NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS

Daily Press correspondents in Eastland, Stephens and Shackelford counties are advised that hereafter they may mail community letters to the Press ANY DAY IN THE WEEK and said letters will be published as soon as received-rather than holding them for Thursday, as in the past.

When in need of postage, envelopes and writing material, write the Daily Press at once, giving full postoffice or other address. And please use a soft pencil in writing, with extra caution as to initials and names.

The Press has some 20 regular correspondents at present, but desires additional reporters in all communities in this or adjoining counties if not already represented.

In this connection it might be stated that the circulation of the Daily Press is IDENTICALLY THE SAME each day of the week.

Council Group One With Mrs. R. L. Clark

Group One of the First Christian Council met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Randolph Lee Clark on College Hill, with Miss Alice Bacon presiding. The meeting was opened by the group singing, "Jesus is All the World to Me," following which Mrs. J. T. McKissick brought an interesting devotional, using as a scripture basis the fourteenth hapter of John.

The group decided to "adopt" a nursery school child and also mentioned that next Tuesday is the day to pack a box for the Juliet Fowler orphanage in Dal-
