Texas' Monthly Operating Expense Now Totals Eighteen Million Dollars

STIN, July 11.—It's tax time as this month, although the years usually think of it as in the month of January, taxes are paid largely in January and August are the months when the amount of taxes paid is determined.

The state board of education has started the movement which will end in the taxpayer's book next January. At its 58th meeting the board decided to pay school districts for each person of school age in the state.

The distribution is based on the scholastics, not on actual attendance. A school census was taken in March. A company with a large number of its children in private and parochial schools gets the $22.50 for each child without any of its children being privately educated. The next step in taxes will be taken by the state automatic board which consists of the governor, the state treasurer and the state comptroller.

As indicated by the name, the duties of the board are chancery. Why three electors were designated to perform the duty of fixing the tax rate is hard to understand. It could as well be done by an accountant or by a school student who has had a fair study of arithmetic.

All that is required is a long division. There are no simple processes which could be without effect. The state tax board fixes only the rate of ad valorem taxes—taxes which are determined by multiplying the value of a property by a tax rate to find out how much he shall pay. Taxes are known as special taxes.

The state tax board first adds demands on the state school fund and those on the general pension fund. It does not have to worry about the pension fund, for the commission directs a levy of seven percent on that which will produce more than enough to pay pension claims. Only the state can reduce the tax rate.

SENATOR O'DANIEL AND HAL H. COLLINS SPOKE TO FAIR-SIZED CROWD, NOON HOUR SATURDAY

Cisco and Eastland county citizens were treated to a double political bill Saturday noon when United States Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, candidate for re-election and Hal H. Collins, Mineral Wells business man and candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, brought their candidacies to this section of Texas. They spoke from the same platform truck in the street just north of the postoffice. Approximately 1,200 people were present. It was a very good crowd, considering it was the noon hour and the shortage of auto tires.

Senator O'Daniel has three musicians in his party, his son Mike, Texas Song Bird and Texas Rose. These travel with the senator in a sedan. The Collins group is composed of the Crazy Water Gang of five musicians and the candidate. The candidates did not endorse each other.

The speaking started at 12:45 when Collins opened his broadcast over a radio chain using seven stations. He charged that there is a conspiracy abroad at this time to bring back horse racing and that all of the touts and gamblers are opposing his candidacy. He declared if he is elected governor he will use the Texas Rangers, if necessary, to clean up the roadside honky tonks and joints he termed as "cess pools of hell."

Vast Sums Money. Senator O'Daniel, red-faced from campaigning of a month under the Texas sun, warned his hearers that vast sums of money are being poured into Texas to bring about his defeat. He said that much of this money had been filched from the pockets of honest laboring men by union labor communistic leaders, who see the downfall of our present form of democratic government. He said if voting with President Roosevelt on every war issue be treason, then let the twins make the most of it.

Son a Corporal. During his address the senator said "how can any one take the war lightly when their own flesh and blood is in there?" The senator's eldest son, Pat, is a corporal in training at Fort Benning, Ga., and "is out there digging fox holes and drilling along with your boys," he said.

SEN. W. LEE O'DANIEL.

NAZARENES FROM 68 CHURCHES WILL HOLD CAMP MEETING AT LAKE CISCO, JULY 13 TO 19

The Church of the Nazarene of the Abilene district, will hold its second annual camp meeting at Lake Cisco, beginning Monday and continuing through July 19. The services of this group, numbering 68 churches, will be held at the Presbyterian encampment grounds, according to Rev. John L. Knight, Mineral Wells, district superintendent, who is here arranging the details.

Mr. Knight stated Saturday that there were about 300 in attendance last year, but he is sure there will be more this year. Prominent speakers will be on the program during the week, one of which is Dr. H. V. Miller, of Kansas City, Mo., who is one of the four general superintendents of the church. Dr. Miller will open the meeting Monday night and will speak at 11 o'clock each morning and at 8:30 each evening.

Dr. J. Glenn Gould, also of Kansas City, will speak at 9 a. m. and at 3 p. m. Tuesday and Wednesday, only. Dr. Gould is the editor of the Nazarene Sunday school literature.

Another noted speaker will be John L. Peters of Bethany, Okla., professor of philosophy in the Nazarene college at that place. Professor Peters was a special speaker here last year.

Rev. W. B. Chandler, pastor of the First Nazarene church at Abilene, will direct the music.

BIBLE STUDY MEETINGS A BIG SUCCESS

When a congregation of 150 to 200 people will meet every night, as they have for the past week on the lawn of a First Methodist church, to spend an hour in the study of the Bible, we may be sure that the appeal of this Book of Books is still strong for human hearts, said Rev. Leslie Seymour, pastor of the church, in referring to the Bible conference which concluded Friday night.

This series of special services conducted by Dr. James T. Carlyon of the school of theology at Southern Methodist university, is a new and unique venture in Bible study. Not announced as a revival meeting but as definite and intensive Bible study the success of the effort was a matter of uncertainty in the minds of those who planned it. However, when the interest and response of the people were so widespread and persistent through the week the officials of the church felt the undertaking was amply justified.

CISCOAN IN 4 BIG BATTLES

Jural Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Watts and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dill, is here from Los Angeles for a brief furlough from his duties aboard "one of the greatest fighting ships of the navy," to quote Seaman Watts. He is a gunner, as is Woodrow Syduor, his friend, who accompanied him here. Syduor's home is Norfolk, Va.

Both boys have been through four major battles—that of Pearl Harbor, the Coral Sea, Marshall and Gilbert Islands and at Midway. Their ship, which they would identify only as a heavy cruiser, was close by when the SS. Lexington was sunk.

Mr. and Mrs. Dill will entertain at dinner today in honor of the fighting lads from the sea and a large number of the Dill clan and other friends will be present to do them honor.

ALLIED RAIDS TAKE TOLL OF JAP INVADERS

CHUNGKING, July 11.—Allied planes blasted Japanese headquarters at Linchwan, main base of the enemy's drive into Central Kuangsi Province, "with satisfactory results" Friday, Lieut. Gen. Joseph Stilwell's headquarters announced Saturday night.

The communiqué said two planes failed to return—the first official reference to Allied losses since the Flying Tigers of the AVG were incorporated into the United States Air Force in China. Linchwan is in the Kuangsi area, where the Chinese reported the ambush and scattering of 30,000 Japanese.

RUSSIANS JABBING AT THREE-PRONG GERMAN SPEAR-HEAD IN DON RIVER SLOWED CAMPAIGN

CAIRO, Egypt, July 11 — Allied airmen thundered into action Saturday with the mightiest air assault ever witnessed in the desert in support of British ground forces which advanced five miles on the northern sector of the El Alamein front Friday.

A greatly strengthened enemy air force rose to challenge the violent Allied assault and dog-fights raged high above a huge expanse of desert.

The Axis force appeared to be drawing mainly on the Italians for air reinforcements, losing many of them.

British Gen. Sir Claude Auchinleck reopened the savage desert fighting Friday with the drive that bent back the Axis lines on the north. A number of prisoners were captured in the British thrust, which began before dawn, and casualties were inflicted on the enemy, a communiqué said. It also spoke of damage wrought, referring presumably to Axis motorized equipment.

Axis Thrust in South. The British thrust was accompanied by an Axis advance eastward in the southern sector of the front and British mobile columns engaged this force.

The five-mile British advance was made along the railroad line leading westward from El Alamein. While the British and German forces clashed in both the northern and southern sectors of the El Alamein front, RAF fighter planes moved overhead to attack Axis gun emplacements.

Large forces of enemy bombers escorted by fighters were engaged in battle by these RAF planes and at least eight Axis fighters were shot down, the communiqué said. Many others were damaged.

In addition, two Axis aircraft were destroyed on a landing field at El Daba, 35 miles west of El Alamein, it was reported.

Fighting Over Malta. Axis aircraft were very active over Malta again Friday, the joint RAF-general headquarters communiqué said, and RAF fighters shot down 19 enemy planes.

Fresh Axis Supplies. That the German commander has fresh supplies for the struggle was a certainty, for British reports have told of Axis convoys moving across the Mediterranean toward Libya. Some of these supply ships have been sunk by British submarines and others have been attacked by United States Army bombers.

NAZI GOING ROUGH. MOSCOW, July 11.—German divisions having captured Rossosh, pressed a three-pronged offensive toward the Don river with such vigor that the Russian army newspaper Red Star acknowledged their "developing success" Saturday.

Following the study and discussion period there will be a worship service directed by the young people of German.

Rev. C. D. Wooten, pastor of the Cross Plains Methodist church, will have charge of the program of recreation.

Leonard Garrett of Stephenville is president of the district organization. Each person going is to take a basket lunch to be spread with the others for the picnic supper. The Cisco delegation will leave from the local Methodist church at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

He was accompanied by G. W. Kinney of Haschtou, Ga., who is visiting friends and relatives in this section of the state. Mr. Kinney has a sister, Mrs. S. E. Wood, south of Rising Star, and a brother, Andrew Kinney, of near Brady.

NAZIS CLAIM NEW.

LONDON, July 11.—A large Japanese convoy, escorted by navy cruisers, reached the Aleutian Islands early this week, the Berlin radio declared Saturday according to Reuter's News Agency. The Berlin announcement quoted Tokyo dispatches as declaring the Japanese had encountered no opposition during the trip from Japan or during the disembarkation at the Aleutians.

Area of Fighting West of Voronezh is Spreading.

The Vichy radio said Soviet troops had blasted a three-mile breach in the Nazi lines above Voronezh, apparently in a series of counter-actions reaching north-westward as far as 160 miles to Orel.

The Soviet defenders of Kantemirovka, 45 miles south of Rossosh, were reported by the army publication to be operating under "very unprofitable and difficult conditions."

North of the Kurak-Voronezh swedge, however, all German attacks were declared to have been consistently repelled, with the Germans now on the defensive, digging in and relying on their air force to ward off Soviet attacks.

CRISIS

The world today seems to be at the top of its crisis. It is the biggest test of modern civilization. In some ways this era may be likened to the fourth and fifth centuries, when the Goths and Huns swept down upon the Roman Empire and destroyed it.

But ancient Rome was decadent and already far down in vigor and ideals, when those barbarians assailed it. The modern civilization represented by the free nations of Europe and America is supposed to be at the very apex of modern progress.

This civilization has been considered, until lately, as including Germany and Japan, the two nations now foremost in trying to destroy the free powers. But they are now seen as representing a resurgence of barbaric power that attacks the ideals and finest achievements of the free modern nations, and aims to replace them by a regime of brute force.

Their triumph would destroy the souls of men, and the liberties and deencies and high aspirations for which enlightened moderns have fought for many ages. Theirs would be a rule of remorseless power, wielding the forces of nature for selfish and evil purposes. It would be a reversal of civilization and a betrayal of the human soul.

NEW GOLF CHAMPION

A new golf prodigy is looming up. Clayton Heafner, Durham, N. C., professional, lately shot a 294 at the Mahoning golf course in Girard, O. This ties Craig Wood's record made in 1940 at Bloomfield, N. J.

Golf authorities say that they will not accept Heafner's record because the course is only 6,004 yards long. To be recognized for record purposes it should have been at least 6,400 yards long. That, Heafner admires believe merely postpones the day when he will make a new record.

Evidently, despite the demands of the armed forces, there is plenty of manpower left.

Fortunately Elmer Davis, our new director of public information, is not unprejudiced. His wife says that he has a definite bias against Hitler.

STRANGE FOODS

Peaches, cherries, marching music in four-part rhythm, came into western Europe following the Crusades. The knights and men-at-arms learned to like the fruits of the East. They brought home the seeds and planted them.

Many a Yank learned for the first time to eat an omelet with green herbs in France in the last war. Many a "Frog" for the first time then saw doughnuts, and ate them, after the first French hesitation at anything new, with great pleasure.

Now the letters home from Australia tell of the rich cream, too thick to pour, the scrambled eggs on beefsteak, the tendency to serve everything on toast. The Yanks lap up the cream, put down the steaks with eggs and love them. They gain weight, have fun and are delighted with the Australians.

But they miss their salads. The raw, green foods, the lightly-cooked vegetables with which American tables are familiar, are missing. So perhaps the Aussies will learn something from the A. E. F. They may come to like the salads, even while they make fun of the Yanks for wanting rabbit fodder.

Not only wounds and waste go with war. Foods and friendships go 'round the world with it, too.

NEAT CELEBRATION

There may have seemed to be a lack of old-fashioned celebrations on the Fourth of July this year. Many places had no fireworks at all. But the day was nobly celebrated, just the same. The navy took care of that, modestly and effectively, in the foggy

WAR JUSTICE.

In all this talk, much of it premature, about what kind of peace shall be made when the war is over, it is well to bear in mind a statement made by Woodrow Wilson last time.

"When we speak of justice to the enemy," he says, "let us remember that there must be justice for the millions who have been killed and maimed, justice for the torn and bent lives of the greater millions who survived, justice for the hopes of those who do not want to live through such hell again."

War is grim business, and it takes also grim resolution to mop up a war when it is ended and apply the principles that have been established. Unfortunately the United States after the last war WALKED OUT of the courtroom and left everything for his partners to decide.

Thereupon they stupidly applied penalties that would take half a century to pay. Simple-minded Americans then stupidly lent Germany the money to pay at first, and lost it when Germany walked out on her obligations with a fake revolution, leaving all her creditors flat.

This time there should be a fair trial and a fair and practical penalty, and the penalty should be enforced by armed power. Nobody knows now what that penalty should be, but it certainly should guard against a repetition of the last fiasco.

Aleutian area, using four Japanese destroyers for the purpose. It happened very neatly, right near the tip of that island chain which the Japs have been infesting lately. Patrick Henry and Stephen Decatur would appreciate that.

Incidentally, any American who imagined that enemy submarines were having things all their own way in this man's war had his error pointed out for him. It was American subs that did the job, just as American subs have been doing quietly in many another fighting zone. The British, too, have done a lot of such useful blinding. Not enough credit is given to the submarine men who have the hardest and most unpleasant job of all the fighting forces.

Pericles, the greatest statesman of ancient Greece, said of one war in which his country was involved: "We choose to die resisting rather than to live submitting."

THE SPRINGHOUSE

Down mossy steps, beyond the white glare of the sun, into a dripping coolness of lichen-encrusted immemorial stones: Here is the sharp chill of mint, clear tang of pennyroyal, and all of childhood's forgotten scents and tones:

Sweet pats of butter, stone crooks of golden cream, Sunk in a clouded light of green-gold gloom; The dappled summer light that falls through leaves, And drops gold coins within an old stone room.

And here a bowl of glowing red raspberries, the frost Of bloom still fresh, cools in the crystal spring; And here in this deep silence of a century or more, Even at midday, bright black crickets sing.

Because two youths hung grimly to an automobile chase that ended in rough pasture land after a six mile race over a highway and a dash through a wire fence, an automobile stolen here Thursday evening and 24 inner tubes stolen from an Eastland service station have been recovered and one youth faces charges of automobile theft.

Arlen and Eldon Birt, sons of County Commissioner Arch Birt, were the youths whose persistence resulted in the recovery of the stolen goods. At their home at Dolhan Friday afternoon they saw a car pass which answered description of a Ford roadster stolen from Ceaborn Yeager here Thursday evening. They jumped in their own car and gave chase. Two men in the pursued machine pushed it to the limit out the highway northwest of Dothan toward Moran, but the brothers crowded them closely. Six miles further on the suspect car left the highway and plunged through a wire fence into a pasture. The brothers did not hesitate, and after a wild dash over the rough ranch ground, the suspects, unable to shake off their pursuers, abandoned their machine in flight through the underbrush. The inner tubes, recovered with the car, were identified as having been stolen from a T and P service station in Eastland.

In a program without ceremony today Phillip Pettit, manager of the Cisco district of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company, became the Cisco Rotary club's president for the next 12 months. He succeeds J. J. Collins, local hardware dealer, who has not yet returned from Boston where he attended the convention of Rotary International as the local club's delegate. "Any old thing can be a president," he said. "If this club succeeds in its 1933-34 program it will have to depend upon each of you to do it."

CURTIS

The farmers sure have appreciated this nice weather we have had the past week, although we had a good rain last Friday morning, which was appreciated.

Everybody seemed to enjoy the fourth in a merry way, in spite of this awful war taking so many of our noble boys away. But we are behind them one hundred per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brawley were pleasantly surprised Friday night when their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter Brawley, of Roscoe, Tex., came for an extended visit with them. There was still a surprise in store for them, for real daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Williams, of Leonard, Tex., came to spend the fourth. They had a family reunion, but there were two vacant chairs at the table. Their eldest son, Pvt. Walter R. Brawley, is stationed at 7th A. D. G., 195th Chem. Plat., Brookley Field, Mobile, Ala. He wrote that he is enjoying all kinds of sports and rifle practice. Their other son is at Roscoe, working. Reports are that crops at Lamesa and Roscoe are fair, but very much in need of rain, which we are in hopes they get.

Mrs. Owen Swinney spent the fourth with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lutteral, of Dan Horn.

Billy Swinney and Frank Jackson, who have been visiting here for some time, spent the fourth with Frank's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Connor of Eastland. They returned Tuesday afternoon. Frank said he wanted to help his uncle Owen hoe peanuts and shoot rabbits, which are plentiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvey Bible and children attended to business in Nimrod late Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Brawley and children, Dorothy Fay and Annette Marie, and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Williams visited for awhile Saturday evening with Mr. Williams' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Notgrass and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Notgrass' parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Pierce.

Pete Marsh of Camp Wolters, Mineral Wells, spent the fourth with his brother, Frank Marsh, and family and other friends of this community.

Mrs. J. W. Brawley and children visited for awhile Saturday night with their brother, sister and uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Don Curtis, of the Cook community.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvey Bible and children visited for awhile in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Pierce Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Brawley and sisters-in-law, Misses Edera and Elma Brawley, made short visits in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spillers and Mr. and Mrs. Alvey Bible Sunday afternoon.

We are having quite a number of visits from candidates the past few days.

Mrs. J. W. Brawley and son, Clifton, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter Brawley, attended to business in Rising Star Tuesday of this week.

tax ad valorem levy so the total state ad valorem tax rate was 58 cents.

August's part of the tax business will be the preparation of county budgets and the levying of county tax rates.

The taxes to be paid next January will be on property values as of Jan. 1 this year. The taxes are spoken of as January taxes because they become delinquent and subject to interest and penalties after Jan. 31. Really they can be paid as early as Oct. 1 and earn a discount, but so many more are paid in January than any other month that they are looked upon as January taxes.

It now is costing the state approximately $18,000,000 a month to operate. A summary of warrants issued and paid in June by the state treasury shows that 304,998 warrants were issued for a total of $17,804,187. Warrants paid during the month totaled $18,349,406. The variation is due to warrants not being returned immediately for payment after they have been sent to the claimants.

State highways had the greatest amount in value of warrants issued which was $5,068,557. The greatest number of warrants were those issued on the old age assistance fund. These numbered 174,925 and called for payment of $3,448,620, half of which was supplied by federal matching money.

The Confederate pension fund, which has gotten out of the red after many years, had a total of 2,606 warrants issued for $67,962. Five veterans and 27 widows of veterans living in the respective homes established for them received $12.50 each. Sixty-nine single veterans and 2,478 widows of veterans living outside the state homes received $25 each, and 33 married couples received $50 each. During June three Confederate veterans and 29 widows of veterans died.

With many Texas counties investing their permanent school funds in U. S. war bonds, a ruling has been furnished by Attorney General Gerald C. Mann on the proper endorsement on such securities.

Hill county, one of the inquirers, was advised that the proper notation is: "County of Hill, Texas, trustee for the permanent school fund under Article 2824 Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes."
