NAZI BRITISH-SOVIET THREAT IS GROWING

HITLER ASSERTS GERMAN SIEGE ARMIES STORMING SEVASTOPOL ARE NEAR HARBOR ENTRANCE

Grave new threats to the British armies in North Africa and the Russian defenders of Sevastopol were reported Thursday as the German high command asserted that Nazi troops had driven into Sevastopol's immediate defense ring and had split the British Libyan armies into two parts.

A bulletin from Adolf Hitler's field headquarters said the German siege armies storming Sevastopol, the last big Soviet stronghold in the Crimea, had captured Fort Gorky and driven within two miles of the harbor entrance.

The communique described Fort Gorky as "the most modern and strongest bastion of the whole fortress."

Besides capturing Fort Gorky in the main fortifications north of the city, the Axis assault forces also drove back stubborn Red army troops on the southern fortifications, the Hitler communique said.

The Nazi claim of having knifed into Sevastopol's ring of fortifications was unconfirmed elsewhere, the Russians declaring they had beaten off a series of savage new attacks.

In the Libyan desert struggle, British imperial headquarters acknowledged that British troops had withdrawn from two key defense points at Sidi Rezegh and El Adem.

A Nazi communique said strong German and Italian tank formations were pursuing the east-bound British column, which was described as "fleeing" toward Bardia, 15 miles from the Egyptian frontier.

The communique asserted that several desert forts on the southern perimeter of Tobruk's defenses had been captured.

Sidi Rezegh is 25 miles southeast of Tobruk and 50 miles from the Egyptian frontier; El Adem is 18 miles due south of Tobruk.

An Italian war bulletin asserted that aerial reconnaissance disclosed the British were beginning a general withdrawal toward the Egyptian frontier.

Dispatches from Cairo said the British desert armies had apparently split into two forces, one falling back to fortified positions near the Egyptian border, the other remaining to defend Tobruk.

Last year the British withstood eight months of violent siege at the Mediterranean coastal fortress until relieved by a new expeditionary force striking out of Egypt.

The Reuters (British news agency) correspondent at Cairo, headquarters of Gen Sir Claude Auchinleck's imperial command, said Tobruk was "practically surrounded," with the coastal road the only route left open to the east.

Despite Axis armored supremacy, the British declared they still maintained superiority in the air.

NAZI PLANNING.

MOSCOW, June 18.—A German plan for the transfer of 3,000,000 Dutehmen to Nazi-occupied districts of Eastern Europe is part of a vast scheme for resettlement of the conquered peoples with the aim of opening choice areas for Germans and weakening resistance to the forces of occupation, Tass reported in a Geneva dispatch Thursday.

GREAT DAMAGE DONE.

TOKIO (From Japanese Broadcasts), June 18.—Imperial headquarters Thursday reported 21 American planes were shot down and important United States facilities were destroyed in the Japanese naval attacks two weeks ago upon Dutch Harbor, Alaska. (There was no confirmation of these reports from United States sources.)

WAR WILL HAVE TO WAIT—The call to mess has sounded and these members of the Palestine Pioneer Corps "advance" into the subterranean corridors of this hillside to put on the feed bag, in the Western Desert. They play important role in reconstruction behind front lines.

"Funsappoin'," a three-act comedy sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and directed by Miss Betty Addicks, will be presented at high school auditorium tonight and tomorrow night. Proceeds will go to the Men's Service club for the entertainment of visiting soldiers.

The play is said to be full of laughs, songs, choruses and unbelievable situations and will be produced by talented young men and women from both Cisco and Eastland.

Among those from Eastland who will take part are Earl Francis, who plays the part of J. Edgar Dunwiddie; Misses Connie Canaries and Johnnie Lou Hart, dance specialists and the little Throne sisters in song and dance numbers.

Ciscoans participating are Rivers Greenhaw as Betty Blair; Ed King as Vic Truman; Brenda Warwick as Trudi Brown; Jack Chambliss as Sylvester Fogg III; Art Parker as Bobby Blair; Rosemary Fambro as Ambrosia; Marilyn Shertzer as Bridget; Wanda Lynch as Aunt Ida; Charmelle Boggs as Gabby Gooney; Dorothy Huestis as Mrs. Snappett and Mrs. Louis Starr as Mrs. Worthington-Brown.

The Cotton Style Show will be an interesting feature, all the girls wearing cotton clothing furnished by Altman's.

The program, by the way, will contain misspelled words and the first ten children finding these words will be given free tickets to the play. Corrected programs should be taken to Maner Pharmacy, where the free tickets will be issued.

REAMES COMES HOME

Raymond Reames, naval radio operator and until recently assigned to the Aircraft Carrier Lexington, arrived in Cisco early this morning for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Reames, and his many Cisco friends.

Reames was privileged to be on the Lexington during the historic Coral Sea battle when, suffering from direct bomb hits and ablaze at both ends, the great ship was sent to the bottom by U. S. torpedoes in a gallant salute for its brilliant achievements.

After being bombed and in sinking condition the men of the Lexington knocked 23 Jap planes out of the sky.

Raymond Reames, who will be 21 years of age on July 23, joined the navy two years ago. He was born in Cisco and graduated from Cisco high school in 1940.

The young man captained the Cisco Fighting Lobos during his last school year.

A MAMMOTH WHEAT CROP

AUSTIN, June 18.—Texas indicated wheat production for 1942 today was placed at 44,325,000 bushels by the Austin office of the United States department of agriculture crop reporting bureau. This compares with a 1941 production of 27,186,000 bushels and a 1940 production of 29,911,000 bushels.

JAPS TO ATTACK SIBERIA

CHUNGKING, June 18.—While informed sources here believe the Japanese may attack Russian Siberia before the summer is over, the enemy now is concentrating on reinforcement of his air strength in the China and Burma theaters.

Army intelligence reports received here indicated Thursday that the Japanese now have 500 planes in Burma and have increased the number actually in China to 300, with a fresh influx of planes at Canton and Hankow.

The aerial preparations of the foe gave weight to indications that the Japanese would intensify their efforts to tighten the cordon around the still free parts of Southern China and thereby strangle Chungking. The present uncracker offensive in the Eastern China provinces of Chekiang and Kiangsi is an important part of these efforts.

On the Chekiang-Kiangsi front, the Chinese hold on the important railway looping through the two provinces has been narrowed to about 50 of the 450-mile length of the line.

BILL DOLGENER WILL RECEIVE DAILY PRESS

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dolgener, 200 E. Sixteenth street, have subscribed for the Daily Press for their son, Corp. Wm. F. Dolgener, who is stationed at Ft. D. A. Russell, Marfa, Tex.

Corporal Dolgener, who is 25 years of age, joined the regular army in 1940 and was stationed at Ft. Sam Houston until recently transferred to Marfa.

The young man writes his parents he is well and deeply interested in his work, but gets a bit homesick sometimes for Cisco and his parents and friends. The last trip home was at Christmas. He hopes for a short furlough sometime soon.

Dolgener attended Cisco high school, but was born at Denton, Texas.

SON OF HOWARD DILL KILLED BY AN AUTO

Funeral services were to be held at Cornith, east of Cisco, this afternoon for 2-year-old Donald Edward Dill, who died at 6 p.m. yesterday when struck by an auto at a trailer camp near Benbrook.

The infant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dill, was hit and pinned against the front porch of a house near the trailer hotas in which the family lives. He died instantly.

Peace Justice Gus Brown absolved the driver of blame. Mrs. J. T. Wheat, who lives in the same trailer house community, said the car began rolling when she stepped on the starter. The inquest verdict was accidental death.

The boy had been playing with his younger brother, John Durwin Dill, when the accident occurred. The body was taken to Robertson-Mueller-Harper Funeral Home at Benbrook and later brought to Cisco, home of a grandparent, J. A. Dill, and his great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dill.

Another grandparent, Mrs. J. L. LaForge, Breckenridge, and another brother, Howard Duane Dill, survive.

SANDY LAND PEANUT MEN ARE WORRIED

"Farmers are still trying to finish planting peanuts," said J. H. Hyatt Wednesday. "Just as we thought we were going to be able to finish up early this week, the hard rain came Sunday night and I am almost afraid to risk my tractor in the field for fear I will lose it," he stated.

Some farmers over the district are complaining that their peanuts are coming up with the grass, with the grass perhaps predominating. They fear they will not be able to save the crop, since help is so scarce. Others say they have peanuts up and clean. Where that is the case such crops are looking fine.

Of course, these reports are from the sandy land sections, where peanuts are the main crop.

On the hard land, corn is fine. Little grain was saved from the bugs and early spring drought. Grain will be very light around Cisco.

Some cotton has been planted and it is looking well, farmers say. If they can beat the boll weevil, the cotton crop should make good returns with the price as expected.

Pastures throughout the Cisco Country are tip-top and cattle, sheep and goat men are well satisfied.

ARMY WANTS ACTION

CHICAGO, June 18.—In one of its most drastic moves of the war on the labor front, the army Thursday warned company and strikers at the Pullman-Standard car manufacturing plant in Michigan City, Ind., that if the men do not return to work by Monday the government will transfer the work to other companies.

If production is not resumed by that time, tools and materials necessary for construction of 1,500 freight cars will be taken from the plant and placed in other plants where construction can be resumed immediately, Maj. H. J. Hoeker, representative of the Chicago engineering procurement division of the army, declared.

"The corps of engineers does not take the position of being for or against either party in the dispute, but certainly must protect the continuity of the war effort," his statement said.

"If work is not resumed at Pullman Monday, materials will start to leave the plant Tuesday morning."

SECOND CLASS IN ACCOUNTING BE ORGANIZED

President R. N. Cluck announces that Cisco Junior College will enroll a second class in accounting tonight. The place is Cisco high school and the hour 7 o'clock. The class will meet at high school during the summer months for the convenience of students.

The first class was enrolled last February and has averaged about 15 students, all of whom have made exceptional progress and who—by the time the course is completed—will be qualified to take care of responsible positions.

An experienced accountant will be in charge Mr. Cluck says and classes will cover a two-hour period—Tuesday and Thursday nights.

The second class is organized following repeated requests from young men and women interested in better equipping themselves for the business world.

"WE, THE PEOPLE"

(Liberty Magazine) The above heading, as you know, is the beginning of the Preamble of the Constitution of the United States. It might be well to quote it all, lest we forget:

"We, the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure Tranquillity, provide for the common Defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

Here in a single sentence within the scope of about fifty words—the length of a night letter by wire—is encompassed all of the hopes and aims and aspirations of an entire people.

Every word is important and the first three words are the most important of all. Notice how it begins: "We, the People..."

This is probably the first time in history that that phrase was ever used. Not "I, the King," nor "We, the Crown," nor even "I, the President," nor "We, the Congress." But, "WE, THE PEOPLE."

We, the People—"in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquillity..."

Today we have more factions pulling and hauling against our effort to form a more perfect Union than the signers of that Constitution of the United States. Our effort to establish justice has been imperfect many times, but the effort toward justice has continued with amazing persistence over the years.

But the effort to insure domestic tranquility has just about reached zero. Not the tranquility of folded hands. But the tranquility of spirit which makes it possible for the hands to work their best and the minds to be assured of what the hands are doing.

Right now, too many bricks are being heaved. And We, the People, have not taken time to understand why they are being heaved nor who is doing the heaving.

Once, years ago, a couple of hungry newspaper correspondents, working their way through college, saw a crowd of workmen gathered around a couple of fellows who were fighting it out. One of the newspapermen had an inspiration. "He whispered, 'Heave a brick!'" A brick landed in the midst of the thickest part of the crowd. And almost in an instant every fist in that crowd was swinging at the nearest chin.

Then the two bright lads beat it to the telegraph office and wired their newspapers, "Riot among Stamford workmen. How much?" (How many words shall we send?) Now, what can We, the People, do about this heaving of bricks?

First, we can ask ourselves who is heaving the brick, and why, before we start slugging at the nearest chin. For example, the papers have been running over recently about time and a half for overtime, double time for Sunday, a forty-hour week and no more, until you would think that the millions of American workmen were a bunch of hooligans out to grab the last nickel they can get with the least effort they can give.

Anybody who knows the first thing about these millions of men who are doing the actual war work in our factories knows that there is no more loyal, eager, patriotic bunch of men anywhere else in the world. They know their job is winning this war, and they are determined to do it.

Again, We, the People, are reading in the headlines of enormous wealth gouged from government contracts by war profiteers and we are gathering the impression that the business structure of these United States is out to grab whatever it can at the expense of our men who are dying in the field.

And again we heave a brick at the very forces that must go all out to win this war—if it is going to be won. Therefore we must know who is heaving this brick, and why. Suffice it here and now to say that We, the People, do not believe that section of our citizenry known as the business world is so stupid as deliberately to destroy its own future.

These are some of the things that Liberty will discuss in editorials to come. These things must be discussed without rancor, without controversy, but with full, affirmative leadership in recognizing facts and in facing facts.

It would be stupid in the extreme to try to help form a more perfect union and to insure domestic tranquility by adding controversy when controversy is already splitting us apart. And to approach any of these subjects of management or labor or capitalism with any bootlicking sycophancy would smack of the smirk of a waiter toward the hope of a tip. This must be clean, straight thinking and straight analysis.

We, the People, are facing the greatest crisis not merely in our history but in the history of the entire human race, because ours happens to be the greatest civilization in the history of the entire human race.

A life vest used by Uncle Sam's aviators furnishes more than ample support for Elaine Eversole, Akron, Ohio, speed swimmer. Manufactured for the U. S. Army Air Corps by The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company, the vest can be worn deflated without interfering with the movements of the wearer. Pulling a cord at the bottom of the vest punctures a carbon dioxide cartridge which inflates it in less than three seconds. The vest is so constructed that, even should the wearer be unconscious, it automatically holds his face above water.

LET'S GATHER OLD RUBBER

In the old pile of trash in the alley or backyard there may be much valuable old rubber — just going to waste. And Uncle Sam needs it very badly — If Texas and other states are to escape gasoline rationing there must be found plenty of scrap rubber for army use.

Service stations and many other agencies are acting as agents for Uncle Sam to gather this old rubber. They will pay you 1 cent per pound if you care to sell it. If you wish to donate you may do so.

Boy Scouts of Cisco and other towns of Eastland county are act as gatherers for scrap rubber. You may notify your local scoutmaster and his troop will be glad to call and get your old tires, tubes, broken garden hose, rubber overshoes or rubber mats — anything about the place that contains rubber.

Let's help Texas go over the top with scrap rubber, like she does with scrap tin, aluminum, iron and waste paper.
