VOLUME XXIII. CISCO, TEXAS, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1942 NUMBER 13

U.S. REINFORCES FOR JAP DRIVE IN SOLOMONS

YATES FAMILY LEAVE CISCO; WIFE 23 YEARS

Mrs. Charles E. Yates, who has lived in Cisco since 1919, left today for Corpus Christi. Mrs. Yates has taken a position with the Cage Implement Co., largest International Paper dealer in Texas. The company has 16 stores in the valley with funeral homes, hardware stores and lumber yards. The Cisco man will have charge of the collection department in Corpus Christi.

Yates, who was born in Louisville, Ky., is 47 years of age and came to Texas in 1912. He served years in the army during the world war, was stationed at Antonio throughout the campaign and was married to Miss Marie Bratton soon after the war was signed, she having graduated from Baylor college. They lived in Corpus Christi for a brief period before coming to Cisco in 1919.

Yates' first business connection here was with the Red drug store, then owned by J. & Lowry. Later he went to the Blease Motor company, dealers. When S. H. Nance took the business in 1932, changing the name to Nance Motor company, Yates continued with him and this connection was broken until recently when, because of the freezing of autos and by the government, Mr. Yates was forced to seek other employment.

During their long residence in Cisco, Mr. and Mrs. Yates have been prominent in local affairs. Their departure will be regretted by a large number of intimate friends. Both are members of the Methodist church and he is commander of the John Wilkes Butts post of the American Legion and an active worker in the organization.

Speaking of his departure from the city, Yates made this statement: "Cisco will always be to us and our dearest wish is to return some day. No place is ever known can equal it in home city. And when and if we return, it would be an pleasure to again be connected with the Nance Motor company."

Charles Yates, Jr., who has lived in Cisco also was Charles Yates, Jr., who departed Sunday for San Antonio, where he will be inducted into the mechanical department of the army air corps. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yates, and their only child, the 19-year-old young man was born and raised in Cisco and is highly respected.

In the past five years he has been employed in the mechanical department of the Elkins garage. During the period he worked half time in the garage while attending high school vocational classes until his graduation. He also attended Cisco junior college for about a year, until the local air school was started.

He finished the air school with a grade of 45 hours.

HUNTERS' NARROW ESCAPE

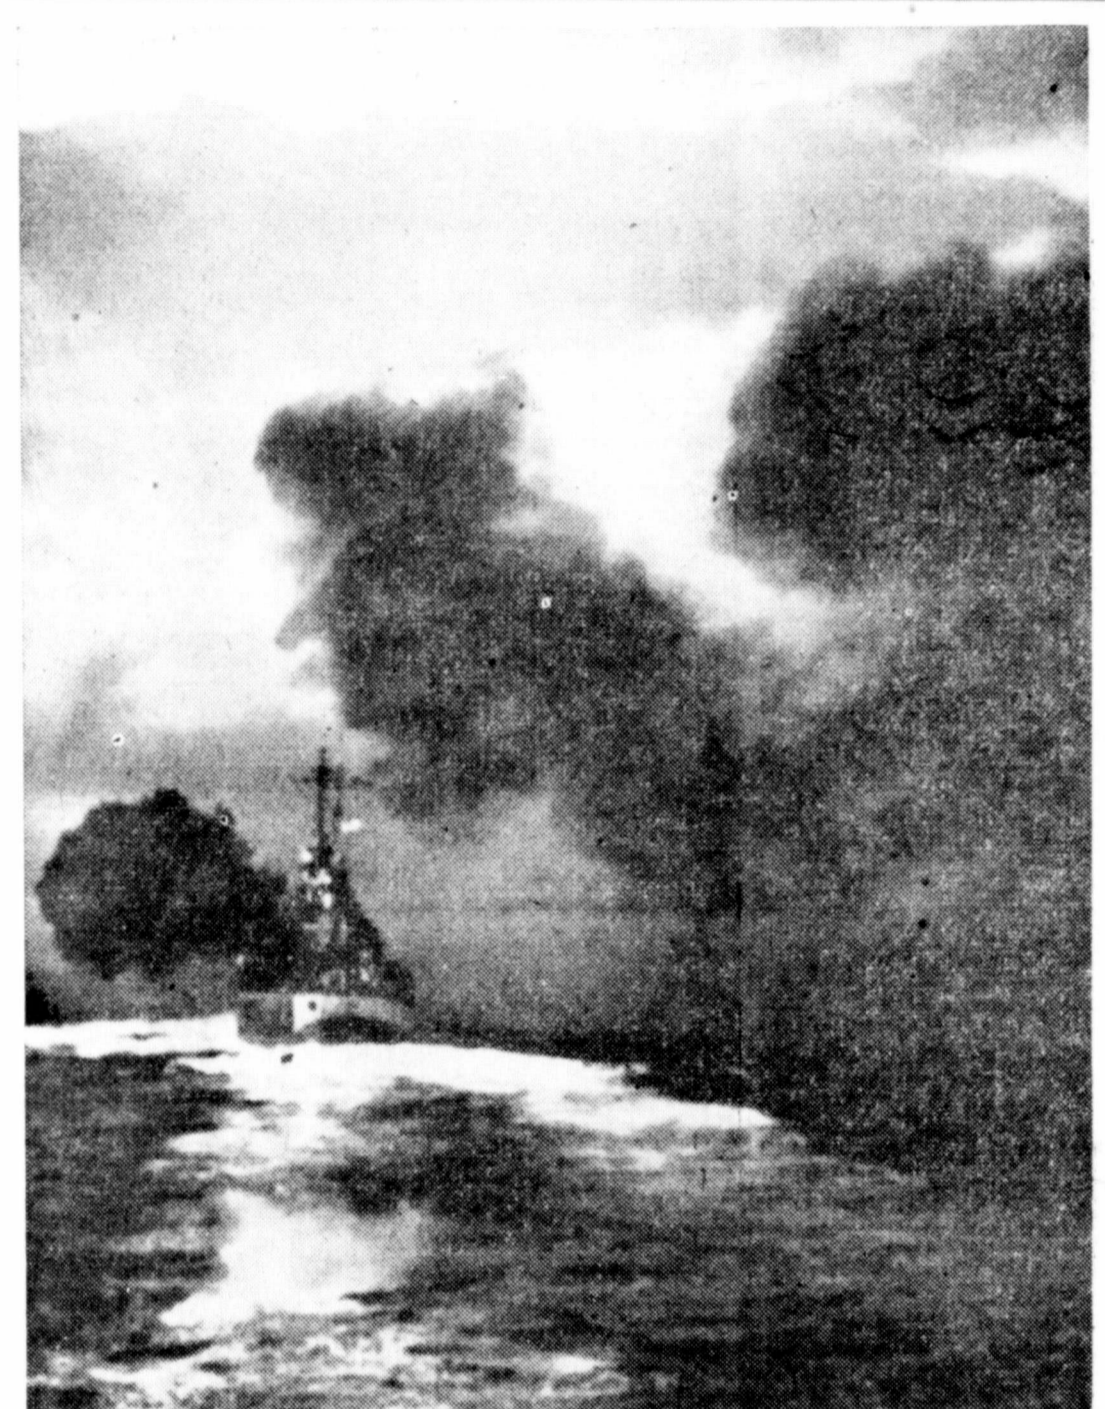

Mrs. A. G. Tuttle, formerly of Cisco but now of Kerrville, had a narrow escape from a serious accident yesterday when she received in her face and head a deflected charge of birdshot from one of the guns with which she and her husband, together with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Warren, were hunting.

They were about five miles beyond Putnam and the women were in the car. As the men got in the front seat and placed the gun between them, it was discharged, the full load of shot going into the back seat. The shot ranged upward, thus saving the life of Mrs. Tuttle. Shot were sprinkled all about both women, and the fact that Mrs. Warren had just at the moment leaned aside to look back, perhaps saved her life, as shot were sprinkled all about where her head should have been. As it was, Mrs. Warren was unscathed.

Both women were rushed to Graham Sanitarium where they were examined. Mrs. Tuttle was found to have only minor wounds, one shot just missing her eye.

In a report this morning, Mrs. Tuttle was said to be recovering from the shock and would be taken from the hospital to the Warren home this afternoon. Her face was only slightly swollen this morning.

It is a miracle that both women were not seriously injured, as the back of the car where their heads were supposed to have been was thoroughly sprinkled with shot, the physician said.

ACTION OFF ALEUTIANS—This Pacific Fleet cruiser of the United States Navy pounds away at Jap installations on the island of Kiska in the Aleutian Islands. Ship was part of task force which silenced shore batteries, started severe fires and damaged enemy camp areas.

CISCOAN WORKED ON FITCH

Last Tuesday's Daily Press carried a picture of the recently launched SS. Fitch, 10,000-ton Liberty transport, which was constructed in 24 working days at the Richmond, Cal., shipyards, a Henry J. Kaiser plant.

This accomplishment has been heralded as a world record, but the fact that a Cisco boy—20-year-old J. V. Heyser, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Heyser—holds an important job in this Kaiser plant and helped construct the Fitch is also of special interest to Cisco people.

Young Heyser, who stands six feet four inches in his socks and weighs 195 pounds, started in with the Kaiser company about a year ago as a welder. He has been working 12 hours a day, six days a week, and was recently promoted to the finishing department. At the same time his superiors prevailed upon the Richmond selective service board to place the young man in the 2-B classification.

In a recent letter to his mother, Heyser said the Kaiser plant expects to reduce the 24-day record to 18 days at an early date.

The Cisco boy hopes to secure a 10-day vacation and spend Christmas at home, but there was nothing certain about the furlough at Christmas-time when he wrote.

LITTLE NEWS FROM THE ISLES BUT POWERFUL ENEMY UNITS THOUGHT TO BE LURKING NEAR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox said today that American forces in the Southwest Pacific are operating on the assumption that the Japanese will soon start a "big push" in another attempt to oust American forces from the Solomon Islands.

The statement was made by Knox at his weekly press conference when questioned about recent reports that the Japanese are preparing for a big drive in the Southwest Pacific area.

"That is a safe and sound assumption," the secretary replied. "We operate on that basis—to do otherwise would be foolish over-confidence."

Meanwhile, lack of official news from the Solomons indicated that American forces in that area still are holding and reinforcing their positions in the strategic Guadalcanal-Tulagi area.

Recent navy communiques stated that American forces in the Solomons are being reinforced and have been receiving supplies in a fairly steady stream.

Meanwhile, other naval analysts asserted that powerful Japanese fleet units apparently have been lurking in Pacific waters hundreds of miles northeast of U. S. positions in the Tulagi area awaiting a chance to slip unobserved past patrol planes for another attack on the Solomons.

This belief has been strengthened by the fact the Nipponese have made several attempts to sneak through from this direction but each time have been routed by long range bombers, patrol planes and carrier-based aircraft with heavy losses to the enemy.

Conservative naval men asserted that the last Nipponese task force of battleships and cruisers which retreated a week ago under bombardment by United States army flying fortresses undoubtedly was not damaged seriously, if at all, and that these enemy warships still may be in those waters.

Although "possible" hits were reported on two battleships, these sources asserted that such an attack alone would not discourage the Japanese from trying again. In fact, this force may have withdrawn just out of reach of patrol planes to await reinforcements, especially aircraft carriers.

Long range American army bombers and patrol planes have forced the Japanese to take a roundabout route in any attempt to strike back at the Southern Solomons. They have made it virtually impossible for the Japanese to mass naval forces in the Northern Solomons or New Britain without detection.

REDS HOLD ON AND COLLECT HEAVY TOLL

MOSCOW, Sept. 22.—Batting at bayonet point in the narrow streets of this key city, the defenders of Stalingrad held the Nazis at bay today for the fifth consecutive day, reeling before steadily reinforced onslaughts, but surging back again and again and sometimes gaining ground.

Bombs and shells had leveled much of the factory city on the Volga. Red Star reported street fighting of ever greater intensity and declared that in some cases the invading Huns held one story of a building while the doctory Russians fought back from another.

It was a battle with bayonets and gun butts amid heaps of dead.

And even as the battle-grimed defenders held on into the twentieth day of siege and the sixteenth month of Russia's war, the army newspaper reported that the Germans were using relays of transport planes in their rush to replace losses and reinforce their assault.

Red Star printed a picture of a woman volunteer at a machine gun under the caption: "Protecting Crossings of the Volga."

The newspaper Pravda pictured incessant fighting. "Attacks don't halt," it said. "Hand-to-hand clashes are going on in the square, on street crossings and in houses."

Five German tanks were set afire or disabled by the defenders of Soviet-fortified positions in the Mozdok area of the Central Caucasus, the Information Bureau said, but "in another sector the Hitlerites, at a cost of heavy loss, captured a height and a populated place."

Russians were credited with the initiative on the northwestern front. The communique said they pressed back the Germans in fighting for a town and repulsed counter-attacks.

White Russian guerrillas were credited with slaying of 363 Germans and destruction of 33 railway cars, 27 ammunition trucks and about two miles of railway track in a week's fighting.

Izvestia stressed a report that German commanders had moved more troops to the Stalingrad area for a new assault intended to overwhelm the garrison. Dispatches repeatedly said the Red army was pouring a deadly mortar fire upon the invaders on the city approaches, but made no mention of the Russians' prized big guns.

DEMAND ENDURING PEACE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 22.—Roane Waring of Memphis, Tenn., newly-elected commander of the American Legion, took over the reins of this organization of 1,130,000 veterans Tuesday with the pledge that the Legion will execute the war-time mandates of the twenty-fourth annual convention which came to a close late Monday. Looking forward to the period after the Axis powers have been defeated, the Legion demanded that when total victory has been won the United States assert its leadership in the establishment and maintenance of world-wide enduring peace.

MOSCOW, Sept. 22.—Soviet officials reported Tuesday that Frenchmen had formed guerrilla detachments in several districts of occupied France and were attacking the German forces of occupation.

JAS. G. EXLINE BURIED IN OAKWOOD CEMETRY

Funeral services for James Green Exline, 66, were held at First Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with Rev. Cooper Waters officiating. The body was brought from the Ranger city-county hospital, where deceased died, September 19. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery, Cisco.

Mr. Exline was born in Indiana, Jan. 1, 1876. He had lived in the vicinity of Cisco since 1900. In 1906 he was married to Sara Briscoe, who passed away in 1917. On March 21, 1931, he was married to Gertrude Anderson, who survives him. Seven children were born to the two unions, all of whom survive. Mr. Exline was converted and united with the First Baptist church of Cisco, September 7, 1939.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. James G. Exline, and three sons, J. J. Exline, Billy Jack and Paul Lee, all of Cisco. Also four daughters, Mrs. Carl Brannon, Stamford; Mrs. C. P. Hollenback, Magdelena, N. M.; Misses Nellie Mae and Dorothy Fay Exline, Cisco. There are three grandchildren.

LOBO CHANCES AT BIG SPRING NONE TOO GOOD

Coach Monroe Sweeney is not optimistic over Cisco's prospects for winning the game with Big Spring Friday night of this week, when the Lobos go to that city to play the first game of the season.

"I can't tell yet what we have in the way of players. The same eleven players have not appeared on the field at any two times since practice began," the coach said. And he added that it was easy to see that there could be little coordination expected from a team that had never played together during practice time.

The team will leave about 10 a. m. Friday morning in private cars, and if there are any citizens who will volunteer the use of their cars to help transport the team, they are requested to contact O. L. Stamey at high school, who will arrange to reimburse them for gasoline needed for the trip.

"Not knowing what I have, I am making no predictions as to the outcome of the game," the coach said. Some of the team are out with injuries.

Four new boys reported for practice this week. They are Harold Rupe, Coy Miller, James Callerman and Walton Baum.

PEANUT CROPS ARE FINE, SAY TWO FARMERS

G. A. Carmichael and Lee Leiske, two substantial farmers of route two, Cisco, were visitors at the Cisco Daily Press office Monday. Mr. Leiske was already a subscriber, but Mr. Carmichael, feeling the need of knowing the local news, left his subscription for one year. These men, who live a few miles south of town, report fine peanut crops. The job now is to get them harvested, they said.

Other new subscribers Monday were Charles Yates, Corpus Christi, and E. L. Laminack, route two, Cisco.

FORMER CISCO MAN BURIED HERE MONDAY

J. E. (Jim) Burleson, aged 68, who died at San Angelo Saturday was buried in Oakwood cemetery Monday beside the grave of his wife, who preceded him in death in 1921. The body was accompanied here by his son, J. W. Burleson, Mrs. Burleson of Snyder, and Mrs. A. C. McAdams of Brownwood, the latter formerly of Cisco.

Burleson, previous to 1922, was a resident of Cisco, a retired butcher and was once associated with the late J. A. Mashburn, father of Tom and Bedford Mashburn. Death was due to an acute heart attack.

Funeral services were held at San Angelo, and no pall bearers served at the burial service here, which was conducted by Rev. J. R. Wright of the First Christian church. Lane's funeral home had charge of the burial arrangements.

He is survived by three children, J. W. Burleson, Snyder; Mrs. Charles Boyd, Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. J. A. Earnest, Fort Worth, and seven grandchildren. Four brothers and five sisters live in distant cities.

DELEGATES TO BIG MEETING SECURE ROOMS

S. H. Nance, chairman of the local committee on arrangements for the coming Central Texas conference of the Methodist church, announces that preparations are moving forward satisfactorily for the entertainment of the 500 or more delegates who will attend.

The conference opens officially Wednesday, November 4, but a vanguard of secretaries and other officials will arrive Tuesday. All available hotel rooms are being reserved rapidly by ministers and laymen who have been sending in their advance requests for accommodations.

Mrs. J. J. Porter and Mrs. B. E. Morehart are co-chairmen of a committee to secure rooms in the homes of Cisco people. They will begin this week a canvass of the city, listing all rooms proffered for the five-day session.

Many homes are being made available without charge for the conference, but the local committee says it is not asked or expected of the Cisco people that they do this. A standard rate of charge has been suggested for home rooms, $1 for a single person in a room, or $1.50 for two in a room. If breakfast is served, an additional charge of 25 cents will be made.

George Boyd, Pete Nance and C. E. Hickman are a committee on records and assignments of delegates and homes.

ROY LITTLE WRITES

Mrs. Frances Little, former Ciscoan, now living in Eastland, is in receipt of word from her son, Roy Little, with the U. S. navy, the first since June 23. The letter follows: Dear Mother: "Just a few lines to let you know I am still existing. It's probably just luck, but some of us are more fortunate than others. I understand there is a bounty on Japs. Some day, I hope to collect a fortune from Uncle Sam. Give everyone my love, and wish us luck. Always, Roy."

CISCO WOMEN RESPONDING TO NATION'S CALL

The instructor course for the making of surgical dressings started at 9 o'clock this morning in the rooms on the fifth floor of the Reynolds building. Mrs. Austin Flint is chairman and she is being assisted by Mrs. A. D. Anderson, co-chairman.

Twenty Cisco women have enrolled for the course, but Mrs. Flint states that a few more can enroll for the work. The classes will get down to business this week and it is hoped the Cisco organization will be able to make a creditable showing in this all-important war endeavor.

S. flying service, has been classified a bombardier and is now being trained at Camp Ellington, Houston, after being returned from Nashville, Tenn., where he had been sent for examination and classification. Mrs. Glenn is managing the store for the duration, and Roy Burnam continues as assistant manager.

REMINDS:

"Suppose Adolf sneaked into West Texas!"

"Just for fun! Suppose he managed to sneak into this country, unnoticed. He takes off his swastika, his military cap—and combs his hair. He shaves off his mustache. And he walks all alone through an average West Texas town.

"He sees long trainloads of WAR WEAPONS thundering along the way to our armed forces. He sees the skies darkened by TRAINING PLANES and MIGHTY SHIPS soaring along the route to jumping-off points.

"And he hears the constant hum of power—ELECTRIC power—power to turn the wheels that drill the guns, make planes, tanks and ships that some day will be his downfall. . . . Power for training camps, schools and industries. . . . Power and light bringing CHEER and HAPPINESS to many thousands of West Texas homes.

"Is Adolf unhappy? Yes! And bewildered, too, because he's learned that 99 per cent of all America's electric power is produced by companies like the West Texas Utilities under BUSINESS MANAGEMENT.

"Ach, Himmel!" Adolf yells. "How can they produce so much power under their way of life? No Gestapo, no gauleiter, no threat of the concentration camp! I cannot understand!"

"No, Adolf could not understand. In America the electric power companies are under trained and experienced BUSINESS MANAGEMENT.

"That means they are OWNED by citizens, OPERATED by citizens, FOR citizens. The men and women who manage them are working night and day to produce the power to produce the weapons that one day soon will produce the fatal headache for the sneaking Japanais.

"Like all Americans, these men and women are fighting for something precious, homes, community, country. . . they are fighting for the ancient American privilege of making their living in their chosen field—a PRIVILEGE ADOLF and some OTHERS would DESTROY TO SATISFY THEIR LOVE OF POLITICAL POWER!"
