JAP WARSHIPS MOVE AGAINST INDO-CHINA

AMERICAN SUPPLIES IN DANGER SAYS SECRETARY OF STATE AND ULTIMATELY PHILIPPINE ISLES

(United Press)
Japan moved against Indo-China today and a sharp protest was immediately made by the United States, while German and Russian forces apparently fought to a standstill. Acting Secretary of State Welles denounced Japan's act as "aggression," saying this action threatens American supplies now and ultimately the Philippine Islands. Japanese warships appeared off Indo-China and it was revealed an agreement had been reached with the Vichy government for Japanese occupation of strategic centers. Welles declined to comment on the possibility of the United States taking economic action against the Japs. German - Russian fighting still remains obscure, both sides claiming successes.

TEXAS OILMEN TO DONATE ONE DAY'S OUTPUT

(By United Press)
AUSTIN, July 24.—The railroad commission today set August 19 as the date when Texas oil men will be allowed to donate a day's production to Great Britain. Edward Lee, president, presided at today's Rotary meeting. The program was an outline of the year's work by committee heads, followed by instruction to committee heads. Ernest Hittson, chairman of the Club Service committee, gave an interesting outline of the work proposed for his group, and Gary L. Smith defined the duties, responsibilities and efforts necessary in carrying out Community Service work. Rotarian Smith is chairman of this committee. Visiting Rotarians were P. W. Campbell, of Abilene; Rev. Frank Crown, of Rule; Rev. S. C. Guthrie, of Graham. It was brought to the club's attention that next week's program will cover the balance of committee outlines and information on vocational service and international service, which are the other major committees of Rotary work.

MANUFACTURERS THIS AREA IN DEFENSE POOL

ABILENE, July 24.—Area industrialists in action here yesterday, pooled their plant facilities to cooperate with the government to speed national defense. An organization was formed to make the collective facilities available to Uncle Sam for the manufacturing of defense goods after A. J. Langford, Dallas, district manager of the Defense Contract Service for the Office of Production Management explained presiding news. J. B. Dalton, Abilene Machine company official, was named temporary chairman for the area's machine shop, sheet metal, planing mill, mill work and allied plants group. Reynolds Manufacturing company, Cisco, with J. Harry Reynolds as its head, and represented at the meeting by A. Sandhofer, superintendent, was named as prime contractor for future bidding, with cooperating firms in the area to participate as sub-contractors. Other committee members are D. E. Thrane, Eastland; J. E. Fletcher, Ranger; Jesse Jones, Haskell; Edward J. Uhl, Big Spring; W. C. Saladair, Anson; A. E. Harbeck, Sweetwater; C. H. Brown, Breckenridge; and Owen L. Gray, San Angelo. Manufacturers and industrialists were luncheon guests of the Abilene chamber of commerce, S. M. Jay, area adviser for the Defense Contract Service of the OPM, opened the meeting, and Max Bentley, activities director of the West Texas chamber of commerce, sponsor of the program in its region, presented Langford. "We have to work and fight with Hitler in this contest for our freedom, and we can't finish second," said Langford, former Ford company executive, in explaining the future priorities that will be given to defense manufacturing. He urged establishment of the pool plan for allied groups in the area. Registered for the conference were C. J. Langford, Dallas; J. C. Boyd, Jr., and S. T. Mendez, Wichita Falls; H. H. Batler and Owen L. Gray, San Angelo; E. R. Maxwell, C. H. Brown and J. W. Mash, Breckenridge; Carroll Lounder and Fred C. Smith, Moran; C. E. Downing, Albany; Milo K. Roth, G. H. Gravis, G. H. Hampter, A. E. Harbeck, T. P. Jobntson and W. J. Patton, Sweetwater; B. W. Scott, Colorado City; W. C. Saladair and C. M. Tidwell, Anson; H. H. Corley and Charles Green, Stamford; Vance Cowson, Coahoma; J. H. Greene, M. E. Allen, R. G. Burnett, A. G. Hall, Jr., J. P. Kenney, R. E. Satterwhite, Edward J. Uhl, Big Spring; Ralph E. Duncan and Jesse Jones, Haskell; J. E. Fletcher, Ranger; H. J. Tanner, Moran; and Mrs. J. H. Greer, W. F. Haag, D. E. Thrane, Eastland; P. R. Warwick and A. Sandhofer, Cisco, and Abilene's delegation of 17.

GORMAN WILL HAVE A BIG DAY TUESDAY

The third annual Sheep and Goat day program for Eastland county to be held next Tuesday, July 29 at Bass lake near Gorman, has been completed. The program will start at 9:30 a. m. and will include addresses and demonstrations by Dr. I. B. Boughton, veterinarian from the Sonora experiment station, Roy W. Snyder, A. & M. animal industries specialist; W. R. Nisbel, extension animal husbandman. From 12:00 noon to 1:00 p. m. barbecued chevon will be served by the Gorman Young Business Men's club.

8 EASTLAND COUNTY CITIZENS ON COMMITTEE TO ASSIST IN FARM REHABILITATION WORK

Eight Eastland county citizens have been named on committees to assist in the operation of the rehabilitation program of the U. S. department of agriculture, here, says George I. Lane, Eastland county supervisor. The appointments were made by C. M. Evans, regional director, Dallas. Johnson B. Eberhardt, Wayne D. Thurman and L. B. Norvell will serve as members of the subcommittee for the farm debt adjustment and tenure improvement work. Next meeting of this committee will be Tuesday, August 5, at Farm Security office in Eastland. W. B. Starr and Wayne D. Thurman will serve on the subcommittee for the rural rehabilitation program. Elmo V. Cook, Mrs. Josie K. Nix and J. Frank Robertson are members at large to advise on the various phases of assistance to low-income farm families. The rural rehabilitation program makes FSA loans available to low-income farmers who are unable to get adequate credit elsewhere. The loans are for the purchase of seed, fertilizer, livestock and farm equipment and are based on a carefully worked-out plan of farm and home management. About 693 farm families in Eastland county have been assisted under this program, according to Mr. Lane. All farmers as well as FSA borrowers may seek the assistance of the debt adjustment committees. The purpose of the committee is to assist creditors and farm delinquent to reach an amicable adjustment of debt, based on the ability of the debtor to pay. Creditors as well as debtors may seek for the help of the committee. This service has already been used by a large number of farmers in this county, Mr. Lane said.

SEC. OF WAR SAYS WHEELER NEAR TRAITOR

(United Press)
WASHINGTON, July 24.—Secretary of War Stimson today charged Senator Burton K. Wheeler with conduct that "comes very near subversive activities... if not treason." He accused Wheeler of sending postal cards to United States soldiers urging them to protest against entry of the United States into the European war. Stimson also introduced a bill authorizing retention in active service of all members of the armed forces and declaring the national interest is "gravely imperiled by the international situation."

CISCO FUTURE FARMERS KEEP ON THE JOB

The Cisco Future Farmers of America are on the job this summer. Just because school is out and the summer vacation is on, these farmer boys, led by their tireless teacher, T. G. Caudle, do not stop but work away at their projects like any good farmer must do if he is to be a success in his line. And these boys will be successful. Their previous records of scholarship prove that. One recent project started by the boys is a registered Jersey heifer bought by Marion Powers. Another is beef calves started on feed by Don Johnson, Earl Smith and Virgil Ray Carlton.

ECENTRIC PASSES

BARNSTABLE, Mass., July 24.—George Lyman Kittredge, 81, the nation's foremost Skakespeare scholar who was better known to three generations of Harvard students for his eccentricities, died yesterday. Wayne Blacklock of Munday is a guest of his cousin, Joe Tom Poe.

BANK RESOURCES GAIN

AUSTIN, July 24.—The state banking department says resources of state banks increased $34,998,855 during the year ending June 30. Savings department deposits showed an increase of $674,487 to a total of $35,677,490.

Robinson, Cecil Halbert, Nat. Kelly, R. L. Thackerson, Edward Lee, Roy Huffmeyer, Yowell Sherrill. Boyd Insurance Co.—George Boyd, Doc Cabaness, Mildred Clark.

A. J. ARVIN HERE TO SEE CHARLIE FEE

A. J. Arvin of Cottonwood, Callahan county, was in Cisco this morning looking for his old friend, Charlie Fee, with whom he did business in Cisco many years ago, when cotton was king in this section and people came many miles to trade with Cisco merchants. Mr. Arvin said he used to hunt buffalo in this part of the country—back in 1879; remembers one hunt especially well, he said, when a group of early settlers here went up about where Wichita Falls is now located and killed several buffalo. Times have changed greatly, he said. After Cross Plains built up and roads to Baird were built, he quit coming to Cisco to trade and so had not seen his old friend Fee for many years. Back in the nineties, Charlie Fee sold goods over Stephens county as far distant as Breckenridge and even Graham in Young county. Shackelford and Callahan counties were in his regular trade territory, like Eastland county. Other Cisco business men also covered wide territory and people read the Weekly Round-Up all over this part of the state.

BUCK MYRICK 71 TODAY; CALLED ON DAILY PRESS

Buck Myrick, former Cisco resident but a citizen of Moran since 1931, called at the Daily Press office this morning, renewed an old acquaintance and ordered the Press sent to him regularly. Mr. Myrick, by the way, is 71 years old today and seems to be as full of pep as he was back in the days when he called Cisco his home town and was one of the city's leading dairymen. He was born in Gadsden, Ala., and came to Texas in 1894. His first Texas stop was Gorman in 1895 he was married to Miss Martha L. Wood of Gorman. Six children were born of this union, four of whom are living and two of whom reside in Cisco—A. Z. and Porter Myrick. Mr. and Mrs. Myrick are living alone, now, on their 340-acre farm near Moran.

BAND CLASSES TO START AUG. 11; GET READY

Beginner instrumental classes are now being organized and will meet for instruction Aug. 11 at 9 o'clock a. m. at the high school, says R. I. Collier, band director. All students interested in taking up the study of instrumental music are urged to do so now, since this is the only time during the year that beginners will be accepted. It is imperative, says Mr. Collier, that all beginners have an instrument and be prepared to start with the class at that time. Beginners will not be accepted after that date. Interested students should contact senior band members and secure enrollment cards from them and their parents should get in touch with the director to discuss proper instruments. Physical make-up and musical aptness should determine what instrument the student should study. All instruction is free, most all music is furnished and no student wishing to take up band should be denied the training and experience that can be had in band. Band is an affiliated subject in the Cisco schools and credits earned in band will count toward graduation.

D. K. SCOTT IS A1 CITIZEN AND OPTIMIST AT 86

Frank Jones, editor of the Eastland Telegram, pays the following tribute to one of Eastland county's veteran lawyers, and one of Cisco's most beloved citizens, who may be classed as the dean of the legal fraternity of the county: Judge D. K. Scott, veteran member of the Eastland county bar, who resides in Cisco, was transacting legal business in Eastland Tuesday morning. Hale and hearty despite his age—he will be 86 August 29—Judge Scott appears many years younger than he really is. This he attributes largely to proper eating and the practice of sleeping eight hours each night. "I first came to Eastland county in 1872 when the present courthouse lawn was covered with a grove of post oak trees of various sizes," Judge Scott said. In his early days in the county Judge Scott operated a supply store at Mansker Lake, on the route from Stephenville to Fort Griffin, over which considerable traffic passed in those days. "I plead guilty to having sold a little whiskey in those days when I operated that store," Judge Scott said, adding, "but of course it was 'medicated' and believed by many then to be an absolute necessity." Always in a jovial good humor, Judge Scott greets his friends with a firm hand-shake and a cheery how-do-you-do that is inspiring. One never hears him complain about anything.

O'DANIEL OK'D BILL OF AID TO FIREMEN

AUSTIN, July 24.—Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, on the last day permitted by law, vetoed bills which would have made sabotage punishable by death, tightened liquor enforcement, revised the optometry act and required cosmetic tax collections by stamps. Among approximately 25 bills which the governor approved was a measure appropriating $300,000 a year for the biennium starting Sept. 1 to contribute to firemen's pensions in cities of more than 13,000 population. Veto of the sabotage bill, the governor said, was based on his conscientious objection to capital punishment and because research had shown such property damage could be punishable under 21 state statutes and 11 federal acts. O'Daniel asserted he vetoed the liquor bill, "which contains provisions which I should be glad to approve on their own merits," because he believed a definition of the open saloon in the measure would legalize "the existing beer and wine saloons in Texas..." Mrs. E. L. Graham and daughter, Gloria Graham, are spending the week in Ft. Worth.
