BURMA IS JAP TARGET

Japan appeared to be throwing her maximum strength into the Burma war today and is pushing a powerful naval squadron to within 75 miles of threatened India, as well as launching heavy air attacks on Allied lines near the central Burmese towns of Promé and Toungou.

DOUBLE-THREAT MEN—Ships for victory and guns for defense is the double-barreled job of these workers at an east coast shipyard, turning out vessels for Uncle Sam's Liberty Fleet. This gun on after-deck of one of the liners, will make it hot for enemy submarines.

CLEANUP DRIVE SHAPES

The Clean-up Campaign has been organized under the sponsorship of the Women's Federated clubs with Mrs. Eugene Lankford as president. She has called a conference of all heads of civic clubs of the city and has named Mrs. Nancy McCrea as general chairman, with heads of other clubs in charge of specific territory.

TALK GOES ON; JAPS ARE BUT 75 MILES AWAY

NEW DELHI, April 2.—The dominant all-India congress is reported to have informed Sir Stafford Cripps that India must be granted "full freedom" without awaiting the end of the war, and that Britain's offer of post-war dominion status cannot be accepted.

After a conversational period, were seated in the lower auditorium for a program of music. A small orchestra composed of Mrs. S. E. Hittson and A. E. Neely, Mrs. Ben Krauskopf and rothy Nell Pugh, accompanied Mrs. Roy Camfield at the piano, three well-received numbers. A program of fun came next. Mrs. W. W. Fewell directing a large group was divided into a group for a make-believe scholastic meet. Each school named by the section it represented, as follows: Dathan University, War-Time College, Cisco College and Possum Hunt College. The try-outs were supported by the various groups and it was all very funny and interesting. Robert Walker, official scorekeeper, announced winners.

Mr. J. R. Burnett made an impressive talk and told of the circumstances in which the Prince family held and the fine work performed by Mr. Prince during his state of four and a half years. He concluded her remarks by urging the members of the church to present gifts that will last in later years—U. S. Defense Bonds. She then presented a Prince with a $25 bond and son, Jr., and Joe Neely Prince the $6 Defense Bonds.

He declared at the close of his talk which kept each member of his audience on the edge of his chair—that we had entered this war not to strike back at some nation or people who had taken an under-handed job at us, nor because we had been deprived of materials necessary for our happiness, nor because we might have our standard of living lowered, but "to retain christian civilization and that all might turn their eyes toward the almighty God and humble ourselves to his ways of righteousness."

Speaking to about 65 Rotarians, Lions and guests today at the First Christian church, Captain W. E. King, chaplain at Camp Barkeley, spoke on the "Battle of the Atlantic" and showed how and why this world war was so much bigger and more far-reaching in scope and possibilities of future consequences than was world war No. 1.

The drive is on now and trucks will haul away rubbish Friday and Saturday of next week—April 10-11.

Congress' reply to the British plan, handed Cripps by President Maulana Abul Kalan Azad, was believed, however, to carry an implied invitation to the British cabinet to alter its proposals and prevent collapse of negotiations.

The Daily Press has had frequent inquiries the past week as to the date of the cyclone that struck Cisco "away back yonder," as one man expressed it.

APRIL 5 TO 11 WILL BE 4-H CLUB WEEK THROUGHOUT THE U. S.; EASTLAND COUNTY BUSY

Eastland county 4-H club boys and girls, their sponsors and leaders, and extension service workers are making plans this week for the observance of 4-H club week, which has been designated for the nation for the week of April 5 to 11.

A big scrap on his hands these days. Each of us must do his part. "We must be strong. Strength is the result not of magic but of day by day care. Food is a big factor. Eating the right food is our patriotic duty. Producing food is a big job of 4-H folk. "We must try to understand things that are going on these days. Remember Uncle Sam depends on OUR thinking. You 4-H club folks have already pledged yourselves to think clearly—to use your hands to work hard, your hearts to understand and to share, your health for sturdy service. You must think out what your part is—and how you can help others to know theirs. "During 4-H club week and afterward call on your neighbors. Invite people to see your work in your home. Let us help others.

31 CISCOANS HEARD H. W. KALTENBORN

A large crowd of Cisco people attended the H. W. Kaltenborn lecture at Mineral Wells last night and all of those contacted since their return expressed themselves as well repaid for the trip.

He declared at the close of his talk which kept each member of his audience on the edge of his chair—that we had entered this war not to strike back at some nation or people who had taken an under-handed job at us, nor because we had been deprived of materials necessary for our happiness, nor because we might have our standard of living lowered, but "to retain christian civilization and that all might turn their eyes toward the almighty God and humble ourselves to his ways of righteousness."

TEXAS ALERT. CLEBURNE, April 2.—There is no complacency about the war in Texas—the state is alert and awake to the crisis, Governor Stevenson told 2,000 persons assembled at a patriotic rally here Wednesday night.

Following graduation from the three month course here they will be sent to another field for further training, where they will receive $75 per month.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—President Roosevelt and 13,589,799 other men will register for selective service April 27, on the basis of Census Bureau figures.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 2.—Former Gov. E. D. Rivers was under a third indictment Thursday charged with embezzlement. The new indictment, returned by the Fulton County Grand Jury, alleges that Rivers embezzled $66,119.60 from Georgia during his term as governor.

THEY HELD THE FORT

Americans inclined to smile superiorly at Britain's dependence on this country, and her frank gratitude for our help, may well practice humility themselves. It will be easy enough if they take a fresh look backward.

We should not forget that Britain alone bore the brunt of the German and Italian assault for a year and a half before we joined in the fight. She had little help even from her sister-democracies of the British Empire. During that time she not only defended her own home front but safeguarded the Mediterranean, the Near East and Far East, also most of Africa and strategic points elsewhere in various regions. With greatly reduced power and resources, she spread herself thin on many fronts. She drew large supplies from the United States but, until lately, paid for nearly all of them herself. Naturally her material resources are now near exhaustion and her man-power shows some weakening from the strain. She has lost important strongholds.

There is a note of almost pathetic eagerness and gratitude in recent statements from England. "There is also, manliness, Prime Minister Churchill says in a recent statement: "A year ago we were alone, and now the three greatest nations in the world are sworn to us in close alliance and fighting on our side in their growing power. Now it seems that we and our allies cannot lose the war except through our own fault or our own failure to use our combined, overwhelming strength and use the multiplying opportunities that will present themselves to us."

We may be assured that Britain and the rest of the British Commonwealth of Nations who held the battle fronts until we were ready to help, will still play a manly part. They know, and we know, that it is all one war in which our enemies have a common purpose—to destroy and loot the free nations. Whoever tries to discredit any of our Allied Nations is the enemy of all of us.

NO EASTER LILIES?

An Easter without Easter lilies? That is the prospect held out by the Society of American Florists. Of the 23,000,000 lilies sold annually, it seems that no fewer than 18,000,000 used to come from Japan. Naturally these are out, and we don't mean in bloom.

To make up the shortage, lilies will, as before, be imported from Bermuda, to add to those raised in Louisiana, Oregon, and other American lily-growing regions. All these sources taken together are expected to be good for only two million. Evidently we shall have to get used to some other flower for Easter. The Japanese lilies probably had Japanese beetles in them, anyway.

RIDERS

A defense levy is beaten by a more than 2-to-1 vote. Though fire engines and other defense equipment were to be bought with the proceeds, 12,000 votes were cast against the levy and only 5,000 for it. This word comes from a mid-western town in the heart of the steel district. Sounds bad, doesn't it?

But tied in with the levy was an increased pay schedule for policemen, firemen and city workers generally. In all likelihood most of the money would have gone for these purposes, leaving little for defense purchases. No wonder the taxpayers hit out.

There may have been a case for the added pay provisions. There was none for tucking them into the defense levy proposal, so that the two had to be voted up or down together. This is the "rider" idea which is popular with Congress, and unpopular with everybody else. Proposals for pay boosts should stand on their own feet.

POLES AND PRUSSIANS

It looks as if the Germans were trying to kill all the Poles, putting an end to the race. That would be nothing new in German history.

Northeastern Germany was inhabited, in the Middle Ages, by a race known as the Prussians, not Germans at all, but akin to the Lithuanians. They were pagans, giving the Order of Teutonic Knights, a medieval body who served as the spearhead of German invasion, an excuse to exterminate them. The last Prussian of whom there is record died about 1648. Nothing remains of this people but a few specimens of the language. Curiously enough, the name "Berlin" is one.

There are many more Poles than there were Prussians; but if the Germans wish, as apparently they do, to kill them off, they will not be discouraged by numbers. Where there's a will, for good or evil, there's a way.

CHINA ACES

That the Chinese are our allies is now being recognized in a practical way. The first group of air pilots is just completing its training at an Arizona field. They had 100 hours in the air before coming to this country. Now they will be succeeded by a second group.

One thing may be depended on. The time and money that the training of these pilots cost will be well spent. The Chinese make good flyers and unwearable enemies.

DISNEY STATES HOUSE FAVORS FED. SALES TAX

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Representative Disney of Oklahoma, a ranking member of the House Ways and Means committee, announced Thursday in a formal statement that he had conducted a survey of the House "which convinces me that an overwhelming majority will vote for a federal sales tax."

The statement came after other members reported that an informal poll of the tax-writing committee showed enough votes there to write the sales tax into the treasury's $7,610,000,000 war revenue bill. These members, however, said that the sentiment of the House as a whole was still doubtful.

Disney suggested the graduated sales tax with higher rates on luxuries than on cheaper food, clothing and other necessities. He said that the exact rates would have to be worked out by the committee.

The question is not whether we can lick them, but whether we can realize the size of the job before they lick us.

A congressman says the poll tax builds corrupt political machines. What does it in the forty states that have no poll tax?

Our strategists know best, but while the Japs are busy away from home seems an excellent time to tear up Japan.

Support A. E. R. (Army Emergency Relief)

The observance of Army Day, April 6, marking the twenty-fifth anniversary of America's entry into the World War in 1917, signifies also the beginning of the nation-wide movement for the assistance of soldiers' families and dependents. Every community in the country today has its quota of men in the Army, and the home folks of these communities are organizing units of the Army Emergency Relief.

The Army Emergency Relief is a fund being raised to provide for the assistance of dependents of any soldier who wears the uniform of our country. It operates without official "red tape." Emergency conditions are recognized and relief is given promptly. The mother who visits her boy in camp and finds his outfit suddenly moved, leaving her stranded, is immediately provided with necessary funds by the Army Emergency Relief. When a soldier becomes a casualty his dependents are given sympathetic care and funds are advanced until the payment of a pension or his insurance.

The Army Emergency Relief is incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia as a nonprofit organization. General John J. Pershing is honorary president. The chairman of the board is Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, the acting president being Under Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson. The fund is administered by Major General William N.

SUPPLIES OF WHEAT LARGER THAN IN PAST

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Despite two successive short crops and prospects that 1942 production may be smaller yet the world may have a larger supply of wheat this year than ever before, the agriculture department reports.

This is because the surplus existing in the world's four leading exporting nations — the United States, Canada, Australia and Argentina — is the largest of record.

The department said that present prospects indicated a total 1942 crop for most of the world of around 3,950,000,000 bushels, or

FAULTY PLANNING HIT BY SENATE COM.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Criticizing the nation's armed forces for a "poor job of over-all planning," the senate defense investigating committee recommended Thursday that the War Production board draft a trained aircraft executive to direct a drive to break the bottlenecks which are "holding up peak production" in the war plane program.

Summarizing a subcommittee's visit to the West Coast, the committee reported that plane assembly lines in big plants were not running to capacity because of recurring shortages of some vital parts being produced by subcontractors.

"A poor job of over-all planning, from aluminum ingots to finished aircraft, by the armed services and the old OPM (Office of Production Management) must be blamed for the present situation," the committee said in its report. "The usual red tape and delays in making contracts also were partly responsible."

The committee recommended that the WPB set up a section charged with over-all planning for aircraft production, headed by a trained production executive drafted from the industry.

"The subcommittee had been told," the report commented, "that the WPB still does not have a single top-notch aircraft production man in its organization."

Civilian Defense means defense by civilians. How many are training to make life miserable for raiders?
