BRITISH SMASH ROMMEL'S DEFENSE LINE

WASHINGTON IS SAID TO FEEL DIRECT REBUKE AT LARGE VOTE PILED UP BY THE REPUBLICANS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Dissatisfaction among the people over the conduct of the war, reported by various observers in recent weeks, was driven home to President Roosevelt and official Washington today as the election returns were analyzed.

This was the major and basic issue. The vote represented a protest piled up at 113 and a rebuke. The war overshadowed everything else. The people are at church work. They are busy. They have no money. None of the ordinary economic issues that normally throw the political pendulum in reverse were operative.

The people are being called upon to make more and more sacrifices, including the giving of more money and more of their boys. They are doing this willingly, as the president himself reported after his recent tour.

They expect value received from the managers of the war, and the election returns seem to indicate that they do not think Washington is doing its share. President Roosevelt also sensed something of this when he stood off from Washington, among the people, as others have done, and took the long look at the national capital and its bureaucratic structure creaking and groaning under the strain of the hardest war in which this nation ever has engaged.

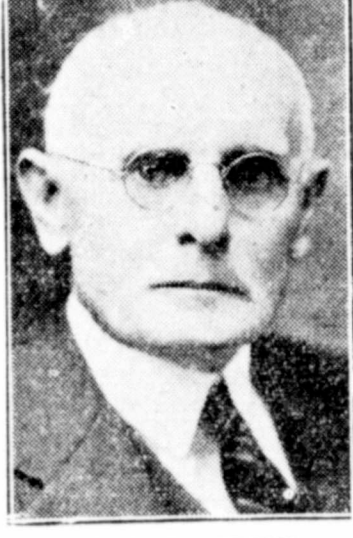

The voters have called upon Washington to strip for action. They demand sacrifices of Washington.

Many one-time isolationists were re-elected to congress yesterday. But this does not mean that the people who sent them back were voting isolationism. Perhaps the major mistake some of the administration's political departments made was to attempt to revive the isolationism issue.

The people are looking ahead. The war is a reality. They do not care to poke about in the ashes of the past. They are interested in getting the war going, and get it going.

Farmers contributed their share to Republican victories yesterday, and their complaint was that the administration was not exacting equal sacrifices from labor. This discontent was felt strongly by those who went among them in recent weeks.

But the cities spoke out, too. Republicans broke into the urban strongholds of the Democrats. They knocked lustily at the gates of the metropolitan citadels in the East.

COUNTY SHIPPED 969 TONS

Scrap iron shipped from Eastland county during October totaled 969 1-2 gross tons, while the total of scrap purchased by Eastland county junk dealers for the same period was 851 1-2 gross tons, according to figures compiled by John H. Kleiner, county chairman.

Metal still in the collection lots of the county, and not included in the above figures, approximates 200 tons, the chairman stated.

Of the above shipments and purchases the Cisco Junk and Supply company shipped 159 1-2 and bought 197 1-2 tons.

Henry Pullman Eastland and Ranger dealer, shipped 762 and bought 692 tons.

HITLER'S RIGHT-HAND MAN IN DESERT CAMPAIGN IN BAD WAY BUT BATTLE IS STILL RAGING

The Imperial Eighth Army drove forward on the Alamein front today, forcing Axis troops of the Afrika Korps into a retreat along the coastal road, but the fate of Marshal Erwin Rommel's armored units was not yet evident.

The Imperial advance coincided with a mighty armored battle in the desert about 17 miles west of the fixed Alamein positions, part of which were crushed by the British advance. It was certain that Rommel had suffered serious losses, but whether the British had achieved their objective of smashing his armored power was still obscure.

Reports from both sides disclosed that one of the biggest armored battles ever fought in the desert has been raging for the past three days. Both sides displayed reserve concerning the results.

Lieut. Gen. Bernard Montgomery has been maneuvering since the start of the offensive 12 days ago to force Rommel to give battle with his armored units close to the Alamein lines, where the British hold a great advantage in supplies and communications.

The British battle plan, it appeared, was to smash Rommel's tanks before attempting a sweeping advance to the west, along the pattern of previous North African campaigns.

Military commentators in London warned that the withdrawal along the coastal road might prove to be temporary and emphasized that the fate of the German armored units was far more important than the occupation of more square miles of the open desert.

A dispatch by Richard D. McMillan, United Press staff correspondent at the desert fighting front, revealed that the tank battle was preceded by a major break-through of the Alamein defenses on a three-mile front. The British tanks then rolled forward and engaged the 15th and 21st German Armored Divisions in the open desert.

Light bombers and fighter bombers maintained "incessant pressure on the excellent targets provided by the slow-moving transports," communique said.

In addition, it said, armored vehicles were attacked by low-flying Allied planes along the entire battle front.

Front dispatches said the British had driven a wedge 17 miles deep and almost three miles wide into the Axis lines at Tel El Aqqaqir (the hill of the Wicked). Aqqaqir is 17 miles due west of the Alamein station of the Matruh-Alexandria railroad, and about five miles south of Sidi Abd El Rahman, from where Rommel had been sending much of his supplies to his southern troops near the Qattara Depression.

COUNTY'S VOTE TUESDAY WAS INDEED SMALL

With one small box missing, County Clerk Rip Galloway late this afternoon issued the following figures in the senatorial race:

Roberts	534
Lotief	405
Bullock	394
Callaway	267
Jones	145
Davison	111

An unusually light vote was cast in Eastland county at yesterday's election, the lack of interest being as pronounced in Cisco as elsewhere. This, of course, was natural, since in all cases except the senatorial race, the election was merely a ratification of democratic nominees.

In the special election to choose a successor to Senator John Lee Smith, Judge Frank S. Roberts of Breckenridge, seems to have led the other five candidates in Eastland county, with Pat Bullock of Snyder in second place. However, seven county boxes were still out this morning.

No. 1 amendment to the state constitution carried in the East Cisco box, with the other four defeated. In West Cisco Nos. 1 and 2 carried.

BISHOP IVAN LEE HOLT, HERE FOR METHODIST CONFERENCE, WAS PRINCIPAL LION SPEAKER

The talk of Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, of the Methodist conference now in session in Cisco, was the outstanding feature of the Lions program at their luncheon today.

Ten district superintendents were the guests of Lions L. W. Seymour and G. P. Mitcham, who presented them to the club members at the introduction period.

From a purely Lions standpoint, the presentation to Lion D. G. Streater of a master key from Lions International by Lion W. H. LaRoque, and the introduction to the club of new Lions members, to make possible for all to embrace the liberties of thought and action that this form of government gives its people.

It will be a matter of give and take, Bishop Holt said. There may be many questions on which Russians and others who may come to the peace table will differ. We, ourselves, will want to insist on much of our own way in these talks, but if it shall be a lasting peace, and if our principles of government and life are to be impressed upon that peace agreement, there will be needed much thinking for that time.

The bishop then reviewed briefly our activities with the countries of South America and what insisting on the Monroe Doctrine has meant—and it showed much selfish motive on our part, not ever being very popular with the countries to the south.

But the good neighbor policy of Secretary Cordell Hull has done much to bring these countries closer to each other and to the United States. Through these closer relations we are acting together on mutual problems and are finding solutions.

In the conclusion the bishop said that much thinking was necessary if we are to win this peace. Thinking of the citizenship of a country will influence the actions of governing officials. We must begin thinking now and let it crystallize in the minds of the masses, so it will fruit at the proper time.

One great duty will devolve upon us as it is now—feeding the hungry. And then there must of necessity be some kind of international government that will be delegated the power to enforce its mandates upon subscribing nations. The United States must not make the mistake this time of taking an isolated stand. We must sit in and carry through.

The talk ended with these words: "It is not important that we all agree, but it is vitally important that we all think."

Bishop Holt will speak at Cisco high school chapel at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

BISHOP HOLT.

PLENTY LABOR, BUT THEY PREFER IDLENESS

PALESTINE, Nov. 4.—A meeting of Anderson county farmers has been called for Saturday, to discuss ways and means of dealing with a harassing farm labor problem, which, leaders report, has already cut serious inroads into the farm income.

W. B. McInnis, a former sheriff of the county and one of those responsible for calling the meeting, explained that there is no shortage of labor, "if we could only get them to work."

He said available labor was spurning farm jobs for several reasons, one of them being because several hundred families of the county are on the direct relief rolls and receiving surplus commodities. In other cases, laborers have relatives who are in the armed forces, and the dependency allowances give them support without working for it.

The meeting will be held at the courthouse, and businessmen, as well as farmers, will attend. Leaders hope to work out some plan to get farm labor back on the farms, or out of the public trough.

FORT WORTH VOTED WET ON TUESDAY

FT. WORTH, Nov. 4.—A decisive vote for legal control of liquor prevailed the prohibition issue in Tarrant county today, for the third time since 1935.

Complete returns from 108 of the county's 116 voting precincts in yesterday's election gave the count:

For Prohibition	9,936
Against Prohibition	14,016

The margin of victory for the so-called "wet" forces at yesterday's polls was larger than on the two previous occasions.

OUT OF BALANCE.
DALLAS, Nov. 4.—The seriousness of the dairy situation has resulted from frozen milk prices, with feed costs 100 per cent higher and labor costs up 300 per cent, since the prices were set, C. M. Evans, regional chief of the farm Security Administration's food for victory campaign, said here.

TREACHERY

An honorable nation can be respected even by its enemies. But there seems to be no honor of chivalry in Japanese conduct in the betrayal of Japanese captives.

There have been reports of Japanese examples lately of Japanese treachery. They would seem to be a flagrant abuse of the law of war.

Another flagrant practice is the truck of lying to the Germans and pretending to be dead or wounded and rising up to stab the backs of American soldiers in the night.

Such treachery naturally invites itself in the long run. Victorious troops learn to defend themselves and trust no enemy.

had escaped the Fort Stanton internment camp Sunday night.

The posse rode up on the Germans as they slept on a hillside two miles north of Ruidoso Junction in the Lincoln National Forest.

The men awoke and, in a brief exchange of gunfire, one was wounded in the leg.

The wounded man was taken to the marine hospital at Fort Stanton. The other three were turned over to guards at the internment camp.

The prisoners, none of whom spoke fluent English, were headed south from the camp, apparently toward the Mexican border about 150 miles away, where they could have taken refuge in remote northern Chihuahua.

ENSGIN KING AND MRS. HUGHES WED.
Standing before an improvised altar of white chrysanthemums and fern, lighted by tall white tapers, Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes, daughter of Mrs. W. E. Spencer, became the bride of Ensign Leonard King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conway King of Coleman, Texas, in an impressive single ring ceremony, held in the Spencer home Tuesday night at 9:30. Rev. Cooper Waters officiated in the presence of the two families and a few close friends.

The bride was very attractive in an off-white winter crepe dress with black sequin trim and accessories of black. She wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. The groom was dressed in naval uniform.

Mrs. King is a talented musician, having studied at Southern Methodist University and in the fine arts department of North Texas State Teachers college, from which she received her degree in music. She is director of public school music in the local Ward schools. Ensign King received his degree from McMurray college and was Cisco Lobo band director when he resigned to enter the navy.

The young couple left after the ceremony on a short wedding trip; following which Ensign King will return to his post and Mrs. King will continue her teaching duties here.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Ensign King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conway King and daughter, Miss Frances King, of Coleman.

Edward Zoremba of Camp Bowie served the groom as best man. The bride wore a becoming street dress of blue velvet and carried a pretty bouquet of red rosebuds.

Following the ceremony guests were invited into the dining room where refreshments were served. Corporal and Mrs. Wells cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Charles

Take Care of your Water Heater

WITH war work (and war nerves) piling up a state of tension in America's families these days, the hot water faucet is especially important in speeding up the business of housekeeping and grooming. It cuts red tape in all the cleansing processes, from dishes to shampoos. It makes those lazy warm baths, that can smooth jangled nerves after a trying day.

Don't Waste It

Because of your cheap Natural Gas, this town has very thrifty hot water; but just the same don't waste it. Use it efficiently, and take good care of your Water Heater. (The W.P.B. is rationing Water Heaters, since water heater factories are now making war goods).

Food Speeds War Efficiency

To combat the loss of 80 million working days which Paul V. McNutt, Chief of the Office of Defense Health and Welfare Services, states occur each year because workers do not keep fit, many large industrial companies are launching all-out campaigns against malnutrition. These programs for improving the health and efficiency of industrial workers are one of the most effective phases of the National Nutrition Program. Among the most successful of these is that of the Serval Company of Evansville, Indiana. With the company devoted to 100 per cent war production, every hour of man labor saved means a contribution to national defense.

One innovation used is a "Victory Lunch" in the cafeterias and lunch-rooms of the company. Another is the sale of milk from "snack wagons." The lunch features milk, meat, a vegetable, a salad, whole-wheat or enriched bread and butter. The "snack wagons" feature a mid-meal milk service. According to the nutrition authorities of the National Dairy Council, both of these food practices are important in improving the health and developing the maximum efficiency of war workers.

To encourage better food habits, each purchaser of either the "Victory Lunch" or a mid-meal bottle of milk is entitled to participate in a weekly prize drawing. Prizes in each drawing consist of $5.00 in war stamps and $3.00 in coupon books.

Milk consumption in the Serval plant is now five times as great as it was when the program began. Time lost from illness has decreased by 10 per cent in the first four months.

Large Check for War Bonds

SOCIAL SECURITY ADDS MANY NEW EMPLOYEES

ABILENE, Nov. 4.—From January to September 30, 1942, a total of 10,910 new workers entered employment in the Abilene area of the Social Security Board. The area includes the counties of Kent, Stonewall, Haskell, Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Stephens, Nolan, Taylor, Callahan, Eastland, Coleman, Brown, and Comanche. These figures are based on the number of new Social Security account numbers issued by the Abilene office of the board, says W. O. King, manager.

The great majority of the new account numbers were issued to workers, who were engaged on defense projects. However, explained, this number does not represent the total of new employes on defense jobs since workers employed already have account numbers.

In addition to the issuance of almost 11,000 account numbers to new employes within the month period, the Abilene office issued a total of 3,247 duplicate account number cards to workers who, through carelessness or accident, had lost their original cards.

Why to watch 35 and the "Goose-Egg" on your speedometer

Though your speedometer is at zero your engine might half-starve for lubrication—as you start it up. Its oil pump is better than the old farm pump that trickled and gizzled a while. Yet the best oil pump can't squirt a drop as fast as you'll have lubrication with your old engine-oil-plated.

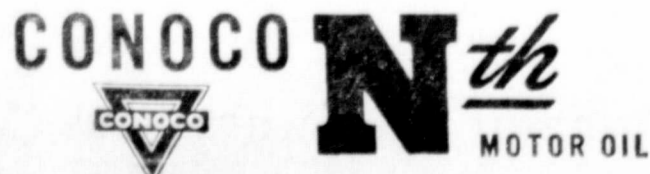

OIL-PLATE for Winter by changing to Conoco Nth motor oil. This gives the working parts a close-bonded surfacing of lubricant—made possible by the "magnet-like" action of an added modern synthetic in Conoco Nth oil. Because OIL-PLATING doesn't all promptly drain down to the crankcase, the precious parts—now hard to replace—aren't left all bare to wear. They're OIL-PLATED—ready-lubricated sooner than you unlock the garage!

Shortly you're above 60 miles an hour, and Conoco Nth oil's high-duty liquid film is on the job, all in addition to OIL-PLATING. That's getting at wear every which way. Get your Winter's Conoco Nth today at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

All America Knows Budweiser... but Few Know This

FROM GLACIERS TO GLIDERS

Thousands of retailers of ice cream and frozen foods are using equipment made by our Refrigeration Division—a manufacturing activity which was developed from our years of experience in making ice in glacier-like quantities needed for the brewing of Budweiser.

This equipment is helping to keep America's foods fresher and more nutritious. Today, however, orders for ice cream and food cabinets will have to wait, for this Division is working all-out on glider wing and fuselage assemblies for our Army Air Forces.

Year after year, we have striven with research and resources to better the methods and facilities for brewing Budweiser. To do this, a laboratory specializing in fermentation and nutrition was necessary. Discoveries made in the laboratory and in the plant have led to the development of products contributing to human necessity and progress. Some of these products would appear to have only a remote relationship to brewing, yet, they are the result of scientific research into many allied fields.

Endless research in making the world's leading beer has led to other products

VITAMINS, B COMPLEX—Our plant is one of the world's largest sources for manufacturers of pharmaceutical and food products.

VITAMIN D—Anheuser-Busch produces enough of the basic material for Vitamin D to supply the entire American market.

BAKER'S YEAST—We are one of America's biggest suppliers of standard and enriched yeasts and malt syrup used to make bread.

CORN SYRUP—many millions of pounds annually for America's candy industry.

SYRUPS—for food, table and confectionery uses and special syrups for medicinal purposes.

STARCH—for food, textile, paper and other industries—millions of pounds annually.

VITAMINS FOR LIVESTOCK—We are America's biggest supplier of yeast vitamins used to fortify animal feeds.

DIESEL ENGINES—Adolphus Busch, founder of Anheuser-Busch, acquired the first rights to manufacture this revolutionary engine in America and thus started our great Diesel industry on its way.
