ROMMEL CONTINUES ADVANCE TOWARD SUEZ CANAL, BUT U. S. BOMBERS SLOW DOWN MARCH

MOSCOW, June 30. — The Soviet army newspaper Red Star reported from the Kursk front today that the Russians had cut off hundreds of German tanks leading a Nazi infantry advance.
Presumably, the Russians now were engaged in destroying the tanks.
Red Star said "several infantry motorized and panzer divisions" — apparently upwards of 75,000 men — were increasing their pressure on the Kursk front, 275 miles southwest of Moscow, in an offensive that began Sunday.
After initial defeats and "enormous losses," the hundreds of German tanks attacked again. The Russians let them through, then drove a wedge between the tanks and infantry.
Unless they can retreat or the Germans can break through and supply them, the tanks are doomed.
Fierce fighting with German infantry supported by tanks on the Kursk front was reported in the first Russian communique today.
It said the Germans lost 240 men on one sector of the Kursk front, and on a second sector lost 15 tanks to Russian artillery and mortar fire and 500 men in subsequent fire and 500 men in subsequent hand-to-hand fighting.
"Last night our troops battled with the enemy in the directions of Kursk and Sevastopol," it said. "On other fronts there were no changes."
The communique also revealed that "on a sector of the western front our troops repulsed several German attacks, killing 1,500 of the enemy," indicating, that the Germans may have started a fourth offensive, this one against Moscow.
(The Columbia Broadcasting System heard the British Broadcasting Corp. relay a radio Moscow report that the Russians had counter-attacked on one sector of the Kharkov front "and rolled the enemy back with heavy losses.")

L. A. HIGHTOWER DIED SUDDENLY MONDAY A. M.

Leonard A. Hightower, 57, died suddenly at his home in Eastland about 6 o'clock Monday morning. Heart trouble is given as the cause.
Mr. Hightower was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends in Eastland and Cisco and throughout the county. He was born in Stephens county and spent his early boyhood in Cisco, but had been a resident of Eastland for many years. He was formerly in the abstract business there.
The funeral was conducted this afternoon, with interment in the Eastland cemetery. A number of Cisco friends were present.
Survivors include the wife and three sons, one of whom is in the armed forces.
GETS THIRD BOMBING.
LONDON, June 30.—Bremen, Germany's largest port and submarine base, was "heavily bombed" Monday night, the third attack there in five nights, the air ministry announced Tuesday.
Mr. Lee Clay, 17, son of Mr. Mrs. W. B. Seaborn, 608 W. 137th street, has received his promotion since he joined the navy on February 2.
He is now seaman of the second class and attached to the SS. Minnie, moved to Cisco with his parents when three weeks of age and lived here continuously until he joined up with his Uncle

SMITH SAYS: 'KEEP THE WAR WORK GOING'

R. R. Smith, who lives six miles east of Cisco on route two, called at the Daily Press office Monday and subscribed for the paper for a year.
Mr. Smith, 61, is a stock farmer and lives on the farm where he was born, the 170-acre tract having been purchased from the state of Texas by his father, D. D. Smith, about 1872. The elder Smith died in 1938 at the age of 88 years and 10 months.
Mr. Smith at present has 17 head of cattle and a few horses and mules. He cultivates about 50 acres of the tract.
Smith is a bachelor and a veteran of the first world war. He is in full accord with the Texas law forbidding strikes on government work and is ready to answer a call from his government should he be needed to help keep this necessary work going. He is thoroughly convinced that so-called Americans who in any way impede defense projects should be treated exactly as enemy aliens or others detected in overt acts against the United States government.

80 REFINERIES IN ROCKIES TO MAKE RUBBER

SALT LAKE CITY, June 30.—Refinery executives from five western states met Monday with Wright W. Gary of Washington, D. C., federal director of refining, and outlined plans for a change-over to butadiene production, basic ingredient for one of the synthetic rubbers.
The program, Gary said, "is aimed to permit refining companies to convert surplus gasoline into butadiene, a volatile gas which will be shipped to synthetic rubber manufacturing plants, and other by-products, some of which will be valuable for use in high octane aviation gasoline, for making TNT and for making nylon."
He said existing equipment can be used to a large degree, but costs will be high and "it will be a period of several years before enough synthetic rubber can be made to supply the demand in addition to war needs, but by the end of this year we will be making some rubber."
Slaughter cattle were uneven on the Fort Worth market Tuesday with most prices steady to weak though spots were 15c to 25c lower on common grassers. Slaughter calves ruled weak to 25c lower. Stockers were weak and off mostly 25c or more with spots considerably lower on medium and low grades.
Hogs were steady to 5c down, but mostly steady with Monday's average at a top of $14.20 which was paid by all interests.
All classes of sheep and lambs were about steady.
Good to choice fed steers and yearlings cashed at $12 to $13.25. Sales included one package of steer yearlings at $13.25 and one load of long aged yearlings averaging 975 pounds at $13. Medium grade steers and yearlings brought $9.50 to $11 and common grassers $7.75 to $9.
Good beef cows turned at $9 to $9.75; butcher cows at $7.65 to $8.50, and canners and cutters at $4.75 to $7.50.
Good heavy bulls sold at $9.25 to $10.00; medium grades of medium weights at $8.25 to $9 and common light weight bulls at $7.25 to $8.
Good to choice fat calves ranged from $11 to $12 with scattering sales higher. Common to medium butcher calves cleared at $8.50 to $10.50 and culls at $7 to $8.25.
Stocker steer calves of the better grades sold at mostly $13.50 down and stocker heifer calves at $13 down. Common to medium stocker calves sold at $8 to $11. Stocker calves yearlings brought $12 down and stocker cows $9.25 down.

TWO DRIFTERS KIDNAP YOUNG EASTLAND GIRL

Sheriff Loss Woods said Monday that the two young men who kidnaped a young girl of Eastland county on Friday of last week, were now in the Eastland county jail, awaiting action of the grand jury. Woods said charges of kidnaping and auto theft would likely be made against the two, both of whom are strangers.
Woods said the men threatened the girl with a pistol, and forced her to stop the car just outside Eastland as she was returning home after having taken her father to Eastland, where he is employed. With the girl they drove through as far as Cameron, where they purchased gasoline, but drove off without paying for it in the direction of Hempstead. The service station operator telephoned to the towns near Cameron, as did Sheriff Woods.
Hempstead was on the lookout for the party, and arrested and placed the men in jail at Brenham, as they were caught in Washington county.
Woods went to Brenham and brought the two back to Eastland last week, deeming it best to let the prisoners remain in Brenham until sentiment against the pair had subsided, he said.
The girl stated that she was not molested by either of the men on the drive from Eastland to Hempstead.

CISCO WOMAN EARNS NAME OF 'PARKPLUG' FOR HER ENERGY DIRECTING YOUTH CARAVAN

AMY JO LONG
in Fort Worth Press
"Parkplug" is the term applied to Lela Latch, veteran young worker and adult counsellor in the Methodist Youth Center.
Four young people assigned to the Fort Worth Methodist churches for the summer, she launched the crusade here last week at Riverside Methodist church. Next week they will go to Boulevard Methodist.
The four young women in Fort Worth remember Miss Latch at their Adventure camps they attended when they were enterprising teens. They remember her carefully "slept through" the midnight snacks which were a bit of extra-curricular feature to their summer weeks. All the girls wanted to have her cabin, not because she was lenient in looking after charges, but because they depended upon her understanding interest.
Teacher in Cisco schools during winter months, Miss Latch for years has devoted her energy to church activities, particularly young people's work. Her third summer with the Caravan movement, which she joined four years ago. She missed touring with a team last year because of ill health.
Her success with young people is largely due to the fact that she doesn't try to have all the ideas and then railroad them through. It's the youngsters' project, and she lets them do the planning, standing by to give suggestions when they are needed.
Last week at Riverside, attendance averaged about 75 local young people a night for forums. Originality of the caravans was largely responsible, Tuesday night, when recreation was featured, a mock trial was held, a girl was tried for "killing time." The World Friendship forum Wednesday night had as guests a member of the Southwest Mexican Caravan and a member of the Mexican Methodist church here. For the community service program Thursday, data from local courts was used in a Fort Worth version of the play "Our Town."
Next week, too, the caravan assigned to nearby Central Texas conference towns will be at Broadway-Mulkey church here. At 3 p.m. tomorrow the two caravans will meet with Dr. S. A. Barnes, district superintendent, and with members of the Aldersgate sub-district cabinet to plan the youth activities week which will be held here August 1-7.

HEAVY RAIN

From 4 o'clock until 4:45 this afternoon, an inch and two-tenths of water fell in Cisco, according to the rain gauge at city hall.

NIECE OF CISCO WOMAN IS WED IN FORT WORTH

Miss Doris Jean Jaco, of Fort Worth, niece of Mrs. F. E. Shepard of Cisco, became the bride of Rev. Nick H. Kupferle, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Kupferle, 1904 Ashland avenue, Fort Worth, in a ceremony at 8 p. m. Saturday in Matthews Memorial Methodist church, Fort Worth, where the bridegroom is assistant pastor and the bride is church secretary. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jaco, 3216 Cockrell avenue, Ft. Worth.
Mrs. Frank A. Block, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor; Miss Betty Wilcoxin was maid-of-honor; Misses Kathryn Shepard of Cisco and Miss Betty Dean Jennings, cousins of the bride, and Miss Mary Jo Boykin were bridesmaids. Flower girls were Nancy Dungan and Kay Lee Smith.
Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kirten of Little Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Burdette and daughter, Frances, Mrs. D. W. Campbell and daughters, Hattie and Agnes, all of Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shepard and daughter, Kathryn Shepard, Cisco; Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Murrain and daughter, Marilyn, Dallas.
Marriages are increasing. Apparently word got around that there might be a shortage of boys and the girls stocked up.
It is a terrible thing to raise children who are just as thoughtless of you as you were of your parents.

RED CROSS AID

WASHINGTON, June 30.—President Roosevelt submitted to congress Tuesday a report of the American Red Cross showing that more than 15,000,000 persons in Europe, Asia and Africa had received "effective assistance" through that organization. The report said the value of the foreign war relief made available to all foreign countries by the American Red Cross as of April 30, 1942, totaled $60,732,194.

MARIHUANA RAIDS

SAN ANTONIO, June 30.—Raids on more than a half dozen places here early Tuesday resulted in the arrest of several men and the seizure of a large quantity of marihuana in what federal and city officials described as one of the largest cleanup drives here.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

CLYDE, June 30.—Killed Monday by the accidental discharge of a shotgun in the hands of his 8-year-old brother, Gerald Neal Tedford, 10, was buried here Tuesday. The boys were playing at the farm home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Tedford, with a weapon which they believed was not loaded.

CISCOANS GO TO SAN DIEGO TO SEE SON

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Foxworth and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anderson departed this morning for San Diego, Cal., where they will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Anderson's son, Calhoun Anderson, naval reserve officer and now stationed there. The Ciscoans are making the trip via highway 80.
Anderson, a native of Cisco, left here May 12 for San Francisco to volunteer for service with the armed forces. At the time he was a member of the Fort Worth law firm of Connor & James. He graduated with the Cisco high school class of 1928 and soon after entered Southern Methodist university, receiving his B. A. degree four years later. He then pursued the study of law at the same university and obtained his law degree there.

TEXAS FARM INCOME IN 1941 $787,522,000

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The nation's farmers received $11,830,000,000 in cash income from farm marketings, including government payments during 1941, the highest amount in any year since 1929, the agriculture department reports.
On the basis of revised figures, livestock and livestock products accounted for $6,450,000,000 of the 1941 total, while $4,794,000,000 came from crops and $866,000,000 from government payments.
Texans received $320,731,000 from livestock and livestock products, $403,144,000 from farm crops, $63,647,000 from government payments, or a total of $787,522,000 from all agricultural operations in 1941.
SOLDIER ROUGHNECKS
GALVESTON, June 30.—Four soldiers who escaped from Fort Crockett guardhouse after beating a sentry and taking a government-owned shotgun still were at liberty today.

ROMMEL ADVANCING

The Axis offensive into Egypt surged 45 miles eastward across the Egyptian desert to the Fuka sector today but met stiffening resistance by the British Eighth Army and Allied reinforcements which London dispatches said included American troops, tanks, airplanes and enormous equipment.
British mobile units, supported by powerful RAF and American bomber attacks, fought a bitter delaying action in the desert while the reinforced Eighth Army rapidly regrouped for defense of El Daba, only 80 miles west of Alexandria naval base.
"Allied air forces in the battle area continued to attack enemy ground forces day and night," a RAF communique said, disclosing that U. S. Army Air Corps bombers again had joined in heavy raids Sunday and Monday nights on the Axis supply base at Tobruk and the area west of Matruh.
"Numerous fires were started among motor transports, armored vehicles, enemy planes, harbor installations and supply ships."
The enemy threat to Alexandria, now only 120 miles away, and to Cairo and Suez was increasingly grave but desperate fighting was in progress over hundreds of square miles of desert battlefield and hope mounted that fresh Allied forces could start an effective counter-attack against the tired and extended armies of Nazi Field Marshal Erwin Rommel.

THEY MUST PAY

Warfare, of course, can never be really "civilized," and yet nations that are civilized in their hearts and their ordinary procedures usually manage to preserve a reasonable degree of civility in war time. They obey rules that have been laid down by international agreement, to mitigate the horrors of war as much as possible. They try to treat prisoners humanely. They cooperate readily in the exchange of prisoners, and in efforts made by the friends of prisoners to alleviate their discomforts.

It is hard, however, to do anything for American prisoners in the hands of the Japanese. The captors do seem to have stopped the barbarous treatment inflicted on some of the first prisoners captured in the Pacific war, which were so hideous as to shock the world. But they still make it as hard as possible for the families and friends of their prisoners to send them cigarettes, chocolate and other small comforts—which are great to the captives.

Thus the San Francisco Press club and also the Red Cross have been steadily foiled in their efforts, by shallow pretenses on the part of the Japanese at Shanghai, Hong Kong, in Japan and the Philippines. Even Red Cross medical supplies are held up.

For all this malevolence Japan will pay in the long run.

EXPERIENCE

"A man should never be ashamed to own he has been in the wrong," said Pope a long time ago, "which is but saying in other words that he is wiser today than he was yesterday."

That is a wise bit of illumination on a subject that bothers many people. They think that in some way they lose face if they own up to a mistake or a misdoing. Realizing that confession of yesterday's failure is also the manifestation of today's greater wisdom ought to make it easier to go on from there.

The British, by this time, ought to be pretty wise in war. They have made many mistakes and suffered many defeats. They have learned—academically—by all these former errors and disasters. Can they now transmit their greater knowledge into successful action? That is the really pressing question of the day.

BASEBALL IMMORTAL

Paul Waner has joined the immortals. Playing for the Boston Braves, he has become the seventh player in baseball history to make 3,000 hits, and this keep company with such famous major stars as Cobb, Speaker, Wagner, Lajoie, Collins and the father of them all, old Adrian C. Anson.

To make 3,000 hits a player must average 200 hits a season for 15 seasons. Few last as long as 15 years, and fewer make 200 hits in one season, let alone 15. To make 200 hits a year, a player must get a hit and a third per game if he plays every day. Every game missed makes his task that much harder.

Paul Waner has played 17 years, and probably will not better his record very much. With his brother Lloyd he made the most successful brother combination in baseball records. Known to opposing teams as "Big Poison" and "Little Poison," Paul and Lloyd made pitchers miserable for 15 years, and Pittsburgh correspondingly happy. Now neither is with his original team, but neither is forgotten.

DOOR-KEY CHILDREN

When the traffic toll of children increases, although there are fewer cars and slower driving, something is wrong.

When delinquency increases, bands of marauding boys break into homes, schoolhouses and other places and wreak mischief, stealing and destroying there, too, is evidence that something is wrong.

When small children show up on the streets or at settlement houses and playgrounds, alone, with door-keys on strings around their necks, so they can get into their empty homes in case of need, the situation is serious. That is happening where women go into factories to work. It's easy enough to dismiss the matter by saying that women should not work outside their homes. But many mothers have accumulated debts left from the depression. Factory work offers a chance to catch up. They hope the children won't suffer from a few months' freedom. Also, the nation needs work done by women.

Supervised playgrounds, nursery schools, summer schools are needed. Many communities shy from the expense involved—the increased tax rate. But nothing is more expensive in the long run than allowing children to run on the loose. Future good citizens need discipline when young, together with loving and intelligent care. A serious problem is here set before all factory communities. It must be met and solved before it becomes too perilous.

OPEN FORUM

The Senatorial Race

Editor Daily Press: The writer does not know how you intend to vote in the United States senatorial race on July 23, but he wishes to express his appreciation of the Daily Press in not filling its columns with Moody-Alfred slush and attacks on the present incumbent, Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, as many papers throughout Texas feel called upon to do.

No matter what his opponents say, Mr. O'Daniel was instrumental in giving Texas its law against strikes on defense projects, and was one of the few men in America who came out boldly at the beginning and took this stand, when it was most needed by the government.

This will be one of the big issues after the war, and when returned to the United States senate, and very probably in the first primary, Senator O'Daniel will eventually be able to get a similar federal bill enacted into law, as demanded by the people on the farms and in the small towns throughout this country.

I and many, many friends contend Senator O'Daniel will do much more to help our president in winning the war than Mr. Moody and Mr. Alfred could do if we elected both of them. Vote as you see fit, but we appreciate your fair play.

Should Be Patriotic

Editor Daily Press: I wonder if it is true that a few people draw salaries for heading the USO? Since this organization is strictly a donation affair, it would seem that those interested should be glad to give their time. After all, our boys are offering their lives in defense of their country. So, I wonder if salaries are accepted in this organization? I hope not. A TAXPAYER.

July, 1927

(Files of Cisco Daily News)

All West Texas swam as guests of President Frank Harrell of the Lake Cisco Amusement company Thursday night, June 30, 1927.

Thousands of persons gathered at the beach and several hundred of them went into the water during the period between 4 and 10 p. m., when the pool was opened free to bathers. No accurate check on the number was available, since no tickets were required. Visitors came from surrounding cities, with Eastland, Ranger and Breckenridge sending many. Automobile license plates indicated many were here from Moran and Albany and Rising Star, while some from Brownwood were here. The crowd was perhaps the densest at 10 o'clock when the dance floor was filled with couples, with hundreds looking on. At this hour, automobiles were standing the distance of several blocks, reaching from the bathing beach past the zoo, waiting to get near the pool. The entire canyon below the dam was choked with automobiles, while many parked above the canyon. The bathing beach will be open from now on, with special features planned for the Fourth of July.

Directors of the Cisco chamber of commerce, meeting Friday night, voted to put on such a celebration here July 22 that will attract a crowd of not less than 50,000 persons for dedication of Williamson dam bridge, Highway 23, the Lake Cisco Bathing beach, the Country club, and the state fish hatchery. Committees were named and instructed to get to work at once, planning for a crowd larger than any ever yet seen in Cisco. A finance committee was named with instructions to raise $2,500 with which to defray expenses of the celebration, and $700 was raised at the meeting, including $500 from the Lake Cisco Amusement company, $100 from Rockwell Bros. lumber company, and $100 from the West Texas Utilities company. The finance committee was named to include P. W. Campbell, chairman; Alex Spears, Guy Dabney, J. M. Williamson, J. E. Tichenor and Phil Keelan. They are expected to begin solicitation Tuesday morning. H. S. Drumwright, chairman of the bathing revue features, Friday announced the other members of his committee to assist in the work. They are Mrs. Guy Dabney, Mrs. W. W. Wallace, C. R. West, Nick Miller and E. Mack Wilson. It is expected that the bathing girl revue will be one of the biggest events of the whole celebration which is planned to eclipse all previous efforts in this line by Cisco.

Cisco postoffice became first class Friday and Postmaster Bill Triplett is elated. Beginning the new fiscal year after the receipts for the last calendar year had qualified the Cisco office for first class, the office advanced in rank today. This advance means that additional help will be available when needed to care for growing business, that an increase will be made in the postmaster's salary, and that the post office as a whole will get greater attention from the postal authorities higher up, with the result that better service can be expected. Cisco now has the only first class postoffice in the county. Receipts by months for second quarter of 1926 were: April $3,843.65; May $3,053.15; June $2,834.25. Receipts by months for the corresponding period of this year were: April $3,591.51; May $2,904.82; June $3,070.00.

Otho Stubblefield, son of Henry Stubblefield of Cisco and recently returned from the University of Texas where he completed his business course, is leaving for San Antonio where next week he will sing with a quartet known as the "University of Texas Boondlers." The quartet was offered a very liberal contract at the Attee theatre in San Antonio, and may appear there for a month. Young Stubblefield will return to the university in the fall to study law.

The final contract for completion of the First Baptist church has been signed up and the work set forward at greater speed. Mr. Christy of the Christy-Dolph Construction company met with the building committee of the church Thursday and went over the work of the entire project with them. Mr. Christy told the committee that they wanted only seventy-five days from that date to complete the building. This will set the opening date of the church for about the first Sunday in October.

Standing committees for the next year's work by the Cisco Rotary club were appointed Tuesday by A. B. O'Flaherty, recently elected president of the club. The appointments are now in effect and the committees are in charge of their respective programs of work. Dr. Paul Woods will be acting chairman of the program committee until return of the chairman, Rev. B. C. Boney, now touring Europe. Following are the committees: Program—B. C. Boney, Paul Woods, Leon Maner, Tom Reid. Boys' Work—O. J. Russell, Lee Smith, K. N. Greer, Charles Gray. Fellowship—C. P. Cole, Asa Skiles, Jas. E. Tichenor, Charles Brown. Attendance—P. W. Campbell, G. M. Stephenson, J. E. T. Peters, W. W. Johnston, P. G. Berry. Rotary Education—E. P. Crawford, T. T. Roberts, J. C. McAfee, J. J. Collins. Classification—Philip Pettit, Henry Drumwright, Dudley Lee, Dr. E. L. Graham. Publicity—F. E. Harrell, J. B. Cate, Don Sivals, W. J. Armstrong. Business Methods and Public Affairs—J. E. Spencer, J. M. Williamson, F. D. Wright, R. Q. Lee, J. T. Anderson. Students' Loan Fund—W. W. Wallace, E. H. Varnell, C. H. Van Eman, J. B. Chandler.

SEVEN AND EIGHT-TENTHS ALL OLD-AGE RECIPIENTS RECEIVED $30 IN MAY; $18 GRANT NEXT

AUSTIN, June 30.—Seven and eight-tenths per cent of all old-age assistance recipients received $30 per month in May. Next in frequency was the $18 grant which went to 7.7 per cent of those on the rolls. The $20 grant was third in frequency, going to 7.5 per cent. Fourth in popularity was the $17 grant, going to 7.4 per cent. After reaching $20 the higher grants steadily declined in frequency, only 1.3 per cent receiving $29. This trend indicates that normally around 1.3 per cent of all recipients would receive $30 per month and approximately 6.5 per cent of all recipients actually need more. Three and one-tenth per cent of the 172,324 old age recipients in May received $10 or less per month; 60.9 per cent received $20 or less; 39.1 per cent received above $20. Of the 2,999 needy blind recipients in May, 23.2 per cent received $30 grants. Blind assistance grants were distributed fairly evenly from $14 to $30 with only 4.2 per cent receiving under $14. Ninety-five per cent of all recipients of aid to dependent children received maximum grants. Thirty-five per cent received the $16 maximum for one child and 60 per cent received the $24 maximum for families with more than one child. Prior to May, 1942, the state department of public welfare completed 4,858 investigations of claimed dependency for local selective service boards. Reflecting the quick action of selective service boards in making reclassifications when war was declared, the department was 1,032 dependency investigations in December as compared with 223 the previous month. Around 400 investigations are made in an average month. Welfare officials expressed the opinion that a much greater number of dependency investigations will be made in the future, an agreement recently being entered into with the selective service board whereby welfare workers have been assigned to these investigations in every county.

Canada Cited as "Airdrome of Democracy" by President Roosevelt; Training Methods Produce Aviators Whose Skill Outdoes Enemy's

President Lauds Dominion's Work In Air Training

Canadian youth is writing a story of daring and heroism in the war-torn skies of the world. The Royal Canadian Air Force's part in the aerial battles of this planetary war has become a daily recital of stubborn perseverance, cool reconnaissance and perilous missions.

All of this is not accident, or dependent entirely on the bravado and courage of remote individuals. The work these flyers are doing reflects the training they have received. By present-day standards the Air Force with which Canada entered the war was hopelessly inadequate but now they have attained the praise and recognition of the entire United Nations.

At a recent air training conference held in Ottawa Major General Barton K. Yount, commander of the United States Air Forces flying training command, stated that the United Nations have learned a great deal from Canada's air force training methods.

One of the highlights of the conference was a message from President Roosevelt, which was read by Mr. Robert A. Lovett, United States Assistant Secretary of War for Air, which said in part: "... it is particularly fitting that this conference should be held in Canada, for Canada is increasingly becoming the airdrome of democracy, sending from her training fields thousands upon thousands of her own men of the other United Nations to fight in the cause of liberty."

featured for evenings at home or "dinner in the garden," if you've got a garden suitable for all fresco dining. These come in rayon crepe prints, rayon sheers or in heavy rayon satin. Housecoats and quilted printed negligees are popular in pastels with fancy trimmings such as velvet bows and ruffling at the neckline.

Most exotic of these informal doodads are patio pajamas. These are styled with much fullness in the legs, giving the impression of a dress when the wearer stands still. Huge leaf prints are especially good for these exciting garments.

The gentleman of the house may be slightly poyepped when he sees you in negligee or pajamas at the dinner table but the answer is simple. C'est la guerre!
