Reds Closing In On 5 Key Cities Held By Nazis

MOSCOW, Jan. 21.—Red armies closed in on five key Nazi-held cities between the Ukraine and the north Caucasus today.

Their spearheads were within 60 miles of Kharkov, 50 miles of Rostov, 30 miles of Voroshilovgrad, Donets basin industrial center, 18 miles of Salsk railroad junction and 48 miles of Armavir, where the Baku-Rostov oil railroad joins with that to the Maikop oil fields and Tuapse, oil port on the Black Sea.

Today's noon communique revealed that in a ferocious three-day battle for Proletarskaya, 20 miles east-northeast of Salsk on the Stalingrad-Tikhoretsk railroad, the Russians smashed the famous German SS troop combat regiments concentrated there, before the Manych, with big artillery, mortar and tank forces.

Russian storm troops led by the guards broke into the town and the railroad station yesterday. They routed the Germans in street fighting, the communique said, and threw the remnants beyond the Manych.

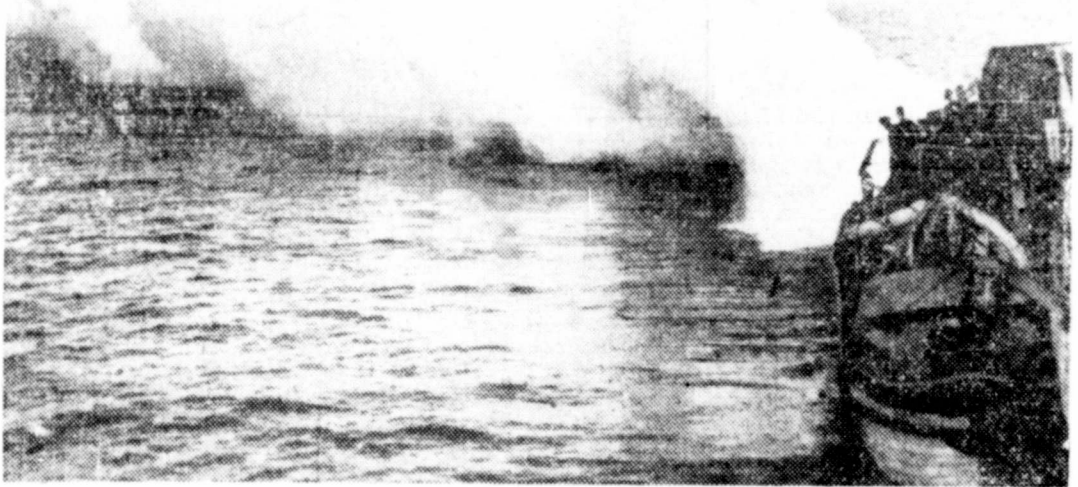

In another sector the guards at once drove ahead, occupied two inhabited places, captured an artillery battery and nine machine guns and took prisoners.

In overnight fighting the Russians took nearly 1700 prisoners by specific claim, including a battalion of 1000 Hungarians who with their officers downed arms and surrendered, in addition to many taken in local fighting.

The midnight communique had announced the capture of more than 10,000 prisoners yesterday, including 3000 in one group and an entire German artillery regiment, perhaps 1500 men, in another.

U. S. HELPING HAND—British wounded, felled in the action against Rommel's forces in Libya, arrive behind the lines in an American Lockheed Hudson plane of the R. A. F. Waiting to convey wounded to base hospital is an American Field Service ambulance.

CONVOY IN HIDING—A speeding British destroyer lays down an effective smoke screen about 100 miles off the coast of North Africa to hide it from searching eyes of enemy submarines "somewhere at sea." The best the sub can do under these conditions is to fire blind and just hope.

COLE PRINCIPLE SPEAKER ROTARY LUNCH

Encouraged by the announcement that Cisco Rotary club was fifth high in attendance record for the month of November in Rotary International, the membership was fired today with the ambition to reach even greater records for this and following months.

Secretary G. R. Nance introduced Mrs. Warren Hall (Miss Billye Cole) to the club, and T. J. McCarty of Abilene announced that Fernando Carbajal, of Peru, S. A., president of Rotary International, would speak in Abilene February 8 and requested that Rotarians who could attend should make reservations. District Gov. Charles Paxton will also be present, he stated.

Rotarian J. R. Slaughter introduced Rev. W. H. Cole, superintendent of Cisco Methodist district, as the program speaker.

Mr. Cole took as his subject, Fellowship, which he divided into the topics, Can We Have Bread? Can We Have Faith? Can We Maintain Fellowship?

Discussing the first topic, he said that under the present conditions in which it becomes incumbent upon the United States to feed the Allies of all the world as well as our armies and our own selves at home, we may well ask that question, and prepare ourselves for short rations in order to make the goal.

Quoting from Wendell Wilkie, the speaker said we must expand the Atlantic Charter to include the Pacific Charter as well, since our scope has broadened to include that area also.

Regarding maintenance of fellowship, Cole said that this fellowship was now world-wide and must extend to every activity—political, religious and human contacts—since it is a fundamental basis for all human relations. Brotherhood provides a reason for living and kindred relations extend from the family circle to the wide world.

"After-war contacts must of necessity bring us into close relations with peoples of all nations—Main street extending to the ends of the earth. We must shoulder our responsibilities and help maintain peace over nations of foreign lands, once that peace has been established," he said.

The speaker then gave the story of a lone shepherd requesting the radio announcer to sound the A note for him so that he might properly tune his violin to concert pitch. "Rotary clubs and Lions clubs do a great work in cultivating a feeling of brotherhood among men. We must keep attuned to the human feeling for mankind, having as our keynote the enduring relations of humanity toward God."

SHREDS OF ROMMEL'S AFRICA CORPS IN DEAD RUN FOR TUNISIA, UNDER HAIL OF BOMBS

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The Eighth Army streamed up the approaches to Tripoli today, and the shreds of the Afrika Korps retreated at top speed toward Tunisia, under an unending hail of bombs and machine gun bullets from British and American planes.

Powerful British tank and infantry units probably were in sight of Tripoli, the Axis' one remaining base in Tripolitania, and once a pirates' nest which U. S. Marines and ships cleaned out.

Today's Middle Eastern Command communique said Homs, 62 miles from Tripoli, on the coastal road, and Tarhuna, 40 miles to the southeast, were captured sometime yesterday.

Tarhuna is in the midst of the Nefoussa Hills, the last natural position before Tripoli, in which the Germans and Italians could make a stand. It seemed apparent now that Tripoli would fall to the Eighth Army with little or no fight.

The triumphant British force was in close contact with the retreating enemy, the communique said, and Allied planes, roaring out ahead, continued their blasting of Tripoli and the retreating columns of Axis transport beyond.

Dispatches from Tripolitania had described frightful confusion among Axis transports west of Tripoli, with exploding and flaming vehicles blocking the road and causing confusion among the Germans and Italians.

Allied heavy bombers gave Castel Benito airport, 10 miles south of Tripoli, and targets in Tripoli itself, another heavy pounding on Tuesday night.

Two enemy supply ships were attacked off the Tunisian coast by torpedo planes. One blew up before the attackers, and the other was badly damaged. Another British plane damaged a third ship in the same area, and a fourth ship was torpedoed yesterday in the Aegean Sea.

That made 18 ships that Allied sea and air forces, strangling Axis supply routes and making sure there will be no sea evacuation from Tripoli, had sunk or damaged in the Mediterranean battle area in the last few days. Fifteen were sunk.

Three Allied planes were missing from all operations under the Middle Eastern Command.

Authentic Allied reports said the Germans were fleeing from Tripoli so fast that they drove their motor vehicles at night with lights on full.

The road of retreat to Tunisia was a scene of terrible destruction and death. Allied planes screamed down upon the packed Axis transports, bombing and machine gunning. Vehicles were exploded as bombs and tracer bullets hit them, jamming traffic. Returning pilots said the road was a "strafers' paradise."

London observers did not believe the Axis would make much of an attempt, if any, to defend Tripoli. They were convinced Marshall Erwin Rommel had decided to abandon the city — he really had no choice—and that the most the Eighth Army would encounter would be rear-guard action.

Dispatches from Algiers said Rommel was in Tunisia, conferring with Col. Gen. Hans Arnim, commander of Axis forces in Tunisia.

Parts of Tripoli, particularly its port installations, were burning fiercely from repeated poundings by Allied heavy bombers.

DENVER CATTLE SALES. DENVER, Jan. 21. — Fifteen carloads of fat Hereford and Aberdeen-Angus cattle were sold for $37,936 in the National Western Stock Show auction ring Wednesday, most of them to packers from the meatless Pacific coast areas. Twenty-four champions and runner-up in various weight classes brought approximately $10,300.

3,500-Acre Ranch of Far-seeing C. H. Fee is a Show Place; Very Productive

The Charles H. Fee ranch, located about 1.2 miles from Cisco on the Breckenridge highway, was purchased from John Lane in 1910, and this successful merchant of early Cisco has added to it until now it comprises about 3,500 acres and is one of the best equipped estates in this section—well watered by government conservation program-built tanks, so a cow does not have to walk over one-half mile to water; well fenced and cross fenced and with every tool or implement needed to do the work in modern way.

Two tractors, feed mill to grind feed grown on the farm, concrete mixer, with gas on the place to supply fuel for any use, and five producing oil wells.

There are 550 paper shell pecan trees and two fruit orchards, about 250 mother cows (high grade Herefords with registered bulls), goats, sheep, hogs, chickens and baby beef turkeys.

Feeds are grown for home consumption, with about 150 acres planted to oats and barley, to be ground with other feeds for a balanced ration. Cattle on this ranch have been fed very little this season and are fat.

One of the fixtures of the ranch is Joe Lovelady, who has been in the employ of Mr. Fee for the past 39 years, never missed a pay day, and with very little absence from work on account of sickness. Few men can boast a better or more faithful record, and

MARINES, WHO CRACKED COCONUT, TO REST

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Assistant Secretary of War Patterson says army ground troops have replaced Marines in the Solomons and are commanded by Maj. Gen. Alexander Patch, who has moved his headquarters from New Caledonia to Guadalcanal.

The Marines who fought so long and so well in the Solomons are now getting a chance to rest. Patch, who commanded the army troops which landed in New Caledonia last year, relieved Maj. Gen. Alexander A. Vandegrift of the Marines not quite a month ago.

The army troops and Patch are under the general command of Maj. Gen. Millard F. Harmon, who commands all army troops in the South Pacific, but the operations in that entire area still are under the command of Adm. William F. Halsey.

The American position in the Solomons has improved further during the last week, Patterson said, but the Japanese are expected to make new efforts to reinforce their troops on Guadalcanal.

MORAN LADIES SHOPPED HERE THIS MORNING

Mrs. Mary E. Townsend, Mrs. Alice Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cady, of Moran were shopping and transacting other business in Cisco today.

All of these persons read the Cisco Daily Press regularly and Mrs. Cady stated that an advertisement in the Press of Thursday, January 14, was the direct cause of their coming to Cisco today. It was the opinion of the whole party that when a business man failed to advertise, he lost many dollars through the years.

Mrs. Townsend is the widow of the late R. H. Townsend, who was for many years the head of Moran's leading general merchandise store.

Our strategy is wrong. We have killed maybe 100,000 Japs this first year, but meanwhile another million have been born.

2.95 OIL LINE TO RABY MILLERS ILLINOIS IS ABOUT READY JACKSONVILLE

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—With less than five miles of construction to be completed, the emergency oil line between Longview, Texas, and Norris City, Ill., will be in operation within three weeks. It was announced today by the Chicago office of petroleum administration.

Completion of the line will add 120,000 barrels to the amount of oil flowing to the eastern seaboard.

FIRE DESTROYS COFFEE. KANSAS CITY, Jan. 21.—A fire-sheathed hulk of a fire-swept building today was the monument to nine carloads of coffee. The coffee was valued at about $60,000.

CATTLE MARKET. The Fort Worth market today was steady on most cattle and hogs. However, steers and yearlings sold weak to 25c below Wednesday's levels. Hogs were mostly 15c lower than Wednesday on the butcher classes at a top of $14.75. Sows and pigs were unchanged. Bids and sales on fat lambs were steady with Wednesday's strong to 25c higher market. Other sheep sold unchanged.

BOMB JAP DESTROYER. WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The navy announced today the bombing of a Japanese destroyer off Bougainville Island in the Solomons and the shooting down of eight enemy planes in the Shortland Island area.

WAR COST TERRIFIC. SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 21.—Global war is costing the United States $220,000,000 daily or $153,000,000 every minute, according to Dudley Atherton, prominent banker. Atherton said government war expenditures up to the end of 1942 totaled $103,000,000,000 as contrasted with a peak pre-war total of $26,596,000,000.

DALLAS, Jan. 21.—Immediately after the war, the Trinity Improvement Association will ask for $15,000,000 to start work on new dams above Dallas and Fort Worth, part of the Trinity watershed project, John M. Fouts, manager of the association, said Wednesday.

NO MORE "FOREIGNERS."

"We don't hear so much about 'foreigners' in this country any more."

It was natural for a while that native Americans should have felt some resentment about the flood of immigrants who poured into this country in the first two decades of the present century. They were more or less uneducated, of course, to do the hard work in the mills, on the railroads and so on, but old-timers couldn't quite get used to it.

In many industrialized cities there were sections that seemed almost entirely alien, which was a bad idea, scattered out instead of congregating in large groups, the newcomers would have more quickly blended into the American way of life, rather than perpetuating old world beliefs and customs. Often it was hard to find people in these areas who could speak English. They had no chance to learn the language of their adopted country.

But the people with alien and difficult names began to be assimilated in the last war. Their children went to American schools and learned the same things, and came to speak the same language with the same accent as those of native ancestry. Elder Americans even learned to spell and pronounce the strange names. And it gradually came to be understood and accepted that new stock which shed its blood for American freedom and safety thereby became American itself.

Now that fact is firmly established. People of longer residence and citizenship may still struggle over the almost unpronounceable and unsellable names they see in the army and navy lists, but they know those names stand for good, loyal Americans, who will shed their blood for this free country as ungrudgingly as any group of Americans ever did, and probably with the same understanding of what it means.

NORMALITY.

This "ever normal granary" plan is a grand ideal for farmers, and worth persevering for, even though it is hard to accomplish. Farm business and farm people have always suffered too much from the irregularity of crops. It has been feast and famine. Farming has been too much of a gamble, and what it needs more than anything else is more certainty of crops and markets. But "normality" is hard to accomplish because nature—both external and human—is hard to control.

Employment is in the same fix. The men in the army, as President Roosevelt says, will be wanting "permanent employment" when they get back from the war, instead of the forced idleness that has occurred at such times. And the question arises, how is it going to be done?

Business, too, naturally wants normality in its operations, and suffers from irregular crop production or irregular industrial production. All these problems are interwoven. And whoever can combine them in a harmonious and continuous plan will accomplish as much for the modern economic system as if he were to win a great war. Indeed, if these economic problems could be solved there might not be any more great wars.

SEED-BOOKS.

Suddenly it doesn't matter much that everything is cold and windy and frozen up. "Now is the winter of our discontent turned gloriously summer." The 1943 seed catalogues are out! They pour over the country from east to west and from north to south, or both, or vice versa, as the post-office people may determine, and suddenly everything is different.

In countless rural communities and city homes people welcome these catalogues as if they were showered from heaven. They are always welcomed in mid-winter because they turn wintry thoughts to spring, with its up-burst of new life. The shut-ins can go out, mentally, and dig in the good soil and plant things regardless of climate or weather. "The mind is

W. L. White Recalls Bitter Incident As Japs Seized Bataan

By WILLIAM L. WHITE Author of "They Were Expendable"

Written for the Treasury Department in connection with the Retailers' "SAY YES" campaign to complete the nation's 100,000,000 partially filled War Stamp albums.

"Just before we got aboard General Sharp came over to tell me goodbye. He is a grand old man, all six feet of him a commanding person, and every inch a soldier as his father and grandfather were before him. He'd served two years in the ranks, was a colonel in the last war and was now a major general.

WILLIAM L. WHITE He Felt Ashamed.

"He said this was probably the last plane out and he wanted me to take a message to MacArthur. Tell him that the end here is drawing near and if help can't be sent in a few days Mindanao will fall. Of course, probably he understood this and maybe nothing can be done. But," he said, "he asks what we need to hold out till then. If we had a navy tank force—bringing up a tanker loaded with gasoline and a hundred thousand men—tell him to give me only that and we can hold here and start taking back the islands. I know probably he hasn't got them, but tell him that if he asks."

Does this make you feel as if it made me feel when I first heard it from Lieutenant Kelly? Do you feel personally ashamed, unhappy, bitter that a soldier in our army should have to say, "we could hold out if...?" Do you solemnly promise yourself that if there is any way that you, a civilian, can help to prevent this happening again, you will do it willingly and gladly?

There is a way to do your part, to make sure that every soldier shall have the equipment he needs to fight the enemy. Your part is the saving, and the saving and the paying to the limit so that he will have it in time.

Begin today. Begin in a small way perhaps, and fill those half-filled stamp books that you meant to fill long ago. Let them be a symbol to you of the soldier you have only partly equipped and whose lack may well prove fatal. But don't stop with the stamp book. Please don't.

Remember that is only a symbol. Our soldiers are expending themselves daily for you and me. They give their lives. You can do no less than loan your dollars for them.

City were weekend visitors of the latter's sister, Mrs. Dottie Earp. Mrs. A. E. McFall of Brownwood was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sherrill Thursday.

Tom Owens is having dental work done at Rising Star. The veteran of the first World War has not enjoyed good health for several years but is gaining in strength. His wife is employed at the school cafeteria in Carbon. Their poultry, garden, etc., at their home here depict thrift and cheerfulness.

The school resumed at Mountain Top last week after having been suspended for about six weeks. On November 30 the school building at that place burned down, causing the loss of many of the books, a piano and several typewriters among other valuable articles. More than 40 pupils were enrolled and most of them have returned to the school.

Mrs. L. C. Reed, pastor of this Pentecostal church is assisted in teaching by her husband, L. C. Reed; Melvin McFall; Mrs. Grace Aiken; Rising Star; Anne McFall; Iva Nell Pugh and Louella Rhodes. The newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Hogan, Jr., were honor guests at the fellowship meeting of the Pentecostal church at Mountain Top Friday evening. A program of music and singing had been arranged and the young couple were presented a basket of beautiful and useful household articles by their many friends. One of the gratuitous bundles was that of a beautiful quilt piece and quilted by the groom's aunt, Mrs. Bernice Mitchell. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt at Gorman and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Hogan, Long Branch. They were both students at the Southern Bible and Vocational College. They will live on the O. G. Phillips farm.

Jackie Wayne Bishop and Billy Frank Vernon were visitors over the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lee Paul at Brownwood. Some of the young pupils were liberal in contributing to the fund for a new building. The old tabernacle has been closed in and is now being used for a chapel and class rooms for the school.

Miss Sallie Hazel from Idalou attended the church service here Sunday evening. She had been visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Tenyson in Cisco, and was met there Sunday afternoon by the pastor and Mrs. Hazel and Glen, their brother.

Miss Genevieve Hammonds of Rising Star was a weekend guest of Miss Helen Brasher. R. F. Shaw from Brownwood was transacting business here Monday.

The ministerial band was entertained at dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Brasher and they ate supper in the G. W. Stowe home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Davis of Dooley and Dr. and Mrs. S. Harris were guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Watkins, Sunday. Others who were seated at the table of delicious country food were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Watkins and their sons Terry and Don at Romney.

Rev. Willie Hazel preached at Long Branch Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. Despite the severe cold weather there was fairly good attendance. Glen Hazel, a brother of the pastor was here from Howard Payne and sang a solo with Mrs. Willie Hazel at the piano.

Payroll Savings Plan. At least 10% of your salary every payday. Not 6%, or 7% or 8%—but at least 10%. And more, if possible.

Many Americans who ought to be buying War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan every payday, aren't. They just haven't yet STOPPED TO THINK what it means to Johnny.

Don't be like that, lady. Invest your 10% with Uncle Sam—payday after payday. You'll get a big kick out of it. Knowing that you, personally, are sending him the guns, planes, bombs, tanks—whatever it is he needs!

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO

If you are . . .

- 1. Already investing 10% of your pay in War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan—boost that 10% if you can. 2. Working in a plant where the Plan is installed, but haven't signed up yet—sign up tomorrow.

- 3. Working in a plant where the Payroll Savings Plan hasn't been installed, talk to your union head, foreman, or plant manager—and see if it can't be installed right away. The local bank will be glad to help. 4. Unable to get in on the Payroll Savings Plan for any reason, go to your local bank, or wherever bonds are sold. They will be glad to help you start a plan of your own.

GOOD INTEREST SHOWN AT CONFERENCE.

The Baptist training union conference held with the First Baptist church yesterday was well attended and presented a good program. Delegates attended from the three counties comprising this association—Eastland, Shackelford and Stephens.

The conference was led by a team composed of Dr. Allen W. Graves, Nashville; Rev. J. H. Littleton, district missionary, Abilene district; Rev. L. L. Trott, Rotan; Miss Jaxie Short, Abilene.

This conference, being the third of a series of four such annual conferences, was intended to bring the best leaders available to people not able to attend the more distant conventions. This same team moved on to Clyde for the same program Thursday and will conclude the week in Abilene on Friday.

GIRL ESCAPED AFL HAS PLAN CATTLE STAMPED TO EXTEND SOPEDE; 7 DIE CIAL SECURITY

MISSION, Jan. 21.—A 9-year-old girl riding horesback to help her father and a cowboy round up a herd of about 100 cattle escaped without injury when an Army plane crashed, exploded and burned near here early this week, stampeding the cattle in a mad dash in which the girl and her mount were caught.

But when Ruth Ann McIver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McIver of McAllen, drew her frightened horse to a halt after the two men had controlled the cattle by rounding them up in a fence corner, she sobbed: "Daddy, daddy. The men in the plane, are they dead?"

All seven men aboard the bomber, en route from Moore Field to the San Antonio Air Depot, were killed instantly.

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 21.— Congress will be asked by the American Federation of Labor to pass two-birds-with-one-stone legislation which would extend social security protection to all workers and at the same time help finance the war. The AFL executive council Wednesday instructed officers to place before Senators and Representatives at once a five-point program to help complete labor's objective of safeguarding the "working masses of our people and their families from the specter of poverty and destitution." "This broad program will have to be financed by higher taxes, both from employes and employers," said the council in a resolution. The new plan would replace the 10 per cent victory tax.

UNCLE SAM PROTECTS

Yes, the broad wings of Uncle Sam spread to protect the war ships upon the seas and the far flung flights of his war planes of the air. The American eagle is a war-like bird, once you get him angry. And just now that usually placid EMBLEM OF POWER is thoroughly aroused at the wanton murders of citizens of peaceful nations... their women and children, and the visitation of starvation upon them in order to break their spirits and to have food for their own sword driven armies... armies marshalled in Germany, Italy and Japan.

The treachery of Japan has removed her from the pale of civilized nations of honor; the brutality of Germany is forever a disgrace upon the leadership of that nation, while the back stabbing Italy makes cowards of her leaders in the minds of every brave, honorable human being on the face of the earth.

We, in Texas, Cisco and Eastland county, have a part in keeping those wings spread to protect the liberties of the world... to see that justice reigns and that people have the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of human happiness. We secure this part by buying war bonds to help win this war and feed the starving nations who have no other hope than the power YOUR bonds and MY bonds carry to them. The destiny of the world rests upon how well we do this job that Uncle Sam says is OURS.

HUNGARY PANICKY.

LONDON, Jan. 21.— Turkish dispatches said today that a wave of panic had swept Hungary as the result of official revelations of frightful Hungarian losses on the Russian front and the cancellation of army leaves which was apparently taken as warning that more thousands are to be sacrificed.

It is easy now to tell which is the mistress and which the servant. The polite and humble one is the mistress.
