FIRST FALL FAIR DRAWS LARGE CROWDS

Through the Editor's Spectacles

By GEORGE

Sitting in the great sunken bowl of steel and concrete which is the Sweetwater high school stadium at Sweetwater Friday night while watching the Cisco Lobos play an exciting game from Mustangs, it was natural to compare the facilities provided by the Nolan county for its sports events with which Cisco has. The Sweetwater stadium would credit to a college. Built in the shape of the favored of its present seating capacity of 9,000 can be more than doubled by the construction of additional seats on the unoccupied slopes. Its arrangement, arrangement and arrangements are equal to those of the larger colleges.

It is, of course, unreasonable to expect that Cisco should provide equal facilities for its high school and college teams. It is presumed that the college will organize athletic teams. The Sweetwater stadium cost thousands of dollars and its accommodations are of all proportion to the needs of this community.

What we can provide what is needed. Scranton, a small community, did so in building a gymnasium and auditorium that is excellent. It has a seat for basket ball games at least 500 people, when the gymnasium is used for seating students, three times as many as are placed there. A stage, dressing rooms which can be used for other community and school purposes also provided.

Cisco obviously needs a comparable structure. We entirely without suitable auditorium and gymnasium facilities. Our churches, city and high school serve to agree, but these do not provide the accommodations for general community meetings and the entertainment of district and regional sports events which might attract if we had means of entertaining properly.

Such a building would enable Cisco to become a center for the holding of these events from over a wide area.

Nazis Show Might to Japs

On the eve of the signing of the German-Japanese-Italian military pact, German officers escorted high-ranking Japanese military men on a tour of the Maginot line which was captured by the nazis during the Battle of France.

MEETING OF BUSINESS MEN IS SUMMONED

A meeting of Cisco business men has been called for Monday evening at 7:30 at the chamber of commerce to consider plans for a trade extension program worked out by a special committee headed by B. M. Holland.

Nazi Bombers Strike London at Mid-Morning

LONDON, Sept. 28 (AP)—German bombers struck at London again Saturday in a mid-morning raid after a furious overnight assault that wound up three successive weeks of relentless air raids on the British capital.

RAP fighter planes immediately swarmed up after a short time Londoners emerged from their shelters—ready for another nerve-taut day of intermittent alarms.

The British said the overnight raids against London and towns of England, Scotland and Wales had cost the Germans heavily. A second alarm sent Londoners to shelters Saturday afternoon just as thousands were making a week-end exodus to get restful sleep in the country.

Japs Blame U.S. As Responsible For New Pact

TOKIO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Japanese reaction to the new Rome-Berlin-Tokyo pact crystallized Saturday in the view that the United States was mainly responsible for conclusion of the treaty through consistent and unflinching opposition to Japanese policies in the last nine years.

"In short," a highly placed Japanese source told the Associated Press, "the attitude of the United States forced Japan to take steps. We have done so."

"Japan's friendship need never have been alienated," he declared, "particularly since America has neither economic nor strategic considerations of any importance in the far east. We were unable to understand America's concern over areas of the world where America's interests hardly exist."

This source said private conversations between former Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita and United States Ambassador Joseph C. Grew before the fall of the Yonai government last July constituted the "last attempt" to resolve American-Japanese problems on that basis.

INSPECTOR PRAISES NEW CISCO SCHOOL

Congratulations on the successful opening of the Cisco Junior college, with especial mention of the enrollment and the fact that the college is housed in separate buildings were written to Supt. R. N. Cluck of the Cisco schools by Dr. E. H. Hereford, chief college examiner for Texas, who recently checked the school for its eligibility for NYA.

"Your plans for a separate building and your splendid initial enrollment show wise and careful planning," Dr. Hereford wrote. "I see no reason why the school should not progress rapidly."

Dr. Hereford said that he enjoyed his visit to the new college very much and congratulated the community on the "many features of the school."

In a letter from Dr. Alfred H. Nolle, of Southwest Texas State Teachers college, San Marcos, who is chairman of the committee on standards and classifications of the Association of Texas Colleges, Mr. Nolle wrote:

RUSSIAN AREA BLOCKED OUT IN AXIS PACT

Arrangement Worked Out to Avoid Any "Encroachment"

BERLIN, Sept. 28 (AP)—The three signatories to the German-Italian-Japanese military pact have agreed on the area in which the red star of Soviet Russia is to be the controlling symbol, the authoritative commentary, Dienst Aus Deutschland, said Saturday.

The three powers, which have agreed already to the precise "spaces" in Europe, Africa and Asia in which they are to have the final word, have agreed on Russia's sphere so "that there can be no question of encroachment in foreign spaces by these powers," the commentary said.

The commentary defined the relation of the individual states to their respective "spaces" as "leadership" and no tax monopolistic rule.

Other German conjecture in the wake of Friday's dramatic signing of the new word-front alliance centered on the United States and its possible future use of Britain's Singapore base and its supply of arms and planes to the English.

Supplying arms and munitions to Britain may or may not bring a conflict with the three members of the new pact, authorized sources said, adding that it depends on whether such help is likely to affect decisively the progress of the war.

They said, for instance, that trading 50 over-age destroyers for bases in British Western Hemisphere territories doesn't mean a conflict.

Claim U.S. Prepared For Any Aggression

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—Senator Pittman of Nevada, cited ratification of the treaty of Havana as new proof of Pan-American solidarity, declared Saturday that the Western Hemisphere nations are prepared to meet "any aggression" which might arise from the German-Italian alliance with Japan.

Church School Has Promotion Day Program

Instead of the regular services this morning at the First Methodist church, there will be a promotion day program, which will begin at 9:30 and be concluded at 11:30. The program will be directed by the general superintendent of the church school, Garland Nance, and each department will participate, it was announced by the Rev. Joe I. Patterson.

Those who will graduate and their departments are as follows: From the nursery department four years: Bess Sue Harsell, Norma Sue Schaefer, Mary Anna Smith, Carlos Hickman, Linda Kay Parrish, Durwood Sherrill, Jo Ann Mitcham and Vernell Smith.

From the beginner's department, six years: Joe Stamey, Richard Moore, Wayne Smith, Jane Huestis, Robert Hickman, Julia Ann Sanford, Skipper Porter, Patsy Ruth King, Frank McAfee, and Linda Cathryn Slatton. These graduates will each be awarded Bibles.

From the primary department, nine years: Bobby Joe Carothers, Clifton Osborn, Tommy Barnard, Helen Ray Edwards, Anna Bell Trigg, Betty Dean Lennon, Jack Montgomery and Gene Schaefer.

COMMUNITY BOOTH PRIZE TO LUTHERAN

Interesting Exhibits Shown by NYA, and Other Groups

Large and interested crowds gathered here Friday and Saturday for the showing of Cisco's first Fall Fair, an event sponsored by the chamber of commerce and arranged by a committee from that body, headed by Edward Lee. Other committee members were T. G. Caudle, Jack Anderson, Jack Elkins and F. B. Altman.

The colorful commercial, farm and curio booths and exhibits by the National Youth administration, Soil Conservation corps, and various demonstration clubs, were arranged advantageously in two buildings; one adjoining Crawford Furniture exchange across from A. & P. grocery, and the other between Collins hardware and the new site of the Western Auto store.

J. M. Binion of Brownwood was judge of the booths and awarded red, white and blue ribbons in the following: Community booth: Lutheran community, first; Shady Grove, second, and Scranton, third.

Future Farmers of America: Scranton first; Rising Star, second; Cisco, third, and Pioneer, fourth. Individual Awards: While dent corn: Wayne Thurman, first, and H. H. Lockhart, second.

Peanut, Wayne Thurman, first. Cotton, Charlie Wende, first. Peanut hay, Charlie Wende, first. Soy bean hay, Charlie Wende, first. Bundle hogari, Grover Taylor, first.

Apples, L. Y. Siddall, first. Plums, George Kinard, first. Okra, George Kinard, first. Bell peppers, Mrs. Bob Walker, first. Hot peppers, George Kinard, first, and Mrs. J. W. McKinney, second. Green peas, George Kinard, first. Pie, pumpkin, Charlie Wende, first and Mrs. J. T. Graves, second. Green beans, George Kinard, first. Onions, Miss Willie Word, first. Kershaw, Oscar Penn first. Field pumpkin, Earl Owens, first. Squash, Charlie Wende, first. Porto Rico yams, W. B. Starr, first. Mississippi Triumph sweet potatoes, W. B. Starr, first. Irish potatoes, Charlie Wende, first. Newspaper Week-- For the Public

SOMETIMES folks forget what a close relationship exists between them and their daily newspaper. Because their newspaper is always on the doorstep or on the corner newsstand exactly when they expect it, they take it pretty much for granted. They forget how important it is to them--how lost they would be without it. That's why newspaper publishers all over the country got together and decided to sponsor a National Newspaper Week from Oct. 1 to 8. They wanted to remind their subscribers that not only is the daily newspaper a vital part of everyone's life, but that the readers are a vital part of the newspaper —that without the friendly attitude of the public and its tolerance in hearing all sides of every question, there could be no free American press.

THE idea of a week devoted to American newspapers really belongs to H. R. Helmsby, editor of the Olean (N. Y.) Times Herald. Mr. Helmsby got his inspiration more than a year ago. On Aug. 5, 1939, he told his readers about it in an editorial. He wrote:

After all, the American newspaper is one of the bulwarks of American democracy—one of the safeguards of Americanism as we know it.

And it is not only a safeguard, it is a safeguard which belongs to the people themselves.

A newspaper, to be successful, must appeal to the rank-and-file of people. It must provide information, entertainment and inspiration. It is entirely dependent upon the good will of the public; and nothing its owners or its staff can do can perpetuate it if that good will is forfeited.

This unassailable fact is an irrefutable answer to those who so continually charge that a newspaper is "controlled" by this or that interest.

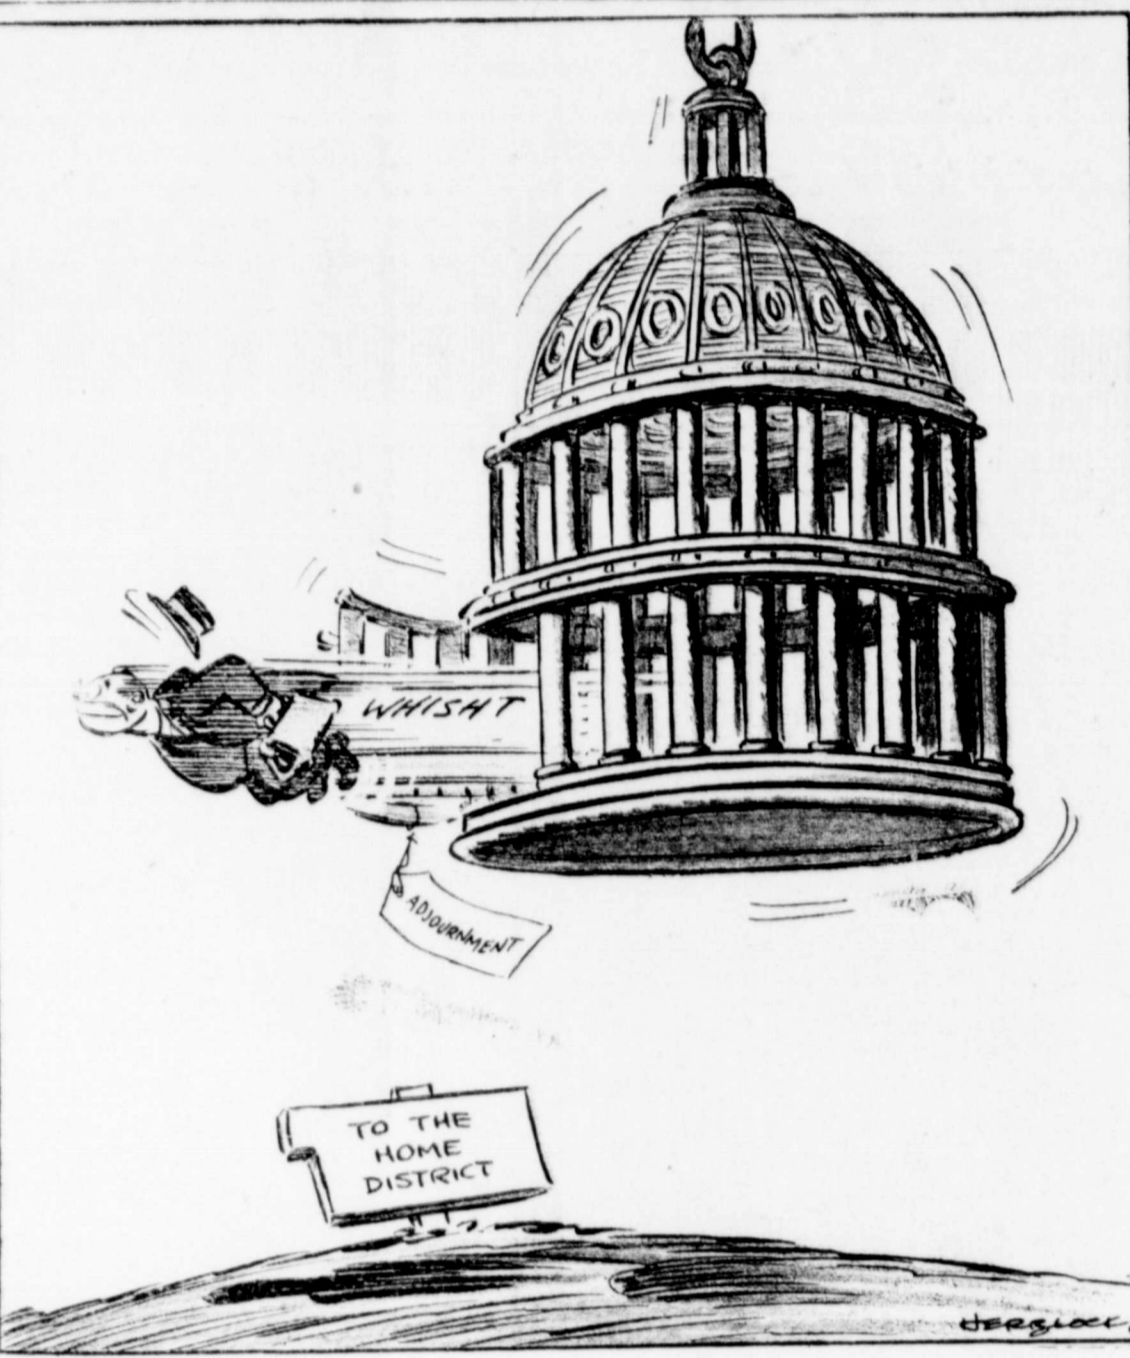

A newspaper is controlled, primarily, by its subscribers who like it well enough to buy it. If they don't like it well enough to buy it, there simply isn't any newspaper.

NEVER before has the newspaper played such a dominant role in American life as during times like these, as it catalogs and interprets national and international events. Seldom has the public leaned so heavily on the daily press.

National Newspaper Week will have served its purpose if it helps to deepen that friendship between press and public. We are glad we have this opportunity to get to know you better—and for you, to get to know us a little more intimately.

One of the greatest of all organized forces working in Texas for the increase of Texas wildlife resources is the wildlife research units. There are two such units working in Texas today. One of them is located at College Station, the Texas Cooperative Wildlife research unit. Provisions for Parity Payments Are Announced

The provisions under which producers of corn, cotton, rice, tobacco and wheat may earn 1941 parity payments were announced last week by the Agricultural Adjustment administration. Payments will be made to eligible producers from a fund of $212,000,000 appropriated for this purpose.

The 1941 parity provisions are essentially the same as those in effect for the 1940 program. A producer who participates in the 1941 farm program will be eligible for payments if: (1) the 1941 acreage of the commodity for which payment is made does not exceed the farm acreage allotment for such commodity, (2) if he plants within the total of the acreage allotments of corn, cotton, rice, tobacco and wheat established for his farm in 1941, (3) he does not offset his performance by overplanting these commodities on any other farm, where located, in which he has an interest.

As provided in the Agricultural Adjustment act of 1938, the 1941 parity payment rates for the five commodities will be based on the amount by which the returns from the 1940 crop of each falls below the parity income. The rate for any crop can not exceed the amount by which the 1940 average farm price is less than the parity price and will be as nearly equal to parity as the available funds permit. Rates will be announced later when the information upon which they are based is available. In 1939 and 1940 the rate of payment and the average farm price combined could not exceed 75 per cent of parity.

As in the two previous years, parity payments will be made on the normal yield of the farm acreage allotment determined for each commodity under the 1941 program.

The United States purchased Alaska from Russia in 1867 for $7,200,000.

Farmers had enough grain on hand at the end of the 1940 harvest to raise 78 pounds of pork for every person in the U. S.

BRUCE CATTON'S AMERICAN ROUNDUP

NEW DETAILS CLARIFY CONSCRIPTION LAW —HERE'S WHO-HOW-WHAT-WHEN-WHY SETUP

BY BRUCE CATTON NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—If you are an American citizen between 21 and 35 (or an alien in that age-bracket, with first papers) you'll get your first contact with the new draft law on Oct. 15 when you register at the polling place in your regular voting precinct, before the regular election officials.

Catton

Then you go on about your business. A tremendous lot of paper work has to be done before your name can get called. Under each state selective service board will be the local boards—one in each county whose population is under 30,000, and one for each 30,000 of population in more thickly settled areas.

These local boards will be your contact with the draft machinery. After the Oct. 16 registration is finished, the election precinct officials will turn all of their cards in to the county clerk, who will distribute them to the local boards.

When a board gets its cards, its first stunt will be to shuffle them thoroughly and then deal them off the top of the deck, numbering each card as it falls.

ARMY AND NAVY FIGURE QUOTAS

When a board gets its cards, its first stunt will be to shuffle them thoroughly and then deal them off the top of the deck, numbering each card as it falls.

If the first batch of draftees is to be 400,000, it will be up to the army and navy to figure out the quota for each state and territory. This will be done on the basis of the number of registration cards, not of population.

secretary of war—will submit to a blindfold and draw out a set of numbers, one at a time. Suppose he draws, first, number 23, and then numbers 140, 3281 and 79. In each of the 6500 draft areas, all men whose cards bear the number 23 will be called up; next will be called the men bearing the number 140, then those who have number 3.

IF YOUR NUMBER IS CALLED—

WHEN your number is called—which, if you happen to be among the first 400,000, will probably be around the 10th of November—you appear before the local board and get placed in one of the following classifications:

- 1—Available at once. 2—Deferred because of work essential to defense. 3—Deferred because of dependent. 4—Deferred by law—holders of city, state or county jobs, etc.—or deferred for physical, mental or moral unfitness.

You will fill out an elaborate questionnaire and get a physical examination. If you are placed in class one, you will be in the army or the navy before the end of the year. You cannot pick your branch of the service. For the first four months of your service you will be paid $21 a month thereafter you will get $30.

You stay in the army one year thereafter you are on the reserve list for 10 years, subject to short periods of training annually.

How about those who seek deferment? Army and navy men are working on exemption rules now, subject to presidential approval. A general thing, these points will be observed: A wife or other dependent won't necessarily put you in class 3. You must show that you contribute the major part of your dependent's support and that you don't have other resources which they could be supported. Should you get exemption or deferment by reason of the importance of your job to the national general well-being, the deferment won't last longer than six months then you'll have to go in and show that the reasons for your deferment were still good.

Forty Minute Film Made of 4-H Club Boys

A 40-minute melodrama entitled "4-H Club Boys at Work and Play" is now being filmed in the 19 counties of extension district No. 7, according to A. C. Pratt, assistant county agent.

The picture will have plenty of local color. In fact, it is a full-technical picture—the first full-length film ever to be made of 4-H club boys' work in any district in Texas. Some 400 feet of the film is yet to be made. A part of this remaining footage is to be taken of activities in Eastland county and arrangements are now under way to shoot sequences of the Eastland County Swine club, which is a subsidiary of the 4-H club.

At present Mr. Pratt is having some difficulty in getting together the full membership of this club for the shooting. There are some 125 members of this club in Eastland county, and to get them all together at one time has presented somewhat of a problem.

W. I. Glass, district agent, is sponsoring the picture, and has shown part of it recently in Brownwood. Scenes taken in

Eastland, Brown, Erath, Jones and Comanche have been "shot."

J. C. Shockey, assistant county agent of Brown county, has shot much of the film. He made a record of the recent southern and middle-western tour of the 4-H club boys and agents of the district, during which they visited Chicago on a 3,000-mile tour in a "covered wagon" truck.

Two hundred feet of pictures taken at the District 7 encampment of 4-H club boys at Lake Brownwood recently will be included in the 1,000 feet of miniature size color film, which will be shown by county agents in 4-H club gatherings all over the district, beginning about October 15.

The film, in part, was shown to county and home demonstration agents at their meeting in Brownwood, Monday and Tuesday of this week. Mr. Pratt is not sure when the film will be shown in Eastland county, as a schedule of showing will have to be worked out among the agents of the district.

Loboes Win Great Offensive Battle With Mustangs

WARREN'S RUN IN 4TH BREAKS 6-6 DEADLOCK

By GORDON SHERMAN

The Cisco Loboes, with workhorse Coy Warren as master of ceremonies, broke a 6-6 deadlock in a thrill-packed fourth quarter Sweetwater Friday night to defeat a beefy Mustang eleven a 14-6 drubbing. The victory over Nolan county lads was the first for the Loboes in practically a present decade, and a substantial contingent of Cisco fans roared their approval.

The Loboes displayed a roaring spirit that literally picked up off the canvas time and when it seemed they were about to be pounded by the mighty Mustangs. Although the Loboes' defense appeared to be over the Burk Burnett center, Friday's melee was a thoroughly offensive battle from the beginning.

As usual, the Loboes kicked out of bounds and Sweetwater over on their own 35. Flanagan and Hudgins collaborated to Loboe eight, where the threat of a kill when the Loboes lined Rogers back on the Cisco ten a bad pass from center. The Loboes in their turn marched over on the Mustang five when a thrust tackle was stopped on fourth down.

Three ten

The Loboes threatened twice during the first half, but were stopped by very costly penalties on both occasions, while a Mustang gesture was nullified by the half-time gun.

The Loboes kicked to the Mustangs to open the second half, but a first down, held, and a drive over on their own 36, a 64 yards on a sustained drive to pay dirt. Warren featured in the drive with some sparkling ball-carrying and passing. The drive did the damage was a third-down pass from Lasater to Lasater, good for ten yards. Warren fought off one player after another on the play, but a mystery just how Lasater caught the ball. Qualls' attack from placement was low, but the Loboes led, 6-0.

The Mustangs gave down an inch. With Rogers doing the catching, and Flanagan and Potter, the Sweetwater eleven went 60 yards to the goal line. Mayfield took the drive from the six-yard line to count, standing up. Flanagan's attempted placement was partially blocked, and the count was knotted at 6-6.

The rest was terrific. The Loboes took the kick-off on their own 35. Three plays didn't make the necessary ten. The Mustangs took over on a short kick. A pass to the Lobo 23 was nullified by a penalty. After another fruitless exchange, the Mustangs decided to gamble on a fourth-down pass, but the irrepressible Warren was waiting at the k-kitchen door, and very nearly altered the score without further notice. He was downed on the Cisco 42. A few plays later he flipped an aerial to Lasater, who crashed down to the Mustang 46.

Score Touchdown

From there Dunaway started off-tackle. Just as he was smeared by the end, he lateralled off to Warren, who streaked down the side-line to the 36. At this point it appeared as if four husky Mustangs would foreclose, but with a magical cut-back, Warren came out into the clear; from there he turned on the heat for the remaining yardage. Qualls again failed to convert.

There followed anxious moments, which the Mustangs filled with passes. But it was no dice, and with a few seconds to play, Cisco was in possession. Line smashes ate up the remaining instants, and the gun left the count still at 12-6.

For the Loboes, Warren couldn't be helped; he did everything just right. Lasater also turned in a sparkling performance, as did Donovan, with his pass-catching, and the promising Dunaway.

In the line, great credit must be given Qualls, who had a fine night on the pass receiving; fiery Lomax, and Potter, the sturdy tackle. Brown and Henson divided honors at the other guard. Sanders, at center, and Wingo, tackle, seem to be improving defensively, and may do much to bolster the Loboes there; Page and Childers divided chores at end, and looked particularly good on offense.

Next week the Loboes meet Childress at Childress in another game, also non-conference.

New Fords Make Bow to Cisco Friday

The 1941 Fords made their first appearance in Cisco Friday when they were viewed as the Nance Motor company showroom by large and interested crowds. The new car, beautifully streamlined and offering numerous improvements in equipment and design over last year's highly popular models, is shown above with some of the officials and employees of the Nance Motor company. The model shown is the super deluxe. The deluxe model has a few less features than the one shown. Standing left to right, in the picture are S. H. Nance, president of the company; Miss Violet Hart, bookkeeper; Charles Yates, salesman for Cisco and Moran territories; Gene Emsley, shop foreman; W. B. Statham, salesman for Cisco and Putnam territories; Claude Tucker, body department; Marvin Ivie, assistant in body department, and John Henry Collins, porter and lubricator.

Prospects for sales this fall are excellent, Mr. Nance said. Keen interest is being shown in the new cars. The company, in addition to passenger cars, offers a commercial line to supply any need of farmer, oil man, trucker or business man.

Boots and Saddles Away From It All

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 28 (AP)—The louder the bombs burst in Europe the more do people shout "Bring me my boots and saddle."

"The war just speeded up our return to saddle and bridle days," says Harold J. Alips, veteran "hoss wrangler" at Estes Park, Colo., a tourist center.

"The way I've got it figured out is this: People have been living too much in the whirl of the mechanical age. They want a breathing spell. One of the best solutions is to get a 'hoss and go riding."

At Estes Park, Alins estimates, there are at least 2,000 horses now, more than double the number there were a few years ago. This summer the town board ordered hitching racks constructed at strategic places, including the U. S. postoffice.

Designed by WOMEN for WOMEN

It takes a woman to know what she wants . . . and tell about it! That's how this new All-American Gas Range was built with the help of 615 experts. They were asked what they wanted in a modern range . . . home economists in schools and in gas companies, experienced homemakers and consumer group leaders.

The wishes of the majority ruled. They wanted a bigger, more roomy range with more oven and broiler space . . . extra shelf, warming compartment and widely-spaced top burners. And here they are, all wrapped up in the most beautiful, practical and efficient gas range you could ever imagine.

As advertised in leading national magazines.

SERIAL STORY

THIS COULD BE YOUR STORY

BY MARGUERITE GAHAGAN

COPYRIGHT 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

All characters, organizations and incidents of this serial are entirely fictitious.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
SUE MARY JEFFERSON—stenographer in a law firm, alone in city, seeking new friends.

JOE STEFANSKI—ambitious college educated worker, in love with Sue Mary.

NICK ALEXANDER—leader of the Youth Progress group.

VERA OLIVER—active worker, who combines social and political duties.

YESTERDAY: Vera isn't worried when a gossip columnist reports her going with Ross Clark Jr. She thinks young Ross has political ambitions, needs money. Sue Mary goes shopping, sees headlines telling of a strike at Smithson. Rioting, picket lines. When she calls Joe, he suggests she may have had a pipeline through the YP group.

CHAPTER XVIII
It wasn't until that bitter moment that she did remember the full significance of Nick's remark.

Joe was no fool. She knew now that he realized where she had heard rumblings of strike threats. She knew how disturbed, how troubled and puzzled he must be. But now that trouble had arisen at the plant—just as Nick had foretold—she was more insistent than ever in her desire to learn what force was behind it.

She wondered if she could find the courage to go out with Nick since her eyes had been opened; now that she had broken away from the childish dream; now that she knew her true love for Joe. And yet she felt she had to find the strength.

Women the world over are facing real, concrete, terrifying problems, she told herself. Certainly there is enough real Americanism in me, enough of my ancestors to help me do my part now. Even if it turns out to be a witch hunt, even if the YP isn't anti-American, but just a harmless bunch of boys and girls like myself, with time and energy and nothing to do—still, I will have convinced myself.

It was even harder than she had anticipated to be with Nick. He was charming, eager to please, amusing, and in a lover's mood. "You're sweet. You're lovely. You're not like other girls. Not like any girl I ever knew," he said. "Tonight we won't think of work. We'll think of us."

"You care for me, don't you?" he asked, seriously. "There isn't anyone else, is there? That fellow—that one you used to go with—his out of your life, isn't he?" he demanded, holding her closer. "Oh, Nick, why must you be so serious?" She pushed him away. "We haven't time to be silly—and emotional."

"We have so much—so much in common," she insisted. "I mean the work, and the election. Tell me about that. I haven't had a chance to really talk to you in days." If only she could learn something about his real plans, it would make this date seem more bearable.

"Work—plans—" He drew her closer again, kissed her. "Let the others talk about work and plans—"

She was frightened. More than she had ever been before. This was a new Nick. Intense and demanding.

"It's only because I thought you wanted me to understand things; wanted me to stop being blind and stupid—" "You aren't blind—or stupid," he murmured. "A little, perhaps."

when you won't see how much I care for you. But not about other things."

She persisted and finally he talked. With his arms around her, holding her tightly, he told her what the election would mean.

"We have to get Fritz King elected. He's our man. He's schooled in the party pattern, and he'll be our opening wedge in creating a new system in this state."

"Old Miller is a fool. He'll run as governor again and he'll put up a stiff battle, but we can lick him. Plenty comes out in an election campaign. Maybe we'll show that he's wasting the state's money; playing a little private business of his own. Why, then, we'd be all set."

"I thought, though, that he was respected—and capable. At least the papers say so." Sue Mary led him on.

"The papers—the capitalistic-controlled press. Not a free press. Read our paper. He's backed by big money. He hasn't the interest of the people at heart."

"Speaking of the people," Sue Mary said casually, "there was a riot at the Smithson factory, wasn't there?"

Nick laughed. "A strike? Yes. But it hasn't really started yet."

"I bet the war-mongers are plenty worried. If Smithson stops production for a couple of months the plane factory might just as well stop trying to keep up to schedule. The Gull plant depends on them for parts, and a strike would really show the big boys that make the wheels go 'round. Millions for this defense and what about relief? What about wages?"

"But defense is pretty important right now, Nick, isn't it? I mean, shouldn't we forget other problems and be soldiers out of uniform?"

"Who have you been talking to?" Nick took her face between his hands and looked at her. There was no laughter in his eyes now. They were narrow and searching. Sue Mary tried to smile. "Why, Nick, I can read. You taught me to read the newspapers, don't you remember?"

"You've changed," he told her sullenly. He pushed her away and continued to look at her. "I thought you could see the truth; not be taken in by this stuff you read in the daily papers."

"No," he said slowly, still staring at her through narrowed eyes. "Someone has been talking to you. It's that Joe. He works at Smithson, doesn't he? You see him, don't you?"

She swallowed against the lump in her throat. "Of course, I know him and sometimes I have dates with him. So what, Nick? He's not you. I'm with you almost every day. And I'm with Vera and Natalie. You're my friends—"

Nick fumbled for a cigarette and lit it. "You're not like Vera or Natalie." He looked up suddenly. "Maybe you're working too hard at the office. How are things going there?"

It was like a game, Sue Mary thought, each trying to maneuver the other into an admission. "The office—? Oh, we're still busy. But Vera can tell you that."

"She's making good there, isn't she?"

"Yes," Sue Mary said. "Everyone likes her. Even the president's son."

Nick blew out a cloud of smoke and studied the red glow of the cigarette. "What does he do?"

"Oh—not much. He's more the playboy," she said lightly. "Of course, Vera says he has political ambitions, but I don't know. She knows him pretty well." She watched him for a reaction.

"Yes. She said she'd gone out with him a few times. In fact they were to be at the Bird Cage tonight."

"The Bird Cage," Sue Mary said wonderingly. "That's the big gambling place, isn't it?"

"Yes," Nick said, drawing her close again. "Like to go? We could, you know. We couldn't play for the stakes that Clark

STAMP NEWS

THE U. S. national defense series of three stamps will go on first-day sale in Washington, D. C., Oct. 12. The 1-cent value will picture industry and agriculture; the 2-cent, the army and navy; and the 3-cent, security, education, conservation and health.

Several collectors have called attention to the use of two languages on the U. S. Coronado commemorative. The inscription "1540—Coronado Cuarto Centennial—1940" was the name selected by the commission in charge of the celebration marking the 400th anniversary of Spanish explorations in the southwest.

Four new stamps illustrating scenes in Japan's Kirishima National Park have been issued. The views include Mount Takachino, Kirishima Shrine, Mount Kanoku and Lake Roku-Kannon.

Germany marks a half century's ownership of Heligoland, a fortified island of the North Sea with a new stamp. Heligoland was under Danish control until 1807, then fell to the British. Britain ceded the island to Germany in 1890.

Germany also has issued two values marking the return of Eupen and Malmédy to the Reich. These districts were ceded to Belgium after the World War.

Rumania's Boy Scout organization, the Sentinels, is honored with a pictorial issue of eight values.

Stock Shipments in August Show Climb

AUSTIN, Sept. 28 (Sp)—Texas livestock shipments stopped their 1940 downward trend in August. University of Texas bureau of business research officials revealed today.

A decline has been registered each month thus far this year, pulling total shipments for the first eight months of 1940 to 14.3 per cent below those of the similar period of 1939.

In August, however, 5,686 cars of all classes of livestock moved from ranches of the state, 7.8 per cent more than a year ago.

Cattle shipments, 2,857 cars, were up 21.5 per cent; hogs, 661 cars, up 3.3 per cent; sheep, 831 cars, up 14.9 per cent. Calves alone declined, 16.1 per cent to a total of 1,237 cars.

Going tweed in a big way, screen starlet Jane Patton looks pretty nice in this three-piece suit of that ever-popular fabric. It is in a warm brown shade. The casual coat has an edging of sheared beaver, which also is used for a small collar on the suit jacket.

Shower Honors Recent Bride Here Tuesday

The home of Mrs. D. Davison was the scene of an attractively-appointed bridal shower recently for Mrs. J. B. Adams, the former Miss Ruth Rowch, granddaughter of Mrs. Davison. Cut flowers and ferns were arranged in profusion in the entertaining rooms.

The guests registered in a bride's book made by Miss Helen Louise Greynolds, cousin of the honoree, and presided over by Miss Glenna Moad. Later, gifts were brought in in a huge basket by little Coise Baird and Freddie Ray Rowch, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Davison was assisted in serving refreshments to Mmes. C. S. Moad, A. C. Stevens, Van Horn, E. B. Pearce, Funderburk, Agnes Tatum, Mable Alkire, Jim Baird, O. G. Lawson, Eldon Anderson, J. G. Rupe, Guyle Greynolds, R. D. Donham, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Funderburk, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowch, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams of Eastland, Misses Glenna Moad, Helen Louise Greynolds, and Coise Baird, Marie Rowch, R. D. Donham, Guyle Greynolds, Jr., James W. Rowch, Freddie Ray Rowch. Those unable to attend who sent gifts were Mrs. W. F. Hunterman, Mrs. Elbert Rains, Mrs. S. C. Wright, Mrs. Cleo Green and Mrs. Mary Sugg.

Hot Style Hint Seen at Races

Fashion shared the spotlight with the bangtails when Belmont Park, N. Y., race track recently opened its fall season. This heavily furred outfit, worn by socialite Mrs. Al Davis, proved a hot style number on one of New York's warmest Indian summer days.

Study Club To Open Season With Luncheon

The Alpha Delphian Study club will open its current club season with a luncheon in the Blue room of the Laguna hotel Wednesday at one o'clock.

Mrs. M. H. Hagaman of Ranger, president of the Sixth District, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, will be guest of honor at the luncheon, which every member of the club is urged to attend.

Sunday school, 9:30. A. I. Skiles, superintendent. Promotion day exercises with an appropriate program arranged as we have always had in past. A large Sunday school is expected. Morning worship, 10:55. Sermon subject, "The Inside of the Cup," by the pastor. Because of the fine response last Sunday morning and also because of a number of inquiries the pastor will speak at the evening worship on "Miraculous Healing." Nothing but a plain scriptural sermon on the subject. Training union, 6:30. M. F. Underwood, director. Evening worship, 7:30. Baptismal service follows. This week's activities. Monday evening a meeting of deacons and finance committee will be held at the pastorium at 7:30. WMU week of prayer. Thursday evening, monthly meet of officers and teachers at 7:30 at the church.—Judson Prince, pastor.

Modern Electric Service Is CHEAP in West Texas

WE CAN THANK OUR LUCKY STARS ... and stripes

SCHOOL BELLS are ringing for American boys and girls.

In many other lands today youngsters aren't so lucky.

Sirens are screaming in their ears, sending them scurrying into underground shelters.

We can thank our lucky stars and stripes for escape from such terrors. Our flag is a symbol of freedom in a country despised by oppressors who think Americans are far too rich.

We are rich. Gloriously rich. Not in money but in a wealth of the kind of things we can use and enjoy. For instance, with only 7% of the world's population, we have half of the world's railroads; half of the world's coffee is served on our tables; we consume two-thirds of the world's oil. We own more automobiles, radios, telephones than all the rest of the world put together. And, more important, we have the freedom to enjoy these things as we please.

Electric service is another good example. Electric service brings us light, music, refrigeration, easy washing, cool ironing, good coffee... for only a few cents a day.

Not only does electric service give us more of the good things of life but it brings them to us at a steadily lowered cost. Because of your increased demand for electricity, and our economical operation, electric rates during the past twelve or fifteen years have been cut about in half. And you can automatically reduce the average rate you pay still further; the more electricity you use each month, the lower your average rate will be.

The employees of your electric company are proud to be members of an industry that has always been among the leaders in giving the public more and better service for its money. And we are grateful to you for your help in making our efforts succeed.

No Predatory Animals On This Man's Ranch

FORT COLLINS, Colo., Sept. 28 (AP)—A rancher wrote to Country Treasurer C. S. Ickes: "Please explain the predatory animal tax. I haven't any such animal." The predatory tax is levied against sheep and helps to pay the expense of hunting predatory animals such as coyotes and mountain lions.

KANSAS HAS A MILD YEAR
TOPEKA, Kans., Sept. 28 (AP)—Unless there are violent storms in the closing months of the year, Kansas will mark down 1940 as one of the mildest years in its history. The most damaging storm was one in August near Wichita, which caused about $25,000 damage.

The United States is the principal producer of zinc.

He Doesn't Dare to Miss

His body is a "dive bomb." His target is that circle below—and he can't afford to miss. Photo shows Capt. Sol Solomon in full flight as he thrills New York World's Fair crowds daily by diving 122 feet into a six-foot-deep tank of water.

AAA Cotton---

(Continued from Page One) vary with each grade and staple length. For example, the rate on middling 7-8-inch cotton is one-fourth of a cent less than for 15-16-inch middling, on which the loan rate is based, while one-inch cotton of the same grade will bring one-fourth of a cent more. Middling 1-8-inch cotton is one and a half cents above the basic rate. In the same manner, strict middling cotton in the medium staple lengths will bring one-fourth to one-third of a cent more than middling cotton, while strict low middling of the same staple is discounted about two-thirds of a cent per pound.

Must Be Classified
All cotton submitted for the loan must be classed by a board of cotton examiners of the United States department of agriculture, whose decision will be final. Cotton produced in this country will be sent to the office of the agricultural marketing service in Abilene for classing.

To obtain a loan, a farmer delivers his cotton to a warehouse which has been approved for handling loan cotton. The warehouseman sends samples to the classing office, and, upon receipt of their report, inserts in the loan forms the grades and staples of the cotton. The farmer then takes his loan forms and his warehouse receipts to a bank or other lending agency and receives his cash advance or cotton loan.

"While the new requirements for classing of loan cotton will necessarily cause some delay in the making of the loan, the benefits to be derived from the system will more than offset the inconvenience of the delay," Bradshaw said. "Growers will receive a uniform classification of their cotton, done by government employees who are expert in classing cotton. The farmer will find this cotton class record a valuable aid, either in the sale of his cotton or in the sale of his equity in the mill," the official said.

Part of Routine
Eastland county cotton buyers, who are required by the 1940 marketing quota provisions of the agricultural adjustment act to keep accurate records of all purchases from producers, will be able to do this as a part of their routine work, Bradshaw said.

A record of purchases from producers with white marketing cards was not required in past years. This year such a record must be maintained in addition to the records and reports which buyers during the past 2 years made for purchases from producers with red and blue marketing cards, and which they are also required to make this year.

Pointing out that no special records are required for white marketing cards, Bradshaw said that, as a general rule, the business records ordinarily kept by the buyer will contain all the information necessary, with the possible exception of the serial number of the Asia"—whether it includes the Dutch East Indies and the Philippines—these quarters replied that the pact merely concedes the political leadership to Japan without going into details.

The prime underlying idea, they said, was that of bringing order to the various parts of the world, and Japan was recognized as the leader in establishing order in Greater Asia.

To the question of whether the Soviet Union now is expected to desist from supplying arms to China, these sources expressed the opinion that Russian deliveries did not affect the situation.

producer's marketing card. The regulations under the act require that the cotton buyer's records contain the following information: (1) the name and address of the producer; (2) date of purchase; (3) original gin bale number; (4) weight of the bale or the lot of cotton purchased; (5) amount of the penalty collected, if any; and (6) the serial number of the marketing card or certificate by which the cotton was identified when marketed.

"It is preferred that the buyer make no change in his regular record-keeping system, other than to record some necessary information which he previously did not enter on his accounts, ledgers, or other records," Bradshaw said. Any buyer who desires to keep a separate record of the information required, however, can obtain the necessary forms from the county AAA office.

"The buyer must always examine the marketing card," Bradshaw said. "If the producer does not show his card, the buyer must make a report to the county AAA office and remit with his report the marketing penalty of 3 cents a pound on the entire amount sold. If the card serial number is not on the record, it is assumed that the buyer did not see the card and he will be required to submit the report and to pay the penalties due."

Training At Mineral Wells
A training institute for key men from each council in western Texas and Eastern New Mexico was held in Mineral Wells Saturday and Sunday September 21 and 22. Those from the Comanche Trail council attending were President Russell B. Jones, Breckenridge; Scout Commissioner, O. E. Winebrenner, Brownwood; Dr. T. C. Graves, district chairman, Goldthwaite, and G. N. Quill, Scout executive, Brownwood.

Scouting Items
Much handicraft work is being done at this time by the members of troop 1, Brownwood. The scouts have a special meeting each week for this work. Assistant Scoutmasters Dalpha Head and Jack Oarswell have charge of the instruction.

Several of the troops in the council are making attractive and useful seats of empty nail kegs. The kegs are painted, then the seat upholstered in scrap leather. Cub Pack 1 of Breckenridge has a new cubmaster. E. O. Holland has taken up this work and Sam Houston, former Cubmaster, has resigned as cub commissioner. Former Scoutmaster Adolph Hoehhalter, Troop 5, Brownwood, has been called to Washington, D. C., to be employed in the blueprint room of the department war. He was a student at University of Texas during the past winter.

Scoutmaster Robert Hill, Cross Cut, has made a very serviceable hunting knife—tools used, a forge, anvil, hammer and whetstone. His Scouts are interested in making these knives and will use this one as a pattern.
