Mr. Simpson Is Foot-Loose

Ernest Simpson, Jr., 10-month-old son of Ernest Simpson, former husband of the Duchess of Windsor, seemed foot-loose and care-free after his 3000-mile voyage from England when he recently arrived in New York with other refugees. His parents stayed in England, so young Ernest will live with his aunt.

Sears, Roebuck Order House To Open Friday

Sears, Roebuck and company will formally open their Cisco catalogue order house tomorrow at 9 o'clock with Miss Kathryn Pettit, manager, assisted by Mrs. Francis Little.

The attractively decorated store, with a display of seasonal stock, is located in the Cisco State bank building formerly occupied by Miller-Lauderdale.

A large advertisement in this issue of the Cisco Daily Press calls attention to the opening and the merchandise which may be purchased through the store.

Large numbers of Cisco people visited the store today, the first time it was opened to the public, and many orders taken. The store provides a convenience for Sears, Roebuck and Company customers in this area which did not formerly exist and by means of which they are able to select merchandise with greater satisfaction and obtain better service than ever on delivery.

H. C. Baker, sales promotion manager of the company, is in Cisco to inaugurate the new unit.

Roosevelt Gets 946 On First Ballot

CHICAGO STADIUM, July 18 (AP)—Tally clerks said today this was the official result of the first and only ballot nominating President Roosevelt prior to announcement of the official result:

Roosevelt—946 13-30.
Farley—72 27-30.
Garner—61
Tydings—9 1-2.
Hull 5 2-3.

Rising Star Youth Census Appointee

RISING STAR, July 18, (Sp.)—Billy J. Joyce, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Joyce, Rising Star, recently was notified of his appointment to a place with the United States bureau of the census in Washington, D. C. The younger Joyce is a recent graduate of Texas A. & M. college.

Mrs. John W. Spears of Stone-wall, Oklahoma, is visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Nance.

RECOGNITION OF COLLEGE IS CERTAIN

Requirements for Credits Are Being Met in Full

"We are now in a position to definitely assure the public that the Cisco Junior college, which opens next September as a part of the Cisco public school system, will meet all requirements for affiliation and that students attending the college need have no fears that their work will not receive full recognition," school officials announced today.

Conferences have been held with members of the state examining board and requirements for affiliation have been definitely met.

Eight solicitors are now at work in school districts outside Cisco and in affiliated independent school districts contacting prospective students and the response has been far more encouraging than was expected, it was announced. No campaign has been made in the Cisco district as yet. Solicitation was started in the outlying areas and workers will work toward Cisco.

A vast amount of work is yet to be done before the school is organized. A faculty is to be organized, a library bought, laboratory and other equipment purchased and numerous other details to be attended to. Work has already started on this, and the college will be ready to open coincident with the opening of the rest of the public school system in September.

Bus transportation is available to all students in the Cisco and affiliated school areas. Tuition rate per semester is $45 or $90 a term, payable monthly.

Swiss Are Worried About Their Tea

BERNE, July 18, (AP)—Swiss authorities are encouraging citizens to grow their own "ersatz" tea.

With overseas communications getting more difficult, it is not certain how long the Swiss will be able to get tea from Ceylon and China.

Consequently the Swiss Office for War Provisioning has appealed to all gardeners to gather the leaves of blackberries, strawberries, mint and lime-tree blossoms so they may be used as substitutes for tea.

O'Brien to Speak To Brotherhood

Rev. Dick O'Brien will speak at the East Cisco Baptist church brotherhood meeting Friday night, July 19, at 8:15 o'clock, where a special program will be presented.

The congregation, and the committee on program, extend a cordial invitation to Cisco people to attend the meeting.

Kentucky Belle Hadn't Time to Age

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 17, (AP)—A soldier and his 19-year-old fiancée asked Deputy Clerk Walter Albers for a marriage license, but Albers turned them down. The girl would have to have her parents' consent, he said.

A couple hours later the soldier reappeared.

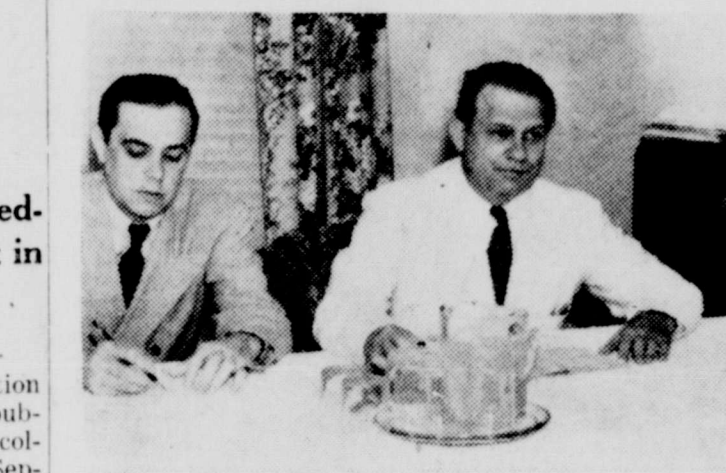

"What, you here again?" exclaimed Albers.

"Yes, but it's a different girl this time."

"Nothing doing," said the observant Albers. "She's still the 19-year-old who was here this morning."

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Dickenson left Monday of this week for a vacation in Corpus Christi and other points of interest.

PEANUT ASS'N TO MEET JULY 22 AT GORMAN

At least 300 peanut growers from Eastland county are expected to attend the annual membership meeting of the Southwestern Peanut Growers association at Gorman on Monday, July 22, according to an announcement by Elmo V. Cook, county agent. The meeting, the third annual one of its kind, is being held for the purposes of electing directors of the association for 1940 and to get timely information on new developments in growing and marketing peanuts, according to Mr. Dick Weekes, manager of the association, who announces that at least 500 growers from all peanut growing areas of Texas and Oklahoma are expected to attend.

In addition to the election of directors an interesting and educational program is planned, and talks will be made by C. E. Bowles, cooperative marketing specialist, A. & M. extension service; M. K. Thornton, Jr., extension agricultural chemist; C. M. Evans, regional director, farm service administration; Sterling Evans, president of Houston Bank for Cooperatives; W. I. Glass and J. A. Scofield, extension district agents, and other representatives of the A & M college extension service, Farm Security administration, and cooperating agencies.

Mr. Bowles, who assisted in organizing the Southwestern Peanut Growers association in 1937, will talk on "The Progress of Farmers' Cooperatives in Texas." Mr. Thornton will bring the group timely information on "Soils and Fertilizers for Peanut Growing." C. M. Evans and Sterling Evans will tell how their organizations can further cooperate with the peanut growers' organization and other farmers' cooperatives. During the noon hour an inspection tour will be made of the new structures and construction work of the Association consisting of a brick office, two large sheet iron warehouses, and a fertilizer mixing plant.

Others invited

County agricultural agents and peanut growers, together with district agents representing those sections of the state, have been invited from the following counties to attend this meeting: Anderson, Angelina, Atascosa, Bastrop, Bexar, Brazos, Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Comanche, Cooke, Delta, Denton, DeWitt, Eastland, Erath, Fannin, Fort Bend, Frio, Garza, Gillespie, Grayson, Guadalupe, Harris, Haskell, Henderson, Hood, Jones, Karnes, Lamar, LaSalle, Lavaca, Lee, Lubbock, Mason, Montague, Nacogdoches, Palo Pinto, Parker, Red River, Rusk, Sabino, San Augustine, Shelby, Smith, Stephens, Stonewall, Tarrant, Taylor, Waller, Wharton, Wilson, and Wise.

The present board of directors of the Southwestern Peanut Growers association is composed of Conrad Schaefer, Rising Star; T. D. Robinett, De Leon; J. D. Sargent, Tolar; R. B. Alexander, Weather-

Candidates For Congress Have Heavy Schedules

Congressional candidates confronted busy speaking schedules today as the last week of the first primary campaign draws near.

Otis (Oat) Miller of Anson, whose supporters gather here tonight to map strategy for the final week, was in Cross Plains today attending the Old Settlers reunion. He was to speak there this afternoon.

Tonight he will be in Cisco for the general committee meeting of his supporters at the Laguna and tomorrow he will go to Buffalo Gap for the Old Settlers reunion there. Friday night he will attend the Miller for Congress rally on the federal court house lawn at Abilene. Saturday he will speak at Ranger at 2 and Breckenridge at 3:15 and at Gorman at 8:30.

Sam Russell of Stephenville, also a candidate for congress from the 17th political district, announced the following itinerary for the final week of the first primary campaign:

Saturday, July 20: Carbon, 10 a. m.; Hamilton, 3 p. m.; Gustine, 4:30 p. m. and Gorman, 8:30 p. m.
Monday, July 22: Cisco, 3 p. m.; Baird, 4:30 p. m.; Abilene, 8:30 p. m.

Tuesday, July 23: Blackwell, 10 a. m.; Roscoe, 3 p. m.; Sweetwater, 8 p. m.

Wednesday, July 24: Moran, 10 a. m.; Albany, 3 p. m.; Leuders, 4:30 p. m.; Stamford, 8:30 p. m.

Thursday, July 25: Caddo, 10 a. m.; Ranger, 3 p. m.; Strawn, 4:30 p. m.; Mineral Wells, 8:30 p. m.

Friday, July 26: Indian Gap, 3 p. m.; Lamkin, 4:30 p. m.; Comanche, 8:30 p. m.

Clark W. Roberts, program chairman, was in charge of the program for the luncheon. Dr. Shelton's address and the solo by Mr. Patterson provided one of the best luncheon periods the club has enjoyed in months, members said.

The two introduced by the Rev. Clark W. Lambert, former Cisco pastor, J. A. Rix of Fort Worth, West Texas chamber of commerce official, was also a guest.

The nomination, voted a full day ahead of schedule, followed convention sessions which saw numerous speakers, from the very start, delivering what were virtually nominating speeches for the chief executive.

It all reached its first climax last night, when—after the president's message that he was not a "candidate"—had been relayed to the delegates by Senator Alben Barkley, the convention saw a roaring fifty-minute demonstration whose dominant theme was the repeated outcry: "We want Roosevelt."

"Pride" In New Deal

The convention plunged into the business of nominating Roosevelt for a third term immediately after adopting a party platform which expressed "pride" in the new deal record and promised non-involvement in foreign wars.

The platform, approved after a rousing row within the resolutions committee on the question of assistance to Great Britain, was whooped through on a roaring

THIRD TERM CHOICE IS ON FIRST BALLOT

No Doubt That President Will Accept Nomination

CHICAGO STADIUM, July 18 (AP)—Discarding an ancient tradition, the democratic national convention noisily nominated Franklin D. Roosevelt for a third term as president of the United States early today—and did it by acclamation.

A smashing majority of the convention's 1,100 votes had been cast for the president, to the clamor of the delegates and the jammed galleries. Before the result could be announced, James A. Farley, once a third term foe, a candidate himself, announced his support for the ticket, and moved that the rules be suspended and the president be acclaimed the party's nominee.

"I am grateful to those delegates to this convention who voted for me and to those delegates who would have voted for me if they had not been otherwise pledged," a smiling Farley told the delegates.

"I want this great convention of democrats to know that I will give that same support to the nominees of this convention."

Farley's motion was seconded by Senator Walsh of Massachusetts and Senator Tydings of Maryland. Rep. Rayburn of Texas already had turned Texas' 46 votes, from Vice President Garner to Mr. Roosevelt.

Evidence of Opposition

Despite the climactic unanimity there was evidence of a memory of opposition to the third term issue and the bitter row it had stirred within the party.

This antagonism was perhaps epitomized in the slight but indomitable figure of Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, dramatically denouncing the third term idea as opposed to the party's long standing principles, and grimly and firmly standing his ground against a roaring outburst of boos and derision. Glass nominated Farley.

There remained of course the question of President Roosevelt's acceptance of the nomination.

None of Mr. Roosevelt's leading representatives here, however, entertained the slightest doubt that he would refuse to be the 1940 standard-bearer.

A report, given some credence, had it that the chief executive would address the convention by telephone or radio from Washington tonight. Obviously, the situation called for some word from him. His friends said definitely he would not come to Chicago to accept in person.

The nomination, voted a full day ahead of schedule, followed convention sessions which saw numerous speakers, from the very start, delivering what were virtually nominating speeches for the chief executive.

SERIAL STORY FLYING CO-ED

BY MARY KINNAVEY MOORE

COPYRIGHT 1940

CAST OF CHARACTERS
ANNE NORRIS—wealthy college student, looking for thrills, enrolls in CAA flying course.
GEORGETTE PARKER—Anne's friend. Learning to fly is a serious business with her.
TONY SCOTT—college playboy, son of a gangster, envies Anne's social position.
CAPTAIN DICK DOUGLAS—instructor of the student flying course at Midland University.

YESTERDAY: Saved from death by Dick's quick action, Anne is angered when the instructor rebukes her for carelessness. She leaves with Tony as Dick and Georgette take off. Tony begs Anne to drive to North Point to marry him. She agrees, gets her clothes from the sorority house, leaving a note for Georgette. In a few minutes, Anne is on her way to North Point and her wedding.

CHAPTER III
So this was what real flying was like, Georgette thought happily as she and Captain Douglas landed. It was true that she had spent weeks learning any number of things about flying, but most of her instruction periods had been on ground work.

She had heard lectures on clouds and cloud formations and what they indicated as to weather conditions. She had read books on the theory of flight, the history of flying, and she had thought of instruments until she saw them in her sleep. But this learning to handle the controls of the ship herself and putting it through various maneuvers was different. It was real. It was thrilling.

"You'll uphold the family's flying honor," Dick Douglas told her. "How'd you like it?"
She grinned back at him. "You might have known I'd be crazy about it."
"I suspected it," Dick told her. He frowned, and added, "Too bad your red-headed friend quit on us."

Georgette's face clouded. "She hasn't really quit," she protested. "Anne's quick-tempered, and she's impulsive, but she'll be out here with me tomorrow."
"Well, she'll have another chance," the tall, fair-haired pilot said quietly. "But you might tell her this is no place for prima donnas."
"Don't worry about Anne," Georgette said confidently.

As she drove away from the airport, however, she felt a little less sure. That combination of quick temper and impulsiveness was always leading Anne into mistakes. Georgette only hoped it would never lead her into a serious one.

Driving back toward Midland University, however, she forgot Anne's recent behavior in the glow of enthusiasm over flying. That sudden feeling of exhilaration when Dick has taken his hands off the stick, his feet off the rudders, and she had realized that she herself was flying! It was a moment she would never forget. She could hardly wait to tell Anne all about it.

Her dark eyes shining, she hurried into the house and up the stairs, bursting into their room—and stopped short.
The room looked as though a cyclone had passed through it. A drawer of Anne's dresser was half open, filmy stockings and lingerie littered the bed, a discarded skirt and sweater—the clothes Anne had worn to the airport—were in the middle of the floor. But Anne was not in the room.

Almost instinctively, the dark-haired girl threw open the closet door. Anne's little traveling case was missing from its accustomed place. Anne's favorite dresses were gone from her hangers.
Georgette sat down on the edge of the bed, half-stunned. Obviously, Anne was gone. What was she to do? Inform the house-mother? No, perhaps it would be best if Anne's disappearance were there by now. If she could only fly. Fly—!

An amazingly short time later she stood earnestly talking with Dick Douglas.
"If you think," he was saying coldly, "that I have time to go chasing after that rattlebrained co-ed and her good-for-nothing young—"
Georgette interrupted him, her voice desperate. "Dick, you must. Anne doesn't know what she's doing. If I could only talk to her, I know she'd change her mind."
"But what can I—"
"Dick, you can get a plane and fly me to North Point in time to stop them." She caught her breath and added, "Can't you realize what the scandal would do to Anne's uncle—Arnold Dwight? It would break his heart."
That decided Dick. "All right, Georgette, I'll do it," he said grimly, "but get this straight, I'm not doing it for your friend Anne. Frankly, I don't think she's worth it. I'm doing it for you and for Arnold Dwight."

"I don't care whom you're doing it for," Georgette said, "but hurry!"
She glanced at her watch. Anne must have driven straight home from the airport, packed hastily, and started on her mad journey. That would have been an hour ago at least, it might have been more. If only she and Dick would be in time!

At that very moment Tony's flashing blue roadster was streaking over the highway toward North Point. Anne huddled beside him. Her stubborn little chin was set and determined, but her lovely face was very pale.
She glanced at Tony. He looked pleased with himself, almost too pleased, she thought. As though conscious of her thoughts, he took one hand from the wheel and began patting her arm with affectionate familiarity.
Almost instinctively she drew a little away from him. At her sudden movement he slowed down

European Exodus Recalls Texas' Runaway Scrape

AUSTIN, July 18.—You can't find any old-timers who'll remember it, but Texas—little more than a century ago—had its own small-scale version of the war-refugee horror Europe is now experiencing.

Historians refer to it as the "Runaway Scrape," a pell-mell flight of Texas settlers that began in early March, 1836, with the Alamo's fall, and didn't stop until Houston's retreating army—barely a day's march behind the refugees—turned and defeated Santa Anna at San Jacinto in late April.

For a graphic description of the mass evacuation, turn with University of Texas librarians to the memoirs of Mrs. Dilue Harris, preserved in the library's Texas collection—the most extensive source of Texas history-in-the-making in existence.

Then eleven years old, Mrs. Harris wrote of this wholesale evacuation as she remembered it. She recalled that her family hid their furniture in a hollow near their home, got their movable things into a cart and then set out for the San Jacinto river, driving oxen with them.

5,000 Refugees

On the west bank of the river, rising from incessant rains, five thousand refugees were gathered, all hoping desperately to get the river between them and the Mexicans before it flooded. "Everyone was trying to cross first," she wrote, "and it was almost a riot."

"Our hardships began at the Trinity," she continued, for there it was the same struggle against the river and the others trying to get across it, and in addition "measles, sore eyes, whooping cough and every disease that man, woman or child is heir to, broke out among us."

During the four days the family fought to cross the flooded Trinity, Mrs. Harris' little sister fell ill, and her mother was weak. The wagons had to be taken apart and floated across the river, "ten miles wide at the mouth."

Out of the flooded swamplands, the family stopped at the town of Liberty to rest. There the sister died. The mother got no better.

By this time it was late April. One day, Mrs. Harris wrote, they heard a dull rumbling at a distance to the west, and her father, who had fought in the War of 1812, recognized the sound of cannon. The rumbling was very brief, so brief that he assumed that the Texans had been quickly overwhelmed.

News of Victory

Again the family fled eastward. A few miles out of Liberty, however, a courier overtook them with the news of the Texan victory at San Jacinto, which made it possible for them to return to their homes.

The return trip was less hazardous than the flight, for the rainy seasons seems to have passed. On the afternoon of April 26, they crossed the battlefield of San Jacinto, where the Texan and Mexican armies were still encamped.

"The dead Mexicans were lying around in every direction," Mrs. Harris wrote. And in leaving, she remembered, "we had to pass among the dead Mexicans, and father pulled one out of the road, so we could get by without driving over the body, since we could not go around it."

In September of the same year, Mrs. Harris attended the convention which elected Houston president of the Republic of Texas. It was her last, for "after that there was too much whisky drunk for ladies to be present," she wrote.

State's Rights

1. I am in favor of the preservation of state's rights. The practice of bartering away our state's rights for Federal money grants must be stopped. The freedom and happiness of a people in a democracy are best secured and safe-guarded by the retention of all the rights possible in the hands of the government nearest to the lives of the people. The further away from the people the rights of the people go, the less sacred they are regarded.

2. I am opposed to the creation and maintenance of conditions more favorable to one section of our nation than to another. Our freight rates, tariffs, and Federal trade regulations must be overhauled to give every section of our nation equal opportunity for industrial development.

3. I am opposed to the further extension of Federal control over the lives and business interests of the American people except where further Federal police or government regulation is absolutely necessary to protect the public from evils with which our state and local governments cannot cope.

4. I am in favor of "nipping in the bud" the insidious practice of one state erecting "business barriers" against a sister state, such as Wisconsin, Minnesota and the dairying states of the Middlewest have sought to erect against the Southern states marketing vegetable oil compounds, particularly cotton oil fats and shortenings, in competition with butter. Unless our states tear down the barriers already erected and keep open the channels of trade between the states, we run the risk of destroying the common union that is the very bulwark and strength of the nation.

Farm Program

5. Since the chief interests of the 12 counties composing the 17th congressional district are mainly oil, livestock and cotton, I am in favor of doing all that can possibly be done to further the interests of the oil business, the cattle, sheep and goat businesses, and the farming business, asking no special favors that would prove detrimental to other sections of the nation engaged in a like business, but saving no stone unturned to secure every legitimate advantage for the oil man, the livestock man and the farmer of this congressional district.

6. Specifically, I favor overhauling the farm program to prevent what is now taking place under the present farm program, namely, driving off the farms thousands of tenant farmers. This is bad business for the merchant, as it cuts down the number of customers in his trade territory. It swells the relief rolls and adds to the burden of taxation, already too grievous to bear.

I favor revising the methods of cotton allotments so as to prevent the discrimination that now exists against West Texas counties where fertilizer cannot be used to increase production on reduced acreage.

Since maize, hegari and other sorghum grains are better soil builders than either cane or sudan, I favor abolition of the requirement to plant other cane or sudan on soil conserving acreage.

If we can get the U. S. Supreme Court to declare the processing tax constitutional, I am in favor of re-enacting the processing tax bill and paying the farmers a parity price for all their farm products, allowing them to plant their farms in whatever crops they please. This would eliminate the danger we run under controlled production of shortage from poor crops in time of war, if we are forced to go to war.

I am in favor of allowing the farmers of West Texas counties to plant all their land not planted to cotton in feed, since we cannot take the government checks to buy fertilizer and produce more feed on restricted acreage than we did on unrestricted acreage, as is the case where rainfall is plentiful.

Old Age Pensions

7. I am in favor of a safe and sane old age pension policy. However, I am not in favor of building up in the minds of our old people a false hope of securing any more than a just, equitable and adequate old age pension.

I will at all times work untiringly for paying to them regularly and promptly an adequate old age pension. When the rest of our people are preparing to shoulder additional heavy tax burdens to make our army, navy and air force strong enough to guarantee national safety, I know that our old people would not ask more than an adequate old age pension.

8. I am opposed to our country sending men to fight Europe's wars, but I favor sending England and her allies every material aid possible in the greatest amounts and at the earliest moment possible so long as it is consistent with the usages of international law.

However, I am not in favor of sacrificing our national honor in order to avoid war. Both my Grandfathers and my father ahead of me fought to preserve this nation of ours. I served in the World war, and I am not too old but what I could go again if my country called me. I believe we can stay out of war, and I am in favor of such a policy, provided we can do so without losing our self respect and our national honor.

I am in favor of building up

on this western hemisphere a sisterhood of nations that can make the rights of democracy inviolate in the face of old-world dictatorships.

9. It is my firm conviction that what this country needs more than anything else is a good case of religion and a job to work at. If I am elected to congress, I shall seek to foster the kind of government that makes honest men and women of our people — not the kind of government that teaches its citizenship to seek to get something for nothing.

Loose Spending

10. I am opposed to the vicious doctrine now in vogue in our country that as long as the government is running a gravy train every town and community should sidetrack as many cars of gravy as it possibly can. This false theory of spending will bankrupt any nation. A nation is nothing more than an aggregation of individuals. An aggregation of individuals cannot violate the economic laws any more than a single individual can without paying the penalty.

I am in favor of the Federal government maintaining every service that is feasible and that pays real dividends, such as the CCC camps, soil and water conservation facilities, the farm program, yard sticks to measure public service utilities by, and all such dividend paying services. However, I am strictly opposed to pouring money into swimming pools, golf courses, and such like folderois. Not many people play golf as compared to the taxpayers soaked for such government luxuries, and a swimming pool is used about three months out of the year.

I am in favor of taking such funes, if they are to be spent anyhow, and putting them into the funds now being used to buy farms for jobless people—loans, if you please, that will be paid back.

American Loyalty

11. I have always held to the view that I owed my government my loyalty, my allegiance, and my best effort. I have never held to the view that my government owed me anything but police protection and the preservation of my rights and liberties.

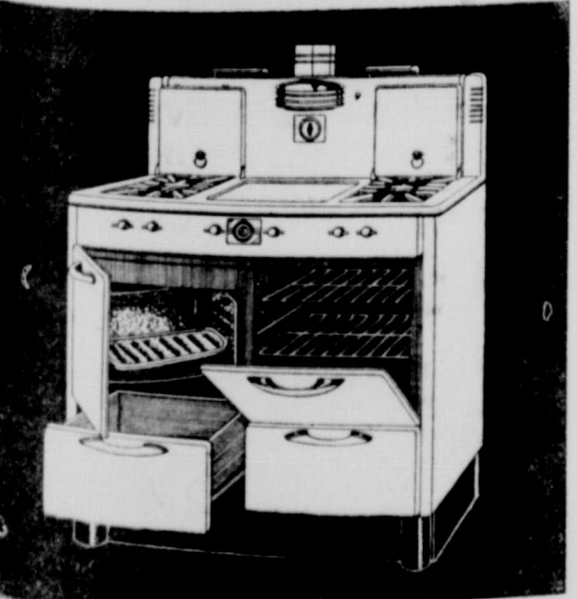

I am opposed to asking too much of the government and giving too little in return.

I am opposed to the government doing for its citizenship what its citizenship can and should do for itself. However, I am in favor of the government affording the citizen an opportunity to do for himself. Too much paternalism from the government, like too much credit from the bank, is not a good thing.

I do not believe a nation, any

Planning and the Bomber

THE bombing airplane has done a lot of things to modern life.

While social scientists and reform dreamers tossed in the air their bubbles of planning, the bomber was remaking the world.

Let us see what has been going on in Chungking.

CHUNGKING is the new capital of China.

A vast inchoate nation was driven from its old capitals and forced under the pressure of a terrible three-year war to remake itself literally under fire.

The Chinese, ingenious to a high degree, began to build. A vast underground labyrinth was cut out of the solid rock on which Chungking sat. Dugouts for 3,000,000 people have been gradually tunneled out. Newspaper plants, radio stations, even a motion picture studio, have now been installed far underground.

That is a natural development from the lessons of Europe. But China has had a longer period to consider, and a severer lesson. So in building the new city of Chungking, a plan is being followed. The city is not being built in a single cluster, but in some 40 widely-separated units. Not all the government buildings and facilities will be together, easy targets for even indiscriminate bombing.

Instead, one group is here. Another will be at quite a distance, all connected with good roads and transportation, and all built especially for lowest visibility from the air. Many are off the main and known roads, and all have dugouts.

ONE can only admire the ingenuity of the Chinese. They have learned in a hard school, but they have learned.

The highly-concentrated groups in which British and French industrial plants grew up, were a handicap to them.

The United States, with its vast area, has a chance to avoid this difficulty. New plants of strategic value should be built (and to some extent they are) in diverse areas and sections of the country. In this way, no sudden raid can paralyze all industrial resistance.

City and regional planners today have a new element to consider in guiding the development of our physical surroundings. It is that nullifier of plans, the bomber.

In Mexico, the law prohibits the inebriate from marrying. A sound provision, for nothing is more disconcerting than coming to and finding that lady you were seen with last night is now your wife.

Project to Inaugurate New Series

At 8 p. m. Wednesday, the WPA recreation project will start a series of Wednesday night programs to be held at the Fee Esta Park. The park will be open tomorrow night and each following Wednesday night from 8 until 10 p. m.

Various type of games will be offered by the recreation directors in charge. A particularly interesting musical program is being planned for tomorrow night which will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

Whether you want to come and participate in some activity or merely desire to listen to the music, a cordial invitation to attend is extended.

Among the different activities about me, you wouldn't say such a thing," he said, his voice almost sulky.

"But—to run away like this—" "You said you would. You said you'd marry me today. You aren't going to go back on your word are you?"

"No—" "I didn't think you would." His voice was warmly caressing.

TONY had been right in appealing to Anne's stubbornness. Yes, she'd said she would marry him that very day, and now she meant to go through with it.

At the same time, she had begun to feel uncomfortably frightened. If only she had a little more time to think! She told herself with a grim determination that she loved Tony Scott and that this runaway marriage was a glorious and romantic adventure.

Any way, there was nothing that could stop the marriage now. The only person who knew of it was Georgette. She was probably just finding the note, and even if Georgette decided to follow her to North Point, she would arrive too late to interfere.

A road sign flashed by "North Point, 3 miles." Anne glanced at her watch, suddenly very lonely and cold and frightened. Within the hour, she'd be Tony Scott's wife!

"What is it, Sweetheart?" "Tony, don't you think—perhaps were being hasty?" She drew a quick breath. "Perhaps we ought to wait—"

STATE MEET TO PROTEST $3.50 DEMAND

A resolution calling a statewide meeting at Fort Worth to petition congress to maintain WPA sewing room support on its present basis was passed at a regional meeting of county judges, commissioners and city officials representing 14 counties in 88th district court-room at Eastland Monday. The meeting was held at 10 o'clock.

Protest of a regulation requiring sponsors to put up $3.50 per month for each sewing room client to be used in the purchase of textiles was approved.

County Judge W. S. Adamson called the regional meeting at the instance of a meeting of county and city officials recently.

Eastland county has agreed to finance sewing room operation for one month on the basis of $3.50 per person, but it cannot do so longer, it was pointed out.

The meeting Monday declared that unless the new regulation is rescinded and sewing room operation maintained on present basis it cannot be supported.

The American Medical Directory lists 195,194 physicians in its latest edition, noting increases for 38 states and the district of Columbia.

Red Front Boys Do Retreat in Reverse to Win

(By Soft Ball Reporter)

Well my goodness, if it isn't just like my pappy said, "when you're behind my son, just keep scrapping with them, and you'll get em in the end." I tell you my Dad was a sage in such sport articles. The Red Front school boys did just this to Conoco last night 10 to 8.

Smitty was forced out of active combat for a rest cure (thin Timiney) and even Y. J. Rylee couldn't stop the last inning rally of those Loboos. They went into the 9th trailing 3 to 8 but got hits, coupled with two walks to score 7 runs. Dear readers (if any) they then went to field and with sensational fielding held tight.

Umpire Jackson and White were called upon to decide several close bases loaded with nobody out. He proceeded to fan 3 straight men to retire the side.

This included Bennie, Blackburn, and Foy, all three of whom are good hitters. That's pitching in any language including dog latin. Childers took over in the 6th and finished in fine shape.

(Shirley) Wilson pitched grand ball until the 9th but lost control of his overhand ball then Y. J. Rylee finished but the Loboos just wouldn't be stopped. The contrary kids just won't give up. Don't kid yourself, Conoco didn't either (pronounced either). Smitty admitted, like the honest Abe he is, and contested the decisions. Nobody was hurt in the ensuing scuffles except a few raw feelings which if properly treated, should respond to treatment without serious complications. Again may I suggest that all fans give the competent umpires a small scumshun of pity which surely they won't beg for but probably would appreciate.

Young George warfield pitched a whale of a game for six innings in the 1st inning, he found the

that he really had his boys turned loose full steam.

The fielding brilliance must go to the quiet and say nothing, Wadie Bennie who caught everything every where to personally account for 10 putouts as rover. He lost his cap on several dashes to far places but recovered quickly to hide his hair which is doing a disappearing act. (P.S.) he always caught the ball.

Tonight the all stars go to Breckenridge for a game there with a leading team. Players should be at Smitty's by 6:00 for cars. Bailey from Scranton will pitch for Cisco backed by Claud Wilson.

If it is a better game than last night's, it will be a whiz dinger.

I would like for it to be understood that Saturday night's program of Negro entertainment is not sponsored by the Lions club or the agreed upon by those mentioned, thus to comment. The program Saturday will undoubtedly be worth the admission asked. Those mentioned will assist, however, to help make it a success.

CAPITAL CORRECTION

SIoux FALLS, S. D., July 18 (AP)—Vernon Crangle wrote an indignant letter when a local newspaper's vital statistics column announced the birth of a girl to the Crangles. Crangle demanded—and got—a correction in capital letters, like this: "IT'S A BOY!"

You won't be sorry when you vote for PIERCE BROOKS for Railroad Commissioner. Po. Adv.

Health Officer Urges Citizens Fight Pests

An appeal to the citizens to cooperate in keeping Cisco free of mosquitoes was issued Saturday by Dr. W. P. Lee, city health officer. He urged:

"In accordance with a request from the city commission, I again urge the citizens to help keep our town free of flies and mosquitoes.

"Without stagnant water, there will be no mosquitoes. The wigglers that hatch into mosquitoes live in stagnant water, and the mosquitoes never roam far from where they hatch.

"During the day they harbor in grass and weeds, coming out for food in the cool of the evening.

"Flies breed in manure, garbage, decaying matter and other filth. If you are annoyed by these pests, look for the cause and remove it.

"Scrub your premises and those of your neighbors for the cause is not far away.

"To eliminate mosquitoes, empty all receptacles that can hold even a little water. If the water cannot be emptied, pour a little oil on it. Cut the weeds and tall grass in which they hide.

"To eliminate flies, keep the premises free of manure and decaying matter and see that garbage cans are covered.

"If we will all do these things, we will be able to enjoy our lawns and porches without being annoyed by these pests."

Rainfall's A Washout for Water Profits

MILWAUKEE, July 18 (AP)—The city waterworks is complaining that business is poor. Rains in the first six months of 1936 reduced lawn sprinkling so much that waterworks revenues were $65,000 less than for the same period last year.

Mrs. E. N. Noble of Minneapolis, Minn., was named U.S. croquet champion in 1935.

Putnam Expects Ship 20 Carloads of Wheat

PUTNAM, July 18 (Sp.)—

Combining and threshing is in full blast and wheat coming in at a rapid rate. There had been shipped from Putnam to Saturday night ten cars. Two or three more on the track loading. Mr. Davis states that he thinks the town will ship twenty or more cars before the season is over. Very few oats threshed and none being offered for sale. The price being paid for wheat Saturday was 61 cents basis for the nice dry clean wheat weighing 59 pounds or better. Wheat is testing from 55 to about 63 pounds per bushel.

One Success Formula: Juleps And Gen. Lee

RICHMOND, Va., July 18 (AP)—

Rush, a negro butler at Richmond's Commonwealth club for 43 years, isn't thinking of retiring, but he's training a protegee. Two essentials are to be taught—

Old People to Saturday, July

J. M. Taylor, ex-

old people of the county had a meeting of the county court today Saturday afternoon, 3:30 for the purpose of electing a county chairman.

"The election of a chairman and the discussion we think will serve the public interest will be a public business," said "We cordially invite people and middle to attend this session. It will be a welcome for all citizens, county residents given an opportunity for the completion of program."

manufacture, said that yams were already being used in both Germany and Japan for the manufacture of nitro-starch or shattering explosives such as hand grenades.

"So far, we in America have been thinking in terms of machines in our national defense program, whereas we need to think in terms of raw materials," Wilson declared.

Wilson stated that the South could play an important part in American production of cellulose for both war and peace-time consumption.

Garrett Reviews Federal Funds to Eastland County

The following statement was issued today by Cong. Clyde L. Garrett at Washington: "In view of the fact that I am receiving many requests from my constituents concerning the amount of federal funds which have been allotted our district, through the PWA and WPA programs, during the 3 1-2 years that I have been in congress, I am pleased to supply this information.

Name "Dixie" Traced To Pre-War Banknote

HOUSTON, July 18 (AP)—A New Orleans bank note may have been responsible for the term "Dixie," applied to the land below the Mason-Dixon line.

word "Ten" and the corresponding French word, "Dix."

Southerners called the bills "Dixies." In those days, states issued their own money. The New Orleans bank was prosperous and its notes circulated widely throughout the south, which came to be known as the land of the "Dixies," and finally "Dixieland."

Qualls Makes Plea for Cisco Vote As Commissioner

L. H. Qualls, candidate for county commissioner for precinct 4, who is making this, his third race, is making a last appeal for the vote of Cisco and the rural communities to elect him as a Cisco representative on the commissioners court.

"It was formerly said that 'Virginia was the mother state of presidents.' It may be said today that Dothan is the mother of county commissioners," Qualls said. "For the past eight years the commissioner has come from the Dothan community, and the present incumbent is a candidate for his fifth term to succeed himself. Besides my candidacy, there are two others—both are residents of that community, and are my friends, and all three are good men."

"I believe in rotating the county and precinct offices. I also believe in one community monopolizing the office of county commissioner. It seems to me that Cisco's interests demands that one of its citizens should be elected at least once every eight years."

Expect Cisco Support
There are many reasons why Cisco should get solidly behind my candidacy. I am, and have been for the past 16 years, a resident of Cisco. I have spent my money with Cisco merchants; have supported every progressive movement Cisco has sponsored; have educated my children in Cisco schools, and have tried to make myself a useful citizen of Cisco. Five of my children have married into Cisco families, and I am more thoughtfully identified with the interests of Cisco than any other candidate for this office.

"That I am qualified, both by ability and experience, I believe no one will deny. I believe most people who know me will say that my judgment is good on determining what is the best for the county, and am a capable business man, able to determine what and how work for the county must be, and what it should cost. I have a fair idea of properly values that will assist the board of equalization in establishing values for tax purposes so it will not be necessary to readjust valuations at every session of the court."

"I have had the usual experience in road construction of the average farmer, and can estimate the cost and proper construction of highways of the county that may come under my administration."

Rotation of Employees
"If and when I am your county commissioner it will not be my policy to keep one set of people on the payroll at all times, while others just as deserving are unemployed. Part time for an unemployed person is better than no work, so it will be my policy to give as many persons employment as possible. If the commissioner has jobs that will keep 25 men at work full time, it will give employment to 50 men on one-half time. The same money will give a living support to 50 persons that may be expended to give good wages to 25. Let's give as many unemployed a chance to live as we can.

"By economy and industry I own affairs, and believe I can, by the same economy as your commissioner, save money for the taxpayers."

"I am and have been all of my life identified with farming interests; understand the farmers' problems, and can contribute to the commissioners court in conducting the county affairs in an economic manner."

"So, I am appealing to the farmer, mechanic and cattleman to give me their support July 27. Especially am I appealing to the people of Cisco to support my candidacy that Cisco may have one representative on the court. I am making this appeal to Cisco especially for the reason I am the only candidate thoroughly identified with the interests of Cisco."

"I am making you the promise, if I am elected your commissioner, it shall be my purpose to make you a commissioner of whom you will never be ashamed, but feel that I can and will serve you with credit to the county and honor to myself."

"Thanking you for your support in advance, and appreciating your votes in previous elections, I am

"Sincerely,
"L. H. QUALLS,
"Candidate for County Commissioner, Precinct No. 4." (Pol. Adv.)

ford, J. E. Brite, Pleasanton; and G. R. Sanders, Pearsall. A delegate has been elected from the Harris-Waller-Fort Bend area to succeed Mr. Sanders, whose term of office expires this year, and a meeting is being called for this week to elect a delegate to serve as director for the Hood-Somervell-Tarrant-Parker area. The term of the present director from that area, Mr. Sargent, also expires this year. These delegates will be confirmed at the annual meeting as directors and will serve during the ensuing three years.

The meeting will begin at 10 a. m. and will be held at the New Deal theatre, Gorman. Those attending have been assured a comfortable meeting place, as the theatre is air-conditioned. During the noon hour the association will serve a barbecue dinner in one of the Association's new warehouses which has been built in Gorman.

The meeting is open to nut growers, and members marketed through the Association last year are urged to attend.

It's Clean

Users Say:

"...I've had my electric range only a short time... but never before have I had such perfect results. My kitchen is several degrees cooler than in previous summers and I've done less scrubbing than ever before in my life!"—MRS. W. E. HARDIN, Clarendon.

"My electric range is so easy to clean, so dependable, and, above all, so very safe. It's the last word in cooking economy."—MRS. T. B. KLEPPER, Crowell.

"I like my new electric range even better than my old one. It makes my kitchen look nicer... and it cooks faster. Then, too, I like the flat, easily cleaned surface which is so convenient for holding dishes until ready to serve."—MRS. T. C. PRICE, Bronte.

"...Since getting our electric range, I have to clean less than I ever did before in my kitchen work. It is always ready to use—just flip a switch. I find it quite economical and I know that I am doing the best and easiest cooking I have ever done."—MRS. AUSTIN A. DOAK, Vernon.
