CISCO IND. SCHOOL BOARD HAS DONE THE UNUSUAL IN REBUILDING JR. COLLEGE

With improvements to Cisco Junior College practically complete and about 120 happy students going about their studies...

BEFRIENDED BY MAYOR, BOY IS MAKING GOOD

Supervisor Webb, of the N. Y. A. school at Ranger, was in Cisco Thursday for the purpose of making a report to Mayor Mitcham...

DRIVERS LICENSE TO 267

AUSTIN, Sept. 12.—Another 267 Texas youths between 14 and 16 have been granted drivers' licenses since August 13, State Police Director Homer Garrison reported today.

CAN SOVIETS HOLD THEIR PRESENT GAIT?

Hitler is described officially as being compelled to take appropriate measures against President Roosevelt's order to the American navy to "shoot first" at raiders on the high seas.

Cisco Independent School Board, headed by W. J. Armstrong as president of the body, will have done a thorough job when these improvements and remodeling plans have been completed, totaling thousands of dollars and all paid for without touching any public school funds!

New oak floors have been laid in the halls, and the offices, library and all rooms needed for the present enrollment have been put in prime condition.

A music room to house the fine arts department, a girls' lounge and other rooms aside from regular recitation rooms are being made ready as fast as workmen can do the work.

Interior walls are being replastered and painted. The big auditorium will soon be ready to house any audience Cisco Junior College may see fit to invite to its public exercises.

Most small colleges are housed and equipped at the expense of such burdensome indebtedness shouldered by citizens of the community which it serves.

But Cisco Junior College begins its second year with a well-equipped library, laboratory and other physical assets, and a well-trained and experienced faculty, and all this debt-free and the financial outlook very bright for future maintenance.

Cisco trade territory, with its contributing transferring and contracting school communities, should furnish ample material of boys and girls to supply the need in student body.

Cisco's school board has proved its ability to cope with school problems and President Armstrong an point with justifiable pride to the accomplishments of his co-workers.

The complete board is as follows: W. J. Armstrong, president; Miss Fannie Kimmell, vice president; Mrs. N. A. Brown, secretary; Floyd E. Shepard, L. A. Jarrett, J. C. McAfee and Mrs. R. Warwick.

CISCO DAY AT COUNTY FAIR HAS BEEN SET

HERE IS HOW TO GET BIRTH CERTIFICATE

With the increase in the number of people becoming employed in defense industry and in the number entering officers' training and other phases of military service, all of which require a birth certificate, Dr. W. P. Lee, city health officer, today issued the following statement explaining how a certificate may be obtained:

"When a person's birth is not recorded or the record is not complete, it is necessary to fill out certain forms or blanks and have them recorded in the county clerk's office in the county in which the birth occurred. If the person was born in another state he can file his certificate in the clerk's office of the county where he resides. If born in Texas it must be filed in the county clerk's office in the county in which he was born.

There are two kinds of blanks, one a single affidavit; the other a double affidavit. The single affidavit is signed by the physician in attendance at the birth of a child. If the physician is dead or his signature cannot be obtained, the double affidavit blank may be used. Affidavit A may be signed by either of the parents or some relative. Affidavit B must be signed by someone not related to the party by blood or marriage. The blank, when properly filled out and notarized, should be submitted to the county judge. If accepted, a copy will be filed in the clerk's office and a copy filed in Austin.

"A certified copy will be obtained from the county clerk where filed or from the registrar at Austin."

E. E. Marsh left Thursday for Atlanta, Ga., on a business trip.

BANK IS HELD UP

The First National Bank of Stamford was robbed about 12:30 p. m. today.

A lone robber, wearing a mask, and carrying a large six-shooter, held up the cashier and secured $4,815.

He left the back way, passed down an alley, and there is no trace of him.

He was believed to be of light complexion, weighing about 140 pounds.

The Cisco Daily Press talked with Frank Morrow of another Stamford bank at 2:45 this afternoon and this is all the information which could be obtained.

16-YEAR-OLD EVANGELIST TO CLOSE REVIVAL

The revival which has been conducted at the Central Baptist Mission by Marvin H. Clark, 16-year-old Abilene evangelist, will close tonight.

"I WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED IF WE GOT IN SHOOTING WAR," SAYS CLYDE GARRETT HERE THURSDAY

"I would not be surprised if we enter a shooting war against the Axis, but I doubt that expeditionary forces will be sent across the water," Clyde L. Garrett, former county judge and 17th district congressman, said Thursday in Cisco.

Garrett for the past few days has been visiting in the district which he served for two terms in the U. S. congress. He plans to return to Washington Sunday or Monday, where he is working with Jesse Jones in the U. S. department of commerce.

Occasion of his visit was the illness and death of his sister in Oklahoma City, and business in this district to which he wished to attend.

"If the United States enters the war actively, as in 1917, her participation will be in the air and the navy," Mr. Garrett said. "These two divisions of our military service will bear the brunt of our active fighting against the dictator nations."

"It behooves every patriotic American citizen to cooperate in every way possible in the national defense program. Naturally, it will be necessary for many sacrifices to be made by our people, but it is more than worth the effort," he said emphatically.

"The international situation, of course, is the thing of greatest concern in the United States today. As I have always felt, I feel that all aid possible should be given by the United States to the democracies now waging a war for survival against dictatorship."

"There is no question as to the ultimate outcome of the present conflict, for eventually the Allies will win, I think, but no one knows nor will predict how long the struggle will last."

"Unquestionably Japan is going to be very reluctant to align itself with the dictator nations, and I do not believe it will ever do so. Of course, should the Japanese eventually do so, that would not mean the democracies would not be victorious, but it would prolong the struggle," he said.

"It should be heartening to every American that Russia is not only holding her own, but is retaking much ground which she lost earlier against the Germans."

MAYOR ASKS COOPERATION IN BLACKOUT

Mayor G. P. Mitcham this afternoon issued a request that all business concerns cooperate in the fight against the cricket siege which is again covering the town by leaving off all outside lights in the business district for the next few nights.

Mr. Mitcham's request came in answer to an appeal from local merchants whose merchandise and equipment are being damaged by the insects.

Almost every means possible is being employed by Ciscoans to battle the black hoppers who have become extremely thick in this city since the cool spell which hit the city earlier this week. The insects not only are proving a nuisance to citizens, but several merchants have reported much damage to goods.

"All street lights will remain unlighted during the efforts to rid the city of the crickets, and I am urging that all business concerns turn off all lights possible," the mayor said.

EDSON'S WASHINGTON COLUMN

New Ways Not to Be Your Brother's Keeper Are Devised as War Tempo Speeds Up

BY PETER EDSON, NEA Service Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—One of the more amazing and frightful aspects while the "science" of modern war is the way it has of developing in progress. And the uncensored reports of observers returning to the United States bear proof that every day, in every way, it is becoming worse and worse.

The case of airplane speed and armament is a perfect example of war's increasing efficiency. It was only two years ago that the shooting began—how time does fly—but in the lovely harvest season of '39, an airplane that could do 350 miles an hour was all right. Today it must do 400 to 450, or be shot down. Airplane engines that could rate 1000 or 1500 horsepower could get by, but today 2000 h. p. is a minimum, and 2500 or better must be achieved soon if there is to be superiority in the air.

Planes that could climb to 30,000 feet were safe in '39, but today they must reach 40,000. Two machine guns and one cannon made combat planes pretty formidable in the old days, but today they pack three or four cannons and six or eight machine guns.

Newest device of death and destruction is reportedly the acoustic or harmonic mine. It is a successor to the magnetic mine, which became obsolete as soon as the magnetic belt was invented and all ships were equipped with this ring of cables through which a current was passed to set up an induction field that would counteract the magnetic field of the mine, making it harmless.

Not much is known about the acoustic mine, but the principle of its operation is fairly simple. Instead of being set off by the ship's natural magnetic field, it is set off by the vibration of the ship's engine, the transmission of sound waves through water.

It being practically impossible to build a vibrationless or perfectly silent ship, latching this acoustic mine may be a lot harder than overcoming the magnetic mine. One report in Washington is that the Germans have discontinued using the magnetic mine at sea, converting those on hand into land mines to drop by parachute from bombing planes.

Another ingenious use of sound waves has been figured out by the German technicians. When German bombers first came over England, it was noticed their engines, instead of having a steady, even roar, seemed to exhaust unevenly and at variable pitch. British plane builders were at first inclined to scoff, saying the Nazis didn't know how to build good motors. But when the British plane detecting devices tried to pick up German planes by means of mechanical ears and radio listening posts, it was found that this uneven beat of the German motors made extremely difficult the task of telling quickly the height of an attacking bomber. Now, it is understood, British bombing plane engines are also being re-gearred to give off the uneven drone beat so as to throw off German listening posts.

Chatter about the mysterious Sperry bomb sight, perfected for use by U. S. bombers, has of course been limitless. Hailed as the greatest secret weapon of the present war, it enables bombers to drop their eggs in pickle barrels from 15,000 feet with uncanny regularity. It has been generally assumed that this device was given to the British, but there now comes from England reports that the Sperry bomb sight is of questionable value, for the reason that its use is dependent on perfect visibility—a condition frequently found on the bombing ranges near Denver and the California deserts, but only infrequently in Europe.

RELEASED MEN HELPED TO GET REEMPLOYMENT

Urging the patriotic cooperation of every employer in Texas to see that every returning soldier has a job when he gets home, Gen. J. Watt Page, state selective service director, today announced the inauguration of a carefully studied and organized reemployment program which will function through the local boards of the system.

The reemployment program calls for the appointment of a reemployment committee member affiliated with each local board, the director explained. This committee member will act as liaison agent between returning soldiers and employers.

The function of the local board reemployment committee member will be to get in touch with the former employer prior to the return of a soldier to see if his former job is still available, to transmit the record of returning soldiers who have no jobs awaiting them to the nearest state employment service, and to act as liaison agent for the soldier in placing him in contact with available jobs.

In cases where the state employment service is unable to find a job for a returning soldier, the local board reemployment committee member must look for local employment opportunities. For this purpose he should obtain the cooperation of local chambers of commerce and boards of trade, Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, Exchange and Optimist clubs and like groups, labor unions, the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and similar organizations.

The war department is cooperating with the selective service system in carrying out the obligation of the government to civilian citizens jobs for returning soldiers. In every camp it is gathering the occupational and educational history of the soldier, together with all data concerning the military career of each that is pertinent to civilian employment. This data will be distributed to local board reemployment committees by national selective service headquarters through state headquarters.

The selective training and service act of 1940 provides that a man inducted into military service shall be given a certificate of satisfactory service if he completes training to the satisfaction of the army. The act then specifies that:

"(A) if such position was in the employ of the United States government (its territories or possessions, or the District of Columbia), such person shall be restored to such position or to a position of like seniority, status, and pay;

"(B) if such position was in the employ of a private employer, such employer shall restore such person to such position or to a position of like seniority, status, and pay unless the employer's circumstances have so changed as to make it impossible or unreasonable to do so;

"(C) if such position was in the employ of any state or political subdivision thereof, it is hereby declared to be the sense of the congress that such person should be restored to such position or to a position of like seniority, status, and pay."

The act also provides that "persons so restored shall not be discharged from such positions without cause within one year after such restoration."

To make use of the facilities being provided to aid in his reemployment, the soldier has only to fill out the information requested on forms being distributed by the army, and get in touch with the reemployment committee member attached to his local board if he is a registrant or the local board nearest his home if he is not, as soon as he returns.

General Page stated that a reemployment committee member for each of Texas' 351 local boards would be appointed by Governor Coke Stevenson within the next few days.

NATION'S 'REAL INCOME' HIT A NEW HIGH DURING THE MONTH OF JULY; WAGE LEAD REPORT SAYS

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 12.—"Real Income" of Mr. and Mrs. American Public made another advance in July to a new high of $1.34, compared with $1 a year ago, according to the monthly study of what people get and spend, released here today by Investors Syndicate.

Food Takes Another Jump. "On the outgo side of the picture, there was the continuing upward trend in the cost of food at the beginning of August. In July, it required $1.06 to buy as much food as a dollar would purchase in the corresponding period of 1940.

Wages At New High. "With the typical consumer family receiving $1.41 in July while it received $1 a year ago, wage payments amounted to $1.58, a new record level, compared with July, 1940. Salary checks contained 26 cents more on the dollar, while 'other' income, influenced largely by the higher prices paid to farmers for their products, was at the rate of $1.33 for every dollar received a year ago.

CROSS PLAINS' FIRST BALE OF COTTON, 16 CTS

CROSS PLAINS, Sept. 12.—First bale of 1941 cotton was received in Cross Plains Saturday, September sixth. It was brought in by A. E. (Heck) Brown, who lives two miles north of Burkett. The bale weighed 521 pounds, was ginned at the Planters Gin Company here and bought by E. L. Vestal for 16 and three quarter cents.

Cross Plains merchants made up a premium of $26.25 in keeping with the ancient tradition of honoring the first producer to bring in a bale of new lint.

This year's bale was later than any time in the past six years, for which the Review has records available. In 1936 the first bale was brought in by Jay Gould on August 28. In 1937, C. C. Shepard brought in the first bale on August 18. In 1938, Tom Shepard brought in the first bale on August 23. Bob Merryman got the first bale in 1939, bringing it in on September first. Last year's first bale was brought in by Porter Lee on September fourth.

DO YOU WANT TO SELL 5,000 HORNED TOADS?

The chamber of commerce has decided not to comply with a request for 5,000 horned toads. A card received by the local chamber is as follows:

Dear Sirs: Can you have up to 5,000 horned toads shipped me at once in lots of 100 or more? Will pay 10 cents for all that reach me alive.

L. G. REEVES, Monroe, Ga.

Whether the request is just a joke or not isn't known, and even if it is on the level, chamber officials are wondering what the fellow wants with 5,000 frogs.

At any rate, it has been decided that it would be impossible to get 5,000 frogs around here, but he can have all the crickets he wants—and at no cost.

"And besides, we had rather not have a line of boys bringing in little bags of toads and have the frogs all over the office, much less having to pack and ship them," P. R. Warwick, chamber of commerce secretary, said.

PEANUTS FOR OIL PEGGED AT $88 A TON

ABILENE, Sept. 12.—West Texas growers diverting 1941 peanuts into the manufacture of oil and by-products through designated producer agencies will receive approximately $23 more per ton than they did under the 1940 diversion program, A. L. Cook, administrative officer of the Taylor county AAA, announced yesterday.

For the area as a whole, the increase will amount to a considerable sum, Cook commented, although for Taylor county it will not be large since only 29 farms in the county have peanut allotments under the AAA program, and very few planted peanuts without an allotment.

Prices established by the secretary of agriculture Aug. 8 scheduled No. 1 Southwestern Spanish peanuts at $88 per ton, No. 2 at $82, and No. 3 at $75.

Southwestern Peanut Growers association at Gorman has been designated as an agency to which growers of this section can deliver their peanuts.

Under the diversion program, only quota peanuts will be sold at these established prices, while "excess" peanuts will be paid for at current oil prices.

Quota peanuts, Cook explained,

ALBANY TO GET WATER PIPE SOON

ALBANY, Sept. 12.—The city of Albany will receive five cars of ten-inch cast iron pipe next week to be used for the pipe line from Lake McCarty to the city water works plant, according to information received this week.

Mayor D. G. Curb received a telegram Monday from Washington stating that the city had been given a priority rating for its order of pipe due to the emergency created when the flood destroyed Lake Diller in June. The priority rating was A-3, which was considered about as high a rating as a project other than a national defense project can receive.

The 400-foot core trench, which averages 23 feet in depth, has been filled with clay, and the contractor, Willard Smith, is ready to begin building the big dam that is to impound Lake McCarty. He expects to have the dam completed in less than two months. WPA employees have cleared the basin of the lake, and have dug part of the pipe line ditch, and as soon as the pipe is on the ground, work will commence laying the line.

Lake Diller dam, which was destroyed in June, is holding some six feet of water, which is Albany's present water supply. With continued showers, it is expected this water supply will last until Lake McCarty is completed and catches water.

BLOOD TESTS TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT AT 7

In an effort to fill the Cisco blood testing quota, which to date is 125 short, types will be tested at Graham Sanitarium tonight from 7 to 9:30.

Support of the Cisco Lions and Rotary clubs has been enlisted and hospital attendants are hopeful that a large number of Ciscoans of all ages will respond to a worthy project designed for the protection of Eastland and Callahan residents.

The project is sponsored by the Eastland-Callahan County Medical association and was begun two weeks ago. Local citizens responded poorly and the quota fell decidedly short of being filled.

The purpose of the project is to test the type of blood of many citizens, each receiving a card showing that person's blood type, the card to be carried in billfold or purse so that in case of accident and he needs a transfusion quickly, attendants will know im-
