TUNISIA SHOWDOWN THOUGHT NEAR AT HAND

APPS ADMIT TO MORE LOSSES, GUADALCANAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Main Japanese positions on northwest Guadalcanal today were believed to have been softened up further advance by American forces following a punishing 10-hour daylight bombardment by U.S. warships.

Possibility that a Japanese carrier force may be in the vicinity of the southeastern Solomons was suggested by the fact that a large number of enemy torpedo bombers were sent against the American ships—a move proving costly to the attackers.

Torpedo planes usually are used in the later stages of the Pacific war. The Japanese were believed to have operated such craft from the island.

At any rate, the Japanese paid a heavy price for their interruption of the naval bombardment. Out of an attacking force of 23 torpedo bombers and eight Zero fighters, only one was shot down. Only one managed to escape the vengeance of American fighter pilots and anti-aircraft gunners.

The engagement followed by the 24 hours another air fight in which 17 Jap planes were destroyed.

The air attack occurred at 2:15 p.m. Thursday (Island time), bringing to an end the naval bombardment which had begun at 10:30 a.m.

Two of the American warships were damaged, but apparently not seriously. The 10,000-ton heavy cruiser San Francisco was "slightly damaged" when a disabled enemy Japanese plane crashed into the ship. The destroyer-escort was hit by a five-inch shell from a shore battery.

The navy said 30 men were killed on the San Francisco, while 100 other crewmen lost their lives.

Tokyo admitted Saturday that a battleship had been damaged and two Jap destroyers sunk, but heavy blows had been inflicted on the Allies.

DIE RICKENBACKER SAFE AND SOUND

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Capt. William V. Rickenbacker, the indomitable man of aviation, has been rescued from the Pacific after one of the greatest sea-air hunts in modern history, the navy announced today.

Three weeks after the world was informed that the flying ace was missing south of Hawaii, a Navy patrol flying boat found the 52-year-old flier floating with two comrades in a life raft.

The rescue was made about 600 miles south of Samoa.

Rickenbacker, survivor of many ventures in which death seemed around the corner, was in excellent good condition to be reported to his rescuers that all of his crew men—Sgt. Alexander Czuczak — died several days ago and was buried at sea.

With the iron-man captain were Hans C. Adamson and Pvt. John F. Bartek and on a small island in the same general area, a naval search plane located Lieut. James C. Whitaker, Lieut. John DeAngelus and Staff Sgt. James Reynolds, other members of the crew of Rickenbacker's plane.

With the rescue of Capt. William T. Cherry, Jr., previously announced this week, all Rickenbacker's crew are now accounted for.

Rickenbacker and his crew, flying a U. S. Army bomber on a mission for Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson and Lieut. Gen. H. Arnold, chief of the Army Air Forces, were last heard from Oct. 21 when they radioed they had enough gasoline for only another hour of flight.

CONVICTS MAY FIGHT

HOUSTON, Nov. 14.—If tentative plans now under consideration are worked out, approximately 1,500 men in Texas prisons will become eligible to join the armed forces to fight the Axis. Dr. S. M. Lister, chairman of the state prison system, said Saturday. Men convicted of low and degenerate crimes will not be affected. Those who may be affected were described by the prison system head as "good men who made a mistake and who are anxious to do their part."

DRAFT BOARD QUITS

MENARD, Nov. 14.—Protesting that it could not expect to fill its county quota in view of instructions to defer dairy, livestock and poultry workers and operators "without throwing undue burden on others," including married men with children, the Menard county draft board resigned, it was announced Saturday.

MOSCOW, Nov. 14.—Joseph Stalin gave high praise Saturday

AXIS CLAIMS

BERLIN (From German Broadcasts), Nov. 14.—Twenty Allied ships, totaling 119,000 tons, were sunk by German submarines in the Atlantic, Arctic and Caribbean, DNB reported Saturday. The official news agency said one destroyer also was sunk by torpedo hits.

MAY OUTWIT YANKS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—A controversial anti-poll tax bill headed Saturday into a full-fledged filibuster by Southern Democrats and Senator Connally of Texas confidently predicted "it will never pass." After five hours of debate Friday—all on motions designed to get the bill up for consideration—Connally declared the Southerners had "just begun to talk."

DEFY GOVERNMENT.

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 14.—Shutdown of the Nash-Kelvinator's two Lansing plants by a labor dispute entered its third day Saturday, despite the War Department's demand that production of "desperately needed war materials" resume immediately.

FULLY INFORMED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—War Information Director Elmer Davis, challenging allegations that the Navy is losing the Pacific War, today assured the nation that it is being kept fully informed of war developments.

45-YEAR-OLDS EXEMPT.

FT. WORTH, Nov. 14.—Tarrant county's 45-year-old Selective Service registrants today were exempted from the draft, providing they do not wish to be drafted. All eight local boards, under instructions from state headquarters in Austin, are automatically deferring the 45-year age group. Deferment was granted in view of the "teen age draft bill, which will add a potential 3000 18 and 19-year-olds to the 1-A lists.

WILDCATTING, WHICH, according to various persons here, must be increased if we are to maintain our present reserves of oil, certainly will not boom next year. It will, in fact, fall off because, less material will be available.

DISEASE INCREASE.

AUSTIN, Nov. 14.—The State Department of Health Saturday reported incidence of diphtheria, dysentery, influenza, pneumonia and typhus fever for the week ending Nov. 7 was above the seven-year median.

HITLER AND JAP HEADS CONFER IN BERLIN, WHICH MAY MEAN A SECOND FRONT AGAINST RUSSIA

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The hour of showdown in Tunisia struck Saturday with British and American forces sweeping toward a German-Italian vanguard that already was under stubborn attack by the French defenders of Tunis.

The London press reported that the vanguard of Lieut. Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson's British First Army and American troops, numbering perhaps 200,000 men, was believed to have crossed into Tunisia this morning. U. S. paratroopers were reported in action.

As the Axis outlook darkened, its German chieftains were disclosed to have called the Japanese into urgent conferences of an import as yet undisclosed.

Berlin broadcasts said the heads of all Japanese missions to Europe had been assembled in Berlin since Nov. 10—two days after the American coup in Northwest Africa—and had been in session ever since studying the development both as regards Europe and East Asia.

Such a conference at this hour when the European end of the Axis had little good to report suggested strongly that Hitler might be calling his Oriental ally to his aid—perhaps to open a "second front" against Russia in Siberia, or begin a diversion attack upon British India or occupied Madagascar.

This was directly in line with reports heard in Turkey at the outset of the new North African campaign that the Nazi Fuehrer had urged Tokio to ease his position by attacking Madagascar—but these reports declared that the Japanese had refused on the ground that they did not have the naval and shipping strength available for such an undertaking.

The Evening Standard carried an unofficial report that the Allies are moving parachute troops toward Tunisia for use against Axis units which have seized airdromes there. The source of the report was not given.

Algiers broadcasts heard in London said ancient Tunis had two more air raid alerts before dawn as Allied planes kept up their blows at an airdrome near the city where Nazi paratroopers won a foothold.

From the east, where the British have raced on to the Gazala region 40 miles beyond recaptured Tobruk, the Axis still was hard-pressed—and admitted it. The German high command said the 8th Army still was attacking "with undiminished force" and the Italians said they were under "heavy enemy pressure."

OIL MEN FACE A 50 PER CENT MATERIAL CUT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Oil producers probably will receive no more than 50 per cent of their normal material requirements in 1943.

This news comes from Don R. Knowlton, director of production for the Office of Petroleum Coordinator, and he broke it as gently as possible at the American Petroleum Institute convention at Chicago this week.

This apparently means that

A VITAL RIGHT

Natural resources are a vital part of our life. Nations which don't have them, strive to gain them; nations which have them, try to keep them. War itself cannot be waged without a successful termination with out their products. From this the conclusion could easily be drawn that natural resources are a curse. They must be used as they are used—exploited by a few crated maniacs with hypnotic power over millions of people.

But the use to which our natural resources here in America have been put during the last century and a half, show that our oil, coal and metal mines, timber, water power, etc., can be the greatest of blessings. Never has the world seen such a concentration and security for the common man as has been attained by their use in this country. All of the creative genius of free men centered in securing a rising plane of existence for the individual. A form of government and a "way of doing business" made it possible to satisfy the urge. The opportunity for every man to make his living independently and free of government domination, is the basic law. This protects us from the system of free enterprise. As long as it is preserved, official communism cannot enter our system.

Our industrial work never stops. Our present zigzag course the productivity by countless men—men who were—free men. Last war came, every man of the productive energy of these men went toward making a better life for the common man. This is as it should have been and will be again. During our people, while making every sacrifice possible. All the war, being to the vital right from which we derive all other rights. The right of every American citizen of peace time to the master of his own destiny and the servant of a so-called state in Germany.

TURNING

The turning point of the war is now here. We are now turning to the offensive. We are now turning to the offensive. We are now turning to the offensive.

FROM THE RANKS

The world today must understand that the army is the backbone. He is who is who. He is who is who. He is who is who.

A Modern Betsy Ross—Woman At War 1942 Model

Seeing a battle flag Old Glory, which she hopes will fly in triumph over Tokyo, Emma Hays, 30, makes the practical patriotism of a vast army of American women who have gone into war factories to build up the resources which will bring years service in the ranks a prerequisite for admission to West Point. In no other way can the future officer learn as much about the men he will command. Some officers have done just this. A notable case was Gen. James G. Harbord, President's chief of staff and the present chairman of the Radio Corporation of America. He began as a private and climbed to the second highest post in the army.

SURPLUS MILK

No milk is ever wasted here in this country. There cannot be any such thing as "surplus" milk on the basis of an overproduction which cannot be sold. At the times of year when cows are more liberal in their gifts there may be more milk produced in any year than can be used as fresh milk that day. But the surplus is immediately turned into butter and cheese, which are eaten later. There is a plenty of demand for all the dairy products we need and consume.

ONLY 5 TIRES MAY BE KEPT SAYS RUSSELL

Eastland county motorists who fail to dispose of any tires they own in excess of the permissible five per car face the inconvenience of a delay in getting their "usage ration." O. J. Russell, member of war price and rationing board, said Saturday. "Passenger car owners showing on their applications that they still own more than five tires per car will not be issued basic mileage ration books when they register at schools," he explained. "They will be told they must get rid of those tires first." It was stressed that transfer of the tires cannot be made in any way to another person, even by gift, but that the tires must be sold or donated to the government through the Railway Express agency office. To expedite the handling, tires should have labels securely pasted on outside bevel edge addressed to Defense Supplies Corporation, Fort Worth, Texas. Also name and address of seller or donor must be shown. Two or more tires should be securely wired together, tight in spaces apart.

SHOWER HONORED RECENT BRIDE

Misses Jimmie Jean Hensley, Cathryn Shepard and Bonnie Jean Wilson were hostesses at a lingerie shower in the Shepard home Thursday night honoring Mrs. Ray Clark. The house was resplendent with decorations of seasonal flowers. Guests were met at the door by Miss Jimmie Jean Hensley and Mrs. Ray Clark. All registered in the bride's book. After the guests were seated Miss Cathryn Shepard requested them to write a long adjective on a slip of paper. At this juncture an interruption was made by Misses Veda Faye Ramsower and Rose Ann Woods, who entered, dressed in old clothes, and enacted a clever skit, impersonating Ray Clark and bride. They asked where Stephenville, Corsicana and Baird are located. They obtained a marriage license at Baird, went to Eastland and got married, and then to Corsicana on a honeymoon trip. Miss Bonnie Jean Wilson sang "At Last," accompanied by Betty Slicker at the piano. The army air corps song was dedicated to Ray Clark. The second act showed the young bridegroom leaving for the air corps, to accordion music furnished by Miss Peggy Jean Gallagher. Miss Veda Faye Ramsower (as the bride) waved a large handkerchief in farewell to her young husband (Miss Rose Ann Woods).

When the skit was concluded, the honoree was presented with four balloons which she popped and found a slip of paper in each. The slips told her where she would find her gifts. They were found in a bedroom closet and brought to the living room, where she opened them. Miss Dorothy Jean Anderson read from a supposed social write-up in which all the long adjectives were used. The article was truthful and greatly enjoyed. Refreshments of dainty sandwiches and spiced tea were passed. The guest list included Mrs. Ray Clark, Mrs. H. J. McArdle, Mrs. A. L. Clark, Lois Ann Clark, Misses Freda Fern Erwin, Betty Mae Davis, Kathleen Keough, Jacqueline Ruppert, Peggy Gallagher, Betty Slicker, Mary Martha Mitcham, Dorothy Nell Pugh, Sylvia Hazel, Jeanette Burnham, Betty Pippin, Rose Ann Woods.

A sumptuous dinner was served and violin and guitar music was furnished during the afternoon.

Fifty Years Ago—

People did things that they dare not do today. Many bought their homes without an abstract, and the title usually was good. But how times have changed! Multiplied thousands of titles were clouded during the oil boom days and since, by the passing of time. And the property you have in mind buying now without an abstract may be one of them.

Play safe when you buy real estate. Always demand an abstract.

Co-operation IS A Fatherly Duty

This young father is trying to be helpful and cooperative so far as he is able to be. He gives the baby its bottle which will some day enable it to stand alone and finally go forth into the world a strong, self-reliant person, able to do for him or herself.

What we would do for a child we should do for our town and all civic and commercial enterprises. Feed them when they are weak and nourish them along until they shall have grown to a maturity that will make them blessings to us when they no longer require our helpful hands.

A business man, a citizen, a corporation within a city, owes it as a duty to be cooperative with every move that will tend to make the growth of that city more rapid and sturdy. Young enterprises need cultivation and need the encouragement that will make them grow strong.

We will soon be called upon—not for money—but for aid in a social and helpful way to extend our hospitality to the young women who are launching into a new sphere for them, in order to fit themselves into a work that our government thinks women can do—work that will greatly increase the potential manpower needed to win our victories. Naturally these women will feel the need of mother and a friendly encouragement.

And then as potential business comes our way, we will need to be ready, to be cooperative in keeping the town in step with progress. We must not lag lest opportunity turns her face away from us. We must merit the plums we get, else they will fall in our laps. Let's cooperate to rehabilitate our town and business.

Now that we've got a real war on our hands, the utilities will pay a lot more taxes— YOU: Oh, well, don't they always say: "The consumer pays"?
