JAPS LACK THE FINAL PUNCH

SWARM IN LIKE BEES; MOWED DOWN

United Nations waged a stubborn battle today against Japan's intensified attack on Singapore city, renewed onslaught in Burma and a big-scale parachute attack designed to open an all-out offensive against main Dutch East Indies defense bases.

The Jap offensive appeared to be attempting to muster the yellow enemy's last ounce of power in a gigantic gamble to break through the Allied lines in the Southwest Pacific before reinforcements -- already arriving in some force -- could bring their drive to a halt.

BATAVIA -- Japanese parachutists landed from more than 100 transport planes and troops, apparently numbering several thousand, were dropped on Sumatra Island, near the oil centers of Palembang and Pladju, where they were successfully attacked and suffered many casualties in a battle with grim Dutch defense forces, who appeared to be successful in the first phase of the fighting.

SINGAPORE -- British Imperials still were fighting a last-man battle in defense of the town, throwing back furious Japanese air, tank and artillery attacks. The Tokyo radio reported again that the Japs had entered Singapore and were pushing toward the harbor in heavy hand-to-hand fighting, while artillery shelled the town, but the Singapore radio still broadcast defiance.

TRUCKERS' PAY BOOSTED.
CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—More than 70,000 workmen employed by truck operators will receive pay increases under an order fixing 40 cents an hour as their minimum wage, it was announced Saturday by Thomas O'Malley of the Federal Wage and Hour Division. Workmen whose wages will be materially increased are located chiefly in the Southern States, O'Malley said. Loaders and clerical workers at trucking terminals are included in the order's scope.

U. S. BOMBERS NOW COVERING WIDE AREAS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Twelve U. S. army flying fortresses attacked enemy shipping in the Macassar area, hitting "one lone ship," the war department said late Saturday.

The bombers also started a large fire on the land in that area. Communique said results of the attack "were not completely ascertained." All American planes returned safely.

An army spokesman said the attack was near the port of Macassar on the southern tip of Celebes island in the Netherlands East Indies. This is south of the area where United Nations planes attacked a large Japanese convoy last month.

Communicate also announced the award of a distinguished service cross to Sgt. Leroy C. Anderson, selectee from Milwaukee, "for extraordinary heroism in action" on Bataan Peninsula.

The army spokesman said Anderson was the first selectee to be thus honored in this war.

'KILL RATS' IS URGED BY CITY HEADS

In many places over the country rats have become a menace to health by carrying disease germs as they find their way into foods and closets. Extreme measures are being taken to rid premises from all rodents.

Cisco is not free from those pests by any means. In fact, our rodent population is growing rapidly.

Mayor G. P. Mitcham has called attention more than once to the importance of ridding all business houses and residences from rats and mice.

They bore and gnaw their way into places where they come in contact with filth, thus spreading germs wherever they go.

The only remedy is to exterminate them—clean them from your homes and business places—otherwise we may expect disease germs to become a menace to health.

Mayor Mitcham and members of the city commission urge extreme measures in doing everything possible to safeguard the health of adults as well as children of Cisco.

RUBBER PROBE BE AIMED AT JESSE JONES

AKRON, Feb. 14.—The Truman committee next Tuesday "will launch an investigation that will tear the lid off the rubber situation in this country," Senator Brewster of Maine, a member of the committee, declared Saturday.

Brewster told interviewers: "I know that Donald Nelson and his associates in the War Production Board are far from satisfied with the way Jesse Jones has handled the synthetic situation."

The United States' synthetic production last year was about 10,000 tons. Secretary of Commerce Jones, as head of the Federal Loan Agency, recently announced plans for construction of new plants which would provide about 400,000 tons annually by mid-1943—in addition to output previously planned.

The Maine Republican quoted Price Administrator Leon Henderson as saying: "The whole synthetic program is only a gleam in Jesse Jones' eye."

SOLDIER AND PAL FACING LONG TERMS

ABILENE, Feb. 14.—Cecil K. Williams, Fort Bliss cavalryman, and Carl Lowery of Tuscola have been charged with aiding in the attempted escape of a prisoner, Rex Beard, Jr., "paper sack" gunman who killed a deputy sheriff and who was wounded critically at the county jail Thursday night.

Williams was home on leave. He and Lowery, both 20, were arraigned before Justice of the Peace W. J. Cunningham who set bond at $5,000 each.

County Attorney Theo Ash also filed a charge of murder with malice against Beard.

FREE SPEECH

It is just as well that the president has cracked down on the oratorical range of his cabinet members. It is natural for such officials to crave an audience occasionally, but their positions are high-powered and these are ticklish times, and a careless or inexperienced cabinet officer, with the best intentions, can make a lot of trouble for his boss or his country.

Meanwhile let no man say that speech is no longer free in America. We retain the most vital freedom of all. The great American public is still free to speak in its million-toned voice.

The great American press is still free. The right of assembly and our other constitutional freedoms still stand. Anything that really needs to be said can be spoken or written by any citizen of intelligence and good will. There will be no bottling up of this war. The proof whereof may be seen in the simple fact that things like this can be said in print and accepted by everybody as a matter of course.

WHY FOOL THE PEOPLE

All realize that higher taxes are an unavoidable necessity. But no existing tax should be increased, and no new tax should be imposed, without the most careful analysis of its justice, and its effect upon the producers and workers of the country.

At this time, there is considerable agitation for heavy increases in Social Security taxes as a means of helping finance defense. In the opinion of many an economist and public official, that would be extremely dangerous. As Senator Vandenberg said, "The proposal to raise Social Security pay-roll taxes for the benefit of the general treasury is unsound, unwise and a potential breach of trust. It would be an unethical departure from sound practice. When we leave sound fiscal ground in this emergency, we are off into the 'man's land' of disaster."

The wise course would be the imposition of straight war and defense taxes which involve no subterfuge and no deception. The Social Security taxes were never designed to produce revenue for all purposes. They are, instead, special taxes, levied against employer and employee, to give a measure of unemployment aid and old-age security to workers. In other words, they are a form of insurance.

The American people are fully aware of the need for higher taxes. But they don't want camouflaged levies. Congress duty now is two-fold—first, the maximum possible reduction in non-defense spending in all fields, no matter whose toes are stepped on; second, a war tax bill which will raise directly and without deception the additional revenue the treasury must have. A sound fiscal policy is as much a part of war as great armies and navies.

OLD PLAY, NEW DAY

The film play, "Gone With the Wind," a movie man writes, "Comes back to a changed and changing world." Many a reader stops right here and starts thinking.

What will this big new war that we are drawn into so inexorably do to us? Already it is dragging us out of our imaginary isolation and pushing us into the midst of human troubles and leading us inexorably about the world, on paths that take us far and may have no turning.

What will the world be like, and what shall we be like, when it is over? The snug security we Americans have known is already gone with the wind. We fare forth seeking a new security, for us and all men of good will everywhere. This is the dream in which Woodrow Wilson believed, for which he fought, and in which he failed. Can Franklin Roosevelt and those who trust him, the men and parties and nations that now follow him, the allies who merge their banners with the Stars and Stripes as they march with our young men to cleanse and unite the world—can they win in this supreme Crusade?

THE SWORD

Sooner or later the war will be carried to Germany. It is thought now that a combined British and American expedition may be attempted next summer. If not, it may come later. No doubt volunteer forces from the small nations that Hitler has crushed in western Europe would be invited to join.

Such procedure is necessary not only as a matter of military strategy but also for psychological reasons. Neither in the last war nor in this war has the fighting been carried to Germany. Behind their armies and tanks and planes the German people have been snug and safe. Naturally they have acquiesced in the conquests of their armed forces and the wicked slaughter and pillage and destruction attending those deadly forays.

The war-makers cannot be supposed until those who support them are themselves made to share the penalties of such wickedness.

The last time we Americans saved Germany from invasion as a noble gesture. We and our allies and the whole world are now paying heavily for that sentimental procedure. There will be no peace on earth until it is made clear, as was said of old, that whose taketh up the sword shall perish with the sword. When that lesson has been learned, we shall have peace with a chance for good will to blossom.

LONG BRANCH

Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Mitchell entertained for dinner Sunday, Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Reed and Miss Iva Nell Pugh from Mountain Top, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Simms, Carbon and Miss Telia Dover of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Miss Dover plans to spend a week in the Simms home before taking up her work in the Southern Bible and Vocational College for the remainder of the term.

Mr. and Mrs. Glendale Gregg are the parents of a new girl, Patricia Anne. Mrs. Gregg and the baby, who are in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson are both doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. John Foley and son, Fred, were in Rising Star Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Thetford and children, Charlotte and Debra, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Reeves in Cisco, Saturday.

Jerry Hastings is improving after an attack of mumps and measles which he had concurrently.

Tom Owens made a business trip to Eastland Saturday.

The school bus, with Kirby Thetford as driver, is running half an hour earlier now, in compliance with the new time set for the opening of school in the mornings at Cisco. Thetford stated in an announcement at Sunday school that the time will probably be moved up another half in the near future.

Henry Reed made a report Sunday from a meeting of a farmers unit of the home defense board, which met in Eastland, Saturday.

COKE STEVENSON, GOVERNOR FOR LESS THAN A YEAR, MAY NOT BE OPPOSED IN PRIMARY

AUSTIN, Feb. 14. — Coke R. Stevenson will have been governor for less than a year when he submits his administration to the approval of Texas voters in the first Democratic primary election.

Stevenson became governor on Aug. 9, 1941. The primary election will be on July 25. A majority vote is required to nominate and, if there is a run-off, the second primary election will take place Aug. 22, which is less than two weeks after Stevenson completes a year in the office.

Both polls and popular expressions show that Stevenson has gained supporters since he was advanced from lieutenant governor to the governorship by W. Lee O'Daniel's promotion to the U. S. senate.

Whether he will have an opponent in the Democratic party is doubtful. In Texas, the Democratic nomination is counted as the real selection of the next governor.

Finances seem to be the only major difficulty that can face his administration between now and the election. War has created a situation far different from that anticipated when taxes were being levied and appropriations made by the last legislature.

Gasoline taxes probably will fall faster than any other anticipated revenue, though the effect of tire and automobile rationing has not yet been felt seriously.

With automobile rationing will go also a large part of the new revenue that had been expected from an automobile sales tax.

Except for a small appropriation to equip home defense guard units, no special arrangement was made to finance war emergencies.

The war may prevent expenditure of some funds that the legislature appropriated—but these savings revert to the treasury and cannot be expended for other purposes until another legislature meets and makes appropriations.

Difficulty in getting priority on some materials is making some of the expected expenditures improbable.

The state board of control has pending with the priorities officials an application for the materials that are needed to carry out the state eleemosynary building program.

The importance of expanding the state facilities for care of insane and other wards has been stressed in the application for right to purchase materials.

Texas schools are not curtailing their expenditures because of war and the national urge to put the country's resources back of war machinery.

The East Texas Chamber of Commerce, which has carried on a study of public budgets for a number of years, reports that of approximately 100 East Texas school budgets recently examined every one called for larger expenditures this fiscal year than last.

"Moreover," the report continued, "the examination showed that the public school expenditures for the same independent (school) districts in most cases were higher last fiscal year than for the year 1939-40 on a per pupil basis in average daily attendance. New school budgets will be made in July."

The reference to the pupil load on a daily attendance basis calls attention to the state school apportionment law. Under that law, school districts receive aid from the state on the basis of the number of residents in a school district who are of scholastic age.

A census is taken each year by school authorities. The school's right to state funds is determined by the number of persons of scholastic age living in the district. The district gets the full amount regardless of whether the eligible pupils attend school.

The eligibles for any year are children who become six years of age before Sept. 1 of that year and those who do not pass beyond 17 years until after Sept. 1. These in Texas number approximately 1,500,000. At present the state allows a school $22.50 for each scholastic. When the last payment was made this month, there were 1,537,684 scholastics.

Frequently movements have been started to distribute the state school on the basis of pupil attendance but the effort has generally met school opposition. Besides providing more directly for a school on its operating needs, the new plan would save a huge expense of the annual taking of a scholastic census, frequently followed by charges of padding. Opponents say that padding attendance records would be as easy to accomplish without detection.

THE PEOPLE UNITED SAY

On September 17, 1797—a law was adopted. It says... "We, the people, do hereby establish this Constitution, to accomplish certain things, and to secure to ourselves and to our posterity, the most important welfare of the people." Constitution a great, vital and humane... "We." There is the story of our life. It means that we, the people, are not just a small part to suit ourselves. That one word, "We," is the key to the Constitution great. And now in the words of that word, the Constitution people gets things done: "we" do it. We, the people, promote the general welfare and secure to ourselves and to our posterity.

And in forming a more perfect union and promoting the general welfare of our community, it behooves Ciscoans and those living in Cisco trade territory to cling together, aiding one another, selling to each other—buying from each other—in short, trading with each other to the end that our best interests will be served.

The Cisco Daily Press is ready to do its part—It IS doing its part in community building and national defense by sparing no pains or labor to give its readers the best that its patronage will allow. It is putting back into the paper every penny above actual expenses so that its readers and businessmen whom it serves may feel and know, they are getting the most from their dollars spent here.

TO OUR PATRONS OF CISCO, TEXAS:
Due to the Rationing of Automobiles by Our Federal Government they have reduced us from Dealers of New Automobiles, to just Garage operators. To do the new job right, we are getting some new equipment for our place which will make it one of the best equipped shops and body works in this part of the country.

We are filling our bins with parts, so that we will be able to serve your car needs without delay.
Not being able to sell cars we can now give your repair needs a personal touch that in the past we were unable to do, and we are going to do our dead-level best to please you in every way. We have the shop, the equipment and the men to do the job, and feel that we are in a better position to serve Ford owners than anyone else.

We wish to take this method of thanking our friends and customers for the business they have given us in the past, and for the part they have had in making the Nance Motor Co. a success—and we want to solicit your continued business.
We are having to adjust our business to fit the new program—changes have to be made in our way of doing business, but we are going to try to give you the same courteous treatment that we always have—we will still be able to extend to you credit as before, only that it must be paid within the thirty days period, this is necessary so that we may be able to keep stocks replaced, and ready for your needs.

We again wish to thank you for your past business and to assure you that we will serve you better in the future than in the past.

Meals high in nutritional value vital to success of WAR EFFORT

Ham Slices with Parsley Chicken Sauce are savory and satisfying.

In these times, it is only too startlingly apparent that we must have the actual physical strength of muscle, nerves and mind to outthink, outproduce and outfight those who would destroy us.

That puts the job squarely up to us women. For it's eating the proper food that builds health and strength. The planning and preparation of meals, therefore, is the most important job in the country today. Upon that, all else depends.

We need not grow grim over our responsibility, though. It's fun to apply the new information on nutrition to our meal planning. What's more, we soon discover that the better balanced our meals, the more the family enjoys them. For instance, here is a dinner high in nutritional value... and high, too, in sheer enjoyment.

Tomato Juice
*Ham Slices with Chicken and Rice, Parsley Chicken Sauce, Buttered Spinach, Tossed Rice Vegetable Salad, Pumpkin Chiffon Pie, Coffee

Tomato juice is rich in Vitamin C. It contains Vitamins A and B, also. That's the reason the government says "eat tomatoes". Pure tomato juice, canned from lush ripe tomatoes is one way of eating tomatoes. It is a stimulating start to a meal, too.

Ham is a muscle building food, high in Vitamin B. Spinach gives us iron and Vitamins A, B, and C. Your salad provides more vitamins and minerals. And the eggs and milk in the pumpkin pie are protective foods.

That's what you know about this meal. Dad and the boys, though, are going to think of nothing but

The amount calls for 40,000,000 cases of canned tomatoes and 38,000,000 cases of canned peas.

B. F. Vance, chairman of the Texas USDA war board, announced that minimum prices for produce delivered to certified canners
