Jap Capture of Rich Java Now Seems Inevitable

ENEMY CLOSED PINNERS NEAR BATAVIA AND PUSHED THROUGH MOUNTAINS TOWARD BANDOENG

Japan's invasion armies smashed deeply into the stubborn Allied defense lines in Java and Burma today.

Dispatches from Allied headquarters told only of enemy advances that had closed its pincers near the suburbs of Batavia, pushed through the mountains to within less than 30 miles of the Bandoeng military headquarters and severed communications to the Soerabaja naval base.

Enemy is obviously making progress toward the isolation of Batavia, Bandoeng and Soerabaja, while slashing through the middle of Java to the south coast to forestall possible Allied reinforcements.

The Japs have already covered about 55 miles or one-half way to south coast toward Patjitan.

Other Fronts.

BURMA -- Jap forces that crossed the Sittoung river barrier are fighting around Waw and Pegu, but meeting strong British resistance.

AUSTRALIA -- Japs have raided Port Moresby on New Guinea Island, northeast of Australia.

TOKYO -- Jap propaganda broadcast acknowledged that the American air raid on Minamitori Shima Island, about 1,200 miles from Tokyo, had inflicted damage and casualties. Claims seven planes downed.

RUSSIA -- Red army presses the siege of Orrel, pounds at Nazis trapped in Staraya, Russia, where 60,000 Germans now remain out of the original 100,000, and break the Leningrad lines at two points, as well as stepping up the attacks on the Central front in the Smolensk area.

MARCH CHECKS FOR PENSIONS HOW GAINS

AUSTIN, March 5.—Old age, blind and dependent children's assistance rolls continued their upward climb with issuance of the March warrants, the State Department of Public Welfare announced Wednesday. A net gain of 183 old-age assistance recipients increased the rolls from 166,079 the previous month to 166,262. Grants, ranging from $5 to $30, averaged $19.39 in March with $3,208.3 being distributed to the needy. The March net gain of 2,183 compares with the February net gain of 2,169.

The blind assistance rolls went from 2,457 to 2,675, making a net increase of 218 recipients, costing the state $4,807 more in March than in February.

CHARGE COPPER WASTE

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Top officials of the War Production Board were accused by a House committee Thursday of "reckless disregard" for conservation of war-needed copper in allowing construction of Rural Electrification Administration transmission lines in Texas and Arkansas.

Chairman Donald M. Nelson was not spared in the report, which the House Military Committee submitted to Congress. It charged WPB Power Chief J. A. Krug had indicated to committee Krug was "not amenable to Congress."

ROTARIAN GREEN HAD CHARGE OF ROTARY; STUDENTS OF THE COLLEGE GAVE ENTERTAINMENT

Members of the Cisco Junior college student body and faculty gave a varied program of music and interesting talks at the regular luncheon of the Rotary club today.

A. C. Green, program manager, introduced H. R. Garrett, registrar, who presented students of the college to Rotarians and guests.

Marian Jacobs, accompanied by Betty Slicker, sang "The White Cliffs of Dover" and "Keep 'Em Flying." Helen June Terry gave "Decorative Day" as a thoroughly appropriate reading. Troy Caraway, Edward King, Wilburn Ghormley and Jack Chambliss composed the male quartet which sang two selected numbers.

R. N. Cluck, president of Cisco Junior college and a member of Rotary, was called upon by Mr. Garrett for a report on facts recently compiled on the present status of the school and its enrollment and curriculum expansion.

Total enrollment for all classes of the year has reached 232, Cluck reported. Attendance for the year, including special, full time and night classes is 190, according to latest records.

Since September a year ago, 27 students have entered various branches of the military service

TEXAS SUFFERS MOST

Texas will be called upon to share the largest portion of the 204,100-barrel reduction in production of the Region 3 States asked late Wednesday by Petroleum Co-ordinator Ickes. In telegrams sent to the regulatory agencies in the five States, comprising the region, namely Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and New Mexico, Ickes ordered the production cut by the 204,100 barrels for March.

Not taking into consideration actual production, the reduction requested for Texas under the recommended figures from the OPC amounts to 172,000 barrels daily. The original forecast for Texas had been 1,510,600 barrels while under the new order only 1,338,600 barrels will be permitted daily.

Largest downward changes among the remaining States in this district were in Louisiana, cut 15,300 barrels, and New Mexico, 14,300 barrels. Arkansas production was left unchanged, while Mississippi's flow will be reduced only 2,500 barrels.

The cut in Texas is even greater when the actual production is taken into consideration, as the daily flow as of last Saturday was 1,515,540 barrels as compared to the new production recommendation of 1,338,600 barrels. This is a reduction of 176,950 barrels.

LEON HENDERSON SAYS WE MAY BE COMPELLED TO TAKE TIRES FROM MANY PRIVATE CITIZENS

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Price Administrator Leon Henderson said today that the nation faces the immediate future without a "single pound of rubber" for 39 million passenger cars and may be forced to take tires from some private users and give them to a "preferred class of civilians."

"There is no use fooling ourselves," Henderson told a senate committee investigating war effort.

"We face the possibility of requisitioning all of our rubber stocks."

While Henderson was testifying, Oil Co-ordinator Harold Ickes told a press conference that decision would be made this week-end on whether a nation-wide rationing of gasoline would be instituted.

FORMER CISCO MAN DIES IN NEW ORLEANS

News of the death of her son, Delmar Powell, has been received here by Mrs. T. J. Powell, 804 W. Fourth street.

Death followed a short illness and occurred at the Baptist hospital in New Orleans, where Powell had been taken for treatment.

Delmar Powell, about 33, was a son of T. J. Powell, Cisco carpenter, who lost his life when he fell from a trestle at Lake Cisco during the construction of Williamson dam.

When taken ill, Powell was employed as surveyor on a federal project at Burrwood, La., near the mouth of the Mississippi river. At one time he was in the employ of Cranfill & Reynolds, Cisco, as a surveyor.

Survivors include the mother, two sisters and four brothers. One sister, Miss Velma Powell, and two brothers, Jack and Dee Powell, reside in Cisco. The other sister, Mrs. N. A. Redwine, lives in Odessa. T. J. Powell lives in Ranger and Buel Powell resides in Galveston.

At noon today no arrangements had been made for the funeral, but the body will be brought here for interment and will be in charge of the Lane funeral parlor.

BLAST KILLS 16 AT SHELL-LOADING PLANT

BURLINGTON, Iowa, March 5.—An earth-rocking blast that jarred the countryside for 20 miles around killed at least 16 workmen and injured 42 others shortly before midnight Wednesday night at the Iowa ordnance plant.

The explosion, which demolished a TNT melt unit in the shell-loading plant, was the second in less than three months for the sprawling 20,000-acre munitions factory. A similar blast Dec. 12 claimed the lives of 13 workmen.

Maj. J. H. Edgerly, chief of production control, said the disaster was due to an explosion of ammonal, a mixture of ammonium nitrate and TNT.

The blast blew apart the three-story brick, steel and concrete building on production line 3 of the plant.

One workman said he was but a few hundred feet away when he heard the blast, turned and saw debris, fire and smoke shoot high in the air.

"It looked like pictures I have seen of volcano eruptions," he commented.

Witnesses said the explosion was accompanied by a sheet of flame 300 feet high and a terrific roar. The concussion was felt at Fort Madison, Iowa, 20 miles away.

WOMAN GIVEN 25 YEARS IN PEN, MURDER

HOUSTON, March 5. — Helen O'Keefe, 30, secretary, was found guilty of murdering her employer and a district court jury set her penalty at 25 years in the penitentiary.

She was charged with shooting J. C. Franklin, 57, a loan company manager, for whom she had worked 11 years, and the incineration of his body in his auto.

OUR RUSSIAN ALLIANCE

If Friend Stalin has seemed a little cool toward the allied democracies in his recent statements, it is probably natural. For the Allies, even while welcoming Russian victories over Germany and sending some much-needed supplies, have been rather cool toward Russia. This too is natural, because old fears of the Reds die hard.

But this attitude, as some leaders in the free countries realize, is dangerous, and in bad taste, too. Even from purely selfish motives it is essential not only to cooperate with Russia militarily in her big effort, but to treat her decently. For Russia is the only power that has yet stopped the enemy on any important front, the only nation that has shown Hitler can be beaten. Even if it were but a matter of "getting on the band wagon" militarily, the hard-pressed democracies must not only join a successful ally but treat that ally honorably and courteously.

Such procedure is easier than Britain and the United States expected when we took the inevitable step of welcoming Russia as an ally, after Hitler attacked that country and Russia showed that she could and would fight. She has given ample proof of her strength and courage. The Russian government has also made it easier for us by abandoning Red propaganda and making her war merely a patriotic fight for survival. Thus we can meet and fight on common ground. And thus Americans now opposing or grudging cooperative war effort with Russia against the destroyers are making a terrible mistake. Russia alone can't win this war for us, nor could we afford to let her.

HEALTH GAINS

If you are a boy baby, you may expect to live to be sixty; if a girl, sixty-two. This is the latest word from life insurance companies, whose business it is to know. They expect improvements in public health to extend the period by several years.

These improvements will not extend the life-span of man. Nobody is going to live to be 200, or even 120. In the best circumstances, people will die about a certain time, say 90. But public health work is increasing the number of people who will live to be 90.

It is also increasing the average height and weight. Anyone who has ever, in museums, looked at old-time suits of armor, knows they are so small that he himself could hardly get into them. Yet the knights who wore them were probably the largest and healthiest people of their time. If it were not for wars, which kill off the best of each race, we might yet produce giants.

HECTIC FUN

Chancellor Ray Lyman Wilbur of Stanford University deplores present night club habits, and very properly. The nocturnal conduct of large numbers of Americans right now, as reported particularly in the big cities, is shocking. Washington, D. C., vies with New York, Chicago and Hollywood in this respect, and may be even worse.

There is something more to this than mere fun. It isn't a real gaiety, a natural overflowing of spirit. It is hectic and unnatural. It seems like the recklessness that comes from despair, a spirit of "eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we die." This mood is not courage but surrender.

It is time to snap out of it. Real surrender, of course, is unimaginable. The very people now dulling their nerves and spirits with alcoholic revelry will snap out of it and sober up and take their posts of usefulness on danger sooner or later. But as our experts are warning, the time is short and the need of unity and efficiency is great. The work that has to be done calls for a calm spirit, keen senses and steady nerves. It is not the roisterers who will win this war for us.

MOE TO TOKYO

The learned Moe Berg, most scholarly of ball stars and most catching of catchers, probably won't get the ball where he wants it when he gives a Tokyo signal. Urging the common people of Japan to grab the ball from the war lords, he tells them: "You cannot win this war. We and the 20 other republics of America are united. Your leaders have betrayed you. They have misinterpreted democratic freedom and debate for weakness."

As Cal Tinney would add, "It's the truth." But truth hasn't any more to do with the Jap end of the war than have righteousness, humanity and square dealing. It's a crooked and cruel game played by crooked and cruel men, who make the rules for themselves.

But the little supermen strutting and killing can't set away with it forever. Such all-out wickedness shocks humanity and rallies the forces of righteousness, and "God who sitteth in his heaven shall laugh."

Eire Naval Bases

Scottish Rite News Bureau: A recent Gallup Poll shows that most Irish-Americans are not only keenly aware of the unrealistic position of Eire in the present war, but believe that it should be abandoned immediately for out-right participation with the United Nations. Fifty-six per cent of those polled favored such a course, with only 32 per cent opposed.

Significant, however, was the fact that 72 per cent of the Irish-Americans favored turning over important Eire naval bases for use against Axis submarines, while only 21 per cent were against this policy. This is in strong contrast to a former poll when Irish-Americans opposed to the use of Eire naval bases against the Axis had a substantial majority—52 per cent to 40 per cent among those holding definite opinions.

At that, it is evident that many Irish-Americans are still holding back because of their ancient hatred of everything British. Through the nation as a whole, 90 per cent of the people believe Eire should allow the United Nations to use these vital naval bases, and 71 per cent believe the Irish Free State should enter the war against the Axis as a full belligerent.

The paradox of De Valera's position has been apparent since the early days of the war, long before the United States entered the conflict. For De Valera admits that a British victory is necessary to preserve Eire's independence, yet refuses to lift a hand to assist in that victory. Dependent upon British control of shipping lanes for food, Eire has done nothing to aid.

A glance at the map is all that is needed to convince the most skeptical of the importance of Eire's bases. Without them, Nazi submarines have a direct outlet from French bases to the North Atlantic shipping lanes. With them, Britain and the United States could strike with ships and planes against these undersea marauders before they had scattered from these bases and were lost in the vast expanses of the Atlantic.

ORCHIDS.

My love and I rode through the land With flowering orchids on each hand, As blithely in a bygone year Rode Lancelot and Guinevere.

The white pavilion of the pear Was like a tent of samite there, While to the vision's farthest reach Flushed the pink ardor of the peach.

And who shall say that scene more fair Lay spread to the enamored air When those glad lovers forgot Rode on their way to Camelot?

DOWN WITH THE BUREAUCRATS

Babson Says We Need Religion Rather Than Regulations.

(Copyright—1942)

RICHMOND, Va., March 5.—

Every businessman knows the thousands of rules and regulations which are being enacted at Washington. Donald Nelson is begging manufacturers to produce more; but they have to spend so much time warming their pants in Washington offices in order to see some 2x4 official that they have not the time needed to run their plants. Even when home they are forced to spend half their day talking with lawyers or reading new U. S. restrictions received in the morning's mail.

Handicaps War Production.

Perhaps all these orders are needed. It may be necessary to crush Nazi Nazism in order to crush Hitler. However, most orders are confusing and many of them seem unnecessary. If Nelson will close up half the offices and send 25 per cent of the clerks back home to do needed work we'll win the war sooner. Yet, I just hear that $40,000,000 more is to be spent for office furniture to warm more pants.

One thing is certain. These rules and regulations cannot continually be increased and multiplied. Some time there will be a breaking point. A dam cannot hold back a river indefinitely. Finally, either the water overflows or else the dam breaks. Some day there will be an awful reaction to this bureaucracy. Either the Democratic party will be thrown out bodily or else . . . It seems to many that the New Dealers are at last busy digging their own graves.

Deceiving and Misleading.

I am not a naval or army man; but after talking with them I always feel very blue. Why? Because they urge "deceiving and misleading," insisting that success in war demands the casting aside of all moral principles. They substitute not only brutality but also blasphemy, deceit, intrigue, abuse, dope and fraud of all kinds. It may be true that "all is fair in war and love," but victories and marriages won by this slogan surely lead to trouble in the end.

The above is not complaint or criticism of our brave men. We all owe everything to them. But what will such a training of the youths of all nations finally do to the world? We know that the great need is for integrity, self-control and those other qualities which make for real manhood. Certainly, if our enemies cannot be trusted we should be able to trust our own people and not treat them as brainless and soulless robots.

After the War

Military men try to cheer me up by saying that after the war this procedure will be stopped and we can again live as human beings; but can we? I recently attended a conference on providing employment after the war. We were told (1) that 25,000,000 price fixing, censorship, wage and hour regulations and the thousand other experiments are necessary, well and good. Let us be honest with people, however, and acknowledge that they will not succeed in the end. They are a form of dope or anesthetic which will work for a short time only. Washington economists are today doing what doctors did in George Washington's days. History says those doctors bled our first president when he really needed a blood infusion. The parents of our boys need a government they feel is friendly to them.

Monday and returned Tuesday afternoon.

America Needs Religion.

My real appeal is that we all (and this includes Washington) start immediately to get people back to the fundamentals of life. We should tell people that jim-craw restrictions and regulations cannot long work.

Last week I urged that we the people trust the president. Now I beg the president to trust the people. If our people can be trusted to do right we will win the war; but if they cannot be trusted we will surely lose the peace. Greed must be crushed, but this can come about only through a spiritual awakening—starting in Washington. Every broadcast for the sale of Victory Bonds should include an appeal

Don't Monkey With Nature.

Many of the government restrictions seem crazy to statisticians. We know that when you begin to "regulate" nature you are putting your head into a hornet's nest. The war today is largely due to tariffs, bonuses and other forms of national greed which have upset natural trade and industry. Some day we must "go through the corn sheller" and pay for our mistakes. Our difficulties will be solved only as we return to letting nature work out these problems through natural rewards and punishments, not through artificial commissions and bureaus.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with a burning and burning sensation shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

230,000 ACRES STATE LAND IS NOW FOR SALE

AUSTIN, March 5. — Bascom Giles, commissioner of the general land office, Austin, states that the public free school fund which now amounts to approximately seventy-three million dollars, will be considerably increased by the selling of a large part of the 230,000 acres of land that is now being offered for sale. This money will be very much needed since the revenue to the school fund will be considerably reduced by the loss of revenue from the gasoline tax which has been brought about by the rationing of tires.

When this land is sold and put into private domestic use it will be placed upon the tax rolls, thereby increasing the revenue not only for the public free school fund and school districts, but for state and county taxes as well.

Commissioner Giles further points out that these lands are sold on one-fifth down payment, together with a note on the remaining four-fifths of the principal bearing 5 percent interest for forty years time, the payments on the principal being deposited to the permanent school fund; whereas, the interest payments are payable to the available school fund for immediate use. The state retains one-sixteenth free royalty in all oil or gas that may be found on these lands.

Commissioner Giles also states that these lands offered for sale are of varying types and are located in 120 different counties of the state. A purchaser of said land is not required to live upon it.

Anyone interested in the purchase of these lands may secure, free of charge, lists giving complete description and location, together with application blanks, by writing Bascom Giles, commissioner of the general land office, Austin, Texas.

It's all right to exempt and scenario writers who replaced. But first show who won't be replaced who dies.
