STEVENSONS FIGHT FIERCELY, BUT MUST HAVE HELP

COKE STEVENSON'S PLEDGE, "IF ELECTED, I WILL SERVE FAITHFULLY WITH HEART, HEAD, HANDS"

ELECTION CLAIMS DIFFER

CISCO, July 22.—Neighbors of Coke Stevenson met here Tuesday night to elect a man who has served his community, his district and his state well. They participated in and listened to a radio rally sponsored by the Kimble County Stevenson-Governor club. Three radio stations broadcast the program.

Jack Todd, of Longview, who is visiting in this area in the interest of James A. Allred's candidacy for the United States senate, spent several hours in Cisco this morning and called at the Daily Press office.

"Things look good for Judge Allred," Todd said, "and we are confident he will lead in the first primary, with O'Daniel second and Moody third."

On the other hand, Moody supporters assert their candidate will be in the lead when Saturday's votes are counted and that the gentleman from Taylor will fight it out with Senator O'Daniel in the run-off election.

A partial poll of local sentiment indicates that some Cisco voters will support Mr. O'Daniel who have voted against him in the past. Those who express their intentions give as the reason for the change that it is solely because of the senator's outspoken denunciation of labor racketeers, who in addition to inciting strikes are being permitted to collect large sums of money from defense workers before the latter are allowed to take positions in vital government war plants. O'Daniel adherents assert their man will win in the first primary.

So, there you are, folks—get out early Saturday and vote as you deem best.

GOOD NEIGHBORS—The citizens of Guatemala City got a double kick out of the parade during the annual Campo de Marte fiesta this year. Not only was the parade good, but it had a Good Neighbor aspect through the participation of these U. S. troops.

OPINION IS STRONG LAUNCHING OF SECOND FRONT TO AID SOVIET MAY COME WITHIN FEW HOURS

Russian reinforcements, backed by an army reported moved westward from the Urals, massed for the battle of the Caucasus today as the Germans claimed a break-through on the lower Don river and an advance in semi-circle around the key city of Rostov.

Soviet dispatches acknowledged enemy advances of "some distance" on the lower Don front, but said that Russian counter-attacks and aerial blows continued to make the Axis gains costly, including 3000 killed and 19 tanks knocked out in one engagement.

Soviet gains also were extended on the enemy north flank at Voronezh, where more towns were captured and four enemy bridges knocked out in fighting that cost the Germans 10,000 dead on one sector in the last two weeks.

But front line dispatches to Moscow again told of German gains in the south and emphasized the Russian hope that Allied plans -- still clouded by secrecy in London and apparently not yet at a decisive stage -- for a second front would be speeded.

"The resistance of the enemy on a planned basis in the area of Rostov has collapsed," the German communique claimed.

Livestock Prices Down a Bit, But Local Auction Well Patronized Tuesday

Sales at the Cisco Auction Exchange ranged around $5,000 with plenty of offerings and plenty of buyers, but prices are down a bit, here and elsewhere, at present. However, stock that changed hands brought very fair returns, according to Paul Booth, secretary for the auction barns.

Another feature of the even Tuesday afternoon was that stock sold in bunches and were bought in larger than usual groups.

W. T. Booth sold 84 goats, Gus Brandon sold 28 cattle and J. A. Brandon sold 25 cattle. Other men sold in groups of 8 to 15 head of cattle.

METAL IS SORELY NEEDED

John H. Kleiner, Cisco chairman for the government's drive for scrap metal, announces that the vacant lot of George Ruppert, just across Seventh street from Green's funeral home, will be used as a collection depot for scrap metal.

Metal that is to be donated may be deposited on this lot and when sold to junk dealers the proceeds will be turned over to the local Red Cross, Kleiner said.

Metal for which the owners expect payment should be delivered direct to the junk dealers, he added.

Mr. Kleiner emphasized that tin cans, or tin in any form, is not desired and should not be mixed in with scrap metal. However, Charles S. Sandler will buy all the tin offered if delivered to his place of business.

For any special information relative to the drive for metal, telephone 314.

JAS. J. SPOON WITH AIR CORPS IN AUSTRALIA

J. H. Spoon, 1221 D avenue, stopped in at the Daily Press office this morning and subscribed for the paper—"in order that wife and I may keep up with the news, both war and local," he stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Spoon received a letter from their son, James J. Spoon, recently. The young man is with the air corps and is presumed to be somewhere in Australia, or near by.

James J. Spoon was born in Cisco, is about 22 years of age and joined the service two years ago. The last letter from him said he was hunkadory and was well pleased with the service.

ALBERT GLEASON DIES.

Albert J. Gleason, father of Mrs. J. M. Perkins of Eastland, past president of Texas Federated Women's clubs, died at his home in Gleasondale, Mass., Monday and was buried at Hudson, Mass. He was 75 years of age and had visited Mr. and Mrs. Perkins at their home in Eastland on numerous occasions. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and their daughter, Miss Dorothy Perkins, were in South Dakota when they received word of Mr. Gleason's illness. Mrs. Perkins hurried to his bedside and was with him when death came.

LAREDO, July 22.—The 53-year-old street car tracks have been called out of retirement to go to war. Mayor Hugh S. Cluck transferred ownership of the 200 tons of steel to the war production board, which will supervise relaying of the ancient rails at points where war production requires additional trackage.

BEATEN TO DEATH

ABILENE, July 22.—Police early Wednesday sought a graying man of about 60 for the murder of June Darnell, about 55. Darnell, a former carpenter, was beaten to death Tuesday night. Mrs. Darnell named the suspect. She told Police Capt. Virgil Waldrop she returned home to witness the end of a fight between the two men.

HIGHWAY 80 PLANS ARE DEVELOPING

Directors of the Cisco chamber of commerce met in regular session last night, with E. P. Crawford, vice president, presiding. Those present included Directors Nick Miller, L. A. Warren, E. P. Crawford, J. J. Collins, Dr. Charles Hale, R. L. Ponsler and A. B. O'Flaherty. Members: T. G. Caudle, G. P. Mitcham, Charles J. Kleiner and George Boyd.

Director Crawford, chairman of the highway committee, reported that progress on the proposed widening of highway 80 from Cisco to the Callahan line indicated early action, although no rights of way have been secured as yet.

Plans to advertise the advantages of Cisco as a resident city were discussed and a motion picture instructing president to appoint a committee to go into the question thoroughly and report back to the directorate. The committee will be named by President J. D. Lauderdale at an early date.

U. S. LOSSES TOTAL 44,143 DEAD, MISSING

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The United States armed forces have suffered 44,143 casualties—dead, wounded and missing—since the start of the war.

The figure, which includes the casualties at Pearl Harbor and all those up to date, represents the combined losses of the army, navy, Marine Corps, coast guard and the Philippine scouts.

In addition 1,022 navy officers and men were reported prisoners of war. Of these, 301 were navy personnel and 721 marines. Only 20 of the army personnel listed as "missing" have been officially reported as prisoners.

"The bulk of army casualties fall into the category of missing," the OWI said, "and since most of these were at Bataan and Corregidor in the Philippines, and in Java, they are believed to be prisoners of war. No definite report as to their status, however, has been received from the International Red Cross."

TIME FOR ACTION.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Soviet Ambassador Maxim Litvinov has lodged new and urgent pleas here for immediate opening of a second front in Europe. It was learned today. The Soviet Union's situation is so dangerous, sources close to the Soviet Embassy said, that the United Nations face the greatest crisis since Dunkirk. If the Soviet army is knocked out, they contend, it may not be possible to win the war, or it may take years and millions of lives to do so.

A DECLARATION OF WAR

By the Unarmed Forces of the United States of America.

More than two million American young men have gone to war!

They have set aside their hopes and dreams. They have left comfortable homes. Postponed careers. Declared a moratorium on life.

Turned abruptly from the ways of peace—they are now digging ditches, building roads, peeling potatoes, swabbing decks, emptying garbage, drilling, training—learning to shoot! We may thank our lucky stars they don't have to learn to die. They are Americans. They just don't like being kicked around.

They went cheerfully—went where they were sent, and no questions asked. Rich and poor, Republicans and Democrats, Catholics, Protestants, Jews, Gentiles. Wealth, position, religion, color, politics—these don't matter when the question is one of freedom or slavery.

There are no eight hour days where these boys work now. No rules decide their pay. They've got a grim, tough job to do, and they're doing it—like men!

They're learning things every day—these boys we say we cherish. Learning a lot of things we should know—but stupidly refuse to admit.

They're learning that courage alone is a thin weapon against Axis planes and tanks.

They're learning the tragedy of losing for want of a few extra bombers in the right place at the right time.

They're learning the brutal, bloody cost of haggling and arguing and debating and stalling—while our sons die!

We stand on the curb as they left. We cheered. We went with them to the station—and shed a few tears. We drove home in our cars—to warm firesides. Then in a week or two—we stormed the stores when the demand for cloth to clothe them removed the cuffs from our pants!

In God's name America—let's be men—as least as big as our sons!

We are the unarmed forces of the United States. No one of us is without responsibility—or duty!

While we haggled over an hour of overtime—our sons are being slaughtered!

We live our comfortable lives: back of the ramparts they watch. If they fall—there will be no life—but slow, living death!

Our supreme duty—our only duty is to deliver to these young men the planes, tanks, guns and ships they need. Deliver them at top speed—and work as many hours making them—as they willingly work using them.

They are out there now. Waiting with the coming of each dawn. And for their courage—their bravery—their sacrifice—they've asked just one thing of us—"Don't let us down!"

This is our unequivocal answer—we whose names appear below. WE DECLARE WAR! War on partisanship. War on all political intrigue. War on special privilege. War on blindness and bickering.

We demand that every citizen of the United States, in or out of labor, shall exert every human effort toward the production of war munitions and supplies in maximum quantity at maximum speed and at minimum cost.

As a sacred duty to our armed forces and to the government and the people—we the unarmed forces declare war on all swollen salaries, dividends, bonus payments or profits on war contracts for munitions or supplies, in excess of profits made in peacetime under conditions of full and free competition. And we demand full and detailed public exposure of all violations.

We declare war on all rules, regulations or agreements which may prevent any worker on any war contract for munitions or supplies, from working as many hours or as many days as he or she is willing to work, or doing as much work as he or she wants to do to increase production. And we demand full and detailed public exposure of organizations responsible for obstructing production.

We declare war on all acts or failures to act, by members of the U. S. senate or house of representatives, which permit or encourage representatives of either capital or labor to increase costs or obstruct production on war materials. And we demand full public exposure of any member of congress guilty of failure to protect our armed forces and our people against saboteurs of production in either group.

The signers of this Declaration of War are not concerned with political partisanship. We are neither for nor against any employer or group—nor any group of employees.

We are concerned with action! Full, unbridled, speedy action!

And we propose to devote ourselves to these tenets—as a sacred trust. We promise that when men die needlessly—the responsibility shall be firmly placed—inssofar as it is within our ability to place it.

To our commander-in-chief, the president of the United States; to Donald M. Nelson, chairman of the war production board—to the armed forces and the people, we pledge ourselves to this unaltered view for the duration of the war.

—TOM DAVIS, past president of Rotary International.

THE WAY TO DESTROY PROGRESS

The American people must go without a long list of things to which they are accustomed, in order that vital materials may be used for the war effort. They must pay unprecedented taxes, and on top of that, invest a substantial share of their earnings in war stamps and bonds.

This is part of the price that all are willingly paying to gain victory in the greatest war in world history.

But, while doing this, the American people are entitled to demand that the government itself take its own medicine—and eliminate preventable waste.

The electric power situation is an outstanding case in point. The drive to socialize the private utility industry goes on, despite its potentially damaging effect on war production. As part of that drive, the advocates of socialism are seeking to obtain tremendous appropriations for the construction of publicly-owned power systems which virtually duplicate existing private power systems.

If that drive succeeds, it will mean that tens of millions of dollars, hundreds of millions of man-hours of labor, and gigantic quantities of vital and scarce materials will be literally wasted.

It is argued that this grand adventure in state socialism is essential to the war effort. But the plain fact is that the war effort demands full utilization of all power resources, and the planned destruction of private power developments would be the surest way to create a devastating power shortage in the future.

It takes no economist to figure out that persecuted industries are not progressive industries.

Private power executives have long urged the pooling of all power generating and distribution systems so that maximum utilization at minimum cost in time, money, materials and labor.

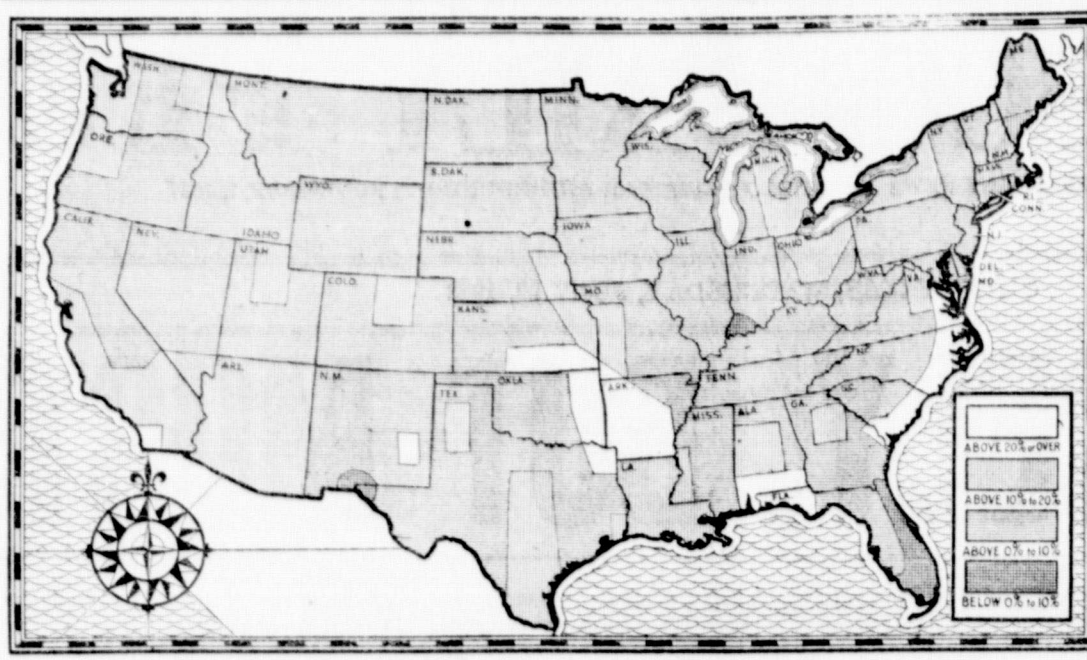

That is the way of common sense and justice—and it is the way to get results.

Here is a vital matter on which the American people must make their views felt before federal socialization of the electric industry is an established fact. A dangerous start has been made.

"Friends may well be reckoned the masterpieces of nature. They have sustained me in times of stress; they have comforted me in sorrow; they have fought for me when it might have been to their own interest to have maintained a discreet silence. They have given me more than courage—they have given me strength, for their strength has become my strength.

"In all of my public and private life, I have tried to merit the esteem and friendship of those with whom I have come in contact. I have tried at all times to keep uppermost in my mind the concepts of true friendship. Promises may get friends, but performance is necessary to nourish them and make them grow. Since becoming governor a little less than a year ago, I have tried in all respects to be worthy of it. I have been humbly conscious of my shortcomings and have tried to handle the affairs of that great office as the thousands who have confidence and trust in me would have me conduct it—on the highest plane I am capable of attaining. Conscious of my trust, I could do no less; the people who have demonstrated their confidence in me could ask no more.

"This then is my pledge tonight: I will try with all energy and capacity to serve well and faithfully with my head and my hands during the perilous days ahead."

LIFE WITH FATHER

FATHER: I've called this family council to get our living program adjusted.

MOTHER: What's the trouble, Father?

FATHER: Well, the way living costs are up, I'll give a dollar to anybody here who contributes a suggestion to save money. How about it, Bob, my boy?

DAUGHTER MARY: For goodness sake, Father, you know Bob never saved a cent in his life... he...

SON BOB: Silence, worm! I've got an ad here. It's about motor oil and it says: "You can hardly think of one working part in your engine as cheap to replace as dirty, thin oil—a jinx to precious parts."

FATHER: I get it, son... and that car of ours has to go another two years at least. What oil is it?

SON BOB: It's Conoco Nth motor oil and the ad tells how the six engines were run to destruction in a Certified Death Valley Test. Conoco Nth made twice the mileage averaged by the five other big-name oils.

FATHER: Son, you get the first dollar. Take the car down tomorrow and get Conoco Nth oil.

Gas Ranges Thawed Out

If you positively need it, you can buy one now

That is, as long as present stocks last. (You can buy heaters, too, if they are needed.) Down Payment, Monthly Terms.

But if you have a good gas range, take care of it and let it feed your family right. Let it handle vegetables on the simmer-burner, to hold on to the vitamins. Let it roast meat by thermostat-control, to a moist, juicy done-ness.

(Even the low-priced cuts will be tender with 250-degree cooking, and this meat has just as much riboflavin, thiamin, and other nourishment, as the high-priced cuts.) And use the smokeless broiler on ball-bearings for sizzling foods in their own juices. Vitamins have to be handled with kid gloves, to keep up a healthy family; don't let foods overcook.

Heater factories and range factories are tied up for the duration making year goods.
