Do You Remember?
 (From Files of Cisco Daily
 News, November, 1925)

Some rare antiquities were shown at the Dowers show held here under the auspices of the Women's Federated Club of Cisco, which closed Monday at noon. A few of these antique items were special pieces. Many of them date back over 100 years, and one over 200 years. The museum on display in the room entered by Judge E. W. Patterson, printed in 1871, in Latin, and embodying all the Roman law up to that period. There are eight books in the volume, which is larger than the old family Bible common in the homes of fifty years ago. The book was obtained by Judge Patterson when he purchased the law library of the former associate, Dean Sherry, and was handed down by Sherry's son, Dr. Paul of this city, entered an ancient shield jewel case made in Armenia about 180 years ago. A battle robe made in 1811, an old linen sampler and a leaf from a Bible 125 years old were entered by Mrs. Frank Springer. Real curios of antique German origin were given, with a Bohemian garnet necklace and a black enamel brooch, entered by Mrs. J. H. Meyer. Having had to revolutionize many days one could almost see the original game when they viewed an ancient wheel and spinning wheel, which, also, be traced back more than 70 years, but in correct history, if known, doubtless extends to a much earlier date. This was entered by Mrs. Frank Pierce, and was used by her grandmother in Butler county, Pa. Among the collections of antique viewed by many were those entered by Miss Alice Johnson. Among these were a linen sampler of needlework 100 years old, an old carpet portfolio that was made between 75 and 100 years ago, and a compass owned by her grandmother. A hand-painted Masonic dress worn about 184 years old and belonging to Joseph Talbot Benton, of Hartford, Ky., grandfather of A. B. O'Flaherty, evoked much interest.

The show was but a few of the many interesting exhibits shown at the Dowers show as the fancy work, art, home economics and in fact all of the other departments, were very profitable. In all the departments prizes were awarded. Many of them were contributed by the following Cisco business men:

L. V. Norvell, Bedford Grocery, Carroll, Bros., West Dry Goods Co., Moore Drug Co., Main Street Grocery, Over Store, Barrow Furniture Co. (Bedford), J. P. Miss Kirby of Moran was shopping at Cisco Friday. She is the lady at whose home a party was held during the temporary absence from home one day last week. She says this party is the pet of all Moran and her married daughter and others are trying to induce her to give it to them. But the little founding has won a real home. Mrs. Kirby said, as she is thoroughly devoted to the little shop. When the founding was left at the Kirby home, Mrs. Kirby was sick and unable to go, but her husband, a telegram to join him there. Her husband's answer is said to have thanked her and caused him to change his plans and rush home for Mrs. Kirby sent the following wire to his request to come to him. "Clark, I have a baby!"

Since Cisco has come back to normalcy after the victory of the show over the Mavericks, plans for the big Basketball Primary show got under way Saturday when the secretary of the chamber of commerce called out 100 responses for the coming primary event here November 9, 10 and 11. "We are receiving applications for entry blanks and catalogues from all sources already," said R. Lee Poe, manager of the primary show, "and I feel confident we will have at least 100 flowers entered. Indications are that this will be one of the best shows yet staged. I have a nice and varied lot of prizes, and feel that many outside of Eastland county will enter buds. Some of the applications for catalogue come from people quite a distance and competition promises to be fierce."

"We can only do one thing well at a time and now that the Lyceum game was their most important game, we can turn our attention to the primary show and not at over it," Mr. Poe said. "This will be very of all will get behind the primary show like we have supported the Lyceum. In that event the show will be a grand success."

Among those who attended the football game at Breckenridge Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, Miss Juanita St. John, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. Emma Baban, J. H. Morrison, J. M. Williamson, J. C. Moore, R. A. St. John, Walter Hayden, W. P. Caldwell, E. H. Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. T. Peters, W. B. Chapman, Jack Pippin, Nick Nicholas, Ben McClinton, Dr. F. E. Clark, Alex Ward, R. Q. Lee, Gene Clark, Charles G. Gray, Hank Irvin, A. B. O'Flaherty, Ben Bellard, Gus Hutton, and Skip Lookey. Breckenridge defeated Atlanta—1 to 9.

Charley Mayhew, one of the patrol clerks in the Cisco postoffice, handed the Daily News a lemon this week, but it was appreciated. The lemon was grown in the yard of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mayhew, at W. Ninth street and F avenue. There were nine lemons on the tree, which in three years old, Charley stated, and this was one of the smaller ones, but it weighed a pound. Charley has another lemon tree two years old that is fruiting, but in transplanting it last spring only two of the tree ripened, the others falling off. These trees are now blooming and the blossoms are very fragrant.

Mrs. Pearl Morehart, worthy matron of Cisco chapter No. 461, O. E. S., who attended the grand chapter of the Eastern Star, which convened in San Antonio last week, was honored by being appointed assistant district deputy grand worthy matron of district No. 2. Those from the Cisco chapter who attended the 43rd session of the grand chapter were Mrs. Pearl Morehart, worthy matron; Mrs. Vera McLeary, secretary; Mrs. Joyce Bates, warder. These ladies have returned home and report a very pleasant and profitable session of the grand chapter.

Dan Horn was represented at the Dallas fair in the home economic department, announced Miss Ruth Ramey, who was here judging the home economic exhibits at the Dowers show Saturday. Two exhibits were entered by Misses Agnes Rupp and Eunice Bradshaw. Miss Bradshaw won the first prize on number picture and Miss Rupp was second prize on picture. First and second prizes at the Dallas fair by Dan Horn girls is quite a compliment to these young ladies, and reflects credit on a community as small as Dan Horn, which was in competition with the entire state.

The Anniversary Day committee of the Cisco chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, under the leadership of Mrs. A. D. Anderson, Henry Drumwright, Ben Betts, Charles Gray and C. E. West, working with H. G. Sadler, commander of the local Legion post, has arranged for a parade on Anniversary Day. Some 75 marchers on the west side of Main street were invited to participate. The parade will take place between 1 and 1:30 p.m., as at not to interfere with the Ranger-Cisco football game, which will be called at 1:30 p.m.

Harold McCord, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McCord living on the Strickland road south of Cisco, has returned from Dallas, where he has been an appendicitis patient for the past two weeks. While visiting the Dallas fair he was suddenly stricken with appendicitis and was hurried to go on the operating table. Harold has not his appendix, but he is all right now, and just as soon as he regains his strength will resume his work of delivering the Daily News to the patrons on his route.

Saturday night at the recreation hall in Hamlet, Misses Helen Hitchcock, Dorothy and Doris Carrington, Inez Strickland and Elizabeth Kellogg entertained with a Halloween party. The hall was unusually attractive by the use of Halloween decorations. Many games planned by these thoughtful hostesses furnished a most enjoyable evening and it was with reluctance that the guests departed at a late hour. Refreshments were served, vouchsafing the hospitality. Those present were Mrs. J. E. Almond, Maudie Ruth Wilson, Mildred Hodgins, Florence and Dorothy McDonald, Thelma Newton, Helen Hitchcock, Dorothy and Doris Carrington, Inez Strickland, Elizabeth Kellogg and Maudie Walker Stockard. Truett La Roque, Jack Moon, Garland Key, Dick St. John, Herman La Rue, Edmund Hitchcock, James Hankroder, Jack Vassoline and Quincy Lee.

An interesting event Saturday afternoon (October 24) was the wedding of Miss Virginia Tifal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Tifal, to James F. West at the First Methodist church. The young couple left early this morning for a honeymoon in the east before proceeding to Cisco, Texas, where they will make their home.—San Diego (Call.) Union.

Saturday night Master George Robert Winston entertained about 25 of his friends and schoolmates with a delightful Halloween party. The invited guests came dressed in costumes, and stunts and various games furnished the diversion. Doughnuts and punch were served at a late hour and all the guests departed, assuring the little host of an unusually pleasant time.

The reserved seat plot for the Lyceum course is at the City Drug store, and parties holding season tickets can have their seats reserved by calling there and checking them off. They are going fast and those wishing choice seats had better apply early, said G. H. Wells, principal of the high school, who is managing the Lyceum course here. Tickets are also on sale at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Armstrong have as their guests Mr. Armstrong's mother Mrs. F. E. Armstrong of Pawhusky, Okla., and his brothers, Karl Armstrong of Pawhusky of the Island of Sumatra of the Dutch East Indies, and Norval Armstrong of Pawhusky, Okla.

Hundreds of Rural READERS Over CISCO'S Big Trade Territory

Are being added each week by the four men working on the rural circulation regularly each day. Another man is to be added to the staff this week in order to complete the drive during August.

School Buying Time Is Near

MR. ADVERTISER --- Your buying public over Cisco and trade territory is nearing the time when each housewife will be scanning the Cisco Daily Press for buying ideas. She will be reading the Cisco Daily Press, her local paper, for items she is going to buy ---and Soon---Now . . .

And the Traagic Part, MR. ADVERTISER, is That She Will Be Reading Other Papers, and Out-of-Town merchants in near-by cities will be flooding her mail with their ads and temptations to lure her away from our own home town of Cisco . . .

And Will She Go? We Hope Not --- But That Will Depend Largely Upon One Fact --- How Much of Local items she seeing --- and how much will she see during the present and coming week?

Are you, MR. LOCAL MERCHANT, telling her of your own goods that she can buy right in her own town --- her own stores --- the stores that employ some of her own family, perhaps, or those of her neighbor's families? ARE YOU SURE SHE KNOWS JUST WHAT YOU HAVE IN YOUR STORE FOR HER AND HER FAMILY?

The Cisco Daily Press

Has done its part. A circulation in both city and country is taking the paper to the very people you expect to buy your goods for school, college and winter use.

ARE YOU SENDING THAT MESSAGE TO THEM? THE COST IS VERY SMALL. No other medium in the world could take your message to so many people in one day for so little --- and it's so effective --- The reader interest is there. These people wanted the paper --- they paid their hard-earned money to have it come to their homes each day --- and it contains items of interest about people they know, both in town and in the surrounding country --- Then certainly they will read it --- every line of it --- AND THEY WILL READ YOUR AD --- YOUR PERSONAL MESSAGE ABOUT WHAT YOU WANT TO SELL THEM --- ABOUT THINGS THEY NEED NOW AND ARE GOING TO NEED DURING THE COMING MONTHS . . .

We See Them All

As we said, we visit them all --- we'll see them through our columns each day. We could easily take a message to them for you --- one each day --- they are expecting it --- if it don't come they will read the message of some out-of-town store in another paper. Do something about it--- NOW!

Former Cisco Girl Marries

Cisco friends will be interested in a wedding which took place in Dallas last Sunday in which the bride, Miss Merrill Goldberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Goldberg, is well known here. The Dallas News of August 18 had the following to say:
Miss Merrill Goldberg of Dallas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Goldberg of Cisco, and Dr. Leon Bellman Krupp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli P. Krupp of Safford, Ariz., were united in marriage at 6 p. m.
