BACK ON THE JOB—Fit as a fiddle again and ready for the fray, the U. S. destroyer Kearney, torpedoed prior to U. S. entry in the war by a German submarine and brought back to a U. S. port by her crew in a damaged condition, departs for sea from a New England harbor, with camouflage paint coating.

DELEGATES AND OTHERS FROM 56 CHURCHES TO BE PRESENT; ROY A. LANGSTON IN CHARGE

Tuesday afternoon delegates and members of the fifty-six churches comprising the Cisco Methodist district will gather in session here for the two-day annual conference of May 12-13.

The district superintendent, Rev. Roy A. Langston of Cisco, will be in charge.

Rev. Leslie W. Seymour and the First Methodist church will be hosts, and will be assisted by Rev. Seba Kirkpatrick and members of the Twelfth-street church.

The program will open promptly at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon with a sermon by Rev. J. D. Ramsey of Gorman. Organization of the conference will then be effected, the roll will be called and the district attendance banner awarded. Reports will be heard from pastors.

The evening session will open at 8 o'clock, featuring a sermon by Rev. J. H. Baldrige of Dublin, with music by the First Methodist choir.

Wednesday Session.

Wednesday's session will open with a watch service at 7 a. m., led by Rev. E. N. Scarlett of Ranger. Business dealing with various phases of the church program -- such as evangelism, Christian education, woman's society of Christian service, missions, local preachers, Methodist orphanage, benevolences and other finances will be considered and reports heard. The morning session will close at 11:45 with a sermon by Rev. F. L. Willshire of DeLeon.

After lunch the afternoon session will open and close with sermons. The first at 2 o'clock by Rev. J. D. Barron of Eastland, with the closing message by Rev. C. R. Gray of Breckenridge.

Spiritual Life.

Emphasis throughout the conference will be placed on deepening the spiritual life, and on the church meeting the needs of a war-torn world.

At some moment during the conference the district superintendent expects to have a roll call of all men who have entered the U. S. armed service from the Cisco district, with an appropriate word concerning these men and with special prayer for them, their loved ones and the nation.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend the conference, said Rev. Roy A. Langston, Saturday, and especially the preaching services by the visiting ministers.

Attendance at these annual gatherings usually draws 250 to 350 visitors in addition to the local attendance.

AIRMEN AT SOLO STAGE

Flying training events are moving along swiftly at the Cisco airport, it was announced Saturday.

About 20 young trainees have advanced to the solo stage and will be ready after next month for a move to higher training school bases, where they will become a real part of the great U. S. army air corps. They will then start drawing salaries and their training will begin to shape into real army life.

Meanwhile new boys are showing up and seeking to be taken into the next class, so they too can do their bit in the fine showing American flyers are making in all parts of the world—hammering despotism and softening the way for ground armies and naval units to finish the mopping up operations that all are eagerly looking forward to.

A large crowd is expected at the airport this afternoon, as many mothers will want to see their sons doing their solo maneuvers.

PRESTON SAYS HOME PAPER IS ALWAYS NEWSY

Sgt. Walter V. Preston of the U. S. air corps writes the Daily Press from Norfolk, Va., that he receives the Cisco paper regularly and then observes:

"I can't express my appreciation of the Cisco Daily Press. It is such a newsy paper and a bunch of the boys here are always waiting for me to finish with it. They apparently enjoy reading it as much as I do, and they make such nice comments.

"I'll be coming to Cisco on the 20th and hope to enjoy the free fishing offered service men at mammoth Lake Cisco. I think Cisco people are the most wonderful in the world and the way they are looking after the visiting soldier boys is good evidence of that. It makes the soldier very happy to know that some one is thinking of him."

HIGH MASS, COMMUNION

FORT WORTH, May 9.—About 150 members of the Our Lady of Victory and the parish Sodality and approximately 200 members of the parish Holy Name Society will receive communion at a high mass at St. Mary's Catholic church at 8 a. m. Sunday honoring the mothers of those in attendance.

LABOR BOARD ORDERS 1,200 STEEL STRIKERS TO GET BACK ON JOB AT BETHLEHEM PLANT

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The War Labor Board today demanded that 1,200 workers involved in an unauthorized strike at the Williamsport, Pa., plant, of Bethlehem Steel, return to work immediately and submit their dispute to mediation by the board.

WLB Chairman William H. Davis at the same time telegraphed officials of the steel workers organizing committee (CIO) and the company that the board will hold a hearing May 12 on the dispute.

The workers struck Wednesday, after charging the company with unwarranted delay in the settlement of grievances and in the establishment of grievance machinery. Yesterday they telegraphed Davis and President Roosevelt a request that the government seize the plant.

Davis told the workers that the strike was in violation of the union's no-strike pledge and has "interfered with the production of necessary materials for our war effort."

"I call upon you as loyal and patriotic citizens to return to work immediately and to settle your disputes in a peaceful manner before the National War Labor Board," Davis said in a telegram to John Riffe, executive director of the SWOC's Bethlehem committee, and R. E. Hall, SWOC staff representative at Williamsport.

Things are busting at the high school, college and grammar school these days, for graduation activities are already under way.

The junior-senior banquet at the First Methodist church Friday night was the opening signal for things to begin.

But students are being warned to not become so engrossed in the glamor as to neglect the all-important thing of passing their exams and making the grades.

After all, students must pass these, else there will be no festivities for them.

BOBBY T. BACON MISSING

Bobby T. Bacon, 22, son of Mrs. Ted Bacon, 1412 K avenue, Cisco, a member of the U. S. marines and on duty in the Manila Bay area when the U. S. forces capitulated, is reported missing by the United States navy.

The following telegram was received today by the mother of the Cisco boy:

Mrs. Ola Childs Bacon, 1412 K avenue, Cisco, Texas.

The commandant U. S. marine corps regrets to advise you that according to the records of this headquarters your son, Private First Class Bobby T. Bacon, U. S. marine corps, was performing his duty in the service of his country in the Manila Bay area when that station capitulated. He will be carried on the records of the marine corps as missing pending further information.

No report of his death has been received and he may be a prisoner of war. It will probably be several months before definite official information can be expected concerning his status. Sincere sympathy is extended to you in your anxiety and you are assured that any report received will be communicated to you promptly.

LT. GEN. U. S. M. C.

Bobby Bacon graduated from Cisco high school with the class of 1938. He was a member of the Lobo football team, a life guard at Lake Cisco one year and joined the marines in January, 1940.

George Awalt Missing
Mrs. J. R. Poplin, who resides on Thirteenth street, Cisco, received a telegram Saturday from the navy department stating that her son, George T. Awalt, Jr., a member of the marine corps and on duty in Manila Bay when the U. S. forces there surrendered, was missing.

The telegram carried the identical wording as that received by Mrs. Bacon concerning her son, Bobby T. Bacon.

BILL SUBLETT GETS CITATION FOR BRAVERY

The United States navy Saturday cited Henry William Sublett, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Sublett, route four, Cisco, for bravery at Corregidor Fortress.

The Cisco boy was slightly wounded on April 14. Word came April 17 that he had been "wounded in action," but on May 6 the parents received word that their boy had been "slightly wounded."

The Daily Press was unable to communicate with the parents Saturday after receiving news of his citation for bravery.

'STRAY CATS' A LAUGH MAKER; DON'T MISS IT

On Thursday evening, May 14, the senior class of Cisco high school, under direction of Mrs. E. L. Hazlewood, will present a rollicking comedy, "Stray Cats."

This delightful farce of high society abounds in excruciatingly funny scenes, depicting the predicaments of a young man who, having to get married within fourteen hours in order to receive a four-million-dollar legacy, makes up for lost time in proposing to not one young lady, but to four! Imagine the complications!

The action is swift, the dialogue clever and the mad situations will keep you laughing until the final curtain.

The enthusiastic seniors have worked long and hard on this play and promise side-splitting entertainment to all who attend. "Stray Cats" should be the most successful production staged by Cisco seniors in years.

The place: High school auditorium.

WALLACE IS AFRAID OF JAP ATTACK
NEW YORK, May 9.—Vice President Henry A. Wallace said last night that the Japanese might attack Alaska and the Pacific Northwest, while the Germans lead an uprising in South America.

"We may be sure that Hitler and Japan will co-operate to do something unexpected—perhaps an attack by Japan against Alaska and our northwest coast at a time when German transport planes will be shuttled across from Dakar to furnish leadership and stiffening to a German uprising in Latin America," he said, addressing a meeting of the Free World Assn.

THE TRUE MOTHER.

On the second Sunday in May good children honor Mother. They give her flowers and gifts, they get the Sunday dinner, they write to her from afar.

Is she merely a selfish woman, accepting sentimental gifts with sentimental sweetness? Or is she a strong and splendid woman, kind with a true, strong kindness.

Then indeed she is a true American, worthy to be mother of heroes. That's the kind of woman the American mother tries to be. That's the kind she mostly is.

People with a "martyr complex" may have a good time doing without things.

BECAUSE OF LOSS OF MEN ARMY, W. T. U. CO. MAN WILL TAKE ON DOUBLE DUTY

The drain of manpower from the West Texas Utilities Co. into the nation's armed forces yesterday was reflected in the promotion of T. J. McCarty, Cisco district manager, to succeed H. D. Austin as district manager of District A, with headquarters in Abilene.

At the same time, McCarty will retain management of the company's District B headquarters in Cisco.

The change was necessitated by the entrance of Austin, a major in the inactive reserves, into the army. He reports for active duty at Camp Joseph T. Robinson, Ark., Monday.

McCarty, recently appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late H. H. Monk, will operate the two districts as one, maintaining his duties and connections here and give whatever time is required in the present push for development of Cisco and the surrounding territory.

Authorities Urge Healthy Cooking to Help Defense

New emphasis is being placed on proper cooking that retains the essential vitamins and minerals in the food. Mrs. America buys for her family, statements by leaders in the new National Nutrition Program reveal.

Says Helen S. Mitchell, director of nutrition for the Federal Security Administration, "We need a new definition of 'good cook'—one who conserves the nutritive value in foods, and at the same time turns out dishes so delicious that her family likes what is good for them."

Recommended techniques for cooking to save vital food elements are three: so-called "waterless" vegetable cooking; broiling instead of frying whenever possible; and low temperature roasting of meats and fowl. Exhaustive tests both by government home economists and other leading experts have shown that these methods are best and easiest.

Correct procedure for the "waterless" vegetable preparation tells the cook to use only as much water as necessary to cover bottom of utensil, usually from 1/4 to 1/2 cup. A close fitting cover should be used to prevent escape of steam as much as possible (or, if available, pressure cookers are ideal). Water is brought to a quick boil, then burner is turned to simmer position. When done, salt, pepper, and butter may be added, and food served with the liquid in the pan.

Over-boiling of vegetables in too much water is wasteful, explain home economists, because a large percent of the vitamins and minerals is absorbed in the water, and escapes in steam. The excess water containing the nourishing qualities is thrown away and the lifeless vegetable pulp eaten.

WRONG WAY—Excess water containing vitamins and minerals is poured down sink.

Broiling, a neglected art in most homes, is preferred to frying because the necessity for cooking longer at high temperature destroys delicate vitamins in fried foods, and because grease-soaked food is harder to digest.

Low temperature roasting—about 250-300°—cuts meat shrinkage, makes meat tenderer and juicier, more flavorful, and best of all, allows the use of less expensive cuts which can be made just as delicious as higher priced ones.

SUBS BUSY IN GULF MEXICO; 2 BOATS LOST

NEW ORLEANS, May 9.—Axis submarines striking in the Gulf of Mexico for the first time, have sunk a medium-sized merchantman and a small freighter, the Eighth Naval District announced today.

There was no loss of life, but two men on the merchant ship were injured by shrapnel and two men on the small vessel cut by flying glass. The submarine attacks occurred on May 6.

The merchant ship, which carried a crew of 41 and six passengers, was torpedoed and shelled. The freighter, with a crew of 46, was set afire by 120 rounds from the U-boat deck gun and sank.

The navy declined to say whether there was only one submarine which attacked the two ships within approximately seven hours and a comparatively short distance apart.

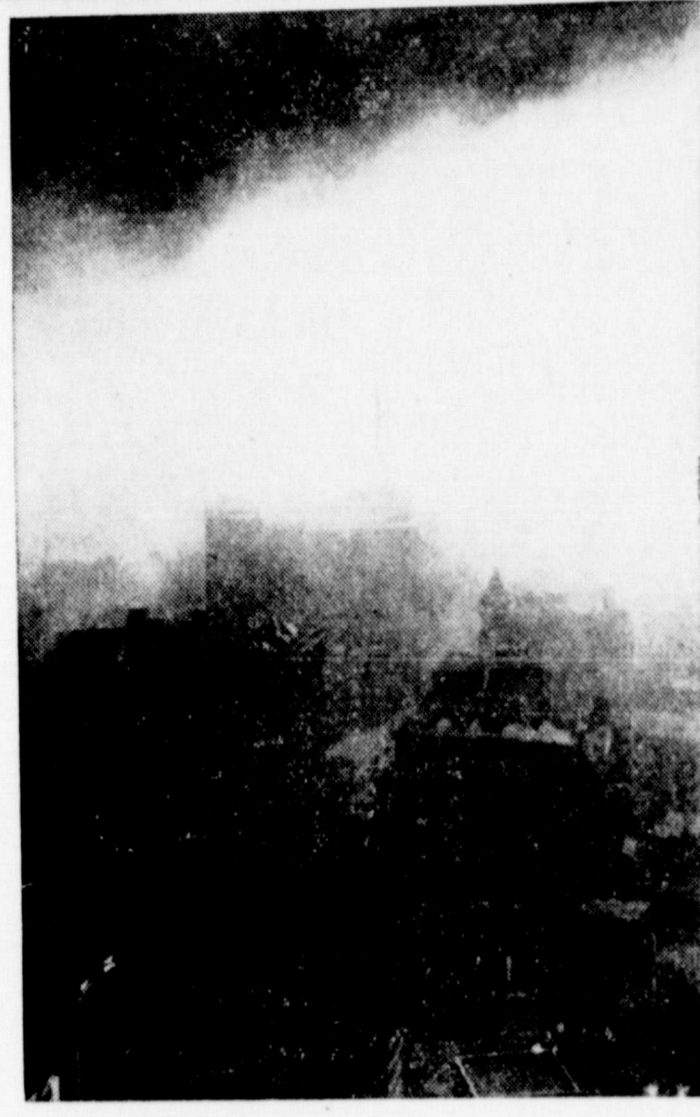

It was one of the passengers—Augusto J. Senna, of New Bedford, Mass., who saw the first torpedo fired without warning about noon. Senna yelled a warning and Chief Mate J. L. Splane, of Worcester, Mass., sounded a general alarm. The torpedo missed and the ship began zig-zagging.

The alarm caused little concern because practice alarms previously had been sounded. Ten minutes after the first torpedo missed, the U-boat surfaced and began firing shells from a five-inch and a three-inch gun.

Capt. Y. A. Krantz, of New Orleans, turned the ship's stern to the sub and tried to escape, but the undersize raider gave chase and fired again and again. A shell knocked the rudder out of commission and the captain ordered "Abandon ship."

The crew and passengers took to two rafts and a lifeboat. The submarine put a torpedo into the merchantman and the ship began sinking.

Survivors said the U-boat crew lined up on deck to watch the ship go down. A deeply-tanned man on the sub, stripped to the waist shouted in perfect English: "Sorry we can't help you. Hope you get ashore."

CLEVELAND "SMOKE-OUT"—Here's how Cleveland looked during its first trial "smoke-out" when industrial plants poured smoke over city. Experts pronounced test a success.

MAKING OF MOTHERS OF MEN.

When they come to our homes
A scepter they hold
And their tiny we heads wear a crown.
Then in meek adoration
Before their we shrine
Our heart humbly bows it's self down.

Then on through the years,
We fathers of girls,
Shape thinking and acting as well
In the hope that these Queens
Will believe they were sired
By dads' most as perfect as God.

The rest of the world
May judge as it will;
But it's the Queens of our home
That inspire us to be
What a sire should be
For the MAKING OF MOTHERS OF MEN.

MASCOT TIPPY VISITS CLINIC VIA AIRPLANE

It was a sad day at Cisco airport Friday, according to Charles Roberts, one of the guards on duty there. Tippy, the little dog mascot, whose picture is to appear in Ripley's "Believe It or Not," soon, as the only dog in the world that gives students their solo test—giving them their "Go Ahead" signal by a lick on the back of their necks before landing if they are good—was sick—and something had to be done about it, and right now.

Tippy is the friend of everybody at the airport. He is one of those personality dogs that make friends with everybody.

It has become a tradition that no student will start his solo flight when his training has advanced to that stage without the little white dog going up in the plane with him to give his okeh to the kind of flying done on the flight. Students declare Tippy licks them on the back of the neck if they are good. If they fail to get his "lick" of approval, they won't land, but soar above for another trial.

And so Tippy was sick. Jack Lauderdale as pilot and Mrs. Lauderdale as nurse volunteered to take poor Tippy to the nearest dog specialist, which was at Ranger. The trip was made to the Ranger landing field and Tippy received the clinic inspection and proper shots. The return trip was made in safety and the ship and patient welcomed back to the airport by students and guards, who hope their little friend will soon be well and on the inspection job again.
