VOLUME XXI. CISCO, TEXAS, MONDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1940 NUMBER 61

Through the Editor's Spectacles

By GEORGE

One hundred years ago the relationship of war to economic life of the countries affected was much different than now. There were two reasons for the cost of wars, while now it is comparatively small in comparison with the costs of modern, mechanized fighting, and the end of warfare was geared to the walk of a man. There were cavalry troops, but they were usually kept close to the infantry columns. Today's warfare brings speed and a multitude of new weapons into effect. Aviation, particularly, has changed the complexion of the war. Cities hundreds of miles from a battlefield formerly served as a target against the destruction of economic centers. They are mercilessly bombed and strafed with machine gun fire. Motorized columns speed over an area which once required marching troops weeks and months of fighting to negotiate. Swift units can strike with such speed and unexpectedness that not only the immediate battlefield but the whole coast of the counter-attacked must stand in readiness against assault. So much more in motion and armament is required to meet these conditions and so much more involved in the production supply of expensive armaments employed that the cost of production and expense of it reaches astronomical figures. Not only a battlefield, but the nation behind it becomes the battlefield.

The story of France during the last few months illustrates the case as nothing else does. The most impenetrable line of frontier defense that had ever been constructed failed to halt invading nazis. The nazis made short work of the defenses. Why? Behind these defenses a nation economically weakened and industrially weakened by internal class wars. Production of goods essential to economic health was reduced. Socialistic doctrines and practices undermined the national vigor. Instead of dividing existing wealth rather than creating more wealth reduced economic resources to a minimum. France was in a third rate power when the war started. She lost her national power.

War Stalks the Burma Road

Will the Burma Road, above, China's ancient back door to supply, prove to be the road to war? Prime Minister Churchill's recent refusal to keep the Burma Road closed after Oct. 17 produced another dangerous strain on the already delicate relations between Britain and Japan. Intimating that Japanese bombers from Indo-China can close the road, a Tokio newspaper said, "Japan need no longer conduct diplomatic negotiations with Britain."

Noted Preacher Speaks Sunday to Nazarenes

The Rev. Bud Robinson, noted Nazarene evangelist and representative of the official church paper, spoke to a large congregation at the Nazarene church Sunday evening. "Uncle Buddie," as he is known by his friends over the United States, is 80 years old and has been in the ministry over 60 years. He has traveled extensively, and preached in most of the foreign countries where the Nazarenes have mission work. He has sent, or assisted in sending to school and college 103 young men and women who have since taken places in religious work at home and in foreign fields. The Rev. Robinson, when asked if it were time for him to retire, replied, "No, it's not time for me to retire, but to re-fire and keep in the Lord's service as long as possible." He left Cisco immediately after the services for Little Rock, Arkansas, where he will begin a series of services tonight.

German Raiders Hammer London In Fierce Assault

LONDON, Oct. 14 (AP)—German raiders turned loose a thunderous assault on an industrial area in northeast England as well as London early Monday and killed 15 persons and wounded 200 others seriously in bomb hits on two public shelters. Although there were raids over various parts of England, the heaviest outside the London area seem to be in the industrial section, near the coast. No damage to property concerned with war work was reported in one town, but bombs did destroy homes and make 100 uninhabitable. It was in this town that the casualties occurred. The Germans stepped up their attacks on London itself Sunday night and early Monday to the regular roar of the nightly assaults and dropped bombs on 21 London districts up to midnight. At the same time, British night fighters patrolled the coast in an effort to fight off small nazi formations.

FRANK S. ROBERTS

Rotary District Governor to Be Here Thursday

Frank S. Roberts, Breckenridge attorney, will attend the meeting of the Rotary club of Cisco, Thursday, October 17, in his official capacity as governor of this Rotary district. He will meet with President Garland Nance, Secretary H. H. Monk, and the other officers and members of the Rotary club of Cisco to consult with them and advise on matters relating to club administration and Rotary service activities. The 5,000 Rotary clubs of more than 60 countries of the world are grouped into 149 districts. The 127th district, of which the Rotary club of Cisco is a part, consists of 55 clubs located in cities of Texas, and has a membership of approximately 1,568 Rotarians.

U. S.-Mexico Defense Pact Is Forecast

MEXICO, D. F., Oct. 14 (AP)—Mexico and the United States "in all probability" will negotiate a mutual defense agreement similar to the United States-Canadian accord about Jan. 1, responsible Mexican sources said Sunday night. No definite understanding was expected until after the United States presidential election next month and until Mexico's new president, Gen. Manuel Avila Camacho, assumes office Dec. 1. Thus far only exploratory conversations have taken place, these sources said, but an "atmosphere is being created steadily whereby Mexican and American people will welcome such a pact." This was attributed to the United States-Western Hemisphere

White Collar $200 Salary Workers Exempt

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—The wage-hour administration revised its rules Monday for the exemption of white collar workers from hours restrictions of the labor standards law, establishing a $200 monthly salary as one yardstick for determining who is an exempt administrative or professional employee. The new rules go into effect Oct. 24 when 40 hours becomes the standard work week for all workers covered by the act. The present maximum work week without overtime pay is 42 hours. Altogether, the administration made changes affecting its definitions of executive, administrative and professional employees, retail trade workers and outside salesmen. Officials said they did not know how many persons would be affected, but that most interstate commerce establishments would be. The principal effect is expected to be exemption from the hours restrictions of many persons such as credit managers, buyers, chemists, radio artists, auditors and others making over $200 a month whose work can be classed as administrative or professional. The ruling does not mean that persons who perform such duties must be paid $200 a month, but only that they need not be paid overtime for work in excess of forty hours a week if their regular salary is $200 or higher. In revising the definitions, the administration at the outset made separate classifications for executive and administrative which heretofore have been included under one definition.

London Reports 3,000 Nazis In Transports Killed

LONDON, Oct. 14 (AP)—High explosive bombs falling on the nazi-held French port of Lorient sank two big ships and killed "over 3,000 German soldiers" in a single raid recently, the ministry of information reported Sunday in a statement sketching some of the effects of the deadly methodical work of the Royal Air force. Lorient lies on the southern side of the Brittany peninsula, southeast of Brest, and is one of the "invasion bases" which Prime Minister Winston Churchill said the German army had prepared for the grand sea-borne attack on Britain. The British government, the ministry declared, received its information from "a neutral source," which it did not name.

U. S. Move Causes Japanese Concern

TOKYO, Oct. 14 (AP)—The United States state department's intention of sending special liners to the Orient to remove Americans caused a new wave of consternation in Japanese official and press circles here Monday. Newspapers played down the announcement but even the brief report caused considerable comment and the Foreign Office spokesman, reversing the usual role, questioned American newspapermen at his press conference regarding the number of nationals being evacuated. He had no comment, merely saying too many statements are flying around these days. Mr. and Mrs. Tehr Firmin and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Harkrider of Marshall spent the week-end with Mr. Harkrider's sister, Mrs. Reggie Henderson.

W. Wallace is chairman of the registration for the east Cisco precinct, and the place will be the Veterans of Foreign Wars meeting room.

Jap-Russian Pact Is Indicated

SHANGHAI, Oct. 14 (AP)—Increasing indications that Japan hopes soon to sign a non-aggression treaty with Russia and reports of a new Japanese offensive against an estimated 300,000 Chinese troops in the Shanghai-Hangchow-Nanking triangle caused hundreds of Americans to speed their plans Monday to leave this war-torn country. Confirmation of reports that Washington is sending the big United States Lines ships Manhattan and Washington to Far East ports to aid in the evacuation of Americans was received joyfully by families in interior cities who have feared they would be the first to suffer in event of Japanese-American hostilities. Many of the Americans in the interior will be brought to Shanghai by the United States gunboat Luzon of the Yangtze River patrol, and the patrol vessel Isabel of the Asiatic fleet. The two warships were expected to pick up hundreds of Americans who have been ordered to concentrate immediately in that city and other Yangtze river ports. The ships were expected back in Shanghai within a week. Well-informed Japanese said that conclusion of a Russo-Japanese pact designed to assure Russia's friendly neutrality in event of a Japanese-American conflict was a distinct possibility. They called attention to the fact that the Japanese army newspaper Shin Shun-Pac, which is considered a mouthpiece of the Tokyo War Office, has abandoned its anti-Soviet attacks and now openly is advocating a Russo-Japanese accord.

CABINS TAKE IN $1,755 IN 12 MONTHS

Gross income of the Lake Cisco cabins for the year beginning September 28, 1939, was reported by Supt. Downey to the city as $1,775.25. The report lists in addition $168.75 in fishing permits sold to cabin occupants during the year. Following is the record of receipts for cabin rent by months: October, $37.50; November, $63.50; December, $22.50; January, $31.50; February, $96.25; March, $113.58; April, $159.55; May, $225.50; June, $257.88; July, $29.85; August, $248.75, and September, $170.25.

Wildlife Meeting Here Tomorrow

A wildlife meeting will be held at the Cisco chamber of commerce tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, it was announced by County Agent Elmo V. Cook. Motion pictures of interesting wildlife subjects will be shown at the time, and rules for governing hunting on lands of the Cisco Game Management association during the next year will be made. The state game warden will be present to discuss hunting laws and to answer questions. Mrs. and Mrs. Wyatt Jacobs and daughter, Marian, of Abilene were guests of Cisco friends Sunday.

SOVIETS MASS TROOPS, CRAFT UPON BORDER

Long Range Guns Are Mounted at Point On Danube

BUCHAREST, Oct. 14 (AP)—Russia has mounted long range guns at the junction of the Prut and Danube rivers of the Russian-Rumanian border, has concentrated a large fleet of fast naval craft along both rivers and is moving great masses of troops toward the frontier, well informed quarters in nazi-dominated Bucharest said Sunday night. These sources also said that the Russians have sunk two Rumanian military patrol boats in hotly contested attacks in the vicinity of the mouth of the Danube river. Word of almost feverish military activity in Cernauti, chief city of the Rumanian province of northern Bucovina, which Russia gained last summer by ultimatum, was brought by refugees from that city. They said the whole area is being turned into a vast military encampment; the city is being cleared of civilians and thousands of laborers are leveling the ground for an extensive military airport. These refugees said the Russians planned to build hangars for a concentration of 300 fighter and bombing planes. (The junction of the Prut and Danube rivers, where the big guns were reported placed, forms the southwestern tip of the new boundary which Russia gained last summer by the acquisition of the Rumanian province of Bessarabia.) Well informed sources said Russian river monitors sank the two Rumanian patrol boats recently in almost simultaneous attacks and that Russian boats stationed at Chilia—on the boundary of Bessarabia—have violated Rumanian territorial waters during the last four days.

FSA Reports Drop In Farm Failures

A decrease in forced sales and bankruptcies of Texas farms during the past seven years while voluntary sales and trades have increased due largely to increased purchasing power is reported by George I. Lane, county supervisor for the Farm Security administration. Farm bankruptcies in Texas dropped from a total of 199 in the year ending June 30, 1933, to only 81 in the year ending June 30, 1939. The number of forced sales dropped from 32.8 per thousand to 14.2 per thousand during the same period. Voluntary sales and trades increased from 16.8 per thousand to 28.2 per thousand. Debts of low-income farmers in Texas were reduced $6,103,044 through the farm debt adjustment service of the Farm Security administration, by voluntary agreements between debtors and creditors. The supervisor said that cash income for Texas farmers was up 80 per cent above the 1932 level, and that farm purchasing power was up 166 per cent, due to prices of things the farmer sold increasing more rapidly than the price of things the farmer had to buy. The supervisor also pointed out that 62,916 Texas farm families received rural rehabilitation loans totaling more than $29,767,500 and that more than 80 per cent of the installments on these loans have been paid when due; that 621 tenant farm families have been started toward land ownership by loans for farm purchases; that the Rural Electrification Administration has aided in building 17,712 miles of electric lines to serve 52,982 farm families; and that 650,000 Texas farmers participated in the 1939 AAA program, representing 92 per cent of the state's crop land. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith and children, Billy and Bobby Nell, of Fort Worth, spent Sunday here.

Axis Invitation Declined—No Regrets

THE United States has at last been offered a way out of the international dilemma. About all we have to do is to set up a dictator, kick out the constitution, reject the fundamental principles of liberty on which the nation was founded, set up concentration camps, persecute racial minorities and religious sects, swoop down on our neighbors on both American continents, scuttle our pro-British sentiments and agree that Hitler, Mussolini and the Japanese are pretty good guys after all.

THE invitation comes from Mussolini's newspaper, Popolo d'Italia. It is a slightly left-handed invitation. It carries with it the threat that if we are so silly as to prefer our democratic way of life and if we insist on shouting loudly across the Atlantic how much each of us is enjoying our liberties, then the Axis—Germany, Italy and Japan—will have to beat a little sense into our heads.

America must recognize the fact, the paper says, that there's a new world order. We must concede the fact that the planet is under new management, with main offices in Berlin, Rome and Tokio. If we are willing to agree to this, our corner of the world will be set aside for our exclusive use—or at least for as long as headquarters thinks we are behaving.

You see, there have been signs lately that the United States is becoming a little bit too recalcitrant. We've been using our moral cheering words to the Britons. We've been using our moral influence to keep Hitler from quietly sinking the British Isles. That has been noticed in totalitarian capitals, and there has been no end of frowning and viewing with alarm.

So Italy thought maybe we ought to be warned.

O.KAY, we've been warned. The invitation to join the Axis has been received and placed on file. We're not quite sure yet whether it's a compliment to our strength in the world or an insult to our collective intelligence.

At any rate, there's one thing Mussolini ought to know. Preserved in Washington, under a glass case, are two documents. They are yellow with the years, nearly illegible. Millions of persons have seen them. Thousands of school children can recite parts of them by heart.

They're called the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States.

If Il Duce insists on an answer, he will find it there.

Now that Einstein is a citizen, it is hoped he'll lift the national average mental age, lowered so much by publication of those campaign songs.

The world series will be remembered for its beautiful Indian summer weather—with no Indians.

It's seldom that you find a reckless driver who also is a wreckless driver.

Hon. Japanese Sandbag Man

he will present his facts in secrecy to the Government Appeal Agent who will then act. The Government Appeal Agent will also help ignorant registrants to secure justice.

8. Classification—The Questionnaire

1. Q—How will the classification of the registrants take place?

A—After the registrants have each received their order numbers, they will be given a detailed questionnaire by their local board which will provide the basis of their classification.

2. Q—How long will a registrant have to fill out this questionnaire?

A—The completed questionnaire must be returned to the local board within five days.

3. Q—Who can help the registrants in completing the questionnaires?

A—In each local board area, an Advisory Board for Registrants, composed of one or more members serving without pay, will assist registrants in answering the questionnaires.

4. Q—What will the questionnaire include?

A—The questionnaire will consist chiefly of questions which will divulge the information on which the registrant's desirability for military training will be determined. It will call for detailed information on a registrant's family, economic, physical, and occupational conditions.

4. Q—Will this information be kept confidential?

A—All information of a personal nature given in the questionnaire will be kept confidential.

6. Q—What is the importance of this questionnaire?

A—On the basis of the answers given to these questions, the local boards will determine whether the registrant should be classified as available for immediate induction into training, or should be temporarily or permanently deferred from the training program.

7. Q—Must claims for a deferred status be made at the time the questionnaire is filed?

A—Yes, Unless the registrant demonstrates in his questionnaire, by specific request, a desire for a deferred status, he will be classified as immediately available for the training program.

Warren Rated Standout Back of Last Week

BY WILLIAM KING

In The Fort Worth Star-Telegram

Summing up the leading Friday schoolboy battles of territory surrounding Fort Worth:

Biggest Upsets—Stephen-ville's 26-6 conquest of Breckenridge's Buckaroos and Wichita Falls' victory over Olney's previously unbeaten Cubs by the same score.

Wildest Offensive Battle—We saw it out at Arlington. And the manner in which the big and polished Sherman Bears routed Arlington 74-

7 stamped them as one of the teams to beat for the state crown.

Outstanding Back, Coy Warren of Cisco gets the honors in this department with his close seconds. The fast and elusive Lobo halfback ran 77 yards for Cisco's first score as J. T. Petty's eleven edged Mineral Wells 12-6.

The District 10-AA race became more wide open as Waco's ahachie blanked Waco's former Tigers 12-0 and Corsicana won on penetrations from Hillside after the game ended in a scoreless tie. Bryan Jarred Temple 12-0 and Cleburne dropped nonconference tilt to Austin Maroons 27-0.

FIREWORKS AHEAD IF SENATE INVESTIGATES GERMAN "CONTROL" OF INDUSTRIES IN U. S.

BY BRUCE CATTON

WASHINGTON—If Senator Wheeler gets the Senate to play his bill for an investigation of German control of U. S. defense industries, look out for fireworks. The defense commission is inclined to oppose the probe, fearing what the excitement might do to the defense production program, and certain administration liaison men have been quietly lobbying against it.

Stoutly favoring the investigation is the anti-trust division of the Department of Justice—where, in fact, the whole idea was really born. Nearly a year ago Thurman Arnold notified the War Department that he had good reason to suspect that German interests had made agreements with U. S. producers which had the effect of throttling the U. S. capacity to produce certain essential war materials. Later, the famous Bausch-Lomb case showed how a maker of secret U. S. defense equipment was under obligation to reveal such secrets to a German concern.

U. S. and German producers of Germany accurate, day-to-day information about the kind and content of war material the government is buying.

The belief that underproduction and too-high prices in certain important defense industries are due to similar agreements...

U. M. W. CASH GETS LEWIS U. A. W. SUPPORT

JOHN L. LEWIS scored a page 10 in his quiet contest with C. I. O. when plans for the big Ford organizing drive were shaped.

The United Auto Workers are being financed with $150,000 loans from Lewis's United Workers. The auto workers late had leaned strongly to the Hillman wing for direction, the low condition of the C. I. O. treasury forced them to go Lewis for the sinews of war.

Recent reports here say Japanese have a new flotilla of extra-long-range submarines able to cruise away from home bases for a month or more mounting six-inch guns. This is supposed to be the result of trouble with Uncle Sam's boats would bark like the offering to make surprise dashes into U. S. west coast harbors.

ANGLO-AMERICAN UNION? BEFORE you're much about the alleged dragging of union between the United States and Britain. An organization is now being formed in London and elsewhere in the east—by the present administration about it, hasn't committed itself, but is "interested." Uncle Sam's Selective Service

(Editor's Note: Below is one installment of a series of questions and answers on the peacetime military training program which has been prepared under the direction of the state director of selective service, J. Watt Page.)

7. CLASSIFICATION — General Nature

1. Q—What does classification of registrants mean?

A—It means that every person between the ages of 21 and 36 who registers on October 16, 1940 will be classified according to his availability for a year's military training.

2. Q—What will be the classes in which the registrants will be placed?

A—The main class—Class I—will be composed of those who are available for training immediately. Persons whose service in civil capacities is of great importance (workers in munitions plants, for example) will be placed in Class II, and their call to training will be deferred. Those with dependents (wife, children, etc.) may be placed in Class III, deferred on grounds of dependency. Certain individuals will be placed in Class IV when their service is undesirable on moral, physical, or other grounds or because the law defers them (ministers, etc.)

3. Q—How will this classification be made?

A—The local boards will classify all registrants on the basis of detained questionnaires, interviews with registrants, and other information gained through private research.

4. Q—Will all registrants be placed in Class I, unless additional facts prove that they should receive a different classification?

A—Yes. If a registrant does not claim a deferment, for example, he will automatically go into Class I. If he fails to fill out his questionnaire, he will be placed in the same class. The only way to get out of Class I, is to prove the right to a deferment or to be removed as the result of a physical examination which shows the registrant is not suitable for service.

5. Q—Suppose some citizen of the community is not satisfied with the classification given to a registrant. What can he do?

A—Each citizen is interested to see that no favoritism and no errors creep into the classification. In each local board area a Government Appeal Agent, recommended by the governor and named by the president, will appeal from any local board decision which he believes is wrong. If a citizen feels that registrant X, who has been given a deferred classification, should be classified as available for training,

Miss Porter Is Married in Sunday Rites

Sunday afternoon at 5:30 at the First Methodist church, Miss Pansy Lee Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Porter, became the bride of Mr. Ernest George Marsh, Jr., of Victoria, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Marsh, Sr., of Wheelock.

The altar was banked with fern and the pulpit was decorated with rose asters. Tall floor baskets of gladioli, and white tapers in wedding candelabra completed the altar decorations.

The candles were lighted preceding the ceremony by James and Phillip Porter, young brothers of the bride.

Prenuptial Music

For prenuptial music, a violin trio composed of Misses Byrna Marjorie Goldberg, Gloria Graham and Rose Ann Woods played Evening Star, Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms, and Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Wagner's Wedding March, played by the violinists. Miss Flora Dell Marsh of Wheelock, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Virginia Lee Smith of Fort Worth, formerly of Cisco, were bridesmaids.

Waitress Wears Stars and Stripes

Patriotic chic in new costumes for waitresses is shown in Chicago by Catherine Cramer, above, who wears this attractive stars-and-stripes uniform.

Miss Polly Porter attended her sister as maid of honor. She also wore blue and carried pink asters.

Mr. Marsh was attended by Dr. Harde LeSuer of San Angelo as best man, Valjean W. Lehmann of Victoria, and Curtis Anderson of Austin. Ushers were Dr. F. S. Henika and Phil Goodrum, both of Austin.

The bride entered on the arm of her father. She was attired in a gown of ivory slipper satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and shirred girdle. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a satin scroll, in the center of which was a tiny cluster of orange blossoms.

She carried a white satin prayer book, topped with a single white orchid, and clusters of bouvardia were caught at intervals in the shower of satin ribbons which fell from the prayer book.

There was a reception at the Porter home immediately following the wedding. After the bride and groom had cut the first piece of the three-tier wedding cake, Mrs. G. R. Porter of Waxahachie, and Mrs. W. J. Foxworth presided.

Assisting in the dining room were Misses Lurline Poe, Maxine Burkett, Marian Jacobs, Billye Cole and Cathryne Russell.

Other members of the house party were Mrs. J. B. Cate, who presided at the guest book, Mrs. C. R. West and Mrs. J. T. Anderson.

As for the Mexican-United States agreement, it was emphasized that the initiative for the accord best would come from Mexico, and that the opening spade-work probably would come when Gen. Francisco Urquiza, assistant chief of staff of the Mexican army, visits the United States with a military delegation accepting the American War Department's invitation to inspect military centers.

The same sort of virus has penetrated to a considerable extent the citizenship of this country. It has caused every community and state to look to Washington for the solution to its local problems. The magic of the formula makers who, after thousands of years, claimed to have found the answer to the hope of being lazy, has operated to atrophy the muscles and mind of the American genius.

The solution of the crisis that confronts us spiritually and practically will not be found in Washington. It won't be found in Austin. It will be found at home, in the communities that make up this great land.

Regarded as one of the best posted men in the country on the oil business, Mr. Dudley will speak on "The Industry Is Ready," a discussion of the petroleum industry's ability to meet any increased demands for national preparedness. The oil publisher is widely traveled not only in this country, but also abroad, and recently returned from an extensive survey of the oil industry in South America.

Nearly 1,000 Texas oil men are expected to hear Mr. Dudley's talk and other convention speeches.
