MEN, FOOD AND MONEY WILL WIN THE WAR

MORRIS MISSING

Mrs. Fannie Agnew W. Twelfth street received official information that her son, Morris, 22, has been missing since the fall of Java. Morris joined the armed forces at Fort Worth in 1941 and was assigned to the 36th Cavalry, which trained at Camp Bowie. He attended Cisco public schools and was employed at Edwards super service station at one time. Mr. Agnew says he was a fine and popular with service station pub-

AMERICA AND RUSSIA WORK HAND IN HAND

WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Roosevelt and Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, the white house announced today, have reached a full understanding in conversations in Washington with regard to the urgent tasks of creating a second front in Europe in 1942. The white house in a formal statement disclosing that Molotov had visited this country, gave no additional details on a second front. Nor did the statement say whether the agreement was to open such a front or not to do so. Another momentous development announced today, in London, was that Russia and Britain had signed a 20-year mutual assistance treaty. The American president and the Russian commissar, the white house said, also attained a "unity" of views on two other vital questions pertaining to their war efforts: "Measures for increasing and speeding up the supplies of planes, tanks and other kinds of war materials from the United States to Russia, and the 'fundamental' problems of co-operation of the Soviet Union and the United States in safeguarding peace and security to the freedom-loving peoples after the war."

4 MACS ANSWER US. CALL

Sgt. Alfred B. McCorkle of the Fifth cavalry brigade, Ft. Bliss, is enjoying a pleasant visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCorkle, of the Nimrod community. He is enroute to Camp Forrest, Tenn. Also at home on a furlough is another son, Q. G. McCorkle of the army air corps base, Columbia, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle have just received a letter from a third son, David D. McCorkle, a gunner's mate of the first class, who wrote that he was OK, but "very busy." A fourth son, Sgt. Charles C. McCorkle, attached to the First cavalry brigade, died in the service on August 29, 1941. In a communication to the Cisco Daily Press Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle made this patriotic statement: "Our sons all volunteered for service in the United States army, of which we are very proud. We are full-blooded Americans and don't want to be driven or drafted into service when our country needs us."

Her horse is Dunny, her father's favorite cutting horse.

CALCUTTA POOL FRIDAY

At a meeting of Cisco Country club officers, golfers and directors -- Tuesday night -- it was announced that everything is in readiness for the invitation golf tournament to begin with a Calcutta pool and barbecue Friday night of this week. Qualifying scores will be posted Friday and play begins Saturday. Finals will be played Sunday. Greens and grounds have been carefully worked and were never in better condition, J. L. Thornton, chairman of arrangements, announced after painstaking scrutiny. Nothing has been left undone to make this one of the best tournaments ever held here or elsewhere in the Oil Belt. Large attendance is expected, golfers from Eastland, Ranger, Breckenridge, Albany, Abilene, Baird, Philpoco and other surrounding towns having been invited. R. L. Ponsler is president of the Country club and Norman C. Huston is secretary.

CYRUS B. FROST, IN ELOQUENT APPEAL TO PUBLIC, TOLD ROTARIANS WHY BONDS MUST BE SOLD

Lonnie Shockley had charge of the Rotary dinner program today and called on T. J. McCarty, Cisco chairman of the War Stamp and Bond drive, to introduce the speaker, Judge Cyrus B. Frost, Eastland county chairman of the drives now being made from month to month. Judge Frost began his talk by saying that with all the modern facilities for news gathering and dissemination, it was seldom that one could really tell his audience anything new. He prefaced his remarks by saying we must win the war and there are three things necessary to clinch victory -- Men, Food and Money. "We have been gathering a wonderful army, and we have also been able to gather plenty of food, but now we are needing money -- many billions -- with which to pay this army and to equip them with fighting materials. We have already placed on the barrel head some 50 billions and must raise 200 billions more according to present plans -- and this may be increased," declared the speaker. "We must now raise one billion per month for the remainder of the year, which is one-tenth of the 10 billion to be raised for this year," Judge Frost continued. "It is much better to raise this money voluntarily and buy bonds which will draw interest and pay back original principal in 10 years than to pay it through taxation and get no returns," the judge said. The eloquent speaker said he was embarrassed by some changes that had been made through what looked like cheap politics. He said he had announced the first of the week that we were probably over the top with our allotment for Eastland county, inasmuch as we had $58,000 pledged and he thought there would be enough bought by Eastland county citizens -- out of the county -- to put us safely over. But now it has been ruled that bonds bought in other counties by citizens of Eastland county would be credited to those counties rather than to Eastland county. This leaves us below our quota, the speaker said. Frost urged that all citizens fill out their pledge cards at the voting boxes Saturday, June 20, stating the amount of bonds they would pledge to buy each month. Mr. Frost gave full credit to the press of the county in cooperating with him in his work. He threw an especially flowery bouquet to the Cisco Daily Press by saying it had gone much further with publicity than had other papers of his district. It had gone THE WHOLE WAY, he emphasized. Judge Frost ended his unusually impressive speech by urging that we as voters take care that in winning the war we do not lose the peace. He meant by that: We must elect men to important offices that stand for great principals -- "do not vote for a neighbor or a friend just because you like him, or for some fancied obligation, when you know that he is perhaps playing to popularity, rather than standing for statesmanship, he shouted. "Statesmen are needed -- not just likeable men -- to settle this matter of peace when the war is ended," Frost declared. Judge Frost was given an unusually hearty endorsement and all expressed their appreciation of his timely talk. Other visitors present were Joe Johns and N. W. McCormick of Abilene and Rev. J. D. Barron of Eastland.

JAP LOSS IN PACIFIC WATERS GROWS

U. S. AIR CORPS, Hawaii, June 11.—American airmen told today the story of the battle of Midway in which they dumped high explosives "smack on the nose" of Japanese aircraft carriers and utterly smashed an enemy invasion fleet unofficially estimated at more than 50 warships of all types. A high percentage—probably more than 90 per cent—of the Japanese airplanes launched in the enemy's carefully laid and powerfully prosecuted attempt to capture Midway was lost, according to reliable unofficial estimates. Japanese loss of life was estimated as high as 10,000 in connection with the sinking or damaging of perhaps 18 of their vessels. The story of the heroic defense of Midway by the U. S. Marines against hundreds of Japanese planes and of the Navy's detection, far out to sea, of the great Japanese fleet and its relentless attacks on it by plane, submarine and surface ship, is yet to come. Army pilots alone, in Flying Fortresses and Consolidated PBV bombers, severely damaged a heavy cruiser or a battleship, scored direct hits on a large transport and probably sank a destroyer in the first day of their attack. On the second day they carried direct hits on three large carriers and a heavy cruiser and downed three or four Japanese planes. The Army's own losses were only two medium bombers. "The Navy found the enemy," Brig. Gen. Willis H. Hale, chief of bombing operations of the Hawaii department, said today. "The Army, the Navy and the Marines gave them hell."

SCHOOL TRANSPORTATION AID COST IS HEAVY

AUSTIN, June 11.—More than 200 duplicate bus routes were eliminated in the school year just closed, members of a joint legislative committee announced here Thursday. The committee, named to administer distribution of rural aid school funds appropriated by the legislature, wound up its work for the year and reported 100 per cent payment of approved claims for transportation aid from rural schools. Senator Lovelady of Meridian asserted further bus route elimination would be made next school year. For the year just ended the state paid to 3,556 rural schools a total of $2,470,757 in transportation aid.

WANTS PROHIBITION

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 11.—Methodist Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, Washington, D. C., pleaded for a return of prohibition in a speech Wednesday night before the Michigan Methodist conference. "If we do not do something to stop the flow of liquor," Bishop Hughes said, "the United States in 10 years will become a nation of drunkards and the weakened will that permitted the return of liquor will let down the bars against our moral catastrophe."

MERCHANTS OF CISCO AND CO. URGED TO ATTEND EASTLAND GATHERING AND STUDY PRICES

P. R. Warwick, secretary of the Cisco chamber of commerce, says an OPA area clinic—designed to bring information to merchants of Eastland and surrounding counties concerning new price regulations which became effective May 18—will be held at the courthouse in Eastland, Friday night, June 19. Mr. Warwick's information came from H. J. Tanner, manager of the Eastland chamber of commerce. M. A. Browning, state supervisor, has advised Mr. Tanner that Ray Martin will be sent here to assist in arrangements. The office of price administration has organized teams of specialists, each consisting of at least one man in the price division and one man in the legal division and one of these teams will attend the Area Clinic to explain provisions of the new price ceilings. Points to be explained. 1.—Selective price control now in effect. 2.—Over-all price control to be in effect beginning May 18. 3.—General maximum price regulations for retailers and wholesalers. 4.—What items are under price control now and after May 18. 5.—How the maximum prices are established. 6.—What items are excluded from the order? 7.—Records which must be kept by the retailers. 8.—Questions and answers. It is suggested that prepared slips be furnished the retailers as they enter for the clinic and that their written questions be collected and given to the chairman or moderator of the meeting, who will ask the questions of the OPA specialists.

ARMY DEMANDS MORE DOCTORS AND DENTISTS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—A drive by the War Department to get 5,000 physicians, dentists and surgeons in the Army by July 1 is under way, backed by the blunt warning of Manpower Chief Paul V. McNutt that the draft machinery will be invoked to get them if the offer of commissions does not. In the first six months of the war only 3,000 physicians who were not obligated by reserve commissions volunteered. The Army now has about 20,000 physicians, needs 42,000 by the end of the year and a possible 50,000 to 65,000 if the Army grows above 7,000,000. Any medical man who wants to enter the Army can get a commission, usually a first lieutenant, although some have been commissioned as captains and majors. But even that preferred treatment has not brought in sufficient numbers and there is no indication that the present type of procurement organization will produce the number required. Mr. McNutt told the American Medical Association convention in Atlantic City this week. TERRIBLE CHARGE MADE. LONDON, June 11.—The Czech nationalist government today characterized as "the most dastardly German act since the dark ages" the Nazi slaughter of the entire male population of a town near Prague in reprisal for the assassination of Reinhard Heydrich. The Nazi Gestapo leveled the town of Lidice yesterday, executed every male, sent all the women to concentration camps and carried the children, off to "educational institutions."

Mr. Graves, who is a very modest says there is nothing unusual about the catch—that anyone can do it, since there are a lot of big fish in Lake Cisco. He proved his catch to friends on a street. The largest fish—a cat—tipped the scales at 4 pounds. Other fish, a channel cat bass, weighed seven and pounds respectively.

Marriage Rites Held in Baird Wednesday Night

A wedding of interest to Cisco friends took place at Baird Wednesday evening, in the residence of Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Davis, when Miss Joann Hays became the bride of N. Douglas Smartt in a double ring ceremony at which Rev. A. A. Davis, Baptist pastor, officiated.

The bride wore a becoming rose crepe dress with navy accessories, and corsage of white gardenias; for "something old" she wore a string of pearls belonging to her grandmother. She was attended by Miss Doris Ford as maid of honor; H. F. Summers served the groom as best man. Other attendants were Bill Smartt and Miss Alma Lou Smartt, brother and sister of the groom, and Miss Lucile Clark.

afternoon in the home of Mrs. Audrey Ezzell for the regular weekly session. The meeting was opened with the devotional period in which Mrs. J. S. Mobley brought a splendid devotional, using Acts 2:42-47 as a scripture basis.

Mrs. Lonnie Shockley presided over the business period, when matters pertaining to the group were transacted.

The meeting was closed by repeating the missionary benediction in unison.

A social hour was then enjoyed and at the conclusion light refreshments were passed to Mrs. H. J. Woodriddle, Mrs. Claire Swartz, Mrs. Guy Ward, Mrs. J. S. Mobley, Mrs. Lonnie Shockley, Miss Ethel Mae Wilson and the hostess, Mrs. Ezzell.

Miss Greynolds Bride-Elect Is Complimented

Miss Helen Louise Greynolds, bride-elect of Lieut. R. D. Donham of Chandler, Ariz., was complimented with a linen shower by Misses Mary Sue Mobley and Mary Elizabeth Wright in the Mobley home Tuesday evening.

The house was gaily decorated with seasonal flowers and a patriotic theme was carried out in table decorations and appointments. The guests were greeted by Miss Mobley and directed to the bride's book which was presided over by Miss Wright. A lovely corsage of white carnations was presented the honoree by the hostesses.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served from the dining table, laid with pretty lace cloth over blue. The table was centered with a reflector plaque, flanked at the sides with tall, lighted, white taper in blue holders.

Gifts brought by the guests were hidden and the clues for locating them were concealed in balloons which were inflated and passed in red, white and blue array. She at once began the task of finding clues, which resulted in her locating the very lovely shower of linen.

Those present were Miss Helen Louise Greynolds, Mrs. Guy Greynolds, Mrs. Della Davison, Miss Betty Sue McCannies, Miss Mary Elizabeth Wright, Mrs. J. R. Wright, Mrs. J. S. Mobley, Miss Ruby Kent, Miss Freda Grist, Miss Billy Bell Bacon, Miss Lorna Steyer, Miss Dorothy Jean Huestis, Mrs. T. H. Milk Is in the Army Now

At the Presidio in San Francisco, as in all other army camps and naval stations, the fighting forces of our nation have the opportunity to enjoy milk and other health-giving dairy products. In this historical army post which outdates the revolutionary war and which serves as headquarters for the Ninth Army Air Corps area, 6,000 milk shakes and 7,500 ice cream sodas and a la carte servings of ice cream are consumed daily in addition to milk and dairy products in other forms.

MISS MARTIN AND MISS CHILDRESS GAVE VALUABLE CANNING DEMONSTRATIONS AT HI SCHOOL

Miss Gladys Martin, county home demonstration agent, gave an interesting demonstration on canning non-acid vegetables at Cisco high school home economics room, yesterday.

Miss Martin showed how to conserve the best—and so eat the best—by saying the best way to can vegetables for them to retain vitamins and color is to pack the washed and prepared vegetables into sterilized jars filled with boiling water; add 1 teaspoon salt to the quart and a half teaspoon salt to the pints. Place the lid on, but do not seal the jar. Place the jars in hot water bath and boil for 25 minutes for quarts and 20 minutes for pints—the water coming within two inches of the top. Remove from the bath, open jars, press vegetables down and add more vegetables from a jar that was only partly filled when it was put in the hot water bath. Fill the jars to their capacity, seal and place in a pressure cooker. Allow the petcock to remain open until a steady stream of steam has escaped for seven minutes.

Close the petcock and process at 10 pounds of pressure for 35 minutes for quarts and 30 minutes for pints.

Miss Martin also gave a demonstration on canning tomato juice and urged everyone to can all the tomatoes they could, as canned tomatoes will be hard to get.

A delicious pot-luck lunch was served at noon. After lunch, Miss Helen Childress, assistant county home demonstration agent, gave a demonstration on making kraut. She said that cutting the cabbage into the container it was to be made in would preserve all vitamin C, thus making the kraut more nutritious. Air destroys the vitamins.

mins and hence in canning fruits and vegetables they should be handled so they will not be exposed to air too much. She also gave new and interesting ways to serve kraut.

The following members were present for the all-day meeting: Mrs. A. Z. Myrick, Mrs. J. E. Wisenant, Mrs. T. R. Prickett, Mrs. John Swindle, Mrs. Joe Sykora, Mrs. Viola Brooks, Mrs. Julia Doyle, Mrs. Elbert Ezzell, Mrs. O. J. Weiser, Mrs. M. W. Robbins, Mrs. Carl P. Wilson, Mrs. D. Ball, Mrs. Tom Page, Mrs. W. F.
