Nazi Losses (Star-Telegram)

Although Nazi and Soviet agencies have such exaggerated the losses of the other it is certain that the toll in life and materials has been terrific in the conflict on the eastern front of 2,000 miles in which several millions men are participating.

Russia has an abundance of manpower and raw materials, but her production capacity and transport facilities are uncertain.

Germany has a restricted amount of oil and other vital materials and also is confronted with the problem of transport of war supplies into Russia.

Germany now is blockaded on all fronts, her oil sources are confined to Rumania and to her synthetic oil plants within the Reich.

Unquestionably, need for oil was a principal reason for the German decision to spread the war to two fronts.

As to Nazi losses of material and men, the report from Turkey that the invasion has cost Germany 700,000 men and 6,000 armored vehicles may be much closer to the truth than the claims emanating from either Berlin or Moscow.

However, those losses are not decisive, although heavy casualties tend to weaken the morale of the German people.

The important news, in addition to prolonged Russian resistance, is information regarding Germany's oil and food reserves.

At the outset of the war, Hitler boasted that these reserves, patiently built for nine years, were adequate for a prolonged conflict.

However, conditions have changed since Hitler made that claim. Successive offensives have imposed an extraordinary drain upon Nazi oil and other resources, and imports to Germany from Russia have ceased.

The more intensively Germany wages the offensive against Russia, the more severe will be the strain upon Nazi reserves of vital military materials.

If Soviet and British resistance can be prolonged Germany will encounter ultimate failure.

For this reason, a Nazi peace offensive is inevitable if the conquest of Russia fails or is long delayed.

American proponents of a peace plan for Europe can not ignore the fact that it could take only the form of a Hitler escape after failure of his plan for world conquest.

(From Files of Cisco Daily News, August, 1933)

The self-liquidating projects committee recently appointed by Mayor J. T. Berry, in its first meeting at the chamber of commerce building yesterday, suggested projects to be worked out by the city and financed by loans from the public works administration.

W. J. Leach of the Leach Stores left for Washington Saturday afternoon in response to an urgent telegram requesting his presence Aug. 23 at a code-forming and hearing in that city for the more than 2,000 stores which he and two other men have been chosen to represent.

Cisco, by virtue of large majorities in the west Cisco voting precinct, went wet in yesterday's state election for repeal of the 18th amendment and legalization of 3.2 per cent beer.

In the east Cisco box the voting was close, anti-repealists winning by a margin of three votes and beer advocates by a margin of nine.

The box voted against legalization of brew in Eastland county under the local option law. Wets carried all points by large majorities in the west Cisco precinct, however.

A total of 843 votes were cast in both boxes, a comparatively light vote but yet considerably above what predictions had anticipated.

The two boxes have a combined voting strength of approximately 1,400. Of the total vote 642 were cast in the west Cisco precinct and 201 in the east Cisco precinct.

M. L. Purdue was appointed Cisco chief of police at a called session of the city commission last night. Mr. Purdue's appointment becomes effective September 1.

Purdue, night desk sergeant of the department for more than a year, was unanimously elected upon recommendation of Police Commissioner Henderson. He will take the place vacated by Grant Daniels, who resigned several weeks ago.

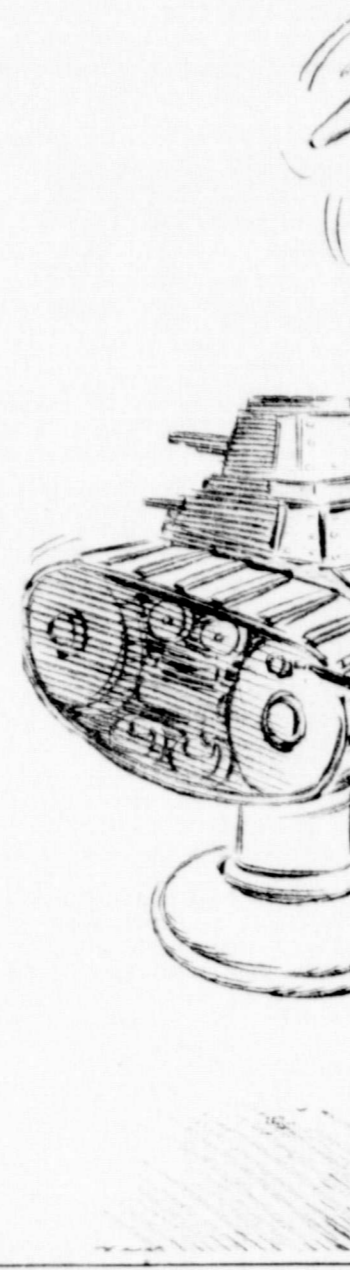

At the time of Mr. Daniels' resignation the commission said it intended to "take plenty of time" in the selection of a successor. No other nominations were made to the commission. Besides appointing a new chief the commission passed upon a number of tax matters.

The sixth and last outdoor motor of the lot stolen from Lake Cisco boathouse last week, was recovered yesterday by Constable Hicks and Deputy Sheriff Wilson at the Grove ranch near Cedar Mountain where the other five were located.

It had been thought that seven motors had been taken. Dr. D. Ball, however, when he returned from his vacation, was found to have his own in his possession. The first of the lot of stolen motors were discovered the day following the theft cached under cedar brush. There were three in the lot. Gordon Tomlinson, who has the Groves ranch leased, rode upon the hidden loot while looking after his cattle.

Shake-Up

Constable Hicks and other officers and citizens went to the scene. Hicks found two others shortly afterward, cached under other brush across a road.

The sixth motor was located yesterday under a single cedar bush standing out in a small glade. All of the six have been returned to owners, little damaged so far as could be determined.

Cedar Mountain is nine miles north of Cisco. Motors recovered belonged to W. J. Armstrong (two motors), Dr. E. L. Graham, S. B. Wright, George Irvine, J. L. McMurray. One of Mr. Armstrong's motors was recovered in the first group of three. The other was the sixth recovered.

All Cisco merchants today were urged to attend the meeting held on the courthouse lawn this evening at 8:15. Following the address by Clyde O. Eastus, federal district attorney from Fort Worth, the merchants will be allowed to ask any questions concerning the NRA and the establishing of business codes. It was announced that the local Retail Grocers' association will send representatives to a meeting to be held after the address in which an attempt will be made to form an Oil Belt Grocers' association and to agree upon uniform opening and closing hours.

The committee appointed by Chairman Asa Skiles to represent the Cisco association consists of F. E. Shoelley, W. K. Johnston and W. R. Midler. Whatever hours are agreed upon at tonight's meeting will go into effect tomorrow morning. Chairman Skiles said this afternoon. At present the grocery establishments here are opening at 7 a. m. and closing at 6 p. m. Cisco dry goods merchants yesterday set their opening hour at 8:30 a. m. and their closing time at 5:30 p. m. without waiting for the evening's meeting to determine a district-wide time.

Funeral services for M. W. Paschall, who died at 9:30 last night, will be held from the home, 1008 W. Ninth street, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. C. O. Shugart, formerly presiding elder of the Cisco district of the Methodist church and now pastor of a leading Methodist church in Fort Worth, will officiate. Interment will be in Oakwood cemetery, with a Masonic burial ceremony.

Green's funeral home will have charge of the body. Mr. Paschall is survived by his widow and three children: Crigler Paschall, Cisco; M. D. Paschall, Jr., Cross Plains; and Mrs. Frank Gaston, Dallas; five grandchildren; two brothers, Len Paschall, Ranger; Cecil Paschall, Paragould, Ark.; and three sisters, Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mrs. Nannie Corbett and Mrs. Ada Pippin, all of Miller Grove. Mr. Paschall was born at Turner Point in Kaufman county, Sept. 13, 1867, and at the age of 16 came to Cisco where he made his home until the time of his death. He was married to Miss Ella Maud Peveler, May 13, 1891, and joined the Methodist church in 1893. Active pallbearers will be B. W. Patterson, J. M. Williamson, Joe Wilson, A. Grist, W. P. Coldwell and L. D. Wilson.

State Trapper F. B. Mathews started off the month of August by capturing a wolf on the G. P. Mitcham ranch northwest of Cisco. There are more of them to be taken from that locality, the trapper said today, but he expects to capture them. Mr. Mathews said he is trying to get to those who comptroller's department, Fort Worth, and Mr. Shoemaker of Waco, an insurance company official, were guests of the Cisco Rotary club today noon and spoke briefly. Forrest Wright, member host to the trio, introduced them. The program for the day was in charge of R. N. Cluck and Dr. E. L. Graham. It consisted of entertainment by two negro men, a pianist and a tap-dancer. After numbers by these two, Mr. Cluck asked Mr. Wright to present his guests for brief talks.

Miss Laura Rupe, as Mrs. A. G. Motor company of Cisco, was awarded first prize at the annual Oil Belt bathing revue held at the Lake Cisco swimming pool Saturday evening. She was presented a diamond ring by the Lake Cisco Amusement company. Miss Lucille Clements, as Miss Laguna hotel of Cisco, won the second prize of a wrist watch, and Miss Betty Jane Brown, as Miss Albany, won the third prize of a bracelet. Fifteen hundred persons saw the revue, according to an estimate by the management. The stage had been constructed above the water between the pavilion and the island. The Lobo band, under the direction of G. W. Colburn, furnished music during the revue. Entrants in the revue and their escorts were guests of the Lake Cisco Amusement company at a dance which followed the contest.

BAN SUNDAY FUNERALS IN SALT LAKE

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 2.—Cemetery workers in Salt Lake grew tired of the seven-day week and asked for a change.

As a result the city commissioners placed a ban on further Sunday funerals.

The action was taken at the recommendation of the sexton of the city cemetery, who said it had the backing of morticians and LDS church officials.

And, he said, "the workers should have the day off for religious observance."

All some people have gotten out of their garden this far this year is the neighbor's chickens.

More Than Mere Profession of Faith Needed by True Christian and Patriot

Text: Romans 3:21-31; 5:1, 2

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D., Editor of Advance

It would help us to understand this lesson concerning salvation by faith, and its relation to law and righteousness, if we could think in terms of a modern American citizen in relation to his country.

We could think of such a citizen as breaking no law, fulfilling all ordinary obligations, such as paying his taxes, doing jury duty if called, giving military service if necessary, and yet with all this, being far short of a thoroughly good or ideal citizen. What is it that constitutes the good citizen, the fine and true American? It is an inherent faith in democracy and the living of a sort of life in thought, word, and deed, that is in accordance with that faith.

If we found such a man professing high faith in his country and a strong belief in democracy, who at the same time tried to avoid paying his taxes, broke the law if he could do so without anybody's knowing, and in other ways neglected the simple obligations, we should call him a hypocrite and regard him as a man of no faith. On the other hand, although he fulfilled all the obligations, unless he gave evidence of the sort of life and conduct that is in harmony with democratic principles, we would think of him as being something short of a good citizen.

WHAT does all this mean in terms of the Gospel and salvation as Paul preached them? Paul was brought up as a Pharisee in the strict letter of the law. The Pharisees were the party of strict observance. We must not imagine that Jesus thought ill of them or criticized them lightly.

It was precisely because the Pharisees were so devout and earnest that Jesus used them often for illustration, to show that a man might observe all the outward proprieties of religion and yet lack its inward reality and grace.

If we were to substitute "church member" for "Pharisee" in various passages of the New Testament, we would get a little nearer to what Jesus meant and church members, by and large, are the best people in our world today, but mere membership in a church does not make any man what he ought to be, and church members who have been punctilious in all their outward observances have often been lacking in the elemental Christian virtues.

If we could think of a man going up to the throne of God and claiming salvation because of what he was or what he had done, we would perhaps understand what is meant by salvation by faith, that comes to us through the grace of God. Is there any sincere man among us who would have confidence in himself and in his own righteousness? Would he not rather go to God pleading his sins and shortcomings, his deep imperfections, penitent and humble, but trusting in the love and grace of God?

This is faith, and it is the ultimate ground of a man's salvation after he has done all in his power to make his character and his conduct in harmony with his profession.

and Mrs. Mack Stephens and other relatives in Cisco.

Miss Frances Edwards of Ft. Worth is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edwards. Miss Frances is a student in Harris-Methodist hospital there.

Mrs. George Harkrider of Garthage, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Reggie Henderson, this week.

Miss Louise Cox of Woodson is visiting in Cisco, a guest of her friend, Miss Violet Elliott.

"BRING 'EM BACK DEAD!" the Referee Commanded

THE SCENE was in torrid Death Valley, where Hollywood makes true desert pictures, and the heat makes records.

Condemned to death were 6 new coupes, alike throughout, except that in each crankcase—under lock—was a different big-name motor oil... one 5-quart fill... never any added in any car's lifetime... 57-mile speed kept up under Death Valley's all-consuming sun until each engine went to smash. A strictly impartial, strictly certified test of motor oil life, decided only by 6 cars' death.

Which 5-Quart fill lasted all of 13,398 miles?... Certified

One oil outlasted the other test oils by 5,683 miles or more... Certified. And the whole lot of them—5 big-name oils—averaged not even half of the 13,398 miles delivered by the new long-lasting oil. You can have it in your engine right now—at popular price—by asking for

CONOCO Nth MOTOR OIL

Its mileage and economy come straight from Conoco Nth oil's new synthetic or man-made extra substance—Thialkone inhibitor. (Conoco Patent 2,218,132.) To understand, merely think a moment of Vaccination—the right protective substance put on guard to keep a trouble from starting. Now the trouble aiming to start on motor oils lurks in the normal firing of every engine. Filth is formed that can spoil one drop—then two drops—"catch it"—then four—then sixteen—faster, faster, FASTER, till the whole fill weakens and the oil level sinks too fast... but not when the start of this oil-fouling trouble is inhibited—held back—by life-giving Thialkone inhibitor in new Conoco Nth motor oil, on sale today for your car.

You'll never Death-Test your Conoco Nth oil nor repeat other proving-ground tortures. You'll still drain and refill at recommended intervals. But how you'll expect to stretch the distance before you ever add a quart, judging by this big fact: 5 heavily advertised oils in the Certified Death Valley Test were outlasted 74% to 161% by Conoco Nth oil.

AND CONOCO Nth OIL OIL-PLATES YOUR ENGINE!

Long the keystone of Conoco success OIL-PLATING comes from another great Conoco synthetic... man-made patent Magnet-like action bonds OIL-PLATING to engine parts. It can't all quickly drain down—not while you're using Conoco Nth oil. So OIL-PLATING is on guard in advance against wear!... and helps mileage, as it did in Death Valley. An OIL-PLATED engine is one more economy you get from a change to popular-priced new Conoco Nth oil.

Economy like that counts up into dollars! Change to Nth oil today at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company—Pioneers in Better Oil America's oil with Synthetics
