JUNIOR COLLEGE BUILDING IS IN FINE CONDITION FOR OPENING OF 1941-42 TERM

In preparation for a good year, Cisco Junior College is just finishing another big step forward. Workmen this week are completing repair work on the college that will result in a bright new building when students gather for the coming year.

Every part of the building has been worked on and the entire structure will be in fine shape for the opening, officials said this afternoon. All woodwork has been painted, all walls have been calcimined, a new hardwood floor for the first floor hall has been built, all lockers and library shelves have been repaired and repainted, all equipment in the science department has been worked over, the roof has been put into good condition, all bricks and all broken window panes replaced, shrubbery, trees and hedges have been trimmed and the grass has been mowed.

These much-needed repairs not only are brightening up the main building's appearance, but will prove a great aid to students in their work. With the building and grounds ready for the opening, registration will be held Monday and Tuesday, and classes will begin Wednesday morning, H. K. Garrett, registrar, announces.

He reported that a number of students have been to his office this week seeking information about the school and receiving help in planning their courses of study.

The college, now beginning its second year, is expected to have a decided increase in enrollment, contrary to the national trend which will be toward a drop in college enrollment because of conscription, other military service and defense work.

In addition to work being done on the main building, the dormitory has received some repair during the summer and will be open for boys or girls who want to room, board or light housekeep, Garrett said.

Served 23 Years As Cross Plains Pastor

After 23 years as pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Cross Plains, Rev. S. P. Collins, who is well known and admired in Cisco and throughout this area, has asked his congregation to name someone in his stead.

Mr. Collins first went to Cross Plains in 1908, for one year; returned in 1914 for a stay of two years. Since January, 1922, he has been pastor continuously.

CISCO COACHES GLOOMY OVER PROSPECTS AS OPENER NEARS; MAY LOSE SANDERS, LASATER

If you see two weary-looking gentlemen, wearing long faces, it's Mr. Murphy and Mr. McCasland, coaches of the 1941 Cisco Lobo football team.

And they have plenty of reason to be down in the dumps. In the first place it is highly uncertain as to whether Bruce Sanders, powerful center from last year, and Garland Lasater, one of the leading backs of last fall's squad, will be in uniform when the Cisco warriors take the field in the season's opening game here next week with Burk Burnett.

But that isn't the half of it. Only two other lettermen remain to build this year's team around—John Potter, a 170-pound guard, and Cleveland Dunaway, back. The remainder of the squad is composed of unseasoned men, most of whom are plenty small.

More than that, the first game is next Friday at Chesley Field, and the locals have only four more workouts after Saturday morning's practice before the season opener.

And the report that Burk Burnett has 16 of his 18 lettermen of last season back isn't cheering the Lobo coaches a bit.

The Cisco mentors reported Friday afternoon that only about 25 grid aspirants have been issued uniforms. Opening of Cisco high school Monday is expected to boost that number a little.

Besides the two lettermen—Potter and Dunaway—boys who have shown up best in practice this week are:

Sam Clark, a new boy who tips the scales at 175 and who will likely see a lot of service at the tackle post.

W. C. Gardner, a six-foot, four-inch end who has been snagging passes with much promise.

O. C. Penn, the largest man on the squad. He weighs 223 and probably will be one of the starting tackles.

Paul Moseley, small backfield man who has been looking good with his passing and kicking.

Jimmy Pollard, who has been hustling at the guard post. Jack Garrett, who is showing a great deal of fight at end.

But the rest of the squad is small and has showed little that the coaches might use in this season's games. When asked if the Lobos would scrimmage the Lubbock Westerners before they leave Sunday, the Lobo mentor replied gloomily: "We haven't enough men for a scrimmage against them."

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fewell and children George and Carolyn were Ft. Worth visitors today.

Many friends join in the hope that Aycock will now rapidly recover his former good health.

ARCHDUKE STUCK.

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—Massachusetts motor vehicle registrar Frank A. Goodwin announced Thursday that he was suspending the driving license of Archduke Otto of Austria, for driving 60 miles an hour, adding: "There was no necessity for the archduke to drive at that rate of speed, because Hitler hasn't got over here yet and there was no reason to suspect that the paperhanger was chasing him." Otto now resides in Royalston.

SWIMMING IN BERNIE MUST STOP -- MAYOR

"Lake Bernie is not a public swimming pool," asserted Mayor G. P. Mitcham emphatically Friday morning in discussing the fact that youngsters have been swimming in that lake.

"We have a public swimming pool at Lake Cisco for that purpose, and anyone caught swimming in Lake Bernie will be fined," he said.

The mayor pointed out that the lake is a part of Cisco's water supply and sometimes has to be used by the city to furnish water to the citizens.

FEED IS LOST AS BARN BURNS THIS MORNING

Fire destroyed the large new barn on the A. V. Clark farm, seven miles northeast of Cisco, about 4:30 o'clock this morning. The barn was practically filled with feed—hay and grain—with probably no insurance on the feed, but it was understood the building was fully insured.

Presumably the origin of the fire was from spontaneous combustion, as there was no other known cause for the blaze. Buddy Matthews, who lives nearby, reported the alarm to Mr. Clark at 5 o'clock this morning, who went directly to the fire, but the building was practically consumed when he reached the scene.

Cecil Lamb of the city fire department drove one of the department's pumps to the burning grain and salvaged a considerable quantity of the oats, which may be used as hog feed; but the hay, about 200 or 300 bales, was practically a total loss. Fireman Lamb estimated that the barn contained about 600 bushels of oats and about 50 bushels of barley, all threshed and in bins in the building. About 400 or 500 bushels of the oats will be for hog feed, Lamb thought. He also thought the fire originated from spontaneous combustion.

The barn was built in July.

The Nazis said heavy artillery was shelling the city; the Russians said their forces had recaptured four villages, and broken up several enemy units.

NUMBER OF U. S. SHIPS JOIN CHASE

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—President Roosevelt made it plain today that the United States navy is exerting every effort to locate the enemy submarine which fired on the U. S. destroyer Greer, and that the undersea craft will be "eliminated" if found.

The Greer was alone when attacked in daylight on the American side of the Atlantic, was plainly marked and was carrying mail to Iceland.

The president declined to discuss the suggestion that sinking of the sub might bring the United States into a "shooting war."

Several shots were fired at the Greer, it is said. The American boat quickly responded by dropping depth bombs.

It was unofficially stated that a number of U. S. war vessels are now scouring the seas in search of the offending submarine.

NAZI HOLDINGS IN ARGENTINA $455,000,000

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 5.—Thorough military conquests in Europe, Germany has gained control of approximately $455,000,000 worth of business and industry in Argentina, a congressional committee investigating anti-Argentine activities said Friday in a report for the house of deputies.

Germany aimed this economic power through seizure in occupied territories of firms having branches in the country, the report said. According to an advance summary, the committee charged that the German chamber of commerce and like German business groups in Argentina were in reality "one more tool in the Nazi political organization."

DESERVING.

This is the height of our deserts: A little pity for life's hurts; A little rain, a little sun, A little sleep when work is done.

A little righteous punishment, Less for our deeds than their intent; A little pardon now and then, Because we are but struggling men.

A little light to show the way, A little guidance where we stray; A little love before we pass To rest beneath the kirkyard grass.

A little faith, in days of change, When life is stark and bare and strange; A solace when our eyes are wet With tears of longing and regret.

True it is that we cannot claim Unmeasured recompense or blame, Because our way of life is small; A little is the sum of all.

The report is they got two or three pictures of Mr. Cat. Mr. Heyser and a number of his friends, with their hounds came back Monday night for another race, which was a success. Mr. Owen Sweeney, Lewis and Clifton Brawley joined them. The chase lasted about 3 hours, twice treading the cat before it gave up. It was a mother cat giving hopes of another chase after her young. Before the race was over quite a few neighbors of Nimrod were awakened and came to the race.

EDSON'S WASHINGTON COLUMN

Here's the Straight Stuff on That Tame Job Handed Wild Bill Donovan by the Administration

BY PETER EDSON NEA Service Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Organization of what will probably become known as a "brain trust for war" is now under way in Washington under the direction of Col. William J. Donovan of New York, better known as "Wild Bill" of the Fightin' 69th, but whose official title for the past few weeks has been co-ordinator of information.

There was considerable artificial mystery built up when Colonel Donovan first was appointed by the President, but it was largely the creation of gossips who wanted to make more of the job than it really was. Consequently, the Colonel has been trying to live down rumors that he was to be the Heinrich Himmler of an American Gestapo, the Goebbels of a U. S. propaganda agency, a chief censor, a super-spy boss of the G-men and Army and Naval intelligence units, or even head of a grand strategy board which would outrank the Army and Navy general staff and tell everybody where to head in.

Any and all such rumors can be definitely labeled as the bunk. What the Colonel will do is just what the title of his job implies—he will co-ordinate information.

THAT, however, isn't as simple as it might sound. Pouring into Washington every day now are some two to ten million words of reports from all kinds of places and people. J. Edgar Hoover's FBI has its dope. Army and Navy intelligence get reports from their foreign observers. State Department gets diplomatic pouches. Consular agents report to the Department of Commerce. Secret Service, Customs, and Coast Guard report to Treasury. Immigration Service reports to Labor. The transcript of the Federal Communications Commission's radio-listening-in service of foreign broadcasts runs to nearly a million words a day.

Heretofore, the meat of all this has been poured directly on the President's desk. To say that it was confusing is too mild. Its conflicts, incompleteness, fragmentary suggestiveness and lack of evaluation have been enough to drive anyone nuts. That's where the co-ordinator's job will come in—trying to make order out of all the chaos.

Doing a job of brain trusting on the war will be Donovan's division of analysis. It will be headed by James Phinney Baxter, III, president of Williams College. Baxter, in addition to being an able administrator, is a historian. He has been a member of the Naval War College staff for some years, and is the author of "The Introduction of the Ironclad Warship."

Granting that the now-tamed Colonel Donovan's Fightin' 69th Professors, or how many of them there may be, can co-ordinate all this information, it is not the idea to boil it down to a daily bulletin and then drop it on the President's desk. While the Donovan office will have no authority over the departments whose information it co-ordinates, it will be a Donovan function to "chunch" the various departments on courses of strategic action they might follow, and follow fast. For instance, if the foreign broadcast monitoring service picks up advance information of a new Japanese move to the south, as it did a month before the invasion of Indo-China, that is something the State and Navy Departments want to know about.

In losing their beloved son and Bible's sister-in-law, Mrs. Wilburn Curtis of near Romney.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvey Bible spent J. W. Brawley expects to make Sunday afternoon with Mrs. syrup one day this week.

HARVE VESTAL WELL APPEARS TO BE PAYER

A deep oil test on the Harve Vestal place, six miles northeast of Cross Plains, drilled by R. H. Gaddy of Dallas, was reported yesterday to have encountered a rich saturation accompanied by gas at a depth of 2,627 feet, in what was described as the Pioneer lime. When the formation was cored operators shut down the rotary equipment and pumped the hole full of mud. One of the workers on the job stated Wednesday that gas continued to bubble through the mud until mid-day Sunday. It was not known yesterday whether the well would be drilled in with the rotary tools or whether a spudder would be moved in to do the job. Only surface casing is in the hole. C. O. Holloway, of Tyler, is the contractor on the job, drilling the test for R. H. Gaddy of Dallas. The location is on the West 290 acres of the Harve Vestal tract, about a half mile over the Callahan county line in Eastland county.

A. P. (DREW) TIPTON REUNITED WITH AUNT, MRS. BONEY SMITH, ON MONDAY AFTER 24 YEARS

Last Monday was not only Labor day as far as A. P. Tipton of Cisco was concerned—it was another day of celebration, for he and his aunt, Mrs. Boney Smith of Ft. Worth, were reunited after 24 years in a reunion held three miles east of Putnam, on the banks of Battle Creek, near the location of the old Pecan school-house.

Mr. Smith was Martha Tipton before her marriage. She and Boney Smith were among the early settlers of Callahan county, moving there in the late seventies. They later moved to Cisco where they resided until 1917. They moved to Ft. Worth that year, and Tipton had not seen Mrs. Smith since that time. Mr. Smith died in 1933.

Most of the forenoon Monday was spent in greeting kindred and in reminiscing of days gone by. At noon a huge dinner was spread under a giant pecan tree and afterwards pictures were made of the group.

The day was so enjoyable for the entire group that it was voted to make the reunion an annual affair. The sponsor and originator, F. P. Smith, set the time as the first Monday in September each year hereafter.

Those attending were: Mrs. Boney Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Smith and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bryson Sherrill and sons, Ft. Worth; Mrs. Ula Pate, Monroe, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rutherford and family, Putnam; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rutherford and family, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cone and daughter, A. P. Tipton and sons, Elbert and Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jobe of Putnam.

This group forms the beginning of what is hoped to be a reunion of the Tipton, Smith and Rutherford families throughout the state.

Occasional hard times are necessary. People get sore enough to kick out the groups that got too powerful in good times.

SEED CAKE TO TOP PRICE OF $47 PER TON

FT. WORTH, Sept. 5.—Western Feeders Supply company here has raised the price of cottonseed cake to a top price of $47 per ton and admitted that the "sky was the limit."

Gins in West Texas were offering as high as $50 per ton and getting few takers. The price of cake and meal is based on the price of seeds—thus $50-a-ton seeds mean $50-a-ton cake and meal.

The overnight rise in prices was credited to Sen. William Bankhead, of Alabama, who advised cotton farmers to hold their cotton for $60 per ton. Western feeders quotations have risen eight dollars in less than a week, and say it may "go out of sight."

Weather conditions through the old south and the southwest made for a shortage which also will raise prices, probably to the highest level since the last war, gingers said.

The price rise will bring almost to an end the practice of feeding meal and cake to West Texas livestock, it was said. The plentiful grain season will furnish the roughage.

Rising Star Man to Work in West Indies

Signing up to remain in the tropics for two years and on the same job, Glenn Shultz, Rising Star man, left that city Monday for Ft. Worth, the first lap of the trip to the West Indies, and was to sail Thursday for Trinidad from New York City. He is going to the West Indies to work on a government construction project under the supervision of a Ft. Worth engineer.

Glenn was to be accompanied by a young man from Abilene and several others from Ft. Worth. The boys are signed up for a two-year period. Trinidad is just off the coast of Venezuela and not far from the mouth of the Orinoco river. The map shows it to be within one degree of the equator.

GERMAN SPY'S FATHER LOSES 12-YEAR JOB

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Because his pretty 18-year-old daughter was arrested in an alleged Axis spy plot, Karl Boehmiller has lost the $25-a-week job he held in a laundry for 12 years.

His daughter, Lucy, and two men, Hans Pagel, 19, and Frederick Schlosser, 20, pleaded guilty to a charge of conspiring to gather and send to Germany information vital to national defense. A third man, Kurt Frederick Ludwig, was held in $50,000 bail in Spokane, Wash., on a similar charge, awaiting removal here.

When Boehmiller arrived at the laundry where he had never missed a day at work, William C. Eisenhardt, vice president, told him he was discharged.

"Boehmiller is no longer in our service because we don't want anyone in our plant who is associated with spying activities," Eisenhardt told reporters.

"We are strictly an American plant and will not countenance such things."

Danforth of Fort Worth, executive secretary, and members of the association's executive committee. These were H. W. Lester of Austin, Roscoe Charlton of Temple and Mrs. A. J. Dupuis of Houston. PROBE OF RAIL RATES BACKED BY COMMISSION

AUSTIN, Sept. 5.—A majority of the Texas Railroad commission has petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission not to postpone an investigation by the federal agency of interterritorial freight rates. Commissioners Sadler and Culbertson declared Class 1 railroads, joined by certain states officially through their governors, were seeking to postpone indefinitely the national investigation designed to equitize freight rates as between sections. "In their pleadings for postponements, these respondents are taking the position that a national defense emergency exists during whose pendency the question of comparative transportation charges should be put on ice and left to freeze and be forgotten," the Texas officials wrote Chairman Eastman of the ICC. They added: "Our position is
