CISCO RED CROSS CHAPTER SHIPPED 146 WOOLEN GARMENTS TODAY; ALASKA BOUND

SCOUTS HIT THE TRAIL

John H. Kleiner of Cisco has been named county chairman of the scrap rubber hunt and is confident a tremendous amount of valuable rubber will be found and delivered to the government. As far as possible, says the chairman, Boy Scouts will be used in the drive, as many have expressed a desire to donate their rubber to the Scouts, who, in turn, will sell it to the filling stations at one cent per pound, the money to go into scout coffers of the various communities. Approximately 2,000 pounds were donated to Cisco filling stations yesterday.

HARDE L'SEUR DIED AT SAN ANGELO HOME

Word was received here this morning by Supt. Walton Baum of the Lake Cisco fish hatchery of the sudden death of Dr. Harde LeSeur of San Angelo, last night. Mr. Baum left today to attend the funeral. Dr. LeSeur is well known in Cisco, having been attached to the state game, fish and oyster department, and made numerous visits of inspection and research to improve fishing conditions in Lake Cisco. It was very noticeable that following certain recommendations of Dr. LeSeur, fishing conditions were bettered here.

The Red Cross chapter in Cisco, headed by Mrs. W. W. Wallace, and assisted right loyally by a number of patriotic women, are making shipment this afternoon of about 146 woollen garments, which evidently will go to some cold country on the list of aid from the United States.

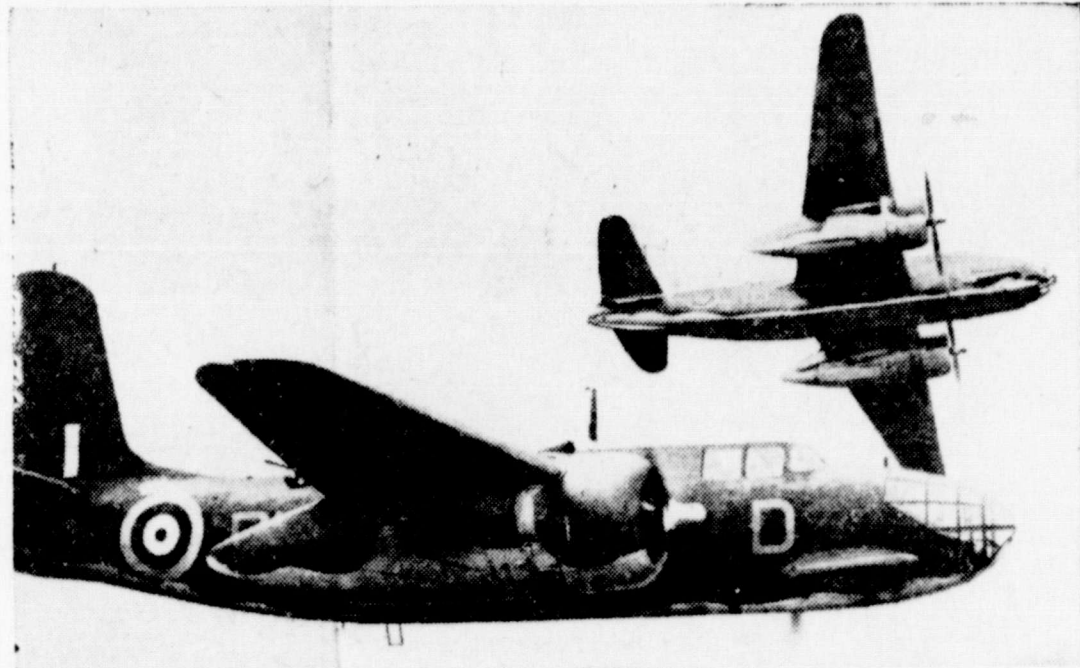

"I am not sure just where these garments will ultimately go," said Mrs. Wallace, "but it has been intimated that this shipment will go to Alaska or Greenland." "The goods will be carried to Eastland this afternoon, and from there they will be on their way to some cold country, whether it be Alaska, Iceland, Greenland or Russia. Being all wool and rather heavy in texture, it makes one warm just to wrap them or to be around them," said Mrs. Wallace. Since last November the Cisco chapter has completed and sent about 583 garments.

At present some romper cloth has been received and it will be made up by members of the Junior Red Cross. The Home Economics class is taking the making of garments for the Red Cross as their summer project. The next work to be done in her department will be making women's cotton dresses, said Mrs. Wallace. These garments will be light and summery, she added. The list of items being sent today is rather interesting: Fifty-three little girls' woollen skirts. Twenty-one women's wool skirts. Fifteen little girls' woollen dresses. Ten little boys' shirts. Eleven navy turtle-neck sweaters. Four navy sleeveless sweaters. Five army sleeveless sweaters. Two ordinary sweaters. Five refugee sweaters. Eleven pairs of socks. Seven helmets. Two pair navy socks and a watch cap.

SCHLAEPFER, MORRISON AT PEARL HARBOR

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schlaepfer have received a letter from their son, Frank Schlaepfer, with the U. S. marines at Pearl Harbor, in which the young man said he was in good health and had no cause for complaint. Schlaepfer is now a corporal and seems to be on guard duty at Pearl Harbor. When he enlisted it was for two years' sea duty and two years' land service. He served two years on the Aircraft Carrier Lexington—which was sunk in the recent Coral Sea battle—and on December 21 of last year he entered upon his land service. He mentioned that Tom Morrison, also from Cisco, is with him at Pearl Harbor.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION. PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—A resolution asking President Roosevelt to impress national prohibition by executive order during the war was adopted Tuesday by the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Philadelphia. Wartime ban on manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages is needed, the resolution said, to safeguard the morals of service men.

BOSTON IN BRITAIN—This is an exceptional flight photo of American-built Boston bombers, winging their way over English countryside with R.A.F. pilots at the controls. The R.A.F.-Boston combination has proven a deadly one for enemy targets.

SOLDIER SALARY HIKE

WASHINGTON, June 17.—A measure boosting the minimum base pay of the nation's fighting forces to $50 a month was signed into law Wednesday by President Roosevelt. For most of the men, it means at least $20 more each month for necessities and entertainment on time off, or to send back home to dependents. The bill carried a clause making the increase retroactive to June 1. The measure covers ranks up to and including that of second lieutenant in the army and the comparable grade of ensign in the navy, whose base pay would be increased from $1,500 to $1,800 a year. The bill also will boost rental allowances for officers. Under the existing law, enlisted men abroad or on sea duty receive an extra 20 per cent and officers 10 per cent of their monthly pay.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT BEGINS FRIDAY

John Shirley, 307 N. Lamar street, Eastland, will direct a tri-city tennis tournament—Ranger, Eastland and Cisco—which starts Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at American Legion tennis courts, Eastland. Divisions in the tournament will be men's singles and men's doubles, women's singles and women's doubles—and junior divisions of both boys and girls. All tennis players living in or near the three cities are eligible if not professionals. A small entrance fee will be charged, Shirley said during a visit to the Daily Press office. All who desire to participate in the tournament may contact Mr. Shirley or leave their names at this office. Shirley extended a cordial invitation to all Cisco people to attend the tournament, whether participating or not. Finals in the tournament will be played Sunday afternoon.

GERMAN ATTACK FAILS

MOSCOW, June 17.—A supreme German attempt to knock out Sevastopol has been crushed in a furious 22-hour battle at the southern approaches to the fortress where all available Nazi strength was thrown into seven storming attacks, official Soviet advices said today. German pressure on the Khar'kov front, 350 miles north of the beleaguered Crimean stronghold, was eased meanwhile by a Russian counter-attack that caught the Nazis off guard, knocked them out of an important village and destroyed a motorized column. The fiercest fighting of Sevastopol's 14 days of Nazi siege with its "colossal" casualties for the enemy was said by the official army organ Red Star to have occurred during the past 24 hours. At 4 a. m. yesterday the enemy threw all of its available reserves, including sappers and detachments brought up from deep in the rear, into the storming attacks along a highway south of the city. The Red Star said the Germans were halted by a Russian bayonet charge. (The German high command, in a communique today, said that "despite stiff enemy resistance," the German siege army had stormed and taken Siberia fortress and several other fortified positions around Sevastopol.) On the Khar'kov front the battle raged on, with the Germans attempting to launch attacks in various sectors, Red Star said. Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's troops not only held all their positions but counter-attacked at several vital points and flung back the Nazis on the seventh day of the German Khar'kov drive, it was said. The population of Sevastopol huddled in caves and dugouts at night under almost constant aerial and artillery bombardment and during the day seemingly oblivious to the inferno around them, labored to supply the defenders of the fortress. Red Star reported that the land approaches to Sevastopol were a bloody wilderness, in which shell and bomb craters were so thick that they encroached into each other. Thousands of corpses littered the battlefield, along with black wrecks of tanks and trucks.

CATTLE MARKET

The Fort Worth market was generally steady on cattle and calves Wednesday although some sales of cows were on the low side. Hogs sold 10 cents lower than on Tuesday with the extreme top $14 while packers stopped at $13.90. Good killing classes of sheep and lambs were scarce. A few lots of medium and good shorn lambs were steady with Tuesday's $5c to $1 decline. Many common shorn lambs were without bids at 10:30 o'clock. Spring lambs and aged sheep ruled steady to 25 cents lower. In the cattle yards, good to choice fed steers and yearlings ranged from $11.50 to $13.25 with load lots of choice steer yearlings at $13.15 and $13.25. Medium grade grasser and short fed steers and yearlings brought $9 to $11 while common grass yearlings ranged downward to $7.50. Good to choice beef cows sold at $9 to $10.50. Cull calves averaged 1,237 pounds at the $10 top. Medium and plain butcher cows cashed at $7.75 to $8.75 while canners and cutters turned at $5 to $7.50. Good heavy bulls cleared at $9 to $9.75 with common lightweight bulls at $7 to $7.75. Good to choice fat calves ranged from $11 to $12.50. Common to medium butcher calves turned at $8.75 to $10.50. Cull calves sold mostly at $7.25 to $8.50. Stocker steer calves sold at $14 down and heifer calves at $13 down. Stocker steer yearlings went out at $8 to $12.50 and stocker cows were returned to the grass at $9.50 down.

MISS ADDICKS TOLD LIONS ABOUT PLAY

At the Lions luncheon today J. T. Eggen presented Miss Betty Addicks, promoter of the local talent play, "Funsoppopin," which is being sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, in sketches from the play which will be given at the high school auditorium Thursday and Friday nights of this week. Six girls in costumes gave a military drill dance with Mrs. Mort Forber at the piano. Barbara Grist also played a piano solo. Miss Addicks announced that the play was what the title suggested, full of fun throughout, and hoped Lions would give it full publicity. Young ladies taking part in the drill were Barbara Grist, Betty Sue Armstrong, Bobby Lee Miller, Gene Grantham, Norma Jean Cropper and Brownie Teer, with Mrs. Mort Forber, pianist. Other visitors were Allen Dabney, of Eastland, G. G. Streater, Lake Charles, La., and Thomas D. Humphrey of Dallas. Mr. Streater was the guest of his son, D. G. Streater, and Mr. Humphrey was the guest of Mayor G. P. Mitcham.

U. S. AIR CORPS PARTICIPATED IN PROBABLY THE BIGGEST AIR-NAVAL BATTLE OF THAT AREA

LONDON, June 17.—Official sources said today that the Mediterranean air-naval battle in which United States Army Air Corps planes joined the Royal Air Force was only a "limited success" because of considerable losses to Allied convoys.

But it was emphasized that the passage of convoys through such narrow waters was always hazardous and it was indicated that the Allied losses were largely in supply ships while the Italians lost heavily in warships. Naval experts believe the four-day action, in which U. S. Army planes first joined the Royal Air Force, had so reduced Mussolini's navy that it now has only two battleships and one heavy cruiser capable of fighting.

Official quarters, discussing the smashing blows at the Italian fleet, including two battleships damaged and set afire and a 10,000-ton cruiser sunk, said: "So far as we know the Italian battleship force which came out of its base, presumably at Taranto, did not get into contact with our surface forces.

"It demonstrates again that if you stick your nose out within range of shore-based aircraft without formidable fighter cover, you are going to catch it."

Though they described the Mediterranean action as only "a limited success," these authorized informants said the net result was that certain supplies reached Malta and Tobruk. "We suffered losses," an informant said. "You can not expect to avoid them under conditions such as exist in the Mediterranean. It is a very hazardous enterprise, not an operation which one carries out unless the risk must be taken.

"Merchant ships and escorts had to pass through areas of the Mediterranean dominated by enemy shore-based aircraft. Ships leaving Gibraltar come under observation almost immediately, and are shadowed until they arrive within range of bombers and torpedo carriers. They are also constantly exposed to U-boat attacks."

The great significance of the engagement as seen here, however, was the participation of American Army planes.

The four-motored Consolidated Liberty B-24 bombers of the U. S. Army Air Corps went into action just in time to take part in probably the biggest sea and air clash to date in the Mediterranean phase of the war.

It was indicated clearly here that American Army planes will be heard of more and more from now on in the Middle Eastern theater.

LARKIN AKERS LATE RECRUIT IN U. S. NAVY

Dr. John Akers, Eastland county veterinarian, living southwest of Cisco, stated today that his son, Larkin, who left home Monday for Dallas, writes that he had successfully passed his naval examination and was due to leave Dallas today for some naval base to which he will be assigned. Larkin is coming 19 years of age and attended Cisco public schools.

EAGER FIGHTERS

"Be copy now to men of grosser blood, and teach them how to war," says Shakespeare's King Henry to his troops in a famous scene. There is a new challenge and a lift to the free forces of all the world, as Britain, Russia and the United States join hands and settle down to the job of saving civilization. The blood of any citizen must be sluggish, and his spirit dull, if he doesn't get a tremendous thrill out of it.

Americans, if they don't know already "how to war," are certainly learning fast. The great victory of Midway Island shows what our fighting men can do at sea and in the air, even with inferior forces. There are indications that they will soon have a similar opportunity on land, in the form of a second continental front in Europe.

The eagerness and fearlessness of these fighting men, from school-boys to middle-aged veterans, is a revelation even to their own people and an immense reassurance to our allies.

WHERE ARE THE RIGHTEOUS?

Even amid the growing horrors of Nazi rule, there must still be many sane and righteous men in Germany. They probably hope to assert themselves some day, and do their best to restore the enlightenment, culture and humanity of the Fatherland in its best days, before this modern craze for power.

The old Germany was sentimentally idealized, and was known to Americans by the best of it. Now it is judged by the worst of it. It has immensely deteriorated under Hitler's rule, in nearly all the things that count for civilization, but there are still values in German character and talent that should be preserved.

The Lord offered to save Sodom and Gomorrah if only a handful of righteous men could be found therein. That generous undertaking failed, and they were wiped out by fire from heaven. Similar fire is now wiping out Nazi Germany, city by city, as the enemies it has raised up grow stronger and concentrate on their self-protecting task.

If sane and righteous Germans have the courage to oppose their brutal masters at whatever cost, it is time for them to get busy.

LIDICE

The Nazis have exterminated the Czech city of Lidice because its inhabitants are said to have sheltered the slayers of Gestapo Agent Reinhard Heydrich. An article like this recalls the most brutal peoples of whom history has record. The ancient Assyrians, the Mongols under Genghis Khan and the Tartars under Tamerlane.

The Old Testament is full of instances of Assyrian cruelty. Destroying towns was a regular feature of Mongol and Tartar warfare. Usually, after the people had been slain and the buildings demolished, salt was sown on the sites to keep them as permanent scars on the landscape and lasting memorials of Mongol ruthlessness. The Nazis have overlooked this detail, perhaps because salt is scarce in Germany.

All these acts of savagery were meant to cow their enemies into complete submission. Except momentarily, they all failed. The Germans themselves tried this policy in the last war, though with less bloodthirstiness than the Hitler crew. Conspicuous was the execution of Nurse Edith Cavell. This became a rallying cry in 1918 for the Allies. Lidice should become one this time. "Remember Lidice!" may stand in history with "Remember Pearl Harbor!"

HOW HEALTHY ARE YOU?

A periodic health examination may add years to your life. Through the recognition of physical changes at the earliest possible moment the progress of menacing degeneration and infection may be stopped, and a suitable plan of living devised to maintain continuous health. That invaluable advice is given in a recent editorial in Hygeia. Too many of us never go near the doctor unless we suffer definite illness. We'll go on feeling "poorly" for weeks and months and even years. During those weeks and months and years disease may progress to the point where even modern medical science can't check it.

Medical authorities recommend that complete physical examinations be taken every year and twice each year after we pass middle age. Those examinations should cover the entire physical system—lungs, heart, blood, the intestinal tract, teeth, feet, etc. In addition to the physical tests, the doctor will inquire into habits of sleep, rest, outdoor exercise, diet, and so forth. When that is done, the doctor will be able to write a health prescription. That prescription may not involve the taking of medicines. It may, instead, deal exclusively with such matters as rest, work, social adjustments and recreation. In any event, it will probably lengthen life—and make it healthier, happier, fuller.

THE MAN WHO HELPED

It is reported that congress is being flooded with communications from retailers throughout the country, requesting that the general price freeze order be reopened to public hearing to review the disastrous situation facing thousands of stores. On top of that, it is reported further, manufacturers are tremendously concerned over the probable loss of distributive outlets.

One can sympathize with the point of view of government officials who believe that the most stringent possible measures are necessary to prevent a ruinous price inflation. But it is becoming evident that the price freeze will literally dislocate and destroy a large part of the retail businesses of this country unless adjustments are made to take care of the very wide lag that has long existed between wholesale and retail prices.

The merchants who are writing congress and the OPA are not asking for big profits and a chance to profiteer. They are simply asking the chance to price their goods at a level which will return them sufficient profit to stay in business. If the current order stands as issued, merchants will have to replace stocks at present wholesale price levels and sell them at the prevailing March retail levels. That means that the sale of many items would be made with no profit—and that the sale of some items would have to be made at an actual loss.

Public-spirited merchant, who cooperated with the OPA and priced his wares on the basis of original cost, not replacement cost, would take the worst beating. It is difficult to exaggerate the potential effect of this on the country. The small store will be hit hardest and will go to the wall first—large retail organizations, with capital behind them, can last longer and can better adjust themselves to changing conditions. The tens of thousands of little retail businesses which are the backbone of the American private enterprise system are in danger of extinction. That is the immensely grave situation which confronts congress and the OPA today.

Life "boats" are replacing life boats in many instances in our Navy because of their greater safety and less likelihood to splinter or be affected by shell fragments. They are constructed of an elliptical portion of balsawood, from which is suspended the float proper, carrying from 10 to 25 people.

(Files of Cisco Daily News)

Nomination of new officers, a report upon the playground baseball activities of the club and a talk by Supt. R. N. Cluck upon school matters made up the program of the Cisco Rotary club today noon. Nominations for officers to be elected May 3 to take office the first week in July, were as follows: For president, B. A. Butler; for vice president, J. C. McAtee; for secretary, J. E. Spencer; for treasurer, O. J. Russell and J. B. Cate; for directors (two to be chosen), R. N. Cluck, E. P. Crawford, Dr. E. L. Graham and F. D. Wright. Supt. Cluck told the club that out of 702 children in the grade schools examined by a CWA nurse, 345 were found to have some physical defect. He urged that the club sponsor a campaign to aid in the correction of these defects, and President Phil Pettit named the superintendent, J. J. Collins and J. M. Bird as committee to act for the club in this project. Dr. E. L. Graham was made an advisory member of the committee. President Pettit also named E. P. Crawford and Mr. Bird a committee to arrange Cisco's representation at the 41st district convention to be held in Abilene May 8 and 9. Mr. Collins reported upon the organization of a playground baseball team. Practice has already started, with members meeting at 6 o'clock in the afternoons for "limbering up" exercises. A report on these activities was made by Mr. Collins, and members of the club showed considerable enthusiasm over the prospect of spirited competition with teams from the Lions club and other organizations.

In an election that brought out two-thirds of the voting strength of the city and was distinguished by the fact that the names of the opposing ticket had to be written upon the ballot, the three retiring city commissioners were re-elected to two-year terms upon the Cisco municipal governing body. A total of 963 votes were counted. They are J. R. Burnett, H. C. Henderson and W. R. (Bob) Winston. Opposing them were W. J. Donovan, L. F. Mendenhall and W. P. Moore. The vote announced shortly after the polls closed at 7 Tuesday night, was: Winston, 533; Henderson, 507; Burnett, 506; Moore, 432; Mendenhall, 394; Donovan, 363.

The new term will begin about the first of May. In spite of the fact that the voters choosing the latter three candidates had to write the names upon the ballot, only about 40 ballots were reported to have been thrown out on the score that they had been improperly marked. Judges of the election were D. A. Williams and Asa Skiles.

Special invitations were mailed today to the mayor and other officials to attend the opening performance of "These Thirty Years," the talking picture to be shown at the Ideal theatre, Wednesday and Thursday under the auspices of Nance Motor company. According to Mr. Nance in charge of the distribution of complimentary tickets, large audiences will be in attendance at all of the performances. "The picture 'These Thirty Years,'" Mr. Nance says, "is a picture that is filled with human interest and is as exciting as it is romantic. It begins in a town of yesterday and ends at a modern home of today."

BAIRD, June 17.—Baird Refining company, Baird, has completed work on a gathering system of three-inch and four-inch lines in the Silver Valley pool, a distance of 12,160 feet from the company's main tank near Novice.

The new gathering system serves some seven batteries, or 14 wells that produce thousands of barrels daily. Oil is sent by a four-inch pressure line from the Novice tank, thence by pipeline to the refinery at Baird. The Novice and Goldsboro pools are served also by the Baird refinery's pipeline.

UNION LABOR CROOKS LIKE OTHER CROOKS

ALBANY, N. Y., June 17.—Three union officials and a city employe were indicted Tuesday on a charge of exacting through a kick-back system more than $50,000 from laborers at a $5,000,000 war department receiving and re-conignment station.

Attorney General Francis Biddle said in Washington this was the first of such actions and that the justice department "intends to crack down on 'dollar patriots' wherever it may find them."

A federal district grand jury alleged the quartet conspired to violate a federal statute prohibiting inducement of persons to aid on public projects to part of their compensation, intimidation, threat of dismissal or other means. It cited expenditures of alleged collections amounting from $6 to $12.

Listed as defendants, States Attorney Ralph L. E. said, were Thomas F. M., business agent of Local 106 national Union of Operating Engineers (A. F. of L.); John M., his son, a stationary engineer of the Albany city bureau of George J. Mann, vice-president financial secretary and business agent of the union; James Betar, union steward.

FATHER'S DAY

GIVE DAD Gifts That He'll Enjoy On His DAY

June 21 is more than just an ordinary holiday. It is the one day of the year that has been set aside to honor "Dad"! It is your chance to do something for him. Take him out to dinner. Take him to enjoy a show. Give him a book he's been wanting to read. Give him gifts that he likes. Wearing apparel; shirts, ties, hose, handkerchiefs, lounging robe, sport jacket. Luxury items; pipes, cigars, cigarettes, pipe rack, electric shaver, military set, hair tonic.

And there are many other items that Dad would like mighty well to receive. The above mentioned items are standard items. Owing to his particular taste, there should be hundreds of other items that you may see advertised that will give you an idea of how to bring happiness to Dad.

It may be that he is a fisherman --- then that will open up a wide avenue of possibilities. It may be that he enjoys working with tools, in his shop or in his garden. . . The hardware store or the tool shop will give you ideas.

Dad likes things in the home. He loves little furniture items that add to the comfort of home and his hours of relaxation after work hours. . . See the furniture lists. Watch the ads.

What about his golf sticks? You could have his car washed and lubricated or the battery recharged. Perhaps the motor needs tuning up or the carburetor adjusted.

What about his radio? Does that give you a thought? And there are many jewelry items that will appeal to Father. How about his watch, a new one --- or the wrist band for it?

Watch the Cisco Daily Press for Father's Day suggestions for Sunday, June 21.
