SECOND FRONT WILL CUT TO THE CORE

WESTOCK AUCTION MORE THAN DOUBLED ITS SALES; TERRITORY STILL WIDENING

SECOND BATTLE FRONT

Great Britain's black-hooded Commandos stabbed into the French coast and battered German troops in a two-hour raid early today, amid growing indications of big-scale fighting in western Europe.

The Commando raid was a "small reconnaissance," according to a London communique, which said the Germans were driven back and coastal defenses penetrated, while British naval forces off shore blasted two armed enemy trawlers. The British casualties were said to have been light.

Behind the new raid by the Commandos—who may be joined soon by American units—was a series of important developments, which suggest that the United Nations are determined to open a "second front," one way or another, to aid the Russians this summer.

Dispatches from the eastern front told of Red army attacks that broke into the German defense line on the central sector, presumably in the general area of Smolensk, where 40 villages were taken in an advance that was continuing despite hard tank battles.

Russian forces are also reported to have broken into the Finnish front on three sectors and advanced six miles. These successes encourage demands in the British parliament for closer military collaboration with the Russians and for the opening of a second front in Europe where, labor leader Lord Strachey, said he hoped there would be a "blow up" very soon.

UTILITY OFFICIALS HELD
RIO DE JANEIRO, April 22.—A seven-member committee of utility and power company officials at Joinville, in the state of Santa Catharina, were under arrest Wednesday for alleged Axis fifth column work in Brazil.

APRICOT TREE BEARS CLUSTER OF NICE FRUIT

C. P. Mosley, who lives at 702 Lake Bernie road, showed a cluster of eleven apricots that grew on a lone tree in his yard. The fruit is uniform and well developed. They look as if they might ripen about May 1. The cluster was just a tip end of a limb, Mosley said.

MORE U. S. TROOPS ON WAY TO INDIA TO ASSIST THAT COUNTRY IN BATTLE AGAINST THE JAPS

NEW DELHI, India, April 22.—Because the defense of India is of vital concern to the United States "United States troops already are in India and more will come," Louis Johnson, head of the United States advisory mission here, told a press conference Wednesday.

"Our coming to India is not a matter that is based entirely on the war situation. America has not been disinterested in India—may I say disinterested in this part of the world. We have had a dependency in Asia—the Philippines... We have had long and happy cultural relations with the people of India and the people of Asia."

TEN GALLONS OF GAS MONTH TO EACH CAR

WASHINGTON, April 22.—High ranking government officials Wednesday predicted gasoline rationing limiting the average motorist to 10 gallons of motor fuel a month soon will be put into effect.

BETA UPSILON CHAPTER DELTA KAPPA GAMMA

Saturday afternoon Beta Upsilon chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met in regular session at Laguna hotel. During the business session several questions regarding proposed changes in the constitution were discussed and voted upon; plans were also made for the May meeting and for sending representatives to the state convention at Austin, April 24-26.

The topic for the program was "Enriching Women Teachers' Lives." Enrichment through literature was the phase presented by Miss Yunk, through music, by Mrs. Briscoe, through social activities by Miss Winston and through spiritual guidance by Mrs. Cash.

HIGHWAY OFFICER DEADLY WITH PISTOL

GRAHAM, April 22.—State Highway Patrolman John Lowry, 47, was under $5,000 bond Wednesday in the fatal shooting of Sam Shanafelt, 44, city marshal at Bryson, as the result of an encounter early Tuesday night in Possum Kingdom Park here.

Lowry, who reported to the sheriff's office immediately after the shooting, waived preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace J. T. Rickman. He was charged with murder, posted bond and was released.

The patrolman, a veteran in the state service, declared he fired after Shanafelt took a gun from the glove compartment of his car and disobeyed an order, repeated three times to put it up. Four bullets entered Shanafelt's body.

NANCE, YATES AND STATHAM ON LONG JAUNT

S. H. Nance, W. B. Statham and Charles Yates of the Nance Motor company left shortly after 4 o'clock this morning for Brownsville, Texas, to deliver four new Ford trucks which have been sold to the Pipkin-Manske Motor company, Ford dealers in that city.

Going the shortest route possible, the distance from Cisco to this Mexican border city is close to 300 miles. If they do not get in trouble when they visit Matamoros, Mexico, just across the river, the Ciscoans are expected to arrive home some time Thursday night.

COMING RECOMMENDATION BE MOST DRASTIC

WASHINGTON, April 22.—President Roosevelt today worked steadily on his anti-inflation message to congress and the nation—a message that will undoubtedly recommend the most drastic governmental control of American life ever contemplated.

Nea r confiscatory taxes on corporation earnings, ceilings on individual incomes and prohibitions against wage increases may be combined with the rationing of all consumer products and general price ceilings—even on the most common food products—to stop the spiral of inflation.

Informed senate sources have revealed that Mr. Roosevelt will tell congress in a message Monday, and the nation in a fireside chat later, that dangerously rising living costs must be stopped NOW if any semblance of the American standard of living is to be preserved.

VARGE DANIEL CABLES FROM FAR AUSTRALIA

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. (Cart) Daniel, former Ciscoans, but now residing on route two, out of Eastland, are in receipt of a cablegram from their son, Sgt. Varge Daniel, of the eighth photo squadron, air corps, Australia.

Sergeant Daniel sailed from San Francisco some time ago and this message was the first word from him for quite awhile. The message said: "Landed safely. People very receptive and I am having a wonderful time. Wish I could effort to enjoy it."

VARGE DANIEL.
Sergeant Daniel spent all of his school days in good old Cisco and graduated from Cisco high school with the class of '35. Later he attended Randolph College. That he appears to be making good with the forces fighting for world freedom is no surprise to those who knew him as a school boy.

ACTION

The bombing of Tokyo and other Japanese cities by American planes, reported last Saturday, was something the American people had longed for but not expected yet. With other current developments, it has brought cheer and reassurance after a period of frustration. It is evident on many fronts, and in many forms, that the Allied war machine is really beginning now to move in a big way, faster than was thought possible a few weeks ago.

Nearly every day since the coming of spring weather there have been reports of larger and bolder operations. The aerial war is being carried by Britain into Germany and her occupied territories on a scale matching anything of the kind since Dunkirk. The Russians are not only holding their vast front but forcing the fight. China, rich in man-power and courage but poor in equipment, is doing well with what she has. Naturally the thing of foremost interest and satisfaction in this country just now is the coming of war industry into big production and the resultant military activity on important fronts.

From now on there is going to be strong and continuous action on all fronts. And as the tempo steps up, let the American public keep steadily in mind the big debt they owe alike to the fighting forces and the men who make what they fight with.

THE NEXT BOOM

Thurmas Arnold, the free-lance shaker-upper at Washington who seems to belong to no party and have no inhibitions, is talking of a big boom in postbellum production. This attitude naturally attracts attention because of the tradition that war is necessarily followed by depression. It has usually been so in the past. But Mr. Arnold insists that there is no reason why it need be so, and some other people of consequence are inclined to agree with him.

This iconoclast runs into trouble, though, when as a part of his planning for a peace boom he urges the freeing of patents. No doubt such action would result in a great liberation of industrial and financial power. Presumably patents now operating would be used more extensively, and thousands of patents now kept inactive, for competitive reasons, would be poured into the productive machinery. But is this nation of inventors ready to make its thousands of valuable patents public property, without compensation? Probably not.

FUTILE CONQUEST

What will happen if the Japanese really do invade India? One possibility, absurd as it sounds, may be this—that they will lose themselves in the vast, populous land and never find their way out. India, like China, has absorbed many an invasion in the course of her long history.

One of the supermen who tackled that adventure was the so-called world conqueror of antiquity, Alexander the Great. After winning the Near East he pressed on into North-western India and planned to take over the whole country.

He might have done it as far as the inhabitants were concerned—but his troops got worn out with so much walking and made him turn back.

The Japs might learn something, too, from the way of an energetic puppy with a sponge. The dog rushes in and attacks the sponge terrifically, but finally discovers that he isn't really getting anywhere, and gives it up.

SENATORIAL ECONOMY

Criticism does accomplish something. Congressmen took to heart the wave of criticism caused by the now-repealed legislation giving themselves pensions. They are looking more closely at projects making life easier for themselves.

A pending appropriation bill contained a provision giving every senator at least one added $1,800 a year clerk. The senate, in a burst of economy, has sent this back to committee for reconsideration.

Hard-working senators should have help. They do. Considering that so many have used allowances for clerk hire to get their own relatives on the government payroll, most people will be satisfied if senators work a little harder and spend a little less, as the rest of us have to do.

WHAT DOES FREEDOM MEAN

The Commercial - Appeal of Memphis, Tennessee, on February 28, published a communication from John C. Sheffield of Helena, Arkansas. He raised some points on which the public is becoming more critical each day. In part, he said:

"My son was born while I was in France during the first World War. Today he is a member of the United States Marine Corps. . . . We know he is somewhere in the Pacific. We are anxious about him. Thousands of other parents are like us.

"One of my friends who is a good mechanic with a family to support, went to get a job in a munitions plant. Every day he hears on the radio and reads in the newspapers that such men are needed to turn out munitions for the soldiers, sailors and marines. But this man was refused a job until he could get a union card. He could not get a union card because he did not have money enough to buy one.

"Why can't a free-born American citizen get a job in a plant where the government needs workers, without having to pay tribute to a high-powered labor leader?"

Mr. Sheffield, you have asked a question that millions of Americans are asking today. Why can't a man get a job in an industry producing war equipment with taxpayers' money, without paying initiation fees and monthly dues? What answer is there to that question? How can such a situation be permitted to exist in a free country? What do constitutional rights mean when a man cannot work without paying private organizations for the privilege?

Golf clubs are no longer to be made, and you will only be punishing yourself if, when you drive into a pond, you break your club over your knee.

There is a German proverb, "mitgefangen, mitgehangen"—caught together, hanged together. It means that people must be judged by their associates, or in the case of nations, by the rulers they tolerate.

Pierre Laval's name is spelled just the same forward and backward, neatly symbolizing his principles and career.

OTHER EDITORS

Disconcerting is Right

San Angelo Standard-Times: The news that Dan Gillmor, one-time publisher of the magazine Friday, was on the co-ordinator of information's payroll for a time is disconcerting, even though his connection with that office no longer exists.

Gillmor's ideological unity with the Communist Party has been no secret. His magazine was a literary vehicle for numerous self-accomplished Reds. In it they followed the party line during the period when Stalin was Hitler's buddy and the Communists were against everything for which this country stood. Friday did all it could to create sympathy for our enemies. Gillmor wrote signed editorials which contributed toward that end.

How, then, did Gillmor get onto the staff of so confidential an agency as Colonel Donovan's? Who put him there, and who kept still?

"Every penny saved helps to blackout the Axis."

THE simplest of home recipes for saving pennies: turn out unnecessary lights. One person shouldn't have to follow others around, turning switches! Besides—ample electric supply is vital to war production!

Use the pennies saved to purchase U. S. SAVINGS STAMPS—as your share in the "Home Front" fight for freedom.

COFFEE AND CAKE ON WHEELS

When the soldier can't go to USO, USO goes to the soldier. Here are Army men, on detached duty at a post far from camp and USO clubhouses, getting coffee and doughnuts from the operator of a USO mobile unit. These traveling clubs also bring movies, cigarettes, games, writing materials and reading matter to isolated units of the fighting forces. It is to carry on the USO clubhouse program and such extra services as mobile units that the USO War Fund Campaign for $32,000,000 will be conducted May 11-July 4.

If you work for wages, advertising is your staunchest friend

THERE are 3 ways in which advertising directly benefits the working man.

Advertising causes MORE EMPLOYMENT in both raw material and manufacturing industries by increasing the volume of units sold.

For instance, over 20 years one typical firm added 10% more employees each year because of the business brought by aid of advertising.

Next, advertising aids in the PERMANENCE OF EMPLOYMENT and increases the employees' security.

This is because a firm which advertises consistently meets less resistance in the sale of its products. It is less apt to fail—throwing its employees out of work. This is important because the life of the average business is estimated to be only 5½ years.

Then, advertising HELPS

LOWER THE COST OF THE THINGS YOU BUY.

You know yourself that it costs much less per article to make 10,000 units than only 100. Thus the product can be sold cheaper. When you buy it—it costs less—your money goes farther—you can improve your standard of living—have an electric refrigerator, washing machine and other things.

That's three great contributions which Advertising makes to labor. More employment—more permanence to employment—better value for your money and more money to spend.

WHAT TO DO

Tell your friends about this—how important advertising is to labor.

Then patronize the firms which advertise. You can be pretty sure that a consistent advertiser is giving you full value in quality, service and price.

WHAT ONE HOUR'S WAGES WILL BUY IN DIFFERENT COUNTRIES

CATTLE MARKET

Most classes of cattle and calves brought steady prices on the Fort Worth stockyards Wednesday. Trade was not active but the comparatively light runs found an outlet before noon.

Hogs sold 10 to 25 cents above Tuesday's levels with Tuesday's highest sales made at $14.10, while the packer top was $14.

Some classes of sheep and lambs were sharply higher and all others cleared at steady levels. Most of the day's supply of slaughter steers and yearlings was made up of medium and good grades selling at $10.50 to $12.25. Long fed cattle were absent. Plain lots that ranged downward to $9 included a load of Mexican steers at $9.25.

GOP PLANS TO FIGHT UNNECESSARY DEBT

CHICAGO, April 22.—A main target of Republican big guns in the Fall campaign, Chairman Joseph W. Martin of the GOP national committee believes, will be the Roosevelt administration's nonwar spending.

"The people are willing that we spend all that is needed in the war effort but they are getting fed up on other expenditures," Martin said Tuesday. "They are demanding a reduction of normal governmental expenses and they want nonessentials cut out."

Martin said the party, from coast to coast, "is knit together as it has not been for more than a year," and that its financial condition is the best in history, virtually debt free.

hand, however, and we'll run a poor man's campaign," Martin said. "But I think we'll be able to get enough money for a moderate campaign."

A campaign program, he said, will be drafted at a conference of all state chairmen, vice chairmen and publicity directors about the first week in June. The meeting will be in Cincinnati or St. Louis, probably St. Louis.

The chairman said the national committee, in setting down a war and postwar policy Monday, handled all controversial questions "with wisdom and in a remarkable spirit of co-operation that amounted to statesmanship."

He declared "there was complete unity" and it was "a great day for the Republican party." In a resolution the committee demanded an offensive, uncompromising war until peace with victory is attained and expressed realization that the nation has an obligation to help bring about co-operation of the nations in the postwar world.

Meanwhile Madame Perkins goes triumphantly on winning the war for whatever she is winning it for, if any.

HALF MILLION WON'T TAKE A PENSION NOW

WASHINGTON, April 22.—This is grandpa and grandma's war, too. Social Security Board records disclosed Wednesday that 500,000 men and women over 65 had refused to quit work and settle down on government pensions, preferring instead to help run the nation's industries.

Moreover, 20,000 of those already receiving pensions have written the board to withdraw their names, that they have taken jobs in industries covered by security insurance and are not entitled to pensions so long as they hold these jobs.

Other thousands, while continuing to receive pensions, are taking jobs in agriculture and other uncovered occupations, a board spokesman said.

Environment makes the man. Every long fly is a home run if the fence is close.

ARMY TACKLES HUGE PROBLEM OF PLACEMENT

WASHINGTON, April 22.—That trick of fitting square pegs into round holes is a cinch compared to the job faced by the Army's 5,000 officers and enlisted men assigned to the task of determining how best to apply the civilian experience or knowledge of selectees to the military service.

The army's fast expansion is creating increasingly more complex problems for its classification officers. Because of their knowledge of modern principles of industrial psychology, these men try to decide whether Jim Smith, who was a bookkeeper in civil life, should be assigned as company clerk or whether, because of his fine leadership qualities, he would be more useful as an infantry corporal.

Too Many Lawyers In the army, as in civilian life, it is not always possible to give the man the job he prefers. For example, there may be thousands of enlisted men with a knowledge of Spanish, yet there are only a few tasks in the army requiring it. Furthermore, the army has no jobs for diamond-setters or tea-tasters. And there are a lot more lawyers or skilled clerks available than the army needs in those capacities. But all of these men could make good soldiers.

Classification officers had made a number of interesting discoveries which will make for greater efficiency in the army. For example, they have found that certified public accountants can be converted into excellent mess sergeants. Musicians have found to do a better job at army radio work than a more of the more experienced radio "hams."

Rather Fight Than Fry

At one school for army cooks, a large percentage of failures was noted. A checkup disclosed that all of these students had been employed as cooks before their induction. But, it was further discovered, these men had been working as cooks only because they hadn't succeeded in getting other jobs and now that they were in the army they wanted to fight and not to fry.

Occasionally some mis-assignments occur and when these are brought to light, re-classifications are made. The questionnaire which a man fills out at the time of registration is not always an infallible guide. For illustration, a man may describe himself as a carpenter but neglect to state that he had been employed for a longer period as a blaster with an excavation crew. For that reason, aptitude tests are given when the selectees arrive at the replacement training center.

which has jurisdiction over the classification work, says that no soldiers need be discouraged because their civilian training is not being used for a specialized job. Many a man who thought his civilian background was being ignored has been pleasantly surprised when the need for his particular type of ability developed, and the little punch-holes in his classification card marked him for the job.

The classification test, it was explained, it not designed to test the soldier's education background but his intelligence and his ability to learn. A bright soldier who has had no more than a grammar school education may achieve a high score, while another who may have bluffed his way through college shows up as a mental laggard.

BASEMENT RE-CLUSE WAS A SAVING MAN

Yes, vaccine prepares you to beat trouble... now how does this oil work that principle?

Like a plague, modern driving conditions are widely attacking motor oil—wasting it away. Nature can't modernize her oil. And the best refining even weakens certain natural "immunities"...

BUT CONOCO Nth OIL makes it all up—and then some—with its modern man-made preventives. They get the credit for its healthy record of more than twice the mileage averaged by five other fine oils in a Death-Test lasting till engines burned up.

The rival oils, in identical cars, under impartial observation, braved blistering Death Valley with a strict 5-quart fill apiece and no more. One gave out when Conoco Nth was still more than two-thirds up! None came closer than a bare 58% of Conoco Nth mileage!

Get this same Conoco Nth oil for the Spring change that your engine must have. You'll be getting the added modern synthetic, Thialkene inhibitor, to forestall the fouling attacks of highest engine speeds and pressures. Instead of breaking down into so-called varnish, gums and worse obstructions, your Conoco Nth oil can stay more like its own good self—to help your mileage stay up.

The out-and-out Death Valley victory proved it—and proved once again that an OIL-PLATED engine lives long. OIL-PLATING, a recognized Conoco advantage through the years, comes from the other great synthetic in Conoco Nth. This exerts magnet-like action to envelop inner parts in close-bonded lubricant that doesn't all quickly drain down. Instead it stays plated in place—much as any other plating—and that's what the conventional movable oil film slides on!

You're one more remove from excess wear—from the hazard of repairs and delay these days. You're up to the Nth degree of oil mileage for your car. Change now at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company
