Cemetery Workers' Names On Oakwood Entrance Are Now Legible After Painting

The two granite tablets, one on the left column and one on the right column which support the arch making the entrance to Oakwood cemetery, have recently been worked over so that the names of those people responsible for Cisco's present-day beautiful burial grounds may be clearly seen.

On the left column is a tablet bearing the names of the organizers and early-day cemetery workers dated 1881, and on the right-hand tablet are the names of the cemetery board, city commissioners, city engineer and cemetery caretakers in 1931.

The work of years had made the names carved in the tablets almost illegible and these tablets have been brought out with white wash, making them easy to read, either day or night. This work was done in order that the many people interested in the cemetery might know and remember those responsible for the organization and maintenance of these attractive grounds.

The tablet on the left column reads as follows:

Organizers and early-day cemetery workers:
C. G. Stephens, W. T. Caldwell, C. S. Vance, H. C. Rominger, G. S. Williams, L. P. Owen, T. W. Neel, W. E. Mancill, J. J. Winston, M. B. Owens, R. A. St. John, Eliza Hittman, R. B. Vaughan, J. W. Hartman, L. E. Brannin, F. E. Aycock, F. C. LeVeaux, Gus D. Ward, D. K. H. Holcomb, W. A. Gude, D. L. H. Rogers, Julia Alexander, W. L. Harrell, Isham Lamb, E. E. Keau, M. H. Fleming, Joe Wilson, C. H. Fee, J. F. Patterson, J. M. Williams, R. W. Edleman, T. P. Johnson, H. C. Hollinger, W. Lee, John J. Butts, J. H. Stamp, W. D. Chandler, N. A. Preston, John H. Garner.

The other tablet, on the right column, has to do with more recent cemetery workers and reads as follows:

1931.
Park and Cemetery Board.
A. B. O'Flaherty, D. L. Rogers, M. H. Fleming, L. F. Mendenhall, Paul M. Woods.
Mayor and City Commissioners.
J. M. Williamson, J. T. Berry, J. R. Burnett, L. H. McCrea, Crigler Paschall, George D. Fee.
City Engineer.
J. G. Reagan.
Caretakers.
Sid McIntyre, T. H. Moore.
The cornerstone, inside the latter tablet, contains many mementos.

CISCOAN DIES FROM INJURIES RECEIVED IN ACCIDENT SUNDAY EVENING; FUNERAL HELD TODAY

Last rites for Joe Johnson, 37, who was fatally injured in an accident Sunday night at Yellow Mound, six miles from Eastland on the Morton Valley highway, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with Lehman Anderson and Mrs. Fronie Blackwell officiating.

Burial was at Oakwood cemetery with Neil Lane Funeral home in charge.

Mr. Johnson died on his 37th birthday, yesterday, at 3 p. m. in an Eastland hospital.

The accident occurred about 10 o'clock Sunday evening when the truck in which he was riding collided with a car which was turning over three times. Mr. Johnson was thrown 40 feet from the truck and badly hurt, while a brother, Terry Johnson, who was riding with him, was pinned underneath the truck. Terry received painful injuries and a possible hip fracture but is not believed to be in a serious condition.

Joe Johnson, born at Annetta, Parker county, Sept. 22, 1904, came to Cisco in 1923. A plasterer by trade, his occupation carried him to many places, though he lived in Cisco at various times and called this city his home. He had been away from Cisco for two years the last time, returning here about a month before his death.

Survivors are: His wife and two children, Richard Byron, 6, and Jo Anne, 3; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, Cisco; five brothers, R. L. Johnson, Allied, Parker county, and Terry, Frank, Edgar and James T. (Buddy) Johnson all of Cisco; two sisters, Mrs. Ollie Reynolds, Cisco, and Mrs. J. L. Cearley, Austin.

The German high command's announcement last week concerning German losses was "utterly ridiculous," he asserted, calling his own estimate a moderate one. He added that the Germans had lost 8,500 planes in the Russian campaign.

MUCH INTEREST IN COUNTY FAIR FARM EXHIBITS

Agricultural exhibits at the Eastland county fair, which begins Thursday, will be outstanding if interest being shown by farm families is any indication. Committees that have been contacting prospective exhibitors in the field report an increase in interest over 1940, when more than one hundred exhibitors showed the largest number of agricultural exhibits ever collected at the county fair.

The exhibit of general agricultural products will be under the supervision of Wayne D. Thurman, chairman; E. E. Powell, Eastland; J. W. Holcomb, Pioneer; R. R. Armstrong, Seranton; Mrs. John White, Staff and Mrs. T. L. Wheat, Morton Valley.

George L. Lane, who is chairman of the community agricultural exhibits, reports that booths will be set up by several communities. He is assisted by M. P. Vannoy, Eastland; Mrs. Josie K. Nix, Morton Valley and Mrs. T. E. Robertson, Flatwood.

J. C. Thurman, Shady Grove and Wyman Blair, Cisco, have charge of individual farm or ranch educational exhibits and reports more interest being shown than last year.

GOAL OF $1,000 IN WELFARE DRIVE SET BY CISCO BOARD AT MEETING HELD THIS MORNING

90-MILE WIND

HOUSTON, Sept. 23.—A 90-mile wind screamed inland across a 75-mile stretch of the middle Texas coast and raging seas battered the coast-line as the center of a hurricane drove down upon Matagorda Bay.

The threatened area, already evacuated by almost all residents, lies behind the peninsula taken over by the war department for a bombing range.

More than 150 families gathered in a Port Lavaca school house and more are enroute from Port O'Connor, where ten families remained in a school building that stands ten feet above sea level.

The 90-mile wind struck Freeport and the crushing waves smashed fishing and pleasure boats, but all but a few observers had evacuated. No lives were lost.

GERMANS LOSE THIRD OF ARMY SAY THE REDS

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Three million Germans—one-third of the Nazi army—have been killed, wounded or are missing after three months of war with Russia, Soviet Ambassador Ivan M. Maisky declared Tuesday in an address before the American chamber of commerce.

The German high command's announcement last week concerning German losses was "utterly ridiculous," he asserted, calling his own estimate a moderate one. He added that the Germans had lost 8,500 planes in the Russian campaign.

Mrs. H. B. Hensley, Mrs. J. J. Robertson and daughter, Miss Jeffie Jean Robertson and Mrs. Frank Coats attended the funeral of Grandma Russell, which was held in Baird today. Mrs. Russell resided in Cisco for several years, leaving here to make her residence in Baird about four years ago.

There is plenty of drive-in parking space. Mr. Wortham said, and everything possible will be done to please the most particular person.

BROKEN ARM

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tanner received news Monday evening that their little granddaughter, Earline Wright, fell and broke her arm while playing ball on the lawn of her parents' home in Mineral Wells.

MRS. STUBBLEFIELD BETTER

Mrs. H. S. Stubblefield, who has been quite ill at her home, 1907 South D avenue, is reported improved and is now able to be around her room.

NO NEED FOR MAD RUSH

A goal of $1,000 was set by the City Welfare association when they met this morning at the chamber of commerce to lay plans for the annual drive for funds.

Thursday of this week was fixed as the day for the intensive canvass of business houses, professional people and individuals with the expectation that a follow-up of several days will be necessary to complete the effort. It was agreed that the workers would meet again next Tuesday morning to report on the results of the campaign.

Considerable discussion was had regarding a reasonable amount to present as the askings for the next twelve months. Mrs. B. S. Huey, employed as executive secretary for the association, stated that approximately 150 families of Cisco will look to this organization for varying amounts of help during the coming year, totaling some 600 or 700 persons, and the board felt that $1,000 would be the very minimum of cash funds to be expected.

Neil Lane, chairman, stated that the people of Cisco would gladly respond to such a reasonable call for this far-reaching program of benevolent service.

Mrs. Huey spoke with high appreciation of the generous spirit of the citizens, saying that all that was necessary was for them to know the actual needs and conditions.

Besides the funds that are to be raised, there will be great quantities of old clothing, bedding, furniture and foods to be distributed through the office at 514 D avenue.

Those present for the meeting felt that the Welfare association represented a genuine community interest in doing a work of good neighborliness, according to Rev. Leslie Seymour, one of the ministers present. It is the one agency in Cisco which combines all of the many clubs, churches, associations and other organizations in one concerted program for community betterment.

The plan of campaign for raising the funds on Thursday for the various classes of business houses to be visited by certain designated teams, one team to see the grocerymen, one to see the filling stations, one to see the garages and repair shops and so with all the business concerns. A special committee is to see the individuals not included in these classifications. Cash is preferred, but monthly payments will be gladly accepted.

Present for this morning's meeting were Neil Lane, Mrs. Paul Poe, R. N. Cluck, P. R. Warwick, Edward Lee, Mrs. E. Green, Mrs. Yancey McCrea, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. Sam Kimmel, Mrs. R. H. Heiser, Mrs. Claude Blackwell, Con Collins, Rev. Leslie Seymour, Rev. J. H. Wright, Rev. J. L. Burleson, Dr. Gary Smith, Rev. L. H. Clegg, Mrs. W. D. Hazel, Mrs. N. A. Brown, Mrs. B. S. Huey, Mrs. W. W. Wallace and Mrs. Homer Hensley.

All of these agreed to serve on teams for the canvass and others who were not present will be assigned to teams.

Chamber Directors Will Meet Tonight

The regular Tuesday evening meeting of the board of directors of the Cisco chamber of commerce will be held at 8 p. m. this evening at the chamber of commerce offices.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers of Abilene visited Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Cole Sunday afternoon.

BRITAIN MUST HAVE LOTS OF FOOD TO WIN

QUINCY, Mass., Sept. 23.—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox advocates immediate repeal of the neutrality law and use of the army wherever needed.

Knox today said "the time for partisanship has gone by. We are at the water's edge of a grave situation. Let us free-hand our commander-in-chief—let us give him every opportunity to give aid to Britain."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard told the house deficiency appropriations committee today that America must send one billion dollars' worth of food to Britain within five months or Britain will lose the war.

TEX GAS CUT OFF

DENVER, Sept. 23.—The entire natural gas supply of Eastern Colorado and Southern Wyoming was cut off when a flood near Clayton washed out the main pipe line from the Texas gas fields.

It will be late Wednesday before repairs can be expected. Nearly 200,000 persons in cities in the two states are without emergency artificial gas and must eat cold food.

NEW MEXICO FLOODS

CARLSBAD, N. M., Sept. 23.—Clearing skies brought relief to eastern New Mexico, where 16 persons were killed by floods since Saturday. The flood crest of the Rio Hondo river hit Roswell, covering streets and lawns with mud. There was no loss of life at Roswell. Reclamation officials said the Pecos dam above Carlsbad would hold.

Burnin' Up Money. Providence Journal: How much money do you think you burn up every 1,000 miles traveling at forty-five miles an hour instead of twenty-five? Here are a few figures compiled by one of the best-known insurance companies in the world. You can rely on them. They are amazing figures.

There's oil. Oil takes an even more disheartening jump. Say you use one pint of oil each 1,000 miles at twenty-five miles an hour. At sixty-five miles an hour you use four and one-half quarts! Figure for yourself your oil extravagance between twenty-five and sixty-five.

Maintenance costs also jump. You wear out tires three times as fast at forty-five as you do at twenty-five; ten times as fast at sixty-five. Other maintenance costs jump proportionately. The insurance statisticians have figured that total costs for driving 1,000 miles at twenty-five are $14.40. They are $22 for the same mileage at forty-five and $28.65 at sixty-five.

Backward Reasoning? Chicago News: The way American Firsters put it, is this: The people are opposed to war. America First is opposed to war. Therefore America First represents 80 per cent of the people.

The truth is, as shown by the polls, that while 80 per cent of the people are opposed to going to war unless it is necessary, nearly 80 per cent are supporting the administration's policy, obviously on the ground that the administration will not let us get into war unnecessarily.

The Union's Side.

Locomotive Engineer's Journal: Each time railroad workers make an effort to increase their earning power in order to keep pace with the advancing costs of living and the threat of the wages in other industries, certain publications burst into print with scathing denunciations of their action.

Prejudiced "news" releases, detrimental to railroad labor's wage demands, are showered on newspapers and other periodicals by powerful interests in the hope of swaying public opinion against labor.

Careful to conceal the full facts, (they) use wage figures of the higher-paid worker in railroading, neglecting to mention, of course, the justification of his wage and omitting entirely to mention the small earnings of railroad workers.

THE FAMILY OF "THEY"

Have you heard of the terrible family of They? And the dreadful, venomous things they say? Why, half the gossip under the sun, if you trace it back you will find begun in that horrible house of They.

A numerous family, so I am told, And its genealogical tree is old. For ever since Adam and Eve began To build this curious race of man, Has existed this house of They.

Gossip-mongers and spreaders of lies, Horrid people, whom all despise! And yet, the best of us, now and then Repeat queer tales about women and men, And quote the house of They.

They live like lords and never labor, A They's one task is to watch his neighbor; And tell his business and private affairs, To the world at large they are sowers of tares, These folks in the house of They.

'Tis wholly useless to follow a They With a whip or a gun, for he slips away; And into his house where you cannot go; 'Tis locked and bolted and guarded so— These folks in the house of They.

Tho' you cannot get in Yet they always get out, And spread their venomous tales about! Of all the rascals under the sun, That have come to justice, never one Belonged to the house of They.

CONSTITUTION DAY IN TEXAS IS NOT WHAT IT USED TO BE

By HARRY BERGE CROZIER AUSTIN, Sept. 23.—If the things be true that we would like to be true; if those of our great and cherished souls who have gone sit in contemplation and a soft smile of judgment upon our antics (of which they were a part in our yesterday's), there must have been some sadness on Olympus when this nation and Texas celebrated Constitution Day. They were, however, we must remember, men who loved the jocular and the merry things of life, and so there must have been some merriment there on Mount Olympus when they tuned into the things that were doing in Texas and related to the gods some of the substance of their memories and how these memorized incidents integrated into the day that was Wednesday—Constitution Day in Texas.

and they brought it forth, not as a rabbit from the hat but after a good measure of heralding trumpets in the press of Texas. The devotion of the Dallas Bar association to Constitution Day, under the chairmanship wizardry of O. F. Brundage, was demonstrated in an address by Wilbert Lee O'Daniel, U. S. senator, Constitutionalist, flour salesman and troubadour. There was a considerable to-do about God, a little about the Constitution and a fine frenzy about the inequities of Franklin D. Roosevelt's government in the O'Daniel speech. Of course, no names were called. But the Dallas Bar association had done itself proud. There can be no doubt about that and the saints of Texas who are up there will agree with me.

While the population of the United States itself increased seven per cent between 1930 and 1940, that of Hawaii jumped nearly 15 per cent. Between 1900 and the present Hawaii's population has increased approximately 30 times, according to the Census.

an important effect on the government's resolve to spend a vast sum, at least vast for a country of 13,000,000 inhabitants, on arms. Developments in Chile, with the arrests of more than a score of Germans as alleged subversive plotters have focused public attention on the potentiality of totalitarian dangers.

U. S. Policy Scrutinized.
The policy of the United States is being closely watched in Latin America. Both the press and government circles appear to react in approval of whatever firm steps are announced by the United States, and an atmosphere of hesitation has shown itself in many of the southern capitals at times when there seemed to be indication in Washington.

Thus far there apparently has been no progress in any arrangement for naval bases in Latin American territory for United States use to strengthen hemisphere defense. However, the expansion of flying fields in several South American regions by the Pan-American airways, including new hangar space, more runway area, modernized fuel storage facilities, etc., together with the construction of additional fields, would lead to the belief that they may be made available for military purposes in case a contingency should arise demanding their employment as essential points for the defense of the continent.

Aluminum pistons, for replacement purposes in automobile motors, are six times as popular as cast iron ones according to Census figures. Over 6,900,000 aluminum pistons are sold annually, latest figures show, compared to 1,503,800 cast iron pistons.

HENSLEY FIELD WORKS 4,144; MOSTLY TEXANS

DALLAS, Sept. 23.—Employment at North American Aviation's Hensley Field plant has passed the 4,000 mark, company officials announced. The exact total of employees stood at 4,144 Monday night.

The 4,144 employees represent an increase of 2,894 since the big plant was dedicated April 7, 1941. The factory will ultimately employ 12,000 workers. More than 95 per cent of the employees in the plant are Texans, officials said. Only key supervisory personnel was transferred to Dallas from North American Aviation's parent factory in Inglewood, Calif.

North American Aviation's Dallas plant, which is manufacturing advanced training planes in quantities for both the Army and Navy air services, is America's first windowless, air-conditioned airplane factory.

The construction contract for the $9,000,000 Dallas plant was awarded Nov. 13, 1940, and the first steel was erected Dec 2, 1940. The first manufacturing operations began March 8, 1941, and on April 7, 1941, North American delivered to the United States Army Air Corps the first three Texas-built AT-6A advanced trainers. Since that date, the factory has been consistently stepping up both its employment rate and its manufacturing schedules.

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You No. 30 of a Series

A BAD ONE DOES TURN UP ONCE IN A WHILE!

Good weather and a bumper crop! Even then one finds a poor stalk once in a while. The retailing of beer is something like that. Most beer retailers operate respectable law-abiding establishments. Occasionally one finds an exception—a man who tries to beat the law or who permits anti-social conditions. The beer industry wants this type of undesirable retailer stamped out. Your cooperation will help us in our clean-up efforts. The beer industry brings important benefits to the community. Here in Texas, beer provides employment for 31,165 persons, supports an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and contributed $2,273,968.64 last year in state taxes. Texas, too, has an important stake in the beer industry's purchases—for materials, equipment, and services—from over 100 other industries. You can help us protect these benefits in two ways. First—patronize only the reputable places where beer is sold. Second—report to the proper authorities any law violation you may observe.
