Methodist Conference To Organize Tonight; Business Starts 9 A.M. Friday

The communion service at the Methodist conference tonight at 7:30 will be one of the high lights of the session, according to the pastor of the church, Rev. Leslie Seymour.

Bishop Holt will have charge of this service of worship which will follow a ritual especially prepared by him for the occasion.

The choir of First Methodist church, with Miss Ella Andrews director and Miss Betty Slicker at the organ, will sing two anthems.

Following the worship the conference will be formally organized into committees and everything will be made ready for the business session, which will open Friday morning, probably at 9 o'clock.

The daily schedule will begin with a worship service each morning at 8:30, this to be followed by the business session from 9 o'clock until 12 o'clock at which time there will be a thirty minute period of worship conducted by the bishop.

In the afternoons there will be another business session, this to be followed with a preaching service about 4 o'clock. Each night there will be preaching services at 7:30.

Saturday evening the Dragoo octet and Harmony Girls will supply a program of music at the beginning of the service.

ROMMEL WARRIORS STILL ON THE RUN

CAIRO, Nov. 5.—Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's Axis forces fled westward toward the Libyan border today, pursued by swarms of British tanks and infantry and Allied planes that were taking a heavy toll from disorderly and demoralized columns.

Today's first communique from British headquarters, indicated that there had been no slackening in the flight of German and Italian legions whose sudden and stunning defeat was disclosed in a special communique yesterday.

The Axis forces were speeding toward the more friendly sands of Italian Libya without their second and third in command, and perhaps without Rommel himself.

Gen. Von Stumme, senior officer who held command during Rommel's long absence from the front, had been killed in action. Gen. Ritter Von Thoma, commander of the Afrika Korps and one of Germany's leading tank experts, was one of the 9000 prisoners the Imperials had already taken, including many other German and Italian senior officers.

It was not known definitely whether Rommel, who was in Berlin several weeks ago, had returned to his troops.

(A London military commentator said it was "quite probable that Rommel was not in Egypt at the beginning of the battle but it is uncertain." He said Rommel might have arrived either just before or just after the British offensive started.)

The British continued their advance along the entire desert front, today's joint communique of the Royal Air Force and the Middle East Command declared. Lieut. Gen. B. L. Montgomery's Eighth Army tanks and troops were smashing at the Axis rear while a convoy of Allied planes, including many manned by Americans, blasted at the fleeing Axis forces, disorganizing them further.

Lost Leg in Philippines

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—Lieut. Bartholomeo Passanante, who lost a leg in the Battle of the Philippines, and Irene Dunne, motion picture star, discuss the urgency of buying War Bonds to help our fighting men, during a War Bond rally held here recently at the Eastman Theatre. Price of admission to the rally was paid in War Bonds, and $209,000 was taken for the "performance," the biggest "one night box office" in the history of the city.

SPEAKER PLEASED ROTARY

A number of visitors from Eastland and other parts of the state were in attendance today at the Rotary club luncheon, when Rotarian J. W. Slaughter introduced Lion Leslie Seymour, who, in turn, presented Dr. W. H. Mansfield, pastor of Austin-avenue Methodist church, Waco, as speaker for the day.

The Rev. Mr. Mansfield who, by the way, is noted as quite a humorist as well as a most earnest preacher of the gospel, said after it had been announced in introduction preliminaries that one of the guests—a friend, by the way, of the Rev. Mr. Mansfield—that if the speaker ran over his time, that he was "glad the gospel still had the power to cast out Devils." Also, he mentioned that he was pleased to see Lions as quiet—very quiet, in fact—visitors at a Rotary luncheon; it reminded him, he said, of the old story about a Lion who ate some bull and then got to roaring so loud somebody had to shoot him. The moral (if any) to the story, said Mr. Mansfield, is: "If you are full of bull, keep your mouth shut!"

The speaker then took some potshots—humorously—at some Cisco dignitaries, specifically at G. R. (Pete) Nance, club secretary—to whom he referred as a "place in Kentucky" that was brought to memory—a place called Bald Knob. He added that he was glad to see Mrs. S. E. Hittson present, hoped Lion President Hittson was like the man who when asked why he always took his wife places, answered that it was much easier to take her than to kiss her good-bye.

Mr. Mansfield said he had been a Rotarian in past years and that he knew about the Rotary creed. Going farther, he said that The Rotary Wheel reminded him that the hub might (and could be) Christ—with the spokes as influences emanating from Him.

"We have been and are now groping in the dark as to what to do in many instances of governmental policy; many different alphabetical organizations have been set up to handle these matters; but I am thinking that Christ, the Man of Galilee, should be our guide in matters of right conduct," Mr. Mansfield continued.

The speaker then said that Angels sang of Peace on Earth and Good Will Toward Men—but no peace could come until there WAS good will.

"I am the Truth," sayeth the Lord, and that is what we are seeking, quoted the Rev. Mr. Mansfield.

"Truth and justice must prevail if we are to win our fight and win the peace to follow. Justice being necessary to a democracy, we must see that justice prevails, he concluded.

The Rev. Mr. Mansfield, speaking in reverent tones, thanked God for men who think enough of ideals to be willing to sacrifice and fight for them. He congratulated Cisco for having a group of Rotarians and Lions that stand for good citizenship and active civic service that must surely make for a better community in which to live.

Visitors present today included Hubert Johnson, mayor of Waco and past district governor of the Rotary, and now superintendent of the Methodist home; Dr. H. L. Draper, Dr. R. W. Goodloe, Jack Frost of Eastland, Rev. Barron, a Methodist minister of Eastland; Ben Hamner, Eastland; Mrs. S. E. Hittson and the Rev. L. W. Seymour.

Some of the banks and postoffices of the county have already reported to me that brisk sales have started for the month of November. As the snows pile up on the Russian front, let's pile our money up on the Eastland county front, so that our boys will know we are doing our part here while they offer their lives at the front.

Each and all the chairmen of the several committees in the county, together with their committeemen, want me to convey to you their sincere appreciation for your loyalty and continued support of the program for Eastland county for the calendar year 1942. Very truly yours,

CYRUS B. FROST,
Eastland County Chairman.

SENATE, HOUSE DEMOS MUST LOOK OUT NOW

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—President Roosevelt's control of congress on labor and other domestic issues was jeopardized today, though nearly complete general election returns showed that the Democrats won a bare majority of the house of representatives.

The Republicans gained 41 voice seats and will have at least 206 seats in the new house coming the first week of January. The Democrats have won 218 seats, a majority. The Progressives have two seats, and the Farm-Labor and the American-Labor parties have one each. Seven seats were still undecided.

With one contest in Montana still in doubt, the Republicans gained nine seats in the senate, or a total of 48. The Democrats will have 56 seats in the new senate and the Progressives will have one. The new 78th congress meets the first week of January. Control of the senate was not at stake in this election.

Democratic majorities have been unexpectedly reduced. Democrats in the house will be painfully short of the comfortable working majorities they have enjoyed since the first New Deal landslide in 1932.

SENATOR LEE'S SUCCESSOR IS ANTI-NEW DEAL

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 5.—The tall, gaunt man who had surprised the nation with a spectacular victory over Sen. Josh Lee leaned back at his desk with a sigh of satisfaction, but there wasn't a trace of a smile on his dark, deeply-lined face.

"The job of a senator in these terrible times is not a laughing matter," he declared. "It's time we stopped laughing and wisecracking and did some sane, serious thinking about winning the war and saving this country from the bureaucrats."

His triumph over Lee, an ardent New Deal champion, was one of the biggest political upsets in the nation's off-year elections, but Ed H. Moore insisted that it was not a "personal victory."

"It was a result of popular resentment against the Roosevelt party, which was bungling the prosecution of the war and placed politics above the welfare of the nation."

The wealthy 71-year-old Moore carried the Republican banner against Lee, but he declared that he had always been a Democrat and still was a Democrat, "but definitely not a New Deal Democrat."

In the office from which he once directed a $40,000,000 oil business, Moore sat with his feet on his desk, chewed an unlit cigar and chatted of his plans to go to Washington and fight against "unnecessary regimentation of the people."

WOMEN SALVAGE HEADS.

DALLAS, Nov. 5.—A vice chairman and four district deputies have been appointed to the newly-created women's unit of the Texas General Salvage Committee. E. E. Kirkpatrick of Brownwood, chairman of the committee, said. Mrs. Berta Womack of Fort Worth has been appointed state vice chairman and district deputies are Mrs. Volney Taylor, Sherman; Mrs. Joseph Perkins, Eastland; Mrs. R. M. Carter, Sherman, and Mrs. W. W. Hawkins, El Paso. The women's unit will assist in organizing collection of tin cans, waste fats, household scrap metal and rags, silk and nylon used hosiery.

BULLOCK IN LEAD.

FT. WORTH, Nov. 5.—Rep Pat Bullock of Snyder appears to have a fairly safe lead over his five opponents for the senate post formerly held by John Lee Smith of Throckmorton, now lieutenant-governor elect.

NAZIS, REDS CONTINUE BITTER STRUGGLE

MOSCOW, Nov. 5.—The Russians have broken up all the latest Nazi efforts to expand the invasion salient in northern Stalingrad and, in some places, have forced the Germans to abandon several basic points, dispatches said Thursday.

While bitter attacks and counter-attacks developed about the ruined Volga River city, Red army troops were credited with local gains northwest of Stalingrad, on the Black Sea front and in the Muzdok sector of the central Caucasus.

A successful Soviet holding action was indicated before the Caucasian slopes and passes south-east of Nalchik.

Izvestia said the battle of Stalingrad was characterized by a growing maneuverability of Red army units.

Observers stressed the heaviness of the German attacks, however, and at least one point they threw in a new division. There were many hand-to-hand clashes. The latest German loss reported was 1,000 slain Wednesday.

The Nazi air force bombed the city's defenses steadily in support of the ground operations. There have been several hundred flights in the last few days.

SATURDAY IS 'POPPY DAY' - A WORTHY CAUSE AT ABILENE

ABILENE, Nov. 5.—One hundred business leaders of West Texas will lunch together next Tuesday noon in the ballroom of Abilene's Hilton hotel. They will hear an address by Sen. John Lee Smith, Texas' lieutenant governor-elect, on "Our War Time Legislative Responsibility."

The luncheon will be a 90-minute break in deliberations of the executive and referendum board of the West Texas chamber of commerce. This 72-member group, composed of WTCC officers, past presidents, district and assistant district directors, and committeemen will assemble here at 9:30 Tuesday morning for an all-day session. The agenda calls for canvassing returns from more than 150 town referendum meetings held throughout the territory since October 2. From the ballots cast by the local directors, the referendum board will determine the regional chamber's policies and work program for 1943. Next year's officers, executive board and district directors will be elected, along with the board of directors representing the 175 affiliated towns.

Besides the official group, the luncheon will bring together a goodly portion of the 48th Texas legislature. Invitations have been mailed to all West Texas members of the senate and house, and acceptances are coming in.

RED CROSS IS RECIPIENT OF A CHECK FOR $120

E. E. Freyschlag, Eastland county Red Cross chairman, announces receipt of a cash gift of $120 for the Red Cross from Miss El Marie Gustafson, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Marie Gustafson, 88th district court reporter, Eastland, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Gustafson, Cisco.

The young lady made the generous contribution after receiving it from a relative as a gift.

"This is one of the finest examples of personal devotion to the cause of humanity as represented by the Red Cross that we have known," said the county chairman. "It is the sort of American spirit for sacrifice that will win."

CATHOLIC LEADER DEAD.

FT. WORTH, Nov. 5.—Fort Worth Catholics today mourned the loss of one of their most beloved leaders, Msgr. J. S. O'Connor, of Holy Name Parish, who died last night in a local hospital after a prolonged illness. He was 71. For 31 years, Msgr. O'Connor had been friend, counselor, and pastor to his parish. He came to Holy Name in 1911. Canadian-born, Msgr. O'Connor was the son of Mathew and Mary Doyle O'Connor of Ottawa, Canada.

THREE BAPTIST CONVENTIONS, NOV. 9 TO 12

FORT WORTH, Nov. 5.—Rev. W. W. Melton, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention, and R. A. Springer, Dallas, state Baptist Brotherhood secretary and general convention secretary, will speak during the four-day meeting of the three Baptist conventions here Nov. 9-12.

The Woman's Missionary Union will open Monday at 11:30 a. m. in Broadway Baptist church; Baptist Brotherhood Convention will convene at 2 p. m. Monday in First Methodist church, and the general convention will meet Tuesday through Thursday in the Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium.

Mr. Melton will speak during the Wednesday night meeting of the general convention. He will also report on the payment of the $400,000 debt of the general convention. Springer will talk on "Reconnaissance" at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Brotherhood.

TURKEYS 24 CENTS.

CUERO, Nov. 5.—Marketing of the 1942 turkey crop gained momentum Thursday, with No. 1 toms bringing 22 cents per pound and hens 24 cents. No definite ceiling had been set on live turkeys, said R. E. Bradley, district manager of the Cudaly Packing Company, although some announcement from the Washington OPA office was expected shortly, he added.

The pen is mightier than truth or justice. We are Americans because a mapmaker without authority named the new country on a map.

DECEPTION AND PERSONAL ATTACKS FAILED

PONTIAC, Mich., Nov. 5.—Even the name of Roosevelt went down to defeat in Michigan.

Mrs. Dorothy Kemp Roosevelt, wife of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's late brother, lost her race for Michigan's Seventeenth District congressional seat to the incumbent Republican, George A. Dondero of Royal Oak.

Dondero, who piled up a majority of 13,000, said, "Not since the creation of the Seventeenth District in 1932 have I experienced a campaign in which I have been subjected to more deception, misstatements, insinuations and personal abuse than in the contest just decided."

GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Corn lead a rally in the grain market Thursday, with grains of as much as a cent a bushel. Buying was attributed to Eastern industries, including distillers, and to belief that increased lake movement of grain will be possible before the end of the navigation season.

New version: So high is grandeur to our dust; so near to God is man; when Duty says "What will you buy?" the youth replies: "Japan."

No wonder that Hitler delegates authority, while Roosevelt and Churchill make all decisions. Hitler can shoot anybody who fails.

Men may eat more after they get into the army, but that theory doesn't explain the razor shortage. They don't shave any more.

TWO VACANCIES FILLED

The Nursery school advisory board held its regular meeting this morning at 10 o'clock at the chamber of commerce. One of the most important functions of the meeting was to fill the offices of president and secretary, made vacant by resignations. Mrs. W. C. Hogue was elected president and Mrs. H. J. McArdle was elected to fill the secretary's place. Mrs. Watson, assistant district supervisor, was a guest at the meeting today and she discussed with the group the different phases of the Nursery school program. The next regular board meeting will be held December 3.

The scrap drive really worked this time. Now if we could find some way to let the kids handle other war jobs.

But no woman can refuse a postage due letter, she'd rather pay than suffer the pangs of unsatisfied curiosity. Since our niece and her husband lost their money, they are enthusiastic as they did when they were on the way to perdition.

Rationing of gasoline, coffee and meats will make people food conscious as nothing else could do. The lack of ability to buy bacon has already made customers appreciate that lowly item as never before.

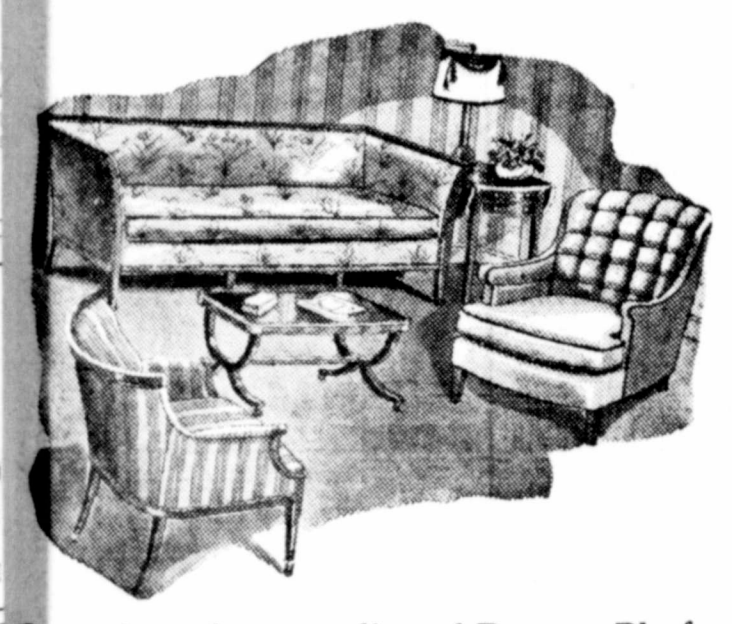

All of this makes it necessary that housewives be more discerning in their buying. Just buying promiscuously with nothing in mind except the price will slow up. People are going to demand quality along with price.

This store has steadily contended that one or two cents difference in price when the quality was far different was not real thrift. Quality counts for more than that. Try us during November and be convinced.
