Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland conclusively proved that he is not qualified, nor is he Secretary of Agriculture when he was interviewed on a television program Monday morning. When he declared that any agricultural problems that might exist were confined to small areas and strictly local, he exposed his profound ignorance of the overall importance of agriculture. In proclaiming this theory, Bergland used as an example the irrigation area comprising the Panhandle and South Plains of Texas and the irrigated areas of Oklahoma, Colorado and New Mexico. He as much as wrote off that vast, highly productive area as expendable so far as the agricultural needs of the nation, or their contribution to the national economy, are concerned.

Instead of being a secretary of agriculture, Bergland is instead a consumer advocate. That is, he is a consumer advocate for everyone except the farmer. So far as I have ever heard or read he has never shown any opposition to the inflated cost of energy, without which the farmer is powerless, the high cost of farm implements of all kinds, and all other needs, at inflated prices, that go into the cost of producing a crop. Then too, the inflated cost of living hits the farmer just as it does all the rest of the population.

Bergland also said that greed prompted some farmers in their demand for adequate prices for the results of their labor and investment. For any other segment of the economy he would probably call it the profit motive.

Bergland further stated that the farmers couldn't agree on what they wanted. He didn't qualify the statement by saying that they all wanted the same thing, but didn't always agree on the method of reaching a sound and sane agricultural policy. What the farmer wants, and I have read their minds, they want a chance to stay in business. The only way that farmers can be assured of a fair share of the national income, or parity, is through support prices and controlled production and that can only be accomplished through a government agricultural program. Even then the farmer wouldn't have a guaranteed profit in his operation. He still has to contend with all of the natural hazards, droughts, floods, hail, insects and what have you before he goes to market.

There has been considerable criticism of the American Agriculture Movement. Some of the criticism might be justified but chances are that their purpose can only be realized by the method being used. If they are successful in their efforts, the trouble, expense, etc., will have been for the benefit of all farmers and all other segments of the national economy.

Farmers, like oil companies, would like a little incentive.

But if you look, you'll see it at this year's Junior Fat Stock Show. You can't miss it.

It's the ultimate barbecuer—a keen green machine that barbecues and smokes meat at the same time, and even bakes biscuits.

Its co-conspirators, Roy Lilley, David King and Ben Montiel, built the contraption in the seclusion of Lilley's barn for the 4-H Council and other local organizations that might need it.

They consulted with Edd McLeroy and Joe Drerup, Dimmitt's and Nazareth's barbecue czars, then added a few why-nots of their own, using a tank donated by Castro County Grain Co., wheels and axle donated by Dimmitt Agri Industries, and various other collectibles.

What they came up with was a large-scale portable barbecuer that's completely gas-fired, has a front wood-burner and a flue-oven, and carries its own fuel and skill.

Its main cooking chamber has two hatches, gas burners, thermometer, draft regulator, etc., just as other barbecuers of its genre have. But it also boasts these optional extras:

—A grill that can be removed easily from the front for cleaning.

—A front-mounted woodburning firebox, from which the main chamber drafts wood smoke.

—A flue-mounted oven that utilizes the updraft heat to bake biscuits or keep cooked barbecue hot and ready.

—A rear-mounted wood-box. The barbecuer is painted 4-H green, except for the black firebox, oven and flue.

After a trial run, the super-deluxe barbecuer will make its public debut at the Junior Fat Stock Show, starting next Thursday.

Because of the new rig, those who buy the barbecue that the 4-H'ers will be selling throughout the stock show are likely to get a taste treat than which there is no whicher.

UW election scheduled

The annual meeting of United Way of Dimmitt, Inc., will be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday in the city hall auditorium.

Officers for the coming year will be elected during the public meeting. Doug Lapins is the current board chairman.

All persons interested in the United Way, especially those representing organizations that receive UW funds, are urged to be present.

Aleman resigns from PD; cites 'outside pressure'

Dimmitt Policeman Ramon Aleman, the county's only Spanish-speaking law officer, resigned effective last Wednesday.

In his letter of resignation, Aleman cited "outside pressure from the Mexican-American population here" as his reason for leaving the department after more than two years' service.

Most of this "pressure," Police Chief Allen Newman said, was "due to the recent hospital incident and the (Roxanne) Casas murder case which is coming up for trial soon."

Newman added, "Ray is a good officer and we hate to lose him. He has received commendations in the past for good police work, and would be eligible for rehiring if he wanted to come back."

before the baby died. Serving as translator and reporting officer, Aleman took the Aguinaga's original statement about the incident. Also, he voluntarily helped arrange for the baby to be buried at county expense.

Explaining the "pressure" which he cited in his resignation letter, Aleman told the News, "A lot of people expect an officer himself to carry out the whole law enforcement and sentencing process. They don't understand that we can only investigate a case and take it as far as the courts. What the courts do with it is out of our control, yet the law officers get blamed if the person isn't sentenced the way someone thinks he should be."

The police chief commented that this misunderstanding of the law enforcement process "happens with people of all races. A police officer just can't be expected to be part of the judicial process."

Aleman said the pressure on him from Spanish-speaking residents here got worse after

County youths grooming for stock show

Show animals are being groomed this week for the 1979 Castro County Junior Livestock Show and Sale which will open next Thursday in the County Expo Center.

Pigs, lambs and steers raised by FFA and 4-H Club members will go on exhibit.

Sponsored by the Dimmitt Young Farmers, which has Randy Schumacher as president, the annual show is expected to attract about 500 entries.

It will be climaxed by the Saturday afternoon sale which the sponsors hope will top the record 1976 total of $154,909. Last year's sales total was $145,000.

The public is invited to visit the show and attend the sale.

Only active members of a 4-H club under supervision of the Castro County agent or an FFA chapter in a school of the county are eligible to show animals.

Entry deadline is 8 p.m. Friday. Cards and fees must be in the office of Jim McNay, show secretary, by that time.

Weighing will begin at 8:30 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 15, and all animals must be weighed and in place by noon, according to the general superintendent, Jimmy Davis. Ronnie Gfeller serves as assistant superintendent.

Judging of lambs will begin at 9 a.m. Friday by Jim Sacke, Dan Michael will judge barrows that afternoon, starting at 1 p.m. and Jim Jenkins is the calf judge who will begin his task at 8 a.m. Saturday.

Health papers will be required on all animals entering the show, and this year all hogs must be pseudorabies tested, officials have announced.

At least five animals are needed to make a class, according to the rules, and light, medium and heavy weights will be determined by the superintendents of the show divisions.

First and second place winners in each class will compete for Grand Champion and Reserve Champion titles.

Steer division superintendents are Teddy Smithson, Ricky Bagwell, Carl Kleman, Lint Merritt, Charles Summers, Odell Tuggle, Graham Sheffy, Steve Olson, Robert Funk and Dana Wall.

Superintending the lamb division are Arlie Petty, Jeff Robertson, Stan McDaniel, Jerome Brockman, Dudley Wooten and Larry Robb.

In the swine division, superintendents are Randy Schumacher, Alfred Sammann, Frank Welch, Jerry Matthews, Glenn Schumacher, [See STOCK SHOW, Page 14]

City approves gas-rate hikes

Dimmitt's City Commission Monday night approved an ordinance allowing Pioneer Natural Gas to raise its rates to customers within the city by 14.88% overall, instead of the 23.6% requested by Pioneer.

The 14.88% increase was recommended by a Panhandle Regional Planning Commission study committee. Dimmitt Pioneer Manager Robert Caddell was present at the meeting and indicated that Pioneer has agreed with the committee's recommendations.

All increases would start with gas used on or after Feb. 15, with the average residential bill going up about $3.79 per month, or an average of $45.48 per year, which is a 19.81% increase.

The cost-of-gas "pass through" provision will remain as it is, while service charges will be increased to $8, and the distance Pioneer is required to extend its mains is reduced from 150 feet to 75 feet per customer.

Rates for small industrial customers will average an 8.67% increase; air conditioning and generation 12.24%; commercial 19.70%; and some special contract customers previously unregulated will now come under the general service rate and receive up to a 32.26% increase.

Fred Poe, chairman of the inter-cities steering committee, said in encouraging participants in the study to accept these recommendations, "I know we are all better off as long as we can settle our problems among ourselves rather than having a state agency dictate a resolution to us."

City commissioners were advised of the resignation of Assistant Fire Marshal Charles D. Littlejohn, effective Feb. 19. Littlejohn said he has accepted employment with Iowa Beef Processors in Amarillo. Littlejohn also thanked the commission "for the courtesies extended to me for the last two years."

Police Chief Alan Newman requested an amendment to the recently passed ordinance forbidding U-turns in the city, to limit the ordinance to the business district. The commission advised Newman to continue using discretion in issuing tickets for the infraction until further study of the matter could be made.

Newman pinpointed the main trouble spots as the intersections of Lee and Broadway Streets and Halsell and Broadway Streets, and added that a large part of the problem is "the kids dragging main."

The commission voted to advertise for bids for three new police cars to be delivered May 7. Opening of the bids was tentatively set for the second meeting in March. Two of the cars now in use will be sold to the highest bidder, while the '76 Chevrolet in use will be transferred for use by Fire Marshal Guy Waldrop, so that the red station

Dancers add $1,536 to county heart fund

The fifth annual Heart Fund Dance, sponsored by the Dimmitt Promenaders, raised $1,536 in only four hours Saturday night and drew its largest crowd ever.

Before the grand march began in the County Expo Building, Mayor Elmer Youts thanked the Promenaders for their "great contribution to the community."

Twenty-three squares and many spectators came from Hereford, Quitaque, Amarillo, Tulia, Plainview, Friona, Muleshoe, Nazareth, Canyon, Wayside, Borger, Pampa and White Deer. Armando Bellis, AFS student from Fabricio, Italy, was a special guest at the annual fund-raising event.

Jerrod Welborn, a spokesman for the local Heart Association, explained the purpose of the displayed equipment bought by the money raised in the last four years of "Square Em for the Heart Fund." The equipment is used locally at Plains Memorial Hospital and in the cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) classes which Welborn teaches.

Square and round dance callers Johnny Gillenwater, Sid Perkins, Jack Thompson and Les Grumke donated their time at the Saturday night dance. Gillenwater, Perkins and Thompson also donated their wages for the next dance they call.

Corn growers still discussing contract

Another round of negotiations between area corn growers and Frito-Lay Inc. of Dallas was scheduled to begin Friday, after talks on 1979 contracts had reached a standstill when the growers refused to accept a price they consider too low for this year's crop.

The recently-formed High Plains Farm Bargaining Association is negotiating with Frito-Lay on the contracts which were offered after Frito-Lay acquired on Jan. 1 the Grain Handling Corp. facilities in Hart, Olton, Hart Camp, Springlake and Hereford.

Previously the corn growers of this area sold their grain to Frito-Lay through Grain Handling.

Duration of the new bargaining session will depend on the outcome of the Wednesday talks, according to a spokesman for the HPFBA.

"We believe the contracts should be performed in the county in which the corn is produced and delivered, as has been the case in the past for corn grown in this area," the spokesman said.

Representatives of the HPFBA, which Weldon Davis of Hart heads as president, are asking for contract prices of $6 per hundredweight on yellow corn and $7 per hundredweight on white corn. They say the Frito-Lay offer of $5 for yellow corn and $6 for white will not meet rising production costs and give growers a profit.

Average costs of corn production, computed last month by the HPFBA, are $6.38 per hundredweight for yellow and $7.77 for white, and $5.68 per hundredweight for commercial corn.

Negotiations have been pointed to a planting date near April 1, and Davis said growers could possibly wait another month before final commitments on crops are made.

However, he added, land preparation for the 1979 crop should begin as soon as the ground thaws and dries enough.

Castro County's farmers in Washington, D.C., are "staying calm" in their Central Mall compound and have not been involved in any of the violence that has erupted since the American Agriculture Movement wheeled its Tractorcade into the nation's capital Monday.

"Our own people have been calm—they've been superb," Hershel Wilson reported Monday night after several violent incidents had erupted that day between farmers and Capitol City Police.

"However, I wouldn't be surprised to see some lives spent before this is over," Wilson said. "A lot of the farmers are awfully bitter. They don't have anything to go back to—they've already lost their farms, and feel like they've got nothing more to lose."

More than 1,700 tractors and 1,800 support vehicles from throughout the Farm Belt converged on the nation's capital in separate cavalcades Monday morning, jamming freeway traffic. Sporadic violence erupted when Capitol City Police, fully mobilized, moved to break up the traffic snarls and block the Tractorcade from encircling the Capitol Building.

Police vehicles were moved into the path of the Tractorcade columns, but several patrol cars and cycles were rammed and run over. Also, police reported that the tires were slashed and windows broken on several police cars.

Exasperated in their attempts to stop the big farm tractors with high, enclosed cabs, police started breaking out cab windows and using nightclubs and tear gas to subdue the drivers. A few on-looking farmers reportedly started throwing eggs at the policemen.

Officers tear-gassed one farmer whom they said was brandishing a baseball bat at them. Tear gas and mace also were fired into crowds of AAM supporters as they gathered at the USDA Building and at the confrontation scenes.

Curtis Bruegel of Dimmitt was among those receiving a shot of mace Monday morning.

Bob DuLaney reported Tuesday that Bruegel was "just there in the crowd" in front of the USDA Building when the incident occurred.

"The police told them to move back, but there were so many the crowd couldn't go back any farther," DuLaney said. "Curtis happened to be toward the front, and he caught a heavy dose of mace. But he's okay now."

"If we gather anywhere, they try to break us up," Wilson reported.

Capitol City Police arrested 19 farmers Monday, and impounded 17 vehicles—most of which were abandoned at intersections. Another tractor was set ablaze near the USDA Building, police reported.

Monday's violence on the streets of the nation's capital drew national media attention to the Tractorcade, which was formed to demonstrate for higher parity prices and loan rates.

Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland said the street violence represented "an unmitigated disaster in terms of public relations" for the American Agriculture Movement. He also said, in a network TV [See LOCAL, Page 14]

Behrends clan attend wedding on historic ranch

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

Andy and Helen Behrends flew off to Victoria and their family, Bill and Jo Behrends and sons Richey and Dean, Mary and Garnet Reeves and Ryan and Shelly, went by motor home to Victoria to attend the wedding of grandson and cousin Mike, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Behrends of Houston. The wedding people are Mike and his bride is Kathy Williams of Victoria, but the ceremony was at a small but pretty chapel in St. Dennis Church, located on the O'Connor Brothers River Ranch. Rev. Joseph Petsch officiated at the ceremony. The bride wore her mother's dress made of Dupioni silk with Alencon lace. Her attendants wore Wedgewood blue, carrying a lot of the valley bouquets. Little Kristin Behrends was flower girl, wearing light blue.

This ranch is a 60-section place and has been in that family since 1836. Part was a government grant before the Mexican War. It is worth going to see. Let me tell you about the groomsmen. For instance, the bride's family are Catholic, Michael, the groom, is Church of Christ, best man, Mr. Levine, is a Jew, groomsmen David Patterson is a Mormon and the Andy Behrends are Methodists. Now I call that an ecumenical meeting, wouldn't you?

I was chatting last week with Lois Wales about the Caribbean cruise she and Charles made last week—a marvelous experience. The food was pretty and good. One evening on the ship they had a masked ball. Seems Johnny Webb was the star of that party. And Truman Touchstone won some kind of contest. You know, those people don't tell me all. They stopped at all the tourist islands and Lois, like Bill Gregory, found the Dominican Republic very interesting, flowers everywhere, the beautiful white beaches. The people on most of the islands have fruit and fish and make a living off the tourists. Others going were Garner and Esleta Ball, Carl Lee and Sue Kemp, Truman and Betty Touchstone, Joy Foster of Roswell, she is Cecil Crum's niece, Bobbie and Harold Damron, Dan and Jean Petty, Arlie and Doris Petty, G. L. and Ouida Willis.

Jill and Charles McLean, Roy and Mozelle Lilley and Johnny Webb. Oma Dee Heard and Jo Warren are in Dallas for a few days on business. Jo was with the Dennises for a few years. Talton and Kathleen Loring of Tulia were guests of friend Beral Hance.

Kent Hance called his mother, Beral, from Washington and said, "Wish you could stand on the capitol steps and watch the thousands of farm tractors. A sight to behold." He and Carol and Ron and Susan went out to the park to visit the farmers and they attended church with the West Texas group.

Polly Bell has been visiting a few days with her daughter Karen Sheffy, the girls and Don.

Edwin Ramey, the grandson of Goose, and his parents Bub and Emily were dinner guests of Goose Sunday. Edwin has been in Iran for a year working with Bell Helicopter. He was sent home for safety.

Cecil and Virginia Crum were hosts at a five-table bridge party Saturday. Refreshments and games were enjoyed by Kenneth and Ruth Jackson, Garnett and Polly Holland, Fred and Ramona Annen, Herb and Dorothy Mayfield, Earl and Betty Parish, Jim and Ellen Hrabal, Kate Beecher, Polly Manning, Brenda Andrews, Faun Welker and Helen Richardson. Thursday Helen Richardson and Frances Duke attended a Mental Health and Retardation Clinic at the Central Plains Hospital in Plainview. I didn't find out what they learned. They help the children here.

Doyle and Eula Faye Martin of Altus were weekend guests of her sister Dorothy and Rex Sheffy and boys and brother Delbert and Jackie Smotherman and boys.

Ailt and Katy Feldman, who live in Spicer, Minn., former residents of Dimmitt, came by my house Sunday for the Sheffy coffee time. They had been in Florida, then back the coast road through the South Texas area. They stopped at Brownsville. They visited Pastor Ed Manning and Mrs. M. and other friends and went to Canyon to see their son Wally and Cindy and the Ringos. You remember the news story about the drunk fellow who tried to choke the bus driver and caused a bad wreck? The driver was Wally Feldman, the son. He is out of the hospital this week. No more bus driving. Wally and Cindy will move to the Feldman farm northwest of Friona. The Feldmans did like the Silver Springs and Cypress Gardens in Florida, that was all, though.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harris, Mrs. Mary Gollehon of Lubbock were here last weekend to visit the sisters Mrs. Alma Umberson and Mrs. Floyd Reynolds.

Herman and Rose Acker are home from a month's stay at their house at Springlake Estates near Huntsville. Their daughter Alice Garrison and little daughter Heather live there. They all went to Houston to pick up Rose's sister Christena and George Grimm, who came down from New Jersey for a visit. At their place Herman and George went out the back door to the lake to fish. It rained most every day there. George and Christena went home by Florida, then to Italy to visit the ladies' family.

Mrs. J. L. Kay of Mooreland has been here since Christmas visiting her daughter Marie and Curtis Tate. They took her home last week. Several of us went out to South Hills Manor Saturday evening to hear the Dunns make music. There were nine musicians besides Connie Ivey and Frances Frazier at the piano and Grace Findley, soloist. Several people were visiting the residents and Mother Dunn. These I saw, Truman and Pauline Cotton from Anton, Turlen Sawyer and Faye Queen and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sawyer, all from Earth, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn from Littlefield and A. H. Howell of Levelland. I talked with Joe Howell, son of A. H. and Ellen. He is at South Plains College in Levelland now but he taught math at Hart last year. Joe makes good music on a bass guitar.

Jesse and Carolyn Lane and son Scott and Lana are going to Ruidoso to do some snow skiing next week. They live near Tam Anne and Carolyn says they haven't raced the horses lately. Probably have to go to El Paso. Woody Herman and his band presented a concert at Plainview Thursday evening. Going from here were Lois Scott, Jo Gregory, Anita Morris, Annie Lee Dobbins, Edna Riley and Allie Mae Willis. I hear Woody has blended in more modern rock in his music to please a few folks.

Edna Riley was a guest at a birthday party and open house honoring her cousin B. B. Burrous. This is his 90th year. The place was in Tulia. Mrs. Willis, the mother, taught this fellow in school in the early days. Others going from here were Allie Mae Willis and Anita Morris.

I hear by the grapevine that on Feb. 1st Bob McLean had been president of First State Bank for 43 years. His dad, Bruce McLean, was running the bank with the help of Es Noble when I moved here in 1920. And Bob's grandparents, the McLeans and Rowens, started the bank here years ago. The building was 14' by 20'.

Carolyn Copeland was hostess to the Friday bridge at the city assembly room. She served that very good cake with nuts and prune jam and other fruits in it with sandwiches and coffee to Faun Welker, Edna Riley, Gladiola Shipley, Bernice Hill, Retta Cluck, Dorothy Elder, who won high score, Josie Bradford, Cletha George, Opal Bearden, second high, Myrtle Sheffy and Betty Cartwright. The Thursday afternoon bridge girls went to Joannis Robertson's for games. She served many pickup foods to Ruth Jackson, Dorothy Mayfield, Courtenay Armstrong, Polly Simpson, Ina Cleavinger and Carolyn Jones. Doris Lust was the smart girl winning high score, Jo Eddie Riley came in second. Roxie McLean took her bridge playing friends to the Hereford Country Club for lunch and games on a recent Tuesday. Ladies going were Jill McLean, Trudy Jackson, Sue Kemp, Martha Dannevik, Carlee Warren, Vicki Clary and Jean DuLaney. And Jean went to Washington, D.C. following husband Bob and the other farmers going there on tractors. Believe she drove her camper. Many other people went along. They made that big trip in two weeks. Hershel Wilson has sent pictures back to our newspaper.

Mrs. Alvie Nelson. Weldon and Grace Findley of Littlefield and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips of Muleshoe visited Saturday evening with friends Gene and Connie Ivey. M. L. and Polly Simpson were at the restaurant for dinner as hosts to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smitherman of Floydada and M. L.'s daughter Carolyn and Ronnie Andrews and two sons and little girl from Hereford. Milton and Dorothy Draper and two baby girls of Tahoka were Sunday visitors in Dimmitt at the Methodist Church and for dinner with her brother Donald and Katy Wright.

Garland and Susan Coleman and little Garland the 3rd spent a weekend at Paducah visiting her family Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wohlgemuth Optometrist 300 West Bedford Ph. 647-4464, Dimmitt, TX

P.O. and Frances Goodwin are home from a recent trip to the Rio Grande Valley. They visited their daughters K-Sharon and Ricki and their families. They say the valley vegetables and citrus fruit looked pretty sad from the freezes. Ceal Carlile and Tommy Cleavinger were Sunday dinner guests of Meredith Hooper and Zeke. Bobby Dodd was honored on her birthday last Saturday at the home of daughter Darlene and Tommy Stanton, Debbie and Shawn. Cake and ice cream were enjoyed by her mother Mayme Birdwell, daughter Billie Sue and Ron Ballard and children, Susan, Ronnie, Heath, Britch, Justin and Jay of Guymon and, of course, husband Harlan.

"Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised.)"

Have faith in God. He will lead us in the right paths. He will never fail.

As the highways are clearly marked and numbered so that we might easily find our way from city to city and across the nation, God's word clearly marks life's paths.

Attend church regularly and exercise your faith in God.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Letters to the editor

On county hiring...

Dear Editor:

For someone that has made it a practice to NOT write letters to the editor, I am doing quite well, don't you think? I promise this is the final one.

Don't you suppose that after 37 years of working in and out of courthouses, I am aware of the functions of county governments; that the Commissioners' Court is the elected governing body and business managing board of the county; that the State Constitution and Session Laws prescribe in precise terms what can and cannot be done; that the commissioners' court is charged with the responsibility of controlling the income and expense of operation of the county, determining tax rates, workable budgets, etc.; that the Court must have guidelines and should follow them. By the same token, what is wrong with reviewing those guidelines every 20 to 30 years whether they need it or not?

I am also aware of the fact that a county is a public business rather than a private one; that if a private business goes broke its doors can be closed without hurting anyone much except the proprietor, his family, his few employees and perhaps his creditors; but it is a little hard to close the doors of the County.

For this reason, it is even more important that the county be operated on a business-like basis. The Commissioners do have to answer to the public, and indeed they have an awesome responsibility for which they are paid little enough; but each of those commissioners was willing to accept that responsibility or they would not have invested their time and money in running for the office.

I am also aware that by law it is the duty of the County Auditor, who is hired by the Commissioners, to prepare a working budget; to be knowledgeable of expected revenues and their source, the county-owned property inventory, the needs for new equipment and all fixed expenses (including salaries). How is the auditor to know if he does not work with the Department Heads, and if the Auditor does not work out an equi-able and workable budget for presentation to the Court, how is the Court going to adopt one?

You question whether I have all the facts. In all due respect to you—if for no other reason than pure exposure—I probably have forgot more about how to run county government than many know. I would not attempt to tell you how to run your newspaper; that is not my bailiwick.

My statements in my January 25 letter still stand.

[Second Letter]

Dear B. M.:

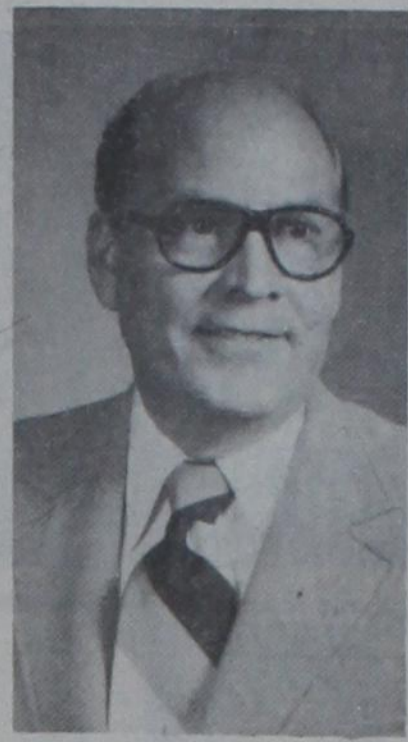

I was not trying to engage in a war over your Commissioners' Court. You started it by saying in your column that you usually hesitated to criticize but . . . the voters wouldn't go along with that kind of high-handedness, or words to that effect.

All the county officials, including the sheriff, commissioners and the judge were elected by the voters, whether they were your choice or mine. They are all you have until someone else runs for and gets elected to the offices. Criticizing them is like the farmers going to Washington on their Tractorcade to get 100% Parity from the White House, with signs on their tractors saying "DUMP CARTER." You can still catch more flies with honey than vinegar.

What Castro County needs, as my mother-in-law would say, is a good dose of religion—a little practicing of the Golden Rule. If we can believe the Castro County News, there is more fighting than progress in Castro County over the sheriff, the chief of police, the city water wells, the streets, whose name is to be on the ballot, who can park a mobile home where, the hospital, the commissioners' court, the jail—you name it.

Let's you and I shake hands and see if we can't set a precedent.

Training session set after church dinner

A churchwide dinner at noon, followed by a joint training session for administrative groups will be held in First United Methodist Church Sunday, Rev. Howard Quiett, pastor announces.

Rev. Marvin James and Rev. C. B. Melton from the UMC conference offices at Lubbock will lead the training sessions. Rev. James is program director of the Northwest Texas Conference and editor of conference publications. Rev. Melton is director of the council on finance and administration and area treasurer for the New Mexico and Northwest Texas Conferences.

All members of the local administrative board, council on ministries and finance committee will be included in the training conferences.

Rev. James will lead the first session, after preaching at the morning worship service. He will meet with the council during the second hour, while Rev. Melton leads discussion for the board and the finance committee.

Tentative plans for the noon dinner call for youth of the church to supply salads, drinks, bread and desserts, while members of the congregation are asked to bring a meat or vegetable casserole, Rev. Quiett said.

There will be no charge, but donations will be received to sent to the UMC in Gruver, where the building was recently destroyed by fire.

Both the training leaders have had wide experience in conference duties and as pastors. Rev. Melton has been secretary of the board of evangelism, vice-chairman of the board of ordained ministry, chairman of the council on finance and administration and of the committee on interpretation, at the conference level.

He has been pastor of UMC churches at Muleshoe, Floydada, Midland, Shamrock, Abilene and Leuders.

Rev. James served pastorates at Lubbock, Childress, Munday, Goree, Chillicothe, Big Spring and Andrews. He is a trustee of McMurry College, a director with the Texas Conference of Churches and a member of the Texas Planning Commission.

Dimmitt firemen get check from insurance firm

The Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Department received a check for $75 recently from Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies as an expression of thanks for the department's work on the property of Kenneth Christie at Summerfield.

The money will be used for their fund to purchase protective clothing. The Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies pay volunteer fire departments this amount when the department works at a fire in rural areas, involving property insured by them.

The insurance company believes volunteer fire departments have contributed to reduce the amount of loss involved by fire and more important, to prevent fires. It is their hope this money will help the Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Department in their program.

IT COSTS more to buy a new car today in America than it cost Columbus to equip and undertake three voyages to and from the New World.

Keith Rickenbrode
Case Power company has new manager

The new manager of Case Power and Equipment of Dimmitt is Keith Rickenbrode, who comes from Roswell, N.M.

He serves Castro County and the northern half of Parmer County.

Rickenbrode has been in the machine and agriculture business for the past 20 years.

He and his family are presently living in Roswell, where they have lived for the past five years. He plans to move his family to Dimmitt as soon as they find a home in the area.

Members of his family are his wife, Carolyn; four children, Steve, 18, and Dave, 17, both attending New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell; Lori, 15, and Ron, 14 both in high school.

A graduate of the University of Missouri, Rickenbrode has a BS in agricultural economics.

Rickenbrode said his family looks forward to making their home in Dimmitt, that he likes the area and thinks it is a real good place to raise a family.

On Wall Street
By Bob Hill
A.G. Edwards & Sons, Inc.

The Ayatolla Khomeini is no friend of ours. He has already demanded the cutting off of the foreign countries' activities in Iran. What is the man like? What kind of a government will he head if he manages to take control?

He is inconsistent, a religious fanatic. He is anti-American and his contradictory statements from one day to the next promise chaos if he should take over the government of Iran. It's doubtful that his sponsors are Communist inspired. But the old-line Tudeh Party, which tried to twist Iran from Western influences immediately after World War II, is ready for another opportunity.

It would be difficult to expect a man who has hated a regime brought to power by the US to change his attitude. He also claims that the Shah's government killed members of his family. So, it is wishful thinking to expect him to safeguard US interest in the middle-east.

The support which the Ayatolla (Means supreme religious leader) has comes from the unique religious organization with Iran. Religious leaders have a tremendous influence over Iranians, dispensing cash and cutting government red tape for those believers with numerous problems. The money they receive is accountable only to the conscience of the Ayatolla. There are five influential Ayatollas active in Iran.

The French influence is much stronger than many realize. Bakhtiar is French-educated. His opposition leader, a bitter political enemy, is also French-educated. During the recent riots, the offices of Air France were hung with garlands by one group of demonstrators. And Khomeini spent his exile in France. French President Valery Giscard d'Estaing tried to persuade President Carter at the Guadeloupe meeting that the Shah had to go. The French are strong in Iran, politically and commercially.

Farm loan funds on Plains scarce, FRB survey shows

Funds for agricultural loans are relatively scarce in the High Plains region of Texas, according to a Jan. 1 survey of area agribankers by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

Sixty-six percent of the bankers responding to the survey reported below normal availability of funds. Credit for farmers seems to be tightest in the southern counties, where farm cash receipts have been reduced by a relatively poor cotton crop, a late harvest, and delayed crop sales.

The demand for farm loans continues to be strong at most banks in the area. In many cases, interest rates are at or near the legal maximum for loans to individuals and, for a few banks, the rising cost of funds combined with the ceiling on interest rates is beginning to restrict lending activity.

Farm borrowers in marginal financial condition are often referred to other sources of credit such as the Small Business Administration and the Farmers Home Administration.

Among the survey results reported by Don A. Riffe, agricultural economist for the Dallas Bank, were these:

Where 35 percent of the survey respondents reported less than usual availability of funds in January 1978, this year 66 percent did.

Where last year 14 percent of the banks surveyed had loan-to-deposit ratios greater than 70 percent, this year 38 percent did.

Where a year ago 19 percent said that at least one farm loan had to be refused or reduced due to a shortage of loanable funds, this year 44 percent did.

Bankers estimated that the value of "good" dryland farmland has risen 7 percent, irrigated farmland 14 percent, and ranchland 15 percent since January 1978. Most expect land value to remain relatively stable during the next few months.

PROMOTED — Doyle R. Bunch II of Amarillo has been promoted to assistant secretary and assistant treasurer of Southwestern Public Service Co., according to Berl M. Springer, president. Bunch started his career with Southwestern in 1976 as an executive assistant.

Signup period for Medicare insurance open

People eligible for, but who do not have, Medicare medical insurance protection can enroll for it now through April 2, a social security spokesperson said.

Those eligible to sign up during the 1979 general enrollment period include people 65 and over and disabled people who have Medicare hospital insurance but failed to sign up when they were first eligible, or who once had this protection but cancelled it.

Protection will start July 1, 1979 for those who sign up during this time.

Medical insurance helps pay the cost of doctor bills and for other services and supplies not covered by Medicare hospital insurance.

Full information about Medicare can be obtained at any social security office. The people there will help those who want medical insurance sign up for this protection. The address and telephone number of the nearest social security office can be found in the telephone directory.

Tax cut saves on phone bills

Reduced federal excise taxes will save Continental Telephone customers in Texas an estimated $400,000 in 1979.

Beginning Jan. 1, the federal excise tax on telephone service was reduced from four percent to three percent. Under schedule established by federal law, the tax will continue to drop one percent each year until it expires Jan. 1, 1982.

Congress first imposed the excise tax on a limited basis during World War I. Although repealed briefly after the war, it was reinstated during the depression and has continued since then on a more extensive basis.

WHY YOUR PHONE KEEPS WORKING WHEN THE T.V., LIGHTS AND TOASTER DON'T.

In the event of a power outage, it's good to know there are a couple of things you can depend on.
Like a reliable flashlight with a fresh set of batteries. And your telephone.
Unlike regular electrical appliances, your telephone won't go dead during a blackout. That's because it's backed up by a secondary power system consisting of batteries and a standby generator.
But these batteries are unlike anything you'll find in a flashlight. Ours are large enough to fill a room.
The batteries are kept in constant charge by commercial power. Then if there is an outage they're switched on automatically until our standby generator has time to take over.
Naturally this system is more expensive than one relying solely on regular commercial power. But it helps make your phone system more dependable, particularly in the event of an emergency.
And we think it's important that you can depend on your telephone during the times when you depend upon it most.

First Baptists mark final debt payment

A "Victory Celebration" will be held in First Baptist Church here Sunday, featured by burning of the building note which was paid in full before its due date next August.

The original bond was scheduled to be completed in August, 1979, according to Rev. John Street, pastor.

Former pastors and area Baptist leaders will be here to take part in the afternoon program and also in the morning worship service in the building which was occupied in November, 1970, and formally dedicated the next month.

Built at a cost of more than $750,000, the church occupies 36,000 square feet of floor space and was five years in planning and building.

Robert Ryan will conduct the note-burning ceremony to close the afternoon which will begin at 1:30 p.m. after a covered dish dinner. A prayer of thanksgiving by Jack Howell will end the service.

Dr. Franklin Swanner of Brownwood will be the principal speaker and Dr. Strauss Atkinson of Plainview will present the missionary challenge. Gene Morrison, now of Graham, will recall memories of the building committee which he headed, working with the building finance committee of which the late A. C. Hays was chairman.

Special music by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Edwards of Tulia will be part of the program. It will begin with an invocation by Hubert Edwards.

Dr. Raymond Perkins of Oklahoma City will deliver the morning sermon and the combined church choirs will sing an anthem, "Praise the Lord" (Adam).

JERRYOLD WELBORN, cardio-pulmonary technician at Plains Memorial Hospital, explains the use of the equipment bought with the money raised at last year's Heart Fund Dance sponsored by the Dimmitt Promenaders. The 1979 dance, held Saturday night, raised another $1,536 to buy more heart training and treatment equipment for the hospital.

Ira Brown receives high Masonic honor

The annual meeting honoring Past Masters of Castro Masonic Lodge No. 879 was held Saturday night, when Carl Moore, Worshipful Master, welcomed approximately 100 people who gathered at the Masonic Hall.

Highlight of the program was the presentation of a 50 year certificate in the efficiency of the Aesotric Work to Past Master Ira Brown. The presentation was made by J. B. Noland of Summerfield, a member of the committee on work, Grand Lodge of Texas. "Only three similar certificates have ever been issued in the state of Texas," Noland said in his presentation.

Brown has been certified for 50 years to teach Masonry and to hold schools of instruction.

Brown was made a Master Mason in January 1922. He has many achievements since that date and is currently serving as secretary of the Castro Lodge, an elected office he has held for the past 16 years.

Brown was accompanied to the East by his wife and after the presentation they were given a standing ovation.

Jimmy Willson, Grand Junior Warden of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Texas made the address of the evening titled "Masonry Service to Fellowman."

Willson charged each member present to recall the obligation he took when he became a Master Mason and to live by those pledges in his everyday routine.

Other Grand Officers present were District Deputy W. A. Christian of the 100th district, District Deputy Paul Holmes of the 122nd district and two appointed Stewards of the Grand Lodge of Texas.

View from the Library

By BRICK AUTRY
Librarian

Although the library doesn't get into consumer advice, there are many times when it could because it has so many materials to draw upon.

An interesting subject is the health food item called herbs. Herbs are fun to cook with, and fun to read about. However, if one isn't careful these days you may find an exaggeration here and there concerning the healthfulness and the curative powers of herbs.

For instance, I read that a concoction of lobelia, mistletoe, capsicum, hops and ginger roots are good for your frazzled nerves. Well, it ought to be. Looking up the ingredients, one finds that at least three of the above are poisonous. If my nerves were frazzled I'd prefer to have something else, healthful or not.

Not all of the health herbs are dubious concoctions. A high blood pressure tonic is garlic. Even though it doesn't smell so good, garlic is very good. A tonic for sinus includes cayenne or red pepper for obvious reasons. Red pepper is also good for those people with sensitive stomachs but who insist on indulging in hot flavored foods. According to this book, red pepper stimulates the taste buds without irritation. Off hand, I'd say that stimulation is an understatement when referring to red pepper.

Supposedly hypoglycemia can be helped with a little of this recipe: licorice, safflower, horseradish and dandelions. That might be nice but would you put something like that in your mouth?

Lastly, there is a warning concerning teas. Camomile teas, mint teas, sage teas and bark teas. The teas can be harmless if not used too much. Camomile is not to be used very much at all because it is mildly poisonous. Sage teas can be very irritating to the nerves if one drinks too much. Some teas are tasty while others are worse than medicine. For pure convenience, vitamin pills seem just as good.

Here's Hart's school menu

Here are the menus for Hart schools for the week of Feb. 12-16.

MONDAY — Breakfast: Buttered toast, jelly, juice, milk. Lunch: Sloppy Joes on homemade bun, pork and beans, fruit, milk.

TUESDAY — Breakfast: Bacon, toast, juice, milk. Lunch: Batter fried fish with tartar sauce, cole slaw, black-eyed peas, apple cobbler, milk.

WEDNESDAY — Breakfast: Cold cereal, fruit, milk. Lunch: Enchilada casserole, tortillas, tossed salad, buttered corn, Valentine cake, milk.

THURSDAY — Breakfast: Sweet rolls, juice, milk. Lunch: Hot dogs with chili, pinto beans, peach cobbler, milk.

FRIDAY — No school.

D.H.S. STUDENTS LEARN BUSINESS MACHINES AND METHODS
... New course to be spotlighted during "OEA Week"

Office Education Association lists plans for special week

Vocational business and office education students at Dimmitt High School will join Office Education Association members from throughout the nation in activities to make the community aware of the importance of vocational student organizations during OEA Week, Feb. 11-17. OEA Week is being observed concurrently with Vocational Education Week.

A bake sale will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at Dimmitt Supermarket by the Vocational Office Education students of Dimmitt High School.

VOE students will give presentations on VOE purpose to several civic clubs during the next week, which will be observed as VOE Week.

VOE students will have an open house from 8:30 to 9:40 a.m. Tuesday in room 27 of the high school.

The purpose for this celebration is to inform the public of the meaning and objectives of OEA. By doing this, the community will be aware of the important part that OEA plays in the local school and community. Many of the activities planned by the Dimmitt OEA Chapter evolve around this year's national theme, "OEA To Serve You and the Nation."

The Office Education Association, with a membership of more than 75,000 students, is designed to develop leadership abilities in the American business world, and competency in office occupations. Through its professional, financial, civic, service and social activities and projects, OEA is developing leaders of tomorrow, today.

VETERAN'S SERVICES

By BEDFORD W. SMITH
County Service Officer

Change of office hours: Beginning next week, Feb. 12-16, our office hours will be changed from Monday, Wednesday and Friday to Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 9 a.m. to noon and 2 to 4 p.m.

We will also be available at other times for emergencies and appointments. Our office phone is 647-4666 and home phone is 647-4368.

Note to Vietnam veterans: War veterans under certain conditions are being provided jobs when in need under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973. Come by the office for details. Other war veterans also are covered by the law.

VA Pensions: Your County Service Officer has word from the Texas Veterans Affairs Commission (VAC) director in Austin that it will be some time in March before we'll have the details of VA regulations, etc., about the new pension law for 1979 which was signed by President Carter in October of 1978.

Special attention to the needs of Vietnam era veterans is reflected in the Fiscal Year 1980 Veterans Administration budget the President has submitted to Congress.

VA Administrator Max Cleland said the new budget proposes legislation to provide psychological readjustment counseling for Vietnam era veterans and their families, and legislation to extend eligibility for educational benefits by two years for educationally disadvantaged Vietnam era veterans.

The President's record high $21 billion budget authority request for veterans' programs also asks Congress to approve a 7.8 percent increase in VA compensation payments to service disabled veterans; seeks continued funding for high priority research into the causes of alcoholism, and requests a $1.3 million fund increase for full operation of new rehabilitation engineering research and development centers at Hines, Ill. and Palo Alto, Calif.

The proposed compensation increase for disabled veterans, with an estimated added 1980 cost of $498.4 million, would be effective Oct. 1, 1979, just one year following a 7.3 percent increase made in 1978. VA compensation is paid to nearly 2.7 million service disabled veterans and survivors of deceased veterans.

Sheryl Schulte on honor roll

Sheryl Schulte of Nazareth has been named to the dean's honor roll for the fall semester at South Plains College in Levelland.

Students on the dean's honor roll must have made at least a 3.25 grade point average on a 4.0 scale. The roll includes students from the main campus at Levelland, and extension campuses at Lubbock, Plainview and Reese Air Force Base.

DHS singers win ratings

Belinda Black, Jackie Washington, Mark Broadstreet, Lisa Weaver, Tammy Stanford and Rena Moore, Dimmitt High School choral students, received ratings at the UIL solo contest held last Saturday in Lubbock's Coronado High School.

Ratings are given on a 1-5 basis within three classes. Black received a I rating, in class I, Washington received II, also in class I. Weaver rated I in class III, Broadstreet and Moore both received II ratings in class III.

the opportunity to study good vocal literature and to prepare such literature for performance before a qualified state judge who then offers comments as to the performance and areas where improvement and more work is needed," said choral director Doug Henry.

Hart Valentine dance planned

The Hart First United Methodist Youth will sponsor a Valentine disco dance from 7 to 11 p.m. Saturday in the Hart elementary school gym.
Chris King, popular disc jockey from KPUR in Amarillo, will provide the music.

Book Club's review open to visitors

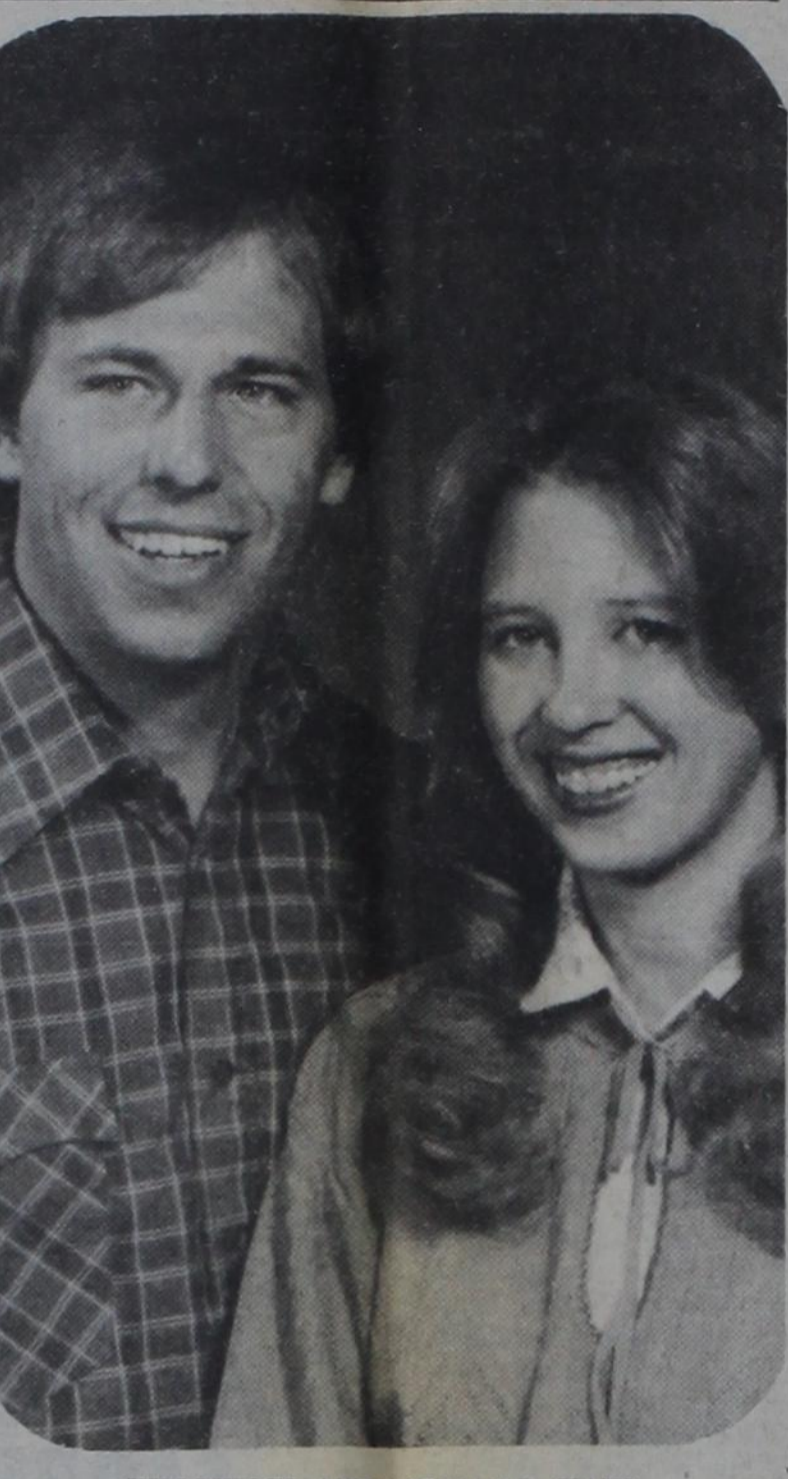

"A Rockwell Portrait," by Donald Walton will be reviewed by Maxine Tidwell at the 4 p.m. Feb. 14 meeting of the Dimmitt Book Club in Rhoads Memorial Library meeting room.
"Norman Rockwell has become a symbol of all that is right with America, an unchanging figure with a pipe in his mouth and a paintbrush in his hand," Mrs. Tidwell said of the noted illustrator.
Walton has uncovered many little known details of Rockwell's personal background and character in his book.
The public is invited for the review, which will follow the club's monthly business meeting.

Genealogical society sets its meeting

The Castro County Genealogical Society will meet at 7 p.m. today (Thursday) at Rhoads Memorial Library.
Gene Ivey, a charter member of the society is working on the surnames Ivey, Anderson, Carr, Dunn and Williams of Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Arkansas and Texas.
Ivey's great-grandfather, Andrew Jackson (Jack) Ivey settled in Quitman, Clark County, Miss. His grandfathers, Michael Ivey and Anderson are buried there, he has visited their graves.
Both his grandfather Anderson and his father were named Stephen Lewis, both grandfathers were in the Civil War as were most of their brothers.
A story is told that Bylon Jim Anderson, a brother, overheard a conversation one night that a Confederate boat was leaving the next morning, up the river toward his home to burn everything. He started out that night on foot and outran the boat in order to protect his slaves.
Everyone is invited to attend the Thursday meeting.

January winners listed in duplicate club games

Winners in the weekly duplicate games of Dimmitt's Ruff Club have been announced for January by the director, Ramona Annen. The club invites duplicate players to its sessions at 10 a.m. each Wednesday in the city hall assembly room.
Three teams tied for second, third and fourth place in the four tables of games last Wednesday, when Dalia Gregory and Mrs. Annen scored high. In the tie were Louise Nelson and Bonnie Koeninger, Polly Manning and Ruth Wright, Cecil Crum and partner.
A membership game with the same point rating used in sectional tournaments was held Jan. 24, with five tables in play. In first place was the Nelson-Koeninger team, followed by Ellen Hrabal-Manning, Dorothy Mayfield and partner, Faun Welker-Betty Huckabay.
Mrs. Mayfield acted as director for five tables Jan. 17. Winners in order of placing were Alma Pittenger of Hereford and Mrs. Hrabal, Cheryl Glidewell-Mrs. Mayfield, Welker-Genevieve Howe, Swain Burkett-Allan Webb.
Joannis Robertson was guest director Jan. 10, when the leading teams were Bessie Elder-Bobbie Damron, Huckabay and partner, Aural Davis-Gladys Benson. Four tables played.
First games of the new year were on Jan. 3, with three tables in action. Welker-Huckabay topped scoring, Jeanie Johnson-Glidewell took second place.

RANEAL IVEY PERRY AND DAUGHTER REBECCA
... A month after birth crisis

Heart crisis follows birth

A former Dimmitt woman, Raneal Ivey Perry, and her new-born daughter who both had dramatic escapes from death recently, are the subject of a feature story and photograph in an Ardmore, Okla., newspaper, the Daily Ardmoreite of Jan. 18.
Mrs. Perry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ivey of Dimmitt and her husband, Eugene, is pastor of the Baptist Church at Lone Grove, near Ardmore.
Their daughter, Rebecca, was born in a normal delivery Dec. 17 while Mrs. Perry was suffering heart seizures. She had been taken to an Ardmore hospital because of chest pains and a severe cough caused by her lungs filling with fluid due to a malfunctioning heart valve.
Although her heart seizures did not interfere with delivery of 8-pound Rebecca, Mrs. Perry was in serious danger and after transfer to an Oklahoma City hospital and tests, it was decided that she must have immediate open heart surgery.
Meanwhile, newly-born Rebecca was having trouble and had to be taken to the neonatal unit of Children's Memorial Hospital in Oklahoma City for a complete blood transfusion due to an RH factor. Rebecca recovered quickly after the transfusion.
Before Mrs. Perry's dangerous operation she was allowed to see her baby which she had not seen since its birth.
The surgery lasted six and one-half hours and her chances for survival were set at five percent.
She came through the operation well, began to recover in the hospital and has continued to do well since. Both she and her baby went home on Jan. 3.
The care of the baby is left up to other family members and friends as Mrs. Perry is unable to care for Rebecca herself. She cannot pick up her new baby because her breast bone was split open for the operation.
The Perrys have two other children, Mark, 11, and Suzanne, 8.
"It was by the grace of the Lord that everything went as well as it did," she told the writer from the Daily Ardmoreite. "I owe my life and my daughter's to God and the people who prayed for us," she said.

Swifts take district crown; Swiftettes repeat as champs

For the first time in 14 years, Nazareth's Swifts are champions of District 5-B, a title the battling '79 team clinched when they downed Valley 42-37 at Valley Tuesday night.

Coach Bud Birks' boys have one more game to go in district play, meeting Happy Friday night, but the outcome will make no difference as far as the championship is concerned. The Swifts have a 5-0 record in district and a season standing of 22-4.

The last district trophy won by the Nazareth boys was in 1965, the second in a row.

The Swiftettes, who are accustomed to winning district and are currently state Class B champs, also defeated Valley Tuesday for the crown, and will play Happy at Nazareth Friday.

Bi-district opponents for both teams are still in doubt, but practice games will be scheduled before those contests. Coach Joe Lombard said the Swiftettes will play Hartley at Nazareth next Tuesday and a match with Class AA Slaton girls is tentatively scheduled.

Gary Book topped the Swifts' scoring Tuesday with 12 points and 10 rebounds, while Jeff Schmucker grabbed 15 rebounds and made 10 points.

Nazareth outdistanced Valley by far in rebounds, including 6 by Neal Wilhelm who came off the bench to give a needed push, Coach Birks said.

The Swifts went cold in the second quarter after a 13-9 lead in the first and were down by a point at halftime and by 7 at one point in the third frame.

But a comeback in scoring begun in the third quarter was intensified in the game's closing minutes when Jimmy Huseman hit three charity tosses, Schmucker and Bryan Huseman two each.

All five starters for the Swiftettes scored in their 58-39 victory over Valley, and Coach Lombard said their defensive game was also a factor in the win. Lori Gerber took scoring honors with 19 points and Michelle Acker added 11.

Hart on short end of scores against S-E

At Springlake-Earth Tuesday night Hart's varsity boys and girls and the junior varsity girls lost to their hosts. Hart 8th grade girls kept their undefeated record Monday when they downed a Kress team at Hart.

Keith Newsome put 20 points on the Hart scoreboard in the varsity boys' game which ended with a 47-39 defeat for the Longhorns.

Final score for the Longhornettes was 68-47. Suzahn Rowland and Stacy Averitt tied with 12 points each to lead Hart scoring. In the JV girls' 51-18 loss, high point player was Sheila Mata with 6.

Eighth grade girls from Kress took a 22-14 defeat from the Hart girls, who were paced by Linda Washington's 10 points to continue an unbroken string of wins this season. Hart's 7th grade girls lost to a Kress team 35-3.

Dimmitt scores big wins over Morton Friday night

Dimmitt's Bobcats and Bobbies choked off Morton's hopes with big District 3-AA victories Friday night at Morton.

The Bobcats, who had topped the Indians by a scarily close 61-56 count in their earlier meeting here, ripped to a 71-52 victory Friday night as they continued their quest for the district crown.

And the Bobbies—64-45 victors over the Squaws in their hard-fought first game—never let the Morton girls get closer than 11 points in the stretch as they posted a 56-33 victory.

Friday night's games were played before a capacity crowd of 1,200 in Morton High School's gym.

The victories kept both the Bobcats and Bobbies' district records unblemished. The two teams will complete their loop schedules with games against Muleshoe here Friday and Friona there Tuesday.

After allowing Morton to jump to a 6-2 early lead, the Bobcats moved to a 6-6 tie, then relied on a three-point play by Mark Summers to put them up by 9-6 with 3:10 remaining in the first period. The Bobcats never trailed after that point.

By the end of the first period, Dimmitt led 21-12, and the halftime count was 37-27. The Bobcats outscored the Indians 14-11 in the third to build their lead to 51-38. Then they struck for 20 points in the fourth to earn their biggest victory margin over Morton in years.

Summers finished with 24 points, while Randy Roberts came through with 13 and Dennis Veals netted 12. Robin Ryan also turned in a good effort, sinking nine points and pulling down eight rebounds in the second half.

At the free-throw line—where Morton was deadly in the two teams' first meeting—the Bobcats and Indians virtually split the points this time, with Dimmitt scoring nine of 12 charity tosses and Morton hitting eight of 12.

But from the field, it was the Bobcats' game all the way as Dimmitt swished 31 field goals to Morton's 21.

Dimmitt 7th grade girls clinch title in district

Clinching their district title, with another game yet to be played, Dimmitt's 7th grade girls won an 18-15 encounter with Muleshoe here Monday night. Coach Gary Skelton's girls have a 12-3 record on the season and have lost only one game in district play.

Robin Parish with 9 points led Dimmitt scoring and Toby Tischler helped the cause by grabbing 8 rebounds.

The 8th grade girls also downed their Muleshoe opponents 31-18, leaving their season record at 9-8. Amy Ross paced the Dimmitt attack with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

Both teams will play final games of the season at Olton Monday night.

They had makeup games with Friona here last Thursday, after the weather had caused a postponement. For the 7th graders it was a 44-15 victory with Parish scoring

The Indians' main gunners were James Johnson with 27 points and Joe Bob Winn with 10.

In the girls' game, the Bobbies came through a see-saw first quarter with a 13-10 lead, then struck for 12 unanswered points in the second, en route to a 27-14 halftime advantage.

The Bobbies stretched the score to 40-20 by the final two minutes of the third frame, and it was all over but the shouting. The third quarter ended at 42-24.

Lori Dyer was Dimmitt's high scorer with 17.

Junior high boys win

Dimmitt's 7th grade boys managed a 23-21 win over Muleshoe Monday night while the 8th graders lost a foul-plagued contest 36-32 on the Muleshoe court.

Both the junior high teams from Dimmitt were winners at Friona last Thursday.

Coach Shott Miller said the 7th grade "played one of our poorest games of the season" in squeezing past the Muleshoe boys. Mark Bruegel made 6 points, Dimmitt's best.

After trailing 13-11 at the half, the Dimmitt 8th grade came back for a 22-20 lead going into the final frame but fell behind again. Dimmitt hit only 2 of 16 free throws, while Muleshoe cashed in on 14 of 24. Jeff Watts' 11 points were high.

At Friona the 8th graders battled all the way for a one-point edge, 33-32, leading by 2 points after a quarter, one point at halftime and 7 after a big third quarter. High man was Kevin Cleveland with 11 points for Coach Jerry Durham's team.

Seventh graders had a much easier time, taking a 29-10 win over a team which had held them to a tight margin in their last meeting. Bruegel again led in scoring with 15 tallies.

Bovina downs HHS varsity teams Friday

Bovina defeated Hart's varsity teams in games at Bovina Friday night, when the Hart junior varsity boys squeezed past the Bovina JV by 38-36.

The Longhorns were outscored 46-26 by Bovina's varsity. Keith Newsome hit for 15 points to lead Hart scoring. In the JV game the leading point-maker was Tommy Washington with 12.

Stacy Averitt with 12 points was followed by Suzahn Rowland with 10, as the Longhornettes fell to Bovina 50-37 in the girls' contest.

It's Dimmitt against Muleshoe for titles

Both Dimmitt and Muleshoe were double winners Tuesday night, and that throws the Bobcats and Bobbies into competition with Muleshoe teams for District 3-AA titles.

Dimmitt took its two Tuesday wins from Littlefield, the Bobcats by 70-56 and the Bobbies with a 50-38 victory. Both are unbeaten in second half district play, but so is Muleshoe which downed Morton in girls' and boys' games Tuesday.

Leads over their Littlefield opponents were held by both the Dimmitt varsity teams at the end of every quarter.

Mark Summers led scoring for the Bobcats with 24 points, despite sitting out the second quarter after he picked up three fouls in the first.

Coach Ken Cleveland commended Kelly Hill, Dennis Veals, Randy Roberts and Robin Ryan for their efforts, but said "I was a little disappointed that Littlefield was able to stay with us as long as they did."

Vicki Cleveland with 13 was high point player for Coach Jimmy Hoyle's Bobbies, who revenged a previous loss to the Littlefield girls with their romp to victory. "Our girls began the game better, played better defense, knew better how to go against them on offense," Hoyle said. "We had a couple of girls out sick the first time, but this time we were all well and the girls got it all together."

Junior varsity boys and girls also scored wins over Littlefield teams. The JV girls' game ended 36-23, with Rae Nell Fagan pacing the scoring as she shot for 11.

Randy Washington and Phil King each tallied 16 for the JV boys and Jeff Lindsey followed with 12 for a 72-50 defeat of the Littlefield JV. This gives Dimmitt a 19-6 record on the season.

Silverton falls to Nazareth

No-defeat records in district play were maintained by Nazareth's Swifts and Swiftettes against Silverton Friday night, leaving both teams comfortably atop the 5-B North standings.

The Swifts won 62-35 in a scoring spree against the Silverton boys, who are at the bottom in the second half of district action. Jeff Schmucker headed the tally sheet with 24 points, Gary Book added 13 and Bryan Huseman 10.

The Gerber girls paced the Swiftettes' 47-32 victory as Lori tossed in the ball for 13 points, her cousin Glenda made 10 more and proved a good playmaker as she led in assists, and another cousin, Coleen, turned in an outstanding defensive effort.

Sophomore Sharon Gerber pleased Coach Joe Lombard by her performance as she came off the bench and tied Michelle Acker with 8 points.

Leading all the way, the Swiftettes were 7 points ahead at the half and in a good third quarter outscored the Silverton girls 15 points. That iced the game and left Silverton with a 2-2 district record for the last half.

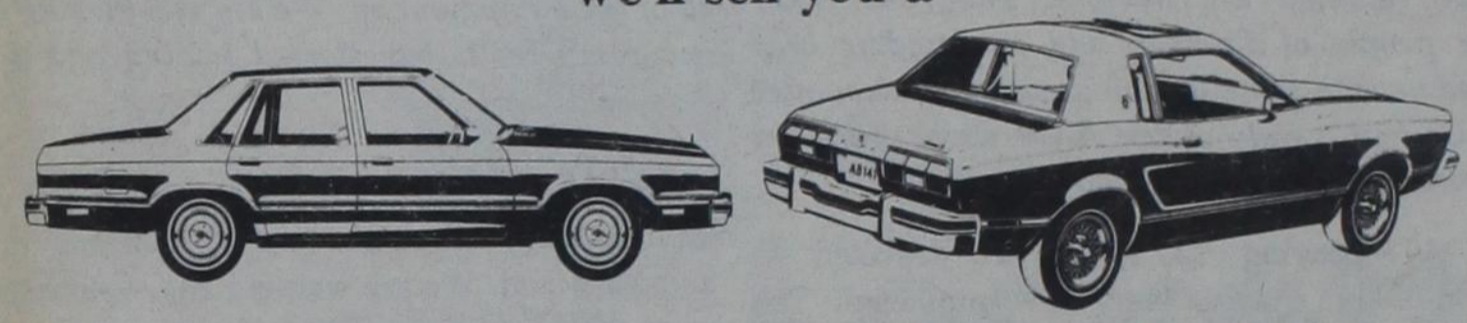

Three junior varsity boys scored in double figures to give Nazareth another win, 67-41. Calvin Schulte made 24, Dwayne Acker 17 and Dale Hoelting 16.

Tractorcade diary

By HERSHEL WILSON

We left Bushland Jan. 15 at 8 a.m. in very cold weather, it being wet and some fog. Traveled all that day, coming to a stop in Sayre, Okla. The Coop Gin was our camping spot for the night. We took on more fuel for the tractors, which numbered 76, along with about 100 support vehicles—about 250 people in all. Had a good night's rest.

Jan. 16—Left Sayre, Okla., after a night's rest, a good breakfast, and gaining about five more tractors along with their support vehicles. We had a few stops during the day, having some tire trouble, yet we arrived in El Reno about 5:30 p.m., at which time we refueled the tractors. Then the AAM support people of El Reno and surrounding area provided us with some food in great quantities, after which we had a rally of the AAM which was very enlightening. Gained eight more tractors.

Jan. 17—Leaving El Reno, we traveled to Okemah, Okla., having very few problems. The weather was still very cold and wet, yet some warmer. We camped at a truck stop, which caused some problems in the mud. Some more tractors joined us.

Jan. 18—Leaving Okemah, we traveled to Sallisaw, arriving early in the afternoon, about 4. We were fed some barbecue on a bun with plenty of cake, cookies and drinks furnished by the people there in the AAM. We had a good place to stay out on some farmland and rodeo grounds.

Jan. 19—We left Sallisaw about 8 this morning, headed for Russellville, Ark. We had a few more problems, such as flats. Lost one old MM tractor that was being pulled by another tractor. Its axle broke, and it was left by the side of the road. The weather was fine. We stayed at the fair grounds, had a rally, met some local talent who performed, and then they let me sing a few songs.

Jan. 20—We left Russellville for Little Rock, Ark., about 8. All the people are learning how to get back on the road in order; this helps to get on down the road for the day. Everyone seems to have more of a determined outlook toward the job that is at hand. Having a short run for the day, we arrived about 2:30. After fueling, we got a motel room where we took advantage of the nicer things of life, such as a bath. We had a rally there on the state fairgrounds. The speakers were Gerald McCathern, Bill Yokum, and the main speaker was Otis Chapman, who did a real good job. After the meeting we were fed coffee and doughnuts.

Jan. 21—We had a real good service Sunday morning. We met at 10:30 with about 400 in attendance, with a lay preacher, Otis Chapman, doing the preaching and Hershel Wilson leading the singing. We rested the remainder of the day, getting ready for another week of travel to Washington.

Jan. 22—We left Little Rock about 8:30 so that we might avoid some of the traffic since the river runs through town and many of the people have to use these two crossings to go to and from work. We had a nice day—a little cloudy and a lot cold, very cold, yet all went well. Some of the people had a few minor problems such as flats and a few oil leaks, and we have tractors with problems such as clutches and other things that might keep them from going on their own power. We load them and take them to the next place so they might be fixed, then they are back in line again. We came into West Memphis late, having traveled about 140 miles. Everyone was tired. We stayed at a dog race track which was very large. There were plenty of hard tops for us to park all of the equipment on. We are still gaining tractors and campers. It has started raining and it is still very cold.

Jan. 23—This is Tuesday morning, and we are leaving West Memphis in early-morning rain and fog. Very cold. We are wanting some pictures as we cross the Mississippi River. To get these pictures, I rode on top of the AAM mobile headquarters with my camera. We had freezing rain all morning and rain all day. We ran all day without any problems other than a little rain. We stopped just past Jackson for the night. We now have some Missouri tractors, from the southern part of that state. They have one tractor flying four black flags for the Lawn boys of American Agriculture who were killed in a plane crash while trying to make a better America. The AC tractor that is draped is at the front of the Tractorcade just behind the wagonmaster's tractor. Still raining and freezing. The people there came and furnished us fuel, compliments of Virginia. Sure was nice. Had a good night's rest, but very cold. Had a bath!

Jan. 24—Woke up this morning with it freezing and snowing. Pulled out on time. It snowed all day, yet the road was good. It started clearing near night as we came into Nashville, Tenn. The people of Nashville provided us with some real good music and singing. We had about five or so of the performers sing for us along with the George James Band. They were very good. I had the opportunity to sing a song in Nashville with the George James Band. Had a real good time. Stayed at the fairgrounds.

Jan. 25—We traveled from Music City to Crossville, which was on top of the mountain, at the fairgrounds. Had a good day and lots of pretty country to see. Nice way to see America on a tractor.

Jan. 26—Friday. We are traveling through the mountains. Sure is pretty. Having real good weather, clear view. Going to Dandridge, Tenn., for the night, which will be about 140 miles.

Family visits in Frio on way to Panama Canal

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Maeder and Danny from California are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blackburn. The Blackburns, Jerry and his wife and children will be visiting the family here this weekend. The Maeders are being transferred to the Panama Canal, where he serves with the Navy. The transfer is to extend for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Andrews left Friday, moving to Lindale, north of Tyler, where he will be employed with a Tyler rose industry. Kirk has been there on the job for the past three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Mike White and Chris will live in the house vacated by Kirk and Laurie.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zetzsche and Ann attended the funeral of his brother-in-law at Midland on Thursday. The young man had been ill for several months.

Ann Zetzsche, a senior student at Tech, was home for the weekend. She is to practice teach in Dimmitt High School with the home ec department beginning the latter part of February.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Yandell and Mr. and Mrs. Olin Parris went to Ardmore, Okla. Sunday to be with their family members and attend the funeral Monday morning for an aunt, Flora Wallace, who passed away on Saturday. Mrs. Wallace has visited her relatives here many times, particularly her sister Mrs. Parker, who was unable to attend the service. Mrs. Wallace was 86 years of age and had been ill for many months.

interview Tuesday, that the nation's farmers are doing better than last year financially, and that they "can't get their act together" and agree on what they want.

But DuLaney challenged Bergland's statement Tuesday.

"I don't think the violence has hurt our cause," DuLaney said. "The violence at least got people's attention. What we need to do now is walk and talk. I really feel we've got the sympathy of the Washington people."

"And Bergland knows what we came here for," DuLaney said. "What we want is 90% of parity, which the USDA and the President are already authorized to grant under the present law. Bergland knows that."

After Monday's incidents, Capitol City Police herded the tractors and support vehicles into Washington's Central Mall, west of the Capitol, and surrounded the mall with patrol cars, buses and other city vehicles.

"We're just staying calm now," DuLaney reported. "They've got us encircled—we're penned in."

Most Castro Countians slept in their campers in the mall Monday night. Two couples rented rooms at a nearby motel and shared the showers with those inside the compound area.

Two hundred tractors were allowed to leave the mall Tuesday. Meanwhile, farmers started walking through the corridors of Congress and the USDA buildings to plead their cause, and gathered for rallies Monday and Tuesday.

Congressman Kent Hance sponsored a chili supper for the AAM members in the mall Tuesday evening. Hance, who had visited at Bull Run Regional Park several times since their arrival Sunday, also spoke at a Monday night rally.

"Kent got twice the applause of any other congressman who talked to us Monday night," DuLaney reported. "He knows what our problems are, and made a very good speech."

AAM members made plans to meet with Bergland Wednesday, and to attend hearings by the House Agriculture Committee and other congressional committees.

"All the Dimmitt bunch has been real good," DuLaney said. "We're not trying to be radicals or run over anybody. We feel like the people have really changed their attitude—even here in Washington. They're telling us, 'We realize you've got a problem or you wouldn't have ridden those tractors all the way here to point it up.'"

Dr. Bechtol installed as TVM president

Dr. David Bechtol, former Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce president, was installed as president of the Texas Veterinary Medical Association at the group's annual convention Feb. 5 in San Antonio.

Bechtol practiced veterinary medicine in Dimmitt for nine years before moving to Canyon in 1974.

He is a 1964 graduate of Texas A&M University with a BS in animal science, and was awarded a doctor of veterinary medicine degree from A&M in 1965.

Dr. Bechtol and his wife have three daughters, Gayla, Carla and Paula.

Police asked to locate worker here.

Dimmitt City Police are trying to locate Edward (Lilo) Cruz formerly of 405 NE Eighth St. of Dimmitt and is now believed to be working on a farm in the Dimmitt area.

City Police have been asked to locate Cruz for the City of Uvalde for a subpoena and expense.

Police Chief Allen Newman ask that Cruz get in contact with the Dimmitt PD before Monday.

If the Police Dept. cannot locate Cruz by Monday they will have to return the subpoena to Uvalde.

Facts from a pro on driving to survive.

Q. What's the simplest way to get better control over my car and improve driving? — C.C., Midland

A. Buckle your seat belt. I'm serious. It's hard to control a car in an emergency if you are flailing around trying to stay behind the wheel. Any modern car will stop or turn hard enough to throw you around if you aren't strapped down. Driving without a seat belt means you can't use all of the stopping power or evasive ability built into your car. Having a lapful of front seat passenger won't improve your chances, either. This may be the best reason in the world to get front seat passengers to buckle up.

Q. My brother-in-law just bought some oversized tires for his car. He claims they'll give it better stability and handling. Is this true? — D.S., Port Arthur

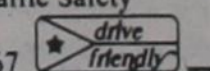

A. Not necessarily. Increasing the area of the tire that contacts the road will usually give you better traction on dry roads, but might reduce traction on wet roads. Why? Because making the contact patch larger reduces the weight per square inch on the road and can cause hydroplaning at lower speeds. This happens when water builds up in front of a tire until the tire is actually riding on top of it, like a water ski. Unless the tread design allows better water drainage, wider tires may force you to slow to a crawl in wet weather.

Q. I've just moved to Texas. What does the law say about turning headlights on in the evening and having them on after daybreak? — E.W., Garland

A. Texas law says to turn them on no later than half an hour after sunset and turn them off no earlier than half an hour before sunrise. The law also says to turn on your lights any time vehicles or persons are not clearly visible at a distance of 1,000 feet.

Lights not only help you see, they help other drivers see you. Motorcycle riders often ride with their lights on during clear daylight just to improve their visibility to other traffic. You'll see truckers running with their lights on anytime near sunset, particularly if the sun is behind them. If you have trouble seeing other vehicles that are running without lights, your car is probably pretty hard to see, too. When other vehicles are easily visible, with lights on or not, it's probably safe to turn yours off.

If you have a question on driving, send it to:

Hance sponsors move to balance US budget

Rep. Kent Hance joined in sponsoring a resolution in congress which would require the federal government to operate on a balanced budget.

Hance actually signed two resolutions, both of which were sent to the judiciary committee, which would provide a constitutional amendment requiring the government to spend no more than it takes in.

"It is just time the federal government started operating like a good business," said Hance. "Many states, including Texas, operate on a balanced budget system and are doing fine. There is no reason the federal government can't do every bit as well."

The resolutions call for a constitutional amendment which would forbid more spending than income received in any single year. Only provision for exception would be a declared emergency by three-fourths vote of both the house and senate.

Should the bill be approved by congress it would need ratification by three-fourths of the state legislatures as all proposed constitutional amendments require.

The balanced budget amendment is expected to be one of the major pieces of legislation to come before congress during the 96th session.

Forty states presently have constitutional limitations on deficit spending and 17 states have filed resolutions with the house judiciary committee calling for a constitutional convention on the issue.

Italian AFS student tells club of home

"School is the best thing," Armando Bellesio, AFS student from Italy who is attending Dimmitt High this year, said in naming the things in Dimmitt he enjoys most as he spoke to the Kiwanis Club Monday noon.

Contrasting the educational systems of Italy and the United States, the student said that of 100 elementary pupils in his country, only about 60 will go on to junior high level, 30 to high school and five to college.

"After elementary school, many children go to work at the age of 10 or 11 and never receive more education," he said. The lack of an educated populace is a handicap to the country in politics and economics, Bellesio believes, adding, "We need educated people for a good government."

Schools are not free and there are no free books, transportation, meals and other services which students have here, he reported. He also spoke admiringly of US colleges with "free people, room for the students" and plans whereby students may work part-time and earn their way. Bellesio said he enjoyed sports and social activities in Italy but they are not connected with school as they are in Dimmitt High.

Speaking of the long history of Italy and its contributions to world culture and the arts, he said the present trend for leveling of wealth, with fewer very poor and very rich, "is a good thing in many ways" but it eliminates the extremely wealthy class which supported the arts in past centuries.

Politically, Italy is hampered by division, not only the numerous parties but ever further splintering of interest groups, each with its own main concern which overrides interest in the common good, the student said.

Outlawed groups including Fascists continue to exist and add to the confusion which borders on anarchy, "and a stronger government is needed to control them," he added.

Bellesio said he has found a misunderstanding of Italian Communists in America. He described the party as democratic in Italy, rather than dictatorial as in the Soviet Union. It includes about 35 percent of the voters, second to the Christian Democrat party with 40 percent.

Saying that he could hardly speak English when he came here last fall, the student apologized for his lack of fluency, but the Kiwanians agreed that he was able to convey a vivid picture of his family and his country in his informal talk.

He was introduced by D. H. Koeninger, high school counselor.

USAF Sgt. Martin reenlists lately

Technical Sergeant Wayne C. Martin, whose wife is the former Thelma Buchanan of Dimmitt, has reenlisted in the AU Air Force at Upper Heyford RAF station, England.

Sgt. Martin, whose Air Force career began in 1962, is an integrated avionics systems technician at Upper Heyford.

The sergeant is a 1961 graduate of Belchertown, Mass. High School. His wife is the daughter of Nora Buchanan of Dimmitt.

Eighteen Dimmitt and Nazareth students at Texas Tech University qualified for the dean's honor roll for the fall semester.

From Nazareth both Anthony J. Brockman and Glenn R. Kleman were named to the dean's honor roll.

Sixteen named from Dimmitt are Beth A. Buckley, James G. Cleavinger, Clinton N. Dawson, Cynthia L. Dyer, Louis L. Myatt, Cynthia D. Sadler, Cheryl A. Sammann, Cynthia B. Sides, Marvin J. Spinhirne, Linda K. Street, Kyle Touchstone, Brenda G. Underwood, Kathleen E. Wales, Karen D. Wilson, Linda J. Wise and Joyce A. Wooten.

This list may not be complete, a spokesman from the college said. Because of state privacy laws, the university cannot release hometown stories about students unless it receives their permission, and many do not give their permission.

Essay winners write of history

First place awards for Castro County entrants in the annual essay contest sponsored by Los Ciboleros Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, went to Amy Downing, fifth grade, and Maria Flores, sixth grade.

Greg Sava was second for sixth graders. All are Dimmitt Middle School students.

Subject of the essays this year is "Travel in the 13 Colonies." Each year the DAR chapter, which includes members from Castro and other nearby counties, sponsors the contest with essays on various subjects concerning American history.

From 386 essays submitted, winners were named from Dimmitt, Hereford, Friona, Lazbuddie and Springlake-Earth.

Contest winners and their parents will be honored by Los Ciboleros Chapter at a reception April 22 in the E. B. Black house at Hereford.

Here are the two top award winners from Dimmitt:

GETTING AROUND IN THE COLONIES

By Amy Downing
My name is Amy Biggs. I live on a large plantation in Virginia. My father manages the plantation for a company in England. My house faces the James River, which is the same as main street in England. Most of our supplies come in on the river boats, and we ship our tobacco and cotton out on boats that take the products to the ocean to be shipped to London.

We also ship our goods on big barges. Huge ships take all of these things across the ocean to be sold. Then the ships return with tea and silk and other things we cannot make here in Virginia. We make a lot of the things we need, but not everything.

I have a little brother; his name is Jonathan. He has a big imagination. He thinks that some day he will figure out a way to fly. He thinks it is a lot of trouble to go to town on horseback or in wagons or even on the boat. Flying would be nice, I suppose, but I think my brother has some very strange ideas.

Sometimes we have a lot of fun. We have a big party for all the neighbors. A big boat goes down the river and picks up all of the people along the way. Then we have lots of fun all day. We have deer and wild boar, all sorts of good cakes and sweets, and lots of music and dancing. Everyone on the plantation works very hard, and my father thinks that it is nice to have a big party to give everyone a day of rest and fun.

This Sunday we were going to church but we couldn't go because it rained and it was muddy. Our wagon couldn't get through the mud. Finally we had to take the boat and go down the river and it was a lot of trouble.

Traveling through the colonies is not easy. We go by horse or water. We went to England to see my grandmother and grandfather. We went on a large boat and it took a long time. England was nice, but our beautiful new country of America is much better.

TRAVEL IN THE THIRTEEN COLONIES

By Maria Flores
To my readers:
In the following you will find the story of how traveling was done in the thirteen colonies.

They had and used two kinds of transportation. Which were (1) by land and (2) by water.

This essay tells of the hardships they had while traveling on land and water.

I hope you find this essay fun to read and learn or experience a little bit about how traveling was done in the thirteen colonies.

Travel in the thirteen colonies was not very easy. It was slow and difficult. Early colonists had very few roads and these roads were merely paths. These early colonists traveled through roads that were wide enough for pack animals to pass through but not for carts and wagons. Later the colonists widened the paths so that travel on horseback, carts and wagons could be possible. These few roads always had deep ruts and were full of mud. To overcome this, the early colonists laid logs side by side along the roadsides. These early roads were called corduroy roads. These early roads were dusty in dry weather, muddy in rainy seasons and travel over them was very uncomfortable and unsafe.

The first wagon roads were built by early colonists to join rivers, lakes, and seaports. As the road system grew, wagons and stagecoaches were built to carry freight and heavy loads.

In addition, travel was very dependent on good, fair weather.

Traveling on land during wintertime was impossible because of impassable mud, floods and snows. However, sometimes some colonists managed to get past the snow by using sleds. These sleds were pulled by a team of horses.

When traveling by foot and sometimes on horseback, trappers, explorers, adventurers, and colonists crossed the Alleghany Mountains during the early 1700's and blazed across small trails and paths for other colonists to follow.

And because there were swamps, deserts, mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, and plains to be crossed, colonists traveled in groups. And because of Indian attacks to be fearful of.

Long journeys were made only by traders, wealthy merchants, or planters. Men like these traveled for business or pleasure by boats or ships on rivers, bays, or coastal waters.

Colonists thought that travel by water was much easier than by land. After all, the Mayflower was the ship that carried the first Pilgrims to America in the year 1620.

Large flatboats could carry two or three families down a river, along with their livestock and everything they owned.

These colonists also traveled in crude dugouts and graceful Indian canoes and on clumsy, unwieldy rafts.

A colonist with an oxcart might have to travel far along a river before he came to a shallow place where he could cross or ford a stream.

Freight and passengers were carried in many types of sailing vessels, including brigantines, schooners, shallops, sloops and yawls.

So you see, travel in the thirteen colonies played an important part in our history. Without land and water, these early colonists could not possibly travel.

Appreciation for hospital

Dear Editor:

We just wanted to add our two bits to the two letters that came out in your paper last week about the Aguinaga baby. We say "Amen" to both letters. To our way of thinking, they couldn't have said it any better.

Everyone is sorry about the death of the little child, and the blame must be placed where it belongs. Our hospital has to have rules to go by or the doors would have to close. I don't know how we could do without our hospital. Our hospital staff is doing a full time job all the time.

Sincerely,
THE R. C. SULLIVANS

Letter to the editor

Writer asks that neighbor help neighbor

Dear Editor:

I have just read a letter to you by a person who in my opinion is tired of helping their neighbor. I think it is right for a person to express his or her feelings about a situation, if a person wants to take a side then let them take one. But to me it is not fair to start downgrading people because of what they cannot do. If you are tired of helping other people then why don't we just stop paying taxes and social security. Let's just ignore the poor, the old and the handicapped. Let them help themselves, if they can't, then let them die. To me in a matter of speaking this is going back to the rule that says "if you don't work you don't eat."

Sometimes it is hard for a person to learn a second language, especially if he is from another country. Yes, people do come to America for a better opportunity and life, but to many of these the language barrier is a problem in getting a job. To many of these people it does not matter what kind of work they get, as long as they can make a living, and most become farm laborers. If they did not do this work, could the farmer find someone else who would work at these wages?

I am sorry for both Mr. Newsom and the Aguinaga family for the situation they are in, and I hope the best for both parties. But I ask, if you do not help your neighbor whether he be white, Spanish or black and whether he be poor, old or handicapped, then who will?

Thank you,
SALVADOR ORTIZ

Lockett 77
Cotton like you've never seen!

This great new variety was introduced for wide-area planting only one year ago. And already it's becoming one of the most popular cotton varieties in the Southwest! Farmers who've seen it are excited about its performance. Here's what they liked about Lockett 77:

- "Disease was not a problem." Multiple disease tolerance includes protection against the fusarium wilt-nematode complex.
- "It came out of the ground real fast." Excellent seedling disease escape and cold tolerance provide good early-season vigor.
- "It fit my conditions exactly." Early maturity makes Lockett 77 a good choice for short season production.
- "The lint tested out real well." Fiber qualities are outstanding with good strength and uniformity ratings.
- "Lockett 77 was a beauty in the field." Foliage is sparse on short- to intermediate-size plants. Short, close-fruited branches make Lockett 77 ideal for stripper harvest.
- "The field looked white with my narrow-row planting." An excellent stripper cotton.

If you weren't among the farmers who planted Lockett 77 last year, talk to your ginner. If he doesn't have a supply on hand, he can get it for you. You're going to be really excited about the first field of Lockett 77 you see. It might as well be yours.

Dimmitt man receives warrant officer rank

Duke R. Chapman of Dimmitt has been appointed to the rank of warrant officer in the US Marine Corps.

His promotion from staff sergeant came Jan. 15 at the Dallas Naval Air Station, where WO Chapman is stationed with the Marine Air Reserve Training Detachment.

A 1971 graduate of Dimmitt High School, WO Chapman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Chapman.

After enlisting in the USMC in July 1971, WO Chapman attended boot camp at San Diego, Calif., and received infantry combat training at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

He later attended schools in air ordnance at Jacksonville, Fla., and El Toro, Calif., and saw duty in North Carolina and Hawaii. He received the USMC Good Conduct Medal in 1974.

WO Chapman re-enlisted for four years in June 1975, and transferred to the MARTD at the Naval Air Station in Dallas, where he is currently on duty.

He and his wife, Elaine, and their two sons live in Grand Prairie.

WO Chapman will attend the basic course for warrant officers at Quantico, Va., during the next three months, then will transfer to the Marine Air Corps Station at El Toro, Calif.

CBI vets to receive charter at area meet

Douglas J. Runk of Houston, past National Commander of the C-B-I-V-A (China-Burma-India Veterans Association) will present the South Plains Chapter of the veterans association with its official charter on Saturday night. Other officers of the State and National Association are expected from Houston, Dallas, and El Paso for this Charter Presentation.

The meeting will be at the Chinese Kitchen Restaurant, Lubbock, beginning at 6:30 p.m. All China-Burma-India veterans and their families are invited to attend.

Preliminary work to organize the South Plains area veterans began last summer and the organization was officially formed in October. Its membership is made up of World War II veterans who served 30 days or more in either India, China or Burma. The membership now includes veterans from Denver City, Lubbock, Levelland, Amarillo and other South Plains cities.

Ray Chapman, Lubbock realtor, was elected Commander. Henry Kight, Vice Commander. Other officers include Thomas J. Edwards of Lubbock, Adjutant-finance; Everett Cook, Judge Advocate; Marvin R. McCain and James P. Clark, both of Slaton, Provost Marshal and Chaplain, respectively.

Reservations for Saturday night's meeting may be made by telephoning Chapman at 799-4321 or 829-2664.

Two hospitals named in LULAC complaint

A formal complaint against Plains Memorial Hospital here and the Swisher County Hospital in Tulia has been filed by the Texas League of United Latin-American Citizens (LULAC) in another development stemming from the recent death of a Latin-American baby.

The letter of complaint from the LULAC state director, Ruben Bonilla of Corpus Christi, asked the Department of Health, Education and Welfare for a "full and thorough investigation" of the alleged refusal of treatment for the baby at the two hospitals.

The letter was sent to Dan Galvan at the Dallas office of the US Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

It said, "It appears evident that the Spanish-speaking population in Dimmitt and Tulia is being denied services offered to the general public."

If true, this would constitute a violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Bonilla's complaint said.

Also, Bonilla's letter said neither the Dimmitt nor Tulia hospital has staff members with "the appropriate linguistic skills to communicate with Spanish-speaking patients," and that this in itself is another violation of that act.

Federal funds could be withdrawn from either of the hospitals if investigation shows that it has been discriminating against Spanish-speaking residents, Bonilla wrote.

Last week an attorney for Texas Rural Aid at Hereford said he would probably file a civil suit for damages soon on behalf of the dead child's parents, against Plains Memorial Hospital and/or its administrator, Jack Newsom.

A criminal misdemeanor charge against Newsom was tried in Justice of the Peace court here Jan. 26 but the case ended in a hung jury.

The hospital administrator was charged with denying emergency treatment Dec. 8 to 10-month-old Isidro Aguinaga Jr., who was then taken by his parents to a doctor in Tulia only to be told that the child could not be admitted to the county hospital there because the parents were not Swisher County residents.

The Aguinagas, who do not speak English, and the teenage boy who acted as their interpreter, said they were told the baby could not be treated at PMH until they deposited $450 at the hospital business office. Newsom said they apparently did not understand what he told them about arranging payment for the treatment.

Castro County Attorney Jimmy Davis has said that he will file for another trial of Newsom, after the jury deadlock in the first one.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN—Texas farmers made a first of the year visit to Austin to discuss their plight with state officials and they went home confident that they had the support of Texas office-holders in their fight for a fair chance to earn their livelihood from the land.

Governor Briscoe and I at a Senate hearing released a joint announcement of our intent to stick up for the folks on the farm.

That message which will be sent to Washington says: "A crisis situation has developed in American agriculture and we call on the national administration and the Congress to provide without delay immediate attention to this very severe problem."

"Our agriculture producers in Texas and throughout the nation are caught in a vicious cost-price squeeze that requires immediate attention. Our people cannot wait any longer for action."

"Existing federally-implemented agricultural legislation is not providing for the needs of all segments of the American agricultural industry."

"We believe the farmer has a right to an equitable profit for his labor and investment."

"We therefore lend our support in securing 100 per cent of parity in the market place for American agricultural products."

"American farmers should be praised and allowed a fair profit on the food and fiber they produce instead of being penalized for being efficient."

"Nations look first to food and fiber for their people. They are necessities which can buy peace or without which can cause wars. Non-producing nations wither and die."

"A possible long-term solution could involve expansion of foreign markets, thereby increasing demand, providing realistic prices and retaining America's place as a world leader."

Census Bureau begins work on 1980 count

Census Bureau address compiling operations for the 1980 census have begun in Texas from an office located in Dallas, according to Julian Moseley, office manager.

Temporary workers are being hired now to begin putting together lists of addresses from which mailing labels will be prepared for use on the 1980 census questionnaires. They will be mailed to 80 million households nationwide in late March 1980. Census Day is April 1, 1980.

The address-collection phase of the census operation will take several months to complete. Also involved are checks of the lists to make sure all area dwelling addresses are included.

Census workers will drive or walk thousands of miles asking at each household for a correct mailing address. These address lists play a vital role in taking an accurate census since they are used to record completed questionnaires returned by mail.

Households which do not mail back a completed census form within several weeks after Census Day in 1980 will receive a visit from a census taker who will interview householders for the information required on the questionnaire.

The 1979 address collection activity in Texas is part of a Census Bureau program involving 35,000 temporary workers nationwide to compile lists containing approximately 30 million addresses. Another 50 million addresses have been purchased from commercial mailing list companies.

Persons interested in applying for temporary census jobs should contact their nearest state employment agency office or the census office responsible for address listing operations in Texas located at Room 2 C 8, 1100 Commerce, Dallas, 75242.

The Census Bureau is an equal opportunity employer.
