ALLIES HARD-PRESSED BY NAZIS IN TUNISIA

LOBOES BANQUET IN STYLE

A very enjoyable dinner was enjoyed by members of the Lobo football team, their dates, coaches and their wives and mothers of the boys, at American Legion Hut Thursday night, at which about 60 were in attendance. The mothers served the dinner, after which an impromptu program was rendered.

Each boy, his date and the mothers spoke a few words during the program, which was presided over by Coach Monroe Sweeney. Coach Bill Falls introduced the Loboes and they in turn introduced their dates and mothers.

The menu consisted of fried chicken, blackeyed peas, potato salad, pickles, hot rolls, pie and cocoa.

Those present and registering were Homer Tompkins, Dorothy Jean Anderson, Dick McPherson, Mary Martha Mitcham, Patsy Wilbanks, Elbert Tipton, Helen Gilders, Karl Armstrong, Jr., Mary Urban, Paul Mosley, Patsy Osborn, Lawrence Joinston, Yancey McCrea, Jr., Mrs. H. H. Tompkins, Eunice Lambert, O. C. Penn, Mrs. Oscar Penn, Mrs. S. H. McCantles, Lelah Latch, Bernice Hays, Kenneth Pilcher, Harold Rupe, Edna Posey, G. Pollard, Pete Sherman, Mrs. C. P. Mosley, Jimmie Jean Hensley, John Davis, Jessie Jean Robinson, Herby Latchfield, Peggy Jean Gallagher, Jimmy Gorman, Gloria Graham, Bill Philpott, Bettie Pippen, Mary Edith Pippen, Jack Garrett, Wanda Nelms, Brock Cleveland, Rex Ramsower, Milford Johnson, Phillip Trevino, Norma Jean Crofts, Morris Swartz, John McCantles, Kathryn Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Falls, Lavocce Wilson, J. Hays, Jimmy Pollard, Veda Ramsower, Mrs. G. Pilcher, Mrs. Yancey McCrea, Mrs. Karl Armstrong, Mrs. Alma Philpott, Monroe Sweeney, Mrs. D. J. Gorman, Mrs. Gordon Davis, Mrs. John McCantles, Mrs. Leon McPherson.

TWO SLAPS AT F.D. ARE SEEN IN HOUSE, SENATE

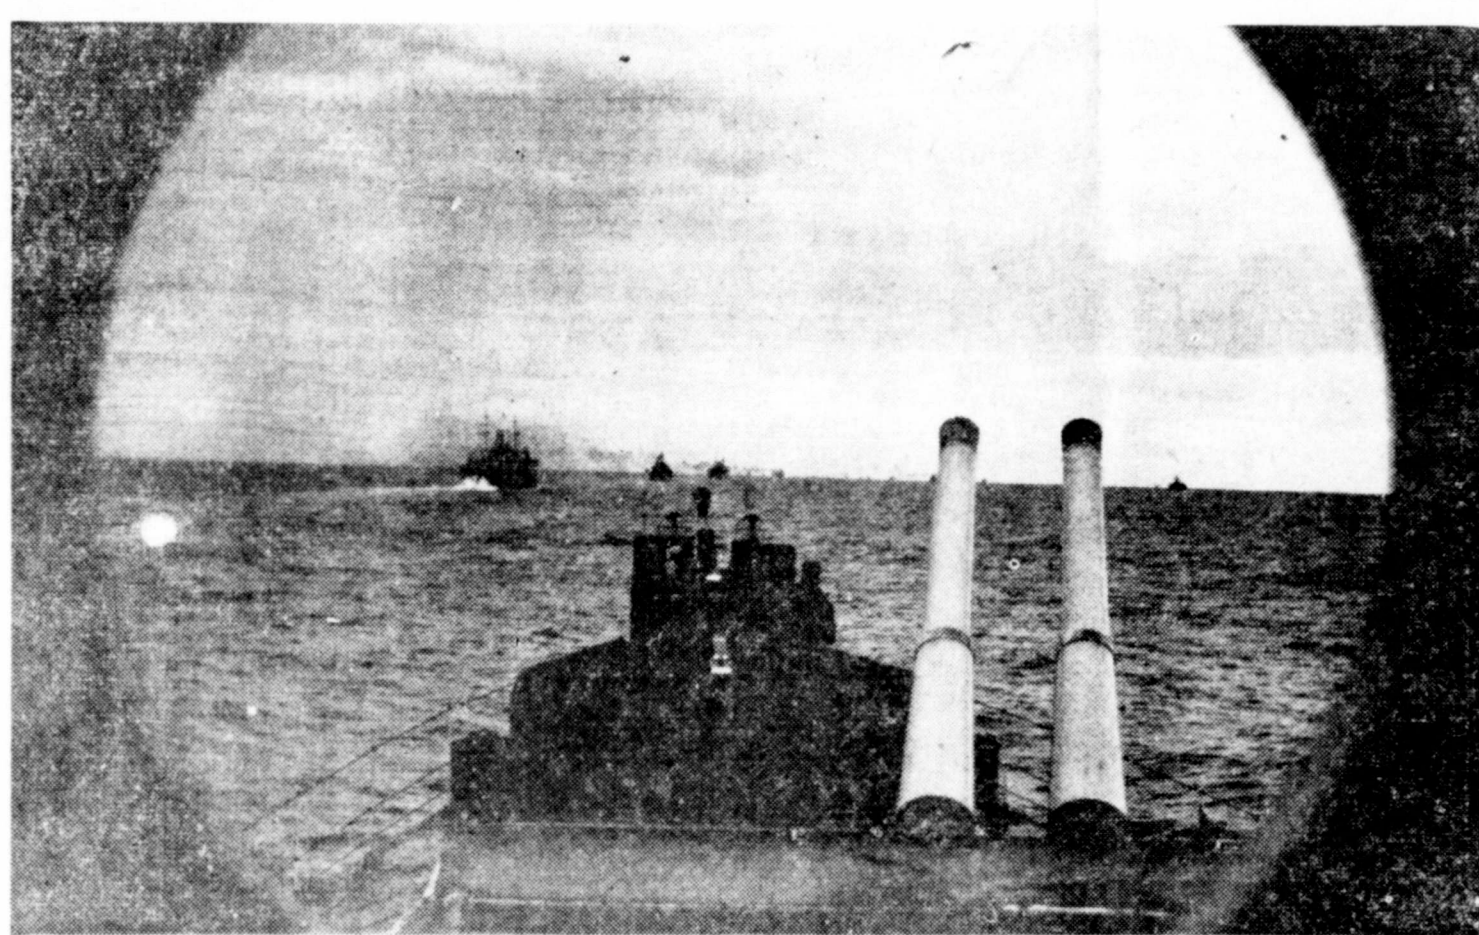

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The growing congressional dissatisfaction with President Roosevelt's domestic war policies has been demonstrated again by two slaps at the administration.

One of them—unanimous house approval yesterday of a bill to include all farm labor costs in computing parity prices for farm commodities — led Sen. Elmer Thomas, D., Okla., to predict that if the senate passes the bill and the president vetoes it, "this administration may be on its way out from top to bottom."

The administration fought a similar proposal in the anti-inflation bill early this year. The second flouting of the administration came in the senate, where a resolution was passed which would require four leading war agencies to furnish information about all employees earning more than $3000 annually.

OIL AND GAS LEASES.

AUSTIN, Dec. 4.—Oil and gas leases on 45,604 acres of West Texas land owned by the University of Texas went on the auction block here today. The land includes 168 tracts in Andrews, Hudspeath, Ward, Crockett, Upton, Reagan and Pecos counties. The leases carry a royalty of one-eighth of the gross production of oil and gas.

AFTER NATION'S DAIRY INDUSTRY DISRUPTED, HIGH-PRICED "EXPERTS" BREAK INTO PRINT

DALLAS, Dec. 4. — Nearly a million cattle suitable for dairy production have gone to slaughter for beef purposes during the last year, said C. M. Evans, special assistant to the national administrator of the Farm Security Administration.

Two main reasons are responsible for this condition, he said.

First, beef cattle prices are attractive and, second, dairymen in the United States have suffered from a shortage of labor with a ceiling price on dairy products but no ceiling price on labor and feeds.

Evans returned from a staff meeting with Farm Security Administrator C. B. Baldwin at Cincinnati.

Plans are being worked out, Evans said, to conserve what's left of the dairy cattle supply.

These plans include the making of loans to dairymen who have sufficient labor and feed to purchase cattle from dairies where labor or feed are short and where cattle are fairly plentiful.

CZAR HENDERSON PAINTS A DARK PICTURE

NEW YORK, Dec. 4. — The American people today had it straight from Leon Henderson, price administrator boss, they could expect in 1943 rationing of more items — including clothing and food — and punishment of flagrant rationing violators.

Henderson made the forecast to 4,000 industrialists of the National Association of Manufacturers, who Friday night will wind up their three-day convention marked by pleas for less regimentation and — at the same time — promises of more.

Henderson told the industrialists that the American public had not yet reached the "bottom of the barrel" and that 1943 would bring "more czars, more red tape and rationing."

BOOGER HARRIS WRITES FROM MARE ISLAND

L. L. (Booger) Harris, seaman of the first class, writes from Mare Island, Calif., as follows:

"I don't have much time to write to the people of Cisco, so I wish the Daily Press would tell all my friends 'hello' and wish them a happy Thanksgiving. Tell them I like California fine, but that Texas still comes first. I wish the Cisco Loboes the best of luck in their game with Breckenridge."

The letter bears date of November 20, but was received today.

MEETING POSTPONED.

The Cisco Welfare Board will not meet Tuesday, December 8, because of the Community Chest drive, but will meet the following Tuesday, December 15, says Rev. Leslie Seymour, president.

BUY WAR BONDS SAT'RD'Y

The sale of War Bonds and Stamps by Cisco women — announced in the Daily Press of yesterday for Saturday and Monday — will start at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and continue until noon; then from 1 until 5 p. m.

The Monday hours, which are to commemorate the Pearl Harbor tragedy of December 7, 1941, will be from 1 until 5 p. m.

Booths will be located in the Laguna Hotel, Red Front Drug store, Dean Drug store, First National Bank and J. C. Penney Co. Saturday afternoon there will be a booth in front of the Palace theater.

Young women under the direction of Miss Inka Sherman will be in charge of sales Saturday and Mrs. George P. Fee will have charge of the women who will sell in the booths and on the streets Monday afternoon.

Those forming the younger group for Saturday's drive will be Inka Sherman, Helen and Catherine Draganis, Mae Dale New, Mrs. Zona Alford, Anna Jo Tableman, Mildred Kimmel, Freda Grist, Mary Sue Mobley, Gloria Graham, Mrs. Imogene Myers and others to be added.

Those for Monday afternoon will be Mrs. George P. Fee, Mrs. Paul Woods, Mrs. R. L. Ponsler, Mrs. K. H. Pittard, Mrs. A. D. Anderson, Mrs. T. F. O'Brien, Mrs. K. N. Greer, Mrs. Harold McGowan, Mrs. Richard Bearman, Mrs. Charles S. Sandler, Mrs. C. B. Shaw, Mrs. Alex Spears, Mrs. Rex Carrothers, Mrs. R. B. Parwell, Mrs. E. L. Graham and Mrs. Sach Henson.

WOUNDED COAST GUARDS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—United States coast guardsmen who were wounded while guiding troop-filled landing boats through enemy fire on North African beaches north of Casablanca, Morocco, have been brought back to this country for treatment. The navy, making the disclosure Friday, named only three of the men. The group is at an unidentified east coast port.

WPA TO SOON BE A THING OF THE PAST

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—President Roosevelt today ordered complete liquidation of the work projects relief program.

The president, in a letter to Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming, federal works administrator, said the WPA rolls had greatly decreased through the "tremendous increase in private employment, assisted by the training and re-employment efforts of its own organization, to a point where a national work relief program is no longer necessary."

Roosevelt ordered the closing of all project operations in many states by Feb. 1, 1943, and in other states as soon thereafter as feasible. "By taking this action," the president said in his letter which he read to his press conference, "there will be no need to provide project funds for the work projects administration in the budget for the next fiscal year."

SALES DEPARTMENT STORES ARE MOVING UP

DALLAS, Dec. 4.—Department store sales in the eleventh federal reserve district were 10 per cent higher for the week ending Nov. 28 than for the corresponding week last year, it was reported today by the Dallas Reserve Bank.

Houston was up 19 per cent, San Antonio 16, Fort Worth 9 and Dallas 5 per cent.

CATTLE MARKET

Very light supplies of cattle and calves reached Fort Worth for today's trade. Cows and steers sold strong to higher while other classes ruled fully steady. Most butcher hogs were strong to the above Thursday's average with some sales 15c higher. The top was $13.90 while packers paid up to $13.75. Slaughter sheep and lambs were mostly steady with some shorn lambs 25c higher. Feeders were scarce. Estimated receipts at Fort Worth compared with actual receipts on the like day of last week were: Cattle 1,100 and 2,683; calves 800 and 1,504; hogs 800 and 798, and sheep 3,800 and 4,033.

U. S. AWAITING NEW ATTACK AT GUADALCANAL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—American naval forces have frustrated what was believed today to have been a desperate Japanese bid for a lightning victory in the Solomons in celebration of their Dec. 7 attack at Pearl Harbor.

The latest attack was crushed in a sea duel on Monday (Solomons time) night, but the Japanese were expected to try again to smash American domination of the southeastern Solomons area by the war's first anniversary next Monday.

Naval spokesmen here made no claims of a smashing naval victory on Monday night, although the communique revealed that the Japanese failed to make a landing on the island as planned.

The Japanese lost nine ships in the battle which occurred immediately north of Guadalcanal. To stop the enemy it cost the United States one cruiser sunk and other ships damaged. American casualties were not given and there was no hint of the type of ships damaged.

Enemy ships sunk were two large destroyers or cruisers, four destroyers, two transports and one cargo ship. It was unofficially estimated that about 7,000 men may have been lost from those ships—5,000 troops on the transports and 2,000 sailors.

Since only two of the enemy's transports were sunk, it was believed the Japanese still have ample reinforcements available for another try at Guadalcanal soon.

FEAR F.D. MAKE PEACE WITHOUT ACT CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—A fear that President Roosevelt might make a peace settlement after the war without consulting congress was held before the senate today by opponents of legislation to turn United States property in Panama over to that republic.

A minority attack on the administration for not having submitted the Atlantic Charter, the pact among 26 nations to refrain from making a separate peace, and other international agreements to the senate for ratification grew out of Thursday's discussion of a joint resolution authorizing the Panama transfer.

NAVAL BASE MINERALS

HOUSTON, Dec. 4.—Motion for a new trial filed by a group of companies seeking $1,400,000 in mineral lease claims on land used for the Corpus Christi naval air station was to be heard today in Corpus Christi by Federal Judge Hannay. The companies were denied the claims two months ago during the government's condemnation suit against the land.

PIPE LINE RUNS DROPP.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 3.—Pipe line runs for Kansas crude oil averaged 382,193 barrels daily in the week ending Nov. 30, a decrease of 18,641 barrels from the previous week, the conservation division of the state corporation commission reported today.

ANOTHER YORK.

MOSCOW, Dec. 4.—Red Star said Friday that 300 Soviet rifle experts on the Kalinin front had killed 14,000 Germans, the most successful being Sergeant Yesakov, who bagged 354.

BLOODY STRUGGLE FACES U. S. AND BRITAIN ERE THE GERMANS ARE THOROUGHLY WHIPPED

Allied forces in Tunisia are fighting hard today to hold their vanguard positions against increasingly powerful German opposition.

Battle reports made evident that the trend of fighting had turned slightly against the British-American columns driving on Tunis and Bizerte and that a stiff, bloody fight must precede the ouster of the Axis from Tunisia.

The largest tank battle of the campaign was fought along a triangular front between Tebourba and Djedeida, roughly 12 to 18 miles west of Tunis.

Both the Germans and the Allies suffered substantial tank losses, apparently about equal. However, it was admitted that the Nazis are pressing the Allies hard to maintain their forward positions along the Tebourba-Djedeida line.

The battleground was left dotted with shattered and burned-out tanks. At the moment both sides are taking a breathing spell and trying to retrieve their damaged tanks before renewing it.

A five-mile stretch of the Tunis road, between Tebourba and Djedeida, formed the base of the triangular battlefield. From there the triangle extended to its apex five miles to the north.

Djedeida, it was reported, had changed hands repeatedly. At the moment it appeared that fighting was still in progress at Tebourba and in the western suburbs of the town.

The Germans held cleverly concealed positions on the hilltops surrounding the battle area, but it was believed the Allies had massed enough men and material to overwhelm them. The German positions consisted chiefly of machine gun nests hidden in clumps of cactus, supported by mortars placed further back.

The big handicap of the Allied columns was lack of sufficient air support, dispatches revealed. The Germans—with a shorter ferrying distance — had ferried planes into action in Tunisia faster than the Allies with their long haul into Algeria and then up to the Tunisia front.

British light bombers carried out another raid on Tunis airdrome during the night of Dec. 2, bombing a fleet of 80 Axis planes grouped on the field.

They returned at dawn from another raid in one of the most persistent series of bombings on any airfield during this war.

Night after night, the little bombers with three-man crews hammered the airdromes at Tunis and Bizerte, dropping sticks of bombs in the midst of German and Italian planes. They divide their attention between the airdromes and the docks.

In London it was admitted frankly that the Allies had lost some ground in Tunisia and that the campaign, for the moment, was not going too well.

Radio Paris claimed that the Nazis had pushed west of Tebourba and another Axis report asserted 22 Allied tanks were destroyed in the Tebourba-Djedeida encounter. Apparently about 50 tanks on each side were engaged.

Despite the Allied setback no doubt was felt over the eventual outcome of the drive. However, Lieut. Gen. K. A. N. Anderson obviously was waiting until his strength was built up before launching his main push.

The size of the Axis forces in Tunisia was estimated at about 28,000 troops of which 14,000 German and 8,000 Italian were described as combat units.

An Italian communique claimed that 454 prisoners were taken in the capture of an unnamed important position in Tunisia and that 300 British paratroopers were seized at some other undisclosed point.

DREAD DISEASE GROWS.

AUSTIN, Dec. 4. — Infantile paralysis continued its high incidence, especially in South Texas, in the week ended Nov. 28, a total of 17 new cases being reported to the state health department. This compares with a median of three cases for the same week in a seven-year period.

Canadians Destroy U-Boat Off Atlantic Coast

Since the outbreak of war more than three years ago coastal units of the Royal Canadian Air Force have carried on a constant patrol of the Western Atlantic, ranging far out to sea. An undisclosed number of marauding U-boats have already fallen victim to their bombs. These photos depict the death throes of one. Picture above shows sub as it desperately tried to dive. Only its "jumping wires" are visible. Bombs landed seconds later.

Rolling on its side, the sub wallows helplessly after being blown to the surface by the first bomb salvo. When another charge was dropped, the sub sank, leaving air bubbles and a big patch of oil on the surface. Although air crews find it difficult to make absolutely certain of the kill, it is believed that the margin of doubt in this case was extremely small.

PEANUTS MAKE CROSS PLAINS A BUSY PLACE

More than $212,800 worth of peanuts have been bought in Cross Plains the past few weeks and buyers estimate that at least a fourth of the crop is yet to move, the Cross Plains Weekly Review says, following a checkup Tuesday night.

Every available warehouse is filled, box cars are being loaded almost immediately upon arrival, and possibly a million pounds are stacked in huge ricks at the south end of Main street at the property of the Texas Milling company.

A check-up with producers yesterday revealed that Cross Plains has held a slight edge over some other nearby cities in that the price paid here has often been a few cents higher. This alone, however, is not credited with the abnormally heavy movement of peanuts here. Fields have been good, according to thresher men, and the acreage was greater than usual.

Buyers in Cross Plains are W. T. (Tom) Cox and Ira H. Hall. Both have been virtually swamped the past two weeks as favorable weather permitted threshers to operate without interruption.

Deposits at the Cross Plains Citizens State bank have swollen far above a half million dollars as compared with about three hundred thousand for the same time a year ago. In passing the half million mark the local bank unusually brisk and the banking institution has been busier than ever before in its history.

The opinion of Cross Plains people Tuesday was that the entire crop would be threshed and ready for marketing by the end of this week, if the weather continues favorable.

VIRGIL PINKLEY, BACK FROM BATTLE FRONTS, DESCRIBES UNANIMITY OF BRITISH PEOPLE

One man who knows through experience the tragedy of global warfare soon leaves for a new overseas front as a war correspondent. But before Virgil M. Pinkley, United Press writer and analyst, who has just concluded a tour of the nation, gets back to the shell-pocked fronts he wants to drop a few reminders to the American people: The war can't be won on a forty-hour-week basis. Military strategy and fighting should be left to military men by the half-baked arm-chair strategists and politicians. The American people stand ready to do a lot more things, work harder, sacrifice more, than their leaders are asking of them. Damnable tie-ups between labor and management and management and labor must cease. Any kind of criticism other than constructive is playing right into the Axis' hands. Air power alone cannot win the war, but it is the most potent weapon available. Over the nation, including Texas, on a lecture tour has gone Pinkley the last few weeks, telling what he knows of the global situation, absorbing new knowledge from his own people on the home front. His observations, backed by eyewitnesses and competent proof, are revealing. Pinkley said it "unfortunately was true that the only language understood by the Axis nations, utter ruthlessness, and we must understand that and employ it to the fullest on our side." Poor leadership in the operation of their land forces has been exhibited at times by the British, Pinkley admitted, but he explained that after the World War the best brains of the armed forces went to the air and navy arms. Now, however, the great surge of the British over the Egyptian deserts that has routed Rommel and the move of the Britons under Gen. Dwight Eisenhower demonstrates to all that the British are ready and are seasoned in strategy and warfare. On the British home front there is courage and fortitude not known by any other nation in the world, Pinkley said. "British labor has agreed, and it means 'it, to outlaw all strikes for the duration. British labor has agreed that every man and woman working in his or her present job shall continue in the position until the end of the war or until the government shifts them over to speed up production in some other specific field. "British labor has agreed that every man and woman shall work at least forty-eight hours a week in some industries and in others as much as fifty-four or sixty-six hours before overtime is paid. "I was interested to learn that the average wage being received by war workers in Britain, and this is for men and women alike, including any overtime is $29 a week. Experts working in shipyards, aircraft factories and other specialized types may receive as high as $27 to $30 a week." Management has made similar contributions, providing day nurseries for children and the necessary foodstuffs to 1,000,000 children under the age of 5. Profits

R.A.F.'S OWN STORY OF GREMLINS TOLD BY PILOT

During the battle of Britain, when only the stout hearts and incredible recklessness of the R.A.F. saved the island empire from the Germans, was born the most fascinating tale of the Little People since Alice in Wonderland.

Mary, many years ago, the legend told by the pilots of the R.A.F. goes in the wet forests of England, lived the goblins and the gnomes and the pixies. But one of the clan of tiny people was vastly different from all the rest. The Gremlin had lived in the wood for thousands of years, the serious Air Force pilots will tell you. And it wasn't until their wood was suddenly invaded by tractors and their trees pulled down that they objected. Finally they saw a huge factory arose on the site of their former home and before many months the Gremlins saw airplanes being wheeled from the ramping doors of the factory. So the leader of the Gremlins called a meeting of the tribe and it was decided to split up into small groups seek out the airplanes and make mischief for those who flew them. This was that during the heaviest of the fighting to save Britain—when the Hurricanes and Spitfires were up from dawn to dusk and the noise of battle was heard all day in the sky—it was then that the first Gremlin was seen by the R.A.F.

In the December issue of Cosmopolitan Magazine appears the R.A.F.'s own story of the Gremlins. It is written by a pilot who fought at Crete, Greece and Britain. It seems that the first Gremlin was seen by a pilot named Gus who was patrolling in his Hurricane at 18,000 feet over Dover. The amazed Gus looked out of his cockpit and there, standing on his wingtip he saw a little man.

He was only about six inches high, with a large round face and a pair of horns growing out of his head. On his feet were a pair of tiny black suction boots which enabled him to stay on the wing at 300 miles an hour. The thing that amazed Gus was what the little man was doing. He had a large drill and was busy drilling a line of holes along the tightly stretched metal skin of the Hurricane.

From that day on the fight to educate the Gremlin clan to aid the R.A.F. and not to fight it was taken up by the pilots and ground crew. Finally, Gremlin Gus—you see all the Gremlins take their names from the pilot they are attached to—saw that he was misbehaving and a school for Gremlins was started. To the school came all the Gremlins, all the Fiftinellas (they are the female Gremlins) and all the little boy Gremlins who are called Wiglets. The little girl Gremlin, called Flipper-Gibbets, enrolled in the school along with their parents. At the completion of their course they were awarded wings; and thus it is that the tide of battle has turned and on every shrieking Hurricane and Spitfire is an accompanying Gremlin.

The story of Gremlin Gus, Gremlin Jam-Face and Gremlin Stuff and their clan is the greatest contribution to living folklore in a hundred years. Walt Disney, who illustrated the Cosmopolitan article, is bringing them to the screen.
