increasing governmental costs and the state's taxpaying ability. It will be seen that population increased only 10 per cent, and the assessed valuation of property 110 per cent, during the ten year period 1910 to 1920. It is probably that the increase in the actual wealth of the state increased at a ratio considerable less than that of assessed valuation. While these evidences of taxpaying ability show such moderate increases, we find the total cost of operating state, county and municipal government, including roads and schools, increased 271 per cent, the total taxes levied for all purposes increased 231 per cent, and the total of all outstanding bonds increased 140 per cent. The disbursements of the state which are, of course, included in the total costs of government increased 473 per cent, and the state disbursements for educational purposes also included in the total show an increase of 538 per cent. The taxes levied in 1910 for all purposes amounted to $3,400,000 and in 1920 to $11,250,000. We increased our total bonded indebtedness from $6,500,000 in 1910 to $15,625,000 in 1920 for state, county, municipal and school district purposes. In 1910 we spent for all state, county and municipal purposes in including schools and roads $3,500,000, and in 1920, $13,000,000.

BABIES SOLD LIKE SO MUCH FISH SAYS HOUSTON PHYSICIAN

Houston, Jan. 14.—Babies change hands in Houston like so much fish on the city markets, Dr. J. W. Slaughter, head of the Houston Baby Foundation, declared here today.

There are a number of maternity homes and baby boarding places here, where babies are taken care of for a short time and then placed on the "market," Slaughter said. Prices range from a few dollars to several hundred, according to Slaughter.

Authorities have no way under the present law to stop this "baby traffic," Slaughter said, and there is a constant supply of discarded babies to meet the huge demand.

"Babies sold this way often fall into evil homes and get into bad surroundings," Slaughter asserted. "Persons unable to obtain babies through the proper agencies having the interest of the baby at stake, patronize this market."

POSTMASTERS WILL CASH OUTSTANDING THRIFT STAMPS

The following is an extract from a bulletin issued from the office of the Third Assistant Postmaster General on December 29: "After December 31st, 1921, thrift stamps outstanding may be accepted by postmasters at 25c each when affixed to thrift cards in any number not over sixteen to the card, on account of the purchase price of Treasury Savings Certificates, new issue, and $1.00 Treasury Savings Stamps, or if the holder desires they may be cashed at face value by postmasters from postal funds."

Heretofore it has been the practice of cashing thrift stamps when presented in full cards, and the new ruling makes it possible to cash them whether the card is full or not. Some persons will be benefited by this ruling.

DOES ADVERTISING PAY?

Two Firms Lose Millions Taking Advertising Recess.

After reading this article you can write your own answer. The Denver Grocer reports that the publication of two large firms illustrates clearly what happens when advertising campaigns are suddenly shut off on the grounds of being needless expense. The first example is that of A. & P. Pears, the British Soap makers whose product was made familiar all over the world by persistent and clever advertising. Because their factory was selling all it could produce, the Pears people decided to cut off the advertising as useless expenditure. For a period of six months it was cut off, at which time Pear dropped 35 per cent of its total business. It cost the concern $6,500,000 additional publicity to get back to where it was before the gap occurred. The other instance is that of the Quaker Oats company, who have just disclosed the fact that in one year they hopped-skipped-jumped and fell from a profit of more than $3,700,000 to a loss of more than $5,800,000. This reduced the Quaker Oats company's surplus from more than $11,500,000 to about $1,200,000. In other words a depreciation in surplus of approximately one thousand per cent. Does it pay to advertise?

PLAINS PAVING COMPANY OF AMARILLO GETS CONTRACT FOR $18,111

From Amarillo Tribune.—The contract for the paving of the unpaved sections of Van Buren Street between Sixteenth and Twenty-fourth Streets has been awarded by the City Commission to the Plains Paving Co., of Amarillo, it was announced Tuesday by J. G. Colby, city manager. The contract price for the city's one-third of the paving on that street was $18,111. The property owners on each side of the street are to pay the remaining two-thirds of the cost. Work of laying the pavement on Van Buren Street has been in progress for some time, but the portion which has already been completed and opened for use was done under the "cooperative plan," the city paying its share of the cost by doing the excavating, hauling and grading. Since the sale of the city's bonds the work will be continued under the regular plan. The pavement being laid on Van Buren Street is a continuance of the same type of pavement between Tenth and Sixteenth, consisting of a concrete base, sand cushion, and brick with asphalt cover, which is considered one of the best types of city street paving.

A CORRECTION

In regard to the death of Charles Allen Williams, the News stated that he was hurt while in service in France. This is an error, as he was never in France, but was hurt in Camp Kearney four years ago, after which he never saw a well day. His burial took place in the cemetery in his old home at Redlands, California.

CHRISTIAN UNITY

The first thing we note in approaching the great religious forces of Christendom today is the great variety of names by which the children of God are known. Is this right in the Lord's sight? Paul very plainly tells us it is not—that it is an evidence of the carnal mind and that "to be carnally minded is death." Read 1 Cor. 3:3-4 and Rom. 8:6. Such scriptural names as "Disciples," "Friends," "Nazarenes," and "Christians" are just as much condemned when worn as PARTY names, as are such purely human names as most of the various denominations wear, some of which exalt a form of government or church organization, others an ordinance, some a method of work and others a variety of things. Paul under direct guidance of the Holy Spirit, told the Corinthian Christians that in their divisions they were following MEN, not Christ. (1 Cor. 3:3). In chapter one, he says they should "ALL speak the SAME thing, and that there be NO divisions among you; but that ye be PERFECTED TOGETHER in the SAME mind and in the SAME judgment." Paul, the world's greatest man, Christ excepted, Apollos, the eloquent, Cephas to whom had been committed the key of the kingdom, and Christ, were surely worthy of having parties name dafter them IF denominations had been permissible in the Lord's plan. The WORTH of the name, however, is not the point. The USE to designate a division in Christ's body is what is condemned. Portales people, let us be HONEST BEFORE OUR GOD. The whole system of DENOMINATIONALISM is SINFUL. I do not say it is INJUDICIOUS, or AWKWARD, or a MISTAKE, or EXTRAVAGANT or make any other inadequate apology. I label it just as does the New Testament scriptures. It is of the authority of MEN, not the Lord; it is of the carnal mind and the mind of the flesh is death, it is SIN and the wages of sin is death. The divisions in the church at Corinth had not reached the proportions of denominational divisions. It was a divided state wherein the body similar to the different groups within the Roman Catholic church such as the Jesuits and the Knights of Columbus. They meet together, worship together and work together but are yet members of the same church. The Corinthian division was possibly less harmonious and contained the seeds of the present divided state of Christendom, hence it was nipped in the bud. Christianity is not a series of religions, but one great religion, it is God given and He has given to each of us the right to accept it or reject it as revealed, but we cannot change it. The changed portion is not Christianity, but SIN.

KENTUCKY VALLEY NEWS

At Sunday school we have a fine attendance of middle and old age people—not as many faithful young people as should be. Yet we appreciate the faithful few. In after life the habits you form in youth cling to you boys and girls. Sunday school going is a good habit to form. Then the older people like to have you.

Bro Harvey Hendry who is home now gave us for past three Sundays interesting and instructive talks.

More money raised for the Xmas tree than was needed. The Sunday school voted to use the surplus to purchase new hymn books.

Kathryn Toler is sick with something like the measles.

Mrs. Hendrix is better, considered out of danger. Carrie Hendrix came back to school Monday.

Misses Beulah and Valora Fleming gave the young folks a party last Friday night, about twenty five were present. An enjoyable time was spent in games.

Mrs. Rocky visited our school last Monday, while Mr. Rocky helped repair the trucks.

Miss Edna Locker visited Miss Mary Turnbull last Sunday. Mary went home with Edna and came to school with her Monday.

Our Sunday school attendance was quite doubled last Sunday in spite of the bitter cold. We now have our new literature and our prospects for a real live Sunday school for 1922 are, indeed, flattering. "Everybody come back and bring someone with you" is the slogan. Yes, that is all mighty nice, but what about us children who ride the truck to school five days in the week and have to stay at home Sundays? We would enjoy going to Sunday school too.

RICHLAND REVIEW

Last Friday, January 13, the Richland and Fort Sumner basket ball teams played a game of basket ball on the Portales indoor court. The game ended in favor of Ft. Sumner. We will play the Hollene team next Friday at Richland.

An extra tire was in the New Hope truck last Thursday morning and Willie Creamer was sitting on it when the truck hit a rough place, thus making the tire bounce and the boy's head hit the top of the truck which cut two gashes. Dr. Hay took several stitches, but he is getting along nicely at this writing.

Prof. Welch is beginning his ten day and night singing school. We are looking forward to great results as he is one of the state's best teachers and our singers are as good as can be found in Roosevelt county.

John Propps and family spent Sunday at Mrs. Lue Partin's. Joe Cooper spent Sunday night with Boyd Rice.

We had several visitors Monday which we are always glad to have.

Why Mr. Butts went into the primary room last Sunday, took off his cap and smiled?

ROGERS RUMBLINGS

Here we come again. The singing last Sunday afternoon was fine, but we hope it will be better next Sunday afternoon.

DEMOCRATIC IN POLITICS

SPACE GRAFTER PUT OUT "EXCLUSIVE" BUNK

The Near East Relief organization with Arizona as headquarters, has been flooding the press with copy for articles on this work. At the head of each article is the following: "This article has not been sent to any other paper in your territory." Weekly one of these articles come to the Portales Valley News and one to the Portales Journal with the above caption. They are the same article, but the secretary does not know that the News and Journal are now one paper, so their "exclusive bunkom" is exposed. This paper has given many columns of space for this purpose in the past year, and does not appreciate the organization trying to put across their free matter by false statements.

A PROGRESSIVE PROGRAM FOR 1922

That Portales needs a little progressive movement will be conceded by all but just how to go about it is as perplexing a question as "How old is Ann?" As a suggestion of what might be accomplished by a progressive program for the year 1922, the following has been handed to this paper:
A canning factory for the canning of vegetables and sweet potatoes.
A broom factory for the manufacturing of brooms here in Portales.
A cotton gin to take care of the cotton which will be grown in Roosevelt county this year.
A creamery to work up the cream here at home.
A factory for the manufacturing of peanut butter out of Portales Valley peanuts.
A peanut oil mill to extract the peanut oil and make cake for the feeding of Roosevelt county cattle.
A factory or plant for the shredding of beargrass and separating fiber for the manufacture of twine, sacks and rope.
These are all practical, and need not be started on an extensive scale. Each would help to bring industrial prosperity and furnish a better market for the products of the Portales Valley and Roosevelt county. How many will you help secure within the next six months?

THE PAVING PROGRAM

Much comment has been made within the past ten days in regard to the paving program as advertised by the town board in the Portales Valley News. It seems to be the opinion of many that the estimate of Engineer Dobbs is excessive. However the writer has spent some time in the past few days investigating the paving proposition in several places. Amarillo, Texas, has just let the contract for 8 blocks of paving which is to be of concrete base with brick, and asphalt cover. This is similar to the plans for the Portales project. In the contract let by the city manager of Amarillo, this 8 blocks of paving will cost $6,798.62 1/2 per block. Which would be for the proposed paving of 14 blocks in Portales the round sum of $95,180.75. Now, we are reliably informed by members of the town board that this estimate is above what they expect to have to pay for this paving by from 20 to 30 per cent. The estimate covers the very best class of permanent paving, and would not run over $300 per business lot of 25 feet. A crushed rock paving could be placed one foot thick for a total of $2120 per block. This could be later used as a foundation for a better paving and would not be lost. The News is not trying to put anything over the public or the town council either. It would like to see the paving program carried out as effective and as reasonable as possible. It might be well for the public to think of the paving in single lots instead of blocks. Cost of material and labor are both down, and it is possible that this paving can be done at considerable less than the estimate.

PRESTON (TED) WILLIAMS FOR SHERIFF.

Preston, better known to the voters of the county as Ted Williams, is an old settler in the Richland neighborhood, having been among the first homesteaders in that part of the county. Mr. Williams has followed farming and stock raising in that neighborhood for a number of years, yet he is still a young man, in fact in his prime. In aspiring to the office of sheriff of Roosevelt county, he says that he is making the race on his merits as to his ability to handle the work of this office, and that if elected he will enforce the law with out fear or favor, and that he will endeavor to give the people of Roosevelt county an efficient sheriff should they see fit to elect him to this office. He is now making a canvas of the county, and will endeavor to see each voter before the primary, but should he fail to see you he takes this method of soliciting your support. In making up your ticket you are asked to consider his claims before casting your vote.

J. R. SHOCK FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

In making his announcement for re-election to the office of county treasurer, J. R. Shock says that he will be too busy with the duties of his office at the present time to make a county-wide canvas, the time from now till the primary being the busiest season in this office—the first half of the taxes being received. He places his record as a public official before the voters of the county, and if they find that he has been a worthy and efficient servant of the people, then he asks that they return him to this office for the next two years. This office is one through which the vast volume of the county's finance must pass, and it is one which should be in charge of a competent man, who, will safeguard the interest of the entire people of the county. This has been his motto since he has been in charge of this office; and it is now up to the voters of Roosevelt county to speak at the democratic primaries and say whether in their opinion he has been a faithful servant. He solicits the vote of both ladies and gentlemen in this campaign.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Under this head will appear announcements for candidates for the various offices of the county. Terms of announcements are $12.50 in advance:

C. E. LANGSTON FOR COMMISSIONER PRECINCT 1

The voters of the county all know Uncle Cal Langston, who is now serving as commissioner for Precinct No. 1. For the past year Mr. Langston has devoted considerable of his time to this office, ever having the interest of the people at heart, and now he again comes before you for a decision, asking that if you consider him worthy of your support from his record as your servant, that you re-elect him to this office for a second term.

He has endeavored to give you an economical administration as far as it is in the power of the county commissioners, and those who have had business before this board for the past year will testify that he has always been on the job.

Mr. Langston is a Democrat and is making this race subject to the action of the coming Democratic primary.

R. A. PALM FOR COUNTY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT

This week the name of R. A. Palm is presented to the voters of Roosevelt county for re-election to the office of Superintendent of the schools of Roosevelt county. Mr. Palm assumed the duties of this office in possibly the most critical time in the history of the county—in a time when radical educational changes were under way. He has endeavored to give the people of the county the very best schools possible so that the youth of the county might go out on equal footing with the youths of the town and city schools. As in all radical changes he has received some harsh criticism, much for matters over which he had no control. He has possibly made mistakes, for he is but human, but, in all things he has had the educational interests of the county at heart.

He is a thorough life-long Democrat, and is making the race for re-election subject to the will of the people at the Democratic primary, and asks that you consider his claims before casting your vote. The school situation in the county is not fully developed, and needs a wise head to carry it to a successful finish, and he feels that with the experience of the past year, and the plans laid for the future that he can accomplish much as he is returned to this office.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hardy Entertain

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. Hardy entertained a number of their friends with a six o'clock dinner, the occasion being Mr. Hardy's birthday.

The house was beautifully decorated with sweet peas. Twenty-five guests were present.

A five-course dinner was served which did great credit to Mrs. Hardy as an entertainer and house wife. A description of the dinner would be an unkindness to those who were not fortunate to partake of it, but it is sufficient to say that it was perfect in quality and service.

During the serving of courses the intermission was filled with toasts to the health of the host and hostess, stories were told and music and song by Prof. and Mrs. Krattli.

C. O. Leach acted as toastmaster and proposed a toast to the health of the host. This was responded to by Gov. W. E. Lindsey, who was followed by Senator Bryant who gave a toast to the hostess.

Mr. Hardy made a short talk expressing his pleasure in meeting a number of his friends on this occasion.

After the last course Rev. Richards made a short talk expressing the appreciation of the guests for being present on this memorable occasion.

After the tables were cleared an hour was spent in games consisting of Rook, Forty-Two and Dominoes.

On the eve of departure a birthday cake lit with candles was cut, each guest partaking of the honor of cutting a slice.

The saying that a man is only as old as he looks was clearly demonstrated, and Mr. Hardy is one of the youngest men of the town in enterprise and progressiveness.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Whitcomb and Mr. Whitcomb Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Leach, Gov. and Mrs. W. E. Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hancock, Mrs. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Hancock, Prof. and Mrs. Krattli, Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Richards, Senator R. G. Bryant, Miss Bess DeHoney, Mrs. G. S. Turner, Mrs. H. F. Jones, Mr. Geo. Robertson, Mrs. J. P. Stone, Mrs. J. B. Sledge, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Greaves.

Surprise Party and Shower

Monday night Mrs. Harve Fry's Sunday school class gave a surprise party and shower to their class mate, Mrs. Buck Russell and husband. Mr. and Mrs. Russell were completely surprised when the guests began to arrive, each bearing some useful article as a present for the bride.

Although taken by storm, Mr. and Mrs. Russell proved good entertainers, and the evening was spent in jolly games and conversation. Refreshments prepared by Mrs. Fry and Mrs. Chavers, the mother of the bride, consisting of cake and cocoa were served.

At a late hour the guests departed all wishing the best of life's blessings for Mr. and Mrs. Russell.

U. D. C. Meeting

The U. D. C. met January 17 with Mrs. McDowell. Twelve members were present. Motion made and seconded that the treasurer be instructed to pay the per capita taxes for the year 1922.

There being no further business the meeting was turned over to the leader, Mrs. Jones. The program was a memorial to the birthdays of Stonewall Jackson and Robert E. Lee. While in session, the Rev. Brander Rector of the Episcopal church of Clovis, came in and gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the family of General Lee and their homes, he being a native Virginian and an acquaintance of the family. Our next meeting will be with Mrs. T. E. Mears the first Tuesday in February.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Entertains at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller entertained the following at dinner Wednesday:

Miss Ada Thomas of Inez was in town last week visiting in the home of Mrs. Fannie Robinson.

Missionary Society Meets

The Missionary Society of the M. E. church met for a social meeting Thursday, January 12, at 2:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor. There were about twenty-five present. Mrs. Claude Jones, the new president, presided. The program consisted of:

Song.
Prayer.
Song.
Play by eight ladies.

Play—"Africa," by six little girls.

Talk by J. J. Richards.

After the program Mrs. Taylor served fruit salad, doughnuts and coffee.

The next meeting of the Society will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kenyon where they will have an all-day session and as "history repeats itself" the ladies are expecting a royal time.

NEW MEXICO AMONG 23 STATES WHICH HAVE ACCEPTED U. S. AID FOR MATERNITY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Twenty-two states already have accepted the federal aid for maternity care used in the maternity act and its probable acceptance by most of the others has been indicated by state officials, it was announced today by Miss Grace Abbott, chief of the children's bureau and a member of the federal board of maternity and infant hygiene, charged with administration of the act.

Five of the states—Delaware, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Mexico and Oregon—have accepted by action of their legislatures while seventeen have done so through their governors.

The states accepting receive under the bill $10,000 for the fiscal year ending next June 30, and $5,000 in succeeding years with an additional $5,000 and a proportional share of $710,000 based on population if these amounts are matched by state appropriations.

Dear Editor:—Enclosed please find check for $1.50 for one year's subscription.

You will note from our letter head that we are making a leader of Valley farms and are advertising in several of the leading Iowa and Kansas Papers and are getting some very encouraging results to date.

We have chosen the Valley for the reason of the irrigation advantages and lands of this class properly handled will net greater returns than dry farming will.

Have you a prospectus of your county that would be of value in the way of publicity?

Yours truly,
Mexican Realty Company,
By J. H. Wise.

P. S.—We listed 11 farms from one ad in your paper, it is worth the money. It pays to advertise.

TWINS MUST STAY TOGETHER OR DIE
CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Jose and Rosa Blazek, "Siamese twins," must remain joined together until their death, physicians decided after X-ray examinations today.

The twins, born attached to each other, contemplated an operation to separate themselves, fearing that the death of one might cause the death of the other. The doctors declared to separate them now would result in the death of both and expressed the opinion that if one would die, the other also would die unless a physician could immediately sever them. They are 44 years old.

The Rosamont Farm having just recently acquired some of the Bartlett herd of Jerseys and their dairy business, which increases their dairy business considerably without material increase in expense, is now in position to make quite a reduction in the price of milk and butter. Their milk comes from Jerseys, the kind of cattle that produces the richest of milk. Health cows as well as health employees, only are used, and the greatest care is taken in handling all dairy products, in order that you may receive from them, good, rich CLEAN JERSEY milk, cream and butter. Read their ad in this issue.

THE SUNSHINE STATE

Attendance and interest at the services at the Central Christian church last Lord's day were very encouraging. There was a baptism Friday afternoon, another Sunday evening, and an addition by statement at morning worship. We thank the Lord for past victories and press forward. There remaineth yet much land to be possessed. Altogether to the task. The loyal Men's Class is increasing encouragingly. Let each man bring another next Sunday—on time. Subject for morning worship, "The Sunshine State."

Christian Endeavor at 6:00 (we had a fine day last Lord's day) and evening worship at 7:00, subject, "More Light." A most cordial invitation is extended to all, always, but particularly to those without a church home in Portales. NORRIS J. REASONER, Minister.

BAPTIST CHURCH
We went over 200 in our Sunday school last Sunday and had a full house for the 11 o'clock preaching service, one car load from Texas attending the service. The afternoon Sunbeam and Jr. B. Y. P. U. services were well attended. The Sr. B. Y. P. U. had near a hundred per cent meeting at 6 p. m. Preaching services well attended at 7 p. m.

There is a fine interest manifested in our Friday evening choir practice. We meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bramlett for our next practice. You are always welcome.

It is encouraging to see the large number of young people coming every Sunday. Let us all meet next Sunday for a great Sunday school and a great day. J. F. NIX, Pastor.

This week workmen have been busy painting and repairing the city water tower. A rubber roofing jacket has been placed around the main pipe leading to the tower to prevent it freezing.

Last Saturday Mr. Frank P. Tipton of Littlefield, Texas, and Miss Mayme Guest of Portales were united in marriage, Judge Fairly officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Tipton will make their home in Littlefield.

The GIRL HORSE AND A DOG

By FRANCIS LYNDE

Copyright by Charles Scribner's Sons

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I—Under his grandfather's will, Stanford Broughton, society idler, finds his share of the estate, valued at something like $40,000, lies in a safe repository. Latitude and longitude described, and that is all. It may be identified by the presence nearby of a brown-haired, blue-eyed girl, a piebald horse, and a dog with a split face, half black and half white. Stanford at first regards the bequest as a joke, but after consideration sets out to find his legacy.

CHAPTER II—On his way to Denver, the city nearest the meridian described in his grandfather's will, Stanford hears from a fellow traveler a story paying to do with a flooded mine.

CHAPTER III—Thinking things over, he begins to imagine there may be something in his grandfather's bequest worth while, his idea finally centering on the possibility of a mine, as a "safe repository." Recalling the narrative on the train, he ascertains that his fellow traveler was a mining engineer, Charles Bullerton. Bullerton refuses him information, but from other sources brings Stanford enough to make him proceed to Placerville, in the Red desert.

CHAPTER IV—On the station platform at Atropia, just as the train pulls out, Stanford sees what appear to be the identical horse and dog described in his grandfather's will. Impressed, he leaves the train at the next stop, Angis. There he finds that Atropia was originally Placerville, his destination. Unable to secure a conveyance at once to take him to Placerville, Broughton orders a construction car and escapes, leaving the impression on the town marshal, Beasley, that he is slightly demented.

CHAPTER V—Pursued, he abandons the car, which is wrecked, and escapes on foot. In the darkness he is overtaken by a girl on horseback, and the dog. After he explains his presence, she invites him to her home, at the Old Cinnabar mine, to meet her father.

CHAPTER VI—Broughton's hosts are Hiram Twombly, caretaker of the mine, and his daughter Jeanie. Seeing the girl, Stanford is satisfied he has located his property, but does not reveal his identity.

CHAPTER VII.

Honorable Scars.

If I had been what I had invited Jeanie Twombly to imagine me: merely an ordinary drifting tourist set adrift in the wilds by circumstances over which I had no control, my cue to be on my way the following morning couldn't have been delayed much beyond the appetizing breakfast to which I sat down a little after seven o'clock. But once I had reached the end of the rainbow, and had no intention of moving on before I could have my chance to dig for the pot of gold which is said to be the reward of successful rainbow chasers, I was casting about for an excuse to prolong my stay when Twombly, to accordance with the bit of talk which I had overheard in the left chamber, took the matter out of my hands.

"When we was talkin' about automobiles and such, lar' right, you let on to me that you knowed something about machinery," was the way he began. "If you ain't in a tearin' hurry to be goin' somewhere, maybe I could get you to hang 'round for a spell and show me how to take a steam engine to pieces so 't I could clean it up and keep it from goin' to rack and ruin."

"With all the pleasure imaginable," I hastened to say, before he could have time to change his mind.

While the cerulean-eyed maiden was carrying the dishes out of the kitchen, the old man donned overalls and a jumper, and a few minutes later I was introduced to the mine—my mine, if you please—or rather to so much of it as was open to any visitor other than a submarine diver.

My heart went hot in sympathy for good old Grandfather Jasper. The scoundrels who had done him up had not been content with merely selling him the gold brick; they had let him spend thousands more for the pumping machinery, after they, themselves, were well assured that he was merely throwing money away.

I asked Daddy what he wished to do with the machinery. He said he was afraid it might be rusting inside, standing unused so long, and he wanted to take it apart; especially the steam engine. So I told him how to begin, and he fell to work; but in just a few minutes his awkwardness with the tools gave me a fit of the willies.

"See here," I said; "if you've got another pair of overalls and a jumper"

"Sure pop, I have," he admitted; and that was how I discovered my first real job of honest-to-goodness work.

We stuck at it until noon, disassembling, and scraping rust, and polishing and oiling, and incidentally finding the machinery in a great deal better condition than it had any right to be after standing idle for so long a time. Of course, I banged my soft hands all up, and got as dirty as a pig, and all that; but that first forenoon is written down in my life as one of the most enjoyable I've ever known. And when Daddy Hiram called the noon halt, and we went across to the cabin to wash up for dinner, I was hungry. I think that forenoon measured about the only useful half-day's work I'd ever done; and the afternoon made it a full day. Say, people—it was great! For the first time in an idle, happy-go-lucky life I had a job present as a two-month-old lamb, and that fellow that stole up to my shoulder and me it was up to him to help me to the top of the hill of life.

"Nary a lunatic," said Daddy Hiram calmly.

His breakfast eaten, Friend Isaac showed no disposition to hurry away—much to my chagrin. He took time to smoke a leisurely pipe with Daddy Hiram and to ask a lot of indifferent questions about the drowned mine.

"Hain't heard nothin' from yer owners yit, have ye, Hiram?" he wanted to know, after—as it seemed to me—the subject had been pretty thoroughly talked to death.

I heard Daddy's reply, made as to one with whom the matter had been canvassed before.

"Nothin' but that clippin' from some newspaper back East, tellin' about Mr. Dudley's passin' out."

"Kind-a curious somebody don't tell ye somethin', ain't it?" the marshal put in. "Looks like the heirs 'd be either fishin' 'r cuttin' bait on this here Cinnabar layout—not as if 'd do any 'em any good if they did. Didn't any letter come with the newspaper piece?"

"Nary a pen-scratch."

"Whereabout was the envelope posted?"

"Washin'ton."

"Ah!" said I to myself, "I have you, Cousin Percy! For some reason best known to yourself you didn't want Daddy Hiram to get hold of Grandfather Jasper's proper address!"

His pipe smoked out, the marshal prepared to take horse. Daddy went with him to the far side of the dump and the murmur of their voices came to me in diminishing cadences. After a bit Daddy came back and called up to me in the sing-song of the miners after the final blast has been fired: "A-a-i- over, Stannie. I reckon ye can come down now and get you some breakfast."

Jeanie served me in silence when I took my place at table and the good old man stood in the doorway, keeping watch, as I made no doubt, against a possible second-thought return of Friend Isaac, the bristle-bearded. Throughout the working day which followed he never made the slightest reference to the episode of the morning and, truly, I think the whole incident would have been buried in oblivion by those two simple-minded souls if I hadn't first spoken of it myself.

This I did in the evening of the same day, when Daddy had gone to make his entirely useless night round of the mine property. As on most evenings, Jeanie sat at her corner of the hearth, knitting, and I was filling a bedtime pipe.

"Jeanie," I broke out, "I wish you'd tell me why you and your father are so good to me. How do you know that I'm not the crazy criminal that other people believe me to be? I did steal the car and get it smashed, you know."

"You are not a criminal and I am sure you didn't mean to get the car smashed. Besides, you had taken shelter under our roof."

"You are true Redoubins," I laughed. "Is that the code in the West?—your code?—to defend anybody who has eaten salt with you?"

"I should think it would be anybody's code."

"You and your father were expecting this man Beasley to come here looking for me?"

"Daddy thought he might just happen along. We are only four miles from Atropia, you know."

"And was that the reason you put the old transit at the window—so you might watch for him?"

"Of course."

By Jove! Another woman, any other woman in the world, I thought, would have let some little shred of sentiment show; she couldn't have helped it. But this one didn't. A boy couldn't have looked me in the eyes any more frankly and squarely than she did when she said "Of course." Since I had eaten their bread, I was, for so long as I chose to stay, a member of the clan.

It was near the end of the fortnight, and Daddy Hiram and I had scoured and rubbed and scraped and reassembled the engine and pumps, and were finishing the cleaning of the boilers. These were pretty badly rusted and scaled, and to do the job properly, we had taken the manhole heads out of the holes left to give access to the interior of the shells, and had had a good-natured squabble as to which of us should crawl inside to do the scraping; Daddy insisting upon doing it, because as he pointed out, he was the smaller man, and I arguing that I should because I was the younger and stronger.

To settle it finally we slipped a coin—one of those inch-wide copper pennies that Daddy carried for a pocket-piece—and I won the toss. The job wasn't exactly a picnic, but I got along all right until we came to the last of the battery. I found that the repairs had at some past time inserted a couple of extra stay-rods, so that there was little enough room left in the old steel shell for a professional boiler-monkey to wriggle about in, to say nothing of a husky young chap, who tipped the beam at around a hundred and seventy pounds, stripped.

Just the same, I made shift to knock the worst of the scale off and rattle it down so that it could be washed out from below, and was backing out to make my escape, when I found that one of the extra stay-rods was loose. At my asking, Daddy screwed up the nut on the outside of the boiler head to tighten the rod, and then passed the wrench in to me so that I could screw up the nut on the inside. To this good day I don't know just what did happen, but I guess the big S-wrench must have slipped off the nut while I was pulling on it. Anyhow, something hit me a stunning crack over the eye, and I promptly faded out, blink like a penny candle in a gust of wind.

When I came to myself again it was night, and I was lying undressed and in a real bed in a room that was totally unfamiliar. In the looking-glass which hung on the opposite wall I got a glimpse of myself with a regular Turk's turban of white stuff wound around my head and skew-angled to cover one eye. When I stirred, Jeanie popped in from somewhere to ask what she could do for me.

"What was it?" I asked: "an earthquake?"

"Daddy says you hit yourself with a wrench. Does it hurt much now?"

"Not more than having a sound tooth pulled; no. But I was inside the boiler, wasn't I? How did you manage to get me out?"

"She turned her face away and even with one eye I could see that she was trying to hide a smile."

"It was funny," she confessed, "though we were both scared stiff at the time. Daddy called me and I ran over. You were all doubled up inside of the boiler, and there wasn't room for Daddy to crawl in and straighten you out. And unless you could be straightened out, we couldn't pull you out."

"I see. What did you do?—send for a boiler-monkey?"

"That is a boiler-monkey?"

"It isn't a 'what'; it's a man; usually the littles man in the shop."

"I was the monkey," she said.

I tried to sit up, but the blinding headache I had somehow acquired said No.

"You crawled into that rusty old coffin?"

"She nodded."

"Daddy lent me his overalls and jumper. It wasn't hard; but when I got in and saw how badly you were hurt . . . there wasn't anything to laugh at then. Daddy says you'll be apt to carry the scar as long as you live."

"Honorable scars," I muttered. "You straightened me around—I'll believe it if you say so—and then what?"

"Then I got out and we pulled you out—Daddy and I. I was glad you didn't know; that you were past feeling things, I mean. We must have hurt you frightfully. I don't see how you ever crawled in through that little hole."

"It's much easier when you're alive," I offered.

"I'm going to bring you a cup of herb tea, and then I'll go and lie down for a while."

"Since, as I afterward learned, the dose she gave me was some sort of home-brewed sleeping draft, I very

J. W. Fordney Shows Need For United States Valuation

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood Congressman J. W. Fordney, Chairman of House Ways and Means Committee.

Congressman Points Out Necessity for New System Incorporated in Tariff Bill.

"We are importing at the rate of about $300,000,000 worth of foreign goods per month into the United States," declares Congressman J. W. Fordney, Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. "Most of those goods could be made here. There is not a manufactured article produced in the United States in which the labor cost is less than 90 per cent. of the total cost—1 mean, following the raw material from start to finish. Now, if that is true, of the $300,000,000 that we are sending abroad each month to buy foreign made goods, $250,000,000 is going out from the people of the United States to employ German, French, English, Japanese and Chinese labor, while our laborers are walking the streets in idleness.

"Under free trade we must come to a common level somewhere, if we compete with all the countries of the world. Today German labor is getting from 60 to 65 cents per day in gold for ten or twelve hours. Japanese and Chinese labor today is from 12 to 18 cents per day in gold for twelve hours' work. If we had to be placed on a par with the imports from those countries, do you believe we could lift those foreign countries up to our standard of living? Not at all. We have got to come down to a common level somewhere, but we are not ready to do that, and we are not going to do it.

Revision Demanded

"The people of the country are demanding tariff revision. Some people say that Canada will retaliate. Canada is the best customer we have in the world, on the basis of population. There is no place in the world where our balance of trade is stronger than in Canada. Canada has no reason to complain about the rates fixed in the new tariff bill; none whatever. I shall tell you why.

"Last year Canada collected $19.50 in import duties for every man, woman and child in Canada. Great Britain, the great free trade country of the world, or said to be, collected $16.50 per capita, or $728,000,000. We collected $3.15. Little Japan is collecting at the rate of 20 per cent. ad valorem upon all her imports, dutiable and free. We have the lowest duty of any principal country on the face of the earth right now, and have had since 1913.

"Some people are opposing American valuation, some of the great importers of the country. Some of them have sent out circulars appealing to the merchants of the country, the manufacturers, to appeal to their congressmen and their senators to oppose American valuation. Why? I shall tell you why. Last year in the customs office of New York alone there were fifty-four hundred cases of under valuation, and this year they are running at the rate of five hundred cases a month.

"Why do foreigners who export to this country, or people of this country who import from foreign countries undervalue? Because they pay less duty. Profit is made in the duty if they can import at fifty cents on the dollar of the real value of the goods."

NOTICE OF PENDENCY OF SUIT

THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO, To Cornelia Fitch, Mary Hulsey, all unknown heirs and all unknown devisees of Cornelia Fitch and Mary Hulsey, and all unknown claimants and owners of the premises, defendants, GREETING:

You and each of you are hereby notified that a suit has been filed against you in the District Court of the Ninth Judicial District of the State of New Mexico, in and for Roosevelt county, wherein Maggie Burrow, Bell Butler, Aurelia Bumgardner, Addie May Haddock, Charles Roach and Henry Roach are plaintiffs, and you, the said Cornelia Fitch and Mary Hulsey, all unknown heirs and all unknown devisees of Cornelia Fitch and Mary Hulsey, and all unknown claimants and owners of the premises are defendants, said cause being numbered 1733 upon the Civil Docket of said Court.

The general objects of said action are as follows:

The plaintiffs allege that they are joint owners with the defendants and tenants in common with the defendants of the following described real estate, to-wit: Lot numbered nine in block numbered twenty-three in the Town of Portales, New Mexico; the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter, the south half of the northwest quarter and the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section thirteen and the southwest quarter of section twelve all in township one south of range thirty-four east of the New Mexico Meridian, New Mexico; that said described lands and real estate were owned in fee simple by Sallie A. Nash at the time of her death on the second day of January, 1919, and that the above named plaintiffs and defendants are the owners of said described real estate, having inherited the same from the said Sallie A. Nash, deceased; that the father and mother of the said Sallie A. Nash predeceased her, and that she died intestate; that the plaintiffs, Maggie Burrow, Bell Butler and Aurelia Bumgardner are the sisters of the said Sallie A. Nash and own a three-sixths interest in and to said described real estate; and that the plaintiffs, Addie May Haddock, Charles Roach and Henry Roach are the adult children and only children of Virginia F. Roach, a deceased sister of the said Sallie A. Nash, and own a one-sixth interest in said real estate; that the defendants Cornelia Fitch and Mary Hulsey are sisters of the said Sallie A. Nash, and if living they own an undivided two-sixth interest in said real estate, and if dead, their heirs and devisees own such two-sixths interest.

The plaintiffs pray for the decree of the court partitioning said premises and real estate according to the respective rights of the parties interested therein, and if it appears to the court that partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, then, the plaintiffs pray that said described real estate be sold and the proceeds of such sale be distributed among the owners of said property as provided by law, and for general relief.

You, and each of you are notified that if you fail to appear and plead or answer in said cause on or before the 24th day of February, 1922, judgment by default will be taken against you, and the plaintiffs will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

You are further notified that George L. Reese is attorney for the plaintiff and that his postoffice address is Portales, New Mexico.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court on this the third day of January, 1922.

(seal) R. H. GRISSOM, Clerk. By Paul E. Morrison, Deputy. J. 5-26-R.
