NOW REASON FOR HOPE' DECLARES REYNAUD

Through the Editor's Spectacles

By GEORGE

The quick change of American attitude toward the European war from one of sympathetic isolation to demands for all possible assistance to the allies short of actual intervention indicates to what extent this country has lost faith in the ability of England and France to cope with the Nazi machine, as well as the fact that our national mind is just beginning to comprehend what a serious impact complete Nazi victory would have upon the political and economic organization of the particular world. We have never, as a nation, anticipated the Nazis to win. But we are beginning to fear very much that they will win, and that in winning, they will attack by economic penetration and political coups the great trade areas of the world which can provide them with raw materials and markets. These areas certainly include South America, and we now realize what a disadvantage we would be put to in enforcing the Monroe doctrine and protecting our vital interests in a democratic government and multilateral trade policies abroad without the support of English and French arms and national resources to balance the powers of totalitarian governments.

The realization has given us a good case of jitters, not helped by the fact that many of our great industrial organizations, particularly oil companies, have enormous investments abroad which are giving them and their investors considerable concern. We have developed a profound awe of a Nazi war machine capable of such astonishing blitzkriegs as subdued Poland and the Low Countries. Lack of contact with these juggernauts of steel and fire has aided the fearsome chimera which reports of their crushing effect have conjured in the public mind. There is a feeling that they are irresistible. People have become pessimistic, even fatalistic, afraid to make decisions or to move, grasping closely what they possess, actually stalling the economic machine at many points so that we might say it has become frozen with fear. That is the psychological effect of the reverses suffered by the allies upon many people in this country.

What has made the Nazis so powerful in war? Simply this: They were prepared for it! For eight years under Hitler and earlier the German nation worked as it had never worked before. Brains and brawn and all the resources which the Nazis could wrest from the German soil and the elements and wrangle from the road went into the preparation of a war machine which had a definite job to do. Certainly it is strong.

If the German nation, with its comparatively slender resources could develop such a powerful instrument of aggression, what do you

Ferguson and His Attorney Released

EASTLAND, June 6 (Sp.)—Alex M. Ferguson, brother of former Gov. James A. Ferguson, and his attorney, J. M. Baird, were released from the Eastland county jail Wednesday morning, after serving a 20-day sentence on a charge of contempt of the eleventh court of civil appeals.

The two were placed in jail Friday afternoon, May 17, after allegedly violating an injunction of the court. The injunction grew out of litigation over the estate of the late Mrs. Katie Morton of Haskell.

While serving the 20-day sentence, which ended Wednesday morning, Ferguson and his attorney appealed to the state supreme court for a habeas corpus, which was denied.

The Farmers and Merchants bank of Haskell, against which the suit was filed by Ferguson, in violation of the injunction of the eleventh court of civil appeals, was represented by the law firm of Turner, Seaberry and Springer of Eastland.

Week-Day Series of Services Is Started Monday

The revival meeting at the Church of Christ went into the week-day services Monday night with a full house. Evangelist Claud McClung of Fort Worth is doing the preaching, and there is good interest and attendance at all services. Mr. McClung's lesson last evening was on "Law." He said God has many laws—the law of nature, the law of nature, the law of force, the law of spirit. The Holy Spirit spoke through the apostles, he said. The spirit works in the law of baptism. He did not tell us to not baptize unbelievers, but to baptize believers, therefore he excluded unbelievers. He did not tell Noah not to use pine wood in building the ark, but he did tell him to use gopher wood, therefore he excluded pine. The Lord also specified the kind of music he wanted used. He said, therefore he excluded all other types. I maintain it is always safe to follow the route the Lord has mapped out in his divine word," said Mr. McClung.

The night service has been changed from 8 o'clock to 8:15. Everyone is invited to attend these services.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams and Mrs. W. A. Greenfield of Butte, Montana, are visiting in the home of Mr. Adams' mother, Mrs. W. M. Adams, and his sister, Mrs. P. O. Brown, and Mr. Brown.

CLAIMS MANY NAZI TANKS ARE WRECKED

French High Command "Well Satisfied" With Defense

BULLETIN
PARIS, June 6 (AP)—The Germans, throwing at least 2,000 tanks into the battle of the Somme, were reported by a French war ministry spokesman tonight to have made a "slight advance." The French forces are retreating tonight on both the west and on the east flanks of the Somme front. Some German tanks were estimated to have driven as much as seven and a half miles into the French lines.

PARIS, June 6 (AP)—Premier Reynaud declared tonight "hundreds and hundreds" of enemy tanks had been destroyed since the Germans launched their drive on Paris yesterday.

He told his countrymen that there was now "reason for hope," and said the present battle "may decide the fate of the world for a hundred years."

He declared the French high command was "well satisfied" with the defense being made on the roaring front.

FRENCH CATCH TANKS IN TANGLE OF FIRE

PARIS, June 6 (AP)—French "75's" and anti-tank guns caught German tanks in a tangle of fire on the Somme front today in a battle seven miles in depth.

Frenchmen declared that the first results of the second day of fighting in the great German strike at the heart of France were favorable to the French.

German tanks, pushing recklessly as far as they could go, fought through the battlefield and into the open only to be cut off from their support.

Nested French machine-guns and pursuit planes were reported to have successfully held back main German forces, preventing motorcycles and truck-carried infantry from following in the wake of tank spearheads.

Twenty-five Nazi tanks were reported destroyed at Chaulnes. Main German armies, striking both directly at Paris and in the west toward Rouen, still had 70 miles to go to Paris.

GERMANS CLAIM TROOPS GAIN GROUND

BERLIN, June 6 (AP)—The German high command announced today its troops along the Somme front had gained ground "everywhere" in the sweep toward the southwest.

This, however, was the only indication of the course of the great offensive to be given in the communiqué.

It was reported that the total enemy airplane losses during the 24 hours was 143.

Grocery Store Is Completely Modernized

Enlarging the building to care for increasing business, McCracken-Poe grocery store has undergone complete modernization, inside and out. Several feet of floor space and another entrance, making three, have been added.

The building, the one which housed the Paul Poe grocery before Mr. Poe and Stundee McCracken combined their two stores on February 1, will be painted green and trimmed in ivory, a color scheme which will be repeated on the interior.

Outstanding features of the store will be the air conditioning system, fluorescent lighting, and a new air conditioned vegetable rack. A new, more convenient type of price tags has also been installed.

A large neon sign bearing the name, "Clover Farm Store," will dominate the front. The grocery store has recently become a member of this national line of stores, individually owned and operated.

The personnel of the store's force includes: Paul Poe, Standlee McCracken, Neil Moore and Gail Bailey.

U. S. army records show 528,274 regulars and volunteers fought in the Revolutionary war and 4,057,101 in the first World war.

Use Caution in Getting Suntan Warns Doctor

AUSTIN, June 6 (Sp.)—"Use caution in getting your suntan this season," is the advice of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"Under a misconception as to the amount of sun they can take without ill effect, many persons thoughtlessly submit their unprotected faces, backs and legs to over-exposure to sun and suffer painfully, sometimes seriously, as a result," Dr. Cox pointed out.

Restraint in acquiring a suntan is advised. Exposure of ten minutes the first day should be ample, and the amount of time spent in the sun can be increased on a day-to-day basis as the skin becomes accustomed to sunlight.

Before becoming too ardent over prolonged sunbathing, one would do well to remember that many a vacation has been ruined because the blistering and illness-producing power of the sun's rays on tender skin was insufficiently appreciated.

Some persons are susceptible to sunburn, but don't tan; other individuals tan over a longer period.

Most sunburns, according to Dr. Cox, are similar to first-degree burns, but some, as a result of overexposure, reach the second-degree burn.

Advising sun-bathers to "learn their limits" Dr. Cox further pointed out that individual differences may determine the length of time that a person can stay in the sun without being burned.

Most persons are susceptible to sunburn, but don't tan; other individuals tan over a longer period.

SERIAL STORY

AN EYE FOR A GAL BY HARRY HARRISON KROLL

Copyright 1940, NEA Service, Inc.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
ROSSY McAFEE—went to college to play baseball, get an education, and settle a feud.
JUDY TOLLIVAR—daughter of John College's president.
HANNAH SHRIDER—hillbilly who followed Rossy to college.

Illustrated by Carol Johnson.

Hannah threw her arms around his neck, almost choked him with kisses. . . "I had to come to college, Rossy! If you can get educated, I can too!"

Shrider, and she's pretty, too; and I'll bet she's smart as anything. She's coming to college. Dad's just taken her to the girl's cottage. Right after supper you're to go there and see her.
"Land sakes!" Rossy said, feigning surprise the best he could. "What do you know about that?"

DR. TOLLIVAR, returning in a quarter of an hour, said Hannah was fixed up, and then sat down to supper. As soon afterwards as possible Rossy walked through the dark to the cottage which housed the maids and waitresses. Hannah was waiting anxiously in the little parlor, and when Rossy entered she flung her arms around his neck and almost choked him with kisses.

"Rossy!" I just had to come! I had to. I sold my calves and shot and heifers and taken my canning club prize money, and here I am. If you can come to college, I can come too. All right—say something nasty, and I'll smack your ears back!"

"My heavens, Hannah!" Rossy said helplessly, and dropped on the couch. He examined Hannah. She had got out of her baggy coat and into a nice dress, and she looked comely enough. Her hair was honey, like taffy made with honey and thick maple syrup. She had the gaunt fashion of all hill folk—the spare body, the tempered muscles, of those who work.

"You ought not to of come here, Hannah. I mean, without first looking after a room and board and things—why, they might not even let you in college after you got here!"

"Who's to keep me out, Rossy McAfee?"
"W—well, there's rules and regulations—"
"Who's to keep you out, they wouldn't me. I know what's ailing you. You don't want me here. You're ashamed of me already."
"Now, Hannah—"
"Yah," she sneered, "I done heard about you! I got it straight. You come on ahead of time. Put up at the big gun's place. With that Tollivar. Yes, I heard all about it. They set you up among the high-and-mighties. They said that girl was good looking, and she is. They said you'd be took in by their mealy-mouth ways, and here it's less than a week and they were right!"

"21" STUDY CLUB COMMITTEES NAMED

The "21" Study club met at the club house May 28. The president, Mrs. Scotty Lemaster, presided. Mrs. Charlie A. Skipping, the president-elect, named her committees for the coming club year. Mrs. Charles Lee was leader of the program, the topic of which was "International Good Will." Roll call was answered by the members giving "An international trade pact." The Dies investigation and "The Alien Menace." (By Martin Dies) was discussed by Mrs. Chas. A. Skipping. A book review, "The Coming Struggle for Latin America," (by Carlton Beals) was given by Mrs. Charles Lee. A five-minute critic's report was given by wind back up in Hell'n-Damnation and told me and your maw what he's seen!"

"And that was plenty—more than plenty!"

"I'll say it was more than plenty! How you was rooming in the big house with this here Dr. Tollivar. Good and well you know he was the man that killed your paw! Good and well you know this ain't—isn't—nothing but a put-up job on you. Give you a scholarship here—make you sweep up like a girl—put you through college to play ball!"

"Sh-hhhh!" Rossy cautioned. "Mrs. Patterson will hear you—stop your darned yelling—"
"I'll yell all I want to, fool!" Hannah cried. "Cousin Steve Hogg has got sense even if you haven't, and he saw through it in half a minute. This here Dr. Tollivar is the same breed of dogs. He left out right after that ball game. Nobody never seen—saw—him again. He left the country. Stayed gone."

"Now here he is, running this college—come back to the edge of the hills but not in the hills, because he's a coward and a killer, and he knows it! And you stay in his house. Eat at his table. Make eyes at his gal!"

"Ah—hah so that's it—you're jealous—"
"It's a lie. A dirty lie. I ain't jealous. I'm mad. I come down here to save you, that's what you swore when you was a little boy that day you'd have an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth, and all the eye you have now is for that Judy Tollivar and all the tooth you have is for her cooking. Rossy McAfee, I hate you! I despise you!"

She spat at him, and suddenly she slapped him sprawling. (To Be Continued)

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Watkins and two small sons were visiting her father, Rev. W. E. Anderson.

Mrs. Hulon Pullig and daughter, Miss Virginia Pullig, came over Monday evening for a short visit with Mrs. W. H. Powers. They were accompanied by Mrs. Sallie Ervin of Rising Star, who is the mother of Mrs. Pullig and Mrs. Powers.

Mrs. Aaron Henslee and baby, Sandra, were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Powers, a few days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cutting of Wichita Falls were guests of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Lee, and Mr. Lee, a few days last week.

CORN LAID BY "GOD'S ACRE"

The Methodist Missionary society met at the church Monday night with all members present. During the business session it was reported that the corn on what is called "God's Acre," had been donated by Bill Owens, who is 75 years old, but able to work gardens, corn and grain patches.

From the time the ground was broken all labor has been donated. Besides Mr. Owens, others who have donated labor are G. S. Bruce, Charles Lee, Rev. W. E. Anderson, Whit Richards and Frank Genoway.

A letter from Mrs. Edward Snead, district secretary, was read, the main part of which was in regard to the institutions to be sent boxes of supplies are to be sent and items about the conference which was held at Cisco recently.

The "Bulletin" of Missionary News was presented by each member reading an item of news of either foreign or home missionary work. One item of especial interest was in regard to "Information," by Mrs. J. H. Stewart, president emerita of the conference society. After the Bulletin had been discussed and the main items read or discussed, Mrs. W. C. Bedford led the study of the fifth chapter of "Jesus and Social Redemption." Sub-topics were "The Part of the Church," "Man's Faith in God," and "God's Faith in Man." Mrs. Bedford closed the lesson by telling of seeing recently a beautiful Persian prayer rug, and of having been told how the many weavers worked, each his special part, and no one seeing or knowing how the completed rug would look, and comparing the rug to God's plan for humanity.

NEW BOOKS ADDED TO LIBRARY

Mrs. Ada Lee Jackson, librarian at Gorman, came over Monday and began work with Mrs. Maude Moon and Mrs. W. C. Bedford in the high school library, where they are repairing books and magazines, making catalogue cards and checking books out to the people of the town. Among the new books just received are "The Good Earth," by Pearl Buck, "Cimarron," by Edna Ferber, and a number of others. Everyone is invited to come and visit the library during the next six weeks as the Desdemona librarians will then go to Gorman to work part of the summer. No deposit is required, but a small fine will be charged if books are not returned on time.

C. A. Skipping and family visited in Brownwood Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brown and children of Longworth, near Houston, left Monday for their home after several days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frasier. Sunday afternoon the entire family went to a singing at Beetle.

Mrs. W. C. Bedford returned Sunday evening from a few days' visit at Fort Stockton with her friends of many years, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rose, formerly of Cisco. Mrs. Bedford found many changes in the town since her last visit there when she was married there 24 years ago. The town had grown from about 1,200 to 6,500 people. Mr. Rose is manager of a warehouse association, which owns four immense warehouses. In two of them, 2,000 bales of government cotton is stored and the other two are used for alfalfa hay, which was being brought in by hundreds of bales. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rose did everything possible to make Mrs. Bedford's visit one of perfect pleasure. Among the places of interest to which they took her was their irrigated farm, the swimming pool, community house (in which immense cedar trees, hauled from the mountains many years ago, were used for beams, and to an out-of-doors shrine, in a beautiful rovine back of the Catholic church. While seeing the shrine a procession of Mexicans came down and gave in Spanish a very impressive program as a pre-confirmation service.

Mrs. I. N. Williams drove to Eastland on business Wednesday afternoon, and then to Rising Star to meet her sister-in-law, Mrs. M. P. Williams, who had come from Freer with some friends who were coming there. Her son, Max, of Eastland, came down that night and she went home with him, but will visit her many friends here later.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lee and sister, Miss Grace Lemaster, returned Monday from Corpus Christi, where they had visited relatives during their vacation.

At the Methodist church on Sunday night, Rev. W. E. Anderson preached a splendid sermon on love for humanity, and at the close made a plea for donations to be sent to the Red Cross in the war-torn sections of the world. Donations amounted to $10, and more is being received during the week.

Misses Jolene Arnold and Doris Pearl Miles returned Saturday from Denton, where they had been attending college.

Mrs. J. E. Derrick, accompanied by Mrs. Annie Daniels, drove to DeLeon Sunday evening to meet Mrs. Bedford, who had made the trip to Fort Stockton by bus. Mrs. Bedford found a letter on her return, written by a niece, in which she said another niece, Mrs. (Continued on Page Four)

Shall All Serve?

NOW that all have agreed on a vastly-increased armament program, shall all serve equally to bring it into being?

Shall the workman who is asked to work longer hours be balanced by the employer asked to accept shorter profits?

Shall the young man who is asked to give his life be balanced by the older man who is asked to give his money?

Shall the arms burden, in short, designed to protect all, be carried by all in proportion to ability?

That would seem, in principle, to be the democratic way.

AND if it is decided that a far greater number of citizens must become skilled in military matters, how shall those citizens be chosen? Shall they be volunteers, shall they be economic classes (as in the CCC proposals), shall they be college youths, or shall they be a vast and automatic cross-section of the whole people?

These questions are all going to come to the fore with increasing insistence as the

EIGHTY EIGHTH DISTRICT COURT

(Judge Patterson, presiding)
New Filings
The dockets in the district clerk's office show that only one case was filed for hearing in the 88th court during last week:

W. J. Adams vs. Commercial State Bank of Ranger, injunction and damages.

Judgments and Orders
Frankie Wright vs. Elmer Wright, divorce. Judgment for plaintiff annulling her marriage with defendant, but it was the decree of the court that defendant should have the custody and care of the minor children.

Judge Patterson was assigned by Judge Davenport, presiding judge of the eighth supreme judicial district, to preside over the 29th district court at Palo Pinto Wednesday, relieving Judge Sam M. Russell. Judge Davenport was scheduled to preside for Judge Atheson, of the 90th court on the same date to conclude some unfinished litigation. Judge Davenport presided in the Breckenridge district court last Saturday in which Judge Atheson was disqualified, but passed the case pending an adjustment until Wednesday.

Assignments
Judge Patterson has assigned for hearing Monday the cases of Julia Everts vs. the Wichita Fall & Southern railway company, an action for damages. W. D. Ballard et al vs. Western Union Telegraph Co., damages, is also set for hearing next Monday.

Monday, June 17, Judge Patterson will hear the plea of privilege of defendant in the damage case of Bowman vs. the Rainbow Coaches.

NINETY-FIRST DISTRICT COURT

(Judge Davenport, presiding)
No new cases were docketed in the district clerk's office last week for hearing in the 91st court.

Judgments and Orders
Judge Davenport issued the following orders in the 91st court last week:

City of Desdemona vs. W. C. Bedford et al, dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

E. A. Ringold vs. A. E. Garza et al, debt and foreclosure of Ben

Plen in abatement filed by defendant.

Retail Druggist Selling System vs. George D. Nicholson, assignee of Texas Drug Co. Petition of L. H. Flewellen, attorney for J. T. Harness, receiver, for allowance of attorney's fee to him, and an order from the court for the district clerk to pay the same out of impounded moneys in the registry of the court realized from the sale of the assets of the property in the assignee's hands. Approved and the court allowed an attorney's fee of $150, and John F. White, district clerk, was instructed to pay same from the funds in his hands, also to pay court cost already incurred. Receiver's inventory and appraisalment of the assets in litigation was approved by the court.

J. W. Parrish vs. Wm. Campbell, damages. Dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

Virgie Woods vs. Chester Woods, divorce. Transferred to the 88th court on the court's own motion.

Grand Jury Empaneled

Judge Davenport, after empanneling the grand jury for the June term of the 91st court, charged the body briefly on several phases of the criminal laws of Texas for the guidance of the jury's deliberations. Weights and measures statutes, driving while intoxicated, reckless driving, were some of the laws brought to the attention of the jury. Pointing out that many of the liquor cases were classed as misdemeanors and were tried in the county court, Judge Davenport dismissed those phases of the liquor law violations that come before the district courts. Forgery and perjury, arson and murder were other criminal laws considered in his brief charge.

At the conclusion of the charge the jury retired to begin its investigations after electing J. H. Mitchell, of Eastland, foreman. Other members of the jury are L. R. Burnside, Eastland; Nick Galle, Tudor; C. C. Love, Ranger; Robert Rucker, Carbon; J. L. Agnew and Dixon Borges, Rising Star; J. T. Anderson, E. D. David and H. A. Bible, Cisco; Amos Akar, Gorman; Odie Brightwell, Desdemona.

After holding a brief session Monday morning the grand jurors arms program swings from discussion to reality. And not least important of the proposals raised is that now brought straight to the front by the Army and Navy Journal, which in its current number says flatly, "The time has come for the American people to adopt as a fixed policy the principle of universal military training."

The Journal describes our efforts up to now as follows: "We have been putting a toe into the water, and now that the rushing river threatens to swamp our banks, we are shivering and preparing to stick one leg into it. Apparently, we are never willing to learn the lesson of efficient and sufficient defense except at a sickening cost in blood and treasure."

So the service paper recommends stripping and plunging into the preparedness program whole-hog.

THIS proposal is revolutionary, and contrary to every tradition and precedent of American history. We have always avoided like the plague any suggestion of a large standing army, and any suggestion of compulsory service in peace time, though both in the Civil war and the World war we turned to compulsory service. In the World war it was immediately adopted as the only equitable and effective plan.

More will be heard of this proposal. If any such plan is ever placed in effect it must come as the conscious will and decision of the American people.

So enemy planes won't use them for landing fields, England is digging up the fairways on her golf courses. In America, this sort of thing has been going on for years.

Rolie Hemsley, Cleveland catcher who took the cure last winter, still holds forth in big style behind the plate, proving that there can still be punch without the rum.

Paradox of the war is the evacuation of British women to the Isle of Man, and finding the males all gone off to battle.

Among the returning expeditionary forces is discovered a German stowaway. Confused in the melee, he evidently believed he was catching the boat for the big invasion.

On the market comes the new necktie, made of glass fiber. Just the thing for the efficient slayer, who can now strangle and slit the throat with one movement.

Letters From Our Readers

GIVE TILL IT HURTS!

In the World war the slogan was "Save democracy for the world." The slogan now is something like "Save democracy from the world." The majority is on the other side now.

Millions are dying in Europe. Their best men are fighting, not men but machines—juggernauts. Fighting our battles, though we don't realize it. They can't fight their best when they don't know what ill-fate is befalling their loved ones; sickness, destitution, death. Yes, if the last citadels of democracy fall in Europe, a fate worse than death. Slavery, not to mention white slavery. Suppose they were our wives, mothers, daughters? Wouldn't we want something done about it? The Red Cross is asking for a voluntary contribution of $20,000,000.

Because of our sluggishness in waking up to the situation, our government is telling us that we must "fork over" not twenty millions, but five thousand millions.

Folks, give 'till it hurts. Give while your money is still worth something.

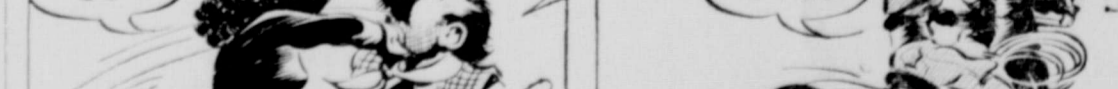

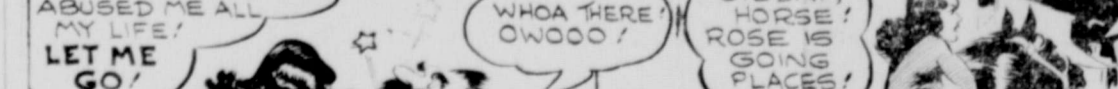

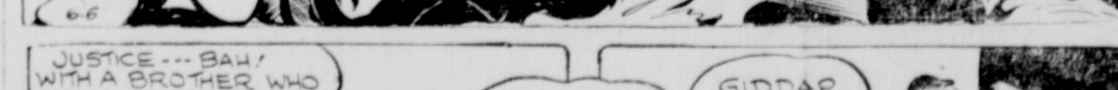

"Lord God of hosts, be with us yet

Lest we forget, lest we FORGET!"

681 Families Make Application for Mattresses

Six hundred and 81 farm families have made application for mattresses in the program to be carried on in this county, it was announced by Miss Ruth Ramey, home demonstration agent.

Most of the number have been approved. A few are being held for more information, and individuals who have received cards to come in should do so at once in order to get all applications approved as early as possible.

This program is for low-income farm families, that is, families making $400 or less gross cash income, a part of which is derived from the farm or farm labor. If you are a bona-fide farm family, you are eligible to take part in this program, and have not made application for mattress, do so at once. June 15 is the deadline for getting the applications in.

The cotton is arriving in the county daily, and when the ticking arrives, the program will start in the work centers over the county. The following communities have been approved as work centers and committees have worked out the equipment needed for the making of the mattresses:

Alameda, Rising Star, Bluff Branch, Dan Horn or Scranton, Morton Valley, Kokomo, Desdemona.

Other centers can be arranged for if the people in the community will make arrangements for buildings and equipment and notify Ruth Ramey, county home demonstration agent. A meeting

Schoolboys Putnam Lose Game

Well, those school boys did putnam in ten innings, 12-3, in the first game. In the second game, they were playing catch-up again, but in the ninth, they broke up the ball game with a long triple to deep field with two on.

Senior Youth Accidentally Shot on Hunting Trip

WEDNESDAY, June 6 (Sp.)—H. O. JR., of Ranger, was painfully and seriously wounded in an accident in Wiles and Galesburg, Tuesday, when he was accidentally shot through both thighs by a .22-caliber bullet.

According to a version of the accident given by one of the boys on the hunting trip with Woods, Jimmie Houghton shot a bird just as Woods was in front of the rifle. The bullet had first aid equipment, and bled him in the Big Bowl, and Ven White book remained with him. Houghton caught a freight train passing through the canyon, and a booster station and telephone line were broken. Dr. P. M. Kuykendall at hospital in Ranger.

er for Red Front. Those kids mean business and they never give up. It took three pitchers to stop the Putnam attack, but it was done. Warfield pitched well, fanning nine, until he lost control. Morris also lost control and Rosie Qualls finished.

Green was hit for 10 safeties, and was a bit shaky in spots, finally walking in a score in the ninth to tie up the game after two were out. Some of the fans went home, but they won't next time. It is best to see these games out, even after two are out.

This makes Putnam and Red Front in a tie for first league standings and Conoco is third. I wouldn't concede anything until after Friday night's game. Tonight a full evening of entertainment is offered. Red Front meets Recreation promptly at 8. Seranton then meets Putnam. Both are seven-inning games. At 7:40 the base running contest gets underway with the winner to receive a dollar. Two from each team are eligible and will run against time after completing an arduous swing, touching all the bases and finishing home plate. This should be very interesting, as we have some speedy boys in the league.

BEST STRING OF STOCK TO BE SUPPLIED

"The Cisco rodeo will be our big show this year," said Ollie Cox, boss of the Double Heart ranch and premier Texas rodeo impresario, who was here Tuesday with his wife and two children, Billy, 11, and Andrea Lynne, 7, en route from Paris, Texas, to their home near Sweetwater. "It will come on a holiday and we are bringing to it the best line of stock that we can pick from the Double Heart ranch. It will be tough, I can promise you that."

The Cisco rodeo will be held July 3 and 4. Cox has more than 150 Brahmas and 65 ponies from which to choose. Incidentally, he brought ten head of Brahma calves to Cisco last night and turned them over to the Cisco Goat Roping club. The club will rope the calves tonight.

Before playing Paris, Cox held a rodeo at Floydada, Texas, and one at Matador. Both towns acknowledged that they entertained the biggest crowds in their histories for these events.

JOE CLARK IS NEW SEC'Y OF CISCO COFC

The Cisco chamber of commerce directorate Tuesday night elected Joe A. Clark, director of the Cisco recreation project, to the secretaryship of the chamber, effective June 15. Mr. Clark, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lee Clark, will face as his first task, cooperation with the Lake Cisco Amusement company in organizing and conducting the Fourth of July celebration at the lake.

His election ends a month and a half period during which the chamber was without the services of a regular secretary following resignation of P. R. Warwick to accept a position with a private company. Cooperating with the Lake Cisco Amusement company, the board, as in past years, appropriated $50 toward expenses which will be shared with the Amusement company. P. G. Berry,

Manager of the company, said that the program for the celebration is being completed and will be announced shortly.

It includes a bathing revue, appearance of political candidates, including Harry Hines, candidate for governor who has already accepted, and others. Swimming and diving exhibitions will be included as well as other features yet to be announced.

The board heartily approved the project for raising funds to establish a Cisco junior college and called a special meeting of business men to be held at the chamber offices Friday evening at 8 o'clock to make plans for a quick and effective campaign next week.

Junior College Meeting

It was explained that the funds for securing necessary equipment must be raised at once, since the work of organizing the school and preparing it for opening next fall represents a hard task requiring much time and effort. All business men of the city are expected to attend the meeting at which time the campaign will be outlined and the organization for it shaped.

There will be no further opportunity to organize the school after this fall.

Chemurgic Crops

Reports on the planting of chemurgic castor plant and sweet potato test plots were made by T. G. Caudie, who said that 11 castor plots were planted, many of them already up, and 7,500 Triumph sweet potato slips were set out in several projects.

Caudie also told the chamber that the annual FFA encampment would be held at Lake Cisco early in August. Several hundred boys are annually drawn to the lake for those encampments.

Farmer Income Is Down From 1939

AUSTIN, June 6 (Sp.)—Income for Texas farmers during the first four months of this year is 8 per cent under the first third of 1939, the University of Texas bureau of business research reported here today.

Totaling $70,878,000, the drop was due almost entirely to a 33 per cent decline in livestock shipments. University statisticians said. April receipts totaled $23,248,000, compared with $26,869,000 in April last year—a 14 per cent slump. Livestock shipments for the same comparable periods fell off 23.1 per cent.

think that a nation such as the United States, with resources many times greater than those of Germany, with brains and manpower equal to, if not superior, to Germany's, could do once it set its mind to the task of defending itself and its interests at home and abroad! The preparations which the formidable array of fighting power, the vast industrial machine and the enormous resources it could marshal would make the present preparations of the German reich look as insignificant as did those of Poland against the Prussian might.

The answer to our fears is common sense and courage. We can prepare, and we must prepare, not for conquest, but to establish this nation as the rallying point for the best in world culture. We must be impregnable, and we must be able to throw about a refuge world such arms and strength that there will come about us a great confederation of nations and peoples seeking in enlightened government the best ways of life and in alliance the strength to maintain it. Perhaps it is not too far-fetched to envision this country of ours not as the portion of a continent, but as continents!

It will take work. This internal quibbling over hours and wages and social security and all the other issues upon which the political and economic remakers have strummed their soothing lullabies must give place to a universal determination to spend mind and muscle in a great common cause of building an even greater America, a hemisphere, perhaps, vaster in scope and magnitude than any of which mankind has dreamed.

What a mighty prospect Hitler's feeble blitzkriegs, sowing tragedy on Europe's fertile little plains, seem to be driving us toward! And we are afraid of it!

A Paris legend of 150 years standing was shattered by wreckers who raised the canal-boat "Telemaque," sunk in the Seine in the French revolution. They expected to recover some of the treasure of Marie Antoinette. Actually, not one gold coin was found.

Greenland is nearly three times as big as Texas, but has only 17,000 inhabitants. Its capital is Godthaab, population 1,313.

W. E. (Bill) Brown today issued a formal statement of his candidacy for justice of the peace for the Cisco precinct, as follows:

I was connected with Davis-Garner, and John H. Garner for 15 years, with the Cisco Furniture company a number of years, and for the last 10 years, myself and A. D. Starling owned and operated the Home Furniture company. Feeling that I am well known in this precinct, I have nothing to say relative to my character and stability as a citizen. I am a taxpayer in Cisco, and if elected I assure you it will be a court of justice to each and all alike. Your vote and influence will be very much appreciated.

Safety Shorts

From Oil Belt Safety Council

MOTORISTS--

When you take your car to the garage for a regular spring tune-up, don't forget to check up to safety, too.

Tell the mechanic to inspect your tires, lights and brakes, make sure that your headlights are in good condition and that the reflectors are clean and bright. Brakes often get dirty and out of adjustment from the alternate freezing and thawing of winter slush. Get them in tip-top condition.

This message is from the Oil Belt Safety Council.

WAIT A MINUTE, Mrs. Housewife! Don't try to lift the end of that piano. Who do you think you are—the strong lady in a circus?

Take a tip from the Oil Belt Safety Council. Lifting heavy objects while housecleaning this spring can cause serious and permanent back injury. Wait till you get help.

When you do lift anything, bend your knees and take the strain on your legs, not your back.

county must expend 25 per cent of the project price.

By furnishing from two to three trucks each commissioner is given credit on road projects by the WPA for the amount of trucking done in county-owned trucks. This makes up the difference between the actual outlay of cash needed for road projects and the amount the county is able to supply in order to keep the work going, Judge Adamson stated.

All purchases were made upon presentation of sealed bids, and were awarded to lowest bidders for each type of truck, Judge Adamson stated.

Pointing out that the 19 counties composing the council registered a decline of 21 in the number of deaths last year, as compared to 27 for the entire state, Lshell gave credit to the program of the six-year-old Oil Belt Council for this showing.
