THOUGH BORN IN GOOD OLD U. S. A., DR. GROS TOOK EASY MONEY FROM COUNTRY'S ENEMY

LOS ANGELES, June 3. -- Minneapolis-born Dr. Hans Helmut Gros admitted in a purported confession read at his federal court trial that he was employed at $200 a month, plus a 20,000-mark bonus, as a German intelligence agent with the rank of captain.

But he said he never worked very hard at the job.

Dr. Gros related in the confession that the recently wounded Reinhard Heydrich, No. 2 man of the German Gestapo and his former schoolmate in Saxonia, had instructed him to:

"Organize sabotage, the blowing up of ships, industrial plants and such things.

"Take photographs of harbors and military objectives.

"Furnish information on persons who might be contacted to create strikes."

He said an uncle, Maj. Hans Hebert of the German military intelligence, who got him the job, asked him to:

"Contact John L. Lewis, leader of the CIO, and Harry Bridges, Pacific coast labor leader, to ascertain their attitude on labor problems and their political philosophies and to attempt to make them useful to Germany, if possible.

"Represent the military intelligence of Germany in co-operation with the Japanese intelligence department on the west coast."

But he had no intention of doing

HUDSON MEETS TRUCK

A somewhat serious wreck occurred this morning at just past 1 o'clock, a little more than a mile north of Lake Cisco on highway 23. When a Hudson auto driven by two soldiers from Camp Bowie collided with a Chevrolet ice truck driven by Herb Sherman of Moran.

The soldiers are First Class Pvt. James W. Martin, of Vale, N. C., and Corporal Everett Cooper of Kernersville, N. C. Both have more or less serious head injuries, and are at Graham sanitarium, where they were taken by ambulances furnished by Green Funeral Home and Neil Lane Funeral Parlor.

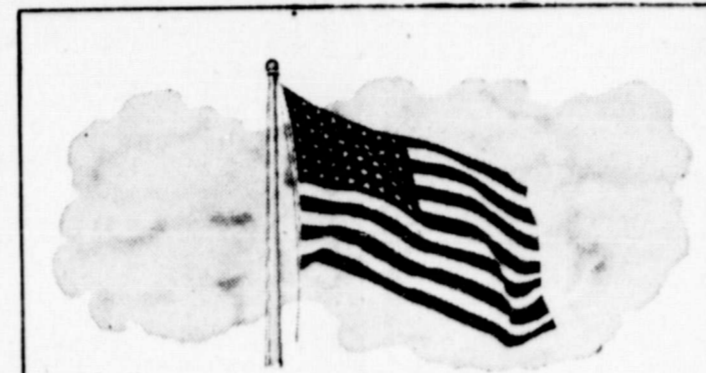

The Hudson belonged to R. C. Cherry of Dallas, who was visiting friends in Brownwood and loaned the car to the soldiers, it was stated by Cisco police who contacted Mr. Cherry by telephone.

Herb Sherman, who hauls ice from the West Texas Utilities plant here to Moran, where he lives, loaded out here at 12:45 with his Chevrolet pickup.

He had gone on to Moran when the police arrived at the scene of the wreck and the extent of his injuries, if any, were not learned.

PECAN WORK DEMONSTRATION, JUNE 5

J. W. Price, pecan specialist of the U. S. department of agriculture, will give a pecan budding and grafting demonstration, and will also give the latest information on pecan work, including in-lay budding and grafting, at the following places and hours on June 5:

A PLEDGE FOR AMERICANS

I am a citizen of the oldest republic in existence. I am proud of it. I take pride in being a free citizen in a free society, but I know that the priceless blessing of liberty is not a heritage, but is won afresh or lost by each generation. I therefore pledge myself to all those Americans who have gone before me and to all those who will come after me to do my part and to pass on this Freedom. I will listen to no idle rumors. I will repeat no destructive gossip. I will support loyally and in friendship all the United Nations who are joined with us in this righteous compact to defeat the Axis powers. I know my country must win this war, and I will conduct myself as if I alone bore the responsibility for the victory of Democracy. In the words of a soldier of other days, "I will work, I will save, I will sacrifice, I will endure, I will fight cheerfully and do my utmost as if the issue of the whole struggle depended on me alone." I dedicate my self to this cause. I swear that to win it, I will make any sacrifice, however great, and perform any task, however humble. So help me, God!

GUARDS MEET FRIDAY NIGHT AT THE PARK

Cisco Defense Guards will meet Friday nights at 7:50 o'clock hereafter, instead of on Thursday nights.

The change was made in the hope that the new date would be more convenient to members who have heretofore failed to be present because of other engagements.

"The attendance," said an officer today, "is not at all what it ought to be if one looks at it from a patriotic standpoint. What we can do about it is yet undetermined. Certain it is, however, that Cisco MUST make a better showing in this respect than has yet been made."

This week's meeting will be held at the football park, as usual and all who have uniforms are asked to wear them. If you do not have a uniform, come along anyhow.

Remember, Friday night at 7:50 --football park.

LIONS MAKE TALKS ABOUT THEMSELVES

In default of a regular program at the Lions luncheon today, President Stamey continued the classification talks from last week, except that this week, someone else made the talk for him instead of allowing the member called on to make it. This of course afforded amusement.

SERVING HUNDRED KIDDIES

The cooperative daily vacation Bible school, sponsored by the Christian, Methodist and Presbyterian churches, is going over in a big way, with more than a hundred happy children in attendance and twenty-five trained workers in charge.

The program begins at 9 o'clock each morning and includes study, worship, work projects, recreation, dramatization, stories, discussions, music and junior voice training.

"If parents could realize the good a child obtains from this school," said one worker, "they would have their children attend each day. All children of Cisco are invited."

Miss Ruby McDurmon is general superintendent and is assisted by the following teachers and helpers: Mrs. Jimmie Allen, Mrs. P. R. Warwick, Mrs. C. E. Paul, Mrs. Troy Powell, Miss Julia Jane Cannon, Mrs. A. E. Jamison, Mrs. Bob Sanford, Mrs. Homer Slicker, Miss Lillian Shertzer, Miss Marie Winston, Mrs. John Jones, Miss Doris Jamison, Mrs. B. S. RECEIVES SPECIAL COURSE

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Lawson have received word from their son Victor Lawson in Buffalo, New York that he has completed a 15-day factory course in servicing the Curtis-Wright P-40-E and P-40-F fighter planes and has been sent to the army air field at Boston.

AIR RAID WARDEN MEET

Homer Ferguson, chief air warden, called the second meeting of this organization to order at city hall last night and presided over a very interesting session at which some thirty citizens were present.

M. L. Perdue, police chief, again went into details in outlining the purposes of the organization and the duties of its members. Mr. Perdue, who is the best posted man in Cisco on this subject, also stressed the many ways in which the public is expected to work with the air wardens.

Federal air raid instructions in pamphlet form were distributed to those present last night and will be circulated generally over the city. These instructions were printed in the Daily Press in the issue of Tuesday, May 26. Mr. Ferguson emphasized the importance of careful study of the instructions by all citizens.

Zone wardens, of which there are eight, will meet with their aides at such times as is deemed necessary by the individual wardens, but hereafter there will probably be but one general meeting each month.

Those present at last night's meeting included the following men: Homer Ferguson, R. L. Ponsler, C. M. Nevill, Joe Britain, James T. Moore, Rev. J. R. Wright, W. W. Milner, C. E. Hickman, J. W. Slaughter, W. E. Dean, J. H. Reynolds, R. W. Merket, M. L. Perdue, J. E. Caffrey, John H. Kleiner, W. B. Statham, H. C. Brown, George Boyd, Thomas H. Lee, E. F. Bender, J. I. Taylor, C. J. White, E. D. Lavender, Melvin Travis, Edgar Johnson, H. R. Garrett, Shobal Houston, Terry Johnson.

SOIL MUST BE KEPT UP FOR PAYING CROPS

Joe Bridges of the Rising Star farming sector is convinced that commercial fertilizer when rightly applied, pays big dividends. He has about five tomato vines on which he used acid phosphate, that are now loaded with fruit almost grown, while other vines not so treated, are blooming along with no fruit set yet.

He is getting ready to apply it to the rest of his crop now that he finds by actual experience that it pays.

Mr. Bridges said his land was very rich and the heavy rains made his plants grow to enormous proportions but did not fruit. He had heard that acid phosphate would make plants fruit and thought he would try it and see for himself.

"I find a great deal of joy in trying to grow a little better crop each year, and in that way my work is play rather than drudgery," Mr. Bridges said. "From now on I am going to use fertilizer if I can find out just the kind I need," he added. However, he said that one must be very careful not to get this fertilizer on the plants or they will die. Sprinkle in the middle of the row which must be worked up well, and then apply water. If one can't water the plants, then be sure to cover the fertilizer up with soil to keep from blowing away, he said.

HORDE OF CANDIDATES HANKER FOR OFFICE; SHARPEN PENCIL AND START WEEDING THEM OUT

James P. Alexander, seeking re-election as chief justice of the state supreme court, was the only unopposed candidate for the July 25 primary in a list released by the Texas Democratic executive committee office Tuesday.

Before the Monday midnight deadline for filings opposition developed for Attorney General Mann and L. A. Woods, superintendent of public instruction, both seeking return to those offices.

Jim F. Hair, 65, Travis county attorney at law, entered the race against the 35-year-old Mann and Woods, who is 58, had opposing him Charles J. Tergerson, 38, Harris county school teacher.

The lieutenant governor's race drew nine candidates, top number entered for any of the 12 offices listed by the committee.

There were four candidates for United States senator, including incumbent W. Lee O'Daniel; six seeking the governorship, including Governor Stevenson; five in the race for state treasurer, and four seeking the post of commissioner of agriculture.

An unusual situation for the state Democratic executive committee to consider when it meets in Austin Monday developed when James E. Kilday of Houston filed as a candidate for a railroad commission post from which the incumbent, Jerry Sadler, resigned to enter the army.

Kilday's filing was received in proper form at the office of state Democratic Chairman E. B. Germany in Dallas Tuesday, with the envelope postmarked June 1, but on advice of attorneys Mrs. Eleanor Starr, secretary to Germany, held up its acceptance. Germany is in Washington.

Apparently the question to be decided by the state committee will be whether a vacancy existed for which Kilday could file.

Sadler announced Tuesday that he had tendered his resignation to Governor Stevenson effective at 4 p. m. and that he had recommended Kilday, currently director of the commission's motor transportation division, for appointment as his successor.

Ernest O. Thompson, railroad commission incumbent, had opposing him Lester Boone, 36, a Tarrant county attorney.

As announced by Germany's office, the complete list, unless there are other valid applications in the mails, included:

- For United States Senator: Dan Moody, attorney, Travis county, 48. James V. Allred, attorney, Harris county, 43. W. Lee O'Daniel, United States Senator, Tarrant county, 52. Floyd E. Ryan, attorney, Harris county, 32. For Governor: Coke R. Stevenson, Governor of Texas, Kimble county, 54. Gene S. Porter, general insurance, Bell county, 35. A Hope Wheeler, newspaper editor, Tarrant county, 62. Charles Lavergne Somerville, law school operator, Dallas county, 48. Hal H. Collins, businessman, Palo Pinto county, 48. Alex. M. Ferguson breeder of field seeds, Grayson county, 68. For Lieutenant Governor: Vernon Lemens, attorney, Ellis county, 41. Harold Beck, attorney, Bowie county, 42. John Lee Smith, attorney, Throckmorton county, 47. Virgil E. Arnold, attorney, Harris county, 60. Doss Hardin, attorney, Dallas county, 31. Alton M. Mead, businessman, Cameron county, 67. J. Dixie Smith, attorney, Harris county, 63. Boyce House, newspaperman, Tarrant county, 45. Arthur R. Miller, wholesale produce business Dallas county, 34. For Comptroller of Public Accounts: George H. Sheppard, Comptroller of Public Accounts, 34.

TEACHERS SHORTAGE

The University of California has sent 225 teachers into the country's armed forces. Other colleges and universities are presumably doing as much in proportion. As few educational institutions have more teachers than they need, evidently a shortage is developing which will soon demand attention.

Obviously the teachers who are left will be made to work harder. Classes will be increased and hours lengthened. Such a procedure is the first thing thought of by administrators. Only when this fails to solve the problem are they apt to seek elsewhere.

Equally easy to foretell is the omission of many courses, admittedly desirable but not absolutely necessary for winning the war.

But even after all this is done, a large problem will remain. There will still be vacancies to be filled, and it is women who will fill them. The American male's hold on educational positions has always been precarious. It will soon be even more so. Women are likely to be pretty well entrenched in our colleges and universities, just as they have been in the schools. They do plenty of good work, but practically all educators agree that there are too many of them.

Other countries have been shocked to see us turn almost the entire school system over to women. They call it "selling schools to the lowest bidder." Good or bad, that is probably what we are going to do with many of our colleges.

It's time now for Uncle Sam to make a couple of touchdowns, and nobody cares whether it's through the line or around the end.

INVENTORS

Now is the time, if ever, to encourage inventions. This makes particularly praiseworthy the project of the American Hobby Federation, which will sponsor an inventor's exposition in New York, starting June 1.

No doubt there will be some perpetual motion machines and perhaps schemes for making explosives out of used chewing-gum; but something worth while is likely to come out. A previous exposition resulted in a number of exhibitors marketing their inventions. Young America is ingenious, and a little encouragement like that offered by this exposition will bring out its resourcefulness. After all, not all the brains in the country are in government service or the great private research laboratories.

"Sharing the ride" is fine, but not always possible; better learn to walk again, just in case.

PLENTY OF PAPER

For a time there was a paper scare. Newspapers were concerned as to whether they could get enough newsprint to carry through 1942. Index cards, cover papers, all sorts of paper were soaring in price. Users were really disturbed. Now the situation has shaken down somewhat and a clearer picture emerges. There is enough newsprint for all newspapers. It costs more than last year, and the increase is a heavy tax on the budget. But the paper exists and will be adequate in quantity. The price will go no higher.

The same thing is true in other lines which use paper. A mill in Glens Falls, N. Y., reports that it has not been working to capacity. It could make more with more orders. A printer says the scare has subsided. Good papers are available for all normal uses.

There is no paper to waste, and it should be used carefully. Then it should be saved and given to proper authorities. Some of the used paper is chopped into confetti and used to pack breakable parts to go overseas. Other kinds are put through a mill again and turned into cardboard cartons used to pack munitions and airplane parts. Packing rooms are always hungry for more packing material. So it is all right to use what is needed. Then save it and let it be used again.

SPREADING WAR WORK

It is right and wise for Congress to help small industries as it is now doing. Current legislation requires government war agencies to see that they get war contracts, and also lends them funds to handle such work. The House vote for such action was unanimous. There is a fund of $200,000,000, provided as working capital and loans, to convert the plants to war production.

It may be argued that the work could be handled by the big factories, and in some cases to better advantage. There is reason to doubt this. But even if it were true, it would be wise to spread the work around the country as fully as possible, providing employment and industrial opportunity in the smaller communities. Such widespread distribution of the war production load will support and preserve such communities, while it also makes an impressive contribution to the total war job.

It is rumored that the Japanese command has also dispatched a strong force to locate and destroy Shangri-La.

ARMY SILVER

There's some style about army mess now. The soldiers are not only getting good meals but eating on silver. This metal is so plentiful that the government, which is under legal obligation to keep on buying the current production, can't get it into circulation, is using it to plate the army eating tools. The chromium, formerly used for that purpose, is thus freed for military use.

Why not extend the use of this precious metal farther by using silver bullets? People once thought there was magic potency in them.

The program was on "International Good-Will" and roll call responses were capital cities of South America. The thought for the day, in the Year Book was, "Treat every one with friendliness—injure no one." During the business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Charles McFatter, it was voted unanimously that letters and cards should be written, individually and collectively, to our Senators and representatives in congress in protest against the gasoline rationing in oil producing states. The drive for U. S. O. funds was presented by Mrs. W. H. Davis and Mrs. W. C. Bedford and each one presented made a small donation. It was voted that the club should try to secure a group of radio artists to put on an entertainment for that worth-while cause. The program leader was Mrs. H. B. EVERY CANADIAN IS FIGHTING

Passed by Censor

THE power and precision with which the roller heads a steel plate into a perfect circle to make a depth charge reflects the spirit of Canada's war program. It will be closed at both ends, waterproofed and filled with high explosives, to be loaded aboard a ship of the Royal Canadian Navy engaged in ridding the Atlantic waters of Nazi submarines. With the growing need for manpower in the armed services, war industries and agriculture, Canada's new selective service policy is directing workers in "non-essential" categories into war work as curtailment and restrictions on civilian goods make an increasing number of workers available. In the next year 200,000 volunteers will be required for the armed services; thousands will be called up for compulsory military service and 100,000 men and women must be found for war industries. Recognizing the need for maintaining farm production, the government has granted indefinite postponement of military service for agricultural workers. They may enlist as volunteers in the armed forces but must not accept non-agricultural work without special permission. Training center and placement services have been established to introduce more women into war industry and transportation may be arranged to an area where women workers are required. Men fit for military service between 17 and 45 years are barred from accepting employment in a long list of restricted occupations which include almost every civilian job not connected with war work. Every Canadian is affected in some measure by the regulations.

past three weeks with her mother Mrs. J. E. Derrick, who has been seriously ill. Her nephew little Johnny McEntire went home with her.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. McKain left Monday for Gladewater to visit their son, Harry McKain. Their daughter, Miss Colleen McKain who had been at home a few days between sessions at Texas State College for Women, went with them and will go from there on to Denton to college.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Riddell and son, Bill, one of the graduates of Desdemona High School of this year, enjoyed a week-end visit from a nephew of Mr. Riddell—a soldier at Camp Barkeley—recently transferred there from a camp in Wyoming and whose home is in Oregon. We regret not finding out the young man's name.

DEFENDER OF A FAITH

In the Middle Ages, they were called Crusaders --- those defenders of the right. Today, they're doughboys, and they fight with guns, planes and tanks instead of with swords, horses and armour. But they're only superficially different, for the significant fact still remains --- Right still finds defenders! There still are people --- now as hundreds of years ago --- with the courage and vision that it takes to defend the Right. We at the Cisco Daily Press are proud of the boys in camp and of the reasons they're there --- just as you parents are. And we're not only proud, we're interested just as you are. That's one reason why you find such complete news coverage in your paper of the activities of the boys in camp.

BRING US THE NEWS ABOUT YOUR SOLDIER BOY WHEN YOU HEAR FROM HIM

--- In camp or in the far islands of the seas. His friends will like to read about him, also. Many Cisco people are sending the Cisco Daily Press to their soldier boy --- some in South and Central America --- Others go to remote parts of the world, and letters from these boys say there is nothing like this news from home. Better put him on the mailing list today --- The charge is very little.

Smith-Kinard Marriage Rites Held Monday

Monday afternoon at the First Christian parsonage, Miss Alma Ruth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Smith, became the bride of Sgt. Garland Kinard, Jr., of Camp Bowie. Rev. J. R. Wright officiated in the single ring ceremony.

The bride wore a navy blue sheer dress with white accessories. She carried a bouquet of gladioli and various hued sweet peas. For something old, she wore a string of pearls belonging to her mother-in-law, which have been in the family for a great many years.

Those attending the ceremony were Mrs. Bob Rogers, Miss Gertrude Kinard, Miss Gladys Kinard, Mrs. George Groseclose and the bride's mother, Mrs. I. D. Smith. Sergeant Kinard is in the hospital corps. The Camp Bowie bakery division sent a beautifully decorated cake to the couple and a small reception was held at the bride's home following the ceremony.

After a short honeymoon the couple will be at home in Brownwood.

Savory Creole Sauce for Grilled Chopped Steak by Dorothy Greig

THIS is the type of dish that always delights me because it shows how a Cinderella food, like meat patties, can be transformed into a Princess dish. In this case, the sauce works the magic. It's a very special sauce.

made of condensed tomato soup, seasoned with onion, garlic, pimiento and tasty pieces of ham. Make one big meat patty, set it on a platter, surround it with this sauce and serve proudly.

Delicious Creole Sauce:

- 1 medium onion, diced
2 cloves garlic, chopped very finely
1 pimiento, diced
1/2 cup uncooked ham (cut in small dice)
2 tablespoons cooking oil or fat
1 can condensed tomato soup
1/2 cup water
2 teaspoons sugar

Sauté the very finely chopped garlic, diced onion, diced ham, and diced pimiento in the cooking oil or fat 10-12 minutes until onions are soft and transparent. Then add tomato soup and water, cover and simmer 1/4 hour. Add sugar just before removing from fire. Makes 1 1/2 cups sauce.

Grilled Chopped Steak

- 3/4 pound ground beef
1 tablespoon parsley, chopped
1 tablespoon onion, chopped
1/2 teaspoon salt
Pinch of pepper
Shape into large steak or flat cakes about 1 inch thick and broil. If meat is dry turn as soon as seared and spread with butter. When finished serve with "Delicious Creole Sauce."
Serves two ravenous souls or four reducers.

CANADA KEEPS 'EM FLYING

REPAIRING an engine nacelle of a four-cylinder framework in one of Canada's 39 aircraft overhaul plants, this girl is employed in a program which keeps the ships of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan flying every day. At the peak it is planned to overhaul about 19,000 planes annually. The Canadian aircraft industry employs more than 40,000 workers and is turning out well over 3,000 planes annually. In order to match Canadian production on a pro-rata population basis the United States would have to produce about 35,000 planes yearly. Canada has spent more than $291,000,000 on aircraft, not including an additional large sum provided by the government as capital assistance to aircraft manufacturers.

Passed by Canada every country in the Empire under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan.

many, dropped incendiary and explosive bombs into great factory areas still completely shrouded by smoke. Fourteen planes failed to return, against 35 lost the night before. But the smoke and ground haze, so thick that observation was difficult, hindered German anti-aircraft fire and it was believed the loss ratio was probably lower than in any of the three raids so far in the new offensive which is aimed at smashing German industrial centers one by one.

Watches along the English coast heard the bombers returning before dawn, and it was more than an hour before all had passed over.

While the main force of British planes concentrated on the Ruhr, others bombed Northern France, especially the Cape Gris Nez coastal area. A huge fire could be seen from the English coast.

Maintaining the round the clock pace of raids, strong forces of bombing and fighter planes raced over the southeast coast shortly after noon (5 a. m. CWT) to attack objectives in northern occupied France.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Aside from the sixty-mile an hour Mosquito Torpedo Boats, the Sub Chasers are the real stars of our Navy. Light and fast, they are the eyes of the Fleet on the water. They displace approximately 1,500 tons and cost about $2,400,000 each.

We need many of these powerful, fast little boats to cope with the treacherous submarine type of naval warfare fostered by our enemies. Everybody can help pay for more Sub Chasers by putting at least ten percent of his income into War Bonds. Buy Bonds or Stamps every pay day. Buy them from your bank, your post office, or from your office or factory through the Payroll Savings Plan.

WICHITA FALLS, June 3.—James V. Allred opened his campaign for the senate Tuesday night with a promise to the Texas electorate "to explode the myth that W. Lee O'Daniel can not be defeated" by citing additional chapters from the junior senator's record.

"The Book of O'Daniel." Chapter 1 he titled "O'Daniel the isolationist" and after sharply criticizing his opponent's vote against extension of the Selective Service Act, he departed from the text of a radio address to assert:

"If three more votes in each county had been cast against O'Daniel in the last election he would have been beaten even with a long count.

"They're telling us that the people are not interested in the election but don't forget, we're electing a war senator. We can, with 50 people working at it in each county, explode the myth that W. Lee O'Daniel can not be defeated. That's the myth Hitler used before conquering each subjected nation."

In a stinging scriptural political indictment of O'Daniel, Allred said that the junior senator:

"Held on to the office of governor and used its power and prestige to catapult himself into the United States senate;

"Is unable to get things done; "Is isolationist in philosophy; "Aligned himself immediately upon his arrival at Washington with obstructionists;

"Has not the foresight or the background to contribute to the winning of the war, the writing of the peace, or to deal with the problems of readjustment and reconstruction."

Allred, who did not mention even by inference his other opponent, Dan Moody, said he got into the race for patriotic reasons and pledged additional revelations from the "Book of O'Daniel" as the campaign progresses.

RUPPERT HAS PICTURE OF BOMBED BRIDGE

Twenty-three years ago George Ruppert, Cisco baker, was a soldier in Uncle Sam's army and was in France when the Armistice was signed. Being in Paris one day, he decided to secure a permit and visit points of interest in Germany, and especially the beautiful and historic city of Cologne.

Upon reaching Cologne he was so impressed with the picture-queeness of the city and the country surrounding it that he took numerous pictures of scenes that appealed to him.

Last Sunday's Dallas News carried a picture of the Hohenzollern bridge that spanned the river Rhine at Cologne, and which is said to have been completely wrecked by RAF bombs last Saturday night. Ruppert instantly remembered that he had photographed the bridge and a search through his war pictures brought the photo to light. Examination revealed that both pictures had been taken from the same point and hence were exactly alike.

BIRTH CONTROL BAN IS UPHELD SECOND TIME

HARTFORD, Conn., June 3.—Upholding Connecticut's 63-year-old anti-birth control law for the second time in two years, the state supreme court ruled in a 3-2 decision Wednesday that it was illegal for a physician to advise a married woman to use contraceptives even when bearing a child might cost her life.

The case arose from a request by Dr. Wilder Tileston of Yale medical faculty for a judgment as to whether it prohibits a licensed physician from prescribing contraceptives for married women in pregnancy would endanger health and, if so, whether law is constitutional.

Both prescribing and the use of them to prevent conception, are criminal offenses under Connecticut law, but a physician can perform an abortion on a married woman necessary to save her life.

When the court first ruled in 1940 in a case arising out of a Waterbury health center, also by a 3-2 vote, the question of whether it was illegal to prescribe contraceptives in order to save life involved.

Dr. Tileston brought his case to the 1941 legislature, the bitterest floor fight session, refused to amend

YOU CAN HELP

By getting information about the new schedules before you travel—taking as little baggage as possible—traveling before or after the mid-summer rush period—taking your trip on mid-week days, leaving seats on weekends for soldiers and war workers.

Conservation of rubber is all-important—and Greyhound is taking every possible step to increase the big savings already effected. Today buses use only a fraction as much rubber as private cars per passenger, per mile—and they average more than 40,000 miles per tire.

We hope that these war-time changes will not cause you inconvenience, crowding or delay. But if you don't find travel as comfortable and easy as in normal times, please make allowances! The war effort comes first with Greyhound as it does with you!

With increased service demanded for war production areas—and little increase in buses available—it is necessary to divert equipment to routes where it is most needed.

Many peace-time features are discontinued. Operating speeds are somewhat reduced. Express and Limited schedules are eliminated entirely. Second sections of regular schedules are being eliminated unless the buses carry a sufficient number of passengers.

BRITISH BOMBS KEEP FIRES IN RUHR BURNING
LONDON, June 3.—Hundreds of giant bombers returned to the smoking German Ruhr during the night, in the third devastating raid in four days, and dropped bombs into fires still raging from the 1036 plane attack of the night before.
The British raiders did not total in four figures as they had Saturday and Monday nights, but "hundreds" swept over Essen, home of the Krupp armament works and other towns in the heart of industrial western Ger-

Eastland County and adjacent counties can now patronize a home business college, thus saving rubber, gasoline and transportation costs. "Victory Business College" is now open at Eastland and day and night classes are being conducted. The school is in charge of a successful, experienced business college man.
Instruction is offered in STENOGRAPHIC, SECRETARIAL and ACCOUNTING courses. GREG SHORTHAND, TOUCH TYPING and COLLEGE ACCOUNTING are offered. The head teacher has developed a plan all his own for streamlining the shorthand course during the war emergency. He can develop a stenographer in six months day school course. Special stress is placed on training for civil service examinations. The management now has pupils in Civil Service employment in Washington, D. C., Austin, Texas and Waco, Texas, as well as other points, to say nothing of many ex-students commercially employed in various cities.
Please do not write, but visit school in person for full information as to courses of study and tuition fees.

WARTIME NEEDS
CHANGE GREYHOUND SCHEDULES EFFECTIVE JUNE 7th
(Call Agent for Detailed Schedule Information)
Greyhound buses will operate on new war-time schedules. This change in service is being made in order to cooperate to the fullest extent with the war-time plans of the Office of Defense Transportation. The purpose is to make every bus work full time—keeping vital traffic on the move.
America's war program has the right of way! The great majority of the people Greyhound is carrying today and intends to carry efficiently are selectees traveling to examination centers, fighting men on leave or furlough, war workers moving to their jobs, businessmen traveling on essential work. The trips they take are necessary to keep the war program rolling.
With increased service demanded for war production areas—and little increase in buses available—it is necessary to divert equipment to routes where it is most needed.
Many peace-time features are discontinued. Operating speeds are somewhat reduced. Express and Limited schedules are eliminated entirely. Second sections of regular schedules are being eliminated unless the buses carry a sufficient number of passengers.
Conservation of rubber is all-important—and Greyhound is taking every possible step to increase the big savings already effected. Today buses use only a fraction as much rubber as private cars per passenger, per mile—and they average more than 40,000 miles per tire.
We hope that these war-time changes will not cause you inconvenience, crowding or delay. But if you don't find travel as comfortable and easy as in normal times, please make allowances! The war effort comes first with Greyhound as it does with you!
YOU CAN HELP
By getting information about the new schedules before you travel—taking as little baggage as possible—traveling before or after the mid-summer rush period—taking your trip on mid-week days, leaving seats on weekends for soldiers and war workers.
