START MOVEMENT FOR STOCK SHOW GROUNDS

Through the Editor's Spectacles

By GEORGE

The hesitancy of prospective candidates to enter the lists for the Texas legislature this season is marked and has a reason. By this time the lanes usually are well crowded, and loud speaker oratory is trumpeting the merits of the respective bidders for the toga upon the attentions of the multitude. But candidates are few so far this year. It may be a lack of campaign funds with which to seek a poorly remunerative office. But the column is of the opinion that this factor has little to do with the condition. More likely the real reason is a lack of a convincing program and a disinclination to risk, not so much the rigors of the campaign and possible defeat therein, but the baffling problems and the certain tribulations of a term of service which, if the candidate should be elected, he would find more difficult than has been the case in a generation or more.

Only in rare instances will a member of the legislature which next is chosen be able to go to Austin confident of being spared a perplexing dilemma and able to return therefrom avoiding the alternative of being hanged for doing or ostracized for doing not. For the members of the next legislature are going to be on the spot, and none who has not sound convictions, the courage to sustain them and the ability to employ them wisely and well should seek a place for which, as never before in the years of the century, real ability and good conscience will be demanded.

The questions which confront the next legislature portend a momentous change in our governmental course. They demand profound decisions with respect to social security, with respect to taxation to finance amplified governmental programs, and with respect to the maintenance of the integrity of the principles on which this government is founded. For instance, how to pay old age assistance without exorbitant or destructive taxation must be solved. That is the foremost of the problems and the one on which the new legislature must face his most critical test.

The situation confronting the prospective legislative candidate this year emphasizes, as is rarely done, the value of a sound and tangible character. The representative who is confident of his platform and his program, who is willing to meet criticism face to face and to rest his case on its merits, who has been frank and forthright in his dealings with his constituents has a much better chance against the difficulties of the next session and a much better opportunity to be of service in a critical period. The candidate who attempts to go with the tide, to play for the favors of conflicting interests

Desecrations Arouse Farmers' Wrath

Farmers living north of Dallas, Texas, are ready to take justice in their own hands if authorities are unable to stop vandalism at the Rogers community church. High school students have been using the burial grounds nearby for petting parties and destroyed much church property. Shown above is a member of the vigilance committee that has threatened to act if the vandalism is not stopped. (NEA Telephoto).

Senate Votes 212 Million "Parity"

WASHINGTON, March 21 (AP)—The senate knocked a big dent in the congressional economy program Wednesday with a 63 to 19 vote approving a $212,000,000 appropriation for "parity payments" to farmers.

Administration senators and others from farming areas overwhelmed the economy forces. The debate found Senator Taft (R-Ohio) subjected to a sharp democratic cross-examination on his fiscal views.

The parity payment item was added to the annual appropriation bill for the agriculture department which the senate was expected to pass today. It was designed to restore to farmers a portion of the purchasing power they enjoyed from 1909 to 1914. A proposal by Senators Lee (D-Okla.) and Bilbo (D-Miss.) to insure full parity with a $607,000,000 appropriation was voted down, 56 to 27.

The bill as received from the senate appropriations committee, which recommended the $212,000,000 parity item, proposed outlays of $922,864,000, a sum $208,968,000 greater than the total voted by the house.

Not in House Bill
The parity payments, which are in addition to almost $500,000,000 in soil conservation benefits and some $90,000,000 in loans for agricultural activities, were not included in the house bill.

The additions offset some $300,000,000 in cuts made in other appropriations bills.

A principal speaker for the outnumbered economy forces was Taft, who in his presidential campaigning has said that farm subsidies, in some form, must be continued.

He opposed the parity payments, however, because no provision had been made for them in the budget and said that even if the budget and said that even if the budget would be a deficit of $4,000,000,000.

GERMAN AIR FORCE HITS IN REPRISAL

Nazi Planes Swarm Down on British Convoy

LONDON, March 21 (AP)—Germany's air force hit back last night in revenge for the tremendous pounding which British planes dealt out to Svl.

Nazi planes swarmed down on a convoy off the Scottish coast, fighting a harsh battle with British warships and naval planes and damaging three neutral ships.

Revising its first estimate of the casualties early today, the British admiralty said three neutral ships in the convoy suffered damage and that one of them was abandoned by its crew. The German radio broadcast claims that "several" convoys ships were sunk or badly damaged.

The abandoned ship was the Norwegian Svinta, of 1,267 tons. Her crew was picked up by another Norwegian vessel.

The Swedish Utklippan, 1,599 tons, was hit by an incendiary bomb and the Norwegian Tora Elise, 721 tons, likewise was damaged.

Anti-aircraft fire from escorting warships damaged one attacking Heinkel bomber, the admiralty said. Planes of the fleet air arm, Britain's naval air force, hit two other Heinkels and on one occasion two of the British planes scattered 10 Heinkels.

None of the British warships or planes was damaged, authorities insisted.

This rapid retaliatory action for the six-hour air force smash at the Nazi air base on Sylt served to heighten reports that the British are ready to pit their air fleet against German submarine nests and shipyards in the Baltic itself.

NAZIS CLAIM NINE SHIPS ARE SUNK

BERLIN, March 21 (AP)—Nine British warships and merchantmen with an approximate tonnage of 42,000 were sunk, and two merchant ships of about 11,000 tons, were severely damaged in a German bombing raid on a convoy off the Scottish coast yesterday, DNB, official German news agency declared today.

Nimrod Pioneer Dies Wednesday At Her Home

Mrs. Sallie Cozart, 78, beloved Eastland county pioneer, died at her home in the Nimrod community at 6 p. m. Wednesday, following a prolonged illness.

Funeral services were to be held today at 3 o'clock in the Nimrod Baptist church, with interment in the Pisgah cemetery. The Rev. Mart Agnew of Cisco was to be officiating pastor, and Neil Lane Funeral home in charge.

Mrs. Cozart came with her husband, A. L. Cozart, to Eastland county in 1889 and settled then in the home in which she died. She was preceded in death by her husband, who died in 1929.

Surviving Mrs. Cozart are nine children: W. P. Cozart, Lamesa; J. W. Cozart, New Mexico; C. E. Cozart, San Angelo; Doss, Jack, Arthur and Buford Cozart, all of the Nimrod community, and Mmes. Sampson of Anson and Stokes of Brownsville. She is also survived by 29 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. William Schmeding of Bismark, North Dakota, is here for an extended visit with her aunt, Mrs. K. E. Sherman, and children.

British Drop 1,000 Bombs on Nazi Plane Base

Britain's air force, striking in vengeance against the German seaplane base at Sylt Island, dropped at least 1,000 bombs wrecking hangars, ramps, field and defenses. #### MR. THETFORD DIES AT HOME WEDNESDAY

C. P. L. Thetford, 68, died at his home, 301 West 14th, Wednesday at 11 p. m.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home this afternoon at 5:30, with the Rev. Russell Dennis, pastor of the East Baptist church, officiating. Burial will be in Oakwood cemetery.

Pall bearers are Emmett Green, Doss Peltrey, Terrell Crowder, Arlin Agnew, Carlton Holder and Charnal Hightower. Neil Lane Funeral Home is in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mr. Thetford was born in Lott, Falls county June 10, 1871. As a young man, he was converted and joined the Missionary Baptist church, of which he was an active member. On November 4, 1893, he married Miss Nona Howard, who survives him.

To this union were born 10 children, of which two daughters and seven sons are living. They are: Kirby, Roy, Odis, Willie Thetford, and Mrs. Bill Seaborn, Cisco; Arthur Thetford of Konawa, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Gene Palmer of Odessa. Thirteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive.

Band To Have Two New Instruments

At a meeting of the Band Parents club Monday night it was decided to purchase a new sousaphone for the band, to match one to be given by the band committee.

The two instruments list at $670 and will make five such instruments in the band. A bassoon was also added at the beginning of the school year by the band committee, representing the addition of a $275 instrument.

Inventions Behind 'Phone Are Explained

The simple, basic inventions which made it possible to develop the great communication systems of today were discussed at the Cisco Rotary club luncheon today by A. P. Clayton, Cisco district plant chief of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company in charge of the large "repeater" plant of the company here and other properties.

Mr. Clayton appearing at the invitation of E. Hooks, district superintendent of the company and program chairman—who, incidentally, was unable to be present—told the club how electrical energy is utilized in transmitting the vibrations of the human voice over wires for short and long distances to have these vibrations transformed into similar speech at the distant end of the line.

He discussed the invention of the vacuum tube which "steps up" weak current to original strength or to even greater strength, thus making possible to carry a voice across the continent with volume unimpaired simply by passing it at intervals through vacuum "repeaters" such as are housed at Cisco.

After the program many club members remained to ask Mr. Clayton questions about the principles he had touched upon and the equipment used.

Nominations

Prior to the program, which Garland Nance presented, the following were nominated for officers of the club to be elected a month hence:

For president, Edward Lee and Garland Nance;
For vice president, Lee Helzel and "Deacon" Green;
For secretary-treasurer, H. H. Monk;

For directors, R. N. Cluck, Gary Smith and Ernest Hittson.

Guests included W. R. Cate.

SOFT BALL LEAGUE TO BE FORMED

The Lions club committee on soft ball, with Smitty Huestis, chairman, met yesterday to initiate plans for the 1940 season with prospects for a successful season better than ever it was announced today.

The program, which calls for the organization of a league of merchant-sponsored teams and teams sponsored by clubs or other civic organizations and probably embracing communities around Cisco, will be directed by Johnny Edwards and J. T. Petty, Cisco public school coaches.

A general meeting of interested business men will be called within a short while, Mr. Huestis told the Daily Press, to determine interest in the league and to find out how many teams will be sponsored here.

The Lions club's lighted soft ball field, one of the most complete and best equipped soft ball parks in the state, at A avenue and 16th street, will be the site of the games. The field, enlarged and re-equipped at considerable investment by the club, will accommodate large crowds and is perfectly lighted.

PERMANENT QUARTERS ARE GROUP'S PLAN

CofC Meeting Last Night Considers Possibilities

A movement was set afoot at a special meeting of stockmen and interested business men under the auspices of the chamber of commerce agricultural committee Wednesday night to provide permanent quarters for the Eastland County Livestock show. Several propositions were discussed and a committee authorized to make an investigation of these and report at another meeting.

T. G. Caudle, vocational agriculture teacher and superintendent of the stock show, presided.

The need of permanent quarters for the show was generally recognized, committee members said. Annually the show has to seek the courtesy of owners of sites for its temporary use and this condition does not encourage the interest and growth that the fact of permanence creates. In order to give the show the authority which it must have in order to serve the livestock industry of the Cisco country in a proper way, it was pointed out, quarters designed for it and devoted primarily to the show are essential.

Different Ideas

There was some division of opinion on the kind of site to be attempted, although the difference was subordinated to a general agreement to take the best route available. Some of the group felt that vacant business structures which might be secured cheaply should be sought, while others expressed the belief that the preferred course would be to select a large city-owned tract somewhat removed from the business district and there begin the nucleus of show buildings, grouped with a rodeo site, if desired, and accommodations for other activities associated with the show, such as an auction ring. It was argued that the cost of starting this group would be little more than probably would be necessary to purchase a vacant structure already existing.

It was argued on the other hand, however, that the latter course would not mean that a larger grounds could not be selected and developed later, but that it would provide all the accommodations immediately needed and furnished material later on for the larger lay-out.

The group instructed its committee to investigate all possibilities and make a report. No proposition for raising funds will be made until something concrete can be placed before the prospective contributors.

Between 12 and 15 stock raisers and business men attended the meeting.

Good Story --- But Not For Skeptics

WICHITA, Kans., March 21 (AP)—Only people who believe truth is stranger than fiction should read this.

"Gotta ticket" inquired the gatekeeper of a young fellow who passed through the Union station turnstile.

"Yeah," said the lad, absently.

"Well, eat it!" bellowed the gatekeeper after the young man had taken a few steps toward the train.

Still absent-mindedly, the lad took a couple of bites. Then protested.

"They gave him a new ticket after the gatekeeper explained he was shouting to a couple of other fellows.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

ANN BROWN—orphan daughter of a gambler, alone in an unfriendly city.

PAUL HAYDEN—stock room boy with ambition.

STEVE CLAYBOURNE—wealthy playboy.

CLARA BROOKS—dime store counter girl.

IRENE TEMPLE—society debutante.

YESTERDAY: Steve tells Ann he is still in love with her, but she reminds him that she is a servant. Ann finds the cook has been buying large quantities of food, too much for use. She senses trouble. Late one night, Irene comes to Ann's room to chat.

CHAPTER XXVI

Irene said, "When we met at the Athens club party I had no idea you were a breadwinner. You looked so ultra that night."

"I stepped out of type for the evening."

"I don't want to be nosy, but—your different, Ann. Where is your family? Why are you a housekeeper—if you don't mind telling me."

"My parents are dead, they were killed in an accident. I don't know much about my father's people. Mother came from Seattle. Perhaps I have cousins and uncles and aunts out there. I never looked into it."

"Are you absolutely on your own?"

"Yes."

"I give you credit, Ann. I couldn't earn enough to buy a bowl of bread and milk."

"They talked on like two girls in the same walk of life. Irene asked, 'Where's that good-looking man who was with you at the Athens club?'"

"He's out in Moline, floorwalking a 10-cent store." Ann's face shadowed.

"Watching her, Irene said, 'I thought you two were in love.'"

"People like us can't afford to be in love."

"That's dreadful."

"Yes, it's dreadful."

"I'm having a lot of fun at the moment being in love," Irene confided. "Dad would throw a fit if he knew." She laughed delightedly.

"Steve Claybourne?" Ann asked.

"No, Jeff Fortner—he's an orchestra leader," Irene sighed.

"I'll get over it, but I hate to lose a new kind of thrill."

"You're not going to marry him?"

"Goodness, no. I don't fancy myself as the wife of an orchestra leader. I'll marry Steve some day. We're not in love, but we go with the same crowd and like to do the same thing. I'll marry Steve when I get around to it."

Ann laughed. "Does he know it?"

"Oh, I suppose he feels like I do, that we'll make a nice pair when we each want to be half of a pair."

"Would you care if he fell in love with someone else?" Ann was thinking of the conversation on the stairs the previous evening.

"No, I wouldn't care. We're both looking around a little. I might even fall in love." She got up from the bed. "I'd better be getting dressed."

Ann glanced at the little clock on her dresser. It was after 10.

"Jeff plays until 2," Irene explained. "I never show up till midnight or after."

Ann was ready for bed when the telephone rang. She waited for Rose to answer it, but when the bell kept up its monotonous chant, she went to the upstairs sitting room.

"Mr. Temple's residence," she said.

"Ann? Steve talking."

"Hello, Steve."

"How'd you like to go for a cruise on the lake? It's a swellish night."

"Honestly, Steve, I'm too tired."

"It'll do you good. I'll have you back in an hour if you say so. The moon is not quite full, but tipsy."

"Are you, too?"

Steve laughed. "My state of intoxication is well in hand, lady."

It was dark in the sitting room and the moonlight made a puddle on the carpet. It would be gorgeous on the lake. The Temple gardens sloped down to the water's edge. A dock reached far out into the lake. Ann could imagine Steve's launch put-putting up to the dock in the silvery light. For a moment, she was tempted.

Then, "Steve, try to understand. Mr. Temple and Irene and Blake are wonderful to me, but, after all, I'm not a member of the family. I have work to do and plenty of it. I can't go tooting off at this hour of the night."

"I'll bet a buck Irene is preparing to take off," he said.

"That's different."

"Doesn't the housekeeper rate a boy friend?"

"Perhaps—after she gets her housekeeping under control."

"Then you won't go?"

"Not tonight, Steve. Thank you." Ann was not too pleased that Steve had asked her to slip out of the house for a midnight cruise. It clearly emphasized the difference in their stations. He seemed to read her thoughts.

"Don't think I'm trying to back-door you," he said. "What I told you last night goes. If you don't" watch out, I'll ask John Temple for your hand."

"Steve—you stay in your own back yard and I'll stay in mine. That's the better way."

"All right, but I'm warning you. This is only the beginning of my campaign. The villain will still be pursuing you when the gold of your hair has turned to silver." He was disarming and engaging. His interest saved Ann's hurt just a little. Paul had robbed her of self-confidence, Steve gave it back to her.

"I'll let you know when the first gray thread appears," she said. "Until then, cheerio." She replaced the telephone, silencing his pleas.

Three hectic days passed. Three hectic days passed. Against terrific odds, Ann made progress. She decided on a new market and clipped Plunket's objections short.

"I could have both you and your uncle arrested for what's been going on," she said. Plunket retired to menacing silence. It was on the third night that Ann saw the cook whisk out of her room as she turned the corner in the second floor corridor.

"Plunket—" she called sharply.

There was no answer and she was half inclined to believe that she had imagined the visit. Blake, home for a few days, dashed out of his room, begging for help with his dress tie, and Ann forgot the incident.

The following morning, Mr. Temple came down to breakfast with a grievance. "My watch has disappeared," he grumbled, frowning and fumbling at his waistcoat pocket. "I know I had it when I came home last evening. Remember distinctly of taking it out of my pocket when I changed to tennis clothes before dinner."

"That's queer," Ann said. "It couldn't have got very far."

Rose, who had been serving the fruit, vanished into the kitchen. When breakfast was finished Mr. Temple asked Ann to ring for the maids. They came into the dining

YOU, TOO, WILL BE 'WAY AHEAD WITH A JOHN DEERE TRACTOR THAT BURNS LOW-COST FUEL.

It didn't "just happen" that John Deere Two-Cylinder Tractors are able to burn low-cost fuels successfully, efficiently, and safely—they're specially designed to do that very thing—to save users money on fuel (the biggest single item in operating a tractor)—to give them economical power for all farm jobs.

Proper engine temperature is maintained by an efficient thermo-siphon cooling system with radiator shutter control at the seat.

Come in and let us point out all of the features of John Deere Tractors.

County Girls 4-H Committee in Meeting

The Eastland county girls' 4-H club committee met Saturday morning at Eastland for the purpose of laying plans for summer activities and for a review of club work to date.

Numbers of committees were appointed for various phases of the work which will be pursued during the spring and summer months. It was announced that April 23 is the annual Eastland county dairy day, and a committee to prepare for the 4H club girls' participation in the show was appointed as follows: Mrs. J. K. Nix, sponsor Morton Valley club; Mrs. S. R. Rogers, sponsor Alameda club, and Mrs. E. Barron, sponsor of the New Hope club.

Mrs. M. W. Grieger, Flatwood; Mrs. R. L. Higginbottom, Kokomo; Miss Helen Dempsey, Bullock; Hazel Day, Okra, and Veda Faye Ramsower, Morton Valley, were appointed a committee to select a system of grading girls in the county for the selection of the Gold Star Girl for this year.

In July, it was announced, each club will select its outstanding members to represent the club in the annual A. & M. short course in College Station. Score cards for grading the members will be chosen and plans for attending the meeting will be made by a committee composed of Mrs. Josie K. Nix, sponsor of the Morton Valley club; Mrs. Opal Brinson, sponsor of the Lone Cedar club; Miss Ima Louise Little, president of the Flatwood club; Miss Betty Lou Vinson, president of the Lone Cedar club, and Miss Doris Wheat, president of the Morton Valley club.

4H club Sunday, a combined all-day meeting of the boys' and girls' clubs, will be held May 4 at Eastland. The day's program includes attending the morning church service, group luncheon and afternoon program.

As a reward to all 4H club girls who have completed their goals for the year, a club encampment is planned, to be held in August. A committee was selected to prepare for the entertainment of the girls.

Final Rites For Mrs. Montgomery Are Held Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Jack Montgomery, who died here Monday night, were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Methodist church, with burial in the Rising Star cemetery, Neil Lane Funeral home in charge.

Mrs. Montgomery, who is survived by her husband and a baby son, Jimmy, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Farmer of Cisco.

Other survivors are two brothers, Bob and Andrew, of Cisco, and two sisters, Mrs. Earline Alsop of Cisco and Mrs. Willis Sutherland of Freer.

Active pall bearers were Rayford Richardson, Amie Lee Richardson and Lynn Robertson of Cisco, Ray Nunnally, C. E. Joyce and Bobby Gene Joyce of Rising Star, and James Rutherford of Fort Worth.

County Must Increase Part in WPA Projects

EASTLAND, March 21 (Sp.)—Members of the county commissioners' court, in compliance with notification from the Works Progress administration, are figuring ways and means of increasing the county's percentage of contribution in the sponsorship of projects.

The county has been furnishing a contribution of 15 per cent in sponsoring WPA projects, but under an act of congress, like other sponsors, must hereafter contribute 25 per cent of the cost of projects. The WPA furnishes the remaining percentage of cost.

The county contribution consists mainly of material and machinery.

The act of congress, which made mandatory the contribution of 25 per cent of a project cost by a sponsor, was passed last fall.

The new act having gone into effect January 1, the WPA has advised Eastland county that its contribution of 25 per cent on projects is retroactive from that date.

Under the county-wide road project, in which there are six units operating, the WPA last month paid out $46,000 for trucks, labor and material. For the last half of the past month, the WPA paid out $21,800 alone for labor.

Tolar, vice president, and T. D. Robinett, De Leon, secretary-treasurer, on Friday of this week are to leave on a trip during which they will inspect cooperative fertilizer and peanut mill undertakings in Georgia and Florida. While in Georgia they will visit in Camilla, Ga., headquarters of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama Growers association, an organization similar to the Southwestern Peanut Growers association.

Gorman Chosen as Headquarters for Peanut Ass'n

EASTLAND, March 21 (Sp.)—Dick Weekes, manager of the Southwestern Peanut Growers association, announced Monday the organization has selected Gorman as its headquarters. The organization is now located in Eastland.

Weekes said the removal to Gorman will be within 30 to 60 days and is being taken because more peanuts are marketed in Gorman than in any town of the state. In 1939 he said, 2,250 tons of peanuts were bought by the association in Gorman and that in 1938 the figure was 2,450 tons. Weekes added that the tonnage was only one-half of the total marketed in the town.

He also stated that Gorman would be the location of any cooperative undertaking established by the organization.

Weekes, Conrad Schaefer, Rising Star, president; J. D. Sargent, were discussed, among which was the plan for rewarding the year's outstanding club worker with a trip to some point of interest in the United States.

Eighteen members of the committee attended Saturday's meeting.

County 4-H Club News

4-H club Sunday will be observed May 5, 1940, it was announced by A. C. Pratt, assistant county agent, Saturday, and final plans for the day will be announced in the near future. This will be a day when all of the 4-H boys and girls in the county will be invited to come and worship together in one church. Plans for the day have not been made yet, but they will likely include an old-fashioned basket dinner after church. The county 4-H club council will meet and make final preparations for the day.

A very interesting and educational tour of several western states is being planned for outstanding 4-H club boys in district 7, beginning August 3, 1940, and extending 10 days. The two boys in Eastland county who have done the most outstanding club work up to that time will be given the trip with all expenses paid, said A. C. Pratt, assistant county agent. District 7 is composed of 19 counties and one boy from each county will make the trip, except for the three counties where an assistant county agent is employed, which entitles them to send two boys. Five county agents from the district will accompany the boys and help them to get the most out of the trip. The first trip of this nature was made in 1939, and Buster Wheat of Morton Valley was chosen as the most outstanding boy in Eastland county, and was given the trip. Incidentally a prize of three dollars ($3.00) was given to the boy making the trip who wrote the most interesting account of the trip, and Buster wheat won the prize.

Outstanding boys in the county will be selected on the basis of their demonstration work, leadership, ability, and spirit of cooperation as a 4-H club member.

The Kokomo 4-H club boys recently received a beautiful electric cabinet radio for having the club that was most outstanding in social progress in Texas in 1938. Kokomo also was given first honor for its social progress in 1937, but no prize was given that year, so the club was given a chance to compete again in 1938.

Some of the things done by the boys in this club to make them the most outstanding club in the state were: (1) Build a 4-H club house out of native rock, which was the first of its kind in Texas. (2) Build a 4-H club park. (3) Plan and carry out a trip to Galveston. (4) Numerous community activities, such as helping build a tabernacle and cut wood for the church.

The social progress work in the Kokomo club was done under the direction of Hugh Barnhart, assistant county agent at that time, and L. H. Higginbottom, club leader of the Kokomo club.

Outstanding awards will be made to 4-H club boys who turn in the best records of their demonstrations in 1940. The National Committee on 4-H club work will give a gold medal for the best and nearest record book. The Kraft-Phenix Cheese company will give gold medals to the best dairy demonstration team and silver medals to the second best dairy demonstration team in the county. The International Harvester company will give a gold medal to the boy who keeps the best farm account and to the boy who keeps the best enterprises account in the county. Wilson and company will give a gold medal to the boy who turns in the best record on his beef animal or hog demonstration. The national committee on 4-H club work will give a gold medal to the boy who turns in the best record book and a 500 word story of the value of electricity on the farm and the work done on rural electrification in the contestant's community in which he may have had a part.

Castor Beans For Test Plots Are Received

Twelve packets of hybrid castor beans, representing as many industrial varieties, arrived at the Cisco chamber of commerce Monday morning from the Woburn Degreasing Industries at Brownsville, Texas. The beans are to be used in planting twelve test plots in the Cisco country to determine whether or not the plant, one of the most important of the chemurgic farm crops now being developed in the United States, will thrive here.

Planting will be done on test plots selected by T. G. Caudle, Cisco vocational agriculture instructor and agricultural secretary of the Cisco chamber of commerce. The seed will be placed in the soil during the latter part of the month. Each plot will be carefully supervised during the course of the growing, the soil analyzed and the conditions affecting the plant checked.

Soil testing equipment to be used by the chemistry classes of the Cisco high school in testing soils has been purchased by the chamber of commerce.

To Devote Time Here

It is Van Over's plan, he told H. H. Monk, chairman of the castor plant committee of the chamber, to devote a great deal of his time to the Cisco project this year, and as soon as he can dispose of some pressing matters in connection with the Texas program in the valley and lower Trinity river section which are now occupying his attention.

It was understood he would make the Cisco test project one of his major interests and the only new test planting he would do for some time.

The tests will cover all soil conditions in the Cisco section. From time to time careful analyses of chemical characteristics of the plants will be made at the Brownsville laboratories of the company, which are the center of present operations in Texas.

mittee was able to bring M. L. L. Van Over, chief of the farm bureau of Woburn Industries, under whose direction tests of the industrial castor hybrids he developed are being made throughout the south, to Cisco for an address before the CoC forum in February. At that time arrangements for the test plantings were completed.

The demand for castor beans for test plantings has been much greater than the ability of the chamber to supply. P. R. Warwick, Cisco CoC manager, said, Van Over told CoC officials when here that the supply of the beans has to be conserved because of the demands and asked that the chamber be as economical as possible in the planting to secure the maximum coverage in test plots. About half a pint of beans of each variety was sent.

YOUTH GOES TO CHAIR FOR COP'S SLAYING

HUNTSVILLE, Texas, March 21 (AP)—J. W. Rickman, 22, was electrocuted in state prison here Monday for the murder of McKinney Policeman Marion Taylor at McKinney.

Rickman was ushered into the execution chamber promptly at midnight. "I'm sorry for all the trouble I have caused," he said in a voice that was scarcely audible to the handful of witnesses.

Rickman lived at Farmersville, Collin county, and was arrested in the patrolman's slaying after the officer had been shot to death in a running chase at McKinney. Rickman shot Patrolman Taylor when the officer stopped a taxicab in which Rickman was a passenger. Rickman had commandeered the taxi, driven by Henry Lee Jackson, in Dallas. Jackson deliberately violated a traffic regulation in McKinney to attract Taylor's attention to Rickman, who had robbed and beaten Hubert Dodd, a filling station attendant, south of Greenville the day previously and was being sought for that offense.

After the shooting Rickman left the cab, tossed his pistol in a mud puddle. He was captured later walking along a road near Durant, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Agnes Dickson and two sons were among the large number who attended the Fat Stock show at Fort Worth Saturday.

In the yearbook of the "21" Study club the outstanding program each year is always the one at the time when the members of the Excelsior club of Gorman are guests of the study club. Mrs. Maltby is quite talented as a reader and gave the interesting story entirely from memory. Another number that was much enjoyed was a National Geographic magazine article on the "Development of the Rio Grande Valley," which was given by Mrs. J. E. Heeter. Musical numbers on the program were a vocal solo, "Dear Old Texas," by our gifted singer, Miss Ruth Crenshaw, and a Mexican song and dance by four small boys and girls in costume, who were trained by Miss Delia Wall. Mexican pottery, fruits and palms were used in the decorations. Another honor for Mary Alice recently was that she was listed on the "Dean's Honor Roll," and would be presented to the dean in a special ceremony. In her work in high school Mary Alice always made a splendid record and from these reports it seems she is still a leader among her classmates.
