LIQUOR SALES BANNED FOR ABILENE

Cisco drug stores had received no communications to date regarding suspending the sale of liquor pending putting into operation the new liquor law which limits the number of prescriptions per month that may be written by a physician and filled by drug stores.

Sale of liquor by Abilene drug stores is due to come to a complete stop today, J. W. Morrow, district supervisor for the Texas liquor control board, indicated last night, and remain suspended until the setup for administration of the new state liquor law is completed.

"Under the new law, all physicians must obtain permits from the board before they can prescribe liquor," Morrow commented, "and I feel sure that they will cooperate with the spirit of the law and not issue any such prescriptions until the permits have been obtained."

Any prescription issued without a permit is a violation of the new law, he pointed out.

As to the stores themselves, for the first time in history the flow of liquor between the drug stores and the wholesalers is expected to be reversed. Under the new law, a drug store is allowed a maximum of 10 gallons, about three cases, in stock.

Most of the stores have considerably more than that amount on hand now. This surplus will probably be picked up by the wholesalers and credited to the stores' accounts, Morrow said. The stores will be given several days to complete this transaction.

Twin Cities Call Catholic Throng For June Congress

The Most Rev. John G. Murray, Archbishop of St. Paul, May 20.—Catholics of the northwest are planning their greatest gathering. Some 450,000 of the faithful are expected to attend the ninth annual National Eucharistic Congress in the Twin Cities, June 23-26.

HUMBLE MEN TO NEW YORK FOR PIPE LINE

The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey has requested the Humble Company to furnish several key men for the construction of a pipe line project from Toronto, Can., via Montreal to port at Portland, Me.; such project being necessary due to delivery to federal government of a number of tankers, by both these companies, for use in the British war effort.

Mr. R. Slaughter, of 2129 Humbletown, Cisco, Texas, is leaving today for New York and Portland, Me., to handle the purchasing of docks, pump stations, tank farms and rights-of-ways for this proposed 12-in. pipe line, which, when completed, will handle some 60,000 bbls. crude per day. The line will be some 400 to 600 miles long and, as stated, will terminate at Portland, Me.

Mr. Slaughter will be away for about 6 months and will make his headquarters at Portland, Me.

Other key men being sent by the Humble are Messrs. Geo. A. Lee, assistant superintendent of the Millard district and Messrs. Stevenson, Lundt, Johnson and Goffner of the Houston, Texas, office.

All of these men are experts in their line of work and have handled many foreign projects, one of which was the Iraq pipe line project in Mesopotamia, which Hitler is trying for at present.

Tank Topped To Make New Tanks

Tanks like this aren't as useful to national defense as the kind that hold guns, not water. So down it topples at Muskegon, Mich., to be melted up for scrap metal, probably to build new army tanks.

RECREATION FOR SOLDIERS IS NEEDED

Money Will Operate Community Centers Built by U. S.

A campaign to raise $400,000 in Texas in conjunction with a United Service Organizations for National Defense is announced by E. B. Germany, regional and state chairman of the U. S. O.

Inaugurated at the request of President Roosevelt as an integral and vital part of the national defense program, the U. S. O. campaign to raise $10,765,000 nationally will begin officially June 3 and continue to July 4. Purpose of the campaign, as described by the president in a recent press conference at the White House, is to provide "for the recreation, welfare and spiritual needs of young men and women who have answered and will answer the call of national defense."

Expressing concern over moral and social conditions encountered by soldiers, sailors, and defense workers in many communities adjacent to camps and bases throughout the country, army and navy officials issued a call through the secretary of war and the navy for a national private organization to accept the responsibility of providing recreational and welfare facilities in more than 300 American communities.

Six principal service organizations — the YMCA, YWCA, Salvation Army, Travelers Aid Society, National Catholic Community, and Jewish Welfare Board — responded to the call, and at a meeting in Washington April 17 developed the United Service Organization for National Defense as an over-all planning body to coordinate private activities with government effort. The meeting was presided over by Federal Security Administrator Paul V. McNutt.

Under the program adopted, congress will appropriate funds to build and equip the community centers near the various camps and bases, and the U. S. O. will raise the $10,765,000 necessary to operate them for a year. It was felt by both government officials and private organization leaders that for the government to assume the responsibility of maintaining as well as building the service establishments would lead, despite the best intentions otherwise, to political appointments and a po-

Sanitation Course Offered at Lubbock

Mayor G. P. Mitchell is in receipt of the following letter which is self explanatory:

"The Texas Technological college at Lubbock, Texas, is offering a course on camp and community sanitation which is a part of the national defense program.

"Communicable diseases continue to take toll in Texas due in part to lack of knowledge in matters pertaining to sanitary science.

"In the event that your city wishes to take advantage of this opportunity by sending one of its employees to Texas Technological college, or again, in the event that some young man in your community wishes to qualify himself on camp sanitation, you will kindly have him get in touch with Professor J. H. Murdock.

Very truly yours,
GEO. W. COX, M. D.,
State Health Officer."

A. C. C. Students Visit Lake Cisco

The freshman class of ACC, Abilene, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Southern, enjoyed a picnic, swimming and skating party at Lake Cisco Saturday afternoon.

Brownwood Votes Overwhelmingly Against Beer

By a vote of nearly 2 1/2 to 1, Brown county voters registered their opposition Saturday to legalization of 4 per cent beer.

In heavy balloting, they rolled up a majority of 1,468 votes against legalization of beer in Saturday's referendum. It was the first beer election held in the county since 1936, and showed an even greater dry sentiment than was polled then.

For the first time in many years, the city of Brownwood voted against beer, 1,073 to 747. Ward One was the only city box to go wet, the majority there being 53 votes. These were drowned in a sand storm of dry votes in the other three wards.

Elkins was the only rural box to poll a dry majority.

In 1936, Brown county went dry by 1,134 votes in an election that saw even heavier voting than in Saturday's election. In the 1936 voting, 2,826 votes were cast against legalization and 1,692 for legalization, or a total of 4,518 votes.

In that election, Brownwood went wet by 69 votes, polling 1,085 for legalization and 1,025 against.

In the last previous election on beer in this county, held in 1933, Brown county went dry by 716 votes, polling 1,697 votes against legalization to 981 for. In that election, Brownwood went wet, 798 to 390, or a majority of 498 votes.

Mrs. Morrison, 22, a registered nurse, was killed when the car occupied by her and Mary Jane Kelly, 20, of Winters, overturned four times on a curve 2 miles north of Wingo.

Mrs. Morrison was a member of Texas Graduate Nurses association and Hendrix Memorial Hospital alumnae association. Funeral was held at Elliott's chapel in Abilene.

Mrs. Morrison was a niece to Mrs. Jay Warren and C. P. Mosley. She will be remembered in Cisco as Nina B. Mosley.

Survivors are the husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Mosley of Winters; two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Howard, of Wingo; and Suddell Moseley of Winters; two brothers, A. D. Moseley of San Angelo, and Norris Moseley of Winters; her maternal grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Smith, of San Angelo, and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Moseley, of Wingo.

Mrs. Manning Dies Sunday Buried at Waco

Funeral services were held at the B. N. Holland home, 407 West Ninth street, Monday at 10 o'clock, for Mrs. C. D. Wm. A. Mancill Visits Cousin Here; Speaks To High School During Chapel

Wm. A. Mancill, of Boston, Mass., cousin of R. W. Mancill, was a pleasant caller to the office of The Daily Press Monday, where he chatted for a short time. He also made a talk at the high school in chapel, and delighted the student body and faculty members with his highly interesting travelsogue concerning Norway and Sweden, where he had spent nine years as an attaché of the American consulate office.

Mr. Mancill was born in Mississippi, but was reared in Texas, and graduated from Simmons college in 1911.

During his 14 years of residence in Europe, he learned to speak half a dozen languages, including German, and is a very interesting conversationalist. He is an immigration technical advisor for the department of justice.

At the high school, he spoke of the manners and customs of the people, and emphasized the dignity of their manners, especially those of the Swedish people, where the light of the midnight sun enables one to read without lamp-light at midnight. Though one could not see the sun during the mid-winter period, its light never entirely fades, Mr. Mancill said.

He spoke of their food, clothing and methods of travel. Of course, the schools, geography of the country, roads and boat routes to and from America, came in for their part of the discussion.

Mr. Mancill tells his stories in a vivid way, so that his audience goes along with him as he speaks. Many of the customs of the various countries are entirely different from those of our own America. One special feature he mentioned was that janitors for large buildings do not live in the basements of the buildings they care for, as they do in the large cities of the United States. They think it unhealthy. They want to receive full benefit of all the sunshine they have, for so many months of the year they are deprived of sight of the sun itself.

In all those countries, fish are an important part of the diet. Their children do not need the vitamins of codliver oil, because their regular diet affords them plenty.

Future Farmer Attending Dairy Judging

G. Caudle, vocational agriculture teacher for the high school, has Future Farmer boys here to attend the official dairy judging at the high school. These boys are either attending to make the dairy judging team for next year, or have projects of their own.

Attending are: Gene Ramon, Marion Powers, Coy Lee, Milton Donald Flaherty, John Potter, Rankin Akers.

The boys are doing a great job with their teacher, and will be in position to carry on their own stock-growing activities in a much more intelligent manner than were the men of the generation, who had to go through work in a more or less trial-and-error method. And they admit it was mostly error, because they had no scientific method to guide them.

FRANCE, AU REVOIR!

Farewell, France, until in some happier day we may see you again! Painful the words, after a year's waiting and hoping that somehow out of the wreck of France something might have been salvaged for freedom. Painful the words to those who have left and who still feel that the French people are good, and clean, and whole-some.

Nearly a year ago, France suffered the humiliation of military defeat. With more than a million of her sons in German prison camps, virtual hostages, to have expected her to continue the war in Africa, or in the Near East, would have been to expect much. There were some who had learned to expect much of France, however. Hope died slowly.

France came. No vote was possible in the confusion of surrender. Whether the French people ever were, or are now, back of Pétain, or Dalric, or Laval, no one knows. There is room for the gravest doubt. Nevertheless, the Pétains, and Dalrics, and the Lavals are in charge of France. They have personally elected (no one compelled them personally) to play ball with Hitler. Aside from actions which might have been forced on them by circumstances, they have given lip service to Fascism, which was not.

They have opened the gates of Tunisia and Syria to the German monster; they have chosen to ride a surf-board on the "waves of the future," on which one must expect the remainder of the French navy to be launched at any moment.

For the moment, the Frenchmen of Fascist point of view are in the saddle. For the moment, they are France. Obviously we must push into the background for the moment the memory of Frenchmen who fought so gallantly for freedom, our own as well as theirs. We must forget, for the moment, that "Liberty, Fraternity and Equality" were born in France. We must not speculate, for the moment, that perhaps 80 per cent of Frenchmen still love freedom. For the moment, such have as France has at the disposal of the totalitarian revolution.

That is the fact, and that is the only fact in reference to France that bears on the situation today. To all who love France, who love the French people, who love the freedom which has been a flowering in France, it is painful to say this. But it is the unshakable truth.

All that can be said today by the most ardent lover of France is, France au Revoir!

Farewell, until we see you again in your true freedom, firm and ardent once more for freedom! Doubt it not, that day will come!

Today's Questions and Answers Given By Cisco Citizens

THE QUESTION: What is your reaction to Gov. O'Daniel's announcement for the U. S. Senate?

THE ANSWERS: BILL REAGAN — I expect to vote for Lyndon Johnson, but presume everybody else will vote for O'Daniel, as usual.

R. F. BLACKBURN — I am for Johnson and believe he will be elected. O'Daniel's luck can't hold out. O. C. HOLCOMB — I am for Lyndon Johnson. K. H. PITFARD — Martin Dies and Gerald Mann are both excellent men. I haven't decided between them yet.

W. W. FIDELL — O'Daniel will probably be elected. However, I think there are better men in the race.

DR. F. E. CLARK — As I see it, the man that can do us the most good is Lyndon Johnson, hence I expect to vote for him.

BILL ST. JOHN — I will support Lyndon Johnson.

DR. PAUL WOODS — I favor Gerald Mann. He is young, capable and energetic.

H. H. MONK — Haven't decided on any one yet. With 18 in the race I'm rather confusing for the average voter.

JOHN KLEINER — I think Gerald Mann is the best qualified and expect to support him.

NICK NICKLAS — I have not decided how my vote will be cast. J. C. McAFFEE — I have not made up my mind positively as to who will get my vote. However, I am NOT going to vote for Dr. John R. Brinkley—no matter what Curley Armstrong thinks about it.

W. D. BRECHEN — Have decided to vote for Lyndon Johnson. He could be of great help to this section.

DR. G. M. STEPHENSON — O'Daniel will very likely be elected.

A. D. ANDERSON — Lyndon Johnson, with the president's blessing, has a good chance to be our next U. S. senator.

C. B. SANFORD — I favor Gerald Mann.

H. W. MANCILL — I favor Lyndon Johnson.

H. A. D'SPAIN — Rather think I'll vote for Johnson, but O'Daniel will probably lead the field.

FRANK HARBELL — I will probably vote for Martin Dies.

DR. J. E. GRIFFIN — I favor Martin Dies.

HENRY BRUMWRIGHT — I am for Gerald Mann. After a few years in Washington I think Texas will be as proud of Mann as they are and have been of Tom Connally and Morris Sheppard. R. W. H. KENNON — The United States ought to be a statesman — not a political "accident." Therefore I shall vote for Martin Dies.

Do You Remember?

(From the Files of the Cisco Daily News, December, 1937)

It was an excited pair that confronted F. F. Brazzaie, bookkeeper of the Cisco Steam Laundry, when he was aroused from his early morning slumbers Tuesday morning by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moyer, who informed Mr. Brazzaie that $1,500 of the family jewels were missing, and their hope was that the missing jewelry might possibly have gotten into the family wash that had been sent to the laundry. Obligingly Mr. Brazzaie accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Moyer to the laundry, and after overcounting the number of their bundle a search was instituted, finding the bundle had already been placed in the wash. But on fishing out the clothes the jewelry was found nicely encased in a pillow slip, none the worse for its trip to the Cisco steam laundry. Mrs. Moyer was overjoyed at the recovery of her valuables, and Mr. Brazzaie was heartily thanked for his interest in showing them every courtesy in the recovery of the property that she feared had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMurray left Tuesday for Oklahoma where they will spend Christmas with Mr. McMurray's parents.

Lawrence Keough, a student at St. Edward's college, Austin, is the guest of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Keough.

C. H. (Coody) Grist, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Grist, and former captain of the Lake football team, was accidentally shot and seriously wounded this morning while duck hunting at Lake Cisco. In slighting from the boat his shot gun, which was being handled by the muzzle, was discharged, and the entire charge struck him just above the right hip.

Fred Grist, a brother, and Daniel Boone were with Grist when the accident occurred, and they rushed him to Cisco where he was given surgical treatment at the office of Dr. Clarke & Hall, after which he was conveyed to the Graham sanitarium. Reports from that infirmary at 2 o'clock this afternoon were to the effect that he was resting easy, and it was thought that he would recover as speedily as possible, considering the nature of the wound, unless unforeseen complications should develop. Hospital authorities stated that the x-ray made of the wound revealed that the shot did not penetrate the cavity, nor were any of the larger vessels severed, and no bones were injured.

Miss Ora Beas Moore, student at C. I. A. Denton, is expected home Tuesday to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Skiles returned Sunday from a stay in Dallas.

Judge and Mrs. Clayton L. Orr are leaving soon to spend the holidays with Judge Orr's parents at Weatherford.

Mrs. Fleet Shepard will leave the last of the week for Temple where she will undergo a surgical operation.

Charles Yates, Jr., is reported on the sick list this week.

Billie Ricks, a student at S. M. U., Dallas will spend the holidays in Cisco with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ricks.

James Moore is home for the holidays. Mr. Moore is a student at Texas Tech.

Mrs. W. J. Foxworth left Wednesday for Dallas, where she will spend the holidays with relatives.

Walter Lenox, son of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Lenox of the First Christian church, will reach home today for the holidays from T. C. U. Walter is majoring in science and will graduate this June with his B. S. degree.

STORIES IN STAMPS

THE 10-year administration of Andres Santa Cruz, pictured on the Bolivian stamp above, was one of the most brilliant in the history of the Latin American republic. Reforms which he instituted placed Bolivia upon a firm basis for future development.

Descended from Atahualpa, last of the Inca emperors through his mother, Santa Cruz received his military training in the Spanish army, but later adopted the patriot cause and gained distinction in the struggle for independence. He headed Bolivar's Council of state, governed Peru during the Liberator's absence, served as minister to Chile. He was elected president of Bolivia in 1829.

Santa Cruz gave Bolivia its legal code, established universities at La Paz and Cochabamba. But his ambition ruined him.

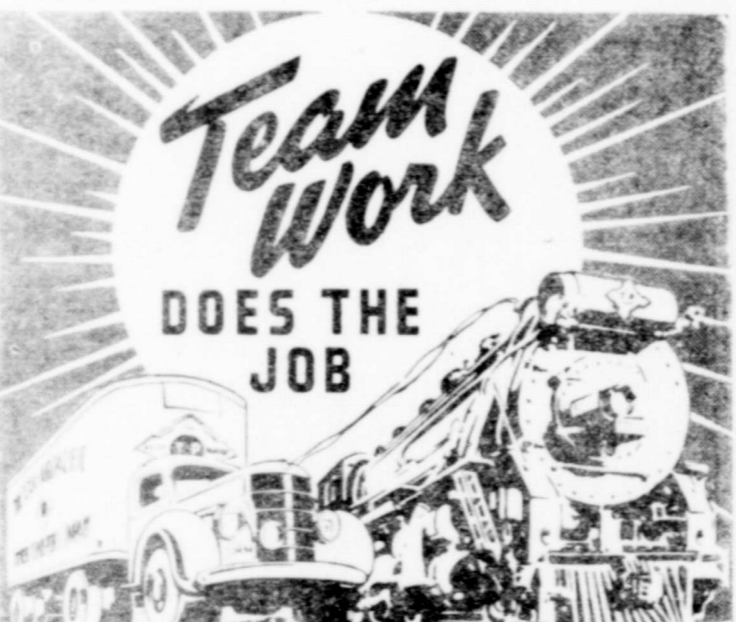

In 1836 he united Peru and Bolivia in a confederation, named himself "Supreme Protector." Chile declared war, broke the confederation and sent Santa Cruz into exile.

Supplementing President Roosevelt's appeal to the people to support this drive which is "fulfilling an essential and patriotic duty," Mr. Germany declared:

"This job of providing wholesome recreational and welfare facilities for our young men and women enrolled in our armed forces and engaged in national defense projects must be undertaken directly by the American people. The army and navy are supplying proper facilities at the camps and bases, but their jurisdiction does not extend beyond the bounds of the reservations and similar service must be provided in communities adjacent to camps for our youth when away from their posts.

"The kind of social conditions encountered by our young men and women in these communities will determine how their character and morale develop during this period when they are loyally serving their country. It will determine what kind of men and women they will be when they return to civil life."

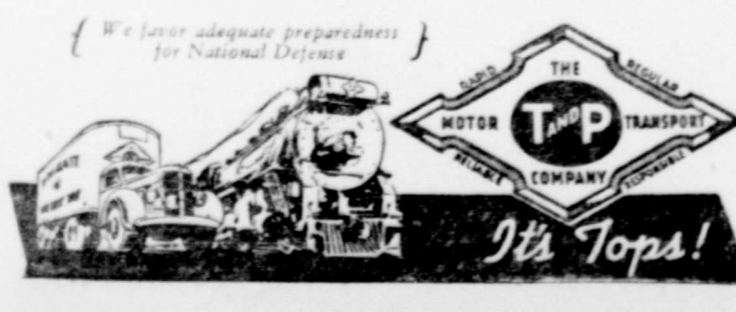

Declaring that this task of maintaining morale on the home front is as vitally important as any phase of our national defense pro-
