Better Fishing Predicted at Lake This Year

Fishing will be better at Lake Cisco this season, Roy Judin, lake patrolman, predicted. The game fishing open season begins on May 1.

Judin explained that tests during the year have shown presence of more food for smaller fish in the lake, which makes it possible for these fish to feed without exposing themselves to attacks of the larger ones. Hence, he pointed out, the larger fish have not been able to gorge themselves on the schools of baby fish and will be more inclined to accept baits.

Judin's prediction coincides with that of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster commission, which said that fishing is expected to be better in most bodies of water in the state.

Eastland Man and Daughter Killed

EASTLAND, April 17 (SpC)—Messages received by their relatives in Eastland Wednesday told of the death of S. S. (Steve) Brawner and his daughter, Jewell Massey, in Wichita Falls Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning.

Brawner, it was stated, was killed instantly and Mrs. Massey lingered until about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. But little details were given in telegrams received.

Relatives left Eastland for Wichita Falls immediately. Stephen S. Brawner was one of the pioneer residents of Eastland and made his home here until after the death of his wife, who was Miss Laura Webb, also a member of one of the pioneer Eastland county families. He was engaged in the transfer business.

His daughter, Jewell, was born and reared here, where she became the wife of Buster Massey, who died in 1939, and is buried here. It is understood that she had but a few weeks ago married the man who, it was reported, killed her and her father. His name was reported as Davis.

Relatives said this morning that in all probability Brawner would be buried at Flatwoods, four miles south of Eastland, beside his wife and that Mrs. Massey would be buried in the Eastland cemetery where her husband is buried.

Cisco Man Named PCA Representative

The Stephenville Production Credit association again has a resident representative located in Eastland county since the appointment of Walter Hill of Cisco as inspector and field representative. Mr. Hill, who is a former resident of Comanche, recently leased and moved to the S. H. Hill ranch near Cisco and Eastland, where he is carrying on extensive ranching operations.

Eastland county also has a member of the association's board of directors. I. S. Echols of Gorman was recently elected to serve as a member of the five-member board.

The association serves ten counties, Eastland being one of the leading counties in volume of business.

Deputy Sup't Praises Cisco School System

Praise for the condition of the Cisco school system and the progress that is being made in all departments was expressed today by G. D. Holbrook of Brownwood, deputy state superintendent for this district who is here today on supervisory tour.

"After checking the entire system it has been my pleasure to note continued progress in the public schools of Cisco," he said.

"I note that the teaching staff ranks high both in academic training and in service. The schools are being gradually improved in equipment. I notice with particular pleasure the addition of new visual education equipment. The organization and administration of the system are noteworthy. There is an improved distributory system and the relocation of the high school library is good."

"I find upon close check that all high school teachers, including those doing part time work in the college, have pupil loads which are not in excess of required standards.

"I also visited the junior college and was agreeably surprised to see a goodly number in attendance, well equipped library and science rooms and work in general progressing nicely and at a standard equal to those found in other junior colleges of the state.

WORST RAID OF WAR HITS LONDON TODAY

English Demand Revenge on Berlin for Destruction Caused

London clamored for revenge on Berlin today while residents of the English capital surveyed the devastation left by the worst German air raid of the war.

Seemingly endless relays of German bombers swooped inside a ring of roaring anti-aircraft fire last night and early today and dealt London its heaviest aerial blow of the war.

For hours stuck after stick of heavy explosives crashed into a sleepless city and though no casualties and damages were announced both were expected to be heavy.

In fact, details of the raid's effect were meager before an interruption in communications recalled a similar delay which kept from the world for many hours the disaster wrought in the fire and explosive assault last December 29.

While the raid went on for hour after hour, British sea forces struck a major blow at resurgent axis troops in north Africa and fought furiously to stem the German columns threatening to outflank the allies' strong Greek intrenchments.

The naval blow was disclosed in an admiralty announcement that the Mediterranean fleet had annihilated an axis convoy of eight ships enroute from Sicily to Tripoli, obviously to reinforce the German-Italian columns now engaged with the British along the Egyptian frontier.

Three Italian destroyers, the British said, were sent to the bottom, along with five troop and supply freighters, one an ammunition ship. The sunk ships totaled 20,000 tons. The loss of a single British destroyer, the L870-ton Mohawk, was acknowledged.

Program Given by Choral Club at Assemblies

Miss Ella Andres and the high school choral club presented a program of songs at the high school assembly Tuesday and at the college assembly Wednesday morning.

For the first group of songs—"I Love Life," "Marchita," and "Shortenin' Bread," the group was accompanied by Doris Jamison, Hjalmar Bergh accompanied the choral club while they sang "On Wings of Song," by Mendelssohn, and "Night Song" by Cloey. The chorus sang "Robin in the Lilac Bush," by Nevin, without an accompanist. The last three numbers will be sung at contest in Abilene this week-end.

The choral club members are: Brenda Warwick, Dorothy Brock, Jane Gilman, Alice Farley, Layce Coats, Lillian Spears, Mary Frances Keough, Golda Warren, Katherine Keough, Katherine Langston, Betty Lee Paschall, Helen Kirklen, Zovelle Cagle, Bonnie Jean Wilson, LaVoice Wilson, Polly Ann McDaniel, Doris Thomas, Bryna Goldberg, Frances Hanrahan, Gloria Henson, Dorothy Jackson, Jeanette Myrick, Euna Faye Callaman and Doris Jamison.

Drug stores sales in the U. S. averaged $11.87 per person in 1939, according to the census.

War Is Disease, Missionary Says

War is a horrible disease, Miss Katherine Schutz, missionary to China now on furlough, told the Cisco Rotary club in an interesting address today noon. A student in Germany at the time that Hitler came to power and a member of the faculty of Nanking college at Nanking, China, during the early stages of the Japanese conquest, Miss Schutz brought to the Cisco club an intimate personal knowledge of the condition in Europe and Asia, as well as horror of warfare born of personal contact with its worst aspects.

Miss Schutz is a Texas girl, a native of Marfa. She is a member of the Christian church and is now attending the state convention of Christian churches at Breckenridge where she has appeared on the program of several sessions. She was introduced by Mrs. Edward Lee, a schoolmate and close personal friend. Also a club guest was the Rev. J. R. Wright, pastor, of the First Christian church here.

Her address dealt with the conditions in Germany at the beginning of the Nazi regime. She told of the educational methods used by Hitler to arouse in young Germany a new pride of country and knowledge of its culture as the basis for the new order that has been created on a vast scale and to an astonishing degree.

"At first," she said, "I was impressed with the prospect for a new and more prosperous Germany. Today I am appalled by what is taking place there."

The spread of the Japanese conquest was briefly sketched while she dealt with the conditions inflicted upon the Chinese people by the Japanese.

"There is something tragic in the song 'God Bless America,'" she said. "When I hear it it brings tears to my eyes. For we in America are blessed beyond conception.

"We must guard ourselves against the condition that is developing on a worldwide scale. It is a condition of hatred. Nothing good can be accomplished by hatred. It is not the German people or the Japanese people who are to blame. It is the regimes which have them in their power."

After Miss Schutz's address, Supt. R. N. Cluck presented 11-year-old Connie Alexander, sixth grade declaimer, who read a clever and humorous poem.

RETURN FROM TRIP. Mrs. Albert Hansen and daughters and Misses Ellen Prange and Dorothy Blackburn have returned from a visit with Mr. Hansen in Pecos. While away, they visited several points of interest, going to Fort Davis, to the McDonald observatory and on Sunday through Carlsbad caverns.

BALKAN WAR REACHES NEW INTENSITY

Athens Claim Ground Littered With Dead Nazis

Athens reported today that the battle in Greece has reached undreamed-of heights of intensity with the bodies of thousands of dead Germans and the debris of wrecked equipment littering the ground as the Germans hurried wave after wave of attackers against the allied lines. The Greek report denied that the line had not been pierced at any point.

From Germany, however, came reports that the attack had been slowed down to tactical maneuvers to establish lines from which to deliver the knockout blow confidently predicted by the Nazi high command.

Two columns. Two German columns smashed into the heart of the central Greek-British front last night and today and threatened to outflank the strong allied entrenchments thrown up on the slopes of Mount Olympus on the eastern coast.

The Greek high command disclosed that one column entered the upper valley of the Aliakmon river in the region of Grevena, 60 miles south of the Yugoslav frontier in a drive toward Kalabaka, which is the entrance to the plains of Thessaly.

The other column plunging southward from the Kozane plateau to the east also crossed the Aliakmon river. This drive was toward the western slopes of Mount Olympus, which forms the eastern anchor of the allied defense line. Obviously this eastern column intended to skirt Mount Olympus and encircle its fiercely fighting defenders.

Kalabaka is the northern head of a little railroad running to Trikala and connecting with Larisa, Athens and the main Greek rail network.

Further east, the Greek command said, the Germans had crossed to the south bank of the Aliakmon from the heights of Kozane. This is about 15 miles south of the town of Kozane. The Aliakmon describes a sharp "V" across the Greek peninsula before emptying into Salonika bay.

South of the Albanian town of Koritza (Koritza), the Italians were acknowledged to have taken the gorge of Kiasma Marit (apparently on the Devol river).

The Athens radio, which broadcast the communique, said the information "adds nothing new," though it admitted that "it presents all those difficulties which are natural after enforced evacuation and transfer of defensive lines under fire."

More Eastland County Farmers Purchasing Goats

Four Eastland county farmers have just bought for foundation flocks 144 high grade Angora nannies from Joe B. Ross of Sonora, according to County Agent Elmo V. Cook. Those who bought the goats were John Blackwell, 35 head; Frank Williamson, 50 head; George Bennett, 19 head, and J. C. Carter, 40 head.

The goats bought from Ross are "C" type, producing a fine quality of mohair and are from a flock that has been bred up for more than forty years.

Cook reports that Eastland county farmers are buying small flocks of goats so frequently that it is hard to estimate the numbers brought into the county during the last few months. He admits however, that some of the goats being brought into the county are culls from flocks that were not too good before culling. He describes a good mohair goat as one well covered over the entire body, except the face and legs, with fine mohair of a good length, and an animal that will produce a good poundage of mohair for a number of years. Such an animal should also produce its kind.

Defense Growth Spreads Across U. S.

The first orders in the defense program went largely to those parts of the country which were already highly industrialized. That is natural, because plants already in existence, and concentrations of skilled labor already assembled, could be turned to defense production more quickly than new plants could be built.

But the second phase has now begun. New plants which had to be built to supplement existing facilities or to fill gaps in munitions production are being located inland. In Washington offices hang maps with a red line drawn 250 miles inside the seacoast and land boundaries of the country. That is a "safety zone," inside which plants and populations are assumed to be relatively secure from bombing attacks. New plants which did not exist at all before the defense program are being located within this "safety zone." Lake City, Mo., and Denver, Colo., see new small arms plants rising. Milan, Tenn., has an ordnance plant, and powder and loading plants rise at Charlestown, Ind.

Judgments and Orders
The following orders were issued last week from the bench of the 91st court:
State vs. Lola Harrell et al. violating liquor laws. Dismissed on motion of district attorney.
Huron Brassiers vs. Gertrude Brassiers, divorce. Judgment for plaintiff.
Lucy May Dolgenor vs. E. A.

The southern and western areas of the country have been promised "every possible preference" in locating new plants.

THIS is all to the good from every point of view. In the first place, the events of the European war have shown the priceless advantage of having a country's productive facilities scattered. If a few terrific air raids on a concentrated industrial area can cripple a country's production, that country is in a bad way. But if it has many airplane, steel, auto, and munitions plants scattered all over a vast country, it is much better protected against sudden raids or sabotage.

THERE is the further fact that it is not good for a country to be completely divided into sections entirely devoted to one kind of production. If a vast section of a country has nothing but farmers, that section will have interests which may be different from a section which is largely made up of industrial cities. Whereas if industrial production is scattered so that all sections have their factories and cities, and all have their farms, the whole country is better balanced, and sectional differences are far less likely to arise. Therefore it is possible that great benefits will come to the whole pattern of the nation due to the sheer necessity of building industrial plants for safety's sake in regions where they had not gone naturally.

Here is another of those changes which is going on so quietly that we scarcely realize it. Yet this, too, like so many other changes that are taking place today, they may greatly change the America that is to be.

When money goes to a man's head it touches his soft spot.

THEY GET $25 A DAY FOR 24 HOURS WORK—THAT'S SETUP FOR UNHAPPY MEDIATION DRAMA

BY PETER EDSON
NIA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—On the life of a member of the new National Mediation Board is just a mere one as the 11 men who will be appointed to the board.

When the board is appointed, it will be the first time that the board will be appointed by the President. The board will be appointed by the President, and the board will be appointed by the President.

Then the members scattered to their regular jobs, and since the President's order specified that they were to get $25 a day plus expenses while actually on the job, they thought they were off the payroll. Instead, they've all worked every day including Sunday and at such hours as would bring the blizz of shame to any advocate of the eight-hour day, or even the 12- or 16-hour day.

On the weekend that they tackled the Allis-Chalmers case, their first session ran through to 11 p. m. Sunday morning and except for scrub women and janitors, they were practically the only occupants of the big Social Security building which is O. P. M.—O'Connell's headquarters.

The negotiators nearly caved in, though the negotiations fortunate.

States, 7 Cities Top Honors Safety Contest

CAGO, April 17 — Four states and seven cities which won top honors in the National Traffic Safety Contest saved the lives of 1,387,897 citizens in 1940 effective accident prevention programs.

It was revealed today by figures from the National Safety Council, which conducts the contest and presents the winners with vic-tories at an Award Dinner in Washington, D. C., April 21.

Four states — Connecticut, Minnesota and Oregon composite mileage death rate below the national average. This represents a saving of 1,387,897 lives on the basis of 1938.

Seven cities — Washington, Kansas City, Chattanooga, N. Y., Watertown, N. Y., and La Grange, Ill. — cut their combined death rate 46 per cent below the national average, for a saving of 100 lives.

These states and cities won first place in their divisions of the contest. In addition, Connecticut received the national grand award for states, and Kansas City and Dallas tied for the grand award among cities.

All 48 states and 1,271 cities participated in the 1940 contest, the council announced.

Governors and mayors of the winning states and cities will attend the award dinner to accept the victory plaques. U. S. Senator Harold H. Burton of Ohio will speak.

During Senator Burton's administration as mayor of Cleveland that city gained nation-wide recognition for its success in reducing traffic accidents. It won first place among largest cities in the National Traffic Safety contest in 1939 and tied for first place in 1938.

Col. John Stilwell, president of the National Safety Council, will preside at the dinner and present the awards.

The council announced that in addition to the awards to winning states and cities, it has bestowed a special award on Edward G. Robinson for his contribution to traffic safety in 1940 through his "Big Town" radio broadcasts.

Mr. Robinson will accept the award on his broadcast April 16, at which time he will present an-

Restrictions on Acreage of Peanuts Lifted

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Restrictions on acreage planted to peanuts for commercial oil purposes have been lifted in view of a steadily growing shortage of domestically produced vegetable oil, AAA officials recently announced. The war also is interfering greatly with oil imports.

For every acre of cotton which a farmer underplants in 1941 on his allotment to that crop he is allowed to increase his peanut acreage by a corresponding acre, providing the peanuts are sold to an oil mill for crushing purposes. If he complies with these instructions he is entitled to full pay-

Workers Should Carry Social Security Cards

ABILENE, April 17.—In a statement issued today by W. O. King, manager of the Abilene Social Security board field office, it was pointed out that as a result of the nation-wide labor recruitment campaign being carried on by state employment security agencies, thousands of men may be called upon to leave their places of residence to take employment in defense plants in various parts of the country. In such cases, King said, these workers should have their social security account numbers in their possession.

"It is also important that when a worker leaves home to take a job in some distant city or town he should leave a copy of his social security account number with his wife or some other member of his family where it may be readily secured in case the worker should lose or misplace the number he had in his possession. By doing this he may be able to save time by writing or telegraphing back home for his number."

It was explained by King that any field office of the Social Security board will take a worker's application for a duplicate social security account number when it has been lost, but extreme care should be taken by all workers to preserve and safeguard them by keeping duplicate records of their own account numbers.

"The Social Security board uses account numbers for identifying old-age survivors' insurance accounts and all wages received in covered employment are credited to them. Old-age and survivors insurance benefits, when they become payable, are based on the worker's wages as credited to his social security account number," King stated.

Although diminished in number, the country general store carries on in this age of fast travel and specialization, says the census. Approximately 40,000 remain, compared with 104,000 ten years ago.

To Stop Chasing May 10th

Independent oil industry of Stephens, Palo Pinto and Erath counties today faced the market for more than 100,000 barrels of oil per month, the bulk of the producing oil fields in these four counties.

The oil is being produced by the Illinois Pipe Line company, which subsequently purchases the oil from the producers. The oil is then transported through its pipe lines to the Gulf coast, where it is refined and marketed.

The Illinois Pipe Line company, which operates a system of pipe lines extending 300 miles in the area of the four counties, has a production of between 3,000 and 4,000 barrels of crude oil a day for this area.

Not only oil wells, but also gas wells in these plants such as those operated by the Lone Star company and the Hickok companies are affected.

Future Book Favorite for Derby

Dispose is undisputed favorite in future books for Kentucky Derby, May 3. King Ranch's son of Discovery established seven-furlong track record winning Bahamas Handicap at Hialeah Park, where he also took Flamingo Stakes. Jockey is Albert Robertson.

Illinois Pipe Line company to accept your oil for transportation through its pipe line on and after May 10, 1941, it will be necessary for you to procure another purchaser who will take delivery of such oil at any established delivery point on our line.

Yours very truly,
Illinois Pipe Line company,
Charles Bunge, Jr., president.

Among the producers affected by these notices are the Lone Star Gasoline company, Lone Star Gas company, the Hickok companies, Kewanee Oil and Gas company, T. P. Coal and Oil company, States Oil corporation, Arab Gasoline corporation, C. W. Hoffman, Sinclair-Prairie, Phillips Petroleum company, and numerous others.

The total monthly runs which would be shut off unless another market is obtained are 101,972 barrels.

"The effect on this area if another market is not obtained would certainly be disastrous," the representative of one of the larger producers said today.

Faced with such a prospect, the operators were making strenuous efforts to secure another market before May 10. So far, however, their efforts have not been successful.

Motor vehicle sales combined with motor vehicle and drivers' licenses yielded all states $1,233,000,000, or 30 per cent of gross state collections in 1940, according to the census. This was more than total tax collections of all the states 15 years ago.

Cancer Deaths In Texas Are On the Increase

AUSTIN, April 17 (Spe)—"Next to tuberculosis, no other disease in recent years has been more emphasized in the press and lay magazines, over the radio and from the speaker's platform than cancer. Despite the widespread and easily understood information thus made generally available, the number of cancer deaths in Texas and in most states continues to increase. This unfortunate situation in part is due to the fact that fully one-third of these fatalities, but for carelessness or ignorance, need not have occurred," declares Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"During 1940, deaths from all causes in the state of Texas totaled 62,482. Cancer was responsible for 5,345, or 8.6 per cent of all deaths. Out of this number, at least one-third of the cancer deaths, or 1,780, might have been saved had a physician been consulted early in the course of the disease. A loss of 1,780 savable lives is a factor that neither the medical profession nor public health officials can view complacently. Moreover, a measurable reduction in this figure depends not so much upon present-day scientific information, but, rather, upon an more general individual appreciation of early symptoms and prompt professional attention thereto.

"This suicidal indifference to recognizable suspicious symptoms is explained but cannot be excused, on the basis that in the precancerous and early stages of cancer pain is lacking, bone cancer excepted. Thus, a painless lump in the chest or other parts of the body; a painless though persistent sore, particularly on the face or on the mouth; a painless though unusual bleeding from any body opening; and chronic indigestion are frequently disregarded until pain drives the victim to his physician's office. When the disease has progressed to such a point, often the treatment that could have been applied successfully earlier no longer is of benefit.

"While the above-mentioned symptoms do not necessarily mean that cancer exists or is in the offing, to assume that such is not the case is to turn one's back deliberately upon warnings that can only be properly diagnosed by a physician. The sooner the facts are known, the greater the chances for recovery, provided the diagnosis be positive.

"It is heartening to know that in three-fourths of the cases displaying usual symptoms, cancer is not present. Nevertheless, it is the height of folly and may result in what practically amounts to self-destruction to be unappreciative of their potential significance.

"In short, prompt diagnosis, coupled with prompt and effective treatment, is the greatest weapon against cancer. In the light of present-day cancer knowledge, the cure of cancer depends to a large extent upon early teamwork between the patient and his physician.

All taxes in 1940 totaled $14,300,000,000, according to the census bureau. Each person's share averaged $100, of which $39 were federal taxes, $27 state taxes, and $34 local government taxes. Each family's share of tax collection averaged $410.

read into the record the notice of both the Oil company and the Illinois Pipe Line company announcing the discontinuance of purchases.

Peculiar, Says Sadler.

"It is a peculiar situation," Sadler remarked, "that while large producers are asking increased purchases, such a situation should develop in this area." He appealed to major companies to provide a new market and give the necessary relief.

The notices which precipitated the crisis, and which were read into the commission record yesterday were:

To Producers and Royalty Owners:

You are respectfully advised that on May 10, 1941, the Ohio Oil company will be obliged to discontinue the purchase of crude oil in Eastland, Stephens, Palo Pinto, and Erath counties, Texas.

Therefore this is to notify you that the division order executed by you to this company for the sale and purchase of crude oil produced from any lease or leases in any of the counties above named is hereby cancelled, effective on and after May 10, 1941.

We regret that circumstances have forced the company to take this action.

Very truly yours,
O. D. Donnell, president.

The notice was dated April 4.

To Producers and Royalty Owners:

The Illinois Pipe Line company has been notified by the Ohio Oil company that effective May 10, 1941, it will discontinue the purchase of crude oil in the counties of Stephens, Eastland, Palo Pinto and Erath in the state of Texas.

We are therefore obliged to advise you that if you desire the il-

Eastland County Cattle Free of "TB"

Dr. Henry Fisherman, veterinarian for the U. S. bureau of animal industry has just completed tuberculin testing of 1916 cattle in Eastland county and found them to be 100 per cent free of tuberculosis. The cattle, mostly dairy cows and family milk cows, were owned by 187 people. Dr. Fisherman spent four weeks testing the cattle in the county as a part of the U. #### Pumping Wells In Majority in Texas Oil Fields

DALLAS, April 17.—Pumping wells are far in the majority among Texas oil wells, a survey just made by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association shows.

The pumps, many of them making only a barrel or two of oil a day, constitute almost 60 per cent of all the oil wells in the state, the survey showed. Outside the east Texas field, the percentage is even higher, with 72 per cent of all producing wells on the pump. In some areas as high as 98 per cent of all wells are pumps.

In actual number, Texas pumping wells totaled 52,972 against 36,942 still flowing. Outside east Texas, pumps numbered 45,836, compared with 17,844 which flowed. Figures are as of Jan. 1, 1940.

Out of the approximately million Texans who get their entire living from the petroleum industry, 125,000 depend solely upon pumping wells, the survey shows.

"While the average pumping well in Texas produces about seven barrels of oil daily, further analysis shows that nearly 24,000 stripper wells produce an average of only 3.9 barrels a day," the association pointed out. "Some of these produce only half a barrel a day, but nevertheless are important to the small operator whose sole income comes from a few of them."

"These stripper wells are the backbone of the Texas oil industry, since many communities and a majority of the people living in them depend upon such oil fields for their existence."

Truck Growers at Gorman Organize

GORMAN, April 17. (Cpc)—Farmers and truck growers of the Gorman section of Eastland county have organized themselves into an association and have elected the following officers:

Farmers interested in the organization are urged to contact the officials of the organization. Members will be under no obligation to sell their produce through the association.

Two large warehouses of the Southwestern Peanut Growers' association at Gorman will be used as a market center, it is stated.

Paschall, Sr., of Cisco, with whom she made her home here for 20 years, died at her Granbury home Saturday morning at 2 o'clock. She was the daughter of Col. J. P. Alford, who lived in Cisco for a number of years while it was a young community in the 30's. Mrs. Peveler had been in ill health for a number of years.

Club Boys to Test Peanut Inoculator

Twelve 4-H club boys of Eastland county have been given a new and special nitrogen inoculator for their peanut demonstrations, according to John A. Wright, assistant county agent.

This new inoculator is still in the experimental stage and has been prepared especially for peanuts. If it proves to be better for peanut production than the general legume inoculator, it will be placed on the market for sale next year.

The Eastland county 4-H club boys are planning to keep an accurate record of their demonstrations, and compare them with the production on the same type of

Convicted Man Still Eligible for Service

A man convicted of a felony, but who receives a suspended sentence, is still eligible for induction into the military service if otherwise subject to the selective service act, it was announced at state headquarters today.

General J. Watt Page, state director, pointed out that this rule applies in those cases in which the suspended sentence is still pending, as well as in those cases in which the suspended sentence has been set aside.

"All Texas selective service boards have today been instructed to check their classification records, and to reclassify and induct in the order of their order numbers all registrants heretofore placed in Class IV-F as felons who come within the purview of this ruling," General Page said.

Over 2,000 NYA Students Get Jobs

AUSTIN, April 17. (Cpc)—During the past three months 2,018 boys and girls have left National Youth administration projects in Texas for jobs in private industry, according to J. C. The NYA jobs left open by these youth going into private employment are being filled from waiting lists of other boys and girls who are unemployed, between the ages of 16 and 24, inclusive; out-of-school; and who need the work experience provided on NYA projects.

Kellam said the jobs which these young people obtained ranged from helpers in the metal and mechanical trades to power machine operator.

On NYA Work Experience Projects in Texas 23,889 boys and girls now are receiving work experience in the fundamentals of manual skills.
