GOVERNMENT ASKS ALL-OUT DRIVE FOR METAL

NELSON APPEALS TO ALL CITIZENS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24.

Arch B. O'Flaherty, Editor of the Daily Press, Cisco, Texas.

The prompt and enthusiastic action of your newspaper in accepting leadership in the vital national salvage program is the kind of answer I expected in my challenge to the American press.

If we are to maintain and increase production of the planes, tanks and ships needed by our fighting men and fighting Allies, we must get in every pound of scrap in this country — from the homes, from the farms and from industry.

A successful fall campaign conducted by the American newspapers, in cooperation with state and local salvage committees, will avert a serious decline in steel production and will add to our stores of other scarce materials.

As chairman of the war production board, I call upon every citizen of the United States to make this campaign a success—by gathering and turning in all the scrap metals, rubber and rags that can possibly be spared.

Let towering, victory stockpiles in every community in the nation stand as symbols of America's defiance to the Axis.

DONALD M. NELSON.

MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN OF THIS SECTOR SHOULD AWAKEN TO URGENCY OF NELSON PLEA AND PUT HEARTS INTO DRIVE; WE MUST NOT LOOK BACK NOW

A great scrap metal drive is to begin throughout the nation next Monday, September 28, and will extend through October 17.

The drive will be sponsored by the American Newspaper Publishers' association, at the special request of Donald M. Nelson, head of the War Production Board, who says that thus far the salvaging of scrap metal has been disappointing — that unless more metal can be rushed to steel and munition factories many of them may be forced to shut down!

The newspapers of America, from the largest dailies to the smallest weeklies, welcomed the opportunity to aid the government with the might of their combined publicity and quickly assured Mr. Nelson of their eagerness to serve in the fullest.

So, acting with County Chairman John H. Kleiner and the permanent board for the Cisco area — A. D. Anderson, G. P. Mitcham and Jack Anderson — the Daily Press asked the live Cisco Lions club to assume direct responsibility for the salvaging of all possible scrap metal in this sector.

The Club Accepts.

The Lions unhesitatingly accepted the big task and at a meeting of the club's board of directors drafted Lion W. H. LaRoque to organize and launch the drive, suggesting that he choose two other Lions to advise with him in the important undertaking. LaRoque chose S. H. Nance and F. B. Altman and they effected the set-up pictured on this page.

The newspaper program includes a plan whereby the school children of America will also participate in the great metal hunt, from October 5 until the closing date, October 17. R. N. Cluck, superintendent of the Cisco schools, will direct the student effort through O. L. Stamey and H. R. Garrett for the city schools and T. C. Williams, county school superintendent, will supervise the effort of the rural schools.

Report to Huston.

In the drawing showing the organization, the six highways leading from Cisco have been made boundaries for the territory in which the several committees will operate. Since the success or failure of any undertaking usually reflects upon the head of an organization, it was thought wise to make Lion President N. C. Huston chairman of all the metal-gathering groups, and he will advise with them from day to day until the close of the drive — October 17. Huston will check their daily reports and compile accurate data on all metal secured by each group, hence it will be known at all times where and approximately how much metal has been located by the field workers.

ROTARIANS HAD FULL PROGRAM TODAY, WITH CONSTRUCTIVE REMARKS FROM SEVERAL VISITORS

160 AIR PLANES DOT SKY

Many Ciscoans have been wondering about and watching the great droves of airplanes that have been zooming overhead since early morning today. Some were slightly alarmed when they first saw them, fearing they might be Japs trying to surprise us.

Telephone calls to Charles S. Roberts, clearance officer at the Cisco airport, brought the information that they were students from the Coleman airport training school, making their cross-country flights.

There were about 160 of these flyers, Mr. Roberts said. Each flyer is given gasoline for four and a half hours of flight and he goes where he wishes until that fuel is exhausted.

Cisco is a favorite point of the flight range and seems to be getting her share of the flight practice.

HOGS AT $14.70.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 24.—All classes of cattle and calves found a steady market at Fort Worth today. Hogs were steady to 10 cents above Wednesday's average but mostly steady at a packer top of $14.60 although shipper buyers made a few purchases up to $14.70. Spring lambs and slaughter ewes were unchanged in the sheep yards with other classes scarce.

TAKE THEIR CARS.

AUSTIN, Sept. 24.—State Fire Insurance Commissioner Hall Thursday warned against the hazards of hoarding excess supplies of gasoline and asserted the "indiscriminate use of gasoline in Texas is becoming a criminal tragedy."

Russians were declared doggedly holding their positions in barricaded streets and smoking ruins under shot, shells and bombs and the fact that Stalingrad, never a fortress city, still held out in the thirty-first day of its siege was regarded here as one of the greatest testaments to the skill and courage of the Red army.

GERMANS GET NEW LESSONS IN FIGHTING

MOSCOW, Sept. 24.—Red army soldiers of Stalingrad have torn a group of fortified positions from German grip, recaptured a settlement northwest of the city and slain more than 7,200 invaders in a dramatic resurgence of both defensive and offensive power, the Russians said today.

Communicues of the day implied that there was not a single new breach in Russian lines within the streets of the embattled Volga river city. The Germans were reported again "hurriedly bringing up reinforcements" by plane to fill their ranks.

The Red navy's Volga river gunboats helped Red army artillerymen, machine-gunners and riflemen mow down the invaders by the thousands.

Official reports of midnight and midday listed 115 additional tanks and more than 48 field guns as wrecked or captured in fresh actions of the bitter, month-old battle.

DUFF REGRETFULLY LEAVES CISCO SCHOOLS

C. C. Duff, for many years connected with Cisco public school system and for the past few years teacher of diversified occupations, has accepted a place in the Sweetwater schools for the same subject and will leave this afternoon to begin teaching there tomorrow.

Mr. Duff said he regretted very much to leave Cisco and the friends of many years, but a considerable advance in salary and a more dependable prospect for permanency was too strong an urge to be turned aside.

The Sweetwater school system is considered one of the best in the state, and the superintendent, Ross S. Covey, well known in Cisco, is considered one of the outstanding school men of Texas. Therefore, Mr. Duff will be well connected.

NEPHEW OF LO-FARM BLOC DE-CAL MAN KILLED CLINES OFFER WHILE ON DUTY COMPROMISE

John A. Cameron has received notice of the death of a nephew, Donald Earl Cameron of Mobile, Ala., who was killed while on duty with a submarine patrol, somewhere in the Atlantic.

The death was accidental, resulting from discharge of a machine gun that had jammed. In freeing the jammed parts the weapon was discharged, killing the 28-year-old soldier instantly.

Cameron also has a son in the service. He is Troy Cameron, 26, who went to school in Cisco. He has been in the service nine years, is a first sergeant and is stationed in California at present.

CONSERVING MEAT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Secretary of Agriculture Wickard announced Thursday that, beginning Oct. 1, civilian meat consumption during the last three months of this year would be restricted to approximately 79 percent of the amount delivered by packers for civilian use during the last quarter of 1941.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Three members of the senate farm bloc abruptly left a meeting with administration leaders Thursday and Senator Thomas of Oklahoma announced he and others of like views would not compromise a proposed to increase the level of farm parity prices in the anti-inflation bill. The bill was passed by the house Wednesday.

"I am not in any position to accept any compromise," Thomas told reporters as he walked out of the conference room.

He said administration leaders were drafting a compromise proposal which would direct President Roosevelt to take into account the cost of all farm labor in fixing prices on agricultural products.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Indicating the ferocity of the battle for the Solomons, the navy Thursday announced that the American destroyer, Jarvis, has been sunk with all hands on board and that a small auxiliary transport also has been destroyed, but that half of the personnel of the latter have been rescued.

GAS PROBLEMS

Now that gasoline is to be rationed, and four gallons a week seems a pitifully inadequate supply for a normal American...

why does even the most ingratiating speaker of our age, Mr. Roosevelt, occasionally slip up and say, 'constititutional' instead of 'constitutional'?

He might have gone farther and asked why the president, along with most of his fellow-countrymen, persists in saying "bublong" and "buhain" and "buhlieve," instead of pronouncing the "be" in the first syllable.

These are only a few of the many errors of public men and even college professors are guilty. Chicago Round Table speakers often shock their listeners by "sloppy" speech. The worst of it is the breaking down of a language that used to be beautiful, and may still be so in the mouth of a person careful in speech and sensitive to words.

The progress of invention and discovery enables civilized man to fight ever bigger and better wars.

Irish Blood

While Hillyer in the San Angelo Standard "Have I got some Irish blood? I'll say I have! What do I think of that? Why, I think those bloomin' idiots are trying to put off their nose to spite their face. I'll bet there are more Irishmen in the AEF over there than there are in that so-called Irish Republican Army."

Dallas News. Mr. Hillyer is a business man in San Angelo who was asked by the Standard's Inquiring Reporter if he had any Irish blood. The answer was unequivocal. Irishmen, or folks with Irish blood, tend to be both vocal and unapologetic. The attitude taken by the De Valera Irish and the so-called Irish Republican Army groups in Ireland is resented more, perhaps by those of Irish extraction in America than by any other.

The United States of America has long been a good and true friend of Ireland. It was a good friend when Ireland was trying to throw off British rule. Now that America is engaged in a life-and-death struggle with the worst foes in Europe and Asia, it is not a happy fact that Erie is not only neutral but even hostile to the suffer boys from this country.

When a feller needs a friend when he is a boy playing war and has to be a Jap.

UNDERSTANDING

"The present world crisis is a crucial struggle between those who believe in force and violence as the proper means for solving inter-personal and inter-group difficulties, and those who believe that such difficulties may be solved by processes involving mutual understanding and mutual adjustment based upon such understanding," says William V. Silverberg, professor in the New York Medical College.

This sentence will bear reading over a couple of times. First, you'll be used to check and preserve good but it's never conclusive. For permanent peace (if that be possible) there must finally be a meeting of minds.

The Japs seem best at guerrilla fighting, but that's too slow a way to lick them. Sooner or later they'll have to fight in the open.

A NEAT JOB

It is the Kiss of Death for Kaka when American warplanes roar down on that strategic tip of the Aleutian chain to strafe the intruding Japs. The Yank harpies did nobly in their latest visit and should keep up the good work.

Strategy is a job for the high command, not for civilian volunteers. But such assaults on the murderous Tokyo gang are immensely popular in this country, and may be immensely valuable, too. The closer aggressive American action comes to Japan, the more the Japs will feel obliged to draw back their farflung forces and substitute defense for offense. It seems especially desirable now to throw a scare into them, in order to take their minds off their desired invasions of Manchuria and India.

Congress still gives a general impression of being lost in the jungle, with political Japs sniping from the trees.

PRONUNCIATION

"People are still interested in the English language," writes a columnist in the New York Times. "They continue to be offended by bad pronunciation and write letters to the papers about it. They dislike sloppy literary style and complain in public." He goes on to give some examples of things that offend careful speakers and writers, asking:

"Why does a conference of college professors say 'consensus of opinion' when consensus by itself means an agreement of opinion? Why do people pronounce it 'redoose' instead of 'reduce,' and

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

A lighted whistle buoy is more like a floating light house than anything else. It weighs several tons, is moored to warn ships at sea, and operates a flashing light. The siren is operated by suction, created by the rise and fall of the buoy in the water. The device costs about $6,000.

These safety devices are important to coastal vessels, especially to vessels running without lights during war time. You can help buy them for the Navy and the Coast Guard with your investment in War Bonds and Stamps. Put at least ten percent of your income in these war time securities every payday and become a member of the patriotic "Ten Percent Club."

About 75 Lions saw the prevue of the Gulf Oil Corporation's Alaskan picture, in colors, which was shown at Eastland last night by Jack Lamb, who gave it in person. Lions were there from Cisco, Eastland and Ranger clubs.

This picture is usually given only in towns of 25,000 population or over, but through the efforts of M. L. Keasler, Cisco Gulf agent, the picture will be brought here, October 9.

All present last night expressed themselves as amazed at the beauty and grandeur of Alaska's mountains and valleys, and its unlimited hunting and fishing possibilities, while they shuddered at the cruel cold that freezes ground a thousand feet deep and piles its snows to the depth of 100 feet. The flowers of the tundras entrance the lover of beauty, while the great bears which are so numerous, enthrall the would-be hunter.

This prevue was to enable the club members to know just what a great show they would be selling their public, Jack Lamb said.

Lions from Cisco were Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Streater, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Flint, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kleiner, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jackson, Jack Anderson, G. Downie, H. R. Garrett, W. C. Doing Our Part for NATIONAL DEFENSE Protecting the AMERICAN HOME America is making every effort to keep her factories and mills turning out row upon row of tanks, guns, planes, ammunition, and the parts which go into these weapons. The tanks and planes are pouring out of the factories... but raw materials must first go in. And that's where everyone in Cisco can help... Your old tin cans... iron and steel... unwanted manila rope... the waste fat that's left over from cooking—these are the things they need to make the weapons to smash the Axis! You don't have to buy them... they're in your very home now. Start searching for them... in the attic, the basement, the closets. Look everywhere... turn in what you find to your salvage center. RURAL AREAS There are untold tons of scrap in rural areas but the problem is how to get all of it. County Salvage Committees are at work now canvassing farms and rural districts. Have your scrap ready when they call and if you can, join a County Committee Drive! CISCO GAS CORPORATION

BARNHILL BOYS WRITE PARENTS FROM PACIFIC

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Barnhill have just received the accompanying letter from their sons, Wayne and Carroll Barnhill, who are somewhere in the vast Pacific:

Dear Mother and Dad:
Well, here we are again. I guess you were beginning to think we had quit writing. We received more mail this time than we could read in one day. Some of it dated back to June. We are still okay and are glad to hear that you are.

I think Raymond Reames is coming aboard our ship for duty. He is near and I may get to see him in a day or two. I have not seen Roy Little or Clifford Dunn in some time, but expect to see both of them soon.

Wayne is not on the 5-inch anti-aircraft gun now. He is in the A. O. M. gang. Both of our jobs are loading the bombs on the planes and rearming the machine guns. It is pretty dangerous work, but one thing about it we would never know what happened if one should explode. Although we are both in the aviation ordnance department, neither of us will do any flying.

I am enclosing a poem that expresses our sentiments. Well, mother dear, keep your chin up. Love to the best mother and dad in the world.

WAYNE and CARROLL BARNHILL.

TEXAS WILL FEED 'EM. AUSTIN, Sept. 24.—Shipments of poultry from Texas in August skyrocketed 100 per cent above August of last year, the University of Texas bureau of business research reports. In August, 33 carloads of dressed chickens and 13 of turkeys were shipped from Texas stations, showing an increase over the 17 carloads of chickens and four of turkeys during a similar period last year. Shipments of eggs rose from 685 in August, 1941, to 853 last month, the bureau showed. Most of these shipments went out of the state with New York the largest single buyer of poultry and Ohio of eggs.

How times change! In 1941, days, oil could stop trouble-making; now troubled waters are oil.
