THOUSANDS OF KEYS IN DAILY PRESS BARREL

Four-year-old Sandra Sue brought in 32 keys for the Key-Kan at the Cisco Daily Press yesterday, which shows the citizens are patriotic and doing all they can to aid in the war effort that just now requires very encouraging results. Keys are being pushed out of the state as they had overrun so rapidly during 1941. The Key-Kan is still open to receive keys which the war office tells us are unusually valuable. Sandra Sue's barrel contains 32 keys, yet it is a large barrel and can hold many thousands more. It must be sent in soon, if you have unused keys about your place, bring them in to the Daily Press office at once, to help with keys.

SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION A BIG HELP NOW

"Soil and water conservation measures are increasing per acre yield of war crops wherever these methods are used in Texas," T. E. Hughes of Dublin reported this week when he returned from the second annual meeting of Texas Soil Conservation District Supervisors in Dallas. Hughes is chairman of the Upper Leon Soil Conservation district. "District supervisors from every part of Texas told us time and again that the use of soil and water conservation practices, as recommended in the district programs, resulted in more beef and milk or more peanuts, corn, sorghums or cotton per acre," the district chairman recalled. "Members of the association are the supervisors of Texas' eighty-six soil conservation districts that cover 80,725,000 acres and include approximately 728,600 farms and ranches. Definite increases in yields per acre of peanuts have been noted in the Upper Leon Soil Conservation district where farmers have been using wind and water erosion-resisting and soil-building practices the past year. Hughes said that if the president's goals for food are met next year and the next, farmers must apply conservation measures on their land to increase yields per acre. He continued that increased yields through conservation of soil and water will be the only way to meet the Food-for-Freedom goals in this district, since the acreage of peanuts and other crops cannot be increased without clearing additional land."

CATTLE MARKET

Common, medium and good calves were weak to unevenly lower on the Fort Worth stock yards Friday while all classes of cattle and the choice calves sold generally steady. Americanism: Groaning about the tax burden supporting the war, still supporting the war.

Women everywhere in this country are fighting the Axis... not in the front line of the far-off Solomons... not in U-boat infested lanes of the Atlantic... not in the misty Aleutians... but right here... workers and housewives and volunteers are united in campaigns to promote the sales of War Bonds and Stamps.

PARTIAL CONFESSION

TOKYO, Nov. 20.—(Japanese broadcast recorded by United Press in San Francisco)—The newspaper Nichi Nichi said today that Japanese losses in the Nov. 13-15 naval battle of the Solomons were "by no means slight." "We regret that the lives of valiant fighting men were lost in this naval battle," it said. "However, we must reconstruct where losses have been sustained and push onward toward victory."

WORK OF MADMAN

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 20.—Mass murder in a mad house engaged state policemen today as they questioned the 3,000 inmates of the state hospital for the insane in search of a lunatic believed to have poured poison into scrambled-egg batter, killing 47 of his fellows.

TURKEY SHIPMENTS SLOW; PRICES HIGH

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—An unusually slow pre-Thanksgiving day movement of turkeys from farm to market is keeping prices of the birds, traditionally associated with big feasts, at ceilings, levels substantially higher than at any previous holiday period in recent years, market experts said Friday. They blamed the tardy marketing on labor shortage, transportation difficulties and uncertainty of growers and dealers regarding price ceiling regulations. There are plenty of turkeys back on the farm. The national population was estimated slightly larger than a year ago and almost as big as the 1940 record crop.

KEEP 'EM FLYING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The United States is turning out more airplanes monthly than the combined output of the Axis, and the 1943 goal—reported to be between 90,000 and 100,000 planes—should give the United Nations unquestionable air superiority over the enemy, responsible sources said today.

GOOD OLD "DIXIE"

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ORAN, Algeria, Nov. 18.—(Delayed)—The first regiment of a fast-moving French army rolled off to the Tunisian front today to the strains of "Dixie," played by an American army band. Eager to get into action, the French soldiers responded to American cheers as they marched off, by shouting a promise to fight "with all our hearts" against the common enemy.

TWO GAMES OF IMPORT COME UP SATURDAY

The two conference games to be played this Saturday will go a long way toward settling the order in which the teams finish the 1942 season and both of these important games are scheduled to be broadcast. The Rice-T. C. U. game goes on the air at 2:20 over stations KPRC, Houston; WOAI, San Antonio; WFAA, Dallas-Fort Worth. Kern Tips will bring the play-by-play report while Bill Newkirk alternates with color highlighting. Broadcast time for the Baylor-S. M. U. game at Waco is also 2:20 and stations are KGKO, Dallas-Fort Worth; KXYZ, Houston; KTSA, San Antonio; WACO, Waco and KFDM, Beaumont. Ves Box and Dave Russell will alternate at the microphone for play-by-play and color respectively.

HAS LITTLE CHANCE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Odds that the senate would reject the ill-timed antipoll tax bill rose Friday after Majority Leader Barkley conceded it could not pass this session unless debate were limited. A move to set a time limit on the argument fell Thursday but was expected to be renewed Monday.

ALL-TIME HIGH.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 20.—Kansas oil production during the week ending Nov. 16 reached an all time high of 311,567 barrels per day. Jeff Robertson, chairman of the State Corporation Commission, reported today.

CHASING NAZIS IS NEW WINTER SPORT, RUSSIA

MOSCOW, Nov. 20.—Red army units pressed hard after fleeing Germans in the deep Caucasus Friday, following up a major victory that eased Nazi pressure on the great Grozny oil fields near the Caspian Sea and on the military road leading south into the rich Transcaucasus. Latest front line reports bore out the earlier impression that a major Fascist force—possibly four divisions of 45,000 men—was routed in a battle of several days on the approaches to Ordzhonikidze. A special communique brought first news of the triumph Thursday night, reporting 5,000 of the enemy killed, several times that many wounded and vast military booty captured. Friday's added details confirmed or revised upward all these figures and spread joy among the Russian people whose hope and confidence have been rising as temperatures have fallen under the impact of early winter.

DEATH CALLS HERO OF LAST WORLD WAR

BALTIMORE, Nov. 20.—Lt. Gen. John Archer Le Jeune, 75, World War I hero and one of the Marines' most distinguished officers, died Friday at United Memorial Hospital. He had a long and distinguished career in the Marine Corps and retired Nov. 12, 1929, after 45 years' service. Born at Pointe Coupee, La., General Le Jeune reached the peak of his distinction in 1918, when he commanded the famous 2nd Division of the first AEF. The only Marine officer ever to hold an army divisional command, his leadership during the battles of St. Mihiel, the Argonne and particularly Blanc Mont Ridge, led to his being rated by military men as one of the ablest officers on the Allied side.

FIRST TIME AMERICANS HAVE MET FOE IN GROUND FIGHTING SINCE MEMORABLE WORLD WAR 1

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Nov. 20.—American troops have driven back German forces in the first ground fighting between the two armies since the World War, headquarters revealed today, and Allied forces are within 30 miles of both Bizerte and Tunis and may already stand at the Gulf of Hammamet on the eastern Tunisian coast. Allied headquarters reported today that American troops have clashed on the ground in Tunisia with Germans for the first time in the present war. Headquarters reported that Allied forces—British, American and French—are rolling into Tunisia all along the line, and rapidly are bringing the French colony under occupation. A mixed column of Americans, British and French troops met the German ground forces in the initial encounter of the war and forced the Nazis to retreat. Allied troops were reported to be swarming over Tunisia in virtually all sectors, and with the exception of a small corner in the northeastern part of the colony around Bizerte and Tunis. The Allied advance was paced by a powerful force of American Flying Fortresses. Off the coast, a British fleet steamed in search of the Italian navy, in the belief that Adolf Hitler might force Benito Mussolini to risk his naval forces in a desperate attempt to retrieve the Axis position.

CARELESS GALVESTON MUST PAY THE PIPER

GALVESTON, Nov. 20.—Venereal disease infections in this island resort city have increased to such an extent, Camp Wallace officials said, that they threatened today to keep their soldiers from visiting here. "I would be very reluctant to keep the men out of Galveston," Brig. Gen. E. A. Stockton, Jr., commanding officer at Camp Wallace, told Mayor Henry W. Flagg and other city officials at a conference in city hall yesterday afternoon. "However," he added, "if the situation gets bad enough, that is what I would have to do."

ALL RIGHT IF VARIOUS STATES ACT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—"The poll tax is on the way out," says Senator Russell of Georgia. But he has carried a big share of the right against the antipoll tax bill. He says the Federal Government is "trying to ram this down our throats." Other opponents of the measure agree that the tax should be abolished—but by the states, not by congress. Senator McKellar of Tennessee said if a poll tax repealer were submitted to the people of Tennessee, "I think I would be inclined to favor it." Senator Connally of Texas recalled he had voted against the poll tax in Texas many years ago in a referendum. Sensible organization: Registering the other crowd. Unfair regimentation: Organizing your crowd.

THIS KILLING BUSINESS

What should be the mental attitude of men at war, who have to kill other men to save themselves and the people that they love?

Land Gen. Lewis of the Army announced that the army has recognized the difficulty and tragedy of war.

But must men really kill to save their country? Must they be involved with the death of their fellow men?

It is to make the matter simpler should they not all rather die than to be the cause of the death of others?

per of numerous reports about the war, as many winter visitors are usually arriving by this time. But it seems that many visitors will remain longer than in previous years.

No tourist travel is expected to be resumed during the war. The very nature of the war conditions precludes it. Some of the people who enter to tourists are engaged in war work for the duration, some in factories, others in the field.

If we have a normal business of America, the use of catering to people who want to get around and see the country, it is an all-around time but some day there will be no more and plenty of people will be better off than the rest of the population and they will be going places seeing things and doing things.

The war department is preparing to set up units for three weather tracking units soon at Grand Rapids, Minn. The new units will be used to track weather conditions over the entire country.

COLDS COSTING WAR WORKERS A LARGE SUM

Since Pearl Harbor colds and complications have cost war workers $250,000,000 in lost wages and have caused absences in war industries totaling 40,000,000 work-days, time sufficient to build 900 flying fortresses, 8,000 fighter planes, 8,000 tanks, or 35,000 jeeps, according to the health bulletin published by the Vick Chemical company.

Respiratory diseases now cause more lost work time in war industries than almost all other illnesses combined, the Vick report states, and a progressive increase in time loss from colds is predicted "unless vigorous and determined efforts are started at once to prevent colds from spreading and to treat all colds promptly."

Giving common-sense health rules that "may help avoid many colds," a section of the bulletin addressed to war workers says: "Live normally, avoid excesses. Eat simple food, drink plenty of water, and keep elimination regular. Get plenty of rest and sleep. Keep reminding yourself that colds are catching! Stay clear of careless coughers and sneezers. Don't share drinking cups, towels—even a half-eaten apple, a piece of candy or a 'drag' on a cigarette—with anyone. If you catch a cold, start care and treatment at once. A neglected cold may reduce your resistance and open the way to development of tonsillitis, sinusitis—often pneumonia and flu! So start treatment immediately. If you have a high fever, ache all over, or if the cold lasts more than a few days—call a doctor.

Because of the grave danger of serious slackening in war production by avoidable and neglected colds, Vick is sponsoring a program on cold prevention and care among war workers. Posters and booklets are being distributed free to war plants.

NATURE'S HIGHWAY—Getting supplies to Allied forces in the Owen Stanley Mountain range of New Guinea, is the problem at hand for these U. S. infantrymen who are furnishing motive power for a boatload of materials in traversing mountain stream toward outlying post.

"Yes, sir, I am waiting for the rural carrier who will be due here in a few minutes if he is on time, and he always is, in order to get the Cisco Daily Press. Seems like we can't wait to get it. Besides the latest war news and important happenings over the state and nation, the local news is worth many times the price that they are asking us farmers for the paper. And then the ads we find!

We save quite a bit on our groceries since we started reading the ads each week. It is several miles farther than our little local town but we save more than enough to pay us for going to Cisco each week to do our shopping."

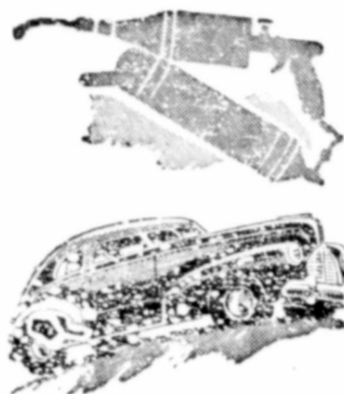

This is a sample of the conversations going on all over the rural area covered by the Cisco Daily Press, and merchants are attracting people to shop in Cisco when they quote prices in their ads. They not only do themselves a service but they help their community by bringing shoppers to Cisco.

If you have a soldier boy or friend who is not getting the paper, better make them a Christmas gift of a Year's Subscription. Nothing would be more appreciated because the soldiers and their buddies would enjoy it a whole year. When they are moved it can follow them to their new camp.
