Paula Portwood, who is in charge of production of advertisements in the News' ad department, has proven that she is adept at production of another product. Paula gave birth to identical twin sons at the Plains Memorial Hospital Tuesday. Paula designs and builds attractive ads, and we are anxious for her to get back on the job. Right now, however, since it is twins, we don't have any idea whether she will want to get back on the job twice as quick as she had intended, or maybe she will need to take off twice as long. At least Paula's experience proves that even designing ads gets results.

The Commissioners Court may have handled the McDonald case, suit of a sex pervert against the county, in the most economical manner by settling out of court. But according to the many comments I have heard during the past week it was not a popular settlement so far as the people of the county are concerned.

The easiest or cheapest way out is not always the best deal. Principle, as well as after effects, should be taken into consideration. Even though this was termed a class action suit, whereby, presumably, the county will be immune from suit because of anything that might have happened prior to the settlement of this case, the implication being that the county is vulnerable in other instances. This is all the more reason that the case be contested in court, and if need be carried to higher courts. Precedent is important and in this case the county court has agreed to a bad precedent.

From all reports we have a good crop in the making. A good rain at this time, say three inches falling slowly through a 12 to 24 hour period, would cut the cost of production considerably. So long as the price of fuel, especially natural gas, continues to rise, the greater the need for more rain. Price and cost adjustments, so far as agriculture is concerned, must be a reality soon if we are to have any chance for continued prosperity.

Police can now be called direct

Where are the police when you need them? Now they are at 647-4545. The Dimmitt Police Department has installed a new telephone number that may be called direct. In the past, persons have had to call the City Hall switchboard and ask to be connected to the police department.

With the addition of the new phone number, calls may be made instantly and directly to the department, thus avoiding the possibility of waiting to talk to police.

George Bush to be honored here with luncheon

George Bush, Republican congressional candidate, will be honored Saturday at the Colonial Inn with an 11:30 luncheon in what will be one stop in his five-county campaign swing.

Bush, seeking to fill the congressional seat being vacated by George Mahon, will be accompanied on his day-long West Texas tour by former congressman Bob Price. Price has endorsed Bush in his congressional bid.

Bush and Price will be available to meet and talk to as many area voters as possible during their visit here. They will also tour Hereford, Friona, Muleshoe and Littlefield during the day-long tour.

DIMMITT HURDLER VICKI CLEVELAND ... Advances to AAU National Junior Olympics

Cleveland to compete in 'nationals' Saturday

Vicki Cleveland will be keeping her eyes focused on the finals this Saturday when she competes against 26 other hurdlers from across the nation in the nationally televised AAU Junior Olympics in Lincoln, Neb.

Cleveland, a Dimmitt High School junior, qualified for the national meet after placing first at Borger and second at Fort Worth in regional and state meets held this summer. She will compete in prelims of the 100-meter hurdles at 1 p.m. Semi-finals are scheduled at 2:50 p.m. and finals at 4:10 p.m.

"My main worry is getting to the finals," Cleveland said. She has maintained a daily workout schedule developed by Coach Tate from Oklahoma State University at Stillwater. Each daily routine is different, Cleveland said, and added that they were created for her by Tate, whom she met last summer during a track meet in Mexico.

Cleveland will leave Friday morning for Amarillo and will fly to Lincoln. The Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce is providing transportation, room and board expenses for Cleveland's trip.

LVN graduation set for Sunday

Six graduates of the Plains Memorial Hospital School of Vocational Nursing will be capped Sunday in graduation exercises at the First United Methodist Church.

The ceremony, set for 3 p.m. in the church sanctuary, will honor the 1977-78 class. Graduating members are Charlotte Jane Caldwell, Delinda Cheryl McLain, Rosemary Muniz, Donna K. Myers, James H. Perrin and Jackie Smothermon.

Jack Newsom, hospital administrator, will address the graduates as will board member Marguerite McLain. Local singer Patsy Morris will present a musical program during the ceremonies.

Allan Bradley, director of nurses, will present diplomas to the six and Barbara Keel, director of the vocational school, will cap them.

Following the graduation ceremonies, Plains Memorial Hospital's Auxiliary will hold a reception in the church's Lamar Fellowship Hall.

Water, Inc., launches membership here

Water, Inc., launched its 1978 membership drive here Tuesday when Public Relations Director Preston Lewis gave the Dimmitt Lions Club a progress report on the organization's work toward future water importation.

"For the first time, Arkansas is ready to hold some concrete discussions on the movement of water," Lewis reported. "A consulting engineering firm in Arkansas has projected that four rivers in that state would have an average annual surplus of 46 million acre-feet of water, and that they could afford to sell six million acre-feet a year to benefit their state."

Another major development, he said, is the formation of a federally funded High Plains Ogallala Formation Study Group to contract studies of future water needs in Texas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Colorado and New Mexico.

"This project will have $6 million in federal funding, and is to result in a final report by October 1980," Lewis said. "Final bids are being made now by universities and private consulting firms. Congressman George

Competing in the 100-meter hurdle event will be a total of 26 girls from 13 regions. Cleveland doesn't know who her competition will be yet, other than the first place winner at Ft. Worth. Cleveland led the race in Ft. Worth until she tripped on a hurdle, still managing to place second in the event, with a time of 14.5, a tenth of a second off her best recorded time.

President of farm union to speak

Texas Farmers Union President Jay Naman will be the featured speaker Monday at a salad supper sponsored by the Castro County Farmers Union. The supper, to be held at the Hart High School cafeteria, will begin at 8:00 p.m.

County vice-president Doug Higgins said all members and friends are encouraged to attend the supper in which Naman will speak about current agricultural issues.

Each member is asked to bring a salad. Meat and drinks for the supper will be furnished.

Mahon and others who helped get the federal funding insisted that the study be made by institutions other than federal agencies."

Lewis also outlined President Carter's new National Water Policy, which calls for improved planning and management of federal water resource programs, greater emphasis on water conservation, more federal-state cooperation, improved state water-resources planning, and increased attention to environmental quality.

Lewis noted that progress is being made on the state level, with the Texas Water Development Board giving consideration to future water importation, and with the Texas Dept. of Water Resources setting up an importation office.

Bob Caddell, local chairman of Water, Inc., urged local farmers and business owners to pay their annual dues to keep the work of Water, Inc., going. Minimum dues are $25 per year for regular members and $250 for sustaining members. Checks may be delivered to Caddell at the Pioneer Natural Gas Co. office or mailed to Water Inc., P.O. Box 367, Lubbock, 79408.

County settles federal case

Castro County settled out of court Monday on a 3 1/2-year-old federal jail suit filed by Bufford Lennell "Joe" McDonald, former county jail inmate who claimed his civil rights were violated here.

US District Judge Halbert O. Woodward certified the settlement in a 10-minute session after McDonald's court-appointed attorney, Robin Green, agreed to terms of the county's proposed settlement.

Judge Woodward also certified the case as a class action, which will prevent McDonald or other former county jail inmates from filing the same or similar suits against the county in the future. The county commissioners' court had insisted on the class-action status as a provision of its settlement.

Under terms of the settlement, the county will pay McDonald more than $1,700 in damages ($1,500 plus 9 percent interest per year from Aug. 1, 1976), plus a $5,000 court-ordered fee to McDonald's attorney, plus attorney's fees to Frank Gaston of Plainview, who represented the county and its present and former commissioners in the case.

Former Sheriff Jack Cartwright and former Deputies Rex Cowart and Jim Cooper were represented by County Attorney Jimmy Davis, who can collect no fee in the case.

Other terms of the settlement—which possibly could set new trends in jail procedures elsewhere—are that the county be required to:

-Keep no prisoner in the county jail more than 90 days in any two-year period on a misdemeanor charge or conviction, or more than 180 days in any one-year period on a felony charge or conviction before transferring him or her to a federally approved facility;

-Operate a work-release program for prisoners;

-Post jail rules and regulations in a place accessible to inmates;

-Provide a reliable means for prisoners to communicate with their attorneys and county-district court officers without these communications being read or censored by the sheriff or his deputies; and

-Develop procedures whereby prisoners can have either registered nurses or physicians make ultimate medical decisions regarding their illnesses or health problems.

"Judge Woodward emphasized that he didn't want to see any frivolous charges filed against Castro County in the future under the terms of this settlement," Davis said. "I felt a little better after hearing his judgment on that."

Davis, who opposed the settlement because it "could conceivably incur significant new expenses in the operation of the jail," said he will consult with the Texas Commission on Jail Standards to see how the provisions of the settlement will fit in with current jail standards.

"I can see us in the future having to check with the federal court on separate problems that come up, and ask for guidelines on compliance with the terms of the settlement," Davis said.

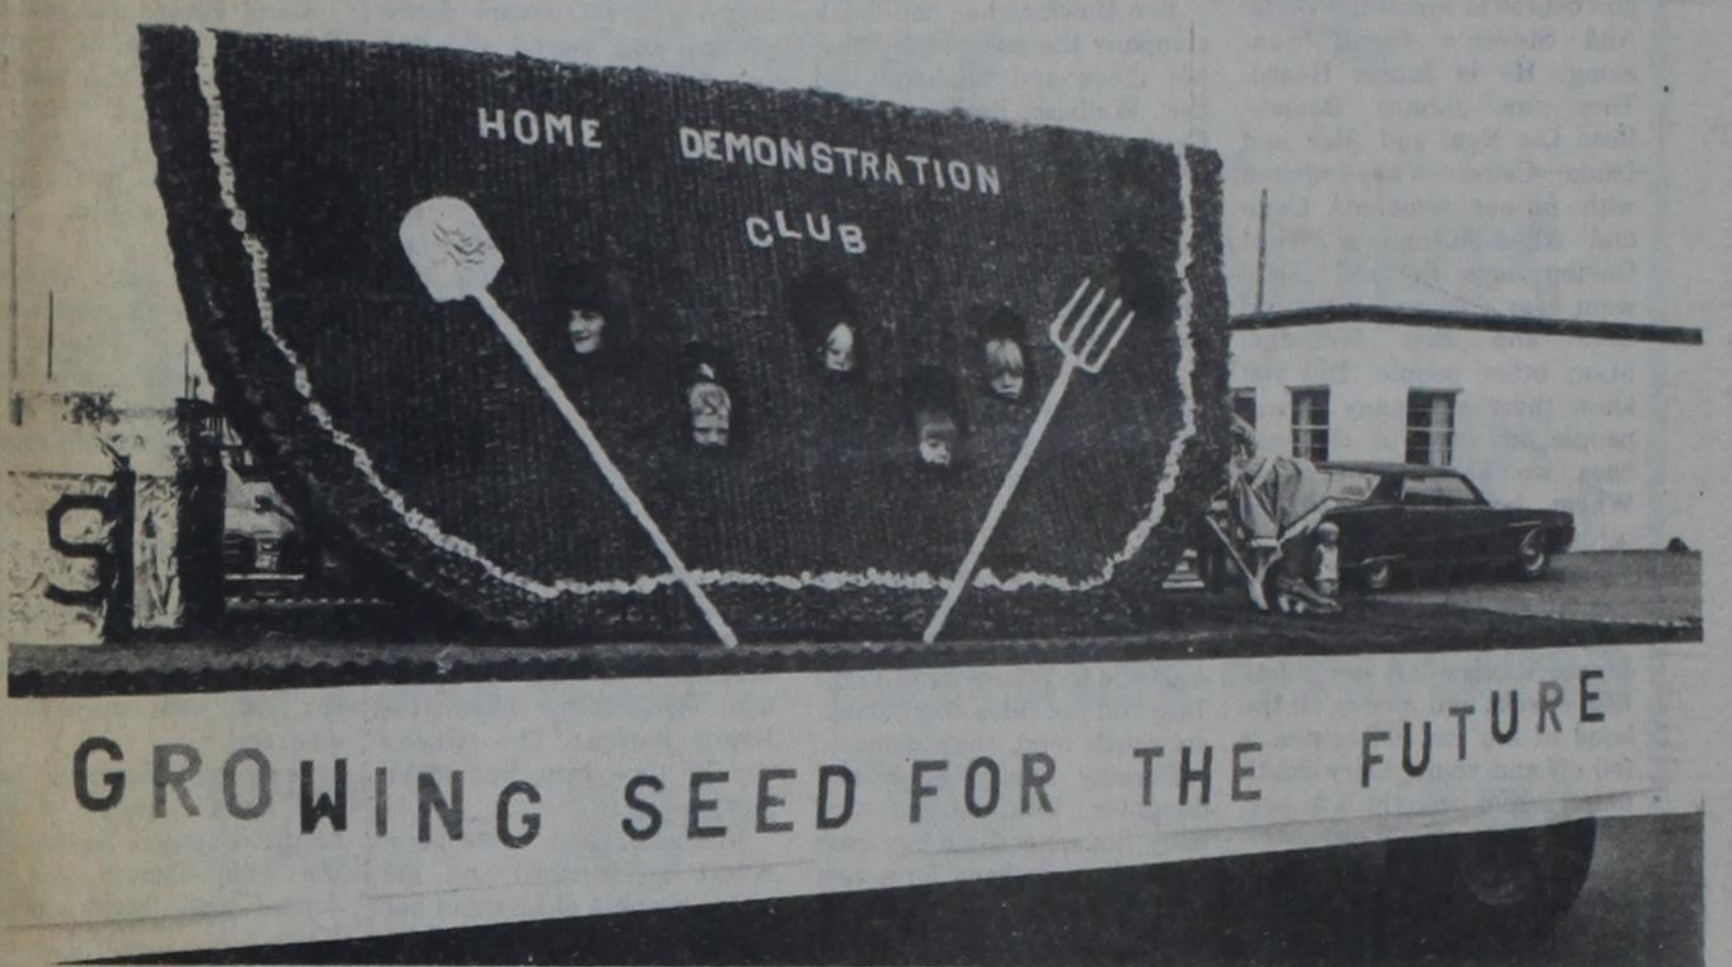

County Judge Weldon Bradley also was opposed to [See COUNTY, Page 12]

Baseball boys' parents to meet

A second meeting of Kids, Inc. Boys' Baseball parents has been called for Tuesday night to review this year's program and discuss possible changes for next year.

The meeting will be at 8:30 p.m. in Rhoads Memorial Library. All parents of boys 8 to 12 years of age (Major and Minor League) are urged to be present.

League President George Howell called the second meeting after only nine persons showed up for the first one this week.

WINNING FLOAT in the Hart Days Parade Saturday was this colorful entry by the Home Demonstration Club. The float featured a huge watermelon slice in bright red, white and green, with freckled youngsters, the "Seed for the Future," peeking out of the seed-holes. The Hart Days Parade was described by viewers and judges as "the best ever held in the county."

Hart Days 'biggest ever'

"We're tickled to death," Kim Williamson said Monday in the happy aftermath of the biggest Hart Days ever.

Williamson and his wife, Karen, served as general co-chairmen for the two-day celebration, which included a beauty pageant, parade, arts and crafts show, hamburger feast, carnival, teen dance, barbecue, fiddlers' contest, watermelon feast, food and game booths, square dance, children's games, class reunions and other festivities.

Crowds larger than Hart's population thronged into the downtown area for Saturday's activities, held under a cooling cover of clouds.

"We're grateful to the people throughout Castro County for turning out and making it a county-wide celebration rather than just a community celebration," Williamson said. "Hart alone couldn't have produced as big a crowd as we had for our events."

The celebration was a money-maker, too.

"In the past, we've had a problem keeping the Hart Days fund in the black," Williamson said, "but this year, with the carnival, the queen's contest and other sources, we had $799 income to go into the Hart Days activity fund. So now we've got a good start on next year's celebration."

Individual organizations turned a good profit for their work, also. The Hart Lions Club had a complete sellout of "Lionburgers" — 1,600 in all — and a crowd 50 percent larger than expected turned out for the barbecue Saturday night.

"They had enough barbecue to serve 300, but 450 showed up," Williamson reported.

Boy, 9, raped Saturday night

A 9-year-old Dimmitt boy was the victim of a homosexual rape Saturday night in a downtown alley.

Police are questioning a 15-year-old youth in connection with the assault. The youth was scheduled to take a polygraph test in Hereford Wednesday afternoon.

Police said the 9-year-old boy was abducted by an older youth in the alley near the Carlisle Theater after he had left the movies Saturday night. The youth forced the younger boy to accompany him two blocks to the alley behind the Senior Citizens Center, where the attack occurred, police said. The victim's mother notified police of the incident.

"They served the barbecue as far as it would go, then switched to ham, and before it was over they were down to serving ham and bread."

The beauty pageant also was the biggest ever, with 22 teenage girls vying for the "Miss Hart" crown and 20 youngsters competing for the "Little Miss Hart" title.

The new Miss Hart is B.J. Brantley, HHS sophomore, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brantley. First runner-up in the pageant was Diane Davis, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ray Davis. Second runner-up was sophomore Betsy Bob Berry, daughter of the Bob Berrys.

The girls competed in pre-pageant interviews and formal wear. Judges were Joe Provence, vice-president of student affairs at Wayland Baptist College and chairman of the Miss Wayland Pageant; his wife, Fredda, former director of the Miss Wayland Pageant; and Kim Thompson, Plainview gymnastics instructor.

Winner of the "Little Miss Hart" title was Robin Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brooks. First runner-up was Tonya Lee, and second runner-up was Rosie Gueroga. The new "Little Miss Hart" was crowned by Becks Richland, 1977 winner, assisted by Ware and Blair Brown.

Richard Franks emceed the Friday evening pageant in the school auditorium. Winners received approximately $500 worth of gift prizes donated by area merchants.

Saturday's parade, organized by Virginia Reed and marshaled by Richard Franks, was described by viewers and judges as "the best parade ever held in the county." It featured 10 decorated floats, eight commercial entries, 12 vehicles carrying beauty contestants, bikes, fire engines, new cars and vans, boats, mounted riders, walking clowns and a bevy of antique cars.

Sheriff Granville Martin headed the parade on horseback, followed by three color [See HART DAYS, Page 12]

Registration set for Hart schools

Registration for the 1978-79 school year at Hart will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 22-23, instead of Aug. 21 as printed in last week's news. According to Supt. Ted Averitt, high school, elementary and kindergarten students will register Aug. 22 while junior high students will sign up Aug. 23. All students are to register in the Hart High School library.

Time schedules for the Tuesday registrations are: seniors, 8:30 to 10 a.m.; juniors, 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon; sophomores, 1 to 2:30 p.m.; freshmen, 3 to 4 p.m.; and elementary and kindergarten, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Kindergarten students must bring birth certificates and health certificates.

Registration times for Wednesday are: eighth grade, 8:40 to 10 a.m.; seventh grade, 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon.

All junior high and high school students must attend all classes the first day of school to be eligible for test exemptions. Breakfast and lunch tickets will be on sale the day of registration and the first day of school.

Free vaccinations scheduled Friday

A clinic offering vaccines that give protection against several childhood diseases is scheduled for tomorrow (Friday) from 9 a.m. to 12 noon in the Dimmitt City Hall assembly room.

Protection is against polio, diphtheria, lock jaw, whooping cough, measles, rubella, and mumps.

There will be no charge for the vaccines.

THE NEW 'MISS HART' is B.J. Brantley [center], who won the title in a field of 22 contestants in the Miss Hart Pageant Friday evening. Miss Brantley, a sophomore in HHS, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brantley.

Residents take late-summer flings in Ruidosa area

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

Ruidoso seems to be the popular place for Dimmitt people to go for a weekend.

Wannie Stevens and daughter Barbara Wheat and granddaughter Toni and Steven who is the golfer in the family went to the mountain place last week. And I have told you Ruidoso has a fine golf place and an excellent golf course at Inn of the Gods. And Steven's friend went along. He is James Heard. They saw Johnny Davis—Rosa Lee Neal and Alex and Linda Catoe. They visited with former residents Gene and Alma Kenmore. Ward Golden says he and Oleta went over also, as did the Bill Lees and Bob McLeans. Many other people. Did you know there are many honest people in spite of the bad ones we hear about? Toni Wheat bought one of the turquoise rings, left it in a cafeteria accidentally and a person left it at the desk for her.

And here in Dimmitt Mrs. Jennie Reitzer left her purse with checks and money on the hood of her car. Of course it fell off and young Gary Smith found it and brought it to her. Jennie is a sister to Mrs. Taack. And Gary is the son of Gene and Mary Smith of the car upholstery and tune-up place.

The graduation service for LVN nurses will be Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m., Aug. 13 at the Methodist Church. You are invited to come, says Mrs. Lonnie Keel, teacher. A reception will follow in the Fellowship Hall. The LVN graduates are: Jane Caldwell, of Friona, Delynda McLain, Jackie Smotherman, Rose Mary Muniz, Donna Myers and Jim Perrin.

We were chatting with Ozema Hill of Hart in the Pizza place. She had twin great grand girls with her. They are grands of Bonnie Futrell. And her sister Mrs. Georgia Simpkins was with her from Sonora, Calif. Oh yes, the twins names are Cheyenne and Creedence Futrell, unusual names. Ozema and Homer have had a house full of company all summer. Saturday Rebecca Henly came from Fort Worth. Also a nephew from Houston was there.

Bea Hawkins has had much company the past few weeks, her niece and husband and the Wallace Reagers from California and two grandchildren from Eugene, Oregon. And her nephew and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Gene Hawkins here from Topeka, Kansas. She is on a little trip and will tell us about it later.

Melissa Teas was the birthday girl one day last week. Her mother Pricilla Teas and Meredith Hooper took Melissa and friends Keith Teas, Zeke Hooper, Crystal Vines, Cory Vines and Ida and Sunny Brush and Tracy and Leslie Brush to Amarillo to Wonderland Park. They did the rides and games, ate much food, then home.

Dorothy Sheffy Bond and daughter Vicki Green and baby Roxanne came up from Dallas last weekend for a visit here at my house with all the Sheffy family here for ice cream Sunday afternoon. And they gathered peas at Richard Bill's place Saturday. The peas are all gone by now. Good while they lasted.

47 people were in my backyard Sunday afternoon, all of my kids and their families.

Russel and Myrtle Lois Moran had company last week and I saw them at church Sunday morning, her brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Houston Pearson from Lubbock, son Scott and his Mrs. Moran and her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. Milton Horton from Waco. All attended the pageant "Texas" in Palo Duro Canyon Saturday night.

Mrs. Ada Ruth Crager of Canyon was a Sunday guest of her uncle Edwin Ramey and cousin Decimae Beene of Friona.

Paul and Betty Stanford and children Jon and Jena of Albuquerque were weekend guests of his mother Flora Stanford.

Bob Duncan of Amarillo and his son Tim and Sue from Peabody, Mass., and their daughter Theresa from Olympia, Wash., were Sunday guests of parents Mr. and Mrs. G.B. Duncan and brothers Glen and Ben and Bernice Hill.

Kay Bearden Snider and daughter Patrice of Amarillo were Sunday guests of mother Opal Bearden and Kay attended the 1953 class reunion which met at Methodist Fellowship Hall Saturday evening with dinner and visiting.

Attending funeral services in Spearman and Erick, Okla. Saturday for David McMullan, 21 year old victim of cancer, were aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. H.O. Markley, cousins Shirley and Lisa Hall and Elvis and Joy Barker. The Barkers' daughter and son-in-law, Pam and James Crookham of Little Rock, Ark. also met them in Oklahoma and attended the graveside services at Erick. They and the Barkers also visited Joy's parents Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lamm in Sayre and other family members in Erick.

Jewell Connell and Brian and Bernice Dutton and Michelle and Ricky went to Fun Valley, Colo. They watched many different square dance groups and Jewell did her first fishing.

Many more of the folks from the Church of Christ went to Fun Valley for a fishing and sightseeing trip. These others I heard went: Dale and Cindy Wells, the Lamberts, Richard and Johnna Connell and children. This was not a church sponsored trip.

Anthony and Mary Mays, Cory and Sabrina have returned from a trip through East Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana. In Arlington they visited Anthony's brother, Bill Mays and family. In Eldorado, Ark. they visited the Danny Bartons. The remainder of their trip was spent sightseeing.

Charles and Margaret Kuntz of Hereford and her sister, Debbie of Midland had supper Saturday with Helen and Fred, Charles' parents. He is a CPA with the firm of Cotten and Warrick in Hereford. Charles has been honored one of the outstanding young men of America.

Charles and Nancy Higgs and daughter, Andrea came by here on their way home from California where they had been to visit his parents. Charles preached both Sundays they were there. Charles is a former youth director of the First Baptist Church here, and is now pastor of a fast growing church in Corpus Christi. They visited with the Milton Bagwells and Dan Heard.

Carol Hance and children, Ron and Susan of Lubbock visited Beral Hance the first of the week and visited her mother Nancy Hays in Hereford. Kent was in Austin for the special session of the legislature.

Lynda and John Arnold of Canton, Ohio are here visiting Pat and Bob Anthony and family. For the past six years they have vacationed at the same dude ranch near Pueblo, Colorado.

J.C. and Rhonda Mays spent the weekend at Dalhart Lake.

Vaden and Aline Kirby took his parents, the A. T. Kirbys to Altus. Vada and Rick Wilcox also went there for the weekend.

Jerry and Sammie Lance and baby, Camille of Summerfield visited Sunday with the Sam Lances and had supper with David and Ann Hays.

The Dimmitt Dinner club met at Irene Carpenters Friday. Names were drawn for next year. Present were Hazel Bagwell, Geneva Dennis, Bilye Wesson, Ruth Hays, Thelma Bryson, Connie Ivey and Mauzee Youts.

Wes and Alice Anthony went to Friona Sunday afternoon to visit with her sister, Mary Dixon.

Dr. Douglas Dennis and Mona and their sons, Brent and Eric of Goldthwaite have been here visiting his parents, the Morgan Dennis', Decimae Dennis, and the Edgar Dennis family. Doug and his family went to Colorado for fishing and camping and returned here for another visit before returning to their home.

Blanche and Cecil Ginn have returned from a family reunion at Mineral Wells. One sister is from northern Alabama. I believe Blanche has five sisters.

The Dimmitt High School graduation class celebrated their 25th anniversary Saturday evening at the Methodist Church. Donald and Katy Wright prepared fried fish and French fries and everyone else brought covered dishes. Present were James and Doris Dobbs and three girls from Summerfield; Kay Snider and daughter, Patrice of Amarillo; [See CHATTER, Page 9]

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Black to play in Greenbelt classic Friday

Glen Black of Hart will play in the Greenbelt Bowl football classic Friday night at Childress.

The 1978 graduate of Hart High School was an all-state linebacker his senior year with the Longhorns. He also earned all-district and all-South Plains honors two years as a fullback and linebacker.

Black left Monday to start workouts for Friday night's game, which will feature top players of all classes who have completed their high school eligibility.

Each player in the Greenbelt classic is invited to nominate a candidate for Miss Greenbelt Bowl, and Black's nominee is Kylene Collins of Dimmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Collins. She left Wednesday to participate in the pageant. The 1978 Miss Greenbelt Bowl will be announced during halftime of Friday night's game.

August crop pest count varied in Castro County

Here is this week's report from County Extension Entomologist Mark Powell:

COTTON

Cotton continues to look good with all the fields I have seen having bolls in them. Bollworm egg lay is still light, although the black light trap catches are increasing and fluctuating. There is a 3-4 day sexual maturity period these moths must go through before they make and lay eggs. Egg lay should be light for another week but start increasing soon after the weekend of the 12-13th. The peak egg lay should occur the end of the month and early August.

Cabbage looper and army worms have been found in some fields but not to any economic level.

CORN

The Southwestern corn borer is still with us and will probably stay another week. Black light trap catches still remain high enough to prevent the numbers being plotted on the graph. So here are last week's average daily catches: July 31, 1370; Aug. 1, 660; Aug. 2, 1092; Aug. 3, 447; Aug. 4, 0 (due to the rain and cool evening temp.); Aug. 5, 120; and Aug. 6, 568.

Spider mites continue to be a nuisance. The cooler weather of the past several days will help hold populations at their present levels. Mites like it hot and dry. Before spraying corn that is going for silage for mites, check the interval between time of application and harvest so to avoid a residue problem.

SORGHUM

The greenbug situation varies from field to field.

SOME FIELDS HAVE BEEN SPRAYED WHILE OTHERS HAVE NOT REQUIRED TREATMENT. THE THRESHOLDS FOR TREATMENT ARE:

6 inches to boot - before 1 true leaf is killed; head exertion to bloom - when 2 true leaves are killed.

SECOND PLACE WINNER in the big Hart Days Parade Saturday was this "Hart of Plenty" float entered by East Side Grain and The Company Store. The float featured a paper-flowered Texas with a horn of plenty flowing from the Hart location to the deck of the float. At the mouth of the horn were examples of the area's bounty, including several children and queen candidate Cindy Brooks.

HHS schedules band sessions

The first rehearsal for the new school year for Hart's Longhorn Band is scheduled for tonight (Thursday) from 7:30 to 9, according to director Dennis Syring. Rehearsals will be held Friday from 4 to 6 p.m. Practice is also scheduled from 4 to 6 Monday through Friday, Aug. 14-18 and Monday through Wednesday, Aug. 21-23. During the regular school term, outside rehearsals will be held on Monday and Tuesday of each week at 7 p.m. for the remainder of the marching season. Although attendance to these pre-school rehearsals is not mandatory, every freshman through senior Longhorn Band member is urged to attend. For the best interest of the band, it is hoped that everyone will make an effort to attend, the band director said. This year for the first time, the seventh and eighth grade band members will meet together to form the Junior High Band. Rehearsals for this band will begin in the regular school term. The new band will encourage younger players to develop their skills more gradually and also will give them the opportunity to compete in junior high band festivals and UIL events in the future, Syring said. The Sixth Grade Band will begin in the regular school term also. MRS. Zachary Taylor, wife of the 12th US President, often smoked a pipe in private inside the White House.

Reyes completes advanced training

Pvt. Guadalupe Reyes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nasario L. Reyes, 310 NW 3rd, Dimmitt, recently completed seven weeks of advanced individual training at Fort Benning, Ga. The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. This qualified him as a light weapons infantryman and as an indirect fire crewman. He was taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad. Reyes entered the Army last April. He is a 1973 graduate of Dimmitt High School. 647-3123 For Printing small talk from South Hills Manor

Tuesday Jim and his wife and little Jimbo visited Mrs. Velma Tucker on their way to a big move to Walters, Okla., where he has taken an ag job. Wednesday Bro. Grisham and family brought the service for us. Very good singing and a good message. We always look forward to Wednesday night. Friday was a busy day. Nine ladies went out to Mrs. Bob McLean's home for a lovely morning. They were served fresh fruits and vegetables. Those going were Mrs. Velma Tucker, Mrs. Hattie Webb, Mrs. Floy Hart, Mrs. Lucille Pleuffer, Mrs. Eva McGowan, Mrs. Lois Harris, Mrs. Katie Waggoner, Beulah McMurray and Gladys Justice. Thanks to Dorothy Hopson, Jo Kirkpatrick and Oleta Golden for furnishing transportation, also thanks to Daphene Montgomery. Visiting at the Manor last week was Mrs. Myrtle Williams who visited Mrs. Leona Rothwell. Dorothy Hopson brought her parents from Hereford to visit with Mrs. Velma Tucker Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jewell were early-day friends of the Tuckers at Hedley. Thanks to W. R. Waggoner for helping us get the hummingbird feeder going. Again a great big thanks for all of the wonderful fresh vegetables everyone is bringing to the Manor. Mrs. Betzen's oldest sister wanted to spend her 92nd birthday here with Mrs. Betzen. Mrs. Betzen's niece Gertrude Berkebile and grandniece Mary Ann Howard brought her and another sister down to visit Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. Betzen's sisters are Christine Blubaugh and May Schauf and how they all enjoyed visiting. They came down from Wichita, Kan. Their visit made Mrs. Betzen so happy. Mrs. Hudson from Olton was in Dimmitt visiting Mrs. O. K. Howe and came out to the Manor and visited several friends Sunday. She was a Dimmitt resident and has many friends here still. Their home was always open to people, young and old alike. People always had a good time at the Dunns. Their home was warm with love. There was always music in the Dunn home. Of particular interest was gospel singing. The Dunns loved people and they loved their Lord. Also western and ballad type music were among the songs the groups would sing and play, as they would gather at the Dunn home. The Dunns have six children, Herbert and John live in Littlefield, Connie and Coy, who are twins, live here in Dimmitt, Joe lives in Big Spring and Newt lives in Maricopa, Calif. This younger group loves singing also and provides the Manor with a program at least twice each month. Lena suffered a massive stroke in 1973 and has been in the Manor since. She doesn't get to get out and around in the home but she always has a precious smile for everyone who comes to see her. Lena has loved her children and cared for their every need. I know this by the love her children have for her. Not one day goes by that one of her children isn't at the home to see her. She taught her children to love the Lord. You can tell this by their lives and their singing. She taught her children to love their fellowman. They are so good to come and present programs for the Manor. Lena still loves music. On the nights she feels like it, she comes to the programs and will on occasion sing along with some of her favorite hymns. Although you may not really know a person until after they have reached their twilight years, you know this person through their family and you can see what they have been taught and the love and respect Lena's family still has for her. You know she was a kind, gentle loving mother who reared her children in the ways of the Lord. Last week we said it was the Assembly of God Church who had presented a gospel singing program for the residents. Instead it was the Church of God of Prophecy. Sorry for the error. We appreciate all everyone does for us. ANTOINE Parmentier invented the French fry and served them for the first time to Benjamin Franklin.

Water management

Test your system's effectiveness now

By William P. Dannevik, P.E.

Present conditions of soil moisture is generally good. E.T. (evapotranspiration) rate has dropped. Tensiometer readings are sporadic, not following the usual pattern. Infiltration rates are low because of continuous irrigations. This is a good time to make some notes on how well the irrigation system has worked. Check to see if stalk and ear size has been maintained throughout the length of row.

If not, make note of the distance that does have good stalk and ear size. Check the size and shape of the water furrow at several places along the row length. Note what length and slopes best carry the furrow stream. Furrows should be uniform and have the widest possible wetted perimeter with enough ridge left to maintain control of the irrigation stream. Compare these findings with a soil map of the farm.

Short level rows will improve water application efficiency, but may increase labor costs if not properly designed. If gated pipe is used the amount of water per row is limited, therefore row length may be limited. Short dirt ditches may work better on longer rows because the furrow stream can be more easily increased. When running rows across the slope to reduce slope in the direction of irrigation adequate consideration must be given to outside water and to breakover from dry cracks in the soil. Maintaining 50 centibars vacuum pressure or less in the soil will prevent cracking.

In summary check to see where irrigation water has produced the most and produced the least. Expand on the high production and limit the least productive procedures.

On Wall Street
By Bob Hill
A.G. Edwards & Sons, Inc.

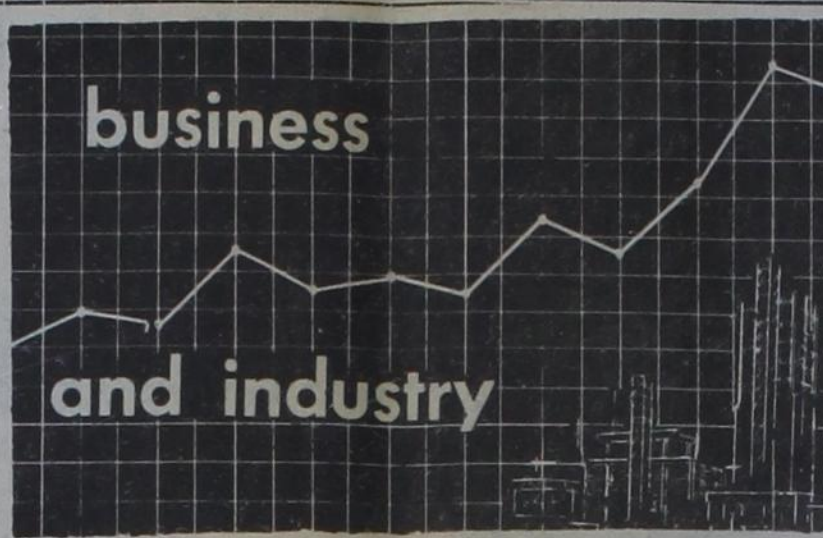

Federal Reserve Board Chairman G. William Miller has had an uphill battle with his fellow governors over which way interest rates should go. Miller has been a proponent of lower interest rates. The majority of governors on the Fed have been staunch proponents of higher interest rates as a tool to slow down inflation. The question is: are higher interest rates slowing down the inflation rate?

There are two schools of thought. The most conservative approach to curing our inflation ills calls for much higher interest rates. The opposing view maintains that holding interest rates at too high a level for too long will cause the economy to "flip" and go into a major recession. Thus far the higher interest rates don't seem to have had the desired effect. Our inflation rate is still headed higher and there seems to be no way of stopping it, short of going into a sharp recession or even a depression. Both of those alternatives are politically unattractive, even impossible.

The Federal Reserve Board has always followed a tradition of harmony so board members have been upset with all the publicity about dissension and bickering. The need for unity in the Fed is even more important at this time because of the confusion in the Carter Administration and the opinions of leaders of foreign governments that the US just can't seem to get it together.

The strength of the economy has been a blessing to the Fed. Despite sharply higher interest rates which have

Cotton field day slated at Halfway

More than 30 unreleased varieties of cotton, among which may be the best choices for South Plains cotton producers in the future, will be in the spotlight Sept. 12 at the 69th annual field day of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station for Lubbock and Halfway.

The stop at the regional cotton variety test site at Halfway is one of five major exhibits on the hour-long field day tour, said Dr. Levon L. Ray, cotton geneticist and assistant resident director of the experiment station. Other stops will illustrate research being conducted to help South Plains and Panhandle producers with weed control, mobile trickle irrigation systems, labor management, and corn irrigation.

The annual field day alternates between the TAES facilities at Lubbock and Halfway. This year the event will be at the site at Halfway, 14 miles west of Plainview, explained J. Joe Wright, research assistant who is field day chairman. It is a cooperative presentation of TAES, the High Plains Research Foundation, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Science Education Administration of the US Department of Agriculture and the National Weather Service.

Beginning at 1 p.m., guests will be able to take tractor-drawn trailer tours of the 320-acre research site to closely view the newest developments in crop research. During the featured stops, scientists from the Experiment Station and specialists from the Extension Service will discuss the research and answer questions from agricultural producers, homeowners and gardeners.

The cotton variety tests at Halfway are designed to provide information that will help growers choose the variety which will assure them maximum profit, Ray said. Sixty-six varieties are being tested under limited irrigation. These include most of the varieties grown on the High Plains and more than 30 unreleased varieties. They represent the work of 17 different private cotton breeders, Ray noted.

"Cotton variety selection is a key to profitable cotton production," Ray said. "The selection of the wrong variety — for example, a susceptible variety in a disease-prone situation or a variety with an inferior fiber — can be costly."

"Every year, new and generally improved varieties come on the market, so growers must keep current to assure maximum returns from their crop."

Among the improvements being sought in new varieties, the TAES geneticist said, are disease resistance, better fiber quality and better stripper-harvesting characteristics, including less trash in the harvested cotton.

At the Halfway test site, 18 varieties are being evaluated for performance in narrow rows and 10 varieties are being tested for dryland production.

"The past performance of these tests, characteristics of the varieties and some key points in their selection will be discussed," Ray added.

Reviewing the cotton research with Ray will be Dr. Douglas Owen, researcher who has supervised the tests, and Dr. James Supak, Extension area cotton agronomist.

In addition to viewing the crop research projects at the station, guests will be able to see a large display of the latest farm equipment, sponsored by area implement dealers.

Couple attends national seminar

(Bozeman, Mont.) Teddy and Vicki Smithson of Dimmitt are participants in the National Institute on Cooperative Education (NICE), at Montana State University, July 31-Aug. 3—the largest annual gathering of agricultural and cooperative leaders in the United States, with nearly 2,000 attending.

About 200 young farmer couples from across the country are attending special and general sessions where nationally known speakers are discussing solutions for farmer cooperatives in the areas of financing, education, and marketing—both overall and by specific commodities.

In addition to cooperative managers, directors and employees, the NICE participants include special groups of young farmer couples, youth scholars, women, and employees of cooperatives and collegiate students. They are focusing on the 1978 NICE theme, "Cooperatives — People With a Purpose," from their own particular viewpoints.

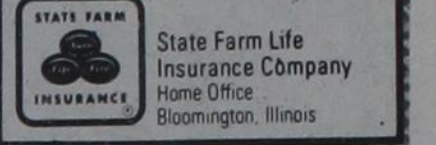

Selected because of outstanding leadership exhibited in the community and the cooperative, the Smithsons are being sponsored by Plains Coop Oil Mill in Lubbock to participate in the four-day NICE educational experience.

Ackers return from NY tour

BY VIRGIE GERBER

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Acker and children Kathy, Nancy and Dale spent a week recently in New York City. Mrs. Acker was a delegate to the National Catholic Daughters of America Convention. Following the convention was a tour of New Brunswick, Prince Edwards Island and Nova Scotia via Greyhound. A 10-hour cruise on the M.S. Caribe from Nova Scotia to Portland, Maine was the highlight of the tour.

Tricia Gerber and Elaine Schulte took Natalie and Jenny Gerber back to their home in Odessa. They have been visiting here for a couple of weeks.

Congratulations to Clyde and Lisa Schulte on the birth of a daughter Sunday morning in a Plainview hospital.

Helen Backus is home from the Dimmitt Hospital where she had tests made.

Kathy and Duane Trayler and children Stacey and Jodie of Dumas visited over the weekend with Earl and Ruth Backus, the John Backus family in Dimmitt and Mrs. Flora Backus.

Weekend guests in the Lon Brockman home were Chester and Vivian (Eggemeyes) Jones and their two children Jeremy and Regena. They all enjoyed the Happy picnic on Sunday.

Carol Drerup flew to Houston to visit with a friend and also to take care of some business in her work with the Catholic Family Services in Amarillo.

Calvin and Kathy Yarbrough spent a couple of days with her parents, the Jerome Brockmans, before moving to their new home in Fredericksburg. Calvin will be a junior varsity coach there and will coach football, basketball and baseball. Kathy will be the junior high girls' head coach at Kerrville and will coach basketball, track and volleyball. Gerrie Russell and sons of Lubbock spent some time with the Brockmans also while her husband Ronnie was out of town on business. Joe Brockman was also home for a few days after working in the Muleshoe area for Phil Brockman this summer. Joe helped Calvin and Kathy move to Fredericksburg and will fly home.

Rae and Stacey Albracht, children of the Ralph Albrachts; Eric and Craig Wilhelm, children of the Francis Wilhelms; and Brian Ramaekers, son of the Ed Ramaekers, flew to Houston and enjoyed several days with their uncles and aunts.

Douglas and Alice Wilhelm of Houston spent the past weekend here on their way to Colo. Springs for a convention.

Saturday evening the families of Dora Albracht had a dinner at her home to celebrate the birthday of Edd Ramaekers and Kevin Sullivan of Chicago. About 50 enjoyed the dinner and evening.

Sherry Lynn and Quentin

Backus are the grandchildren of Helen Backus of Nazareth. Sherry Lynn, a junior contestant claimed a blue ribbon in 4-H dress revue, made and modeled a drawstring skirt. The most recent win for Sherry Lynn, the 9-year-old daughter of Edmund and Sharon Backus of Dumas, was a blue ribbon in county and district competitions for her 4-H record book. Sherry Lynn is a first year member of the 4-H Busy Bee Club in Moore County. Her brother, 6-year-old Quentin took a fourth place ribbon in calf riding in the Moore County 4-H rodeo. This was the first time for him to compete. There were 19 calf riders in his division. The Edmund Backuses also have a two-year-old daughter Charlyn.

CONCEPT IN MAKEUP.

This new makeup is truly contemporary, and its formulation as unique as only a product developed by Revlon Research Group can be. It is:

SKIN ADJUSTED
For All Skin Types

Uniquely balanced to moisturize and blot oil where needed, Formula 2 will give you a perfectly natural skin finish. And it's pH-adjusted—to be compatible with your skin's normal pH balance.

COLOR ADJUSTED
For Maximum Color Fidelity

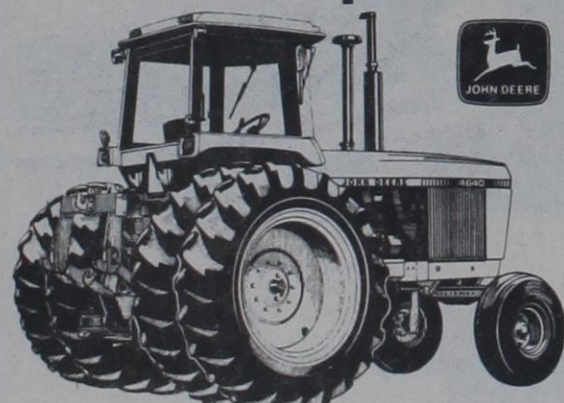

Formula 2 is specially processed to prevent color change from morning application to end-of-day's wear. Plus—its natural, semi-matte finish absorbs and softly diffuses light. So unlike many makeups, it maintains a truer color in any light.

CLIMATE ADJUSTED
For Longer Wear

Formula 2 gives you consistently beautiful coverage. Special ingredients resist humidity, repel surface moisture. Emollients and humectants protect against dry spells. And a sunscreen helps protect against harmful ultra-violet rays.

Even the drawbar is bigger and heavier than on the model it replaces. Now, bigger cooling systems are used for both engine coolant and transmission/hydraulic oil. When they all went to church Sunday morning, there was a line-up of five little boys, two of Don and Paraly's and the Gary Moore's three boys. Monty and Max came home with their parents after visiting a few days there with their grandparents.

Carole Dyer entertained the needlepoint club in her home Thursday. Present at the luncheon were Shirley Stephens, Dorothy Sheffy, Esta Vandiver, Sue Merritt, Myrtle Lois Moran and Nancy Hays of Hereford.

Lois and Charles Wales and their children are on a trip to Utah.

The Dimmitt High School graduation class of 1937 had a dutch treat dinner at the Colonial Inn Saturday night. Pictures of their senior trip and other pictures of their school years and visiting was enjoyed by those attending: Mildred Kyle, James and Mildred Bradford, Jim and Dorothy Elder, Katharin Duree Marx of Corsicana, Bub and Emily Ramey of Amarillo, Earl Stagner of Hereford, Truman and Mildred Redwine of Hale Center, Marie Hulen Black of Reydon, Oklahoma, Bill and Marthella Summers, Maxine Skipworth Erdman of Sunnyside, Washington, and the former Juanita Mundell and her husband of Amarillo. Dr. Hilma Carrell was class sponsor and she attended the reunion.

Birdie Neill has company. Her daughter Katherine Marx of Corsicana is here and Waldeen and Imy Holt are here from Kalamazoo, Michigan. The Holts will also go to Laguna, Calif. to visit their son, Garland, who is a goldsmith—makes jewelry. Maxine Skipworth Erdman of Sunnyside Washington is also a guest. Katharine's husband, Frank will be here later in the week. Another visitor for Sunday dinner was Sunny and Don Randolph of Earth. Sunny is the daughter of the late Jimmy Dean and Junior Wyr and was reared in Dimmitt. She is with the bank in Earth.

I heard the Hart Day Parade Saturday was the best parade ever held in Castro County. A great deal of work was done on beautiful floats and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hart were honored. His father established the first post office in Hart. Judges for the parade were Bennie Ross of Sunnyside and Carole Dyer of Dimmitt.

WHEN the ancient Aztecs needed a little light in a dark room they brought in a basket full of fireflies.

View from the Library

By BRICK AUTRY

I promised to write something amusing today. I shall try. Goodness knows I have enough to talk about. This small town boy went to the big city. He went to Austin.

Although it was not my first airplane ride, I was happy about my window seat so that I could look out over countryside. One thing I will say—the land between Amarillo and Dallas is just as ugly from the air as it is from the car window.

It was hot in Austin. Not that I'm telling any news—but it was hot and dusty and added generally to some of the uncomfortable aspects of Austin. Besides being hot, the freeway in front of the hotel was torn up for repairs. The road crew was real clever. They blocked all the access roads to the hotel so that once you found your way in to the hotel, you couldn't find your way out.

Another thing is that when you go to Austin and you're trapped in your hotel, you need money. Now coffee shops don't have the best prices. I assume Texas Library Association chose this particular hotel so that there would not be any temptation to go out for coffee (at forty seven cents a cup) or any desire to drop by the bar between meetings. Maybe that was the idea.

Although Texas Library

Association is running better than it used to, it's still safe to say that Texas librarians are a feisty bunch and that meetings have to be run with care lest some member become over enthusiastic. This meeting we had in Austin is a tribute to the fine leadership we have this year. A fight brewed after it was announced that TLA was out of money and that there was not enough to go around. Although there was some wailing and gnashings of teeth, the whole assembly remained well behaved and no chairs were thrown. We all got out of the meeting in one piece. I think that was a good meeting.

SCHOOL DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN!

your wedding - A SPECIAL OCCASION

Miss Moore, Lance Barrow recite vows here Saturday

A candlelit altar was the setting for the evening marriage ceremony of Melissa Moore and Lance Barrow Saturday in the Fourth and Bedford Church of Christ in Dimmitt.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ike Moore of Dimmitt, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Barrow of Fort Worth.

Melynn Moore was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Cindy Dyer and Kathy Wales of Dimmitt, Cindy Wolf of Duncanville, Brenda Osborne of Ardmore, Okla., and Sandra Hucks of Dimmitt.

Mark Barrow, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Lloyd Barrow, brother of the groom, Bobby Ballard of Dallas, Gary Moore of Oklahoma City, Okla., Jay Jenkins of Fort Worth and Dean Low of College Station.

The bride's brother, Kelly Moore of Abilene, was an usher, along with Karel Schikesbeir of Chicago and David Woods of Victoria.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of white crepe overlaid with chiffon and Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was covered with lace appliques and pearls. Lace scallops with pearl accents edged the Queen Anne neckline, cap sleeves, the hemline and waistline. The gently flared skirt spread into a chapel train while the skirt and mantilla fingertip veil were sprinkled with lace appliques accented with seed pearls. Joan Moore made her daughter's wedding ensemble.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade of three gardenias, pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis atop a white Bible. The Bible, belonging to the bride's sorority, is traditionally carried by its members in their weddings.

The bridesmaids' dresses were blouson-style pink chiffon with ruffled collars. The long sleeves were gathered at the wrist and the skirts of matching pink crepe were gently flared. The bridesmaids carried nosegays of pink feathered carnations and babybreath fern.

The altar was decorated with candelabras laden with greenery, white tapers, satin roping, white wedding bells and pink-and-white bows. Hurricane candelabra lined the pews and were decorated with greenery and pink-and-white bows.

The church foyer featured bouquets of pink gladioli and white mums while the same flowers were centered on a white pleated table cover at the registry.

Wedding music was performed by Danny Ellis and Mrs. Rodney Ellis of Plainview. They sang an a cappella duet of selections including "Faithful and True," "Sunrise, Sunset," "Lord's Prayer," and "Wedding Song."

The bride's cousin, Tammy Franklin of Seminole, was flower girl and Bryan Barrow of Fort Worth, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony, guests were received in the fellowship hall of the church by the bride and groom, their parents, the maid of honor and the best man. Pink and white strawberry sour cream cake and fruit punch were served to guests by Mrs. Bobby Ballard of Dallas and Mrs. Danny Vaughan of Dimmitt.

The tiered cake was decorated with a miniature lighted flowing fountain set amid tiny white columns which supported the top tier. A small statue of white lovebirds decorated the top of the cake. A silver candelabra and punchbowl completed the appointments on the bride's table.

Serving mocha-coffee punch, cinnamon rolls and miniature fruit-shaped mints from the groom's table were Mrs. Lloyd Barrow and Mrs. Kelly Moore. The punch and rolls were served from a brass bowl and tray while a brass candelabra with fruit and greenery garlands completed the table decorations.

The bride attended Abilene Christian University and the groom attended the University of Wisconsin and ACU. He is employed by CBS Sports and is manager of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce.

Castillo-Gamboa vows are recited

Amelia Castillo and Gerardo Gamboa were married in a formal, double-ring ceremony Saturday in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Plainview. Rev. Rex Nichols officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zaragoza Castillo Sr. of Hart and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Gamboa of Plainview.

Given in marriage by her father and mother, the bride chose a formal gown of ivory re-embroidered Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline with lace ruffles outlining the neck and forming cap ruffle sleeves. Her full skirt featured a deep ruffle flounce that formed a brush train and ruffle bustle. Her fingertip veil was of ivory imported English illusion-lace edged and attached to a lace-covered bandeau.

The altar was decorated with two spiral candelabra containing 12 yellow candles each. Maid of honor was Vickie Martinez of Hart, and best man was Raul Gamboa of Plainview, brother of the groom. Padrinos were Mr. and Mrs. Danny Rodriguez and Mr. and Mrs. Rodolfo Gonzales of Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Salazar of Laredo and Mr. and Mrs. Enrique Ranjel of Seagraves.

A reception and dance followed at the National Guard Armory in Plainview. The newlyweds will live in Lubbock.

The bride is a 1972 graduate of Hart High School and has been employed by Farmers State Bank in Hart. The groom is a 1973 graduate of Plainview High School. He attended West Texas State University and is a spring graduate of Texas Tech University. He is employed as a mechanical engineer for Johnson's Manufacturing Co. in Lubbock.

Miss Richey, Ricky Wright exchange vows in Amarillo

Double ring marriage vows for Joyce Richey and Ricky Don Wright were read in ceremonies July 28 at Paramount Terrace Christian Church, Amarillo.

Bob Crass, minister of University Church of Christ in Canyon, officiated. The sanctuary was decorated with candelabras bearing white candles and floral arrangements. Backing the altar was a 21 bract arch candelabra decorated with greenery and floral accents of pink carnations. Matching spiral candelabra, decorated with greenery, completed the altar setting. A white aisle cloth with streams of pink satin ribbon and bows marking the pews completed the decor. Two single candelabras decorated with greenery lit the entrance to the sanctuary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Richey of Rt. 1, Claude are parents of the bride. She is a 1975 graduate of Canyon High School and attended West Texas State University for one year, where she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. She is a 1978 graduate of Amarillo College and is employed with St. Anthony's Hospital.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wright of Dimmitt. He graduated from Dimmitt High School in 1975 and attends West Texas State University, where he is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and is a member of the Buffalo football team.

Candles were lit for the ceremony by nieces of the bride, Michelle Rivers of Perryton, and Shelly Richey of St. Paul, Minn. Soloist was Ann Murphy of Dimmitt, and organist was Tom Collins, also of Dimmitt. They presented "Sometimes", "You Light Up My Life" and "Wedding Song".

The bride's sister, Mary Lou Lloyd, served as matron of honor. Other bridal attendants were Jan Smeltzer, niece of the bride, Sherri Wright, sister of the bridegroom, and Julie Rychlik. The bridal attendants wore matching floor length gowns of pink quiana and carried nosegays of pink miniature carnations accented with baby's breath and streamers of ribbon.

Flower girls were Dena, Kari and Lisa Richey of St. Paul, Minn., triplet nieces of the bride.

The bridegroom's brother, Jim Wright of Dimmitt, served as best man. Groomsmen were Gregg Carroll of Gruver and Harold Love and Dud Wooten, both of Dimmitt.

Ushering were the bride's brothers, Bill Richey of St. Paul, Minn., and David Richey of Amarillo, along with Gary Wise and Darrell Buckley, both of Dimmitt.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of silk faced organza designed with high-rise bodice front which dipped to a natural waist in back. The front bodice was overlaid with lace, forming a sheer inset below the stand-up collar, which was overlaid with matching lace. A deep biased ruffle framed the shoulders and dipped low in back. The controlled skirt front was overlaid with lace medallions and edged in rows of lace with a deep flounce at the skirt's edge. Self-covered buttons closed the back bodice with the formal length skirt extending to form a sanctuary train. The bride's veil of imported illusion was edged with lace and accented with lace medallions attached to a lace bridal crown festooned with seed pearls.

The church parlor was the setting for the reception. A white satin skirt, overlaid with lace over pink, covered the bride's table which was decorated with a five-branch silver candelabra decorated with greenery, baby's breath and miniature pink carnations. The bridal cake was white with pink rose floral arrangements accenting the top layer of the three tiers.

A pink cloth covered the groom's table, which held a double ring groom's cake and silver coffee service. The couple took their wedding trip to Ruidoso and Roswell areas. The bride travelled in a cream-colored eyelet blouse with cream floral-print tiered skirt, complemented with ribbon and eyelet.

The newlyweds are at home at 2007 Sixth Ave. in Canyon.

Summer's ending - but not slowing!

By IRENE KEATING

Summer is quickly passing away and many of us still have many summer activities to conclude. Canning is in full swing along with freezing, drying and pickling. Remember to call on me if you are having any problems with your food preservation.

More women are entering the labor force, as we try to maintain standards of living we developed when inflation was less. New figures indicate that 41% of the total labor force is women. It is interesting for us to see the consumer price index for expenditures of the "average" family. This reflects spending of wage earners, retired people and self-employed professionals and is supposed to reflect how 80% of Americans spend their money. Where do you fit in?

- Home furnishings and housing—43.9%
- Food—18.8%
- Transportation (includes air travel)—18%
- Clothing—5.8%

The clothing expenditure fell from 11% and is due to small family size—2.9 people versus 3.2 in the early 60's more older people, and the trend toward more casual clothes.

Miss Braddock weds in Nazareth church

Genevieve Braddock and Bill Ward, both of Amarillo, were married in an afternoon ceremony Saturday conducted by Rev. Stanley Crocchiola, pastor, in the Holy Family Catholic Church at Nazareth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Braddock of Nazareth. The groom is the son of Mrs. Joe B. Ward and the late Mr. Ward of Ridgely, Tenn.

Bouquets of mums tinted sky blue and white gladiolas were arranged on the altars where the couple exchanged vows. Wedding music by Mrs. Leonard Conrad, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Carson of Olton included the selections "You Light Up My Life," "Take My Hand," "Let It Be Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Braddock, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a gown of organza over bridal taffeta, trimmed with re-embroidered venise lace around the high-rise waistline, on the front panel of the bodice, the scalloped V-neckline and on wide cuffs of the full sleeves.

Narrow bands of the lace were applied down the skirt and headed a hemline flounce which extended around the flaring skirt and the brief train. Matching lace bordered the illusion veil which fell from a lace coil. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses, daisies and gypsophila.

Mrs. Marion Johnson of Amarillo was the matron of honor. Mrs. Bernie Braddock of Amarillo and Mrs. Donald Braddock of Alvin, sisters-in-law of the bride, were bridesmaids and Anita Braddock of Crook, Colo., a niece, was junior bridesmaid.

The flower girls were also nieces, Shawna Braddock of Alvin and Biona Braddock of Amarillo.

All the feminine attendants were attired in halter dresses of sky blue dotted Swiss with taffeta underskirts and ruffles around the skirt trimmed in white lace.

The adult attendants wore brief jackets of the same fabric with touches of the lace, and lacy wide-brimmed white hats. Flower girls had daisies and gypsophila in their hair.

Their bouquets were nosegays of roses and daisies. The same blossoms were carried in baskets by the flower girls. The bride's mother chose a gown of apricot quiana and a corsage of roses and daisies tied with apricot ribbon.

Attendants to the groom were brother of the bride, Ronnie Braddock of Crook, Colo., as best man, Bernie and Donald Braddock. A cousin, Raymond Braddock, and Corky Berry of Tulsa served as ushers.

Pledge to United Way before the harvest?

Dear Editor: The Dimmitt United Way has asked the farmers to give our pledges before we get into harvest. We farmers would be so happy to give our support and pledges for this great cause. But as it is now, we farmers have to wait until after harvest and bill-paying before we can give our pledges to help the United Way.

We wish we knew just how much money, or if any money, we will have left after the "big harvest" that we can even pledge to pay our bills. Please forgive us for pledges that we don't know if we could carry out. A FARMER'S WIFE

It was a very good tournament and the LGA would like to commend the men that worked and helped make this one of the better tournaments. Play on Saturday was followed by a very delicious meal prepared by the men and also a very nice breakfast was prepared by them before tee off time on Sunday. We appreciate everyone that worked for the benefit of the tournament. High Plains LGA will be hosted this Wednesday by the Olton Country Club. If you have not been playing in this event you have been missing a lot of good golf and good fellowship with girls from the High Plains area. The LGA sponsors play night at the club house each Thursday and we have been having a good number out for this and a good time by those attending. If you have not been getting out for this make a special effort to come out. Don't forget to get out and play on Tuesday as this is set aside for LGA play day. We could use a lot more participation on this event and especially urge you to come out and play. Summer is getting away and we need to be taking advantage of the nice weather for playing golf. We would like to commend Pro Joe Ziegler for the excellent shape of the course. It is so nice to play golf on a well kept course and he and his crew are doing a very good job of taking care of the course.

Hart basketball coach resigns

Hart High School's head basketball coach, Mike Martin, has resigned his post at HHS and has accepted the position as head coach of Frenship High School's roundballers.

In announcing his resignation as head Longhorn coach, Martin stated that he enjoyed his year at Hart.

According to Hart Superintendent Ted Averitt, a replacement for Martin as head basketball coach will be announced following a meeting of the school board Monday night.

Consumers purchase many items—books, records, auto accessories, plants, and garden articles, clothing, home furnishings and novelty items—by mail order.

In a list compiled by the Office of Consumer Affairs, consumers ranked mail-order complaints second, with automobiles receiving more complaints.

Failure to deliver, long delays in delivery, failure to provide refunds for undeliverable goods and failure to answer letters of complaint are common problems.

To avoid problems, consumers have certain responsibilities before ordering merchandise by mail. These include:

—Consider the purchase carefully. Is the item really needed and desired? Could the consumer purchase the item locally?

—Read advertisements carefully before ordering. Know the exact size and complete information. If the advertisement does not give complete information, write and inquire before ordering.

—Find out if the merchandise is returnable or exchangeable before ordering. This is especially important in ordering clothing items.

—Know what kind of plan is involved when the mail-order purchase includes joining a book or record club.

After carefully reading the advertisement, and considering the item, the consumer should take care to give the proper information. Mail-order companies often complain that consumers fail to give a complete address. The complete address of the buyer is necessary for delivery.

The consumer should keep a copy of the order and the advertisement being answered and a note of where it was sent. Never send cash with an order.

A cancelled check is proof that the seller received the order. Make a notation on the check of the name and address of the firm to which the check is sent and securely fasten the check to the order. 647-3123 For Printing

Four matches have been confirmed, with the two top regional titles up for grabs.

In the first match at 8:45 p.m., Dennis Stamp will take on the impressive Noah Jones.

Jones, brother of Rufus R., has proven his right as one of the leading black stars of the ranks in the past few years. The 242-pounder, who makes Kansas City, Kan., his home, came to this area recently with a good record and continues his winning ways.

However, Stamp, who's normally found in main events, will be giving Jones a big threat in this one-fall match.

The $5,000 Golden Challenge will be up for grabs when Adrian Adonis will take on the challenge of "Super Mex." Ricky Romero. Romero has 10 minutes to try and take the dollar bid under the rules cited for this match. It must be by a shoulder count, within the regulation time limit.

The top regional tag belts will be on the line in one part of the double main event when current champions Dory Funk Jr. and Larry Lane defend against former champions of this title, Doug Somers and Roger Kirby. Kirby and Somers have both been co-holders of this title with different teammates in past years.

Funk Jr. and Lane won the belts from Brute Bernard and Angel Morrel last Feb. 2. They have been successful in turning back bids by some of the toughest opposition offered. However, with Somers and Kirby both having a taste of the distinction, they could well be considered the severest test to date for the current champions.

The top main of the evening will see yet another top individual title of this region on tap. Japan's No. 1 contender to the world crown, Mr. Pogo, will be defending against another world recognized wrestler, the masked Super Destroyer.

The noted Destroyer is the former international heavy-weight champion, recognized as only second to the world crown. He retains one of the best records of any wrestler in today's mat competition. A world traveler, he considers California his home base. The experts are calling this one for the Super Destroyer due to his famed "bear hug" and methodical ring savvy.

Mr. Pogo, who won the title from former world champion Terry Funk is noted for his "stomach claw," and other claw holds. This one-hour time limit match could prove to be one of the hardest tests for both champion and challenger in their careers.

The Dimmitt United Lions Club will also have a concession with hot dogs, popcorn, soft drinks and other items for sale.

The Lions Club will use its proceeds to benefit various projects in the community.

Winning entries in the big parade were:

Floats: (1) Home Demonstration Club's "Growing Seed for the Future;" (2) Company Store and East Side Grain, "Hart of Plenty;" (3) Pay and Save Groceries, "Hart of Texas;" Most Unusual, Charles' Place Gift Shop's "Gift Cart."

A large field of fiddlers from throughout the Panhandle-Plains and New Mexico entered the Fiddling Contest Saturday afternoon, backed up by half a dozen guitarists from Hart, Dimmitt and Nazareth. Playing on a covered stage before a large crowd in bleachers and chairs, Bill King of Shamrock won first place, Wes Nivens of Lordsburg, N.M., placed second and Judge Glenn Nelson of Hereford finished third.

Jimmy Ray Davis was the Fiddling Contest chairman. Judges were Weldon Bradley and Marshall Young of Dimmitt and Glenn Wardlaw of Hale Center.

The Farmers State Bank lobby was jam-packed with tables and booths operated by both professional and amateur artists and craftsmen in the Chi Psi Chapter's arts and crafts show. Paintings, antiques, rock art, jewelry, photos, sculpture, woodwork, stichery, metalcraft and other decorative items were on display and sale all day Saturday.

The Zealot Club dished up homemade ice cream all day, while the Home Demonstration Club sold snowcones and the Good Neighbors Club served cookies and soft drinks.

Saturday's activities concluded with a well-attended square dance, a "Casino Night" operated by the Hart Jaycees, and the biggest teen dance ever held in Hart.

Teenagers from Nazareth, Dimmitt, Olton, Plainview, Tulia, Kress and other area towns joined Hart youths for an outdoor dance on the parking lot of the H-Bar-H Restaurant Saturday night. C.C. Crow, Amarillo disc jockey, emceed the dance.

Maurice Stephenson of Lubbock was the caller at the square dance, which also drew a lot of out-of-town dancers and clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Portwood of Dimmitt are the parents of twin sons who were born Aug. 8. Bryan Dean weighed 4-pounds, 10-ounces and Brent Dee weighed 5-pounds, 15 1/2-ounces at birth. They have a big sister, Rochelle, who is 6 years old. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. P.L. Hoyler and the late Duard Harris, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Portwood, all of Dimmitt.

the settlement, saying, "It was a ridiculous thing, but I guess it was in the best interests of the county."

"I didn't think the county should willingly have been out a dime on this case," Bradley said. "But we were facing a lawsuit that could have cost the county as much as $90,000."

Although Bradley signed the settlement order for the commissioners' court, he didn't vote in the matter since a tie-breaking vote was unnecessary.

All defendants in the case—present and former commissioners, the former sheriff and the two former deputies—reportedly had mixed emotions about the case. Cartwright and Cowart both had vowed before Monday's settlement that they would not plead guilty to any of McDonald's charges against them if asked to do so.

McDonald was in jail here from September 1971 until the fall of 1973, during which the new county jail was being built. He was charged with enticing three Dimmitt boys aged 8 and 10 into his hotel room in 1971 and paying them for having homosexual relations with him.

He was indicted by the Grand Jury on two of the sodomy charges, and in his jury trial on the first charge he received a maximum 15-year sentence. After his sentencing, the second charge was dismissed.

He was convicted in January 1973, then remained in the county jail here until September 1973 while appealing his conviction. He was transferred to the Texas Dept. of Corrections at Huntsville in September 1973, and filed his civil rights suit in 1975.

Rodeo play day set for Sept.

An old-fashioned western play-day has been scheduled for Saturday Sept. 9 by the Dimmitt Rodeo Association and will be held at the Dimmitt rodeo arena.

Scheduled events include a hide race, stick horse race, Saturday night bath race and barrel race. Also to be featured are a pole race, goat tying, steer riding, calf scramble and break-away roping.

Contestants may enter by simply coming to the arena on the day of the games. A $5 entry fee will be charged for each event except the calf scramble and stick horse race. A $2 fee will be charged for those two events.

The hide race and Saturday night bath race are open to all ages while the stick horse race is for children five years or younger and the calf scramble open to those 10 years and younger. All other events are open to anyone 16 years or younger.

Cash prizes, composed of the entry fees, will be awarded winners in each event. There is no admission charge to spectators.

Mrs. Smith's services held in Plainview

Born Ona Pearl Shankle in Newark, Mrs. Smith was married in 1911 in Petersburg where she came in 1910 from Oklahoma. In 1929 she moved to Dimmitt and in 1957 she came to Plainview. She was a member of the Ninth and Columbus Streets Church of Christ in Plainview.

Survivors include three daughters, Faye Chapman and Lilla Mae Baker of Plainview and Mrs. Don (Kitten) Tatrot of Carson City, Nev.; 12 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Two fires keep fighters busy

Dimmitt Fire Department volunteers were called to two fires, one at the Flagg Grain Co. and another near Bruegel Feed Yards, within a 24-hour period.

The first of the two fires occurred at 3 p.m. Tuesday at the Flagg Grain Co., when an elevator dryer caught fire. According to assistant fire marshal Charles Littlejohn, the location of the dryer made the fire difficult to extinguish. In order to avoid a possible explosion from the grain dust, volunteers spent an hour and a half washing the dust from the elevator.

Putting out the actual fire took only five minutes, Littlejohn added. There was very little damage to the elevator.

The second fire occurred early Wednesday morning in a lot east of Bruegel Feed Yards in Tam Anne. Volunteers were called at 1:24 a.m. when a stack of baled hay caught fire after being hit by lightning during a short rainstorm.

Firefighters spent the remainder of the night watching the bales after they had cut the stack in two and restacked it. 150 bales of hay, totaling approximately $75, were lost in the blaze.

Dimmitt's city commission agreed Monday night to raise the salary of City Judge L.G. Manning, approved several expenditures in the Police Dept. and accepted a $515 estimate for improvements to East Jones Street.

Judge Manning, who had been averaging $398.67 per month (which figured about $2.30 per hour), asked to be raised to the minimum wage level of $2.65 per hour, with no overtime authorized. At 40 hours per week, Manning's new salary will be $459.17 per month. The commission approved Monday night to raise the salary of City Judge L.G. Agricultural conference studies grain compact

Attorney General John Hill recently announced that Texas is one of 12 states participating in an agricultural grain marketing conference called by the Kansas legislature to investigate the possibility of forming an interstate compact of grain producing states.

A Hill representative attended the initial meeting last month. A second meeting will be held in Topeka in October.

"Texas was one of 12 states represented at this conference to explore the problems in grain marketing practices," Hill said.

"My representative reported to me that the conference is exploring the possibility of joining the grain-producing states together in an interstate compact to give the states additional powers to solve grain marketing problems."

proved to make the increase retroactive to May 1.

Jake Diel Co. offered to put a caliche base and crown it for $515 to cover East Jones Street between Southeast Seventh and Eighth.

The commission also agreed to look into having a caliche base put on East Jones between Southeast Fifth and Sixth.

Dimmitt Agri Industries Manager Bill Clark requested action on the condition of East Jones, which he said "will be essential for parking of grain trucks during the harvest season, since parking is eliminated on Highway 86.

Clark also requested that the city use a maintainer on the street at least once a week after the caliche is applied.

The expenditures for the Police Dept. included $137 for replacement of a shotgun which had been stolen from a patrol car and $130.71 for the purchase of three key-lock vehicle-mount gun racks to prevent such thefts in the future.

Police Chief Alan Newman also requested a $300 outlay for the conversion of a base radio from one-frequency to four frequency capacity.

The commission approved an $825 increase in the price of the new trash truck on order, so that a Chevrolet body could be used and delivery could be sooner, instead of waiting until September for a Ford body.

Amstar settles antitrust cases

Amstar Corporation has announced that it has agreed to settle nearly all of the 78 civil antitrust cases in which it is a defendant and which were consolidated in the federal district court in San Francisco.

The agreement with the plaintiffs' steering committee and class representatives provides for Amstar to pay $7 million to the members of the industrial users, grocers and wholesaler classes certified by the court and to certain individual plaintiffs who filed suit on their own behalf.

John C. Reynolds, vice president and general counsel of Amstar, said that in making this settlement Amstar emphasizes that it continues to deny that it was engaged in any wrongful or unlawful activities.

"The settlement has been entered into," he said, "only because the amount is justifiable when measured against estimated costs and expenses of continuing to defend this litigation to final disposition."

"It is important to note," Reynolds said, "that we have had to defend these western civil antitrust cases, as well as 21 antitrust cases consolidated in the US federal court in Philadelphia, despite the fact that Amstar was neither indicted by two successive and extensive grand jury investigations conducted by the US Justice Department nor named as a defendant in subsequent civil suits brought by the Justice Department against certain sugar companies.

The cases in San Francisco," he said, "will now permit us to concentrate our full attention on the defense of the eastern suits."

The settlement is subject to certain conditions and must be submitted to the federal court for approval. Amstar said it had made adequate provision for reserves to cover the settlement.

The settlement does not include certain suits consolidated in the federal court in San Francisco involving the claims of molasses purchasers, states and political subdivisions, and certain individual plaintiffs. A number of the cases originally filed were dismissed. The federal court has refused to certify any consumer classes, but that decision has been appealed to the US Court of Appeals by one of the states.

The antitrust suits were filed after a federal grand jury in San Francisco indicted six sugar companies in December 1974. Amstar was not indicted in that investigation or in a subsequent sugar industry investigation by a federal grand jury in Brooklyn, which indicted four other sugar companies in 1977.

VETERAN'S SERVICES

By BEDFORD W. SMITH
County VA Service Officer

I have returned from a week's vacation spent visiting our daughter and her family in Cushing, Okla., and taking care of my deceased sister's estate at Mabank, Tex.

Our VA Service Office in the courthouse is open Tuesdays and Fridays, and you can contact me at home on other days if you have any questions regarding veterans' or survivors' benefits.

Veterans of World War II and later periods of military service, who have serious service-connected disabilities, may still qualify for vocational rehabilitation training under laws administered by the Veterans Administration. According to 2 news bulletins, from the Texas Veterans Commission, the statutory deadline dates which previously prevented some of these veterans from getting additional training have been abolished.

Until 1977, veterans generally had nine years from the date of their discharge or release from service to take advantage of this kind of training. The Congress enacted legislation which eliminated the termination date for certain seriously disabled veterans. As a result, veterans who were discharged from service before January 1, 1969, and who have serious service-connected disabilities, should consider applying for training if they are unemployed or working in an unsuitable job and need education or training to obtain suitable work.

The congressional action last year provides an open-ended eligibility for veterans who need vocational rehabilitation training to overcome the handicapping effect of blindness or other serious illnesses or disabilities which are rated service-connected.

Applications for vocational rehabilitation training, VA Forms 22-1900, will be individually considered as received. Eligible veterans who are found to be in need of training will be provided VA counseling to help them plan and pursue a program of rehabilitation training that will lead to suitable employment. Those veterans who feel they are eligible, and are in need of additional training, may obtain the application form at the Veteran's Service Office.

MANY falls are triggered by worn out or improper footwear for the job. On-the-job footwear should have slip resistant soles and heels and metal toe guards.

People call me independent.

If that means wanting my kids to grow up here, helping my friends and neighbors, they're right. I am independent. I'm an Independent Insurance Agent.

Because I'm Independent, I have to know my business—which is helping you choose the home, car, business and farm insurance that fits your needs. I do it by selecting the best policy at the best price from a number of reliable, strong companies.

Where can you find me? I'm at 112 E. Jones. Or you can call me at 647-4223.

I'm your neighbor. I don't work for a company—I work for you.
