

In an area of benevolent climate, blessed with an abundance of the purest lake water, possessing the best in recreational facilities, situated on the Bankhead, all-weather route, with three railroads and many highways, Cisco is the best place in Texas to live and to work.

CISCO ELECTRIC RATES SUBSTANTIALLY CUT

MAYOR, COM. AND DISTRICT MANAGER ACT

New Rates in Effect Now and Will Apply on Statements Going Out July 1

Both residential and commercial users of electric service in Cisco will benefit from a substantial rate reduction to become effective as of June 1. It was announced today by Mayor G. P. Mitcham and the city council.

The announcement was made following a conference of Mayor G. P. Mitcham and the city council with the West Texas Utilities company, and submission of the new rate schedules by H. H. Monk, district manager of the company.

The new rates are in effect now and will apply on statements received July 1, covering electric service from May to June meter readings.

Mayor Mitcham said the savings to electric users would thereby enable the citizenship to meet the city's bonded indebtedness and would amount to considerable relief each year, which will greatly help in reducing outstanding municipal obligations under the proposed bond settlement plan.

It is the opinion that the savings established by the rate reduction will better enable residential and business establishment users to meet their city tax payments and thereby place the city in position to meet obligations of liquidating the indebtedness of the city.

Mr. Monk said the utilities are making the reduction in keeping with a long-time policy of lowering rates as fast as justified by increased usage and economic conditions.

It is believed that the lower rates will provide further incentive for home modernization and a more liberal usage, tending to improve living conditions here, and thus, in addition, contribute to the general downward trend in the cost of electric service.

The reduction will apply to all classes of residential usage except the electric range schedule, which is already below the average rate for this class of service in surrounding towns.

A statement of the old rates and the new rates, setting out comparative costs of electric service, will be forwarded to each residential and commercial customer with July 1 bills.

Farmers Say Berries Sell Very Slowly

"There seems to be too many blackberries in the country this year," said Alvin Weathers today. "I have been selling berries in Cisco for a number of years, but I have never found them to sell so slowly as they have this week," the farmer stated.

Several berry men have made the same remark this spring. Some said they thought there was an unusually large quantity being sold in the residence districts and perhaps housewives were stocked up on such things.

Farmers who have been advertising them in the patch say people seem to want to buy them all ready gathered, rather than gather them for themselves.

Early peaches are finding slow markets also. People say they are waiting for later peaches, which are better for preserving and canning.

Apricots are rather plentiful, but thus far very few are being sold from house to house.

Laughter Greets Union Leaders' "Back-To-Work" Plea

Under banners deriding him, Richard Frankenstein, left front, national director of C. I. O.'s aircraft division of U. A. W., addresses a "back-to-work" plea to North American Aviation, Inc. workers, striking for higher wages. Kneeling is international representative, Lew Michener. At right, with arms folded, is president of the striking local, Elmer Freitag.

Stage Set For Methodist Fun, Stunt Program

The stage is all set for the grand opening of the stunt show and fun program to be given on the lawn of First Methodist church Friday night at eight o'clock, according to the pastor, Rev. Leslie Seymour, who is assisting the performers in their various casts.

Dramatic numbers to be presented are, "Lochnivar," "The Coquette," "Wild Nell, the Pet of the Plains," "Abra-kadabra, the King of the Carambol Isles" and "The Dwarf From Patagonia."

Some of the stellar players will be, Pete Nance as Abra-kadabra, and Mrs. Bill Chudlers as his queen, with Kathryn Langston, their daughter, wooed by Gerald Jensen, prince of the Hula Hula Isles. Also Mrs. James Moore will portray Wild Nell, the cowgirl, George Boyd will be Hand some Harry, in love with Nell, and Dorothy Huestis will be Lady Vere de Vere the English heiress. A. L. Osborne will make his debut as Sitting Bull whose accomplice will be Phil McCaules as Bull Durham.

Others are to be Marilyn Shertzer as the Coquette, O. L. Stamey as Lochnivar, Polly Porter as Fair Ellen, Mrs. Shertzer as the mother, and Carlos J. Turner as the father of Fair Ellen. These and others will offer an evening's entertainment that will be unique.

Lemonade will be available after the program is over.

Customers Take All Fryers In Man's Coop

Fat fryers find a ready market in Cisco this week. A farmer brings in a coop of chickens and he can hardly get to a grocery store or market to sell them before he is surrounded by a group of men who take all he has. A few days ago a man brought in a coop of chickens—12 in number—and packed in front of a store, intending to go on to a grocery store to sell them, he stated.

When he came out, a man bought all he had in the coop. And he said he sold them for more than he expected to ask the store for them.

His idea is that if farmers will grow big flocks of chickens and feed them well so they are fat and plump, he will have no trouble in finding a ready market for all the fryers he can raise.

July 1 Set As Registration Day

The president of the United States has proclaimed July 1, 1941, as registration day for men who have reached their twenty-first birthday since October 16, 1940. All men who on July 1 have reached their twenty-first birthday will present themselves to the second floor of the courthouse in Eastland, Texas, and submit to registration. Registration will not be held anywhere else in the county. Any men away from their home, working or living in this county, will register with this board on July 1, 1941.

Albany Turns To Plans For Restoration

Wednesday was a day of relief work and rehabilitation for Albany, and the city council met to consider plans for assuring a sufficient water supply for the city since the breaking of the dam that caused such a disastrous flood and loss of life and property damage.

Roy Mathews, city water superintendent, estimated a 30-days supply for the city was in the lake. A proposal to place sandbags in the broken gaps of Diller dam was prominent in the proposals offered to conserve what water was now in the lake. Funerals for the 3 white people and 12 negroes were held at the Christian church during the afternoon.

The first train service from the south came over the Katy at noon Wednesday, following the restoring of track washed out both south and north of the city.

Some 200 workers toiled through the day to salvage personal effects and materials from the flood areas. Everything was covered with mud and clay.

Volunteer assistance came from about 50 CCC boys at Fort Griffin, and from a party of 30 from Woodson, headed by Geo. D. Dickie, Woodson banker.

Property damage estimates mount as relief work uncovers property losses along the route of the flood waters. One farmer reports the loss of 250 chickens and turkeys.

GOV. O'DANIEL SIGNS JUNIOR COLLEGE BILL

Pres. R. N. Cluck: We are happy to give to you and the citizens of Cisco and Eastland county the good news that the governor has signed the Junior College Aid Bill. We rejoice with you in bringing to a successful close the first state junior college aid. We think it is the beginning of a good program which will give better educational advantages to local boys and girls. Our concerted effort was given to bring to a successful conclusion aid for junior colleges and lay aside for all times to come our social security obligations. OMAR BURKETT P. L. CROSSLEY.

After waiting almost the full 10 days, Governor O'Daniel signed the Junior college support bill Wednesday which provides, among other things, support from state funds of $50 per student for the 22 junior colleges of Texas, which includes Cisco and Ranger for Eastland county.

Eastland county representatives, Omar Burkett and P. L. Crossley, and State Senator John Lee Smith deserve much credit for their untiring efforts that finally passed the bill, first in the senate, then to the house, where several amendments were attached, which made it necessary to go back to the senate for approval by a conference committee, and finally placed on the governor's desk for veto or approval.

This assures the support for the Cisco Junior college for the next two years, at least, and President Cluck this morning said he was already working toward an increased enrollment and strong faculty for next term.

In a cautious statement Wednesday, Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel announced he had signed the bill appropriating $650,000 for the operation of 22 junior colleges of Texas during the next two years. O'Daniel wrote:

"I believe the idea of establishing junior colleges in Texas certainly has much merit and it may be that it is a system which the state should adopt. I have reached the conclusion, however, that if we are to have a system of junior colleges, then there should be some consideration given to some adjustments in the organization of our senior colleges. If we are going to maintain a system of junior colleges, and if the state is going to appropriate money out of the state treasury to pay for such a system, then it would seem to be desirable that a complete system of junior colleges be established, strategically located according to scholastic population, so that they would be available to all of the boys and girls in all of the counties of the state."

"My opinion is that if we are going to have a system of junior colleges in Texas, then it should be a system of state-controlled and state-supported junior colleges. I do not believe any of the cost of these institutions should be collected from local taxpayers. The reason I say this is that practically all taxes collected for the maintenance of local government comes from ad valorem taxes paid by the home-owners. I believe that if these people are able to pay their fair share of the cost of maintaining the public schools, including the high schools, they have done their fair share. The cost of giving the four years of higher education, whether it be done in institutions giving four-year courses or whether it be divided between institutions giving two-year courses and others giving four-year courses, should be paid for by the state, so that the burden will not fall too heavily on the local ad valorem taxpayers."

"After giving full consideration to all these factors, I am approving this bill."

Mrs. Ralph Chandler, Misses Marie Hunterman, and Wynema Bond were a group of Cisco young women transacting business in Eastland Wednesday.

Johnson Speaks At Eastland on Saturday Night

Eastland and surrounding counties will observe national Flag Day Saturday and climax the occasion beginning at 7:30 p. m. on the court house lawn, with the most impressive oratory, political fervor, brilliant entertainment and music this section has seen in many years.

To the fanfare of the combined bands of Eastland county and to lifted Texas voices, the curtain will rise on the courthouse square for a political-patriotic address by one of the most arresting figures on the political scene, Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson, candidate for the United States senate.

The program, which will include, besides the bands of Cisco, Ranger and Eastland, nationally-known singers and an imported orchestra, has been arranged by a committee of leading citizens, including the mayors of Eastland county's seven towns, all supporters of Johnson's candidacy. No detail is being left undone to make the occasion a success.

Congressman Johnson, who has captured the imagination of the state with the race he is making against veteran campaigners and by his rapid rise in the Democratic party to the inner circle of Roosevelt leaders, will discuss the issues of the campaign, and especially those pertinent to this section of the state.

Mayor Hall Walker of Ranger, chairman of the committee, said Johnson, he pointed out, has made all-out support of Roosevelt's defense program the keynote of his platform, and has demanded Texas receive its share of national defense industry it is so well prepared to serve.

Sharing the limelight will be the band concert of martial music and a Flag Day revue of professional entertainers under the direction of Harwood Weedin, well-known radio master of ceremonies. These include Larry Lambert's Band of Patriots; Sophie Parker, who is known as the Kate Smith of the south; Mary Jane Behm, vocalist; Johnnie Landy, harmonica player, and Lois Widden and Billy Halameick, accordion duet. The program is scheduled to start with the band concert at 7:45 with the Flag Day revue at 8:30. Congressman Johnson's address begins at 9 o'clock with 15 minutes of it over the Texas Quality network, after which he speaks extemporaneously.

The committee sponsoring the rally consists of Mayors J. E. Gilbert, Carbon; G. P. Mitcham, Cisco; Herman Rushing, Desdemona; C. W. Hoffman, Eastland; Dr. George Blackwell, Gorman; A. N. Sneathly of Rising Star; Hall Walker, Ranger; Albert Taylor, Sam Butler, Ben Scott, E. Hinrichs of Eastland; Benmie Butler of Cisco; M. D. Shirley of Eastland, and Will St. John of Cisco. Mrs. Ruth Hagaman, Ranger, secretary.

The committee promises this section of the state a patriotic-political rally of the highest type, and a program long to be remembered. A special stage is to be arranged with a flag motif and a loud speaker system will carry the music and oratory to all parts of the square. At a similar occasion this week in San Angelo, the crowd packed the square for several blocks. Arrangements have been made at Eastland to rope off the south side of the square and to provide seats for those who wish to use them.

"We have arranged this elaborate program for Eastland and for neighbor counties and for Congressman Johnson on National Flag day because we believe it is a time for unity and purpose, and because we believe Lyndon Johnson is the one candidate who has proved he can deliver the right kind of service to Texas and put this state squarely behind our great chief executive in this time of danger and national peril."

Mayor Walker said.

Lyndon Johnson as a young and vigorous congressman has brought to Texas a greater program of rural electrification than in any other state. He has given Texas and the nation the giant $45,000,000 naval base at Corpus Christi; the $50,000,000 Colorado

HIGH SCHOOL FLAG PROGRAM IS ARRANGED

Flag week, June 8-14, which has been so loyally participated in by business men and private individuals in Cisco by providing themselves with flags and using them, will be climaxed Sunday afternoon, 5:30 o'clock, by a community program on the high school lawn, at which the flag staff and flag donated by the senior class of '41, will be dedicated.

A. D. Anderson was appointed by Mayor Mitcham to be general chairman for flag week. Mr. Anderson appointed a number of committees which secured cooperation in various ways. H. R. Garrett, for the Cisco Junior college; C. J. Turner for the public schools, and Rev. L. W. Seymour, for the churches, have arranged a very entertaining program for the dedication ceremonies.

Prayer—Led by Rev. Judson Prince, pastor First Baptist church. Solo by Billye Cole, "There Will Always Be an England."

Statement by Supt. R. N. Cluck. Tending of the flag by Kathryn Langston for the senior class of '41.

Acceptance by O. L. Stamey, principal of high school.

Talk by Rev. J. R. Wright, pastor of the First Christian church. Song, duet—Misses Billye Cole and Betty Lou Powell, "God Bless America."

Ceremony of flag raising by Boy Scouts.

Pledge to flag by the group.

Song, "Star Spangled Banner," by group, led by W. Frank Walker.

Mrs. Whatley Says Bought-Feeds Better

Mrs. Medford Whatley sold 16 dozen eggs to a local grocery store this week for a price which she said would bring her a nice profit over her feed bill and cost of keeping her hens.

Mrs. Whatley said she always fed commercial feeds, ready-mixed, because she thought it paid. "We can usually use all the feed we raise on our farm feeding the stock, without feeding it to chickens, and I do find that feed makes a lot of difference. If I get out of laying mash for a few days, and wait until some one is passing to town, my egg production will begin to decline. I can tell the difference in a few days. And then to prove that this was the cause, eggs will pick up in a few days after I go to feeding it to my hens again."

Many farmers who keep hocks on their flock, agree with Mrs. Whatley. They say the commercial laying mash pays a profit when fed to hens.

Leghorns seem to be the general favorite with most egg producers. However, a few farmers say they prefer brown leghorns as better rustlers and are healthier.

Farmers who cater to selling fryers prefer the heavier breeds, such as rocks, reds or Wyandottes. All agree that a green range for laying hens will keep them thrifty and in better health in every way. They will not be so liable to mites and certain diseases that are prone to affect large flocks of chickens.

Eastland Man Dies at Graham Hospital

M. W. Wallace, 60, proprietor of the Spot café in Eastland, died in the Graham sanitarium this morning, where he had been for about 10 days. He will be buried in Slaton, it was stated.

Word received by Cisco friends today announced the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Dick West, Jr., of Dallas.

Starrick said he was doing in a part of Texas was the finest grass pasture he ever saw, when he was with his head down reaching with all his might to get some grass at the end of the wire. . . .

It was just thinking that should be quite happy and to live in such a fine pasture as fine as could be, and a horse was trying his best to get to the end of the wire, to get at some what get without effort. . . .

When that reminded him of the book, "Acres of Diamonds" that most of you have seen, we have referred to it many many times. . . .

Remember, it was about the time he had inherited a small farm but he was discontented with it and was wishing for a new one and so he decided to leave the old farm and go into the world to search for diamonds. . . .

After fruitless wandering, he finally returned discouraged. . . .

While digging in the garden, he had planted potatoes, he uncovered a diamond and further investigation led to the richly ironed with the finest of precious diamonds exceeding his dreams right in his back yard. . . .

Karl said that reminded him of many Lions clubs he has seen in his travels about the world, not many, but a few. . . . But let us leave it to his own words. . . .

Believe they are, personally energy and enthusiasm, working hard at whatever ought to be done, arguing into their way of thinking, expending their energy in helping far away from the right at hand which they are doing. Sometimes they are in some scheme probably others, and are all for their Lion club into a collegiality to gather funds for a far away, and probably others. . . .

Forget that in their own minds are needing direction to them out of mischief, and ought to be in a Boy Scout little ones who need park playground facilities; under-aged children in their own who ought to have fresh air; some with neglected which must be treated; others which will lose their vision without skilled and hundreds needs close at hand they see only those afar such a Lion is like that horse. . . .

On our own doorsteps find rich fields for our look. We do not need to look a distance to find scope for energies. Right before our eyes which call for the energy, the perseverance which carry into every job they take. . . .

MILLIONS OF WANDERERS

No war of the past has ever driven from their homes so many people—as ever created literally millions of wanderers on the face of the earth.

Everyone knows, in a vague general way, that many people in Europe have been forced to leave the places where they had built their homes and their lives. We have many of them in the United States; to that extent we are usually aware of the problem.

It is, however, a tragedy of such mountainous size that only a survey like that made recently by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. can reveal its appalling extent.

Had you realized that these fruits have been gathered by the men who rashly decided to make Europe over by force?

More than 300,000 people have been forced to leave Germany.

Perhaps 400,000 other Germans have been brought back into Germany from the Baltic, Polish, and Bessarabian territories seized by Russia.

Several hundred thousand people, mostly Ukrainians, were received back by Russia in her conquered territories, mostly from Poland.

About 175,000 Austrians are being moved into Germany from the Italian Tyrol.

A hundred thousand were expelled from Alsace-Lorraine by the conquering Germans.

A half million Finns would not live in the part of Finland seized by Russia, but moved into distressed Finland itself.

In unoccupied France there is a horde of fugitives, estimated at 2,500,000, who fled when the German machine rolled across Belgium and northern France.

A half million fled from Spain when the Spanish republic fell, and a good third of those are still in foreign territory, unable to return.

Virtual forced labor in Germany, recruited in Poland, France, Holland, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and Italy, totals almost a million, with not less than another million prisoners of war.

Other wars have not failed to create their rows of rows of dead, their ravaged villages, their ruined farms and cities.

None has ever uprooted and scattered like chaff across a continent these millions of helpless, homeless, and yet generally innocent people.

Do You Remember?

(From Files of Cisco Daily News, July, 1929)

At noon today (July 2) the number of girls whose names were furnished to the event committee as entrants in the annual West Texas Bathing Revue at Lake Cisco July 4, had reached 27 with only half of the cities and local merchants who had promised girls for the event heard from. Telegrams and telephone calls, announcing selection of girls to represent various other cities and towns, continued to come in this afternoon with the prospect that the total list of entrants will approach the 50 mark by the time the celebration begins. A meeting of the committee of hostesses was held in the chamber of commerce this morning. The women who will serve as chaperones and hostesses are: Mesdames W. W. Wallace, George Fee, Don Sivalis, E. L. Graham and J. A. Bearman. These women will have charge of the girls at the revue and will supervise their entertainment at the country club after the revue is concluded.

Five Cisco citizens left yesterday and today for Waco to attend the formal opening of the Borden Milk plant in that city. W. W. Wallace left yesterday afternoon by T. A. T. plane for the ceremony; and this morning at 5 o'clock a party made up of Constable Davis, A. Z. Myrick, Charlie Wendt and E. H. Varnell left by automobile to attend the opening.

High officials of the West Texas Utilities company were the guests yesterday afternoon of district officials here for the fourth of July celebration. The party who came to Cisco for the day was made up of Price Campbell, vice president and general manager; E. R. Hoppe, general superintendent; P. W. Campbell, plant manager; Harold Austin, assistant general commercial manager; all of them with their families. Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Stevens, of the Abilene Printing company were also with the group. All are from Abilene. While in the city the entertainment of these visitors was looked after by P. P. Sheppard, superintendent, and R. A. Williams, assistant of District B headquarters here. They camped out on a site selected at the lake.

Employees of the J. C. Pentney store met last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Glenn, on East Sixteenth, for a business and social hour.

Mrs. A. D. Anderson made high score and Mrs. R. W. Mancill, low, at the meeting of the Delta Eta Bridge club Friday at the home of Mrs. J. Aton Burke 807 West Fourth street. Gladinas predominated in the cut flowers that decorated the income. Resolutions were served to the following: Mesdames A. D. Anderson, F. A. Blankschickler, H. S. Deanswright, Johnnie Duckert.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Goldberg, who have been doing business temporarily at the building adjoining the postoffice, now announce that they have obtained a permanent lease on this location and will become permanent in Cisco. They say they are delighted with the reception accorded them during the few months they have been in business here. For the present, they, with their family, are living at 1103 West Sixth street, but expect to buy a home later and become real Cisco citizens and boosters.

Jess Looney, 20-year-old son of Constable and Mrs. C. S. Looney, of this city, is improving at the Graham sanitarium where he was taken after having been shot three times on the Breckenridge highway and one and one-half miles north of Cisco early on the morning of Monday, June 17. Doctors stated that he could be removed to his home, were it not for the fact they fear the move would sever a blood vessel which has not healed sufficiently after having been shot in two.

Mrs. L. H. McCrea was hostess to the 1929 Bridge club Thursday at her home, 1105 West Broadway. The house was beautifully decorated with bouquets of nasturtiums, zinnias and phlox. High score was made by Mrs. M. C. Williamson and low by Miss Laura Lou Waring. Refreshments of cantaloupes, a la mode were served to the following: Mesdames John H. Brice, K. H. Pittard, M. C. Williamson, E. B. Clamplitt, Charles Trammell, E. S. Wilkinson, Robert White of Hillsboro, Price, A. D. Anderson, C. C. Jones, Will St. John, and Miss Laura Lou Waring.

Little Miss Doris Jean Graves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Graves, celebrated her third birthday Monday afternoon with a party at her home, 1305 G avenue. Games were played and Miss Louise Graves was winner in the contest of pinning the donkey's tail on Mrs. Marguerite Parks and Mrs. Era Sanders served cold soda water throughout the afternoon, and Mrs. Graves, assisted by Mesdames Harry Williams, W. L. Sanders and Jack Duncan, served ice cream and cake with suckers as favors to the following guests: Freda Layne Grist, Betty Fae Grist, Melie Saunders, Alton Lomax, Laura Graves, Louise Graves, Junior Poppy, Eula Reeves, Betty June Montgomery, Jean Martin, Geraldine Allen, Harry Lee Williams, Francis Strickland, Era Sanders, Theresa May Whitman, Charlie Whitman, Jean Sanders, Wesley Graves, Ester Bell Haman, Myrtle Sanders, Marguerite Parks, Laverne Martin and Betty Sanders.

afternoon, it was announced today. Hobby Collector Owns 250 Pieces Drinking Glasses

Somebody recently revived the hobby craze. Its revival has become contagious. One Cisco woman, Mrs. Charles Kimmell's hobby is a collection of drinking glasses.

The nucleus of this collection was some rare specimens she originally acquired, then friends, hearing of her hobby, have augmented the collection which, with those she has acquired from various sources, approximates about 250.

None of this number are of the same design. They vary in utility from an ordinary water drinking glass, both ways, to a toy glass no larger than a thimble, and the old "are light" beer glass of saloon days.

Mrs. Kimmell appreciates any donation to this collection. The only stipulation is the donation must not be the same as any article in the collection.

The piece she prizes most highly is a stained handle glass with the name of her mother burned into the surface, which her parent secured at the first world fair at Chicago in 1893.

So, if you have a rare specimen, and wish to add it to this collection, Mrs. Kimmell will appreciate the donation.

Baptist Young People Arrive in Ridgecrest

Eighteen hundred young people from the south and southwest arrived on the Southern Baptist Assembly grounds Wednesday for the Baptist Student Retreat, largest annual student religious meeting in the world.

The retreat, first major activity of the 1941 assembly season, will continue until June 19. It is under the direction of Frank H. Leavell, secretary of student work of the Baptist Sunday School board, Nashville, Tenn.

Texas representatives on the staff are: Dorothy Irene Ball, Bastrop; Ann Bryan, Waco; John J. Bryan, Houston; John N. Bryan, Waco; Frank A. Camp, Blum; Mary Bob Caughan, Houston; Esther Ruth Cowser, Waco; Helen Elizabeth Cowser, Waco; Owen Crawley, Waco; Elizabeth Duck, Abilene; William Duncan, Jr., Marshall; Roy Ferguson, Odessa; Golda Jean Fielder, Fort Worth; Ernest Huggins, Bryan; Warwick Jenkins III, Waco; Sarah Elizabeth Moye, San Antonio; Elizabeth Price, Fort Worth; John Price, Fort Worth; Geraldine Riddle, Wichita Falls; Leta Rue Riddle, Abilene; Billy Shamburger, Fort Worth, and Jean Stephens, Littlefield.

"A friend is a man who laughs at your funny stories, even if they aren't so good, and sympathizes with your misfortunes even if they aren't so bad."

Auction Draws Big Crowd, Little Sales

A large crowd, but one of the smallest in point of sales, was the result of the Cisco auction Tuesday, when sales of calves, hogs, some cows and butcher stock amounted to only about $1,171.62, which is perhaps the lowest week of the year.

The cause given for the small sales at Tuesday's auction was the rain and muddy roads which prevented stock being brought. But the big crowd that looked like a circus might be in town, showed the interest that cattlemen were taking in the regular weekly program.

It is one of the biggest events of Cisco, because it brings buyer and seller together, giving a market for what surplus stock a man may have. If one needs a cow, calf, some beef stock, hogs, sheep or goats, one can usually find it at the weekly auction.

Buyers Tuesday were: Tube Martin, Morton Valley, $242.00; Joe Harrison, $281.87; C. E. Bennett, Eastland, $196.00; Pinyly Wiggly, Cisco, $129.00; Sig Faircloth, Ranger, $56.00; I. G. Mobley, Putnam, $57.00; W. C. Crawley, Brenckmeade, $59.50; Russ Stokes, Breckenridge, $39.50; J. W. McKinney, Cisco, $51.50; Dan Wende, Cisco, $47.75; Joe Coats, Cisco, $97.00.

Ozark 'Smile Girls'—Past And Present

Jimmy Dell Tillman, 17, of Clarksville, Ark., left, who was chosen "Smile Girl of 1941" to succeed Jane Nichols, right of Bentonville, Ark., at Ozark contest held in Joplin, Mo. Entries were from Arkansas, Missouri and Oklahoma.

A. C. Peck, Ranger, $79.50; Homer Robinson, Ranger, $85.50; A. V. Hutchinson, Baird, $96.00; R. B. Taylor, Putnam, $31.50; H. H. McClosky, $28.00; L. Q. McBeth, Bienville, $34.50; T. C. Shahan, Morton Valley, $57.00; E. M. Halford, Cisco, $59.00; L. E. Turner, Cisco, $68.00.

Several miscellaneous small sales were made that are not recorded.

To show how cattle prices are soaring, a fat jersey cow did not sell at an offer of $77.50.

Wheat Disappoints Farmer's Hopes

A farmer speaking of the wheat crops said they were in many places the greatest disappointment of any crop he had ever seen. Farmers everywhere had been estimating the turnout at around 25 bushels to the acre, but when harvesting began, the heads turned out to be chaff instead of grains of wheat. Black rust had ruined them, he thought.

This farmer said he would plough under about 100 acres of wheat as not worth the government tax that he would have to pay for having more acreage than he was allowed.

In other instances, wheat seems to be turning out well. It appears that unusually rank wheat made the best turnout in grain. Some wheat that appeared to be very poor, made the best showing when harvested.

Oats seems to have turned out well, which appears to carry out the contention of many grain farmers in this county that, one year with another, oats pay better than wheat, even though wheat may be $1.00 per bushel while oats may sell for 25c. The difference in yield more than makes up the difference in price. Rain halted wheat harvest over this section, but oats were nearly all either in the shock or combined.

He had long outstayed his welcome. "Tell me," said the host at last, "how long was the fish you caught the other day?" "Oh," said the guest, holding his hands wide apart, "so long." "Well, so long," returned the host, "if you really must be going."

Pension Passes Over House

TIN, June 12.—The house passed a senate bill to provide for the state funds for old age assistance for the months of June, July and August and permit full payment and permit full payment of an amendment authorized by the house, authorizing the welfare department to check to pensioners supplies to those already prepared, and to return to the senate for legislative action.

The effective signature of Governor O'Daniel also would be necessary, but that he would sign a foregone conclusion. He recommended the bill.

The bill made June 15 the date for allocation of money under the $22,000,000 recently passed by the house. September 1 had been the date until that time, $1,000,000 had been set aside for that purpose.

The bill made $600,000 accumulations certain insurance companies immediately available for old age assistance fund. It was held in a suspense account.

A tentative plan of the welfare department, officials said, was to to send to pensioners the average grant of $9.60 for June and later supplemental payments to make the total average $18.60.

On the rolls currently were 139,307. It was said.

The additional state funds presumably would be matched by federal money.

"Don't talk to me about lawyers, my dear, I've had so much trouble over the property that I sometimes wish my husband hadn't died."

Draft Board Calls Eight Draftees

The following named men have been selected for induction by the local draft board. They shall report to the board at the courthouse in Eastland at 9 a. m. on June 19, whereupon they shall be sent to an induction station of the United States Army at Dallas:

Talmadge Aubrey Phillips, Willie R. B. Sullivan, Clifford Lorraine Richardson, Gerald Conroy Merket, Kay Alton Dunson, Clifford Jean Buchanan, Thomas M. Brown, and Raymond Charles Kearney.

Because one or more of the men named above may not be inducted at the induction station by the armed forces, the following named men may be required as replacements: Ralph Woodruff and Marshall F. Sublett.

Fifth Appointee of Liquor Board Made

AUSTIN, June 12.—Governor O'Daniel Wednesday asked the senate to confirm W. J. Townsend of Lutkin as a member of the state liquor control board.

Townsend was the governor's fifth appointee for an unexpired term ending Nov. 15, 1945. Dr. W. D. Bradford of Dallas, a recess appointee, Jeff Davis of Dallas and Mrs. Claude De Van Watts of Austin were rejected by the senate. Thomas B. Love of Dallas declined an appointment. Townsend is a former state senator and a former county attorney of Angelina county.

Patman to Address Veterans' Convention

FORT WORTH, June 12.—Assurance was received that Congressman Wright Patman of Texas will be one of the speakers for the annual state encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars here June 21 to 25. Tarrant County Commissioner Joe Thannish estimated that about 2,000 veterans and friends will attend the reunion. He is chairman of arrangements.

Tom L. Carter of Lubbock is the state department commander; Walter J. Gates, Galveston, is state quartermaster, and Mrs. Nell Moody, San Antonio, is president of the women's auxiliary, which also will meet in connection with the encampment.

Two Defense Order Strikes End

DETROIT, Mich., June 12.—Federal representatives obtained agreements Wednesday ending two strikes interfering with national defense and 5,000 factory employees prepared for a return to work Thursday.

A strike of 4,000 men at the Bohn Aluminum & Brass Corporation, whose $25,000,000 in defense orders includes parts for airplanes and submarine chasers, ended in its second day. A five-week-old strike affecting 1,000 employees at the Detroit Steel Products Company also ceased.

In each instance the United Automobile Workers (CIO) had walked out—for a wage increase from Bohn and in a recognition dispute involving an independent union at Steel Products.

Clarendon College Buildings Rebuilt

CLARENDON, June 12.—Rebuilding of the two Clarendon Junior College buildings badly damaged by a tornado Monday has been designated as a NYA project, according to Harold V. Hamilton, area director.

Work began Wednesday when 70 NYA workers started moving the debris and clearing the damaged structure. The entire north wing of the three-story girl's dormitory was demolished. Classrooms were destroyed in the administration building, its auditorium uprooted and the building otherwise extensively damaged.

Ickes Asks Tanker Load Limit Be Hiked

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Secretary Harold Ickes, as defense petroleum co-ordinator, urged on Wednesday that load limitations on coastwise vessels be relaxed to increase the carrying capacity of oil tankers between the gulf ports and the east coast.

In a report to the house merchant marine committee urging the approval of a bill for the purpose, Ickes said he was advised that a change in load line within the limits of safety would add about 3 per cent to the carrying capacity of the present tanker fleet plying between the gulf and Atlantic ports.

The bill was endorsed by the maritime commission and the bureau of marine inspection, but opposed on grounds of safety by James L. DeLaney, representing the masters, mates and pilots of America (A. F. of L.), and Bjorne Halling of the CIO maritime committee.

Army Rejects Bids In Wool Cloth Order

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The War Department announced on Wednesday that the Philadelphia quartermaster depot has rejected all bids submitted covering 2,870,000 yards of 12-ounce woolen olive drab uniform lining cloth for the reason that most of the bidders quoted prices higher than the amount they considered proper.

All offers submitted in response to an invitation for bids opened May 26 were rejected, with the exception of 250,000 yards at a net unit price of $1.55 per yard from all domestic wool.

J. L. McColister Is Rotary Club Head

DALLAS, June 12.—Ira L. McColister became the new president of the Dallas Rotary club Wednesday at the club luncheon at the Baker hotel in a program in charge of outgoing President Clyde Stewart.

Both men will attend the Denver (Colo.) Rotary International convention next Wednesday.

Times Change Cattlemen Say Markets Better

Three fat cows brought a little better than $240 this week, a cattleman stated this morning in discussing a trip he made to market Tuesday. Four hogs brought $136, making his load well worthwhile, he stated.

This is quite different, he said, from the price of cows in 1893. He stated he remembered his father finding it hard to get that price. That was a dry year in this part of Texas, with neither water nor much grass. Nobody in Texas thought about feeding cattle for the market in that period of Texas history.

All cattle were shipped to Kansas City, Chicago or St. Louis, where they were fed out and slaughtered. No farmer thought of trying to grow feed and fatten cattle in order to get higher prices. They allowed them to run on the range or pastures and sold for what they were offered.

YWA Members Attend Meet Tuesday Night

The Young Women's auxiliary of the First Baptist church met at the church Tuesday evening and went to Rango for a Young People's convale of the entire association.

Mrs. Philip McGehee of Breckenridge presided during the transaction of business, and interesting talks were made by Rev. McGehee, Mrs. Judson Prince and Mrs. Brown of College Station, who is a splendid state worker of the Women's Missionary Union.

Special musical numbers were given by Miss Billye Cole, the girls' sextette of Rango First church and Mr. Ewell Bone of Breckenridge.

FOR SALE or TRADE

Why buy lots and build new houses when you can buy nice property for one-half or one-fourth of cost of new building? I have the Denslow building, on which $1,800 has been spent in repairs. Twenty-five rooms upstairs ready for use; two large rooms 23 x 115, each ready and being used.

I have three nice rock buildings in one block. A nice home and about two and one-half acres of fine land and lots of fruit trees. This is known as the Ely home. I have two apartments, nice homes, and a nice two-room home. The three are on Seventh street, south of high school.

Several other places for sale or trade. If you have enough property to make a good down payment—a cheap home for a better one—I have 296 acres of fine land as there is in Shackelford county, between Moran and Ibox. Will take less than the neighbors have paid for their land. This property is paid for and I can make some terms on all of it.

Dinner Given In Mobley Home Honors Couple

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Stiles, whose marriage has recently been announced, Miss Sue Mobley entertained with a delicious three-course dinner Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the home of her mother, Mrs. Jas Mobley.

The house was gaily decorated with gladioli, sweet peas and phlox for the occasion. The couple was presented with a lovely gift by the hostess.

The invited guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Stiles, Misses Ada Rhone and Sue Mobley, and Messrs James Johnston and Robert Jackson.

Mrs. Fred Hayes Is Hostess to Circle

Circle One of the Methodist Women's Society for Christian Service met in the home of Mrs. Fred Hayes at 3 p. m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Leslie W. Seymour brought an inspiring devotion and also directed the study program, in which every member took part.

The brief business meeting was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. J. T. Fields. The meeting was closed by repeating the Lord's prayer in unison.

Delicious refreshments were passed at the conclusion to Meses J. H. Latson, L. E. Vaughn, Win Joyner, C. A. Shockey, Leslie W. Seymour, Swindell, Carroll Smith, J. T. Fields and the hostess, Mrs. Hayes.

Mrs. C. B. Powell Is Hostess to Circle

Group One of the First Christian Council met with Mrs. C. B. Powell hostess in her home, 564 West Eighth street, Tuesday afternoon.

In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. J. F. Benedict, the period of business was in charge of Mrs. H. H. Davis. Reports were made by committee chairmen, after which an interesting devotion was given by Mrs. J. A. Tume, who also taught the Bible lesson.

Lovely refreshments were passed to members during the social hour. Members attending were: Meses, Ida Painter, George Swartz, W. R. Winston, Hickey, C. W. Trowel, Lula Hils, A. S. Nabers, H. H. Davis, J. A. Tume, and the hostess, Mrs. Powell.

Luncheon Held In Rainbolt Home Tuesday

Methodist Circle Four met at 1 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Edith Rainbolt Tuesday and enjoyed a covered-dish luncheon, with program following.

After luncheon, Mrs. Crigler Paschall, circle chairman, called the meeting to order in a brief business session, where it was decided to meet at 4 o'clock during July and August. Routine business followed.

Mrs. W. E. Hicks directed the program. An interesting devotion was given by Mrs. Roy A. Langston; Mrs. Hicks gave an article on the "Religious background of the Isle of Crete." The meeting was closed with prayer, led by Mrs. Langston.

Those present were: Meses, Crigler Paschall, Joe Wilson, Geo. Whiston, Roy Langston, Jimmy Allen, John Shertzer, M. D. Paschall, Homer Ferguson, W. H. Hurd, W. E. Hicks, Philip Pettit, Meses Cathryn Langston, Janet Ferguson, and the hostess, Mrs. Edith Rainbolt.

Mrs. J. D. Lauderdale Is Group Hostess

Mrs. J. D. Lauderdale was the gracious hostess to First Christian Council Group Three, which met in her home Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Edward Lee, the business session was in charge of Mrs. W. C. Hogue.

After routine business, plans were made for the luncheon to be held next Tuesday, in which all council groups will meet at the church and the installation of officers will be held.

Mrs. James Latimer gave a splendid lesson taken from the "World Call." The meeting was closed with prayer.

During the social hour following, the hostess passed delicious refreshments to the guests.

Those attending were: Meses, W. C. Hogue, Sam Kimmell, Jack Elkins, Jas. Latimer, H. B. Garrett, Roy Foxville, Fred Steffy, James Hogue and little daughter, Paty, and the hostess, Mrs. Lauderdale.

Mrs. James Flournoy Entertains Group

First Christian Council Group Two met in the home of Mrs. James Flournoy Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting was opened by singing the hymn, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," followed by the Lord's prayer spoken in unison.

Miss Alice Bacon, circle chairman, presided during the business period. The group decided to hold a luncheon in the home of Mrs. J. T. Scott the last Tuesday in this month. Other routine matters pertaining to the work of the group were discussed.

The devotion was given by Mrs. James Mobley on the subject, "The City That Endures Forever," using as her scripture basis the 21st chapter of Revelations.

Lovely refreshments were served during the social hour to Meses, J. T. Scott, H. J. Woodriddle, John Bailey, Jas. Mobley, Miss Alice Bacon and the hostess, Mrs. Flournoy.

So great is the pull of gravity on the sun that an ordinary man would weigh two tons there.

Methodist Society Meets at Church

Circle Three of the Society for Christian Service of the First Methodist church met at the church at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. A splendid devotion was given by Mrs. T. J. Dean, which was followed by a vocal solo, "Take My Life and Let It Be," sung by Miss Polly Porter, accompanied by Miss Cathryn Langston at the piano. Mrs. C. E. Yates, director of the program, then read an interesting article from the Methodist Advocate entitled "The Difference."

A business period was held with Mrs. J. J. Porter presiding, where reports were heard and other routine matters looked after.

Those attending were: Meses, J. J. Porter, T. J. Dean, C. E. Yates, John Shertzer, Chas. Flaherty and Meses Langston and Porter.

Farmer Sells Chickens, Eggs to Customers

J. Edmond Davis, east of Eastland, sold 78 fryers in Cisco Wednesday at a price which he says was highly satisfactory. After paying for the feed they have eaten, he will clear about $10 on the flock, he states.

Mr. Davis says chickens are the best money-making crop he raises. They sell eggs almost the whole year round, but slow up when hatching time comes. He finds early fryers sell best, but people are almost as hungry in June and July as they are in May, he says.

Small hotels and cafes, including suburban grocery stores, are his best customers. He especially caters to picnic groups that want to serve fried chicken, he states. Banquet parties take lots of his offerings, paying a good price.

Ordinarily, he tries to sell his products direct to the consumer and thus can get better prices for what he sells. Regular customers

Defense Housing Project Planned

MINERAL WELLS, June 12.—The 100 homes for noncommissioned officers and civilians working at Camp Walters will be erected in the southwestern part of Mineral Wells, it was announced by J. N. Brewer, Washington, of the defense housing, who is in Mineral Wells in connection with the constructio.

It is understood the number will be increased to 200, as a large tract of land has been secured by the government.

THE CISCO AMERICAN

and ROUNDUP

CISCO, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1941

NUMBER 258

In an area of benevolent climate, blessed with an abundance of the purest lake water, possessing the best in recreational facilities, situated on the Bankhead, all-weather route, with three railroads and many highways, Cisco is the best place in Texas to live and to work.

CISCO ELECTRIC RATES SUBSTANTIALLY CUT

MAYOR, COM. AND DISTRICT MANAGER ACT

New Rates in Effect Now and Will Apply on Statements Going Out July 1

Both residential and commercial users of electric service in Cisco will benefit from a substantial rate reduction to become effective as of June 1. It was announced today by Mayor G. P. Mitcham and the city council.

The announcement was made following a conference of Mayor G. P. Mitcham and the city council with the West Texas Utilities company, and submission of the new rate schedules by H. H. Monk, district manager of the company.

The new rates are in effect now and will apply on statements received July 1, covering electric service from May to June meter readings.

Mayor Mitcham said the savings to electric users would better enable the citizenship to meet the city's bonded indebtedness and would amount to considerable each year, which will greatly help in reducing outstanding municipal obligations under the proposed bond settlement plan.

It is the opinion that the savings established by the rate reduction will better enable residential and business establishment users to meet their city tax payments and thereby place the city in position to meet obligations of liquidating the indebtedness of the city.

Mr. Monk said the utilities is making the reduction in keeping with a long-time policy of lowering rates as fast as justified by increased usage and economic conditions.

It is believed that the lower rates will provide further incentive for home modernization and a more liberal usage, tending to improve living conditions here, and thus, in addition, contribute to the general downward trend in the cost of electric service.

The reduction will apply to all classes of residential usage except the electric range schedule, which is already below the average rate for this class of service in surrounding towns.

A statement of the old rates and the new rates, setting out comparative costs of electric service, will be forwarded to each residential and commercial customer with July 1 bills.

Farmers Say Berries Sell Very Slowly

"There seems to be too many blackberries in the country this year," said Alvin Weathers today. "I have been selling berries in Cisco for a number of years, but I have never found them to sell so slowly as they have this week," the farmer stated.

Several berry men have made the same remark this spring. Some said they thought there was an unusually large quantity being sold in the residence districts and perhaps housewives were stocked up on such things.

Farmers who have been advertising them in the patch say people seem to want to buy them already gathered, rather than gather them for themselves.

Early peaches are finding slow markets also. People say they are waiting for later peaches, which are better for preserving and canning.

Apricots are rather plentiful, but thus far very few are being sold from house to house.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kimmell were transacting business in Ranger Wednesday.

Laughter Greet's Union Leaders' "Back-To-Work" Plea

Under banners deriding him, Richard Frankenstein, left front, national director of C. I. O.'s aircraft division of U. A. W., addresses a "back-to-work" plea to North American Aviation, Inc. workers, striking for higher wages. Kneeling is international representative, Lew Michener. At right, with arms folded, is president of the striking local, Elmer Freitag.

Stage Set For Methodist Fun, Stunt Program

The stage is all set for the grand opening of the stunt show and fun program to be given on the lawn of First Methodist church Friday night at eight o'clock, according to the pastor, Rev. Leslie Seymour, who is assisting the performers in their various casts.

Dramatic numbers to be presented are, "Lochinvar," "The Coquette," "Wild Nell, the Pet of the Plains," "Abraham Lincoln," "The Dwarf From Patagonia."

Some of the stellar players will be, Pete Nance as Abraham Lincoln, and Mrs. Bill Childers as his queen, with Kathryn Langston, their daughter, wooed by Gerald Jensen, prince of the Hulla Hulla Isles. Also Mrs. James Moore will portray Wild Nell, the cow-girl, George Boyd will be Handsome Harry, in love with Nell, and Dorothy Huestis will be Lady Vere de Vere the English heiress. A. L. Osborne will make his debut as Sitting Bull whose accomplice will be Phil McCannies as Bull Durham.

Others are to be Marilyn Shertzer as the Coquette, O. L. Stamey as Lochinvar, Polly Porter as Fair Ellen, Mrs. Shertzer as the mother, and Carlos J. Turner as the father of Fair Ellen. These and others will offer an evening's entertainment that will be unique.

Lochinvar will be available after the program is over.

Customers Take All Fryers In Man's Coop

Fat fryers find a ready market in Cisco this week. A farmer brings in a coop of chickens and he can hardly get to a grocery store or market to sell them before he is surrounded by a group of men who take all he has. A few days ago a man brought in a coop of chickens—12 in number—and parked in front of a store, intending to go on to a grocery store to sell them, he stated.

When he came out, a man bought all he had in the coop. And he said he sold them for more than he expected to ask the store for them.

His idea is that if farmers will grow big flocks of chickens and feed them well so they are fat and plump, he will have no trouble in finding a ready market for all the fryers he can raise.

GOV. O'DANIEL SIGNS JUNIOR COLLEGE BILL

Pres. R. N. Cluck: We are happy to give to you and the citizens of Cisco and Eastland county the good news that the governor has signed the Junior College Aid Bill. We rejoice with you in bringing to a successful close the first state junior college aid. We think it is the beginning of a good program which will give better educational advantages to local boys and girls. Our concerted effort was given to bring to a successful conclusion aid for junior colleges and lay aside for all times to come our social security obligations.

OMAR BURKETT P. L. CROSSLEY.

After waiting almost the full 10 days, Governor O'Daniel signed the Junior college support bill Wednesday which provides, among other things, support from state funds of $50 per student for the 22 junior colleges of Texas, which includes Cisco, and Ranger for Eastland county.

Eastland county representatives, Omar Burkett and P. L. Crossley, and State Senator John Lee Smith deserve much credit for their untiring efforts that finally passed the bill, first in the senate, then to the house, where several amendments were attached, which made it necessary to go back to the senate for approval by a conference committee, and finally placed on the governor's desk for veto or approval.

This assures the support for the Cisco junior college for the next two years, at least, and President Cluck this morning said he was already working toward an increased enrollment and strong faculty for next term.

In a cautious statement Wednesday, Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel announced he had signed the bill appropriating $650,000 for the operation of 22 junior colleges of Texas during the next two years.

O'Daniel wrote: "I believe the idea of establishing junior colleges in Texas certainly has much merit and it may be that it is a system which the state should adopt. I have reached the conclusion, however, that if we are to have a system of junior colleges, then there should be some consideration given to some adjustments in the organization of our senior colleges. If we are going to maintain a system of junior colleges, and if the state is going to appropriate money out of the state treasury to pay for such a system, then it would seem to be desirable that a complete system of junior colleges be established, strategically located according to scholastic population, so that they would be available to all of the boys and girls in all of the counties of the state.

"My opinion is that if we are going to have a system of junior colleges in Texas, then it should be a system of state-controlled and state-supported junior colleges. I do not believe any of the cost of these institutions should be collected from local taxpayers. The reason I say this is that practically all taxes collected for the maintenance of local government comes from ad valorem taxes paid by the home-owners. I believe that if these people are able to pay their fair share of the cost of maintaining the public schools, including the high schools, they have done their fair share. The cost of giving the four years of higher education, whether it be done in institutions giving four-year courses or whether it be divided between institutions giving two-year courses and others giving four-year courses, should be paid for by the state, so that the burden will not fall too heavily on the local ad valorem taxpayers.

"After giving full consideration to all of these factors, I am approving this bill."

Mrs. Ralph Chandler, Misses Marie Hunterman, and Wynema Bond were a group of Cisco young women transacting business in Eastland Wednesday.

Johnson Speaks At Eastland on Saturday Night

Eastland and surrounding counties will observe national Flag Day Saturday and climax the occasion beginning at 7:30 p. m. on the court house lawn, with the most impressive oratory, political fervor, brilliant entertainment and music this section has seen in many years.

To the fanfare of the combined bands of Eastland county and of lifted Texas voices, the curtain will rise on the courthouse square for a political-patriotic address by one of the most arresting figures on the political scene, Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson, candidate for the United States Senate.

The program, which will include, besides the bands of Cisco, Ranger and Eastland, nationally-known singers and an imported orchestra, has been arranged by a committee of leading citizens, including the mayors of Eastland county's seven towns, all supporters of Johnson's candidacy. No detail is being left undone to make the occasion a success.

"Congressman Johnson, who has captured the imagination of the state with the race he is making against veteran campaigners and by his rapid rise in the Democratic party to the inner circle of Roosevelt leaders, will discuss the issues of the campaign, and especially those pertinent to this section of the state," Mayor Hall Walker of Ranger, chairman of the committee, said. Johnson, he pointed out, has made all-out support of Roosevelt's defense program the keynote of his platform, and has demanded Texas receive its share of national defense industry it is so well prepared to serve.

Sharing the limelight will be the band concert of martial music and a Flag Day revue of professional entertainers under the direction of Harwood Weedin, well-known radio master of ceremonies. These include Larry Lambert's Band of Patriots; Sophie Parker, who is known as the Kate Smith of the south; Mary Jane Behm, vocalist; Johnnie Landy, harmonica player, and Lois Widden and Billy Halameck, accordion duet.

The program is scheduled to start with the band concert at 7:45 with the Flag Day revue at 8:30. Congressman Johnson's address begins at 9 o'clock with 15 minutes of it over the Texas Quality network, after which he speaks extemporaneously.

The committee sponsoring the rally consists of Mayors J. E. Gilbert, Carbon; G. P. Mitcham, Cisco; Herman Rushing, Deedemona; C. W. Hoffman, Eastland; Dr. George Blackwell, Gorman; A. N. Sneath of Rising Star; Hall Walker, Ranger; Albert Taylor, Sam Butler, Bennie Butler of Cisco; M. D. Shirley of Eastland, and Will St. John of Cisco. Mrs. Ruth Hazaman, Horgan, Ranger, secretary.

The committee promises this section of the state a patriotic-political rally of the highest type, and a program long to be remembered. A special stage is to be arranged with a flag motif and a loud speaker system will carry the music and oratory to all parts of the square. At a similar occasion this week in San Angelo, the crowd packed the square for several blocks. Arrangements have been made at Eastland to rope off the south side of the square and to provide seats for those who wish to use them.

"We have arranged this elaborate program for Eastland and her neighbor counties and for Congressman Johnson on National Flag Day because we believe it is a time for unity and purpose, and because we believe Lyndon Johnson is the one candidate who has proved he can deliver the right kind of service to Texas and put this state squarely behind our great chief executive in this time of danger and national peril," Mayor Walker said.

"Lyndon Johnson as a young and vigorous congressman has brought to Texas a greater program of rural electrification than in any other state. He has given Texas and the nation the giant $45,000,000 naval base at Corpus Christi; the $50,000,000 Colorado

Flag week, June 8-14, which has been so loyally participated in by business men and private individuals in Cisco by providing themselves with flags and using them, will be climaxed Sunday afternoon, 5:30 o'clock, by a community program on the high school lawn, at which the flag staff and flag, donated by the senior class of '41, will be dedicated.

A. D. Anderson was appointed by Mayor Mitcham to be general chairman for flag week. Mr. Anderson appointed a number of committees which secured cooperation in various ways. H. R. Garrett, for the Cisco Junior college; C. J. Turner for the public schools, and Rev. L. W. Seymour, for the churches, have arranged a very entertaining program for the dedication ceremonies.

It is as follows: Prayer—Led by Rev. Judson Prince, pastor First Baptist church. Solo by Billye Cole, "There Will Always Be an England." Statement by Capt. R. N. Cluck. Tending of the Flag by Kathryn Langston for the senior class of '41.

Acceptance by O. L. Stamey, principal of high school. Talk by Rev. J. R. Wright, pastor of the First Christian church. Song, duet—Misses Billye Cole and Betty Lou Powell, "God Bless America."

Ceremony of flag raising by Boy Scouts. Pledge to flag by the group. Song, "Star Spangled Banner," by group, led by W. Frank Walker.

Mrs. Whatley Says Bought Feeds Better

Mrs. Mesford Whatley sold 16 dozen eggs to a local grocery store this week for a price which she said would bring her a nice profit over her feed bill and cost of keeping her hens.

Mrs. Whatley said she always fed commercial feeds, ready-mixed, because she thought it paid. "We can usually use all the feed we raise on our farm feeding the stock, without feeding it to chickens, and I do find that feed makes a lot of difference. If I get out of laying mash for a few days and wait until some one is passing to town, my egg production will begin to decline. I can tell the difference in a few days. And then to prove that this is the cause, eggs will pick up in a few days after I go to feeding it to my hens again."

Many farmers who keep books on their flock, agree with Mrs. Whatley. They say the commercial laying mash pays a profit when fed to hens.

Leghorns seem to be the general favorite with most egg producers. However, a few farmers say they prefer brown leghorns to white ones, because the browns are better rustlers and are healthier.

Farmers who cater to selling fryers prefer the heavier breeds, such as rocks, reds or Wyandottes. All agree that a green range for laying hens will keep them healthier and in better health in every way. They will not be so liable to mites and certain diseases that are prone to affect large flocks of chickens.

Eastland Man Dies at Graham Hospital

M. W. Wallace, 60, proprietor of the Spot Cafe in Eastland, died at the Graham Sanitarium this morning, where he had been for about 10 days. He will be buried in Slaton, it was stated.

Word received by Cisco friends today announced the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Dick West, Jr., of Dallas.
