The house—a one story fram tructure—was the residence Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brannowsky. Officers learned that the coupl who were in Monahans Sunday had gone to El Paso to buy beauty parlor equipment, and were ad ised that Brannowsky was re urning to Monahans at once. Mrs. Brannowsky planned to pen a beauty shop in the house his week, friends said. Part o her equipment was destroyed in All but a fragment of the cloth-ng was burned from the body of the man found dead. In that fragment was a trouser pocket containing an envelope addressed to Brannowsky. Officers said there were eviiences of gasoline or kerosene all over the house and on a handker chief, also found in the dead man's pocket, but could not determine whether the fluid was sprea bout by the explosion. Brannowsky until recently had lived in Odessa. He traded in real estate and was reported to own several houses in Monahans.
