AMERICANS READY SAYS KY. EDITOR

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Herbert S. Agar, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, representing the fight for freedom committee on a trip to London, declared Friday a belief that the American people are "ready at this point to answer their obligation" for active participation in the war.

"No one can stay out of this world revolution against civilization," he told the audience at a luncheon given in his honor by the American Outpost, an organization of Americans in Britain. "You can either resist it or you can be supinely give in to it."

"The only way to win a war is to fight it."

"We have got to win this war together. Don't do anything to encourage us in the idea that if we produce enough tools the war will be won by somebody else."

The count was 3-1.

Mrs. Dillon, one of the favorites when the battle began, and who usually hovers near feminine par, again had trouble on the greens on the first nine. She shot a 52 and was five down to the steady shooting of the Cisco contender.

On the second nine, Mrs. Dillon rallied sharply. At 13 she had picked up two holes and when she won 15 it appeared that she might still pull the battle out of the fire. But steady-nerved Mrs. Greer didn't hesitate. She halved 16 in par to have her foe dormie two. On 17, both were on the edge in two and chipped close. Mrs. Greer sank for her four, but Mrs. Dillon, going boldly for the cup, missed and the match went over.

The other favorites won handily. Mrs. Ted Huestis, of Abilene, defending champion and medalist, scored over Mrs. H. T. Schooley of Ranger, 5-4. All of the winner's advantage was compiled on the front nine, however, where she shot a 43. On the back, Mrs. Schooley held her own.

Mrs. George Shows of Odessa, now a heavy favorite to meet Mrs. Huestis in the finals, had the best nine-hole round of the day. She fired a 32 at Mrs. Pauline Ater of Brownwood but had only a three-hole lead. Both played good golf on the second stretch, but Mrs. Shows was too steady, winning 5-3.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clements and sons, Bobby Jean and Homer Joe Clements of Odessa, are spending two weeks in the home of his father, Joe Clements, and with other relatives in Cisco.

Cisco women continued to take the lead today in the Women's Oil Belt Invitation tournament as Mrs. K. N. AUSTIN, Aug. 8.—One-time freight wagon driver, casual pipe-smoking Coke Stevenson, was sworn in as Texas' first rancher-governor.

Playing steady golf under heavy pressure on the back nine, Mrs. K. N. Greer of Cisco bested Mrs. C. C. Dillon of Odessa in the feature scrap of the opening round in the Women's Oil Belt Invitational tournament here Thursday. The count was 3-1.

Mrs. Dillon, one of the favorites when the battle began, and who usually hovers near feminine par, again had trouble on the greens on the first nine. She shot a 52 and was five down to the steady shooting of the Cisco contender.

On the second nine, Mrs. Dillon rallied sharply. At 13 she had picked up two holes and when she won 15 it appeared that she might still pull the battle out of the fire. Mrs. Jessie West of Ranger used her long wood game to advantage in beating Mrs. Earl Bradley of Abilene, 5-6. She wasn't pressed. Mrs. Myrtle Weatherby of Brownwood posted an easy 7-6 victory over Tillie Smith of Breckenridge.

Mrs. Jesse Yonkers of Ranger and Mrs. Evelyn Strahan of Cisco had a hot front-nine battle, but Mrs. Yonkers forged ahead for a 5-4 verdict. Mrs. Herbert Ingram of Abilene shot good golf at Mrs. Imo Carey of Breckenridge, but the scrap was close most of the way. Mrs. Ingram finally won 4-3.

Ruby Lee Edmiston of Brownwood captured the last match of the day with some solid firing, 4-3, over Mrs. Gertrude Whitman of Breckenridge.

Championship Flight—Mrs. Ted Huestis, Abilene, bested Mrs. H. T. At the outset he extended best wishes to Senator O'Daniel and other predecessors in the governorship, observing that all had rendered distinguished service to the state.

A combination of circumstances he said, required that he perform the duties of the governor's office although he had not been elected to the state.

The first of the six objectives of government which he had outlined in January was aid to agriculture, he reminded, stating the legislature passed the most liberal

FIVE-YEAR-OLD SANITARIUM'S BEST PATIENT

(By United Press)

The Nazi drive into the rich Ukraine territory appeared to be gaining momentum today and the British expressed fears for the fate of the Black sea port of Odessa.

The possibility of a Nazi-inspired Spanish move into French Morocco also loomed as leaves of Spanish officers were cancelled.

Official information from Moscow, however, belittled the claims from Berlin. Moscow claims the 20th German Panzer Division has been cut to pieces by fierce counter-offensives.

The Nazi high command reported the capture of Russian forces totaling 30,000 men, including the staff commander of the Sixth Russian army.

There is some mystery over last night's severe bombing of Berlin, first ascribed to British planes. The British denied this and Moscow was silent.

zen of Texas to support our commanding-in-chief in the defense of our ideals, our standards of life and our fundamental principles."

No wants war, but if it comes the valor of Texans can be depended upon to match that of their fathers in past glorious pages of Texas history, he said.

Six-Plank Program

The new governor voiced fervent hope that his administration would be characterized by honesty and efficiency in every department of government as well as hope for happiness and peace, thrift and industry and devotion to Christian ideals under the influence of solid education.

He pointed to a six-plank program for the state which he had proposed when inaugurated lieutenant governor for the second term last January, said it had been largely accomplished, but declared that because of that accomplishment legislation would not become stagnant.

"We will continue to be alert and mindful of the necessities of a growing and progressive population," he said. "Whatever is necessary for the common good will be undertaken with collective energy and a genuine desire to accomplish the greatest good."

Big Time Coming

(Canadian Record)

So far, this "great sacrifice" which the government says we are going to be called upon to make has been about as much of a hardship as it is for a woman to give up her winter hat for Lent. The farmers who thought they would be called upon to "give until it hurts," are now glad to be on the receiving end of more government aid than they ever have had before. Labor which feared it might have to postpone its ambitions for pay increases, has been left free to use defense production as a lever for forcing such increases.

(Dallas News)

Oh, but don't be in too big a hurry to come to grips with the sacrifices. Be sure your sacrifice will find you out. The farmers would now be getting $80 a bale for their cotton and $40 a ton for their cotton seed if they had any cotton or cotton seed. If the price holds up through harvest season southern farmers will be able to pay their debts unless their credit has been too good. The crop will be small, in comparison with former crops, yet a high price makes the heart rejoice. Labor is getting big wages, but what will the harvest be when the preparedness campaign cools off? The taxes are soon to burgeon like blooms on bull nettles. The Canadian contemporary may run away and jump into the Canadian river if he can find the water about the middle of next March. The war will be over sometime. Meanwhile we shall have made our defenses so strong that no bully boy from anywhere will have a pen to attack us. After the war, and after we have a trained army and no end of ships and guns, it is anybody's guess how anybody will pay his taxes. Also it is to be feared that congress has become so accustomed to making appropriations for this and that it can't stop.

One Man's Opinion.

Editor, Daily Press:
I respectfully ask that you reprint the enclosed article in the Daily Press. It bears my signature and was first published in the Dallas News. However, I have numerous friends in Eastland county and some of them have written me and asked that this statement be printed in your paper. Here it is:

Evils of Prohibition.

Money is not wasted when spent for drinks. If you are to have you way, include soft drinks, baseball shows, all sports and thousands of other spending along with it. Any kind of spending keeps millions at work making up of using raw materials, so there is no waste to liquor spending. What about smoking? Would you fix things?

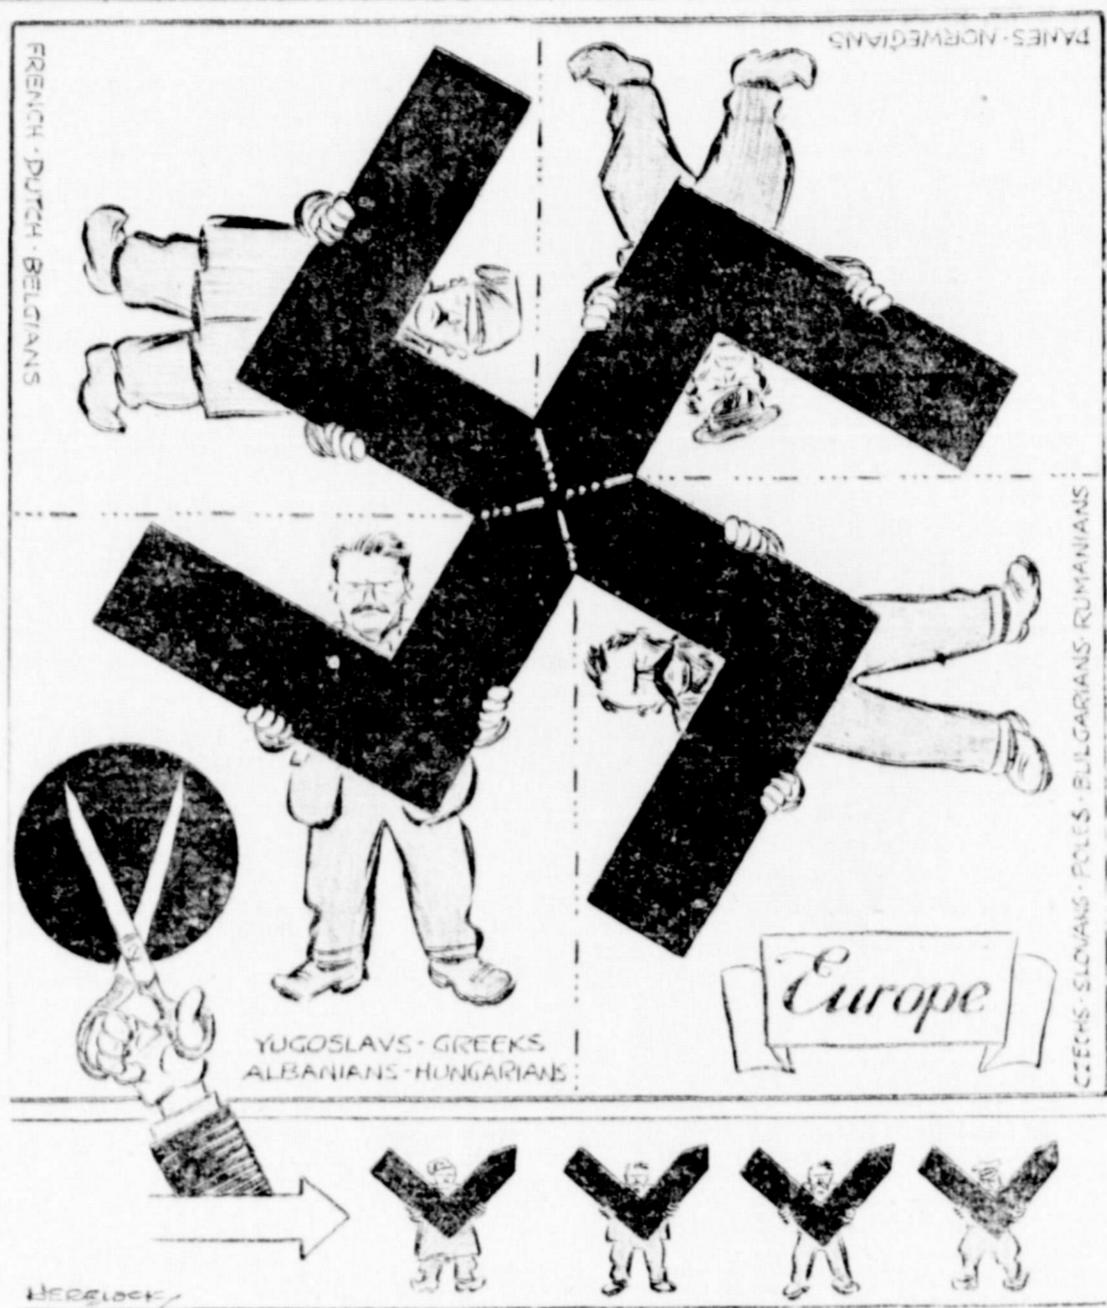

There is less trouble where the liquor is sold as in San Francisco than under the plan of Texas. In Shreveport you can find the same conditions as in San Francisco, and there is little trouble there with drunks.

The manhood of our nation is not being ruined or made unfit for national defense. Our soldiers are the finest specimens in the world. Every time they let the boys off for a few days, I bring two home to put a blitz on a couple of fried chickens. They don't smoke much either.

Prohibition was the works of the devil. It caused the birth of gangland, made the black-hand of Italy a small-town criminal.
