Records Must Be Kept of Food Served in Public Places During December

Records of virtually all foods served in boarding houses, restaurants, hotels, clubs, hospitals and institutions in the month of December must be kept for later use by the office of price administration, Jack Frost, chairman of the Eastland County War Price and Rationing Board, announced today.

Such establishments should have registered with the Eastland county war price and rationing board on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, November 23, 24 and 25, to obtain their coffee allotments for the period ending January 31, Frost said.

The board has now received copies of precise instructions as to the records which such institutional users of foods must keep in December, and reports, based on the facts thus recorded, will be required of each boarding house, restaurant, hotel, club, hospital and other institutional users after December 31.

"The OPA has explained that the facts are necessary so it may have accurate information as to the effect of the current rationing programs on the service of meals, and on the use of other foods that are not rationed," Frost pointed out.

"It is expected that especially valuable information will be obtained from the present coffee and sugar rationing programs. Boarding houses, restaurants and hotels are among the largest users of all foods; therefore, they are being requested during the month of December to keep exact records of their use and sale of various foods and also of the number of meals they serve and the dollar revenue they obtain from this. The OPA expects to obtain from these reports a much clearer picture of the needs of public and private group eating places," Frost concluded.

Information Needed

The exact information that such users are requested to keep during December includes:

1. The number of persons served during December, with each person counted separately every time he eats a meal.

2. The gross dollar revenue from the service of food and non-alcoholic beverages.

3. The quantity of each of a number of specified foods used during December.

4. The quantity of each of the specified foods that is on hand at the close of business on December 31.

Food Records

Foods for which records are to be kept in total pounds used are: Sugar, coffee, butter, poultry, meats, including canned and edible parts such as liver, hearts and kidneys.

Meats are to be listed separately by pounds for: Beef, pork, veal, lamb and mutton, sausage, scrapie, luncheon meats, etc., and canned fish.

The list continues with cheese, except cottage cheese, pot cheese and bakers' cheese; margarine, lard and compound shortening; cooking and salad oil, canned soup, canned fruits and vegetables, canned fruit and vegetable juices, commercially frozen fruits and vegetables, dried or dehydrated fruits, dried peas and beans, canned, evaporated and condensed milk.

Foods for which records must be kept in gallons are: Fresh milk, fresh cream and ice cream.

The weight of canned foods can be the weight given on the labels. Canned fruits and vegetables will include all those in tins, jars or bottles. Catsup and chili sauce should be included, but not olives, pickles, jams and jellies.

STEADY FLOW OF GERMANS ENTERING ITALY

ANKARA, Turkey, Dec. 10.—Well-informed diplomatic quarters said today that a steady stream of German air, anti-aircraft and land forces into Italy, all under Gestapo supervision, banishes any chance of Italy breaking away from Germany and seeking a separate peace this winter or next spring.

While the number of Germans already in Italy have been exaggerated, and probably does not exceed 200,000, the movement continues from Germany through the Balkans to relieve the strain on railways in Northern Italy and to give the impression of a progressive occupation of the seized countries.

WPB IS TO CONTROL DISTRIBUTION OF GOODS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The war production board, seeking more equitable distribution of decreasing supplies of consumers goods, plans to impose new inventory controls soon, compelling merchants to maintain the same relationship between inventories and sales as those that prevailed during the three years before Pearl Harbor.

The new regulation, responsible officials said today, will apply to the stocks of all large retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers.

WPB authorities said that only some 40,000 of nearly 2,000,000 retailers would be covered—only those engaged in big business.

Merchants having a turnover of less than $100,000 a year probably will be exempt.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—40 acres, 33 in cultivation; good improvements; newly repaired house; would like to trade for smaller acreage nearer good town. Mrs. Dee Peugh, route four, Cisco.

CISCO PUBLIC WELFARE OFFICE PATTERSON AD- WILL NOT BE AFFECTED BY WPA VOCATES USE ORDER, SAYS MISS ELSIE GLENN HORSE SENSE

In an interview with the Press today, Elsie Glenn, social worker, stated that in regard to the many food stamp plan acts largely to supplement inadequate incomes and there are not many jobs in or near Cisco that pay enough for an average family to subsist with any reasonable standard of health. I sincerely hope the Community Chest drive and the local welfare agency will join hands with my agency in meeting this new problem that will affect many Cisco citizens; who, through no fault of their own, are still faced with unemployment and low salaries, despite the new opportunities for defense work in the larger cities. I wish to publicly thank Mayor G. P. Mitchell and County Commissioner Arch Birt for their splendid understanding and co-operation with our programs."

Miss Glenn began her work as a social worker with the Texas Relief Commission in 1934, transferred to the Eastland County Family Welfare association in 1936 and has been employed with the Texas state department of public welfare since September, 1940.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Undersecretary of War Patterson Thursday advocated an overall 48-hour work week, warning that United States industries are not producing enough to meet America's requirements and those of her Allies.

Writing in the Army and Navy Journal, Patterson said the average work week in all manufacturing industries is only 42.8 hours, and added that if this could be raised to 48 hours the same volume of production could be obtained with 1,500,000 fewer workers than now employed.

FLOODED GIRUWA RIVER AND WELL-FORTIFIED POSITIONS MAKE SANANANDA AREA TOUGH

MacARTHUR HEADQUARTERS, Australia, Dec. 10.—Allied forces have completed occupation of the Gona area in New Guinea and are advancing, without menace to their rear, against the remaining Japanese forces in the Buna-Sanananda area, it was announced today.

The Japanese were pinned into a narrow coastal strip, with Allied forces maintaining a continuous bombing and strafing in support of artillery and ground forces.

The major development was announced at Canberra where Prime Minister John Curtin dramatically altered his prepared speech to parliament to read a message from Gen. Douglas MacArthur amid cheers and shouts.

Gen. MacArthur's regular noon communique three hours earlier had forecast the fall of Gona. It reported that Australian jungle fighters had beaten back strong enemy attempts to escape from their surrounded positions, killing at least 95 Japanese and capturing four. This brought enemy casualties around Gona for the last week to about 400 killed.

Occupation of Gona was the first major development since Americans and Australians pushed the Japanese back against the north coast between Gona and Cape Endiadeur, about 20 miles southeast, on Nov. 19. The boxing of the enemy garrisons followed an advance over the Owen Stanley mountains from Port Moresby, on the south coast of New Guinea.

Australians reached the beach both north and south of Gona a week ago. They will be able now to push without trouble from their rear, down the shores of Holnicote Bay toward Sanananda, where the enemy has been holding off a mixed Australian-American force attacking down the trail from Soputa.

A spokesman at general headquarters said the advance down the beach toward Buna, against the strong enemy positions in the Sanananda area, would not be easy. The Japanese anticipated the loss of Gona some time ago, and erected a series of barricades along the beach toward Sanananda and Buna.

The advance was expected to be another step-by-step process, with the flooded Giruwa river as a formidable natural obstacle to the attack on Buna.

Germans First.

CANBERRA, Dec. 10.—Australia must be prepared to repulse strong Japanese attacks by sea and air, Prime Minister John Curtin told parliament today.

In a speech reviewing the war in the Southwest Pacific before the House of Representatives, he departed from his text to announce that Allied forces in New Guinea had taken Gona.

SMITH STRIKES HARD AT FORTY-HOUR WORKERS

DALLAS, Dec. 10.—"Some of the boys lying on battlefields of Guadalcanal, in North Africa, in the jungles of New Guinea and in the skies over the Pacific are disgusted," Lieutenant Governor-Elect John Lee Smith said Wednesday night in a speech, adding: "They will be coming back some day, and what will they think about their fighting for $50 per month for many hours while we shut our eyes to the powerful labor unions which refuse to work more than 40 hours per week?"

REPRESENTATIVES OF TRAINING SCHOOL AND MANY FLYERS WERE ROTARY LUNCH GUESTS TODAY

Rotary program today was in charge of R. N. Cluck, who had as his guests members and instructors of the pre-glider school, which is finishing its course this week.

As special guests, Mr. Cluck introduced three ladies, 10 of whom are connected with the Women's Automotive Training school, which is to begin here January 4, and the other a supervisor of public school music, who visited the Cisco schools today.

T. H. Boone, representing the flyers, spoke a few words of appreciation for being invited to the club. Instructors O. E. McNess and J. C. Higgins also spoke of their appreciation of the hospitality and commended the work of the class, which averaged 94 plus on examinations just taken.

Mr. Cluck then introduced Mrs. Esther Sorenson, district supervisor of homemaking courses and food preparation and conservation, who will be connected with the trainee school.

She and the program chairman seemed to have known each other in past years and so were able to tell a few tales out of school on past records. Mrs. Sorenson spoke briefly concerning the work of Mrs. W. P. Hardy, present but not speaking, who is to be dietitian for the new Cisco school. She explained briefly the scope of Mrs. Hardy's work which is to be permanently with the school.

Mr. Cluck then introduced Miss Nell Parmley, school music supervisor, who spoke of the benefits of public school music and deplored the fact that just now Cisco was without a director of this work, but commended the singing of school children she had heard this morning. Miss Parmley gave a few solo numbers as well as directing the introductory song service of the club.

Flyers present were: T. E. Askins, Winters. T. H. Boone, Victoria. Joe Collins, Eastland. J. N. Hinds, Winters. Cecil Ford, Winters. R. L. Lindsey, Abilene. J. C. McDonald, Brownwood. B. E. Tucker, Winters. E. J. Richardson, Snyder. J. C. Shipman, Abilene. Instructors — O. E. McNess, Shreveport and J. C. Higgins, Ft. Worth.

SENATORS NOT FAVORABLE TO CENSOR BILL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The chairman and ranking member of the senate judiciary committee today predicted certain defeat of a bill permitting censorship of mail between the United States and its possessions.

Chairman Frederick Van Nuys (Democrat, Indiana), and Senator George W. Norris (Independent, Nebraska), also criticized Censorship Director Byron Price for censoring such mail for almost a year before requesting legislation to do so.

THE LESSON OF FRANCE

France is starting again. The freezing of Algeria and Morocco, with the prospects that Tunis will soon join them, are causing the disoriented nation to turn under the German heel. The attempted scuttling of the fleet at Toulon was another symptom of revolt. Already the French seem freedom around the corner, and are beginning to consider what they will do with it.

It is safe to assume that they realize the fundamental weakness of the Third Republic, and will try to avoid it. This weakness, the lack of a strong executive, was understandable enough, because often in France a strong executive had become a dictator and destroyed popular government. Fearing a repetition of this whenever the president showed signs of asserting himself, the French were elected by parliament, and strong men like Clemenceau were defeated. The ruling power was parliament. Local deputies made themselves solid with their constituencies and let the country's affairs go unattended.

This has a lesson for Americans. It is often suggested that congress should oversee the war, perhaps by a joint managing committee. That way lies trouble. It was that in the Civil War, and did nothing but pester the life out of Lincoln. It is not likely to do better now. A far better way for France to govern a country can be ruled merely by a legislative body.

AN EARLIER NAZI If Hitler had not followed Nazi tradition, they have some serious doubts as to whether they would have found highly intelligent. One such was Jean Baptiste Carrier, one of the best of the ones of the French Revolution.

Few human events have done so much good as the Revolution. It swept away old customs in France and elsewhere, it inspired lovers of liberty in all countries, and it set France upon the road of moderate progress in which she remained until 1941.

The Revolution, however, had its dark side in the associated Reign of Terror in which leading figures of the old order were executed who issue. While the number of deaths has been exaggerated, it is impossible to exaggerate the bloodiest times of any of the leaders Jean Baptiste Carrier. Sent to the guillotine of Nantes to try the political prisoners who filled the jails, Carrier abandoned all pretense of trial. He guillotined and shot prisoners in wholesale lots and, finally to get rid of them quicker, loaded them on vessels with trapdoor bottoms and sent them out into the river to drown.

How like the Nazis this sounds! In Carrier's case justice finally caught up with him, and he was executed himself. All the more reason why his career should be studied by the Hitlerites.

SKY FERRYING

Air power grows ever more important as the war develops. And this country, which created the airplane, moves rapidly to make full use of it. Gigantic progress is indicated by Tom M. Gardner, aircraft executive and steel man, in a recent address.

He forecasts for the immediate future a big step in an airship that might well be called "The Four Hundred." It has been designed and tested, he says, to a point where industrial production can begin. It is described as a combination of oceanic bomber, cargo ship and transport, adaptable easily to any of these purposes. It can carry 400 passengers at a speed of 400 miles an hour or more.

"As a bomber," says Gardner, "it could make non-stop flights to Europe and return." A fleet of such airships could move an army quickly across the Atlantic. Speed and carrying capacity, he thinks, will continue increasing.

Can it be that this means the beginning of air mastery adequate to end the war?

THE IRON HORSE

Russell Weisman, writer on economic subjects, says the thought runs in his mind that when the war is over the iron horse ought to be decorated with the highest military honors. Literally he is one of Hitler's two or three worst enemies.

Weisman is writing of the heavy traffic, the lateness of trains which make travel at the present time so difficult. He is realizing what travelers have been observing for months, that much of the lateness is due to lack of locomotives. The railroads have not enough iron horses for their increased traffic, and they now lack enough mechanics to carry them, shoe them, feed them and run them down after one journey and before the next.

More and better locomotives, with more and more skilled men to take care of them, will be needed before traffic can become prompt and smooth-running again. Considering their difficulties the railroads are doing a splendid job.

WISDOM

Men believe and make as deep for truth. Their very zeal becomes unsteady. For wisdom often veils her face. And to the eyes of wisdom's grace. KATHERINE WRAY

FIRST BAPTIST WMS MISSION PROGRAM

First Baptist women's missionary union met in the church Tuesday for the monthly mission program, with circle four in charge. The meeting was opened by group singing of the hymn, "Holy Night," which was followed with prayer by Mrs. H. J. McArdle. Mrs. C. A. Williams, mission chairman of group four, then took charge and directed the program on "The World Into Which Jesus Came." Those taking program parts were Mrs. Paul Poe, Mrs. H. J. McArdle, Mrs. C. A. Williams and Mrs. Kate Richardson. The program was closed with several prayers for the men in uniform.

A short business session was held in which it was decided to remember some student girls with gifts at Christmas.

How strange that preachers frown on gambling. Aren't they the ones who marry people?

Promoted

The U. S. Marine Corps has announced the promotion of Brigadier General Harry Schmidt, top, Ralph J. Mitchell, center, and Emile P. Moses. All have been advanced to the temporary grades of Major General.

...for the money spent on title work in 1942 will not be allowed. But don't worry. The savings you have made in getting the abstract first and buying later will be sufficient, in most cases, to pay your entire tax, and probably some to spare.

So let us resolve for 1943 that we will not buy real estate, however cheap, without first getting an abstract, and having it approved by a title attorney.

Let them have YOUR SEAT this Christmas

ALL of us believe that the men and women in Military Service are entitled to the right of way for the holidays. Furloughs will be liberally granted, enabling many of them to be with their loved ones for a few days.

Transporting these folks will tax train facilities to the utmost. So we are asking the civilian population to refrain from traveling by train, particularly from December 15th to January 15th, unless absolutely necessary. There just isn't enough equipment to serve everybody. Maybe later on you can go if you must—while the fighting forces are chopping the Axis down.
