PLANS NOW READY FOR STOCK SHOW

Ominous Words Darken Europe's Sky

CLASSES AND AWARDS ARE MADE PUBLIC

Through the Editor's Spectacles

By GEORGE

The police department is holding a nice leather child's jacket which some youngster undoubtedly lost and which he as surely needs in this inclement weather. Henry Stubblefield said he will turn it over to the person who can show ownership.

R. L. Maddox, being congratulated upon a new member of his family, also has received notification that he has been appointed to the reading contest committee for the western division of the state band contest to be held in Lubbock during the end of the first week in May.

The Rice-Texas football game Saturday was one of the most thrilling that has been played in the Southwest conference this year. The Houston field apparently was not troubled with the deluges of water that made both the Baylor-A. & M. games slow, scoreless and uninteresting affairs, and the boys had sufficient footing to pull their offensive stuff with good effect. The outcome was as big a surprise to most people as it was decisively due to the Owls, and it removes the Texas team rather definitely from a further chance at the conference title.

In the Oil Belt district it looks more and more like Breckenridge and San Angelo will determine the district title between them. While many critics rate the Bobcats as superior to the Bucks and likely to defeat them, the results of the last series of games indicates the Buckaroos are growing stronger and on the basis of comparative scores, a better team that the Concho county entrants. Breckenridge walloped Brownwood rather decisively on Brownwood's home field while the San Angelo team was able to gain only a 12 to 0 victory over the Lions at San Angelo.

The postponement of the Sweetwater-Abilene game makes Kimbrough, 200-pound transfer from Haskell and brother of the Hardin-Simmons coach, eligible for that fracas. This boy may make some difference in the Eagle strength. But it has always been a deep, dark mystery to Cisco and several other schools in the Oil Belt how Abilene is able to make these "transfers" so legally and successfully. Cisco should like very much to acquire possession of that formula at least long enough to gather some material to bolster the weak Lobo ranks.

Hen Worries Flock-- Lays Egg and Crows

SIoux CITY, Ia., Oct. 24 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Groen, Olivet, S. D., farmers, can't quite make up their minds about one of their hens.

"Instead of cackling like a hen should when she lays an egg," explained Groen, "this biddy crows just like a rooster."

"And it upsets all the other hens something terrible."

SPAIN POINTS ACCUSATIONS AT PORTUGAL

Blockade to Prevent Arms Shipments Is Russian Demand

(By Associated Press)
Grave charges and ominous words, with bloody Spain at the vortex, engulfed Europe today.

Spain charged Portugal with the death of 40 government sailors in a naval battle during which a Portuguese ship, painted like a German vessel, sank the Motorship Fernando.

Russia renewed demands before the non-intervention committee for a blockade of Portugal to "stop" Italo-German arms shipments to Spanish insurgents.

Portugal broke off diplomatic relations with the Madrid government.

Madrid charged that 15 German submarines had entered the Mediterranean.

Madrid feared an aerial bombardment momentarily. The defense lines were only 10 miles from the capital.

'8 MILLION BAYONETS' BUT PEACE

BOLOGNA, Italy, Oct. 24 (AP)—Premier Mussolini "launched" what he proclaimed was a "message of peace" here today, saying to a crowd of 100,000 that although Italy can count on "eight million bayonets" she intends to live at peace with the world.

In an earlier speech at Corridonia, he avoided direct mention of the Spanish war. He picked out the word "intervention" and described it as representative of the "purest ideal of fascism."

But here he said: "While the European horizon darkens under a cloud of uncertainty and disorder, Italy offers the world an admirable spectacle of calmness, discipline and civic Roman virtues."

GERMANY RECOGNIZES ETHIOPIAN CONQUEST

ROME, Oct. 24 (AP)—Germany granted full diplomatic and political recognition to Italian Ethiopia today to strengthen relations between the two fascist nations.

It followed German conferences in Rome and Berlin and took the full effect of international law. The Nazi recognition is the first accorded the new Roman empire since formal annexation was proclaimed on May 9 Premier Mussolini.

MADRID REGION IS

TALAVERA DE LA REINA, Oct. 24 (AP)—More than 20 insurgent planes showered the fortified region around Madrid with high explosives today. It was reported two airports at the edge of the capital were abandoned.

Hoppers Know When To Let Cane Alone

INDEPENDENCE Mo., Oct. 24 (AP)—Grasshoppers may eat anything from grass to saddle leather when pressed for food but they avoided sorghum cane fields during the long dry summer until after heavy rains.

A county extension agent explained the cane contains prussic acid during drought periods in quantity sufficient to kill cows grazing on it. Rain dispels the acid.

"The grasshoppers moved in immediately following the rain," the agent said. "To me, that is conclusive proof of their intelligence."

Mrs. Sam Hines of Dallas has returned home after a visit with her parents, Judge and Mrs. D. K. Scott.

Peggy Landon's Career? -Just 'Happy Marriage'

A DAY WITH PEGGY LANDON

1—Peggy stops on the way home from classes at the University of Kansas for refreshments and an exchange of gossip with Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters. Although her father is running for the Presidency, her average day is little different from the typical midwestern co-ed's.

But She Denies Rumors That She Is Now Engaged

By HAL BOYLE
LAWRENCE, Kan., Oct. 24 (AP)—Peggy Anne Landon, vivacious daughter of the republican presidential nominee, is certain she won't be a "career woman."

Like most young women her age, she expects to find happiness in a successful marriage—but she terms all rumors that she is engaged as "nonsense."

At present "P.A."—as her classmates at the University of Kansas here call her—is too busy enjoying the normal life of a college girl to worry much what the future will bring.

"They had me engaged to a Kansas City oil man, and I didn't even know a man of that description," she laughed. "Another time they reported I was engaged to a fraternity boy here. I had dated him only once or twice."

Makes Up Bed Daily

Dark-eyed, slim, friendly, Peggy Anne has in large quantity the common sense which his backers claim is the chief attribute of Alf Landon. Her father's rapid political rise has made little outward change in her life. He may outline weighty national issues—she still has her bed to make up every morning in the Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters, she has no car to drive at school.

Despite her small size—she is less than 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighs under 105 pounds—Peggy Anne is fond of sports. Riding is a favorite hobby, but she participates also in intramural sorority tennis, volleyball, basketball and baseball.

Proud Of 'Dad'

She is immensely proud of her father, calls him "Dad" and regards him as her best pal, and follows his political activities only at long range through newspaper reports. She belongs to no political 2—The session over, she gets out again with brisk stride for the Pi Beta Phi house, her spirit undampened by a slight rain.

3—After a change into knock-knocks about attire, she plays "jacks" with a friend on the sorority floor.

TRENT FARMER CONVICTED IN WIFE'S DEATH

Is Given 25 Years By Jury in 42nd District Court

ABILENE, Oct. 24 (AP)—Clarence Duncan, Trent farmer, was found guilty today of the murder of his wife and assessed 25 years in the penitentiary. The body of the woman was found in the ruins of their home which was destroyed by fire.

A 42nd district court jury at 5 p. m. received the case of the Trent farmer, charged with murdering his first wife, Mary Jones Duncan, April 10, 1935. Her body was found in the burned ruins of their home. Duncan was given a 10-year sentence at Sweetwater two weeks ago for the death of G. H. Jones of Trent.

Testimony in the case was completed at 2 p. m. Friday, and the court's charge at 3 o'clock, arguments immediately following with an hour and 15 minutes to the side. The state's principal afternoon witness was A. T. Sheppard, undertaker of Merkel, who said:

"While I was preparing Mrs. Duncan's body for burial I found a break in the skull of the forehead, not entirely through. Later, when her body was exhumed for examination by doctors, I saw a hole in the skull where the break had been noted earlier. I saw Dr. W. V. Ramsey matching skull fragments into the hole. These were lying in the back of the skull. Around the hole the skull seemed tough and firm."

D. H. Vaughn, city marshal of Merkel, followed to testify that soon after the fire he heard Dr. R. I. Grimes of Merkel express the opinion that "a fire didn't cause that woman's death."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—Police today seized three leaders of the Workers Alliance of America in an effort to break up a marching demonstration after a delegation was turned back at the White House gates where they sought to see President Roosevelt to demand increased wages for Works Progress administration workers.

David Lasser, Alliance president, and another leader struggled as they were taken from a line formed before the Works Progress headquarters.

Earlier a committee of nine tried to see the president but Lasser was told the executive offices were closed for the day.

Liberal Property Rules Disqualify Few for Pensions

AUSTIN, Oct. 24.—But few applicants are disqualified by the liberal property restriction of the Texas old age assistance law, the low percentage of denials on grounds of excess property ownership indicated this week.

Old Age Assistance commission statistics revealed that only 2.8 per cent of all denials to date have been made because the applicants owned property in excess of $5,000, if single, and $7,500, if married.

The Texas law permits an applicant to have more property and still be eligible than is the case in any other state. As a result other states have much larger percentages of disqualifications on such grounds.

Ninety-seven per cent of the 16,000 applicants who have been denied assistance were found ineligible because of other statutory restrictions, such as age, residence, citizenship, income, and need.

Tips on CONTRACT

A Long Minor Great is the strength of a long suit with the tops when the declarer is playing a game contract at no trump. Six or seven cold tricks from one suit at times will prompt a partnership to commit itself to a no trump game contract, especially against vulnerable opponents, when the contract can be defeated by the right opening. For example:

South bid a club. Vulnerable West naturally passed. Most players with the North cards would bid a no trump, but this North conceived the idea of sounding out how good the club suit was. He made a one-over-one force of one spade.

Had East made a risky vulnerable overcall of two diamonds and had North and South continued on to any game contract, West surely would have doubled. But East, having been burned several times by vulnerable overcalls with such hands, passed.

South suddenly developed ideas like North. Having the spade king as a possible reentry if needed, he leaped to three clubs. North bid three no trump, the contract.

East opened his fourth best diamond, hoping that West could help set up the suit, and that his heart king would permit him to get in and set the contract. Happy North won the first trick with the diamond queen, then took seven club tricks and the diamond ace for his three no trump.

Any opening but the diamond would have defeated the contract. With a heart opening the defense can take four heart and three spade tricks before the declarer can get control. With a club opening the most the declarer can do is to win eight tricks.

East could hardly be blamed for not leading away from his heart king. The fourth diamond ordinarily would seem to be his best opening. Nor was his passing to be criticized. It was just one of those hands which evnturesome bidders get away with at times.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace.—Ps. xlii, 37.

Thy God hath not forgot thee, and when He sees it best, Will lead thee into sunshine, will give thee bowers of rest. And all thy pain and sorrow, when the pilgrimage is o'er, Shall end in Heavenly blessedness and joys forevermore.—Spitta.

Whoever sees further than his neighbor is his neighbor's servant to lift him to such higher level. Power, ability, influence, virtue are only trusts with which to serve our time.—Wendell Phillips.

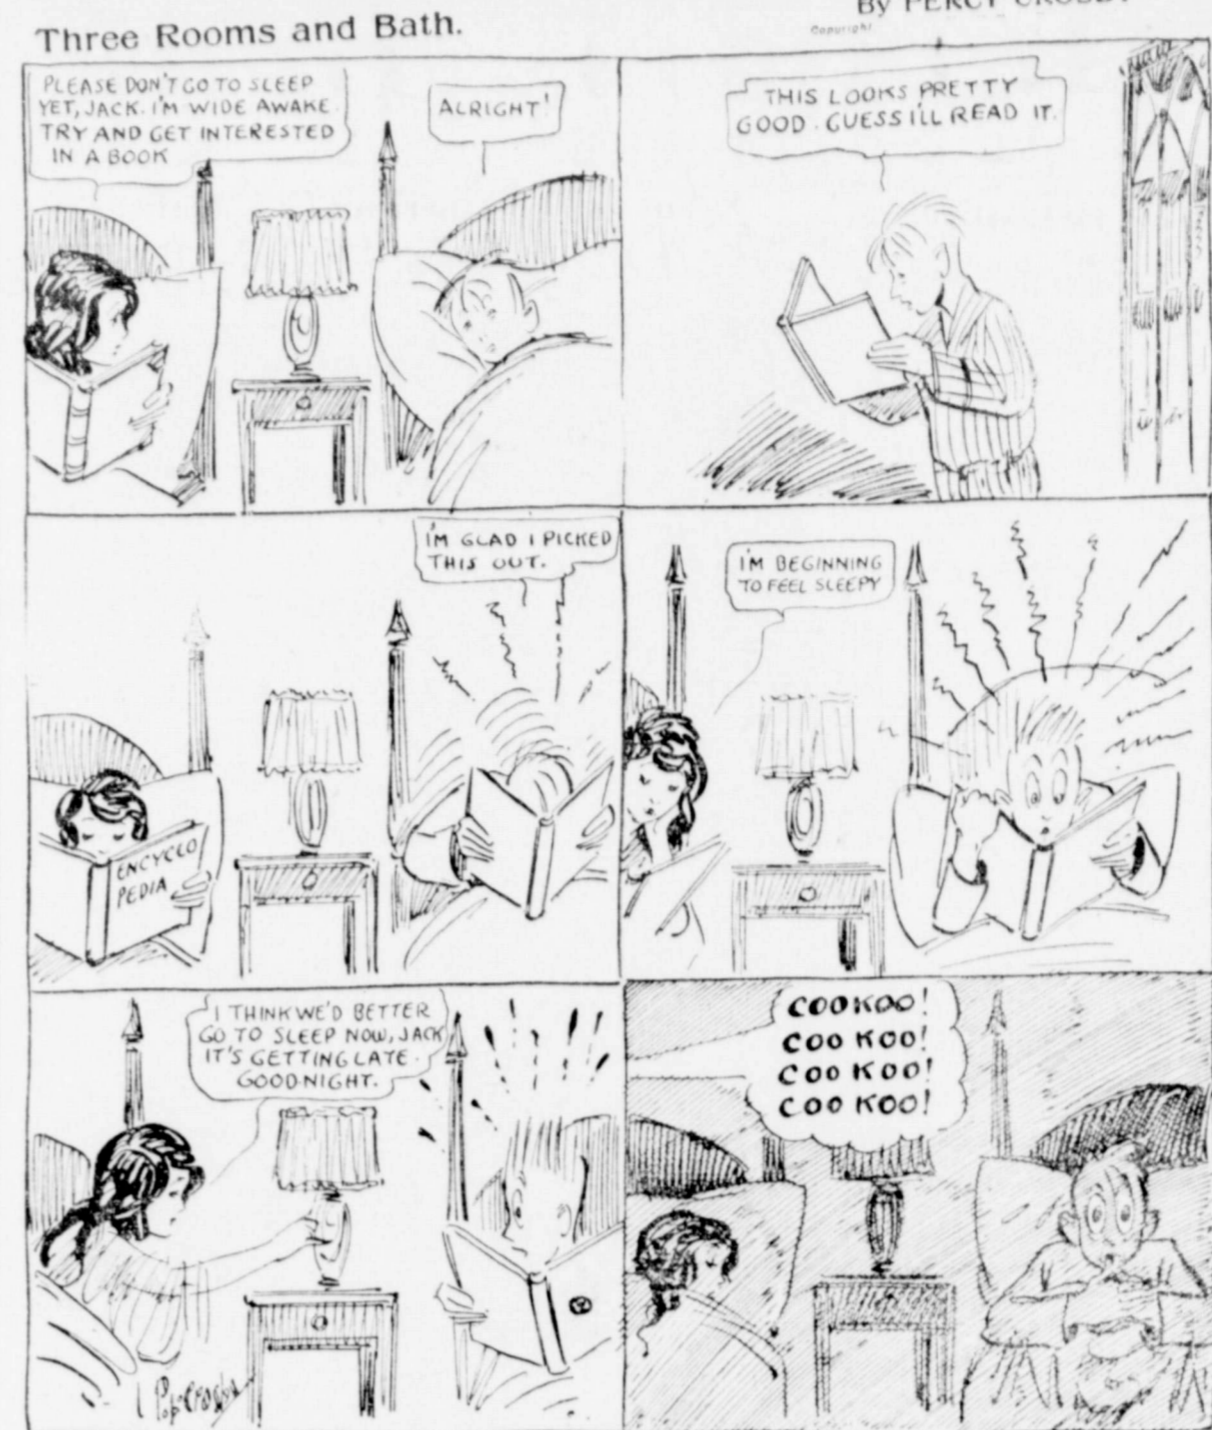

A Community Test

RAINY weather during the last few days has complicated what has been an unfavorable condition respecting the conduct of the annual Eastland County Livestock show here next Friday and Saturday. The show was postponed from an earlier date because of certain conflicts which made it too difficult to raise the necessary funds. The sum required is small. The raising of it and the holding of the stock show, however, will, in view of the current obstacles, put Cisco to test. Once the stock show is omitted, it will almost certainly be lost as a local institution. The work that has been done in the past will have been wasted, and the future of the show to Cisco, the opportunity it presents for helping to build Cisco into a center for a strong, permanent and growing livestock industry will have been cast aside for some other community to capitalize upon. In this critical period it is imperative that we hitch up our community trousers, roll up our community sleeves and get the job done in good fashion. To do so will create self-confidence which is among the most important ingredients of community endeavor as it is of individual endeavor. The stock show must be put over.

Politics Must Be Considered

THE Lubbock Avalanche, while commending Brady Publisher Schwenker's choice of Rufus Higgs, Stephenville publisher, as a possible successor to D. K. Martin on the state highway commission, says that politically Schwenker is wrong because he hasn't picked the wrong man for the place but the wrong place for the man. Higgs is one of the leading weekly newspaper publishers in the state and would not doubt have a majority of west Texans for his support. But the place on the commission for which he is being boomed belongs, politically, to south Texas and, as the Lubbock Avalanche points out, the governor could not play politics as politics are played by naming him. It suggests that the Brady publisher wait until the north or central Texas "place" be open and then "shoot the works." The suggestion of the Avalanche seems quite correct. Governors must make obeisance to factors besides personal merit and fitness for the job when they make nominations for posts of a statewide character. No doubt Mr. Higgs would make the state a capable and conscientious official and we are equally certain he would aggressively and effectively champion the interests of west Texas, interests which we sometimes feel are outweighed, by the population pressures of more thickly settled areas. It is unfortunate for this part of the state, at least, that the inevitable political considerations appear to block his appointment.

Laughing Around the World With IRVIN S. COBB

The Similarity of the Waves

TO MY way of thinking, the funniest original joke that has appeared in any American Publication in quite sometime was printed in Life. There was a picture which helped to tell the story. It was a picture of a summer scene off the coast facing one of our Eastern summer resorts. A youth has induced a Pretty Young Thing to go with him for a... In his cabaret; presumably it was her first experience of this sort. The craft is dancing merrily on the surf. The infatuated youth is swinging the tiller, glorying in the swirl of the wind through the rigging... But the Pretty Young Thing is not quite so happy. She is huddled up forward and upon her face is a wan and apprehensive look. Anon she speaks: 'I've enjoyed the sail tremendously,' she says, 'but, if you don't mind, I think we might just as well be going back to the land. After all, when you've seen one wave you've seen them all.'

Farmers Hold Answer

If both of these expectations are correct, then a great deal must depend on the agricultural class. Normally, over a long period, the farm sections of both east and west have been preponderantly republican. In election after election, in such important states as New York and Illinois, the republican party has been able to accumulate sufficient farm majorities to overcome heavy opposition leads in the great cities.

On Original Battle Lines

Of course neither party has withdrawn entirely from those sectors of public sentiment where its opposition rates itself as strongest. Mr. Landon has referred to himself as a "constructive liberal," and Mr. Roosevelt has declared himself the kind of "conservative" who believes that only through change can sound government be preserved. The discussion often has gone afield also, as most political dis-

Human and Other Nature

By W. F. BRUCE

A few years ago I saw and heard the discoverer of synthetic rubber explain the process and qualities of the product. By combining the proper elements in the laboratory he had synthesized a substance that had all the essential qualities of the rubber from the forest. When we read the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians we are undoubtedly getting acquainted with the elements of love; but is it synthetic or analytic love? Is Paul describing the various ingredients that we may put together to produce love? Or is he analyzing a force that already exists into its many characteristics and manifestations. There may be a synthetic love such as has from time to time been offered as a substitute for that natural ingredient of human life; tolerance, "live and let live," free love, and other social theories; and our peculiar individual patched-up relationships with one another. But the best of these will not quite measure up to the love that suffers long and yet is kind, that endures and hopes at the same time; that outlasts many more brilliant and spectacular motives in action, that puts meaning into our acts of charity and sublimity into the suffering of a martyr; that abides with other excellent virtues, but is the greatest of them all. Drinking Art Lost Says Club's Chief

CHICAGO, Oct. 24. (AP)—Club life and the art of drinking have faded from the average American's knowledge because he is in too much of a hurry to get somewhere and do something, says Albert Auwaerter, new manager of the exclusive Chicago club. "Men join clubs to escape the routine of home," Auwaerter declares, "or to mingle with their social peers an enjoy service. The younger generation, however, does not even know how to order a drink. "The idea most young men have of a party is to gulp down half a dozen cocktails and grab the hors d'oeuvres from the buffet. After the sixth cocktail they don't care what they eat."

Baylor, A. and M. Battle To Scoreless Draw

Rain-Soaked Grid Slows Open Play Of Both Elevens

WACO, Oct. 24. With both teams scoring 25 times each, Texas A. and M. and Baylor battled to a scoreless tie at Municipal stadium today on a field soaked with the heavy rains of the past two days. Taking no chances, the teams started on first down most of the time waiting for the breaks which did not come. Despite the heavy soaked pigskin Russell of the Bears and Stages and Pitner of the Ags got off several long punts.

Only one first down from scrimmage was registered and that came in the third quarter when Stages of Baylor gained 14 yards on two successive end runs. Todd, playing safety for the Ags, until removed with a hurt ankle early in the fourth period, and Vitek, who replaced him returned punts for long gains as did Russell for the Bruins.

A. and M.'s only scoring threat came in the first period after Todd returned Russell's kick 15 yards to the Bear 20. There "that old Baylor line" held and on our plays the Cadets gained nothing.

Baylor's threat came late in the second session when Stages, who went back to punt, from his 10 dropped the pass-back from center and the ball rolled out of bounds. Being fourth down the ball went over. Three line plays netted 7 yards and with fourth down and to go for a touchdown the half ended.

During the second frame the Cadets attempted five passes without completing a heave. In the third they attempted three, completing one for a 1 yard gain and having one intercepted. The longest run of the day came when Brazell, Bruin fullback, in-

TCU, Mississippi Fight To 0-0 Tie In Muddy Contest

A mud battle between the T. C. U. Frogs and the Mississippi Bull Dogs at the Cotton Bowl at the Texas centennial today at Dallas ended in a scoreless tie.

Rains during the week had the field in a soggy condition which caused many fumbles and hampered the offensive drives of both teams.

Little David O'Brien, playing quarterback for the Christians in place of Sammy Baugh, played a great game, while Roach and Aldrich gave good accounts of themselves.

The Bull Dogs brought seven special trains and 4,000 supporters to Texas for the game.

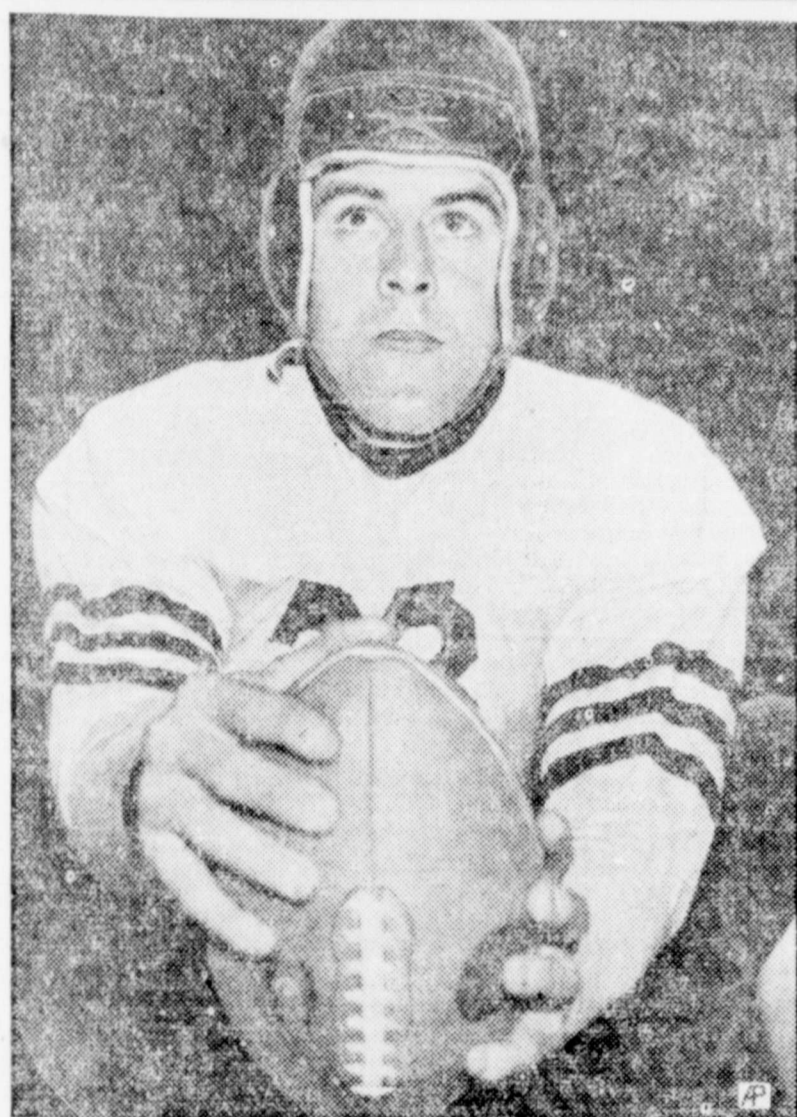

T. C. U. will meet the Baylor Bears who played A. and M. to a scoreless tie Saturday afternoon, next Saturday. The Frogs will be seeking their second conference win as will Baylor. T. C. U. has defeated the Arkansas Razorbacks, while the Bruins beat Texas last week. Both elevens have lost one conference combat.

Five new members have been added to the Texas Planning Board's mineral resources committee. They are Rep. Alfred Petch, of Fredericksburg, Rep. Howard C. Davison, of Rotan, Dr. E. P. Schoch, chief, Department of Industrial Chemistry, University of Texas, George Darragh, Marble Falls, and R. M. McBride, of Houston.

San Angelo Trips Lions 12-0 For Fourth Successive Conference Win

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 24.—Scoring twice early in the third period the San Angelo Bobcats copied their fourth straight conference game Friday night by trouncing the Brownwood Lions 12-0 on a soggy field.

A 62-yard drive following the opening kickoff netted the Bobcats their first score, with Harrison, Angelo halfback, breaking through the line 49 yards and the score.

Harrison intercepted a Lion pass a few minutes later on his 48 and three successive first downs put the ball on the Brownwood 10 where Hays circled right end for the final counter of the game.

The Lions threatened twice in the first half but were unable to score after driving inside the Bobcat 20 both times.

Rector, Magness Shine As Bucks Down Mavericks

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 24.—Using mostly line smashes the Breckenridge Buckaroos walloped the Eastland Mavericks by a count of 44-0 Friday night at Buckaroo Stadium.

A muddy field prevented running and pass plays from clicking. Eastland never threatened the locals goal line and made only 5 first downs to Breck's 18.

Rector's broken field running and Magness' line plugging gained practically all the victor's yardage.

This was the Buckaroos fourth consecutive conference win and leaves them still tied with San Angelo for the district 3 leadership.

14 pass attempts for 21 yards. The Steers were penalized 10 times for a total of 110 yards. Rice drew four penalties for an aggregate of 50 yards.

Rice Owls Tally Late In Game To Score 7-0 Win Over Texas Steers

(Special to The Daily Press)

HOUSTON, Oct. 24.—A determined Rice offensive that twice before surged against the Texas goal line only to be staved off, once by the failure of Vicker's toe to boot a field goal and again when a touchdown pass was ruled invalid, was not to be denied in the closing minutes of the fourth period here this afternoon, and the Owls virtually eliminated Texas from the conference title race with a 7 to 0 defeat.

Late in the second quarter of a sparkling offensive battle that featured the running of both teams, the Owls swept deep into the Longhorn territory and Vickers tried a field goal that fell short.

Immediately after the second half opened, the Owls gained possession of the ball on their 20 after Sheridan had quick-kicked, and with Shealey and Friedman making two long runs advanced to the Texas 29 yard line Vickers advanced three more and a 14-yard penalty set the Longhorns back to their 11-yard line, for the farthest advance that the Owls had made into their territory. Vickers and Friedman carried to the Texas five from which point Vickers tossed to Shealey for a touchdown that was ruled invalid because Vickers was called down before he threw the ball.

A Steer drive, featuring the running of Sheridan and Wolfe was halted when another 15-yard penalty set them back in their own territory after a series of sparkling gains. Late in the fourth quarter, Fulton of Rice intercepted a pass from Atchison of Texas and returned to Rice's 28. Friedman ran to the Texas 49-yard line and Neece slashed off tackle for nine yards. Vickers knifed center for three yards and a first down and the victorious Rice drive was on.

On a double reverse, Vickers to Friedman, the Owls advanced to the Texas 32-yard line, where Friedman lost two yards but Texas drew a five-yard offside penalty to nullify that loss and advance the ball to Texas 27. Vickers spun through to the Texas 18 and Friedman charged the right side of his line for a first down on Texas 14. Vickers tried the line without success. Friedman picked up a yard and then Neece ran through the center of the Texas line to the one-yard line for another first down. Vickers went through center for the touchdown and then kicked goal to make the score 7 to 0. The game ended a minute later.

Rice made 17 first downs to Texas' 10, outrushed the Longhorns 216 yards to 164 yards, and completed 4 of 14 pass attempts for a total of 80 yards, while the Longhorns connected with two of

Fordham Defeats Heavier Gaels By 7 To 6 Saturday

POLO GROUNDS, New York, Oct. 24.—The Galloping Gaels of St. Marys fell before the charges of the Fordham Rams today by a score of 7 to 6. Both teams scored their points in the first quarter.

Before the first period was half gone St. Marys had kicked two field goals and were leading 6 to 0 as the first frame neared its close. Starting on its own 36, Fordham with the aid of a long pass and successful running plays drove to the St. Marys 15 yard line, where the Rams passed for the tally.

Suppose YOU had a blow-out. Afterwards, when you're sitting by your wrecked car waiting for help, you'd have plenty of time to think about how dangerous it is to gamble on tires. But why not think of that NOW—why not let us put real blow-out protection between your car and the road TODAY?

HERE'S BLOW-OUT PROTECTION Free!

Only Silvertowns Have the Life-Saver Golden Ply

Whether you realize it or not, heat—the terrific heat generated inside your tires by today's high speeds—is the great, unseen cause of high-speed blow-outs. But now—thanks to the research of Goodrich engineers—thanks to the invention of the Life-Saver Golden Ply by them, this terrific heat is resisted in the new Goodrich Safety Silvertown. You're protected because dangerous heat blisters don't get a start inside the tire. And when you prevent the blister, you prevent the high-speed blow-out.

The American Girl And The King Of England

Mrs. Simpson Is Most Envied Lady In London Today

By CHARLES NORMAN
NEW YORK (AP)—Perhaps the most envied woman in London today is the American-born Mrs. Ernest Simpson, friend and companion of Edward VIII.

As Prince of Wales he was said to have waited two hours in a Harritz beauty parlor while her hair was a-drying. That was enough to set her apart.

Her wit and charm and her aristocratic southern lineage—the blood of Maryland Warfields, Virginia Montagues is in her veins—brought her to the fore in the ultra-smart circles of the English capital.

Those who know Wallis Warfield Simpson even slightly are not surprised that her company is "preferred" by King Edward. Far from being a Yankee at his court, she is a southern belle, with a petite figure and jet-black hair, and a vivacious personality that makes it natural for her to address Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David as "Davie."

Sues For Divorce

They met while the then prince was much in the company of the former Thelma Morgan, then Lady Furness, twin sister of Mrs. Gloria Vanderbilt. Mrs. Simpson used to accompany them—as friend and "chaperone"—on gay West End parties.

Now Mrs. Simpson is again following in Thelma's footsteps in suing her well-to-do commercial broker husband for divorce on charges of misconduct—the only grounds for divorce in England. Lady Furness divorced Viscount Furness in January, 1933.

The Simpsons were married in London on July 21, 1928—a second marriage for both.

Edward and the former belle from Baltimore are nearly of an age—he is 42, she 40—and they liked each other from the start. He lives to dance; she is an accomplished dancer. At her Bryanston Court home he found relaxation and goodly company over a cup of tea poured by a charming woman entirely at her ease in his presence.

(Once, when some of his subjects were standing embarrassedly about, Edward exclaimed: "Oh, for heaven's sake, sit down!")

At first he sent her flowers, soon court circulars announcing dinner guests at York house or St. James's palace often ended: "Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Simpson."

Cruise A Climax

The climax came this summer when the palatial yacht Nahlin was loaded with provisions, including champagne from the royal cellars, for Edward's vacation cruise in the Mediterranean and Adriatic. A select circle of friends accompanied him; among them was Mrs. Simpson.

Eyebrows went up, tongues wagged. Harassed British editors, seeking to make use of pictures of the royal party which were flooding newspapers, observed the conventions (with a bow to Mrs. Grundy) by identifying only the males. But people kept asking each other the names of the attractive woman who was constantly at Edward's side.

Wherever the king and Mrs. Simpson appeared ashore, at golf links, country clubs, informal parties, it was observed that his tie or boutonniere matched her costume. In Vienna, after a round of calls, the king found it necessary to consult with Professor Heinrich Neumann, noted ear specialist. Mrs. Simpson visited the doctor first, put the specialist at his ease to make the interview easier for his majesty.

Trail Blazers Reunited Under Philpeco Oaks

RISING STAR, Oct. 24.—Quite a number of the members and a large crowd of visitors attended the annual meeting of the Trail Blazers association, held under the oaks at Philpeco Country club Thursday.

The meeting was called to order by president G. W. Plummer, at 10, who after making a short talk stated that he wished to retire from the office and asked that his name not be put up for reelection. However, he was howled down and unanimously elected president for life. E. R. Patterson was re-elected secretary. During the meeting Mr. Plummer was presented with a beautiful birthday cake by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brooks, of Lometa, he having celebrated his 93rd birthday on Wednesday.

Mrs. C. G. Shults in making a list of names and ages of the older members of the association found that Nath Beavers, 96, of Rising Star, topped the list for age. Others getting along in years, who consented to give their ages, were as follows: G. W. Plummer, and his party returned to English waters. In the group that accompanied Edward to his Scottish castle of Balmoral was Mrs. Simpson. She is now in London, in a new home in Cumberland Terrace, in fashionable Regents Park, a mile from Buckingham palace. Her husband has taken up lodgings at his club.

On October 1, in keeping with tradition, Queen Mary, no longer a reigning sovereign, removed to Marlborough house, leaving the question of a hostess at Buckingham palace up in the air.

Whether it will be Mrs. Simpson is a subject dear to the hearts of West End dowagers and the smart set generally.

93; Mrs. J. L. Noble, 83; J. L. Weathermon, 82; Ike Walker, 90; Will King, 89; J. F. Reed, 76; Will Anderson, 86; L. D. Stanaford, 78; J. W. Clark, 86; Bill Dill, 77; Henry Brooks, 75; Pinckney Bearden, 89; John Cooper, 84; Bob Townsend, 84; Bill Brasuel, 78; Tom Deens, 85; P. D. Rickardson, 79; J. M. Roach, 83.

The old timers were entertained during the noon hour with a concert by the Goss string orchestra with the aid of a loud speaker furnished by the Chevrolet Motor Co., who had their show truck on the ground as a courtesy to the association.

In the afternoon Mayor W. E. Tyler called the meeting to order and after a short talk opened the meeting for talks by anyone who cared to speak. A number of short talks were made including J. E. Spencer, secretary of the Cisco chamber of commerce, Ed Curry, Bill Dill, C. G. Shults, Tom Deens and others.

Memorial resolutions were passed for the following members who had passed away since the last meeting; John Freeland, Romney; Capt. A. M. Curry, Pioneer; A. L. Mayhew, Cisco; Roy Hickman, Rising Star; Tom Crouch, Rising Star; Wm. Koonce, Rising Star, and Mrs. E. R. Patterson, Rising Star.

The Country club was chosen as a permanent meeting place.

San Angelo, Breck Still Undeclared In Oil Belt Race

As the first half of the 1936 grid season comes to a close San Angelo and Breckenridge still remain undeclared and untied in conference plays, and it is the general belief that the winner of the Bobcat-Buck scrap will decide the title winner of District 3.

The San Angelo eleven is big and experienced and has shown its superiority in almost every game. The Bucks have a team almost as big as the Bobcat crew but at the first of the season it was thought by many that with the loss of several of last years stars the team would not fare so well. Now many of the Buckaroo supporters believe the team is even greater than the state co-championship eleven of 1929.

Most Oil Belt fans believe the Bucks will retain the crown after the long string of smashing victories they have rung up so far. San Angelo's record except for the 14-6 loss of its season opener with North Side Fort Worth has been almost as impressive.

organizations and has no interests in campus politics.

Aside from her studies — she makes higher than average grades, likes history and English, dislikes mathematics and science—she is fond of campus dances and bridge. Her bridge game is patterned, she says, on the "hunch" system. She plays the piano, likes popular music and current novels, has no particular interest in poetry. She dates regularly — "two or three times a week, but with different boys"—and goes less often to the movies.

Now in her third year at the university, Peggy Anne, who celebrates her 20th birthday next April 8, has made no final plans yet for her post-college life. She says, however, she has "no burning ambition" for a career.

6—Almost ready for the party, she gives a last-minute touch to the bow of her formal dress before her 'date' arrives.

woman of the most abandoned sort, who had hardened her heart by many years of drunkenness and sin. Nothing I could say made any impression on her. When I was about to give up our old Scotch cook began to sing: "But none of the ransomed ever knew How deep were the waters crossed; Nor how dark was the night that the Lord passed through, Ere He found His sheep that was lost."

She was in the kitchen and was not aware that any one was within hearing. Her rich Scotch brogue lent charm to the verse, and it seemed a message from God. For the poor woman to whom I had been talking, and who was so hardened a moment before, burst into tears, and falling on her knees, began to pray to the Good Shepherd to receive her. She was converted, and has often testified to the fact that the song led her to Christ.

Elizabeth Clephane, 1830-1869, the writer of this hymn is also the author of the other well known hymn: "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

New hymns of great spiritual power are being sung by the congregation at the First Methodist church each evening at 7:15. If you like to sing, or enjoy hearing others sing, you will want to be there.

Let Us Sing

(Editor's Note: The following is the first of a series of little stories about great hymns which the Rev. John A. Sicehoff, conducting a song revival at the First Methodist church here, has written.)

By JNO. A. SICELOFF
"There were ninety and nine that safely lay In the shelter of the fold . . ."

Ira D. Sankey, singing evangelist with Mr. Moody, found this hymn printed as a poem. He clipped it, put it in his scrap book and at the close of the first service at Edinburgh Mr. Moody suddenly called on him to sing a hymn that would fit in with the service. Mr. Sankey went to the little organ which he used to play his own accompaniment, placed the newspaper clipping before him and sang the entire hymn as it stands today in most of our hymn books. The Scots congregation was deeply moved. Mr. Moody called for the hymn on many occasions after that.

Mr. Sankey relates this story of the hymn, as told by a friend: "One day I was talking with a

Hollywood SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 24.—All the funny stories that are supposed to happen in Hollywood, have happened, at one time or another, to Mischa Auer. And this new find among comedians is a good subject. He can take it.

For instance, as he relates gleefully:

"I spend eleven years studying to perfect myself as an actor. I work at timing, expression, speech—eleven years. And how do I get recognition at last? How? I do a Monkey act—I make faces—I swing from chandeliers and climb gates! Is that a kick?"

Comedian—To His Surprise

The "monkey act" was in "My Man Godfrey," since which picture the erstwhile gangland type has become, to his amazement and amusement, a comedian. He is delighted. As Bill Powell told him, "Forget about the Academy awards, Mischa—just make 'em laugh and you're set." Mischa is making 'em laugh. His "silent Indian" in "The Gay Desperado" is a highlight, and in the new Lily Pons film his unsuspected comedy bent gets full play again.

Funny? He's the grandson of a celebrated musician, and he looks like a Greenwich Village poet, with his six-foot-two bean pole frame, his "soulful" heavy-lidded eyes, his distinctly foreign appearance. But does he act like that? No, he fools you. He's a smart hombre with a sense of humor, and no off-stage acting. He has lived plenty in his 31 years. A "white Russian" in the revolution, he was 12 when the
